5 HUNGARIANS CHARGE INTIMIDATION BY POLICE, REPUDIATE CONFESSIONS

Money-Deal Admissions Wrung From Them, Court Told

Budapest, March 1 (AP)—Five defendants today repudiated pretrial confessions that they engaged in illegal money deals in a conspiracy with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

They charged that police intimidation had wrung the confessions from them. Another defendant among the fourteen accused also withdrew a part of his confession.

The repudiations came shortly before the prosecution completed its case against the fourteen. Tomorrow their counsel will have the traditional "last words" of summation. The court then will retire to arrive at a verdict.

"Political Conspiracy" Charged

The fourteen are accused of "political conspiracy" and illegal financial deals with the Catholic Primate of Hungary. Cardinal Mindszenty and six co-defendants were convicted three weeks ago of plotting to overthrow Hungary's Communist-led Government.

Lajos Hegyvari, prosecutor, in a closing statement today, asked that all fourteen receive "sentences which serve the interests of the people." He said they "deserve exemplary punishment."

Zsigmond Deutsch, a broker, started the series of repudiations of confessions. The admissions had been made in the course of police questioning after the arrests.

Kept Alone In Cell

Deutsch, speaking of his "broken nerves," said he was only partly guilty of the charges he had admitted. He testified that he had been kept alone in a cell for a month before he named four persons as his business partners in currency trading.

Deutsch said he had chosen "at random" the names of Mrs. Jozsef Forgacs, Ede Dukesz, Viktor Kukesz and Pal Csonka, when he identified them to the police as his partners. All four of those he named followed him to the dock and withdrew their confessions, each charging police intimidation.

Banker Charges Intimidation

A former banker, Gyorgy Nagy, also withdrew his confession. He denied the charges emphatically and also spoke of intimidation.

Prosecutor Hegyvari told the court Nagy had "lost his right to mercy" by his conduct in court.

Two other defendants, banker Deszo Tolnai and broker Karoly Foldes, testified they were guilty of illegal financial deals with Cardinal Mindszenty's court.

Three Catholic priests and the former secretary of Duke Paul Esterhazy pleaded guilty yesterday, when the trial opened. Esterhazy, once one of Europe's richest men, was convicted Feb. 8 along with the cardinal. His wife, the former ballet star, Melinda Ottrubay, and Judge Vilmos Olthys, before whom the cardinal and her husband were tried, attended today's trial session as spectators.

The final witness in the trial was an expert on the staff of the National Bank. He swore that anyone could bring foreign currency to the bank without being questioned as to where he got it.

Prosecutor Hegyvari told the court this trial has proved that "Mindszenty and his partners committed great crimes which aimed at the destruction of the Hungarian economy and in the establishment of a new political condition."

"Little persons are also needed in a great conspiracy," he said. "They represent the links of a chain, but they are dangerous criminals who deserve exemplary punishment."

He said most of the defendants were bankers, brokers and merchants, "the sort of people who extort from the economic life of the country."

SIX ALLEGED MINDSZENTY AIDS RECANT

Five Withdraw Confessions Completely and Charge Police Intimidation.

ONE CITES 'BROKEN NERVES'

All Accused of Illegal Dealing in Currency and Plotting With the Cardinal.

MAR 1 1949

Budapest, March 1 (A. P.).—Five of the fourteen men on trial charged with black market dealings for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty withdrew today their pretrial confessions. They charged instead that the police had "intimidated" them.

A sixth defendant also withdrew part of his confession.

The men were accused of illegal dealings in foreign currency and of "political conspiracy" with the Cardinal and others already sentenced.

Cardinal Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment twenty-one days ago on charges of treason, seeking to overthrow the Communist-controlled government of Hungary in favor of the Hapsburg monarchy and with illegal speculation in American dollars.

Broker Starts Withdrawals.

The original confessions were made during the usual questioning by the police after the arrests, Zsigmond Deutsch, a broker, started the chain of withdrawals of the confessions.

He pleaded he was only partially guilty of the charges, and referred to his "broken nerves." He declared he had named four persons as his business partners in currency trading after he had been kept alone in a cell for a month. He named them as Mrs. Jozsef Forgacs, Ede Dukesz, Vikton Kukesz and Paul Csonka.

Deutsch said he referred to these names "at random." He admitted he had changed dollars, but declared he never had had any business with those defendants.

Each of the four defendants he named then went to the prisoner's stand. Each withdrew the confession and charges police intimidation.

A fifth defendant, Gyorgy Nagy, a former employee of Hungary's National Bank, followed. He withdrew his previous confession, denied with emphasis the charges against him and also referred to the alleged "intimidation."

Followed Banker and Broker.

The defendants had followed on the stand Deszo Tolnai, a banker, and Karoly Foldes, a broker. Both had acknowledged they were guilty of trading illegally in money with the court to the prince primate, Cardinal Mindszenty.

The defendants were charged with having been involved in banking dealings whereby the Cardinal and six co-defendants, who were convicted on February 8, obtained a stock of dollars and other foreign currencies.

Prosecutor Lajos Hegyvari summed up, saying that the current trial proved that "Mindszenty and his partners committed great crimes which aimed at the destruction of the Hungarian economy and in the establishment of a new political condition."

"Little persons are also needed in a great conspiracy," he added. "They represent the links of a chain, but they are dangerous criminals who deserve exemplary punishment."

'Lost Right to Mercy.'

The prosecutor said the majority of the defendants were bankers, brokers and merchants, "the sort of people who extort from the economic life of the country." He said that Nagy, by his behavior, "lost his right for mercy."

Hegyvari asked for "sentences which serve the interests of the people."

The testimony of an expert of the National Bank ended the trial proceedings. He swore that any one could bring foreign currency to the National Bank without being questioned where he got it.

The defense lawyers begin their pleas tomorrow morning. Each defendant then will be allowed to deliver a "last words" statement.

Three Roman Catholic priests and the former secretary of Prince Paul Esterhazy pleaded guilty at yesterday's opening session. Esterhazy, tried long with the Cardinal, was sentenced to fifteen years in prison. His wife, the former ballet star, Melinda Ottrubay, and the Mindszenty case trial Judge Vilmos Olti, were among the spectators today.

'Treason' Talks Seen As New Red Tactics

London, March 1 (AP)—Communist declarations in western Europe that an invading Soviet army would be welcomed and assisted set a new pace in the cold war today.

Communist leaders in France, Italy, Germany and Britain in the past week have spoken along the same line, in marked reversal of the conciliatory tones of the recent so-called peace offensive.

Americans here believe a master's voice was speaking and that the new course indicates of a more vigorous Communist policy. British said the statements obviously "were inspired by a central directive."

Briton Speaks Up

The latest Communist threat is from Harry Pollitt, general secretary of the British Communist party. He said British Communists will try to sabotage any "imperialist aggressive war" against Russia. In event of such a war, he added, British Communists would organize strikes and "councils of action."

Last Tuesday Maurice Thorez, secretary general of the French Communist party, suggested that if the French people, "in spite of their wish," find themselves at war with Russia and the Soviet Army "had to chase the enemy onto our soil," the Communists would welcome the invaders.

Saturday, Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's No. 1 Communist, said the Italian people would have the duty "to aid in the most efficient way" any Russian army which might pursue an aggressor into Italy.

German Crowd Exhorted

Yesterday, Pietro Nenni, pro-Communist Socialist leader in Italy, told a crowd in Venice to refuse to fight for the present Government in a war between Russia and the United States. Socialists and Communists, he said, should form together an "advance guard of the liberating armies."

At a rally of Berlin workers yesterday, Otto Grotewohl, cochairman of the Communist-dominated Socialist Unity party of East Germany, declared "no German hand would be lent" to Western powers in any "imperialist war."

Won't Be Cannon Fodder

"We Germans do not intend to become cannon fodder for dreams of world domination by imperialist states," he said. He concluded with the exclamation, "Hands off the Sovient Union!"

The Communist press of Germany linked these statements in a call for a new maneuver for "peace." The struggle for peace said the Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung, has entered a new phase

"So far the friends of peace have contented themselves with unmasking the warmongers," said the paper. "Now Togliatti in Italy and Thorez in France have gone on the offensive, a courageous successful step."

Seen As Pact Answer

Many observers saw in the new line a Communist answer to the projected North Atlantic pact—an effort to knit together the national Communist parties of western Europe to undermine their own governments. It also may be aimed at raising American doubts of the solidarity of an alliance containing Communist elements.

A Briton observed: "We expect a turn like this about every month or six weeks. For some time now we will be hearing provocative declarations, intended to make non-Communist countries uneasy about the reliability of their own peoples."

Treason Is Considered

Naturally the Communist position raises the question of treason. Togliatti's defense was that any future war against Russia will be an ideological and class war, not a national war, and, therefore, all those who favor "social progress" must fight on one side.

Togliatti further justified himself by declaring all aggressors ought to be punished.

That the Soviet Union would be a "victim of aggression," regardless of the circumstances, was made clear by Thorez. He said "by definition socialist countries could not follow a policy of aggression."

These Communist arguments have not prevented a series of arrests in France, a promise of "firm" action in Italy and warnings from non-Communist politicians in Germany against "acts of treason."

ATTLEE WOULD CALL QUITS ON DOLLAR DEBATE

British Prime Minister Smarts Under Queries by Conservatives.

MAR 1 1949

MAYHEW'S SCALP DEMANDED

U. S. Senate Committee, Kept Idle by Filibuster, Defers Decision on Recovery Bill.

London, March 1 (A. P.).—Prime Minister Attlee said today the trans-Atlantic debate over whether Britain still needs dollar aid has gone far enough. He pleaded with Parliament to drop the subject "in the national interest."

Attlee was replying to Conservative members in the House of Commons who asked about a statement by Christopher Mayhew, Foreign Under-Secretary. Mayhew's statement in a United Nations speech was that Britain's economic recovery was virtually complete. It caused a flurry in the United States Senate debate on second year Marshall Plan allocations.

Mayhew told the U. N. Economic and Social Council on Feb. 23 that the Labor Government is no longer worried about recovery and is ready to concentrate on social experiments.

Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, formally repudiated in a public statement Saturday any inference that Britain's economy can get along without further funds from the European Recovery Program.

In answer to a question from Conservative Fitzroy MacLean, Attlee said today Cripps's statement represented the Government's view.

Pray Cease, Says Attlee.

"Every now and again statements are made which, taken quite apart from their context, may cause difficulties. Over a period of years I have known them made by Ministers on all sides of the House. It would not be wise, I suggest, to discuss the matter further."

Conservative Oliver Stanley wanted to know what action Attlee was going to take "to see that the future of the British people is not jeopardized by irresponsible statements by ministers who have nothing to do with this matter at all."

Attlee replied: "As this matter has now been dealt with I deprecate further questions in the national interest."

A resolution demanding Mayhew's immediate removal from office was adopted today by the Birmingham Association for Individual Freedom.

ATTLEE CURBS DOLLAR TALK

Also Announces He Will Visit Zone In Germany

London, March 1 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee shut the door today on the embarrassing debate over whether Britain still needs dollar aid, and announced he will visit Germany for four days, starting Friday.

Britain, he told Parliament, still needs American help.

An official announcement said Attlee will visit Germany "for the purpose of inspecting the British arrangements for the Berlin airlift."

For First-Hand Study

An official source, however, said British national and international policies are so affected by German affairs that the Prime Minister wants a first-hand impression of conditions.

Attlee appealed to Parliament today "in the national interest" to drop the whole subject of Britain's need for dollar aid from America. Tersely, he said the need still exists.

Attlee went before Parliament today and promptly had the subject tossed into his lap by questioners. He replied that a statement Saturday by Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, expressed the Government's view.

"Every now and again, statements are made which, when taken quite apart from their context, may cause difficulties," he said.

Asks Assurance To People

Oliver Stanley, a Conservative M.P., demanded to know what Attlee is going to do to assure that the British people are not jeopardized "by irresponsible statements by ministers who have nothing to do with this matter at all."

"As this matter has now been dealt with, I deprecate further questions in the national interests," was Attlee's chilly reply.

The Birmingham Association for Individual Freedom had demanded removal of Christopher P. Mayhew, whose speech last week started the controversy. But Mayhew found a defender in the Liberal newspaper News Chronicle. It suggested that Mayhew had been "stung into understandable defense of his country" by Russian needling and statements published in the United States asking whether America wants to "follow Britain down the economic skids."

Trade Treaty Talks Start

Attlee's German trip comes at a time when British, French and United States officials are discussing plans for a six-month $55,000,000 trade treaty between Britain and the western occupation zones in Germany. The talks started here today. Trade between Britain and the three western zones in the first eleven months of 1948 was valued officially at about $82,000,000, a volume which British officials want to increase.

Lewis W. Douglas, United States Ambassador, and W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the European Co-operation Administration, had a two-hour discussion of European Recovery Program problems with Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, here today. American informants said they gave particular attention to the part West Germany is to play in the program this year.

Russia Told U.S. Bars 'Progressive-Minded'

London, March 1 (AP)—Red Star, Soviet Army newspaper, said today the United States bars "progressive minded people" from work on atomic weapons and rockets.

In an article quoted here by Tass, official Soviet news agency, the newspaper also said "progressive officers and men classified as 'disloyal' are being dismissed from the United States Army."

"Whereas, scientists are being discharged from Oak Ridge for reading progressive journals or acquaintance with Negroes, the 'security service' takes no notice of the fact that self-confessed Fascists are working in the 'atomic' system.

"Purging the American armed forces and special bodies and institutions of 'disloyal' elements, the warmongers hope thus to prevent information on activity in connection with the preparation of a new world conflict from penetrating into the progressive press."

ARMS SUPPLY FRANCE'S AIM UNDER TREATY

MART 1949

Schuman Tells Parliament Of Approval If Pact Is Backed Up

Paris, March 1 (AP)—Robert Schuman, Foreign Minister, said tonight France will accept the North Atlantic treaty as long as it is backed up by American arms shipments to Europe.

In a speech to the upper house of the French Parliament, Schuman said the mere signing and sealing of accords on paper cannot assure Europe's security.

He said that ever since 1918 France has sought United States adherence to a mutual assistance alliance. But, he added, France realizes guarantees of assistance cannot be absolute. The intervention of Parliament is necessary in democratic countries."

French Concern Answered

Schuman said two or three of the projected treaty's ten articles had not yet been put in final form but that all in all the treaty "answers the concern of France to get increased guarantees of security by aid in case of aggression."

While Schuman spoke in favor of the treaty, the Communists attacked it. Maurice Thorez, Communist party secretary-general, released a statement calling the pact "a dangerous step on the road that threatens to lead to the third world war."

Schuman also spoke on Germany. He said he favored a unified but federated Germany and criticized the proposed constitution for western Germany being drafted at Bonn as giving too much power to a central authority.

Police In France Hunt 2 Spy Rings

Paris, March 1 (AP)—The Interior Ministry said today the security police are hunting two spy rings in France—one civilian and the other military.

Both probably have connections in other countries of Western Europe, the ministry added. There was no indication France had sought outside help in fighting Communist espionage.

The ministry's statement was the only new information disclosed in the hunt for spies which has already resulted in the arrest of six Communists—a major and captain in the French Army, three newsmen and an aircraft draftsman.

The police questioned two more witnesses but refused to say who they were.

Trial Of 7 Swiss Reds On Theft Charges On

Winterthur, Switzerland, March 1 (AP)—Communist Member of Parliament Edgar Woog and six other Communist sympathizers went on trial here today on charges of subsidizing a Communist newspaper with the proceeds of a collection for Polish and Yugoslav war orphans.

Woog and his fellow accused—including three women—were alleged to have misappropriated most of 83,000 Swiss francs ($19,400) collected in their war-orphan campaign in Switzerland between 1945 and 1947. Only 35,000 francs ($8,200) was forwarded to the war orphans, the prosecution alleged.

The remainder of the proceeds, according to the indictment, was used for various other purposes, including a loan to help the Swiss Communist paper Vorwaerts out of financial difficulties.

Russia Accuses Sweden Of Persecuting Balts

STOCKHOLM, March 1—(AP) The Swedish foreign office said tonight it had received a note from the Soviet Union charging Sweden with persecuting Soviet citizens of Esthonian, Latvian and Lithuanian nationality.

Those three Baltic nations have been incorporated into the Soviet Union.

The Soviet note accused Swedish authorities of persecuting Balts who have expressed a wish to return to their homeland. The note said Swedish police subjected them to illegal examinations and investigated their homes in Sweden.

(Many Balts have fled from Esthonia, Latvia and Lithuania in order to escape from Communist rule. Some have come to the United States, which has not recognized the Russian action in annexing the three countries.)

Fate Of Benelux, Indonesia Linked

The Hague, March 1 (AP)—A Government spokesman said tonight the fate of the Benelux economic union may hinge on the success or failure of the Dutch to settle the conflict in Indonesia.

Members of the union are Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. They will meet here March 10 to chart the future course of the three-nation economic alliance.

Two days later the Dutch will hold a round-table conference here to arrange for giving Indonesia its sovereignty.

Dutch Premier Willem Drees and D. U. Strikker, Foreign Minister, were reported to have obtained assurances of Belgian support for Dutch Indonesian policy in a conference with Premier Paul-Henri Spaak in Brussels Sunday.

Clay Considering Starving Out Red Mission

MAR 1 1949

Frankfurt, Germany, March 1 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay indicated tonight than an eight-man Russian mission, which so far has defied an order to leave the United States zone of Germany, would be starved out if it did not leave today.

The United States military governor indicated the Army would not use force to compel the Russian repatriation mission to leave Frankfurt. He said the problem now is that of Brig. Gen. Robinson E. Duff, the Frankfurt military post commander.

"Escort" Hinted Earlier

"The Russians are no longer entitled to facilities here and I feel confident that they will be denied such access," Clay said.

Earlier the Army had said the mission had until midnight to leave the zone or it would "probably be escorted to the border."

Clay said if he were in General

Duff's position he probably would cut the telephone line to the Russian mission, cut off their water and food supply and prevent them from "having access to facilities."

The military governor regards the Frankfurt sidewalks as "a facility."

"As long as they don't want to get out of the house," Clay said, "we are in no hurry about getting them out."

Announcement Tomorrow

Col. Sterling Wood, Frankfurt military police chief, acting for General Duff, advised newsmen to see him at 8 A.M. (2 A.M., E.S.T.) tomorrow.

"I hope the Russians will have sense enough to pull out tonight," Wood said, "in which case they will be on their own completely.

"I am going to have breakfast at my normal time tomorrow and if they are still there afterward, I am afraid some facilities will no longer be accorded them."

Wood said as far as he knew all eight members of the Soviet mission—four officers and four enlisted men—were in the big yellow house in the middle of Frankfurt's American community. The mission is headed by Col. Vasily L. Argoonov.

Await Orders, They Say

Wood said an American captain had been to the mission at 4.40 P.M. (10.40 A.M., E.S.T.) and that the Russians told him they were sent here by their Government and they intended to stay until they had orders from their superiors in Berlin to leave.

"If their orders come at 11 o'clock tonight," Wood said, "I guess they will high tail it out of here right away."

tary commander, indicated his policy would be to drive them out by depriving them of food, water and telephone service.

Gen. Clay issued his order Feb. 16 for closing the mission March 1, saying the number of displaced persons who volunteered to return to Russia in the past year was negligible and that the accredited Soviet Military mission could handle the work.

The Soviet government denounced the move last week as a violation of Yalta and Tehran agreements and demanded that the order be rescinded.

Gen. Clay told newsmen yesterday:

"As long as they don't want to get out of the house, we are in no hurry about getting them out."

But he indicated the U. S. Army would make it difficult for them.

He said the problem is now in the lap of Brig. Gen. Robinson E. Duff, Frankfurt military post commander.

"The Russians are no longer entitled to facilities here," Clay said, "and I feel confident that they will be denied such access."

Gen. Clay said that if he were Gen. Duff he probably would cut the telephone line to the mission, cut off the water and food supplies and prevent the Russians from "having access to facilities."

He said he regarded even Frankfurt sidewalks as "a facility."

Col. Sterling Wood, Frankfurt military police chief, is acting for Gen. Duff.

"I hope the Russians will have enough sense to pull out tonight, in which case they'll be on their own completely," Col. Wood said yesterday. "I am going to have breakfast at my normal time tomorrow and, if they are still there afterward, I am afraid some facilities will no longer be accorded to them."

Col. Wood said an American captain went to the mission yesterday afternoon and the Russians told him they were sent to Frankfurt by their government and intended to stay until they had a Soviet command from Berlin to leave.

will meet again tomorrow and see if we can confirm it.

"If so, we will meet the Germans later in the day."

Clay's announcement meant that the western military governors had taken a big step forward after two long meetings today in bringing a government for Western Germany nearer to realization.

RUSSIANS REFUSE TO QUIT U.S. ZONE

Eight Soldiers of Repatriation Mission Ignore Deadline Set by Army

FRANKFURT, Germany, (Wednesday), March 2—(AP) Eight soldiers of the Russian Repatriation Mission ignored the midnight eviction deadline set by the U. S. Army and remained in their billet.

All lights in the building were ablaze as the deadline passed. Members of the mission could be seen eating and talking.

There was no immediate attempt to eject them forcibly.

The Russians are headed by Col. Vasily L. Argoonov. They said they are awaiting Soviet orders from Berlin.

ALLIES NEAR ACCORD ON GERMAN REGIME

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 1.—(AP) The U. S., British and French military governors are near agreement on their attitude toward a German-drafted constitution for a West German government, Gen. Lucius D. Clay said tonight.

"We have reached a wide field of agreement, perhaps a full field of agreement," the U. S. military governor told newsmen.

"The exact wording of the agreement is now being worked on. We

U.S. Sentences Five Europeans As Spies

MAR 1 1949

Munich, Germany, March 1 (AP)—A United States military commission today convicted five Europeans of espionage and sentenced them to prison terms ranging from 12 to 30 years.

The five, three Germans and two Poles, were convicted of obtaining information for a foreign power.

Top Man Gets 30 Years

Sentenced were:

THEODORE SZENDIELORZ, 33-year-old Pole and alleged ringleader of the gang, 30 years.

ROMAN KNOPP, 36, a German and a former railroad employé, 20 years.

RUDOLF BADURA, 31, a Pole, 12 years.

GEORGE KOLODZIEZ, 39-year-old German, 12 years.

HELMUT SCHOFTOCK, 22-year-old German, 12 years.

Court Deliberates 2 Hours

The judgments were announced by Brig. Gen. John L. McKee, after the eight-member commission had deliberated two hours.

The defendants showed little emotion. Szendielorz turned to Badura and grinned.

Place of confinement was not announced.

Final testimony was given when Wilhelm Ruml, Munich Police Department expert, linked handwriting in the five confessions given by the accused to each individual.

Second Of 5 Spy Trials

Szendielorz was charged with having organized the four others as a gang which collected military information of the forces in the United States zone and passed it on to him.

In his confession, the stocky Pole said he was working for the Polish Secret Service.

It was the second of five scheduled spy trials in Munich. The next is slated to begin tomorrow morning with eight defendants.

Army Sentences Five to Prison For Spying in U.S. German Zone

MUNICH, Germany, March 1—(AP) Five Europeans, headed by a Pole who said he worked for Poland's secret service, were convicted of espionage and sentenced to prison by a U. S. military commission today. The terms ranged from 12 to 30 years.

The stocky ringleader, Theodore Szendielorz, 33, grinned when the sentences were read. He drew 30 years for spying on behalf of a "foreign power." No foreign power besides Poland was mentioned in the trial.

Little emotion was shown by the others: Roman Knopp, 36, a German railway worker, 20 years; Rudolf Badura, 31, a Pole, 12 years; Georg Kolodziez, 39, a German, 12 years; Helmut Schoftock, 22, a German, 12 years.

Szendielorz was charged with having organized the four others as a gang which collected for him information on military and industrial matters in the U. S. occupation zone of Germany.

The trial was one of a series for 20 persons rounded up by the American army last fall.

The commission, headed by Brig. Gen. John L. McKee, completed the first case Feb. 17. The single defendant in that trial was a former waiter on the Orient express, Czech-speaking Frontisek Klecka, 31. He was sentenced to 20 years.

The third trial, with eight defendants, is scheduled to open tomorrow. The eight include three women.

The prison at which sentences will be served was not identified by the commission.

Final testimony in trial No. 2 was given by Wilhelm Ruml, a handwriting expert of the Munich police department, on purported confessions made by each of the five to American criminal investigation agents. Ruml linked the statements to the individual defendants.

Szendielorz testified he had been a spy in Germany for the Polish government before the war. He said he was arrested by the Gestapo in 1937 and sentenced to a life term. He said he had to cooperate with the Polish secret service upon his release after the war "or I would be dead or in Siberia now."

Appeal To Free Mrs. Ybarbo Made Before U.S. Court

MAR 1 1949

Wiesbaden, Germany, March 1 (AP)—Defense counsel for Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, sentenced to twenty years on a charge of killing her soldier husband, told a United States Military Government appeals court today she should be freed.

Attorney Stanley Gaines held that a lower Military Government court, which sentenced the young Massachusetts woman under both Military Government and German law, had no authority to try her.

He said dependents of military personnel should be tried by courts-martial instead of by military commissions set up by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, military governor.

The lower court found that Mrs. Ybarbo shot her husband, Sergt. John Ybarbo, of Goliad, Texas, during a quarrel in their home after a party last September.

Gaines contended that German law is inapplicable to persons subject to United States military law. He said the United States military establishment is exempted from the jurisdiction of both the court and the law of the enemy.

The case gives the appeals court its first chance to rule on whether Military Government courts can try American civilians under German law and whether Military Government courts instead of army courts-martial can try American civilians in Germany.

Red Berlin 'Peace' Feelers Reported

Berlin, March 1 (AP)—The British-licensed newspaper Social Democrat said today that the Russians have put out new "peace" feelers on the Berlin question.

The paper quoted well-informed sources as reporting that members of the Polish Military Mission here acted as intermediaries about two weeks ago.

The Social Democrat did not further identify its sources, and its description of the Russian offer was vague. The paper said the Russians had offered to lift the blockade of Berlin if the Western powers would enter into negotiations on introduction of a single currency for Berlin.

The Social Democrat said the offer was rejected by the Western powers "since they had agreed not to resume any negotiations with the Russians until their own currency was introduced in the Western sectors" as the sole currency. At present, the Western sectors use both East and West marks.

Soviet Invites Complaints

Berlin, March 1 (AP)—The Russians invited Berliners today to visit Soviet headquarters with any complaints or problems.

ADN, the Soviet-licensed news agency, carried the announcement that special hours would be set aside each day except Saturday and Sunday to hear such complaints.

Duke Carl Eduard Sentenced

Ansbach, Germany, March 1 (AP). A German denazification court today fined Duke Carl Eduard of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, former German Red Cross president, $4,500. He also was sentenced to six months' special labor as a "minor Nazi offender."

'Dud' Kills 3 U. S. Soldiers

STUTTGART, Germany, March 1 (AP).—The United States Army Provost Marshal announced today that Lieutenant Richard L. Yates, of Davenport, Iowa, was killed Friday in the explosion of a "dud" shell at the Vilseck training grounds. The blast killed two other Americans—Private Purvius Brandt, of Monee, Ill., and Sergeant William E. Gilles, of South Fork, Pa.

Eastern Europe Defense Chiefs Parley Reported

Warsaw, Poland, March 1 (AP)—Usually reliable sources today said the defense chiefs of the eastern European countries would be called to a conference in Hungary about March 15. The city of Debrecen was reported a likely site.

The generals are expected to review military preparedness of various countries which are linked in a network of mutual-assistance treaties.

[The eastern European countries under Communist domination and in the Russian sphere are Poland, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and Albania. The dispatch made no mention of Yugoslavia, which is ruled by Communists which currently are out of favor with Moscow.]

'Reds' May Get Cabinet Jobs In Finland

Helsinki, Finland, March 1 (AP)—Negotiations are expected to get under way next week for the inclusion of Communists in the Finnish Cabinet, a source close to the Government said yesterday.

Premier Karl August Fagerholm's Cabinet "may not be the best Government to negotiate with Russia" if the Soviet Union invokes the Soviet-Finnish friendship pact, said a spokesman for the ruling Social Democratic party.

This pact, signed last year, gives Russia the right to ask new bases in Finnish soil if she feels her security is threatened.

"Rather Successful"

Finnish non-Communist parties fear that the proposed inclusion of Norway and possibly Denmark in the American-led North Atlantic Pact may induce Russia to this action.

The spokesman said, "We have done our utmost to stop the Communists everywhere and have been rather successful, so maybe the Russians do not like us for this."

He pointed out that the Fagerholm Government had dissolved the Communist-led Finnish political police, called the Stapo.

Difficulties Cited

This spokesman said a coalition Cabinet to meet such an emergency would include Socialists, Communists (the People's Democratic party), Agrarians and a representative of the Finnish People's party. The two Finnish Rightist parties would be left out.

He said, however, that there would be difficulties in satisfying Communist demands for key Cabinet posts. "My party has always opposed Communist claims for such posts as the Ministry of the Interior and will always do so." The Ministry of the Interior controls the police. It was held by the Communists from the end of World War II until Fagerholm's Cabinet took over last year.

The spokesman said that, barring any sudden Russian demands, the formation of a new Cabinet would be a long drawn out affair.

Last week the Fagerholm Cabinet survived a vote of confidence by two votes—97 to 95.

Guerrilla Losses Heavy, Greeks Say

Athens, March 1 (AP)—The Greek general staff said today Government troops had inflicted heavy losses on a band of guerrillas they attacked on a highway in south central Greece.

The general staff said 210 guerrillas were captured or gave themselves up, and that many were killed. National army losses were said to be only two wounded.

The communiqué said a large quantity of supplies and arms had been captured and that the air force was pursuing the rebel band.

15th Churchman 'Confesses'

Sofia, March 1 (AP)—The last of the fifteen Protestant churchmen on trial for treason went to the stand today and tearfully confessed.

The state then began to call witnesses. The clergymen are accused of spying and black-market dealings and treason.

Only one of the fifteen deviated from a full confession. Ladin Popov, 36, a Pentecostal pastor, denied he had been a spy, but said in a quaking voice that he was guilty of illegal currency dealings.

Mitko Dimitrov, a Baptist pastor, accused one of the leading defendants, Nikola Naumov, Baptist supervisor in Bulgaria, of saying from the pulpit that "Stalin is a bloodsucker."

Angel Dinez, 40, a Pentecostal preacher, accused his superiors in the church of being leaders of the alleged spy ring. He ended his testimony with the standard utterance of repentance. He asserted he was converted to what he called the rightness of communism during the three months he has been imprisoned by the secret police.

"I want to thank the security police for showing me for the first time the human Communist," Dinez said.

Son-In-Law Named

Alexander Zahariev, 73, a Methodist, was the last and oldest of those on trial. He accused his son-in-law, Yanko Ivanov, the Methodist supervisor, of duping him into collecting spy data. The old man said he didn't know the information was wanted by foreign interests, as the Communist state alleges. He said he never was paid for his work and concluded his confession in a burst of tears and sobs.

All defendants have followed the routine of making long confessions, pledging full repentance and begging a chance to redeem themselves by working for the Government.

Audience Smiling

Popov became so emotional in his pleas of penitence, his voice rose and shook so much, that there were some open smiles in the Bulgarian court audience. He concluded "there is only one road to travel and that is with Comrade Georgi Dimitrov [Communist Premier of Bulgaria]."

Mitko Dimitrov centered his fire on his Baptist chief, Naumov. He claimed that Naumov, in addition to calling Stalin a "bloodsucker" in a 1947 sermon, had quoted from the Bible in predicting the West would smash the "red beast of communism" in a new war.

$1,200 Converted

Dimitrov said Naumov's text came from the Book of Revelations.

He also claimed to have received $1,200 from a Peter Deneka, of Chicago, said to be a leader in Baptist missions. He confessed converting the money in the black market.

[In Chicago, a spokesman for the North American Baptist headquarters said, "There never has been a person named Peter Deneka associated with us." Frank H. Woyke, general secretary, said, "This appears to be another fabrication of the Bulgarian Communists. There never has been a Peter Deneka nor is there now a person of that name with our group."]

MORE BULGAR TRIALS LIKELY

Prosecution Testimony Begins In Case Of 15 Clerics

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 1 (AP)—Prosecution testimony opened today in the spy trial of fifteen Protestant ministers, amid indications more such trials are planned.

The last of the churchmen went to the witness stand in Sofia District Court and tearfully confessed. All are accused of treason, spying for the United States and Britain and illegal dealings in foreign money.

Then the first of 53 witnesses for the Communist-led Bulgarian Government were called.

One Denies Being Spy

Only one of the fifteen ministers—Baptist, Pentecostal, Methodist and Congregational—deviated from a full confession. He was the Rev. Ladin Popov, 36, a Pentecostal pastor. He denied he had been a spy, but said in a quaking voice that he was guilty of illegal currency dealings. He said he had converted dollars obtained from the United States.

"There is only one road to travel and that is with Comrade Georgi Dimitrov (Communist Premier)," the Rev. Mr. Popov said.

The others, in the trial started Friday, admitted all charges.

They gave long public confessions, usually speedily, and sometimes with tears and sobs. The original confessions were obtained while the ministers were held prisoners for three months by the security police. The ministers testified they were treated well.

Other Pastors Named

The prospect of further trials against anti-Communist clergymen was seen in the fact that testimony produced in this hearing has mentioned the names of numerous Protestant pastors and laymen who were not listed in the original indictment. The assumption was that this testimony made them also subject to arrest.

The Bulgarian Parliament has before it a proposed law whose clear intent is to cut the ties of the nation's Protestants and Roman Catholics with church groups abroad. Trial testimony has been directed against the World Council of Churches, which Bulgarians call "the Protestant Vatican."

"Stalin Is A Bloodsucker"

Several of the prosecution witnesses, including a pastor, testified they had supplied espionage information to the accused clergymen. They said this information ranged from Russian troop movements to statistics on Bulgarian crops and general political and economic data.

The Rev. Nikola Naumov, Baptist Church supervisor who is one of the leading defendants, was said by another defendant today to have declared from a pulpit in 1947:

"Stalin is a bloodsucker."

The testimony came from the Rev. Mitko Dimitrov, 39. He said the Rev. Mr. Naumov also quoted from the Book of Revelations and predicted the West would smash the "red beast of communism" in a new war.

Light Dawned In Jail

The Rev. Mr. Dimitrov said he had received $1,200 in American money from Peter Deneka, of Chicago, whom he identified as a leader in Baptist Church missions, and converted the money in the black market.

[A spokesman for the North American Baptist headquarters in Chicago said no person named Deneka had ever been associated with the headquarters.]

The Rev. Zdravko Bezlov, 28, a Methodist, said the light of communism dawned on him while he was in jail. He said he had an opportunity there to read from 10,000 to 12,000 pages of "progressive literature."

Blames Son-In-Law

"Now I see things in a clearer light," he said.

The Rev. Alexander Zahariev, 73, a Methodist and oldest of the defendants, wept as he accused a son-in-law of duping him into collecting spy data. The son-in-law is the Rev. Yanko Ivanov, the Methodist Church supervisor who had previously confessed.

The Rev. Mr. Zahariev said he did not know the information was wanted by foreign interests. He said he never was paid for his work.

Cominform Hits Tito And U.S. In Press

Bucharest, Romania, March 1 (AP)—The Cominform Bulletin issues a new and violent blast today at Premier-Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

The current issue of the Communist International Information Bureau's organ also accused the United States of "machinations in Scandinavia" in connection with the North Atlantic pact, and assailed Catholics and Western leaders for their criticism of the trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The new blast at Tito was written by L. Bulacovic, and ran to four columns. Tito was charged with disarming Yugoslavia in the face of foreign enemies, with making trade agreements with Britain, and with offering compensation to American and British capitalists for properties which were nationalized.

Enemy Of Reds

Tito, in bad with the Moscow-led Cominform because of alleged straying from Marxist-Leninist principles, also is accused in the article of counter-revolutionary internal policies. The article called him an inveterate enemy of the Soviet Union and of popular democracies. "Popular democracy" is the Communist term for any government they dominate.

The Bulletin, in a separate article by Knut Becksteem, otherwise unidentified, charges that the United States demanded a final answer on the Atlantic alliance from Sweden, Norway and Denmark.

Rap Atlantic Pact

The writer said the Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter remarked cynically that even a Scandinavian defense alliance meant implicit adherence to the proposed Atlantic agreement.

The article called on Communist parties to renew a fight against war, now that Norway has rejected the Russian offer of a nonaggression pact and President Truman has turned down the "peace pact offer" of Prime Minister Stalin.

Cominform Assails Catholics And Tito

LEONARD KIRSCHEN N

Bucharest, Romania, March 1 (AP). The Cominform Bulletin lashed out today at Roman Catholic churchmen, Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia and what it called "American machinations in Scandinavia."

An article by a writer identified only as Knut Becksteem accused the United States of "machinations" which gave Norway, Denmark and Sweden until February 1 to decide whether they would join the North Atlantic defense alliance.

A companion article described Britain's Foreign Secretary, Ernest Bevin, and the French Socialist leader, Leon Blum, as "making a quartet with Truman and the Pope" in protest against Communist-led Hungary's trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

Western Socialists, the article said, are "eaten up with hatred of the Soviet Union, the new democracies and everything progressive."

Cruiser Deserts Chinese Navy For Reds

Nanking, March 1 (AP)—Nationalist China, threshing about for a peace formula, today was deeply concerned with:

1. The apparent desertion of her biggest warship, the British-donated cruiser Chungking, reportedly at a North China Communist port.

2. A reported attempt to kidnap Acting President Li Tsung-jen balked by wholesale arrests.

3. A newspaper report that the Reds were dropping their demand that "war criminals" be punished as a condition of peace.

4. Mounting pressure for the banishment of Premier Sun Fo.

Disappears From Nanking

The Chungking, the former British cruiser Aurora, disappeared from her anchorage at Nanking. She carried a complement of 450 men—mostly British trained.

The best information was that she sailed on spurious orders. She was one of the navy ships not supposed to move without orders from Admiral Kwei Yung-ching, Chinese Navy commander in chief.

Admiral Kwei reportedly was in Shanghai trying to find out what happened to the ship.

Tied Up At Red Port

Sources here said she sailed from her Yangtze anchorage with her men and was presently tied up at Chefoo, Communist Shantung port.

The cruiser, which carries six 6-inch guns, was a gift from Britain and was delivered at Portsmouth, England, on May 19, 1948.

Shen Pao, Shanghai's second largest newspaper, reported wholesale arrests balked a plot to kidnap Acting President Li.

Ringleaders Seized

Underground workers, including Gen. Tang En-po, garrison commander in Shanghai and Nanking, and Mayor Teng Chih, of Nanking, sought to seize Li and other leaders including the Communist "people's government" chairman, Tan Gen-po, at Shihkiachwang, and the mayor of Nanking, the paper said.

The newspaper said the plot was thwarted on February 18 by the arrest of ringleaders.

The Nanking newspaper, Yishih Pao, giving its source as the Shanghai unofficial peace delegation to the Communists in Peiping, said the Communists no longer insisted on punishment of "war criminals" as one of the stipulations for peace.

Eight Peace Conditions

The stipulation was one of eight peace conditions laid down by the Communists.

The National Salvation Daily, which long has opposed Premier Sun Fo, said editorially the Premier should resign "before the people rise up and eject him forcibly."

The newspaper's independent editor, Kung Teh-po, said Sun's removal of the Cabinet to Canton created "near panic and serious financial disturbances."

Reds Picking Peace Envoys

Various members of the legislative body have been urging Sun's ouster since he took off for Canton with his Cabinet late in January.

Meanwhile, informed sources said formal negotiations for peace in China will be opened in Peiping as soon as the Communists dispose of details which are delaying the appointment of official Red delegates.

How long this delay will continue is problematical but it was said in some circles that some positive steps would be started toward peace within the month.

Shao To Be Delegate

These same sources said both the Communists and Nationalists were to appoint four delegates. Any additional delegates desired by either side are to be equaled by the other.

Whether Acting President Li would retain his present official delegates or appoint new ones was not clear. But it was certain that Shao Li-tze, the unofficial observer of the Peiping mission, would act as chairman of any Government group named. Shao is a former Ambassador to Moscow from China.

Information reaching Nanking said the Communists were willing to consider a 3-3-3 formula for a new government with representation equally divided between the Communists, the Kuomintang (Government party) and nonparty leaders.

Yangtze Report

FRED HAMPSON N

Shanghai, Wednesday, March 2 (AP)—Indications that Chinese Communist armies may be preparing to cross the vital Yangtze River were reported today by the newspaper Shen Pao.

The long-stalemated China situation earlier had taken a melodramatic turn—the foiling of a purported Communist plot to kidnap Acting President Li Tsung-jen and the loss of the Government's only cruiser to the Communists.

Quoting military sources, Shen Pao said three columns totaling about 60,000 had moved into the Yangchow (Chiang-tu) area 48 miles northeast of Nanking. Yangchow is 10 miles north of the Yangtze.

1,000 Craft Commandeered

Shen Pao said the Communists were busily building sampans, and commandeering more than 1,000 small craft. Communist columns were reported moving south at other points on the north bank of the river. Nanking is on the south bank.

Chinese newspapers splashed the story of an asserted Communist plot, unearthed two weeks ago, to kidnap Li and overthrow his government.

However, some Chinese authorities here and in Nanking said that if the story was not entirely groundless it certainly was overdrawn. They said a few arrests had been made.

Terror For Nanking

None of the newspapers gave the source of their information. Here is their story:

Communist agents and underground workers of Marshal Li Chi-shen, former friend of Chiang Kai-shek but now his foe, plotted to seize the Acting President and other key officials.

A campaign of terror was to be loosed in Nanking, Shanghai and Hangchow. The Communists then would cross the Yangtze River in the confusion.

The plot blew up when Government counterintelligence agents filtered into the ring of plotters and arrested many.

The loss to the Communists of the cruiser Chungking, flagship of the Chinese Navy, was a fact, Chinese navy sources admitted it.

From Great Britain

The Chungking, with a thinner-than-usual complement of 450 men, pulled up anchor at Nanking and kept right on going. It sailed down the Yangtze and out to sea.

The cruiser was given to China by Great Britain last May.

Informed sources in Nanking, meanwhile, said peace talks would begin in Peiping as soon as the Communists work out details delaying the appointment of official delegates.

[In North China, the Communist radio reported the troops of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, former Government commander in North China, had passed to the command of the "Peoples Liberation Army." Involved were 25 divisions, possibly 150,000 men.

May Return Home

[The broadcast said all officers and men who did not wish to remain with the Communist army would be allowed to return home. The broadcast was heard by the Associated Press at San Francisco.

[Another broadcast heard at San Francisco told of the arrival in Peiping from Manchuria of a Moscow-trained Chinese. He is Li Li-san, rumored to be the foremost rival of Mao Tze-tung, Communist leader. He broke with Mao in 1928 and fled to Moscow. He was expelled from the Chinese Communist party, but he reappeared when the Communists took over Manchuria after the war.

[The Communist broadcast from North China said Li is "vice president of the All-China Federation of Labor," whose office is being moved to Peiping from Mukden.]

China Recognizes Israel, Trans-Jordan

Canton, March 1 (AP)—The Chinese republic today formally recognized the states of Israel and Trans-Jordan.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs said:

"Wth a view to establishing very friendly relationships with the new states of Trans-Jordan and Israel, the Government of the Republic of China has accorded recognition to the kingdom of Trans-Jordan and the state of Israel and to their respective governments.

Flier Who Fled Russia Hints Soviets Possess Atomic Bomb

FRANK L. WHITE

TOKYO, March 1 (AP)—A Russian army flier fled Siberia and landed his Soviet plane in Japan late last year, the U. S. Army revealed today.

The flier, Sgt. Vladamir Barashkov, 23, told newsmen today that Russian fliers "have the impression the Soviets have the atomic bomb."

He said he left Siberia to seek a haven in the United States.

Barashkov landed the Russian built C-47 type plane on Rishiri Island, off Hokkaido, Nov. 10, 1948, but the army did not make his arrival public.

Barashkov talked with American correspondents for more than two hours. He said the election of President Truman and the defeat of Henry Wallace last year made a profound impression on the Russians.

Barashkov said like other Russians he had been led by Soviet propaganda to believe communism was advancing in the world until he heard of the American presidential election.

The flier told newsmen the red air force had about 1,100 World War II type planes stationed in some 40 airfields scattered through Siberia and the Kurile islands.

He said the Russians have no jet planes in the Asiatic-Pacific area. He added there were no four engine bombers in the area, either.

The young Russian, answering questions as to whether he felt there was a likelihood of war between the United States and Russia, answered:

"Stalin says that we wish peace but because we are surrounded by capitalistic nations we must be prepared for war. That attitude has entered into the daily life of the people of the Soviet Union. The people do not believe there will be a war but some leaders fear it."

He said Russian soldiers are in the army involuntarily and that each is interested in completing his duty and going home as soon as possible.

Army authorities said Barashkov was being "resettled." This phrase was not explained.

Barashkov said he had been told he would go to the United States "some time in the near future."

G. I.'s Son Killed on Guam

GUAM, March 1 (AP).—George M. Ricker 2d, four, was killed today when a fifty-five-gallon oil drum and wood rack fell on him. He was the son of Technical Sergeant George M. Riker and Mrs. Riker, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Calls U. S. Ready To Defend Australia

Sydney, Australia, March 1 (A. P.).—The United States would immediately come to the aid of Australia if she were threatened by an aggressor, Brig.-Gen. Robert Travis said on his arrival here today. Travis, commanding general of the United States Pacific Air Command, is here on a good-will mission. The mission will fly to Samoa via Tasmania and New Zealand.

Iraqi Forces Quit Israel, Jews Say

MAR 1 1949

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 1 (AP)—Iraq regular army troops appear to be withdrawing from Israel, it was reported here today.

Several thousand Iraqis have occupied the Nablus Triangle in central Palestine about 50 miles north of Jerusalem along with Trans-Jordan legionnaires.

It is assumed their reported withdrawal is closely linked to the armistice talks at Rhodes between Israel and Trans-Jordan, and at Ras En Nakura between Israel and Lebanon.

Talks Scheduled

The talks were scheduled to open today.

Iraq has no common frontier with Israel. The troops came here partly through Trans-Jordan and partly through Syria.

There still is the possibility that Syria may become a party to the Israeli-Trans-Jordan-Lebanese talks or to their eventual decisions.

Delegates Leave

The Israeli and Trans-Jordan delegations for the Rhodes armistice talks left for the island by plane from Lydda Airport this morning.

The Israeli-Egyptian armistice supervisory committee will hold its first meeting tomorrow in the southern Negeb town of Auja, under the chairmanship of Brig. Gen. William Riley, aide to Acting Mediator Ralph J. Bunche.

Dutch Try To Substitute Indonesian Plan, U.N. Told

Batavia, Java, March 1 (AP)—The United Nations Commission for Indonesia said tonight the Netherlands Government has tried to substitute its own plan for the month-old Security Council resolution designed to restore the Indonesia Republic.

In a report cabled to the Council, the commisison said it looked upon a Dutch invitation for a round-table conference at The Hague on the Indonesian question "as a compromising counterproposal or substitue for the provisions of the January 28 resolution." The Dutch issued the invitation last week.

To Relinquish Sovereignty

[Dr. Louis J. M. Beel, Dutch crown representative in Indonesia, announced earlier tonight that the Netherlands will relinquish sovereignty of all Indonesia by July 1, regardless of whether Indonesian Republican leaders agree.]

The United Nations Commission asked instructions on what position it should take. It added there was no indication that the role it was being asked to assume was the one authorized in the Council resolution.

The resolution called on the Netherlands Government to release leaders of the Indonesian Republic; created the commission to supervise elections for a United States of Indonesia, and asked for the transfer of sovereignty by the Dutch to the new regime by July 1, 1950.

Interim Disagreement

The Dutch have not yet accepted the resolution.

The commission told the Security Council that thus far all parties to the Indonesian question have failed to reach an agreement on the establishment of an interim federal government.

"This situation," it added, "results from the failure of the Netherlands Government to accept procedures of the resolution of January 28 and not from a mere difference of viewpoint on details of government structure functions. If the latter were the case the commission would be prepared to recommend a structure of an interim federal government."

Interchange Of Ideas

The commission said an interim government—to be effective—must reflect an interchange of ideas by both the Republicans and the Dutch. It said, however, there have been no negotiations as yet under the Security Council resolution.

Noting that it was more than two months since the United Nations ordered an end to fighting in Indonesia, the commission said, "there has been neither actual nor complete cessation of hostilities."

"On the contrary, active warfare, both guerrilla and on more generally organized basis" was continuing, it said.

Re-Establishment Refused

The commission reported it was apparent that "a basic factor in the present political deadlock in Indonesia is the refusal of the Netherlands Government to permit the reestablishment of the Republican Government at Jogjakarta."

It forwarded to the Security Council a memorandum received from the Dutch stating they had not permitted the establishment of the Republican regime at the old capital because of the "absolute certitude that every possibility of reaching an agreement of successfully conducting negotiations would be frustrated by terrorism, infiltrations and subversive activities from Jogjakarta."

Dutch to Push Freedom

BATAVIA, Java, March 1 (AP)—The Dutch announced tonight that they would transfer sovereignty to all Indonesia by July 1, regardless of whether Indonesian Republican leaders agreed.

The reference was to imprisoned leaders of the Republic of Indonesia. Without Dutch permission, they proclaimed sections of Java, Sumatra and Madura, a sovereign republic months ago. The Dutch Army last December overran the republic and imprisoned the leaders, including President Soekarno and Premier Mohammed Hatta.

Dr. Louis J. M. Beel, High Representative of the Netherlands Crown, announced the plans at a news conference. He added that the reaction of President Soekarno and Premier Hatta, now interned on the island of Banka, has "not been unsatisfactory." They have not, however, decided definitely whether to participate in the proposed freedom move.

President Soekarno and Premier Hatta have insisted from the first that they would negotiate with the Dutch as representatives of the republic, but would boycott any conference if they were invited only as individuals.

Dr. Beel said the Dutch would go ahead with a round-table conference of Indonesian leaders at The Hague on March 12, even if the Republicans refused to attend. The meeting, he said, will provide a "realistic, responsible and practical" approach to clearing the way for sovereignty.

The March 12 date was chosen to "comply as much as possible" with Security Council orders to set up an Interim Government of Indonesia by March 15, Dr. Beel said. He added that the Crown would be willing to delay the session "but not too long," and only if necessity arose.

Burma Reds Announce New Party

Rangoon, Burma, March 1 (AP)—A newly created Bolshevik party of Burma today issued a manifesto declaring it aimed to link itself with Communists in China and Viet Nam alongside the Soviet Union.

The unsigned manifesto was the first evidence of the existence of a Bolshevik party.

The party announced it would adopt "Soviet methods for ending world capitalism" and would "destroy all who have recourse to capitalist governments."

The manifesto accused Burma's Socialist Government of helping the British put down Burma's revolutionary movement.

Assails Premier

It condemned Premier Thakin Nu for allegedly obtaining arms and money from capitalists and seeking to suppress strikes with guns.

The Bolshevik party apparently is an offshoot of the present strike movement. Government workers have been on strike for several weeks in protest against the Government's announced intention of cutting living allowances and firing many workers.

The Government contended it was forced to curtail expenses because of the costly civil wars it is fighting against Karen tribesmen and various shades of Marxists, including Communists and Trotskyists.

Bolsheviks Set Up In Burma

Rangoon, Burma, March 1 (AP)—Existence of a Bolshevik party in war-torn Burma, pledged to support the Soviet Union and employ its policies, was announced today.

An unsigned manifesto told of the creation of the party.

It attacked the Government and announced it will employ "Soviet methods for ending world capitalism." The Bolsheviks intend to ally themselves with Chinese Communists and the Viet-Nam movement of Indo-China alongside Russia, the manifesto said.

May Be Strike Outgrowth

This was the first evidence that a Bolshevik party had entered Burma's tangled political affairs, though Communist bands are among forces fighting Government troops. The party may be an outgrowth of current strikes, which have nearly paralyzed the Government while it is fighting Karen rebels in the very outskirts of the capital.

The manifesto announced the intention to "destroy all who have recourse to capitalist governments." It assailed the Government for obtaining arms and money from capitalist sources and using guns to suppress strikes.

Burma quit the British Commonwealth of Nations and became a completely free country last year. It has been beset since then by one uprising after another, of which the civil war with the Karens stands out as the most serious.

Must Seek Foreign Aid

Premier Thakin Nu announced recently that 30,000 persons have been killed in a year of fighting various rebellious factions, and that the country must seek financial aid abroad.

A conference of British Commonwealth dominion representatives at New Delhi yesterday offered to try to mediate Burma's troubles with her political groups.

The Karens, frequently aided by Communist elements, are fighting to seize Burma's richest agricultural section, the Irawaddy delta; the Karenni state in which productive mines are located, and the southern coastal strip of Tenasserim.

Independent State Goal

Their goal is a completely independent state embracing the country's three principal ports, Rangoon, Bassein and Moulmein.

This would leave the nationalist Government holding only arid plains and hilly jungles.

Government sources said yesterday the Karen fighters finally were withdrawing from Insein, 10 miles north of Rangoon, after a 29-day battle which left the streets littered with dead and the town a shambles.

S.E. Asia Pact Held 'Quite Possible'

New Delhi, India, March 1 (AP)—Herbert V. Evatt, Australia's Foreign Minister, said today the formation of a regional association of Southeast Asia was "quite possible."

The association, to consider matters of common interest, "would not be a substitute for world organization, but a good reinforcement," he said.

Evatt took part yesterday in a British Dominions' Conference here of India, Ceylon, Britain and Australia to consider the Karen revolt in Burma. Pakistan and New Zealand did not attend.

Awaits Burma's Reply

The conference decided to appeal to the Burmese Government to find a "peaceful settlement" of its difficulties.

It was learned authoritatively today that if a reply from Burma indicated a willingness to come to an agreement with the Karens, it would be followed by the appointment of a fact-finding group representing the conference dominions to go to Burma.

Evatt also said it was possible Burma might rejoin the British Commonwealth.

"I always thought it a mistake to sever that link," he said.

Pakistan Maps Federal Charter

KARACHI, Pakistan, March 1 (AP)—Prime Minister Liaqat Ali Khan will ask the Constituent Assembly Monday to frame Pakistan's new Constitution as a federation with autonomous units, it was reported today. Under its provisions the Moslems will be able to live according to the teachings of the Koran and minorities will be able to practice their religions.

IRAN ELECTION DECREED

Shah Authorizes Balloting for a Constituent Assembly

TEHERAN, Iran, March 1 (AP)—A royal decree for the election of a Constituent Assembly was issued by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi last night.

Premier Mohammed Saed told Parliament today the Government had been authorized to take preliminary steps for elections throughout Iran.

Last week the Shah said he had decided to call a Constituent Assembly, because the constitution needed changes to "empower the Government to dissolve Parliament."

Martial law was declared Feb. 27 in all sections of the country where army garrisons were stationed. On Feb. 5 the leftist Tudeh party was outlawed because of alleged implication in the attempted assassination of the Shah the day before.

Havana Hears That Cuba Will Break With Soviet

Havana, March 1 (AP)—An official source said today a break in relations between Cuba and Russia is only a matter of time.

The Cuban Senate now is considering a resolution to break relations with the Soviet Union. The Senate has not yet acted, but there was some indication the Government might not wait for Senate action. The break would be based on a charge Russia violated the United Nations Charter in her activities throughout the world.

Cuba has no diplomatic representatives in Moscow now, but Russia has three accredited diplomats in Havana, where the Russian Embassy occupies a palatial stone residence.

CARR FACING OTTAWA TRIAL

Alleged Russian Spy Charged In Passport Conspiracy

MAR 1 — 1949

Ottawa, March 1 (AP)—Sam Carr, alleged head of a Russian spy ring, is being held for trial on a charge of conspiring to forge a passport for a Soviet agent, Magistrate Joachim Sauve said today.

The magistrate announced his decision after hearing six witnesses testify in a preliminary inquiry. Igor Gouzenko, former Soviet Embassy cipher clerk, testified Carr bargained to get a fake passport for a Russian agent to enter Canada from the United States. He said the Russians scaled down Carr's original demand of $5,000 to $3,000.

Gouzenko said the $3,000 was agreed upon as the fee for paying off someone inside Canada's passport office to work the complicated machinery of renewing a passport for the wrong man.

Identifies Embassy File

Gouzenko identified an embassy file on Carr himself, and said his cover name in a Soviet espionage ring was "Sam" or "Frank" and gave evidence about a lengthy series of embassy notes and instructions on the passport case.

He was one of four crown witnesses.

Fear of Russian reprisals against Gouzenko, key witness in Canada's espionage case, was reflected at the hearing.

As Gouzenko gave evidence against Carr, Magistrate Sauve ordered that no one in court was to make any sketch or picture of the former cipher clerk or publish his description.

Gouzenko has been in concealment and under police guard since he first disclosed existence of the Russian spy rings in 1945. A dozen policemen watched over him.

Gouzenko Testifies At Ottawa Trial

Ottawa, March 1 (AP)—Igor Gouzenko, former Soviet Embassy cipher clerk, testified today that Sam Carr worked under the cover names of "Sam" and "Frank" in a Russian espionage ring in Canada.

Carr, alleged leader of a former Soviet espionage ring in Canada, was arrested last month in New York and deported shortly afterward. He is charged in Canada with conspiring with Russian Embassy officials to issue a forged passport.

Guarded By Mounties

He had been the subject of an intensive search since he disappeared from Canada in March, 1946.

Guarded by eight Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Gouzenko, who still remains in hiding between the court appearances which started in 1946, was the first witness called as the Government launched its conspiracy case against Carr, former organizing secretary of the Communist party in Canada. A magistrate will decide if there is enough evidence to warrant a trial.

Gouzenko exposed the Soviet ring in 1945. He testified today about a network formerly headed by his ex-boss, Col. N. Zabotin.

Several exhibits were introduced purporting to be communications from Zabotin to the head of Russian intelligence in Moscow concerning Carr and Fred Rose, a former Communist member of Parliament now serving a six-year prison term for violation of the Official Secrets Act.

Axis Sally Spurned Rescue To Stay with German Lover

WASHINGTON, March 1—(AP) Amid freshets of tears, Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars testified at her treason trial today that when the war ended American GI's taunted her by predicting she would be hanged as a traitor.

The American-born defendant wound up her direct testimony with renewed protestations that despite her Nazi radio broadcasts she never meant to aid the enemy.

Preffered Love to Rescue

Under cross-examination, she acknowledged that she preffered staying with her German lover in Germany to being rescued by American troops.

Chief Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., brought this out in asking Miss Gillars why she did not hide out in Paris in August, 1944, to await U. S. troops then racing toward the French capital.

Miss Gillars replied that the reason she didn't attempt to escape her German masters was because she wanted to remain with the man she loved, Dr. Max Otto Koischwitz, a Nazi radio official, now dead.

"That meant more to you than anything else in the world?" Kelley asked.

"I believe a man usually means more to a woman than anything else," Miss Gillars replied calmy. "I would have died for him."

Miss Gillars had previously described Koischwitz, a one-time professor at Hunter College, New York, as "my destiny" and said she would never have been brought to trial for treason except for her love for him.

An early end to the trial, now in its sixth week, was indicated as Prosecutor Kelley said he would not require much time to cross-examine Miss Gillars.

The 48-year-old defendant has been on the stand five days, relating her life story from the days of her stage-struck girlhood and her struggle to become a dramatic star to her broadcasts on the German war-time radio.

It was in the latter role that she gained the soubriquet of "Axis Sally" from American soldiers who listened to her throughout the campaigns in Africa, Italy and western Europe.

Tells of GI Taunts

Miss Gillars' eyes filled with tears as she told of being interviewed by a reporter for the U. S. army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, after her arrest in March, 1946.

She said he told her:

"We're looking forward to your hanging. It'll be a field day in Washington."

Then, sobbing, she told of complaining about losing a handbag in prison camp, and said the attendant asked:

"What are you worrying about? You're going to be hanged anyway."

Before concluding her direct testimony, Miss Gillars went through this exchange with Defense Counsel Laughlin:

"Did you want the United States to lose the war?"

Miss Gillars: "No."

"Did you ever make any broadcasts to the effect that you wanted the United States to lose the war?"

MAR 1 1949

Mis Gillars: "Of course not."

"Did you ever intend to adhere to the enemy?"

Miss Gillars' eyes brimmed with tears. "Certainly not," she replied.

Mr. Kelley questioned Miss Gillars closely on her testimony that her American passport was "snatched" by a United States vice consul in Berlin when she went to have it renewed in 1941, a few months before this country entered the war.

Miss Gillars has contended that she could not return to the United States because her passport had been taken away.

Mr. Kelley insisted that she had another passport, issued earlier, throughout her stay in Germany. To this, Miss Gillars replied that the other passport had been "canceled."

Mr. Kelley then introduced an affidavit signed by Miss Gillars showing that she asked for an extension of time so she could stay in Berlin under the "snatched" passport.

U.S. Military Detail Sought for U.N. Duty

Bloom Would Let Truman Assign Personnel

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP).—An Administration bill to give President Truman specific authority to assign military personnel to the United Nations for non-combatant duty was introduced today in the House.

The bill also would let the national military establishment furnish equipment and supplies to the U. N. in connection with official activities, and in addition it would increase the pay of the United States representative to the U. N. from $20,000 to $25,000 a year, let the President name a $20,000-a-year deputy, and provide for an additional $12,000-ea-year deputy in the Security Council.

Repreesntative Sol Bloom, Democrat, of New York, chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, introduced the bill. Secretary of State Dean Acheson had asked for it.

The military personnel could be detailed to the U. N. as observers, advisers, guards and the like. State Department officials said existing law is not clear as to whether the President can detail officers or troops for such purposes.

$20,000 for Victims Of Japan's Balloon

House Votes Damage for Six Killed in Oregon

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP).—Over Army objections, the House passed today a bill to pay $20,000 damages to relatives of six persons killed near Bly, Ore., by a Japanese balloon bomb during the war.

War-time censorship banned any mention of the balloon-borne bombs. The House Judiciary Committee said the Army objected to the bill on grounds the government had no legal responsibility for the deaths, but the committee said the Army should have cautioned the public about the bombs beforehand.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would provide $6,000 for Frank J. Patzke, Grand Forks, N. D., who lost a son and a daughter; $5,000 to Archie Mitchell, of Bly, a minister whose wife was killed, and $3,000 each to J. L. Shoemaker, Einar Engen and N. L. Gifford, of Bly, who lost sons.

The deaths occurred on March 5, 1945, when members of a Sunday school class came across the grounded balloon and its unexploded bomb while on a fishing trip. Five children and the wife of the minister died when they tugged at the contrivance.

U. S. AGENCIES HIT GERMAN SHIP PLAN

MAR 1 — 1949

WASHINGTON, March 1—(AP) Government agencies were reported at odds today over a proposal from Gen. Lucius D. Clay to let the Western Germans build and operate ocean-going ships.

It is a major policy issue which involves Britain and France and the cold war with Soviet Russia.

Officials said American viewpoints are so conflicting the decision almost certainly will be put up to President Truman—one of the signers of the 1945 Potsdam agreement which prohibits the building by Germany of "all types" of seagoing vessels.

Representatives of American ship operators and maritime unions have filed sharp protests with the State department against any revival of Germany as a world shipping rival.

Clay is understood to have Army department backing for his view that the time has come to spur the recovery of the Western occupation zone by putting idle shipyards to work and letting the Germans engage directly in foreign commerce.

Shipping men said the maritime commission thus far has been cold to the idea. The Navy is reported to have called for a new outline of official policy before advising whether national security would suffer from the proposal.

Clay's proposals were forwarded some time ago under a top secret label. One published report, neither confirmed nor denied officially, is that he favors permitting the Germans to build several 10,000-ton cargo ships and a large luxury liner.

MARSHALL PLACED ON ACTIVE SERVICE

Army Takes Him Off Retired List At Own Request

Washington, March 1 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, former Secretary of State, has been restored to the active list, the Army announced today.

President Truman approved the restoration, the Army said, which does not give General Marshall any active-duty assignment or make any changes in his pay and allowances.

General Marshall was voluntarily placed on the retired list to accept appointment as Secretary of State.

5-Star Rank Exempted

The law which created the special five-star rank exempted generals and admirals from mandatory retirement because of age. They receive their full pay and allowances for life whether carried on the active or on the retired list.

Army officials said General Marshall had been put back on the active list at his own request. They referred queries as to the purpose of the move to Marshall himself at Pinehurst, N.C.

He was in New Orleans today for the Mardi Gras.

Gen. Aurand Nominated As Army Chief in Pacific

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—President Truman today nominated Lieutenant General Henry Spiese Aurand to be commanding general, United States Army, Pacific. Major General Thomas Bernard Larkin was nominated to be director of logistics with the rank of lieutenant general.

The nominations were sent to the Senate along with the promotion of Stanley Lonzo Scott to the permanent rank of major general, which he now holds temporarily.

Envoys, Acheson Confer On Pact

Washington, March 1 (AP)—The Western European and Canadian ambassadors went over the North Atlantic pact today with Secretary of State Acheson in a session lasting one hour and 45 minutes.

Afterward Sir Oliver Franks, Britain's envoy, said at least one more meeting will be required before the defense alliance is put into final form.

"We will have another meeting later this week as we proceed steadily along," he said.

Bill Is Nearly Ready

It was believed the ambassadors talked over not only the pact but plans for sending American arms and equipment to the member countries.

State Department officials have nearly completed drafting a bill President Truman will present to Congress on this point. It is expected to ask for $1,500,000,000 to $2,000,000,000 for the alliance members and for supplies for Greece, Turkey, Japan and Korea.

Senator Downey (D., Cal.) urged the committee to increase this guarantee to $20,000,000. He argued the ten millions is not enough for the "export of American ideas."

Other Salaries Raised

At present, William Foster—former Under Secretary of Commerce—is deputy in Eupore under Averell Harriman.

Senators Magnuson (D., Wash.) and Cordon (R., Ore.) urged the committee to authorize an additional $100,000,000 for the purchase of certain surplus commodities to be shipped to Europe.

These would include apples, pears, citrus fruits, nuts and other horticultural products. There was no final action.

Aid Bill Delayed By Filibuster; Final Committee Action Set

Washington, March 1 (AP)—The Southern filibuster kept the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today from making a final decision on the $5,580,000,000 European recovery bill.

The committee, under the rules of the Senate, had to cut short its study of the bill when the Senate met at noon.

It will meet again at 10 A.M. tomorrow when final action on the bill is expected.

None of the committees can meet while the Senate is in session without the unanimous consent of the Senate. Southerners now carrying on the filibuster have refused to agree to committee sessions.

Atomic Town Of Oak Ridge Becomes 'Open City' March 19

Washington, March 1 (AP)—A curtain of secrecy will be largely lifted from the atomic town of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Senator Kefauver (D., Tenn.), said today.

On March 19, the town will become an "open city". Its inhabitants and visitors will have unrestricted freedom in travel for the first time since it was built.

Kefauver said the Atomic Energy Commission has made arrangements for high fences to be removed from around the town. Only the secret atomic projects will be within the fenced area.

Will No Longer Need Passes

Inhabitants of Oak Ridge and visitors no longer will need passes to get in and out of town, he said, and townspeople will be able to live a more normal life.

"Oak Ridge has had a struggle to take its place as part of the State," Kefauver said. "This will do lots to meet that problem."

He said Vice President Barkley, Senator McMahon (D., Conn.), author of the Atomic Energy Act, himself, and other members of Congress will attend a ceremony at Oak Ridge on March 19 to celebrate the occasion.

Churches Can Buy Property

Kefauver said the Atomic Energy Commission also has agreed to an arrangement whereby 22 churches will be able to purchase property in Oak Ridge from the Government.

Churches will be permitted to buy property with the understanding that the property reverts to the Government it and when it is no longer used as a place of worship.

"This is a great thing for the churches," Kefauver said. "It will add to the permanency of the town and be a real contribution to stabilizing the community life."

AIRLIFT FLYER HAS 5000-MILE CHAT

Boston, March 1 (A. P.).—A Berlin airlift flyer talked with his wife back home yesterday as he flew a load of coal to the German capital. Major Laurence Gustafson of Brockton, Mass., spoke with his wife Lucretia, through the "ham" station of Dr. George C. Wright of Sharon, Mass.

Gustafson was flying at 5,000 feet. His voice came through strong and clear over the nearly 5,000 miles separating the craft from Sharon, where his wife sat talking with him. Among crew members who sent a brief "hello" home was Sergt. Stewart G. Parker, Elmira, N. Y.

Apology By Truman Asked In Missouri

Jefferson City, Mo., March 1 (AP). President Truman's s.o.b. remark bobbed up in the Missouri House of Representatives today.

A resolution offered by Representative Noel Cox, Christian county Republican, asked the President to apologize and "abstain from such foolish language as long as he was President."

The President's remark was made last week and was directed at a Washington columnist who had been criticizing activities of Truman's military aide.

House Democrats loudly voted down immediate consideration of the resolution.

Tokyo Rose Would Have Gen. MacArthur Testify

San Francisco, March 1 (AP)—The woman accused of committing treason as Tokyo Rose today asked the Federal District Court to subpoena Gen. Douglas MacArthur to appear at her trial May 16.

Wayne Collins, defense attorney, in a series of motions also asked that 42 other persons now in the Orient be subpoenaed for the trial, and their expenses be paid by the Government.

The defendant is Mrs. Iva Toguri d'Aquino, born in Los Angeles of Japanese parents and married to a Portuguese citizen. A grand jury indictment charged her with being the Tokyo Rose whose broadcasts from Tokyo during the war aimed at demoralizing American troops in the Pacific.

SUB IS DAMAGED IN WAR GAMES

MAR 1 1949

WITH THE ATLANTIC FLEET ON CARIBBEAN MANEUVERS, March 1. — (AP) The submarine Trumpetfish has been damaged in an underwater collision with the cargo ship Marquette in the current war games. No one was injured, the navy said.

The collision was disclosed in a summary of action yesterday during the navy's "most realistic" training exercises in peacetime. The extent of damage to the two ships was not disclosed but the absence of casualties indicated it was minor.

The pace of the mock war was accelerated, meanwhile, with the umpire's score card showing heavy losses by both sides.

The "enemy," designated "aggressor nation," attacked the fleet unit with submarines and marine aircraft. At a cost of 37 planes, "aggressor" was judged to have "sunk" five ships, including a light cruiser, while the submarines "sank" a small carrier and a cargo ship and put two destroyers out of action.

In doing so, "aggressor" lost five submarines, including a guppy-type equipped with Snorkel tube for underwater breathing.

Meanwhile the fleet force and navy planes dumped hundreds of tons of explosives on two small beach areas of Vieques Island where the "enemy" is dug in. The island is to be invaded tomorrow in the climax of the current phase of the six-weeks games.

Legislators and military leaders watched the 100-minute bombardment of the beach areas from the command ship, U.S.S. Pocana. The top ranking foreign observer, Admiral Sir Rhoderick McGrigor, commander of the British home fleet, called it "most impressive and very realistic."

Neither Pilot Hurt As Jet Fighter, Bearcat Crash

MAR 1 1949

With the Atlantic fleet, March 1 (AP)—Airmanship saved the lives of two pilots today when a jet Phantom fighter plane and a Gruman Bearcat fighter collided in mid-air.

The accident occured at an altitude of about 6,000 feet off Puerto Rico.

Two feet of a wing of the jet plane were sheared off in the collision but the pilot, Lieut. William C. May of Daytona Beach, Fla., managed to nurse the crippled aircraft to a landing at Roosevelt Roads, 30 miles away on Puerto Rico.

The other plane "cartwheeled"—tail over nose—and the pilot, Lieut. R. T. Hoppe, bailed out. He landed in the sea near the carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Rescued By Helicopter

A rescue helicopter plucked him from the water and took him to his home carrier, the Kearsarge.

Neither pilot was hurt. Dozens of dignitaries witnessed the accident fro mthe Roosevelt.

It occurred as 125 planes were in the air demonstrating air tactics. Sixteen jet planes, including the one damaged in the accident, participated in an operational action from a carrier for the first time.

Earlier, it had been announced that no one was injured when the submarine Trumpetfish was damaged in an underwater collision with the cargo ship Marquette.

The collision was disclosed in a summary yesterday of action during the Navy's "most realistic" training exercises in peacetime. The extent of damage to the two ships was not disclosed but the absence of casualties indicated it was minor.

Challenges To Jury Selection Halted In Communists' Trial

New York, March 1 (AP)—A Federal judge today brought to a halt defense challenges to the Federal jury selection system at the trial of eleven top American Communists.

Judge Harold R. Medina, while one defense witness was testifying, announced, "the case is closed." Several days ago he said the challenges would be ended today. He also has ruled the actual trial must start next Monday.

The challenges have delayed selection of a jury for the trial of the Communists, who are charged with conspiring to advocate forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

Discrimination Charged

It has taken up all court sessions since the trial opened on January 17. The defense has asked that the grand jury indictment against the defendants be thrown out because jurors are selected on a discriminatory basis.

Judge Medina reserved decision today on the merits of the defense challenges. He also reserved decision on a move, by John F. X. McGohey, United States attorney, to strike out parts of the challenges which dealt with the grand jury.

He asked attorneys for both sides to hand over to him by Friday a list of questions they wanted to ask prospective jurors.

Medina halted the challenges while George J. H. Follmer, a former clerk of the court, was on the witness stand.

"Every Group" Called Eligible

Follmer testified he had told the jury clerk under his supervision "to get jurors from every possible source."

Earlier, John C. Knox, senior Federal judge, testified he had sought representation of "every economic and social group in the community" on juries here.

Under questioning by the defense, Knox said Federal jurors in the southern district of New York are "handpicked." He said this system was installed after he had decided that "a more careful selection of jurors" was needed.

The "handpicked" method, he said, involves use of names from such sources as the social register, Who' Who in New York, lists of college alumni, and lists submitted by large business firms.

Medina several times interrupted defense examination of the senior jurist based on Knox's speeches and public statements about the revised jury system.

The presiding judge finally asserted:

'I rule now that you should address yourself to the witness' knowledge and what he observed, and that matters pertaining to speeches are incompetent and inadmissable"

Shortly afterward, the defense ended its examination, contending that Medina's ruligns had "made it impossible to continue."

Under crossexamination by the prosecution, Knox then stated that in revamping the method of jury selection he had in mind "that every economic and social group in the community shall be represented."

Denies Ordering Removal

He also said that he never had ordered the name of any person removed from the active jury files because of the person's race, religion, color, political affiliation or economic status. In 30 years on the bench he had observed that jury panels included working man, women, Negroes and Jews.

The defense maintains that laborers, members of left-wing parties, women, Negroes and Jews have been largely kept off the juries.

LONDON, MARCH 1-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA TOLD THE BIG FOUR TODAY FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS FOR AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE ARE "IMPOSSIBLE" UNLESS THEY AGREE TO AUSTRO-YUGOSLAVIAN BORDER CHANGES.

ALES BEBLER, MARSHAL TITO'S DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, TOLD THE DEPUTIES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE SOVIET UNION THAT IT IS UP TO THE WESTERN POWERS TO STOP OBJECTING.

HE SAID THEIR REFUSAL TO CONCEDE BORDER CHANGES WAS THE "ONLY OBSTACLE" TO THE CONCLUSION OF AN AUSTRIAN TREATY WHICH THE DEPUTIES ARE TRYING TO WRITE.

THE EXACT NATURE OF THE BORDER ALTERATIONS DEMANDED TODAY WAS NOT MADE CLEAR. LAST WEEK YUGOSLAVIA DROPPED HER DEMAND FOR ANNEXATION OF THE AUSTRIAN PROVINCE OF CARINTHIA AND PROPOSED THAT THE DISPUTED TERRITORY BE MADE SELF-GOVERNING.

CARINTHIA HAS A LARGE SLOVENE POPULATION.

AUSTRIA'S FOREIGN MINISTER, DR.KARL GRUBER YESTERDAY REFUSED THIS PROPOSITION.

BEBLER SAID TODAY THAT SINCE GRUBER'S SPEECH YUGOSLAVIA WAS AGAIN CONVINCED THE BEST SOLUTION OF THE CARINTHIAN PROBLEM WOULD BE ITS INCORPORATION INTO YUGOSLAVIA.

HOWEVER HIS GOVERNMENT HAD DECLARED ITS WILLINGNESS TO COME TO TERMS, HE SAID, AND HE URGED THE SAME WILLINGNESS ON THE WESTERN POWERS.

MOSCOW, MARCH 1-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES ARMY IS BEING TRAINED FOR USE AGAINST THE AMERICAN CIVILIAN POPULATION, AN ARTICLE IN THE SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER RED STAR CLAIMED TODAY.
THE WRITER, V.MINAEV, ASKED A QUESTION IN THE TITLE OF THE MAJOR EDITORIAL "WHAT ARE THE PURPOSES OF THE UNITED STATES?" AND ANSWERED GIMSELF: IN THE "AMERICAN REACTIONARY CIRCLES ARE SO ZEALOUSLY CONDUCTING THESE INVESTIGATIONS IN ORDER TO MAKE THE ARMIES AN OBEDIENT WEAPON FOR CRUSHING THE POPULAR MASSES BY FORCE OF ARMS."
MINAEV CITED A BOOK HE SAID WAS WRITTEN BY A COLONEL ANDREWS AND WHICH HE CLAIMED WAS USED AS A TEXT BOOK AT AMERICAN MILITARY ACADEMIES.
HE QUOTED ANDREWS TO THE EFFECT THAT ARMED FORCES DURING CIVIL DISORDERS MUST ATTACK "DECISIVELY, MERCILESSLY, USING ONLY LIVE AMMUNITION AND NOT SHOOTING OVER THE CROWD."

(ADVANCE) TOKYO, MARCH 1-(AP)-A RUSSIAN ARMY FLIER FLED SIBERIA AND LANDED HIS SOVIET PLANE IN JAPAN LATE LAST YEAR, THE U.S. ARMY REVEALED TODAY.
THE FLIER, SGT. VLADAMIR BARASHKOV, 23, TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY THAT RUSSIAN FLIERS "HAVE THE IMPRESSION THE SOVIETS HAVE THE ATOMIC BOMB."
HE SAID HE LEFT SIBERIA TO SEEK A HAVEN IN THE UNITED STATES.
BARASHKOV LANDED THE RUSSIAN BUILT C-47 TYPE PLANE ON RISHIRI ISLAND, OFF HOKKAIDO, NOV. 10, 1948, BUT THE ARMY DID NOT MAKE HIS ARRIVAL PUBLIC.
BARASHKOV TALKED WITH AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS FOR MORE THAN TWO HOURS. HE SAID THE ELECTION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE DEFEAT OF HENRY WALLACE LAST YEAR MADE A PROFOUND IMPRESSION ON THE RUSSIANS.
BARASHKOV SAID LIKE OTHER RUSSIANS HE HAD BEEN LED BY SOVIET PROPAGANDA TO BELIEVE COMMUNISM WAS ADVANCING IN THE WORLD UNTIL HE HEARD OF THE AMERICAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

THE FLIER TOLD NEWSMEN THE RED AIR FORCE HAD ABOUT 11,000 WORLD WAR II TYPE PLANES STATIONED IN SOME 40 AIRFIELDS SCATTERED THROUGH SIBERIA AND THE KURILE ISLANDS.

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS HAVE NO JET PLANES IN THE ASIATIC-PACIFIC AREA. HE ADDED THERE WERE NO FOUR ENGINE BOMBERS IN THE AREA, EITHER.

THE YOUNG RUSSIAN, ANSWERING QUESTIONS AS TO WHETHER HE FELT THERE WAS A LIKELIHOOD OF WAR BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA,ANSWERED:

"STALIN SAYS THAT WE WISH PEACE BUT BECAUSE WE ARE SURROUNDED BY CAPITALISTIC NATIONS WE MUST BE PREPARED FOR WAR. THAT ATTITUDE HAS ENTERED INTO THE DAILY LIFE OF THE PEOPLE OF THE SOVIET UNION. THE PEOPLE DO NOT BELIEVE THERE WILL BE A WAR BUT SOME LEADERS FEAR IT."

HE SAID RUSSIAN SOLDIERS ARE IN THE ARMY INVOLUNTARILY AND THAT EACH IS INTERESTED IN COMPLETING HIS DUTY AND GOING HOME AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

ARMY AUTHORITIES SAID BARASHKOV WAS BEING "RESETTLED." THIS PHRASE WAS NOT EXPLAINED.

BARASHKOV SAID HE HAD BEEN TOLD HE WOULD GO TO THE UNITED STATES "SOME TIME IN THE NEAR FUTURE."

THE ARMY SAID RUSSIAN AUTHORITIES ASKED THAT HE BE HANDED OVER AS A DESERTER AND A THIEF. THE ARMYDECLINED ON THE GROUND BARASHKOV HAD SOUGHT A HAVEN AND "THAT IT WAS CONTRARY TO AMERICAN TRADITION AND POLICY TO REPATRIATE REFUGEES FORCIBLY."

THE RUSSIANS THEN ASKED TO INSPECT THE PLANE. AFTER LOOKING IT OVER THEY ORDERED IT DESTROYED.

THE ARMY SAID THAT "THEREAFTER, SOVIET MILITARY AND GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES EVINCED NO FURTHER INTEREST" IN THE CASE, DECLINING AN OFFER TO INTERVIEW BARASHKOV.

BARASHKOV TOLD REPORTERS HE HOPED TO BECOME A UNITED STATES CITIZEN.

IN WASHINGTON, ARMY OFFICIALS SAID BARASHKOV WILL NOT BE BROUGHT TO THE UNITED STATES.

HIS FUTURE HOME IS BEING KEPT SECRET FOR HIS OWN PROTECTION, THEY EXPLAINED.

UNDER A BILL NOW BEFORE CONGRESS A LIMITED NUMBER OF ALIENS COULD BE ADMITTED TO THE UNITED STATES AND BECOME CITIZENS IF THEY HAD BEEN OF VALUE TO U.S. AGENTS ABROAD.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION FROM THE ARMY THAT BARASHKOV HAD BEEN ABLE TO SUPPLY ANY IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

UNDATED RUSSIAN

March 1, 1949

BY BEN BASSETT
AP FOREIGN NEWS EDITOR

"LIVING IS BECOMING BETTER ALL THE TIME."

SOVIET CITIZENS WERE TOLD THAT TODAY, ALONG WITH THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF 10 TO 30 PER CENT PRICE REDUCTIONS IN MANY ARTICLES OF FOOD, DRINK, WEARING APPAREL AND HARDWARE.

THE QUOTATION ABOVE, FROM THE RUSSIAN TRADE UNION NEWSPAPER TRUD, SEEMS TO KEYNOTE THIS LATEST MIXTURE OF RUSSIAN ECONOMICS AND PROPAGANDA. THE WHOLE SITUATION IS BEING MADE PART OF A CAMPAIGN IN RUSSIA AND SATELLITE COUNTRIES, DESIGNED TO CONVINCE THE CITIZENS THERE THAT THEIR CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING WHILE THINGS ARE BAD IN THE UNITED STATES.

LIVING CERTAINLY CAN GET A GOOD DEAL BETTER IN THE SOVIET UNION BEFORE THE LIVING STANDARDS THERE APPROACH WESTERN LEVELS. A DISPATCH THROUGH THE MOSCOW CENSORSHIP NOTES SIGNIFICANTLY THAT:

"THE PRICE REDUCTIONS ARE A NEW STEP TOWARD REATTAINING THE SOVIET UNION'S PREWAR STANDARD OF LIVING."

THAT IS A BACK-HANDED WAY OF SAYING THAT CONDITIONS IN THE SOVIET UNION, THREE YEARS AFTER THE FIGHTING ENDED, ARE STILL BELOW THE LEVELS ATTAINED BEFORE THE WAR. AND THE CONDITIONS KNOWN TO EXIST BEFORE THE WAR WERE LOW BY WESTERN STANDARDS. FOR EXAMPLE, HOUSING FOR THE AVERAGE RUSSIAN IS HARDLY COMPARABLE WITH STANDARDS IN THE UNITED STATES, EVEN WHEN THE LATTER ARE SUBJECT TO CRITICISM.

EVIDENCE THAT THE PRICE CUTS ARE PART OF AN ECONOMIC PROGRAM THAT CROSSES OVER INTO THE FIELD OF PROPAGANDA CAN BE SEEN IN THE RUSSIAN PRESS' INSISTENCE THAT CONDITIONS IN THE UNITED STATES ARE CHAOTIC. FOR YEARS THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN PREDICTING AN AMERICAN DEPRESSION. NOW THEY SAY THAT ONE OUT OF SEVEN CITY DWELLERS IS STARVING AND THAT 10,000,000 FARMERS LIVE IN DIRE NEED. THAT IS THE APPROXIMATE TOTAL OF FARM EMPLOYMENT IN THE UNITED STATES, SO YOU CAN JUDGE IT ACCORDINGLY.

THE SOVIET UNION, THROUGH THE RECENTLY ANNOUNCED ECONOMIC COUNCIL OF MUTUAL AID, IS TRYING TO CORRELATE ITS ECONOMY CLOSELY WITH THAT OF ALL THE IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES. PRIME MINISTER STALIN IS TRYING TO MAKE THE RUBLE REPRESENT, WITHIN HIS SPHERE, SOME OF THE STABILITY THAT THE DOLLAR REPRESENTS TO MOST OF THE WORLD. THE RUBLE HAS BEEN MADE THE MONETARY UNIT FOR TRANSACTIONS IN RECENT RUSSIAN TRADE AGREEMENTS WITH SUCH COUNTRIES AS POLAND. THERE IS A HINT THAT MOSCOW IS CONSIDERING PLACING A NEW VALUE ON THE RUBLE IN RELATION TO FOREIGN CURRENCY. THIS COULD MEAN THAT THE RUSSIANS WILL ATTEMPT TO MAKE THE RUBLE WORTH MORE IN RELATION TO THE DOLLAR. THERE IS NO FREE EXCHANGE OF THE RUBLE IN WORLD MARKETS, BUT FOR MORE THAN 10 YEARS THE RUSSIANS HAVE IMPOSED THE RATE OF 5.3 RUBLES TO $1. AMERICAN FIRMS DOING BUSINESS IN RUSSIA MUST USE THAT RATIO.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 1-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS RELAXING ITS THREE YEAR OLD "PURGE" RULES FOR JAPAN.

THESE RULES HAVE AUTOMATICALLY BARRED THOUSANDS OF JAPANESE FROM PUBLIC LIFE.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID TODAY A FORMAL DIRECTIVE TO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WILL PERMIT THE RE-EXAMINATION OF MANY JUNIOR ARMY OFFICERS AND SMALL FRY OFFICIALS TO SEE WHETHER THEY SHOULD BE GIVEN CLEAN BILLS.

THIS DIRECTIVE IS ONE OF TWO SENT TO MACARTHUR RECENTLY BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFFS--THE MILITARY HEADS OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE--AND SUBMITTED TO THE 11-NATION FAR EASTERN COMMISSION, THE ADVISORY AGENCY ON OCCUPATION POLICY.

THE OTHER DIRECTIVE IS SAID TO CALL FOR A REVIEW OF AN EARLIER ORDER WHICH DECENTRALIZED JAPANESE POLICE FORCES.

OFFICIALS SAID MACARTHUR WAS CONSULTED IN ADVANCE ON BOTH MOVES.

THEY FIT IN WITH THE DEVELOPING AMERICAN STRESS ON RESTORING JAPAN'S ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL LIFE IN ORDER TO LESSEN THE FORMER ENEMY COUNTRY'S DEPENDENCY ON AMERICAN SUPPORT.

A PURGE OF JAPANESE WARTIME OFFICIALS AND MILITARY LXAS HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR MORE THAN THREE YEARS

A PURGE OF JAPANESE WARTIME OFFICIALS AND MILITARY LEADERS HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR MORE THAN THREE YEARS. MACARTHUR ISSUED A DETAILED ORDER JAN. 4, 1946, BASED ON THE POTSDAM BIG THREE DECLARATION THAT "THERE MUST BE ELIMINATED FOR ALL TIME THE AUTHORITY AND INFLUENCE OF THOSE WHO HAVE DECEIVED AND MISLED THE PEOPLE OF JAPAN INTO EMBARKING ON WORLD CONQUEST."

THE 1946 ORDER BARRED LARGE CLASSES OF INDIVIDUALS WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY EVIDENCE AS TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH THEY MIGHT HAVE BEEN INVOLVED PERSONALLY IN JAPAN'S AGGRESSIVE POLICY. INCLUDED WERE ALL COMMISSIONED OFFICERS OF THE ARMY AND NAVY AND THE SPECIAL VOLUNTEER RESERVE.

UNDER THE NEW DIRECTIVE, AUTHORITIES SAID PRIVATELY, INDIVIDUALS IN SOME OF THE CLASSES MAY BE RE-EXAMINED TO DETERMINE WHETHER THEIR WAR ROLES WERE MERELY ROUTINE.

THE JAPANESE POLICE ORGANIZATION WAS DECENTRALIZED BY MACARTHUR'S ORDER IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE OCCUPATION. THE IDEA WAS TO BREAK UP THE TIGHT TOTALITARIAY SYSTEM OF CONTROL WHICH THE JAPANESE HAD SET UP BEFORE PEARL HARBOR.

OFFICIALS WHO TOLD OF THE DECISION TO REVIEW THIS POLICY SAID THE BIG QUESTION NOW IS WHETHER THE JAPANESE POLICE COULD COPE WITH LARGE SCALE COMMUNIST OR OTHER DISORDERS.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 1-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES' CHIEF FOREIGN AID REPRESENTATIVE IN CHINA TODAY URGED CONTINUATION OF THE $20,000,000 (M) MONTHLY FLOW OF U.S.HELP TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

ROGER LAPHAM, CHIEF OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) MISSION TO CHINA, DECLINED TO ESTIMATE, HOWEVER, HOW MUCH MONEY SHOULD BE PROVIDED FOR THE COMING YEAR.

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT $20,000,000 (M) A MONTH IS NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN ECA RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION OPERATIONS IN AREAS OF CHINA NOT UNDER COMMUNIST CONTROL.

EARLIER IN THE DAY LAPHAM HAD TESTIFIED AT A CLOSED SESSION OF THE CONGRESSIONAL "WATCHDOG" COMMITTEE WHICH KEEPS AN EYE ON FOREIGN AID OPERATIONS.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE GAINED THE IMPRESSION THAT LAPHAM WAS PROJECTING THE $20,000,000 (M) MONTHLY FIGURE OVER THE NEXT 12 MONTHS, AND WAS THUS ASKING FOR A TOTAL OF $240,000,000 (M) FOR THE COMING YEAR.

AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE, LAPHAM DENIED THAT HE MEANT TO CONVEY THAT IMPRESSION.

"AS YET, WE HAVE MADE NO DEFINITE PROPOSAL TO CONGRESS," HE SAID.

THE PROPOSED NEW PROGRAM FOR CHINESE ASSISTANCE, HE SAID, WILL BE LAID BEFORE CONGRESS "VERY SOON" BY ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G.HOFFMAN, ASKED WHETHER ECA WILL REQUEST LESS THAN $240,000,000 FOR CHINA AID NEXT YEAR, LAPHAM ASSERTED THE FIGURE COULD BE MORE OR "CONSIDERABLY LESS" DEPENDING ON FUTURE COMMUNIST MILITARY OPERATIONS.

"IF OUR POLICY IS TO DISCONTINUE OPERATIONS IN COMMUNIST TERRITORY, THEN WE WOULD NOT NEED ANYTHING LIKE $240,000,000," HE SAID. "IF THE COMMUNISTS TAKE SOUTH CHINA--AND IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO MOVE DOWN THE RAILROAD TOWARD CANTON--WE WOULD NOT OPERATE ON THE MAINLAND."

HE SAID THERE IS "LITTLE LIKELIHOOD OF ANY EFFECTIVE MILITARY OPERATIONS AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS" IF THEY CHOOSE TO MOVE SOUTH FROM THEIR CURRENT POSITIONS ALONG THE YANGTZE RIVER.

"IT IS GENERALLY KNOWN THAT MOST CHINESE ARE TIRED OF WAR AND WANT PEACE. ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN WANTS TO MAKE PEACE BUT THE COMMUNISTS SEEMS TO BE IN NO HURRY," HE SAID.

NIGHT LEAD (150)

FORT MEADE,MD.,MARCH 1-(AP)-AN ARMY ENGINEER TESTIFIED TODAY THAT THERE WAS NO REASON WHY SOLITARY CELLS AT THE WURZBURG, GERMANY, DISCIPLINARY CAMP SHOULD HAVE BEEN UNHEATED.

THE WITNESS, CAPT.R.A.FULLER, TOOK THE STAND FOR THE PROSECUTION IN THE COURT-MARTIAL OF COL.HAROLD H.MCCLUNE OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, CHARGED WITH CRUELTY TO WURZBURG PRISONERS WHEN HE WAS COMMANDING OFFICER THERE.

FORMER INMATES HAVE TESTIFIED PREVIOUSLY THAT THEY WERE PUT IN UNHEATED SOLITARY CELLS IN JANUARY, 1947, WITHOUT ADEQUATE CLOTHING OR BLANKETS. THREE OFFICERS WHO SERVED UNDER MCCLUNE HAVE BEEN ACQUITTED OF THE CHARGES.

FULLER WAS POST ENGINEER AT WURZBURG. HE SAID THE HEATING SYSTEM WAS "SATISFACTORY" DURING THE TIME OF THE ALLEGED MISTREATMENT.

THE DEFENSE HAS CONTENDED THAT THE CELLS WERE WITHOUT HEAT BECAUSE THE SYSTEM WAS FAULTY. FULLER ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THERE HAD BEEN BREAKDOWNS IN THE SYSTEM, BUT NONE OF A NATURE WHICH WOULD HAVE CAUSED CELLS TO GO WITHOUT HEAT FOR ANY UNCOMFORTABLE LENGTH OF TIME.

MANEUVERS(270)

BY JAMES J.STREBIG

(WX) WITH THE ATLANTIC FLEET ON CARIBBEAN MANEUVERS,MARCH 1-(AP)-THE NAVY TODAY SHRUGGED OFF DAMAGE FROM MOCK A-BOMB AND SUBMARINE ATTACKS AND JOCKIED A HEAVY ATTACK FORCE INTO POSITION FOR AN ASSAULT ON LITTLE VIEQUES ISLAND.

THIS PHASE OF THE "MOST REALISTIC" WAR GAMES EVER HELD IN PEACETIME CALLED MOSTLY FOR NOISE AND THE SPLASH OF AERIAL BOMBS AND HEAVY SHELLS IN THE SOFT DIRT OF THE ISLAND, WHICH FOR THE NEXT TWO DAYS IS PRESUMABLY A PORTION OF THE AFRICAN-EURASIAN LAND MASS OCCUPIED BY AN "AGGRESSOR" NATION.

EARLIER, THE MANEUVERS REVEALED WEAK DEFENSIVE SPOTS IN TACTICS THAT SMASHED THE JAPANESE FLEET.

THE $200,000,000(M) SUPER AIRCRAFT CARRIER FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT WAS OFFICIALLY PUT OUT OF ACTION TWICE. FIRST IT WAS SUNK BY SNORKEL OR "GUPPY" SUBMARINES, AND LATER WAS PUT OUT OF COMMISSION IN AN ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK THAT ALSO SENT A DESTROYER TO THE BOTTOM.

TODAY TROOPS WERE ORDERED TO MAKE A FEINT LANDING AS THE GUNS OF THE BATTLESHIP MISSOURI, CARRYING A SCORE OF CONGRESSIONAL OBSERVERS, LIFTED THEIR FIRE BEYOND THE BEACH. HOWEVER, THE SCHEDULE CALLED FOR THE LANDING BOATS TO TURN BACK TO THEIR SHIPS WITHOUT AN ACTUAL ATTEMPT TO GO ASHORE.

THE LANDING WILL BE MADE TOMORROW AGAINST A RELATIVELY SMALL BUT HIGHLY TRAINED ENEMY, A FORCE WHICH HAS BEEN PRACTICING FOR AT LEAST TWO MONTHS TO MAKE IT A TOUGH ADVENTURE FOR THE INVADING FORCE.

THE FIRING TODAY WAS DIRECTED AGAINST A BEACH TO THE EAST OF THE AREA OCCUPIED BY THE FORCE OF THE "AGGRESSOR" NATION. THERE WILL BE NO ACTUAL FIRING DURING WEDNESDAY'S LANDING ASSAULT ALTHOUGH THE DEFENDING FORCES WILL PRESENT A REALISTIC PICTURE OF WHAT REAL INVADERS WOULD MEET.

THIS REPRESENTS A NEW PHASE IN AMERICA'S WAR TRAINING GAMES. THE OFFICERS AND MEN ARE GIVEN ACTUAL DEMONSTRATIONS OF WHAT MUST BE DONE IN RECONNAISSANCE TO MEET AN ENEMY.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GROUP WAS LARGELY ON THE BATTLESHIP MISSOURI, WHILE THE PRESS WAS PRIMARILY ON THE USS POCONO, FLAGSHIP FOR ADMIRAL W.H.P.BLANDY, COMMANDER OF THE ATLANTIC FLEET. THE POCONO IS A COMMAND SHIP, DISTINGUISHED BY ITS MANY RADIO ANTENNAS. BOTH SHIPS WERE ANCHORED WITHIN EASY SIGHT OF THE BOMBARDMENT.

(WX) WITH THE ATLANTIC FLEET ON CARIBBEAN MANEUVERS, MARCH 1-(AP)-A NEAR TRAGEDY WAS AVERTED TODAY WHEN A JET PHANTOM FIGHTER PLANE AND A GRUMAN BEARCAT FIGHTER COLLIDED IN MID-AIR.

THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED AT AN ALTITUDE OF ABOUT 6,000 FEET OFF PUERTO RICO.

TWO FEET OF A WING OF THE JET PLANE WERE SHEARED OFF IN THE COLLISION BUT THE PILOT, LIEUT.WILLIAM C.MAY OF DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., MANAGED TO NURSE THE CRIPPLED AIRCRAFT TO A LANDING AT ROOSEVELT ROADS, 30 MILES AWAY ON PUERTO RICO.

THE OTHER PLANE "CARTWHEELED" --TAIL OVER NOSE--AND THE PILOT, LIEUT.R.T.HOPPE, BAILED OUT. HE LANDED IN THE SEA NEAR THE CARRIER FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT. A RESCUE HELICOPTER PLUCKED HIM FROM THE WATER AND TOOK HIM TO HIS HOME CARRIER, THE KEARSARGE.

NEITHER PILOT WAS HURT. DOZENS OF DIGNITARIES WITNESSED THE ACCIDENT FROM THE ROOSEVELT.

IT OCCURRED AS 125 PLANES WERE IN THE AIR DEMONSTRATING AIR TACTICS. SIXTEEN JET PLANES, INCLUDING THE ONE DAMAGED IN THE ACCIDENT, PARTICIPATED IN AN OPERATIONAL ACTION FROM A CARRIER FOR THE FIRST TIME.

EARLIER, THE NAVY HAD ANNOUNCED THAT NO ONE WAS INJURED WHEN THE SUBMARINE TRUMPETFISH WAS DAMAGED IN AN UNDERWATER COLLISION WITH THE CARGO SHIP MARQUETTE DURING CURRENT WAR GAMES.

Soviet Mission Headquarters In U.S. Zone Blockaded

Frankfurt, Germany, March 2 (AP)—Armed military police today blockaded a Russian mission which refused American orders to leave the United States zone of Germany.

Supplies of water, gas and electricity were cut off and telephones disconnected in the bloodless siege of the Russian repatriation mission here. Food was shut off by orders to MP's to arrest anyone trying to enter the building or to leave it.

Officer Turned Away

Four officers and four soldiers and their families are in the mission. No one knew how much food they had.

A Russian officer, apparently from the Soviet military mission, tried to enter the house, but was turned away by an MP.

The mission handled the return of displaced persons to Russia.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, on February 16 asked the mission to leave by March 1 because the number of DP's now agreeing to return to Russia is negligible. He said the regular Russian military mission could handle the work and lifted the credentials of the repatriation mission.

Order Denounced

The Russians protested vehemently and denounced the order as a violation of the Yalta and Potsdam agreements.

The United States Army set a deadline of last midnight for the Russians to leave. But forceful measures were not planned.

General Clay said "as long as they don't want to get out of the house, we are in no hurry about getting them out."

The Russians remained in the house and at midnight the big yellow building was a blaze of light.

M.P.'s Arrive

At about 8 A.M. this morning a platoon of American military police, headed by Col. Sterling Wood, Frankfurt provost marshal, left American military post headquarters and went to the mission, located in the heart of Frankfurt's American community.

When they arrived at the building, Wood pounded on the front door and then the rear gates. He was ignored.

After he had ordered his men to surround the building and after the gas had been turned off, he was admitted.

Refuse To Move

He emerged from a conference with Col. Vasily L. Argoonov, the chief of the Russian mission, within a few minutes and announced:

"They refuse to move at the present time. They say they have received no orders to do so."

A Russian spokesman was said to have told United States Lieutenant General Clarence R. Huebner Monday that the members of the mission would be considered "deserters" if they left without orders from their zone commander in Berlin.

Wood said he had offered to furnish the Russians with an escort to the Soviet zone border but "it was refused at this time."

"Same Treatment"

He added he assumed the Russians would communicate with him or his men when they wished to leave. He said they were receiving "exactly the same treatment as any other group which was no longer authorized to stay in the zone."

The Russians met with stoicism the threat of being starved out.

As the colonel left the building, members of the mission inside began to sing melancholy folk songs to the playing of an accordion. They peered out the windows occasionally at the crowd of reporters, photographers and the curious standing in the snow.

The Russian officer who tried to enter the building was told he would have to contact Wood, who had left by that time. The Russian drove off with a chauffeur, apparently in search of the American colonel.

BLOCKADED REDS PLEAD FOR WATER

Repatriation Mission Refuses to Quit Building; Hit U. S. Action

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 2—(AP) A plea for water came tonight from the Russian repatriation mission, blockaded here by U. S. military police because it rejected Gen. Lucius D. Clay's order to leave.

In Berlin Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky denounced the blockade as "shameless police operations." In a statement distributed by the official Soviet news agency SNB he said the blockade represented "new proofs of deliberate violation of international commitments by U. S. occupation authorities in Germany and the U. S. government."

The statement did not disclose whether the eight-man repatriation mission would be ordered to leave Frankfurt.

A plea for water was made when a Soviet colonel, not a member of the mission, was allowed to visit the besieged mission headquarters with Col. Sterling Wood, Frankfurt Provost Marshal, and an American interpreter.

Water, Gas Cut

Water lines of the mission were cut this morning, along with electric, telephone and gas service. The house was in darkness, lit only by the rays of a flashlight.

Asked whether the Russian plea for water would be granted, Wood told reporters:

"My orders were that the water be shut off. They have not been changed."

Wood said the mission members were sitting together, singing Russian folk songs, when the party entered. He said no new proposals were advanced by either side, except that the Russians asked for water.

The Russian colonel's last word to Wood, as they parted on the sidewalk outside the building were:

"I wish to remind you again of our request for water."

Then he shook hands with Wood and saluted smartly.

The red flag of the Soviet Union flew over the headquarters.

The Russian government has denounced Clay's order for withdrawal of the mission as a violation of Yalta and Potsdam agreements on the handling of displaced persons. Clay asked it to get out of the U. S. zone by March 1 on grounds there was little for it to do.

Reds Urge Germans To Back Russ Army

Berlin, March 2 (AP)—Berlin's Communist press told the Germans under banner headlines today to support the Soviet Army "in case of any aggression" by the Western powers.

Every Russian-licensed newspaper featured on Page One a statement issued by the Politburo of East Germany's Communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party (SED).

"On German Soil"

The statement accused the Western powers of "war mongering and direct war preparations against the Soviet Union," warned the Germans such a war would be fought on their soil, and declared:

"In case of any aggression, the German people must fight against the aggressors and support the Soviet Army in its efforts to create peace."

With unanimity clearly revealing an official Communist propaganda campaign, the newspapers followed with editorials against "imperialist war mongering" and praising the "Soviet fight for peace."

Red Statements Cited

All cited the recent similar statements by Communist leaders in France, Italy and England pledging aid against Russia's foes.

These statements "are milestones on the road toward securing peace, because they make clear to the imperialists that their policy is fatal to themselves," said the Taegliche Rundshau, official organ of the Soviet Army in Germany.

In their war-scare campaign, the Red papers even read military menace into the new airfields built for the British-American airlift supplying Soviet blockaded Berlin.

Trade Gain Claimed

The Russian-licensed news agency A.D.N. claimed that the foreign trade of the Soviet zone of Germany has increased 32.5 per cent in the last year—despite the Allies' counterblockade cutting off trade with western Germany.

Berlin's anti-Communist press reported increased conscription of German labor by the Russians for work in the uranium mines near the Czech border.

From the city of Erfurt alone, three transports of 140 to 180 conscripted workers are shipped out every week for the mines where raw material for atom bombs is produced. Der Tag, organ of the Christian Democratic party, said.

Berlin's Soviet Paper Hits New Low in Sales

BERLIN, March 2 (AP).—The official Soviet newspaper here was reported to have reached a new level in unpopularity.

Western sources said the circulation of "Taegliche Rundschau," organ of the Soviet Army, had sunk to 45,000 daily. The Russians are said to be so dissatisfied they ordered strict economies.

Russian Soldier Killed On British Zone Border

Hamburg, Germany, March 2 (AP). A Russian soldier was shot and killed on the British-Soviet frontier near Brunswick Monday, it was learned today.

Eye-witnesses said the Russian pursued two women from the Soviet zone into the British zone. Inside the British zone he was stopped by a German frontier policeman. The Russian was said to have lunged at the German with his bayonet and fired at him. The German, uninjured, drew his pistol and shot the Russian, the witness said.

The body was taken back to the Russian zone by Soviet soldiers the same night.

Allies In Accord On Bonn Charter

Frankfurt, Germany, March 2 (AP). The three Western military governors reached "complete agreement" today on their attitude toward a German-drafted constitution for the projected West German state.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American Military Governor, made this announcement following a conference with Gen. Pierre Koenig and General Sir Brian Robertson, the French and British military governors.

Council Leaders To Meet

"We have reached complete agreement on what we will advise the representatives of the parliamentary council," he said.

Six leaders of the German Parliamentary Council were summoned to meet with the military governors today. They will be told how the draft of the constitution should be changed to conform with the London agreement.

The six-power London agreement of last spring authorized the West Germans to draft a constitution for a federal republic to embrace the American, British and French occupation zones.

"There are not many changes to be recommended," General Clay said.

Accord Speeds West German Constitution

U.S., Britain, France Accept Change; Way Cleared for Final Approval at Bonn

FRANKFURT, March 2 (AP).—The Western military governors today swept away a major obstacle to formation of a West German government. They agreed fully on how a proposed German draft constitution should be changed to conform to Allied ideas.

The agreement cleared the way for the all-German Bonn Parliamentary Council to approve a final draft of the constitution this week.

General Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor, announced the three-power agreement after a talk with the British and French governors, General Sir Brian H. Robertson and General Joseph Pierre Koenig. The military governors then gave the recommendations to six leaders of the Parliamentary Council.

An Allied diplomatic source said the recommendations were aimed to meet a six-nation directive that the West German state be democratic and "truly Federal."

The informant said the military governors asked:

1. For precautions against concentration of too much financial power in the hands of the central government, at expense of the eleven states under it. The central government would collect all taxes, and retain one-third. One-third would go to the states, and the other would be split among the central government and the eleven states according to an agreed formula.

2. Clarification of the relationship of officials of the central government to officials of the states.

3. Reservation of certain legislative powers to the states.

Most Allied officials here expect the Bonn Council will accept the recommendations quickly.

American Mother's Peace Plea Quoted

Berlin, March 2 (AP)—The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN said tonight an American mother has written to the Russian commandant of Berlin hoping that "Russia and the United States shall remain friends."

The agency identified her as Mrs. Gustina L. [initial only], of Oakhill, W.Va., mother of a United States Army soldier.

The article quoted her as writing to Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov that she condemned the destruction of antenna towers of the Soviet-controlled radio at Tegel airport as an "act that could lead to war." The French blew up the towers in December because they interfered with the airlift.

"I do hope that Russia and the United States shall remain friends, not only on account of my son whom I want to see healthy and alive, but on account of my love for the Russian people," said the purported letter.

U. S. Agent Links Czechs To Spy Trial in Munich

MUNICH, March 2 (AP).—Testimony of a United States Army counter-intelligence agent linked Communist - run Czechoslovakia today to the spy trial here of eight Europeans charged with collecting information for a "foreign power."

The agent testified before an eight-member American military commission. He told of a conversation with defendant Robert Kruse, forty-four. The agent said he showed Kruse "documents he had submitted to the Czechoslovakian secret service." No further mention was made of Czechoslovakia or any other foreign power in the testimony.

SOVIET BACKS TITO ON SLOVENE STATE

Supports Proposal For Southern Province Of Austria

London, March 2 (AP)—Russia lined up with Yugoslavia today behind a plan to create a self-governing Slovene province in southern Austria.

Soviet backing of Yugoslav claims, renewed despite the Cominform's fight with Premier Marshal Tito, sharpened the East-West disagreement in Big Four talks on an Austrian independence treaty.

United States, British and French deputy foreign ministers at the treaty conference here joined in opposing creation of an autonomous province. The Yugoslavs said such a province was needed for "fair treatment" of Slovenes in Austrian Carinthia.

Unwarranted And Unjustified

Samuel Reber, United States deputy, described Yugoslavia's further claim for annexation of an unspecified amount of Austrian territory as "unwarranted and unjustified." Russia supported the territorial claim, too.

Western diplomatic sources were still hopeful of finding a compromise. The treaty discussions started two and a half years ago.

Reber, according to an American source, said Yugoslavia's modified demands "might possibly provide the road to a final settlement."

Georgi N. Zarubin, Russian Ambassador, was reported to have taken the initiative in pressing for further discussion.

Demand Goes Too Far

France's Marcel Bethelot and Britain's James Majoribanks joined Reber today in opposing territorial concessions to Yugoslavia.

On the question of autonomy, Reber said Yugoslavia's demand for a separate legislature, courts and police for the proposed Slovene state "went too far."

He added, however, that the Western powers would agree to a "practical solution" to guarantee Slovenes in all parts of Austria protection of economic and cultural rights.

The deputies will meet again tomorrow.

French Official Seized As Plotter

Paris, March 2 (AP)—Hepis Paul Moret, an employé of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, was arrested today in France's spy roundup. He was charged with conspiracy to conceal espionage.

Police said Moret had been in contact with Major Louis Teulery, who is under arrest on the more serious charge of giving military information to a foreign power.

Moret's job was reported to be handling of commercial negotiations with Italy, Belgium and Switzerland.

Jules Moch, Interior Minister, told the Cabinet today twenty persons have been or are being questioned and eight have been arrested in the roundup. Names of seven have been released by police.

Two Bao Dai Backers Murdered

PARIS, March 2 (AP)—A French dispatch from Saigon today said the vice president of the Nationalist-Bao Dai-ist party and a brother of an adviser to former Emperor Bao Dai had been murdered by members of the Viet-Minh, revolutionary party headed by Ho Chi Minh. The Cabinet adopted a motion today to create a territorial legislature in Cochin China. This is part of the program to end the war in Indo-China by returning Bao Dai to his throne as a constitutional monarch.

Health Of Petain Gradually Weakening

Paris, March 2 (AP)—The health of Marshal Henri Phillipe Petain is "showing a gradual weakening due to old age," three physicians told the French Cabinet today.

There is "no particular malady" to which Petain's loss of health can be attributed, the medical report stated.

French Reject Truman, Stalin Parley Bid Plan

Paris, March 2 (AP)—The Foreign Affairs Committee of the French National Assembly rejected today a proposal to invite President Truman and Prime Minister Stalin to confer in Paris.

A substitute measure was adopted. It would invite "all interested countries" to send representatives here for "a major effort for peace." The measure now goes to the National Assembly for approval.

Heads World Justice Court

THE HAGUE, March 2 (AP).—Professor Jules Basdevant, of France, has been elected president of the International Court of Justice for the next three years.

DANES REPORTED READY TO ACCEPT ATLANTIC PACT BID

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 2. — (AP) Diplomatic informants said tonight Denmark may formally accept tomorrow an invitation to join talks on the projected North Atlantic Defense treaty.

The government's Foreign Relations committee met for two hours behind closed doors to discuss whether Denmark should join the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium and Holland in a common defense treaty.

Prime Minister Hans Hedtoft and Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen gave a detailed report of Denmark's situation.

Agree In Principle

The informants said the committee agreed in principle that Denmark should join the talks on the projected peace treaty at the earliest possible moment.

The Danish government's Political committee probably will make a final decision at another meeting tomorrow. The committee is made up of representatives of all the parties in the Danish parliament with the exception of the communists.

The diplomatic informants said at least 125 of the 150 members of parliament are known to favor an early joining of the talks in Washington on the North Atlantic treaty.

If agreement is reached on accepting an invitation to join the talks Foreign Minister Rasmussen probably will speed his departure for the United States in order to bring Denmark into the negotiations before the pact is signed.

A formal acceptance would be dispatched from Copenhagen tomorrow if agreement is reached, the informants added.

Norway, another of the Scandinavian countries, is considering joining the treaty talks. Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange has told the Norwegian parliament that Norway should come into the talks early enough to influence formation of the treaty. The parliament has taken no action on the matter as yet.

Sweden Rejects Charges On Balts

Stockholm, Sweden, March 2 (AP). Sweden today rejected as "pure" fantasy" Russian charges that Baltic citizens in this country are being persecuted.

A Russian note with these charges was delivered to the Swedish Foreign Office Monday.

The Foreign Office answer said it had studied with great astonishment the Russian charges that Swedish authorities had tried to prevent Balts from returning to their homelands.

Romania Seizes Last Of Large Land Holdings

Bucharest, Romania, March 2 (AP)—Romania today stripped former big landowners of the last remnants of their acreage.

A decree of the Supreme Presidium of the Romanian Government, effective at once, expropriated all remaining land of the former landed gentry without payment. The decree was broadcast by the Bucharest radio.

About 315,000 acres were taken over by the Government, it was estimated.

Noncompliance Alleged

The decree said the reasons for the step were the landowners' noncompliance with Government regulations and sabotage of machinery.

Punishment for not complying with the new decree was set at three to fifteen years' imprisonment.

The Government in 1945 took over all land on ordinary farms of the landed class in excess of 150 acres. It exempted some so-called model, or intensive-agriculture, farms from this list.

The new decree expropriates all farms, regardless of size, and all model farms belonging to the former big landowners. It does not affect holding of small peasant landowners.

Livestock, Machines Taken

"Living and dead inventory"—that is live stock, poultry and farm machinery of the big owners—also are taken over. Only their personal belongings were exempted from the decree.

The State Farm Administration presumably will run the farms taken over under the decree this season. Spring plowing already is under way in Romania.

Big Romanian Farms Seized

Bucharest, Romania, March 2 (AP). The Romanian Government seized today the scattered farms—estimated at 315,000 acres in all—which it left to former big private landowners under the expropriation decree of 1945.

Livestock, poultry and farm machinery of the former big landowners also were taken over. The broadcast decree of the Supreme Presidium exempted only the owners' personal belongings.

It said there would be no payment. Penalties for noncompliance were set at from three to fifteen years in prison.

Sabotage Charged

The decree said the expropriation was ordered because the owners, Romania's former landed gentry, failed to comply with regulations and committed sabotage which led to the deterioration of farm machinery.

The Government took over all land on ordinary farms of the landed classes in excess of 150 acres in 1945. It exempted some so-called model farms. The new decree expropriates all farms, regardless of type and size, belonging to the former big landowners. Small peasant land holdings are not affected.

Parties Dissolved

Spring plowing already is under way in Romania. The state farm administration presumably will take up where the private owners stop.

Politically, all these owners had been members of opposition parties now dissolved. The physical seizure of the properties was carried out across the nation by local committees and militia during the night and in the early hours this morning.

They took over manors and buildings as well as the farm acreage.

Testimony Ends In Sofia Protestant Clerics' Trial

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 2 (AP)—Taking of testimony ended in the treason trial of fifteen Protestant ministers today. Both prosecution and defense wound up the presentation of witnesses.

Dimiter Georgi, prosecutor, canceled the scheduled appearances of 42 of his 53 witnesses, saying: "The evidence is abundant and clear. We need not hear any more."

He referred to the fact all fifteen had made public confessions in court, amplifying on depositions obtained from them while they were prisoners for three months of the Communist-controlled security police.

American Missions Attacked

Prosecution witnesses testified against the chief defendants and then spent most of their time attacking American church foreign missions. They charged that these missions had given money to the Bulgarian Protestants in pay for espionage under the guise of genuine church aid.

The prosecution introduced Dr. Boris Pashev, organizational secretary for a Peasant party leader, the late Nikola Petkov, for testimony against the chief defendant, the Rev. Vassil Ziapkov. Petkov was convicted in 1947 of plotting against the Government and was executed. Pashev identified the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov, a Congregational pastor, with Petkov's anti-Government activities.

Promised American Aid

Pashev quoted the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov as having remarked: "The Red Army could not have won the victory without American equipment. . . . The United States and England will actively intervene in Bulgaria and I can promise you financial aid in your opposition to communism. America has enough money."

Another prosecution witness was Christo Stratev, former general secretary of the Agrarian Union, who is under arrest for his party activities. He was brought from jail to testify.

Stratev charged the ministers were dominated by Americans.

He declared Cyril Black, former secretary in the American political mission here who is now a professor at Princeton University, gave orders to Bulgarian Protestants through the Rev. Nikola Naumov, a Baptist defendant, to oppose communism vigorously because "America is preparing for war against the Soviet Union and will support you."

[Black has denied similar charges.]

Seven defense witnesses appeared.

Not Official Member

Georgi Kulishev, former Foreign Minister, testified that, contrary to previous statements, the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov was not an official member of the Bulgarian delegation to the Paris peace conference in 1946. The prosecution contended that the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov had dealings at the peace conference with British and Americans for espionage purposes.

Kulishev sought to alleviate the penalty on the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov, since Bulgarian law provides the death penalty for anyone divulging official secret information. If the defense claim that the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov was only a private member of the delegation is upheld, it would give him the possibility of a lighter sentence.

A recess of the court was expected tomorrow for Bulgaria's national independence day. Prosecution and defense summations may take up the rest of the week. Verdicts possibly will be reached Monday.

Sofia Spy Case 'Proved,' Reds Declare

Sofia, March 2 (AP)—The prosecution in Bulgaria's trial of fifteen Protestant pastors accused of spying for the United States and Britain today suddenly canceled the scheduled appearance of 42 witnesses.

The prosecution said "the evidence is abundant and clear. We need not hear any more."

All Signed Confessions

The Government had intended to present 53 witnesses against the defendants, all of whom signed confesions while they were held secretly for three months by the Communist security police.

The cancellation of the remaining testimony came after the court had heard a parade of witnesses who sought to prove that the pastors were spying for the United States and Britain.

The testimony hammered at the United States and American church missions. Apparently, the Government intended to incriminate any Bulgarian sect which had ties with Western church headquarters and to sever those ties.

Seek To Sever Ties

The cutting of Bulgarian church relations with the West is the primary objective of a new church law now before Parliament.

The prosecution witnesses accused the pastors not only of spying and black marketing, but of fighting the Communist Government. One star witness, Christo Stratev, former general secretary of the Agrarian Union, was brought from jail to testify. He is under arrest for his activities in the Agrarian party, whose leader was executed in 1947.

Stratev assailed the pastors throughout his testimony, charging they were dominated by American masters. He singled out Nikola Naumov, Baptist leader and a top defendant, and Cyril Black, former secretary in the American political mission here, and now a Princeton professor.

War Held Promised

Stratev said Black gave orders to Bulgarian Protestants through Naumov to oppose communism here vigorously "because America is preparing for war against the Soviet Union and will support you." He said Black promised the Protestant churches of Bulgaria would give full support to the Agrarian Union and ordered all anti-Communists here to collect full espionage information "because American troops soon may enter Bulgaria."

After canceling its remaining witnesses, the prosecution agreed to hear some 24 defense witnesses beginning this afternoon.

Photos Are Taken

In the trial's fifth day, pictures were made in the courtroom for the first time—by an official photographer. One picture shows all the defendants in court, each separated from his neighbor by a guard.

The prosecution appeared to be trying to show that funds sent by American church missions to Bulgarian churches were not genuine church aid, but pay for espionage. The defendants also are accused of black-market money transactions.

MINDSZENTY 'AIDS' ASK FOR ACQUITTAL

Budapest, March 2 (A. P.).—Defense counsel argued today for the acquittal of fourteen persons accused of political conspiracy and illegal financial deals with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, sentenced to life imprisonment. The lawyers argued that there were mitigating circumstances in these cases.

Lawyers for three Catholic clerics, Mgr. Imre Boka, Father Josef Zid and Brother Janos Zaradi, and the lawyer for Dr. Gabor Horvath, former secretary to Prince Paul Esterhazy, said the amount of dollars which were brought into the country by Roman Catholic organizations did not represent the value of goods exported in return, and thus Hungary suffered no loss.

HIS REPUDIATION NOW REPUDIATED

Budapest, March 2 (A. P.).—One of the fourteen Budapest defendants who repudiated part of his confession asked the court's forgiveness today for doing so. Cyorgy Nagy, a banker, declared yesterday that he had been intimidated by the police into making a pretrial confession. He and the others are charged with "political conspiracy" and the illegal financial deals with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty. Today, however, he asked the court to forgive his behavior in the dock, saying "the physical and mental pain of the two months spent in prison" caused his outbreak.

The defendants were being called, one by one, for final statements. Defense counsel asked acquittal on behalf of the fourteen defendants.

Hungarians Weep At Court

Budapest, March 2 (AP)—Spectators wept as fourteen persons accused of aiding Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in an alleged political conspiracy began final statements to the court today.

The trial recessed until Saturday, when the traditional last words of the accused will be completed, and the court will retire to arrive at a verdict.

All fourteen are charged with being minor figures in what the Government calls a conspiracy led by Cardinal Mindszenty to overthrow the Government. They also are charged with having black market money dealings with or on behalf of the Cardinal, Catholic Primate of Hungary. He was sentenced to life imprisonment February 8, but has appealed.

Duke's Secretary Takes Blame

Some of the defendants asked for mercy, and some dramatically sought to shoulder blame and shield others from punishment. Among the latter was Dr. Gabor Horvath, former secretary to Duke Paul Esterhazy.

"I would rather die than violate my loyalty," said Horvath, insisting that he, not the duke, was guilty of black-market practices.

The duke was convicted in the same trial as Cardinal Mindszenty and sentenced to fifteen years in prison. He once was one of Europe's richest men.

Msgr. Imre Boka, former treasurer for Cardinal Mindszenty, told the court he was "taken away against my will from the pulpit" to become an official in the Cardinal's office. He spoke of his love for his church and the people, and asked for mercy, reminding the judges that he has a 74-year-old mother. He previously had confessed.

Broker Reaffirms Denial

Zsigmond Deutsch, a broker who yesterday repudiated a pretrial confession implicating four other defendants, reaffirmed the denial and asked for mercy. He pleaded that he had suffered much while the Nazis occupied Hungary and never had regained good health.

Gyorgy Nagy, another broker, told the court "the physical and mental pain of the two months spent in prison" awaiting trial justified his attitude in court yesterday when he also repudiated a pretrial confession and accused the police of intimidating him.

The Rev. Josef Zid, treasurer of the Jesuit Order in Hungary, declined to ask for mercy for himself, but asked the court to be lenient to his subordinate, the Jesuit Brother Janos Zaradi.

Both Confessed Deals

Both had confessed they engaged in illegal financial dealings as charged. Father Zid appealed for his fellow Jesuit as a hero who saved the lives of many Jews in the years of Nazi oppression.

Brother Zaradi, who seemed about to weep, did not speak in his own behalf.

The court Saturday will hear the statements of defendants whom Deutsch said he wrongly accused in order to get out of solitary confinement in a prison cell.

Cominform Calls Military Talks, Prague Hears

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 2 (AP)—The Cominform may be getting ready to hatch a military alliance to match the North Atlantic pact.

Reports from Poland said a Cominform military conference has been called for about March 15 in Hungary, possibly at Debrecen. Reliable sources in Warsaw were quoted as saying the defense chiefs of the eastern European countries were expected to review their military preparations.

The announced purpose of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) is limited to propaganda.

Formed To Fight U.S. Aid

It was organized by the Communist parties of Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, France and Italy on October 5, 1947, to fight the Marshall plan and "United States imperialism."

A month ago a parallel Economic Council for Mutual Aid was formed by Russia, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia—all of the Cominform countries except France and Italy, where non-Communist governments are in power, and Yugoslavia, which has been expelled.

Stronger Steps Needed

At that time some observers predicted that a parallel military organization also would be formed.

The purpose of ECMA, Moscow announced, is to foster economic co-operation. It had become evident that stronger measures than propaganda were necessary to

Reds May Create Arms Pact To Match Atlantic Treaty

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, March 2.—(AP) Are the Cominform nations in eastern Europe considering a military alliance to supplement their political and trade links?

A report from Poland that a cominform military conference is to be held in Hungary about March 15 got no direct confirmation here, but foreign observers were not surprised.

They had predicted that a parallel military organization also would be formed when, about a month ago, Russia announced creation of the Economic Council for Mutual Aid (ECMA). This is an economic alliance linking the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

Match Atlantic Pact

Such an alliance might be intended to match the North Atlantic pact, just as ECMA was designed as a Soviet answer to the Marshall plan. The announced purpose of the cominform itself, an international information bureau of the communist parties of eight nations, is propaganda against "U. S. imperialism." Communist parties of France and Italy are members.

A military alliance as a companion to ECMA would be fresh evidence that the attitude of cominform countries toward the west is hardening.

Usually reliable sources in Warsaw reported yesterday the military conference probably will be held in mid-March at Debrecen, Hungary. A foreign observer in Prague said he believed a number of such meetings have been held already.

(Communist newspapers in Berlin started a war scare campaign, calling on Germans to support the Soviet army if the western powers attack. Every Russian-licensed paper gave page one display to a communist Politburo statement that the west seeks war, and that such a war would be fought on German soil. They followed through with editorial attacks on western "imperialism." The theme is the same as that which communist leaders in Britain, France and Italy have followed in recent speeches and public statements.

(In Rome, however, Emilio Sereni, Communist party director, announced plans for a communist-line world peace congress in April. He said it would be attended by leftist intellectuals to unite and strengthen "the forces of peace." Nenni, a member of the Italian parliament, said the meeting would be held in Paris, Geneva or Brussels.)

The smaller Soviet bloc nations already have mutual assistance military agreements with Russia, but the pacts fall short of a general alliance. Leaders of all have promised that their armies would back Russia in event of war, but the treaties actually pledge assistance only in event of war with Germany or a power joined directly or indirectly by the Germans.

A major task in uniting them in a general alliance would be to standardize weapons, ammunition and equipment, and integrate operational procedures. Under such an alliance, Russia's western borders would have the bulwark of what, in effect, would be shock troops pledged to guard her, and using equipment matching her own if she wanted to send in reinforcing men and materials.

match the Marshall plan.

The Cominform satellites already are linked with Moscow in a series of mutual-assistance treaties. These treaties lack the character of a general alliance, however. They pledge mutual assistance only in event of war with Germany or a power joined directly or indirectly with Germany.

Closer Trade Ties Sought

When ECMA was organized, Russia also had a series of trade agreements with her satellites. ECMA sought closer application through Moscow of those two-party agreements.

The armies of the eastern European nations are now modeled politically and militarily on the Soviet pattern. Their leaders have announced that they would stand beside the Soviet Army in any fight.

Both Soviet and Czechoslovak leaders on Red Army Day recently urged greater preparedness because of the alleged aggressive designs of the United States.

Czechs Are Arms Makers

The biggest task of any Cominform alliance would be to integrate or standardize weapons, ammunition and equipment.

Czechoslovakia traditionally is an arms-producing nation. But it is doubtful whether this country would be picked to be a supplier in such a program despite recent signs of its political reliability from the Soviet standpoint.

If such standardization were attained, Russia would have an important defensive front line of shock troops along her western borders.

There was no direct confirmation here of the reports from Poland that a military conference actually is being planned. But one foreign observer said he believed it was only one of a number of such conferences already held at intervals.

Three Polish Priests Admit Inciting Band

Warsaw, Poland, March 2 (AP)—Three Catholic priests pleaded guilty before a military tribunal in Lodz today to inciting an underground band to kill supporters of the Communist-led Warsaw Government.

One, the Rev. Waclaw Ortotowski, also appealed to all Catholic clergymen to "renounce all cooperation with bands and condemn their activities from church pulpits."

Father Ortotowski is being tried with the Rev. Marian Losos, the Rev. Stefan Farys and Han Malopepszy, alleged leader of the "Polish conspiracy army."

Greeks Report 56 More Guerrillas Killed

Athens, March 2 (AP)—The Greek general staff reported today 56 guerrillas were killed and 32 were captured in a running battle north of Karpenissi.

The communiqué reported the guerrilla casualties were in addition to the capture of 210 announced yesterday.

A high military source said the guerrillas have lost more than 1,000 killed or captured since they were driven out of Karpenissi February 7. Karpenissi is 125 miles northwest of Athens.

Among the prisoners taken was the guerrilla leader Prassas, who, the communiqué said, was astonished when military doctors and nurses took care of his wounds.

Turkish Munitions Factory Blows Up

Istanbul, Turkey, March 2 (AP)—An explosion leveled a private munitions plant here tonight and killed an undetermined number of persons.

Reliable informants said the plant had been making anti-aircraft shells for Egypt and Syria.

A Government spokesman said the death toll would be about fifteen, but eyewitnesses said they had seen far more bodies in the wreckage.

More than 125 employés were working at the time of the blast, which wrecked the plant and knocked down homes 100 yards away. The explosion rocked the entire city and was felt as far as 20 miles away.

Police said tons of nitrogylcerin which did not explode were in the path of flames sweeping the wreckage. They roped off an area of more than a mile as a precautionary measure.

Police were unable to locate Nuri Killigil Pasha, owner of the factory. He had returned only three days ago from Egypt.

Turk Order To Deport 2 Russians Reported

Istanbul, March 2 (AP)—Two unidentified Russian citizens have been ordered deported from Turkey, reliable Ankara sources disclosed tonight.

Both are residents of Istanbul and have been engaged in "suspicious activities," these sources said. They are being taken to an eastern frontier post and turned over to Russian authorities.

U.S. Aid Hopes Boost Morale In China

Nanking, March 2 (AP)—Official Chinese circles today welcomed reports of a proposed $240,000,000 aid program from the United States.

First reaction of Chinese Government officials to a Washington report that such a program was under consideration was a prediction that National morale would be boosted. One official suggested that the disclosure might strengthen Nanking's bargaining position.

The present aid program is due to expire in April. Efforts to get more American aid—up to $3,000,000,000 over a three-year period have been made.

War Slows Program

The unsettled war issue has tended to slow the American aid program. It has been stopped altogether in some parts of China.

Meanwhile, the Shanghai mission to the Communists in Peiping returned to Shanghai after completing its report to Acting President Li Tsung-jen.

Among subjects said to be under discussion by Li and Premier Sun Fo is a reshuffle of the Cabinet.

Three Reported Out

A source close to the Executive Yuan disclosed that three Cabinet Ministers had resigned. This source said they were Yu To-wei, Minister of Communications; Ku Cheng-kang, Minister of Social Affairs, and Tso Shun-sheng, Minister of Agriculture and Forestry.

The Ministers of Education and Justice never assumed their offices, it was said.

Besides appointments of new ministers there is to be a streamlining of Government offices and a reduction in personnel, these sources said. Some departments are to be combined and the ministries of food and social affairs are likely to be abolished.

Cruiser Vanishes

Whereabouts of the Chinese navy's flagship, the cruiser Chungking, remained a mystery.

Most mariners in Shanghai, still believe she went over to the Communists.

Reports the Chinese Air Force had sighted the Chungking heading for a Manchurian port and threatened to bomb her were discounted.

The Chinese naval commander in chief, Admiral Kwei Yung-ching, had not been located in Shanghai although he reportedly went there after the Chungking sailed without orders.

2 Russians Flee Soviet To U.S. Territory

Tokyo, March 2 (AP)—Two young Russians, one a sergeant flyer and the other an ex-army man, have sought refuge in United States occupied Japan.

The second's presence became known today, the first yesterday.

The former enlisted man, Innokentiy Zyryanov, 24, paddled 30 miles from the Kuriles to northeastern Hokkaido last September. He said he fought off attacking herds of seals, finally knifing some as they sought to dislodge him from his 6-foot 18-inch wide homemade raft.

Son Of Jap

He said he fled Kurashiri Island, 30 miles northeast of Hokkaido, to escape racial persecution. His father was Japanese and his mother a Russian. Both were slain by the Soviets for political reasons, he said.

Zyryanov had been employed as a civilian at Kunashiri after serving in the Red Army in Siberia, Sakhalin and the Kuriles.

Authorities said there was no connection between his case and that of Sergt. Vladimir Barashkov, Red airman, whose flight to Japan was revealed yesterday. The United States Army disclosed that he landed a Russian twin-engined transport plane at Rishiri Island in northern Japan last November 10.

Can't Follow Communism

Neither arrival was known to the public until Barashkov saw newsmen yesterday.

He told them communism "was a principle I could not follow with my conscience and mind. I found that communism as taught to me was not actually what it represented it."

The Army said Barashkov would be "resettled." In Washington, however, Army officials said he would not be brought to the United tSates. His future home is being kept secret.

Lieut. Gen. Kuzma Derevyanko, head of the Soviet Mission to Japan, disclaimed any knowledge of the incident. The Army said Russian authorities had asked that Barashkov be turned over to them as a deserter and thief, but were refused.

B-50 Circles World Non-Stop in 94 Hours, Refueled 4 Times in Air; LeMay Says It Could 'Deliver Atom Bomb Anywhere'

B-29 Missing In Luzon; 9 Aboard

Manila, March 2 (AP)—An American Air Force B-29 with nine men aboard was believed down in the lofty unexplored Carabello Mountain range of northern Luzon today. The bomber, overdue at Clark Field Airbase, was last heard from 90 miles from the field.

All available planes from Clark Field scanned the area northeast of the base today, but a heavy cloud formation hampered the search.

Brig. Gen. Jared V. Crabb, of the United States 18th Fighter Wing, said the plane was on a routine local flight when it disappeared. He said its home base was in the United States.

'Fort Believed Link In B-50 Hop Missing

Manila, Thursday, March 3 (AP)—A missing United States superfortress may have been one of the four vital refueling links for the nonstop globe-girdling flight of the B-50 Lucky Lady II.

The B-29, missing with nine aboard and believed down in the lofty, unexplored Carabello Mountains of northern Luzon, failed to return from a "routine" flight about the time the B-50 Lucky Lady II passed over Luzon.

There was no immediate confirmation from United States fighter wing headquarters at Clark Field that the lost plane served as a tanker for the record flight, however. Its home base was in the United States.

14 IRANIANS GO ON TRIAL

Members of the Outlawed Tudeh Party Accused of Plot

TEHERAN, Iran, March 2 (AP)—Fourteen leaders of the pro-Soviet Tudeh party went on trial today on charges of having engaged in activities against the Iranian monarchy and having spread Marxism.

Iran dissolved the Tudeh party recently, following an attempt to assassinate Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi. The Government charged the party had been implicated in the Feb. 4 assassination attempt.

Among the defendants are a former Minister of Health, Dr. Morteza Yezdi; the Tudeh youth leader, Dr. Hussein Jowdat, and a leader of the Tudeh Workers Union, Dr. Nooreddin Kianoori.

The defense invoked the United Nations declaration of human rights, which Iran signed, with regard to the charge of having spread Marxism.

Reds Join Mandalay Attack

RANGOON, Burma, March 2 (AP)—Communists have joined Karen rebels in an attack on Mandalay, it was announced today. A communiqué said that the attackers had taken up new positions below the river where they were running into Government resistance. The statement said that Karen snipers inside Mytinge were being wiped out.

Two Israelis Killed by Mine

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 2 (AP)—Two Israeli officers who served in liaison capacity with the United Nations staff were killed today when their jeep struck a mine near Faluja in the Negeb desert area. Faluja has just been evacuated by Egyptian troops who had been trapped there before the Israeli-Egyptian armistice.

TRANS-JORDAN WANTS JAFFA

To Ask for Palestine Port at Rhodes Peace Talks.

Beirut, March 2 (A. P.).—Trans-Jordan has entered armistice talks with Israel at Rhodes prepared to ask the Israelis to hand over the Palestine port of Jaffa. King Abdullah, having lost Gaza to the Egyptians in the recently concluded Israeli-Egyptian armistice, seeks an alternative outlet to the Mediterranean Sea.

If the Israelis refuse to yield Jaffa, formerly Arab-controlled port, it is believed Abdullah will try to negotiate with Egypt for permission to use the Gaza port.

Transjordan also is understood to be asking Israelis for the former Arab cities of Lydda, Bethlehem, Ramle, Beersheeba and Hebron.

The return of those cities to Arab control would give Abdullah great prestige among the Moslems of Palestine and enhance his chances to annex Arab Palestine areas, which he long has been eyeing.

Abdullah is described as desiring to continue his control of the old walled city of Jerusalem, leaving Israel in control of the newer portions of the city. It is said he would not oppose an international head to co-ordinate the affairs of the two sections.

The United Nations has urged complete internationalization of Jerusalem, with Israeli and Arab administrations in the two respective sectors. Abdullah's plan seems to follow this only in part. He wants a minimum of international control.

B-50 GLOBAL HOP SURPRISES WORLD

Bomber Makes Aviation History in Non-Stop, 94-Hour Flight

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 2—(AP) The United States airforce has circled the globe non-stop for the first time in history.

The Lucky Lady II, a B-50 medium bomber, and her happy, weary crew of 14, surprised the world today by winding up the epochal feat here. Refueling on the wing made it possible.

Ninety-four hours and one minute after its unannounced takeoff from Carswell Air Force base here, Lucky Lady settled gently back down on a Carswell runway at 9:22 a. m., Central Standard Time. She had made an eastward flight around the earth at almost the greatest girth—more than 23,000 miles—taking on gasoline four times from flying tankers.

Get Warm Welcome

The grinning crewmen stepped off the plane to a warm welcome by the Airforce's highest officers. Both the high command and the men who made the flight said they saw some strategic and tactical lessons in the experimental mission.

Capt. James Gallagher of Melrose, Minn., the chief pilot and commander, summed it up like this at a news conference:

"It seems to me you can go just about anywhere in the world any time."

Gen. Curtis E. Lemay, chief of the Strategic Air Command, was asked if this meant that, using the aerial refueling methods, "you can deliver an A-bomb anywhere in Russia."

Lemay looked a little startled, then said:

"Let's say any place that would require an atomic bomb."

The successful flight was a second start. Another B-50 turned back last Friday shortly after the takeoff because of an engine fire.

Project was Secret

Secrecy shrouded the project for the whole 94 hours the Boeing B-50 bomber was in the air. Not even newsmen who were brought to Carswell air base here were told the purpose of their trip until shortly before the scheduled arrival of the plane.

In laying out the route diplomatic arrangements with a number of countries had to be made.

And the Air Force was careful to steer the bomber wide of super-sensitive Russia. The nearest the plane approached Russian territory was at a point near Karachi, India, hundreds of miles from any Soviet-controlled region.

The "Lucky Lady II"—her name was a good omen, droned eastward, eating up the miles and coming in over the Philippines one hour and 25 minutes to the good for the third refueling.

The pilot didn't push the plane on the next leg. She flew above Hawaii for the fourth and final refueling 58 minutes ahead of the flight plan.

Right On Time

When the Lucky Lady roared over the control tower at her departure point her time was almost exactly on the planned dot—9:22 a. m., central standard time.

Curious things happen to time when man goes flying eastward against the sun's path. The crew was gone from this base for four nights, but during their flight they spent five periods of darkness in the air.

Capt. Gallagher served as spokesman for his fellow crewmen at a news conference.

The thing they liked best was that "everything was quite normal." The engines kept smoothly at work throughout the long hours. The weather was "excellent" almost the whole way. For only four of the 94 hours did clouds force the use of instruments for flying.

The crew was tired from the grind, but said they had enough sleep. But they found, upon landing, that both themselves and their airplane had become guinea pigs for a host of laboratory technicians.

There wasn't anything the matter with their health, but the air surgeons grabbed them and headed them for a 24-hour stay in a hospital where their reactions, blood count and other things that indicate fatigue will be analyzed.

The airforce, being modest, didn't have much to say about history-making. But both its high command and the men who made the flight said they saw some strategic and tactical lessons in the experimental mission.

Flight Spurs Congressional Demand For More Airpower

Washington, March 2 (AP)—Spurred by the Air Force's spectacular feat in circling the globe nonstop, congressional air power advocates called anew today for a bigger and better airmada to bolster the nation's defenses.

Chairman Tydings (D., Md.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said the flight "offers some measure of what another world war would mean to all peoples of the earth."

He said the successful test of long-range refueling operations showed the "increasing importance of airpower in national defense."

Other committee members agreed that the sensational flight of the B-50 "Lady Luck II" greatly bolstered the Air Force's chances of getting congressional approval for more money and planes.

Tydings Bill Pending

Perhaps significantly, the flight was staged at a time when Congress faces a decision on how much to spend on the Air Force, the Army and Navy.

Tydings already has introduced a bill to expand the Air Force to 70 combat groups. The Eightieth Congress approved funds to start such a buildup, but President Truman's new budget calls for only 48 in the next fiscal year.

Senator Maybank (D., S.C.), a member of Tydings's committee, said the flight "absolutely demonstrates the need for maximum airpower to defend this country."

"We must have a minimum of at least 57 combat airgroups and I believe it should be 70 groups," he said.

Brewster Praises Feat

Another airpower supporter, Senator Brewster (R., Maine), said the aerial refueling technique would greatly extend the area of combat operations.

Representative Kilday (D., Texas), a member of the House Armed Services Committee, commented:

"This was a most significant flight. It indicates the practically unlimited possibilities of airpower when it has the advantages of continuing research and development. It shows the wisdom of our 70-group program which concentrates on research."

Security Measures Tested

Without naming names, Representative Hinshaw (R., Cal.) told the House about the flight and said, "Some other people we know in the world will be given something to think about."

Air Force officials here meanwhile disclosed that the globe-girdling trip also had the aim of testing security measures. They said this test also was passed with flying colors with not even the Navy knowing about the secret plans for the project.

Diplomatic officials reported meanwhile that the United States is intensifying its efforts to retain "routine" landing and refueling rights for Air Force planes at the American-built airbase at Dhahran in Saudi Arabia.

U.S. Wants To Retain Rights

The present agreement under which the United States uses the Dhahran base is due to expire the middle of this month. At that time native technicians trained by the Air Force are slated to take over operation of the war-built air center.

American negotiators report this country is not seeking a preferred position at the base but wants to retain the refueling and landing rights. The base is considered highly strategic because of its nearness to rich oil fields along the Persian Gulf and the whole middle eastern area.

Forrestal Pays Tribute

Washington, March 2 (AP)—James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, sent immediate congratulations today to the Air Force on its nonstop flight around the world.

In a telegram to W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, chief of staff, at the Carswell (Texas) air base, Forrestal said:

"The completion of the first around-the-world nonstop flight is a significent achievement. Through you I send my sincere congratulations to the Air Force and partieularly to Captain Gallagher and his crew."

'One Sweet Ship,' Says Flight Log

Fort Worth, Texas, March 2 (AP)—The pilot's log told tonight the dramatic story of history's first nonstop flight around the globe.

The Air Force released the carefully-kept description of the more than 23,000-mile B-50 bomber trip that circumnavigated the globe at nearly its greatest girth in 94 hours and one minute.

The log was kept by Pilot Capt. James Gallagher and Copilot Capt. James Neal.

It covers the period from takeoff at 12.21 P.M. (E.S.T.) Saturday to its return to Carswell Air Base here at 10.21.55 A.M. (E.S.T.) this morning.

The log:

Takeoff

Carswell A.F.B., Fort Worth, Texas.

Time 1220 E.S.T. date 26 February.

Description of flight to Azores.

Takeoff was normal except for an extended run. On instruments at about 2,500 feet, remained on instruments at 5,000 feet for one and one half hours. Broke out into clear sunshiny weather of the Mississippi River. We continued our cruise at 5,000 feet to Charleston, S.C., where we climbed to 10,000 feet. The weather is remaining clear with have near ground level.

Darkness is closing in rapidly. Some of the fellows are starting their sleeping shifts. By the looks of the inside of this airplane we have enough food to last for 30 days instead of 5—only one thing is lacking, a frying pan and some bacon and eggs.

About half way out to sea we climbed on up 20,000 feet. While climbing and on part of the cruise at 20,000 we passed through a cold front with moderate turbulance and no ice or rain.

Azores

Time 0900Z (over Azores) date 27 February.

First refueling.

Picked up the tankers over the radio station and continued on course. Actual refueling was underway about 15 minutes after first contact. No difficulty in refueling was encountered with either tanker. Tanker crews reported the champagne at Lagens is excellent and inexpensive. Weather is perfect for refueling—no turbulence. We were refueled from ships flown by Lieutenant Dorman and Captain Bowley, of 63 Squadron, 43 Bomb Group.

Description of flight to Dhahran:

Flew for hours across the Sahara without seeing a sign of civilization. Nice clear night—excellent for celestial navigation. Looks like we will arrive at Dhahran about two hours earlier than predicted. Good tail wind at 13,000 feet. Coming into Dhahran—visibility restricted—have radar contact with tankers. First tanker hooked up—we're receiving fuel.

Ran into severe turbulence. Make contact with second tanker and filled up. On way to Clark A.F.B., P.I.

Dhahran

Time 0465Z (over Dhahran) date 28 February.

Description of second refueling.

Have an undercast below us at about 9,000 feet and very poor visibility below the clouds. Sun came up just before our arrival here and it certainly is beautiful. Clear flying up here "on top."

Met our tankers over town at about 8,500 feet and started on course for Manila, Philippines. Receiving gas as we go. Ran through a pretty severe squall line weather from about 100 miles east of Dhahran. We were refueled by two ships flown by Lieutenant Sontag and Captain Slipp of 65 Squadron 43 Bomb Group.

Description of flight from Dhahran to Philippines:

This is the leg where we pass the halfway mark. And everyone knows it too. We are all quite happy that we have encountered no major difficulties so far and hope our luck will remain as good for the second half. Weather so far has been excellent. Fatigue is starting to rear its ugly head among quite a few of the crew members, myself included. But if we are able to make this flight successful we won't be half as tired as we will be happy. Last comment—this is one sweet airplane.

Philippines

Time 0129Z (over Philippines). Date 1 March.

Description of refueling.

Rendezvous with first three tankers made over Clark radio upon arrival. Had to circle Clark Field twice waiting for other two tankers to climb up through undercast. First hookup was made immediately after departure. Transferred —— gallons. Transferred another —— gallons. On our way to Hawaii—we're all sweating it out now. One more hookup and continued engine performance will see us back to Carswell. Description of flight from Philippines to Hawaii.

This log has given us the most cause for worry to date. With a little luck we'll be in Fort Worth in about 34 hours. Most of the crew members are showing signs of fatigue, making errors in their logs mostly. Suppose I should write this after a nap instead of before one if anyone intends to read it.

Hawaii

Time 0010Z (over Hawaii). Date 2 March.

Description of refueling over Hawaii.

Met our first two tankers over Johnson Island and started immediate refueling operations on our way to Hawaii. First tankers gave us——gallons and as soon as he broke away the second tanker swung on in and gave us another ——gallons.

He had a pretty rough time trying to get the fuel flow started, but once it had started everyone breathed a sigh of relief and it was no time at all till we were full.

Description of flight from Hawaii to Fort Worth.

We are all pooped, but we felt pretty wonderful. Weather here around Hawaii and on our route east is the worst that I have ever seen it and I've been out here a few times. There are about four and five layers of clouds that are patchy and broken.

Crew of Globe-Circling Plane

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 2 (AP)—Members of the crew of the globe-circling Lucky Lady II were:

Capt. James Gallagher, Melrose, Minn., commander and pilot.

First Lieut. Arthur M. Neal, Visalia, Calif., second pilot.

Capt. James H. Morris, San Antonio, Tex., third pilot.

Capt. Glenn E. Hacker, Eldorado, Kan., first navigator.

First Lieut. Earl L. Rigor, Corvallis, Ore., second navigator.

First Lieut. Roland B. Bonner, Bakersfield, Calif., radar officer.

First Lieut. William F. Caffrey, Lewiston, Me., radar officer.

Capt. David B. Parmelee, Guilford, Conn., flight engineer.

Staff Sgt. Robert G. Davis, Niles, Mich., flight engineer.

Tech. Sgt. Virgil L. Young, Cranesville, Pa., flight engineer.

PILOT PHONES WIFE AT MARDI GRAS FETE

NEW ORLEANS, March 2 (AP)—Mrs. James Gallagher was very much put out when her Air Force husband failed to show up here for Mardi Gras. He was nonchalant as he phoned from Fort Worth to explain:

"Oh, I just flew around the world non-stop."

"How could you do that, silly, without any place to fill up on gas?" she demanded.

Captain Gallagher of Melrose, Minn., chief pilot and commander of the bomber, unfolded the story for his wife.

"Even when he phoned and told me I could hardly believe it," she said later. She had no inkling of the flight, she added.

When he failed to show up here, and "didn't even write or phone," Mrs. Gallagher said, " I couldn't imagine what had happened."

MELROSE, Minn., March 2 (AP)—News of the non-stop flight of an Air Force bomber around the world was doubly exciting today for a 72-year-old retired railway engineer and his wife.

For Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Gallagher it was the first word of one of their sons in two months.

"We hadn't heard from him since before Christmas; we were getting pretty worried," Mr. Gallagher said.

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 2 (AP)—"I'll be doggoned," said Mrs. Glenn E. Hacker in Tucson, Ariz., today.

"I'll just be doggoned!"

It was her reaction to first news that her husband, Capt. Glenn E. Hacker, was first navigator on the first non-stop flight around the world. Stationed at Tucson, Captain Hacker is from Eldorado, Kan.

"He left here Tuesday of last week and couldn't tell me a thing."

World Record Trips Made by Ship and Air

By The Associated Press

Record-breaking trips around the world, first by ship, then by ship and train, and then by airplane and airship, but none non-stop before the flight of the Air Force's B-50 bomber which ended yesterday, were:

1519 - 1522 — Ferdinand Magellan's ship the Vittoria made the first around-the-world trip—in about 1,000 days.

1899—Nelly Bly, New York newspaper woman, by ship and train, in seventy-two days, six hours and eleven minutes.

1924—First airplane trip, by four Army planes, in 175 days, of which only fourteen days and fifteen hours represented flying time.

1929 — The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, in twenty days and four hours, over a route of 21,700 miles starting and ending at Friedrichshafen, Germany.

1931 — Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, by plane, in eight days, fifteen hours and fifty-one minutes, over a northern route of 15,374 miles.

1933—Wiley Post, flying alone, covered roughly the same distance and route in seven days, eighteen hours and forty-nine and one-half minutes.

1938—Howard Hughes, covered 14,824 miles, by way of Russia, in three days, nineteen hours, eight minutes and ten seconds.

1947 — Milton Reynolds, with William Odom as pilot, covered a 20,000-mile route in an elapsed time of seventy-eight hours, fifty-five minutes and twelve seconds.

1949—First non-stop trip by the Air Force B-50 bomber, Lucky Lady II, over a 23,452 route, in ninety-four hours and one minute.

ACHESON SAYS PACT CONFLICTS ARE RECONCILED

Hopes Text of Atlantic Treaty Can Be Made Public Soon.

ITALY'S INCLUSION WEIGHED

Cominform Military Alliance Is Hinted in Call for Eastern Defense Conference.

Washington, March 2 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Acheson said today that there were no outstanding differences among the negotiating countries now on the proposed North Atlantic security alliance.

He also told a news conference:

1. He hopes the negotiations can be completed and the text of the treaty made public in the near future.

2. The negotiators have been discussing the possibility of bringing other nations into the talks here, but no decision has been reached. The nations now negotiating the pact are the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxemburg.

Acheson said the discussions as to possibly bringing in other nations have touched on Italy. In relation to this and the other countries, he said, every phase of the whole matter is being investigated.

Some Opposition to Italy.

Acheson was asked whether he could say whether he had encountered any opposition regarding the future admission of Italy into the alliance. He replied no, that the matter was still open and under discussion. From other officials it was learned that some opposition had arisen.

Indications were that Acheson had encountered opposition from Senator Vandenberg and possibly other Senate Foreign Relations Committee leaders to include Italy as one of the original signers of the treaty; that he was himself uncertain as to whether Italy should definitely be brought in, and that some of the European Powers, particularly Britain, were not enthusiastic about the idea although willing to go along with whatever the United States wants to do.

Among the European Powers, France alone is understood to have taken a very strong position in favor of including Italy. France's view is reported to be that while Italy is not on the North Atlantic, it occupies a highly important strategic position in relation to the Powers which are on the North Atlantic. Other countries most actively under consideration for early inclusion in the treaty talks are Norway, Denmark, Iceland and Portugal.

U.S. Eases Jap Policy To Speed Recovery

Washington, March 2 (AP)—The United States is pressing hard to speed recovery and stability in Japan.

Fresh evidence of this was seen today in the disclosure of two official orders to Gen. Douglas MacArthur to (a) relax the purge of wartime military and Government leaders, and (b) study ways to strengthen the Japanese police.

Policy Shifted

The orders issued by the joint chiefs of staff, came to light after being submitted to the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission.

Diplomats indicated that these, along with a series of earlier measures, represent a shift in American policy from reform toward recovery. This has taken shape since George F. Kennan, top department policy planner, made a survey in Japan a year ago.

The shift presumably is based on recommendations made by Kennan and MacArthur as chances for agreement with Russia on a Japanese peace treaty were virtually written off.

MacArthur Overruled

Some policy changes apparently have been ordered over MacArthur's objections. He has been consulted, but informants said he has been overruled by Washington often in recent months.

One of the new directives calls for a restudy of policy, to give Japanese police more power to cope with disorders.

Blow At Reds

The police were decentralized early in the occupation to help break up Japan's totalitarian control.

MacArthur struck at Communist influence last summer with his order to the Japanese Government to forbid strikes by Government employés. It was later made law.

The new directive to relax the purge of wartime leaders will permit re-examination of junior army officers and minor officials now barred from public life.

See Russ Reaction

The current rules were based on the 1945 Potsdam Declaration that "there must be eliminated for all time the authority and influence of those who have deceived and misled the people of Japan into embarking on world conquest."

Officials expect the new orders to bring new charges by Russia that the United States is trying to build up the Japanese for "imperialistic" reasons.

U. S. Seeks to Renew Use Of Saudi Arabia Airport

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP).—The United States is negotiating with the government of Saudi Arabia for continued use of the American-built air base at Dhahran, informed diplomatic officials reported today.

The Air Force is reported to want "routine" landing and refueling rights for its planes after the present three-year agreement expires in mid-March.

Government officials connected with the negotiations report the United States does not want a preferred position even though it built and has operated the field since late 1945. Saudi Arabian technicians, trained by the Air Force, are scheduled to take over actual operation of the base this month.

The deal being offered the Saudi Arabian government involves payment for use by private American air lines, which also would use the field.

The runways at Dhahran Airport are long enough to accommodate B-29 bombers. The base itself is regarded as one of the most strategic used by the American Air Force because it is near the rich oil fields along the Persian Gulf.

Get Flour Into ERP Aid

MAR 3 1949

Millers Win Fight for Its Inclusion Over ECA Objections at Senate Hearing.

Washington, March 2 (A. P.).—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee agreed today that 15 per cent of the wheat shipped to Europe in next year's aid program shall be in the form of flour.

Senator Connally (D.-Tex.), the chairman, announced the committee's decision. He said it came after a "good deal of pressure" from American milling interests.

In the first year's operations of the Economic Co-operation Administration, a total of 25 per cent of the wheat going to Europe was in the form of flour.

The ECA asked that this 25 per cent provision be wiped out so that European countries could mill their own flour. But American millers protested that they wanted their "historical" flour market in E[illegible] protected under ECA operations. They asked that the 25 per cent clause be retained. Later, they scaled down the request to 18 per cent.

Connally said the committee felt "we would have a fight on the floor of the Senate if we did not recognize the demands of the domestic folk."

The committee did not reach a final decision on the ECA request for $5,580,000,000 to carry its program to July 1, 1950. Connally said he hopes the committee can reach a vote on the money total at a meeting tomorrow.

NETHERLANDS GETS $49,500,000 LOAN

Washington, March 2 (A. P.).—The Netherlands today received an additional Marshall plan loan of $49,500,000, the Economic Cooperation Administration announced.

The supplementary borrowing increases to $129,500,000 the credits granted the Netherlands during the first year of the European Recovery Program, exclusive of loan funds furnished for use in the Netherlands East Indies.

The Netherlands was granted an additional $15,000,000 credit in 1948 for use of the Indies. Later aid grants for the Indies were cut off because of the Indonesian civil fighting, but that loan remains on the books.

The new agreement, signed today at the Export-Import Bank of Washington, provides the same repayment terms as were applied to the $80,000,000 loan granted last fall.

They include interest at 2½ per cent a year payable semi-annually starting in 1952. Repayment of principal begins in 1956 and the loan matures in 1983.

AXIS SALLY IRKED BY QUESTIONS ON NAZI LOVE AFFAIR

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars turned from tears to bristling defiance at her treason trial today, angrily resisting prosecution attempts to probe deeper into her love life in wartime Germany.

The trial, now midway in its sixth week, appeared to be drawing toward the end as Miss Gillars stepped down from the stand after six days of direct testimony and cross-examination.

Refused to Answer

Pale and taut, the American-born defendant refused to answer questions indirectly involving her romance with a Nazi radio official, Dr. Max Otto Koischwitz, whom she has previously described as "my destiny."

When Judge Edward M. Curran ordered her to answer, Miss Gillars threw back her chin and asked:

"And what happens if I refuse?"

Patiently, Judge Curran told her: "You must answer the question."

A showdown was averted when chief prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., withdrew the question, which involved her relations with Koischwitz, a former Hunter College, N. Y., professor, now dead, and his family.

The exchange that led up to the federal courtroom incident follows:

Kelley: "Isn't it a fact that when you and Prof. Koischwitz declared your love for each other, his wife was pregnant and bearing the fourth child?"

Miss Gillars: "I found out about it the day before the child was born."

Kelley: "You knew he was married?"

Miss Gillars: "Is that the only kind of attack you have, Mr. Kelley?"

Kelley then asked her if Koischwitz' teen-age daughter, Stella, had ordered her out of the professor's Berlin apartment when Miss Gillars went there at the end of the war.

Daughter Was Missing

"Stella was not there," Miss Gillars replied. "Prof. Koischwitz' mother was there and she was frantic because Stella had disappeared. The streets of Berlin were strewn with naked corpses and dead horses—"

"Forget about the naked corpses," Kelley snapped, "and answer my question."

'I suppose one can refuse," Miss Gillars began, "but I don't know enough about jurisprudence—"

Again Judge Curran ordered her to answer.

Miss Gillars asked what would be the consequences if she continued to refuse, but Kelley broke off the exchange and a few minutes later he dismissed her from the stand.

With Miss Gillars' own testimony concluded, defense counsel James J. Laughlin called Erwin Christiani one of the defendant's former coworkers on the German radio.

Christiani testified that when Japan attacked Pearl Harbor, Miss Gillars called the Japanese "yellow monkeys and other words."

He said that shortly before the United States entered the war, Miss Gillars asked his advice whether she should take the "last boat" home.

"She said she loved America and wanted to go home." Christiani said. "On the other side, she said she loved her work in Germany and people had told her she was very good."

Miss Gillars herself has testified that she was a top-paid performer on the Nazi radio.

Defense counsel Laughlin asked Christiani whether Miss Gillars "could have stopped broadcasting for the Germans."

"No," the witness said, "she couldn't."

ARMY'S ROCKET IS STILL UNFOUND

Washington, March 2 (A. P.).—The Army hasn't found its 250-mile sky-high rocket it fired last week and may never locate it.

The record-breaking Wac Corporal was fired from the nose of a V-2 rocket already twenty miles in the air, and shot on to reach a top speed of 5000 miles an hour and the highest altitude ever recorded by a man-made device. Electronic instruments tracked the Wac Corporal down, the Army said today, but "the actual impact point may never be found."

Due to its terrific speed, the rocket is believed to have buried itself far into the desert sands about ninety miles from its launching site in the same manner that a cyclone-driven straw penetrates a tree.

Throughout its twelve-minute flight the Wac, using a special radio, sent technical information to ground recording stations. This information is expected to be of great value in the study of the unexplored and unknown upper regions.

5 Senators Attack Communists in U. S. But Find Nothing New in Their War Attitude

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—Members of Congress assailed American Communist leaders tonight for saying that in case of another war they would not support the "predatory war aims of American imperialism."

"That's just the Moscow line," said Senator H. Alexander Smith, Republican, of New Jersey. He added that the implication in the statement that Wall Street was trying to instigate a new war "just doesn't make sense after the way Russia behaved."

Senator Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, Democratic leader, said the Communist leaders' position "is not surprising."

"Like the Communist leaders in France and Italy, they take their orders directly from the Kremlin," he said. "It is not surprising that these men who are under indictment and being tried for crimes against the Government would support the Communist government instead of our own.

"It is difficult for an American to comprehend how these men can use the cloak of the Constitution to shield them, while at the same time if their leadership came into power in America they would be the first ones to throw overboard the Constitution under which they are now claiming every protection."

Senator Kenneth S. Wherry, Republican, of Nebraska, Senate minority leader, said he had always believed that "Communist allegiance has been to the Communist party, whether in war or peace. And if these men are Communists and what they are reported to have said is true, they have given allegiance to Stalin."

Senator Claude Pepper, Democrat, of Florida, said:

"Whenever the Congress and President constitutionally determine on a course of action—and it be war—every citizen who does not support that course is disloyal. And if he gives by an overt act, provable by two witnesses, aid and comfort to the enemy, he is guilty of treason under our Constitution and should be dealt with accordingly."

Senator Richard B. Russell, Democrat, of Georgia, commented: "There is nothing particularly new in that. Communism and patriotism always have been incompatible."

AIRLIFT REINFORCED

WESTOVER AIRFORCE BASE, Mass., March 2—(AP) The Berlin airlift was reinforced today with the launching of timetable runs to Germany by six new giant transport planes.

The flight of huge Constellations—each loading ten tons—started with the takeoff of a plane carrying forty one top priority military passengers. They were booked for a round trip to Frankfurt in 35 hours.

Airforce officers said six Constellations would make three round-flight trips each week. Stops wil be made at the Azores on the trip west and at Iceland on the return flight.

The first flight, scheduled for yesterday, was delayed 24 hours by New England's worst snow storm of the winter.

PRO-SOVIET WAR STAND IS DECLARED

Foster And Dennis Issue Comment On European Statements

New York, March 2 (AP)—American Communist leaders said today Communists here would "co-operate with all democratic forces to defeat the predatory war aims of American imperialism and bring such a war to a speedy conclusion on the basis of a democratic peace."

The assertion was made in a statement which said that recent remarks of Maurice Thorez, French Communist leader, and Palmiro Togliatti, Italian Communist leader, "emphatically serve the cause of peace."

Had Sided With Russia

These two leaders recently said Communists in their respective countries would side with Russia if Russian armies entered their countries.

Communists generally refer to Communist-led states, including Russia, as "people's democracies."

The statement was issued on behalf of William Z. Foster, national committee chairman, and Eugene Dennis, general secretary.

Eleven leaders of the party are now on trial for alleged conspiracy to advocate the forcible overthrow of the United States Government. Foster, indicted on the same charge, is not being tried with the others because of illness.

Questions Put To Dennis

After the statement was issued a spokesman said Foster was ill and not available for questions but Dennis was in another room and questions could be dictated for submission to him.

Reporters prepared a list of questions, including one asking: "By 'all democratic forces' do you mean Russia specifically?"

Dennis later sent out word that he would "seek to answer" the questions "during the course of the trial."

Other questions asked about the statement included whether Communists would oppose United States military forces in a war with Russia; what "means" they would use against "this so-called imperialist war," and whether Communists would "promulgate or support a general strike."

Text Of Statement

The party leader's statement said:

"Asked by various newspapers to comment on the recent statement of Maurice Thorez, of France, and Palmiro Togliatti, of Italy, in respect to war and peace in Europe, William Z. Foster, national chairman, and Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party, today said:

"'The Thorez and Togliatti statements emphatically serve the cause of universal peace.

"'Only those who plot a third world war and seek to embroil France and Italy in aggressive military operations against our great ally of World War II, the Soviet Union, could read anything un-French or un-Italian in these statements.

Charge Wall Street Menace

"'French and Italian sovereignty and independence are threatened today solely by Wall Street's scheme of world domination as expressed in the Marshall plan and the proposed Atlantic war alliance. It is our military and those of the British who have established a general headquarters at Fontainebleau.

"'Not Russians but Americans have military bases and are intervening in the internal affairs of Greece, Turkey, Iran, China, Canada, Greenland, Brazil, as well as France and Italy.

"'On February 27, the New York Times editorially termed the danger of an invasion of our shores "wildly improbable." What the Times failed to say, however, was that the threat of aggression against other nations is not "wildly improbable"—and that this threat emanates precisely from Wall Street and its cartel-connected trusts.

"'It is this which explains the colossal peacetime military budget, the efforts to stampede the nation into the Atlantic war alliance and plunge America and the world into an atomic war.

Cites Communist Trial

"'We Communists join with millions of other patriotic Americans in opposing those who seek a new world war. We strive for peace and friendship between the U.S.A., the U.S.S.R., the new democracies, the colonial and all other peoples. We do not regard a new world holocaust as inevitable.

"'We hold the peaceful coexistence of two different social systems wholly possible. We believe that efforts of the peoples to achieve peace can check the warmakers and create new opportunities to achieve peace. The peace camp is infinitely stronger than the war camp.

"'It is this which makes the war camp so reckless and ruthless. An atmosphere is rapidly being created in our nation that to work for peace and American-Soviet amity is considered equivalent to treason. The trial of the Communist leaders, the current witch hunt and other attacks on civil liberties are indicative of today's political climate.

"'If, despite the efforts of the peace forces of America and the world, Wall Street should succeed in plunging the world into war, we would oppose it as an unjust, aggressive, imperialist war, as an undemocratic and an anti-socialist war, destructive of the deepest interests of the American people and all humanity.

Mexican War Cited

"'Even as Lincoln while a congressman opposed the unjust, annexationist Mexican War and demanded its termination, so would we Communists co-operate with all democratic forces to defeat the predatory war aims of American imperialism and bring such a war to a speedy conclusion on the basis of a democratic peace.

"'American security and American peace lie in world security and world peace—not in any Wall Street—Uber-Alles policy decked out in the trappings of "the American century."

MEDINA GIVEN JURY BRIEFS

Communists And Government File Summaries On Issue

New York, March 2 (AP)—Attorneys for both sides filed summaries today on a defense attack on the jury system at the conspiracy trial of eleven top American Communists.

The bries, prepared by Government and defense counsel, were submitted to Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, who has been hearing the defense attack since the trial opened January 17.

Yesterday, he called a halt to the courtroom challenge and told attorneys to file briefs on the subject by today. He also announced that actual trial of the Communist party leaders would begin next Monday.

Exclusion Charged

The trial has been recessed until then.

The eleven are charged with conspiring to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States Government.

Defense attorneys, in their 55-page brief, restated their contention that the jury-selection system in the New York court district excludes certain minority groups from service.

They have asked that the grand jury indictment of the Communists be thrown out because, they claim, the selection system is unconstitutional.

John F. X. McGohey, United States attorney, in a reply brief of 55 pages, declared that minority groups which the defense claims are excluded "do, in fact, qualify for jury service."

Absence Of Evidence

He added "they serve on juries in this court. No class of persons in whole, or in part, is excluded by reason of race, sex, creed, color, or economic or social status," he said.

Lawyers for the Communists said they did not waive their rights in connection with giving a more complete summary of their challenge.

They said it was impossible to outline their whole proof because of lack of time. They objected yesterday to Judge Medina's action in halting their challenge.

McGohey stated there was "total absence of substantial evidence" to prove the defense's contentions. Then, point by point, he attempted to disprove defense arguments that women, Jews, Negroes, the poor, manual workers and members of minority political parties are excluded from jury service.

Judge Medina will give a ruling on the defense's jury challenge motion Friday.

YUGOSLAVIA HAS MODIFIED HER DEMANDS ON AUSTRIA IN THESE RESUMED NEGOTIATIONS LOOKING TOWARD AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE. DROPPING HER CLAIM TO 800 SQUARE MILES OF CARINTHIAN TERRITORY, SHE PROPOSED INSTEAD THE CREATION OF AN AUTONOMOUS PROVINCE THERE TO INSURE FULL RIGHTS FOR THE SLOVENE PEOPLES. HOWEVER, THE YUGOSLAVS STILL DEMAND AN UNSPECIFIED AMOUNT OF AUSTRIAN TERRITORY.

WESTERN DEPUTIES OPPOSED THE PLAN FOR AN AUTONOMOUS PROVINCE. HOWEVER, THEY SAID THEY WOULD APPROVE SPECIFIC GUARANTEES OF PROTECTION FOR THE SLOVENE MINORITIES.

THE RUSSIAN SUPPORT OF THE YUGOSLAV CLAIMS BROUGHT THE DEPUTIES TO A DEADLOCK ALMOST THE SAME AS THE ONE WHICH PERSISTED IN THE NEGOTIATIONS SINCE 1946. AT A MASS MEETING MAURICE THOREZ AND JACQUES DUCLOS, LEADERS OF THE FRENCH COMMUNIST PARTY, REPEATED IN A DOZEN DIFFERENT FORMS ITS CURRENT SLOGAN:

"FRANCE WILL NEVER FIGHT THE SOVIET UNION."

THE SPEAKERS STOOD BEFORE A 15-FOOT PORTRAIT OF THOREZ, SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE PARTY. THERE WERE SMALLER PORTRAITS OF STALIN, MARX, ENGELS AND LENIN.

THOREZ HAD ASKED IN QUESTION FORM LAST WEEK WHETHER THE FRENCH PEOPLE COULD ACT OTHER THAN DID THE PEOPLES OF POLAND, ROMANIA AND YUGOSLAVIA WHEN THEY WELCOMED THE SOVIET ARMIES DURING THE WAR.

TONIGHT DUCLOS PUT THOREZ' STATEMENT IN POSITIVE FORM TO THE MASS MEETING.
THE CROWD ROARED ITS APPLAUSE. DUCLOS ADDED "WE ALL STAND BEHIND MAURICE THOREZ." THE APPLAUSE CAME EVEN LOUDER THAN BEFORE, AND WAS MIXED WITH SHOUTS OF "VIVE THOREZ!"

ROME, MARCH 2-(AP)-THE ITALIAN LABOR SOCIALIST PARTY (PSLI) DECIDED TODAY TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION WITH PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS.
A MEETING OF THE PARTY'S DIRECTORS ASKED ITS LEADER, GIUSEPPE SARAGAT, TO WITHDRAW HIS RESIGNATION AS VICE PREMIER AND MINISTER OF THE MERCHANT MARINE IN THE DE GASPERI CABINET.
THIS ACTION ENDED THE "LITTLE CRISIS" WHICH FOR A TIME HAD THREATENED TO SPLIT THE GOVERNMENT.
THE LABOR SOCIALISTS ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT OF THE THREE MODERATE GROUPS WHICH HAVE COOPERATED WITH DE GASPERI SINCE HE OUSTED THE COMMUNISTS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS FROM THE GOVERNMENT IN 1947.

NIGHT LEAD CABINET (250)
BY FRANK BRUTTO
ROME, MARCH 2-(AP)-ITALY ESCAPED A THREATENED CABINET CRISIS TODAY WHEN THE INFLUENTIAL LABOR SOCIALIST PARTY (PSLI) AGREED TO CONTINUE ITS COOPERATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT.
THE PARTY'S DIRECTORS ASKED THEIR LEADER, GIUSEPPE SARAGAT, TO WITHDRAW HIS OFFER TO RESIGN AS VICE PREMIER AND MINISTER OF MERCHANT MARINE IN PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S CABINET.
THERE WILL BE A PRICE FOR THEIR SUPPORT, THE LABOR SOCIALISTS SAID, BUT THEY DID NOT YET DEMAND IT.
THE LABOR SOCIALISTS ARE THE BIGGEST OF THREE MODERATE PARTIES BACKING THE DE GASPERI CABINET. HE EJECTED COMMUNISTS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS FROM THE GOVERNMENT IN 1947.
SARAGAT FORCED THE ISSUE SATURDAY WHEN HE SUBMITTED HIS RESIGNATION TO DE GASPERI, ANNOUNCING HE DID SO BECAUSE EXTREME LEFTIST MALCONTENTS WITHIN HIS OWN PARTY HAD BEEN CRITICIZING THE GOVERNMENT. DE GASPERI REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION, BUT THE OFFER NEVERTHELESS THREATENED TO SPLIT THE GOVERNMENT IF SARAGAT HAD INSISTED.
THERE WAS EVIDENCE THAT THE LEFTIST LABOR SOCIALISTS HAVE GAINED SOME STRENGTH. THE PARTY DIRECTORS, WHILE ASKING SARAGAT NOT TO QUIT AND DECLARING THERE WAS NO REASON TO WITHDRAW THE PARTY'S SUPPORT, HOOKED ON THIS DECLARATION:
"IT (THE DIRECTORATE) NONETHELESS CONFIRMS AS ITS PRECISE MANDATE THAT COMMITTEES ASSIGNED TO THAT TASK XXX SHALL REVISE AND DETERMINE THE CONDITIONS FOR COLLABORATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT."
THE PROVISION APPARENTLY WAS A CONCESSION TO THE LEFTISTS IN THE PARTY WHO HAVE ECHOED THE COMMUNIST CHARGES THAT THE DE GASPERI'S GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN TOO LENIENT WITH WAR-TIMEFASCISTS.

U.S. MILITARY POLICE CRACKED DOWN TODAY ON THE MISSION FOR FAILING TO HEED AN ORDER BY GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY TO GET OUT OF THE U.S. OCCUPATION ZONE BY MARCH 1.

WATER, GAS, ELECTRICITY, TELEPHONE SERVICE AND FOOD DELIVERIES WERE CUT OFF. MILITARY POLICE, ARMED WITH RIFLES, PATROLLED THE SNOW COVERED GROUNDS OF THE THREE-STORY YELLOW STUCCO BUILDING IN THE CENTER OF FRANKFURT'S AMERICAN COMMUNITY.

THEIR ORDERS WERE TO SEAL OFF THE RUSSIANS--FOUR OFFICERS AND FOUR ENLISTED MEN--FROM OUTSIDE CONTACTS. THEY DID.

"ALL IS QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT," COMMENTED COL.STERLING A. WOOD, AMERICAN PROVOST MARSHAL.

BUT IT LOOKED LIKE THE BLOODLESS SIEGE MIGHT BE A LONG ONE.

GERMAN SERVANTS WORKING IN THE VICINITY SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD STOCKED THEIR BUILDING HEAVILY WITH FOOD IN THE PAST FEW DAYS. WHETHER THE RUSSIANS THOUGHT TO FILL THEIR BATHTUBS WITH WATER WAS NOT LEARNED. BUT AN AMERICAN OFFICER ESTIMATED THEY MIGHT BE ABLE TO HOLD OUT A MONTH.

THE MISSION'S JOB WAS TO HANDLE THE RETURN OF DISPLACED PERSONS WANTING TO GO BACK TO RUSSIA. FEW HAVE CHOSEN TO RETURN IN THE PAST YEARS. THE RUSSIANS HAVE HAD LOTS OF TIME FOR OTHER PURSUITS. GEN.CLAY, IN ORDERING THE MISSION CLOSED, SAID THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION HERE COULD TAKE OVER THE REPATRIATION WORK. THE KREMLIN DEMANDED THAT THE ORDER BE RESCINDED, BUT IT WASN'T.

AN OFFICER OF THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION WAS TURNED AWAY BY AN MP WHEN HE TRIED TO ENTER THE REPATRIATION MISSION HOUSE TODAY. LATER THE OFFICER CALLED ON WOOD TO ASK ABOUT THE SIEGE.

"HE JUST WANTED TO KNOW WHAT THE SCORE WAS," WOOD SAID.

THE PROVOST MARSHAL SAID THE CALLER GAVE NO HINT AS TO WHETHER THE RUSSIANS WOULD LEAVE THE MISSION IN THE BUILDING.

THE MISSION MEMBERS, HEADED BY COL.VASILY L.ARGOONOV, SAID YESTERDAY THEY WOULD BE CLASSED AS DESERTERS IF THEY LEFT THEIR POST WITHOUT ORDERS FROM THE SOVIET COMMAND IN BERLIN.

A179

THEY DISCHARGED TWO OF THEIR GERMAN SERVANTS SOON AFTER THE BLOCKADE STARTED TODAY, SAYING THEIR SERVICES WERE NO LONGER NEEDED IN THE HOUSE, A COMBINATION OFFICE AND BILLET.

THE SERVANTS, HOUSEMASTER WILLY DEMBRIANY AND HIS WIFE KAETHE, SAID ONLY A GERMAN WOMAN COOK REMAINED WITH THE MISSION.

DEMBRIANY SAID HE DID NOT KNOW HOW LONG THE RUSSIAN FOOD SUPPLY WOUDL LAST, BUT THE RUSSIANS YESTERDAY CARRIED IN MEAT, JAM AND MARMALADE THEY BOUGHT FROM GERMANS. DEMBRIANY DENIED A RUMOR THAT THE RUSSIANS HAD WIVES AND CHILDREN WITH THEM.

MILITARY POLICE QUESTIONED THE COUPLE THREE HOURS AND THEN RELEASED THEM.

MEMBERS OF THE MISSION APPEARED AT THE WINDOWS OF THE HOUSE THIS MORNING AFTER SINGING A FEW RUSSIAN FOLK SONGS. THEY TOOK PICTURES OF THE MILITARY POLICE, REPORTERS, PHOTOGRAPHERS AND ONLOOKERS OUTSIDE, BUT DODGED BACK WHEN PHOTOGRAPHERS AIMED CAMERAS AT THEM.

"THE (FINAL DRAFT) CONSTITUTION WILL THEN BE APPROVED AT BONN AND SUBMITTED TO THE MILITARY GOVERNORS FOR APPROVAL," HE ADDED.

"NONE OF US (THE MILITARY GOVERNORS) HAS COMMITTED OUR GOVERNMENTS UNTIL WE HAVE THE CONSTITUTION BEFORE US."

THE MILITARY GOVERNORS' RECOMMENDATIONS WERE BASED ON THE DRAFT OF THE CONSTITUTION DRAWN UP BY THE BONN COUNCIL. THE COUNCIL HAS YET TO FINALLY RATIFY THE DOCUMENT.

IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION, GEN. CLAY SAID "THERE IS NOTHING IN THE OCCUPATION STATUTE THAT PREVENTS ACTION (BY THE BONN COUNCIL) ON THE CONSTITUTION UNLESS THE GERMANS WANT TO WAIT."

THE U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO REACH FINAL AGREEMENT ON THE OCCUPATION STATUTE WHICH WILL DEFINE THE POWERS OF THE WEST GERMAN STATE.

TODAY'S ACTION BY THE MILITARY GOVERNORS IS EXPECTED TO PUT PRESSURE ON ALLIED REPRESENTATIVES IN LONDON TO COMPLETE THE STATUTE.

BD753AES

IT WAS A CLOSED SESSION. PROF.CARLO SCHMID OF THE LEFT-OF-CENTER SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY, SAID AFTERWARD: "THERE WERE NO DISCUSSIONS. WE ONLY LISTENED."

THE ALLIED RECOMMENDATIONS ARE DESIGNED TO MAKE THE WEST GERMAN CONSTITUTION FIT INTO THE FRAMEWORK OF THE SIX-POWER AGREEMENT OF LAST SPRING WHICH AUTHORIZED THE GERMANS TO DRAFT A CONSTITUTION FOR A REPUBLIC EMBRACING THE AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONES. THE SIX POWERS ARE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

AFTER THE MILITARY GOVERNORS FINALLY APPROVE THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION, THE NEXT STEP WILL BE ITS RATIFICATION. THE SIX-POWER LONDON AGREEMENT CALLS FOR RATIFICATION BY POPULAR VOTE, BUT SOME GERMAN OFFICIALS WANT IT SUBMITTED TO THE STATE LEGISLATURES. THE MILITARY GOVERNORS WILL DECIDE WHICH METHOD TO USE.

AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE LOWER HOUSE OF THE NEW GERMAN PARLIAMENT COULD BE ELECTED AT THE SAME TIME THE CONSTITUTION IS SUBMITTED TO THE VOTERS. THE UPPER HOUSE IS TO BE CHOSEN BY THE STATES.

berlin, march 2--(ap)--the official soviet newspaper taegliche rundschau is losing ground rapidly not only in berlin but also in the entire soviet occupation zone of germany, western sources reported today.

rundschau is the organ for the red army. since 1945 it has been the outlet for all official pronouncements of the soviet military government.

the american-licensed newspaper der abend gave these figures for the current circulation of the newspaper:

rundschau berlin edition dropped from 90,000 to 45,000 daily since the east-west split in berlin resulted in a newspaper war, too.

FOR THE PROVISIONS OF THE (SECURITY COUNCIL) JAN.28 RESOLUTION."

THE INVITATION TO THE CONFERENCE WAS COUPLED WITH A DUTCH ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THEY WOULD TRANSFER SOVEREIGNTY IN INDONESIA JULY 1, 1949 TO SUCH NATIVE GROUPS AS DEAL WITH THEM, REGARDLESS OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION OF JAN.28 CALLED ON THE DUTCH TO RELEASE REPUBLICAN LEADERS THEY HAD IMPRISONED IN A "POLICE ACTION"; CREATED THE U.N. COMMISSION TO SUPERVISE ELECTIONS FOR AN INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT, AND ASKED FOR TRANSFER OF POWER TO THE NEW REGIME BY JULY 1, 1950.

BATAVIA, JAVA, MARCH 2-(AP)-ANAK AGUNG, PREMIER OF EAST INDONESIA, SAID TODAY HIS STATE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO RECONSIDER ACCEPTANCE OF A DUTCH INVITATION TO A CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE.

THE PREMIER SAID THAT FOR A SUCCESSFUL CONFERENCE, THE NETHERLANDS MUST GRANT "UNCONDITIONAL FREEDOM" TO THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS WHO HAVE BEEN DETAINED AT THE ISLAND OF BANGKA SINCE THE DUTCH "POLICE ACTION" ON JAVA AND SUMATRA LAST DECEMBER. HE ADDED THAT IT IS OF PRIMARY IMPORTANCE THAT THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA BE PRESENT AT THE CONFERENCE.

THE DUTCH HAVE PROMISED ARRANGEMENTS FOR UNRESTRICTED MOVEMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS, INCLUDING PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA. HOWEVER, THIS DID NOT MEAN UNCONDITIONAL FREEDOM.

LOUIS J.M.BEEL, THE HIGH CROWN REPRESENTATIVE HERE, SAID THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO TRAVEL TO JOGJAKARTA, JAVA, WHICH HAD BEEN THE REPUBLICAN CAPITAL. HE SAID OTHERWISE THE LEADERS WOULD HAVE THE SAME FREEDOM AS THE "ORDINARY CITIZEN" IN INDONESIA. THERE IS STILL A STAGE OF SIEGE IN THE INDIES AND A TRAVEL PERMIT IS REQUIRED TO MOVE FROM ISLAND TO ISLAND AND CITY TO CITY.

IN A REPORT TO THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL, THE U.N. COMMISSION SAID IT WOULD BE LEFT UP TO LAKE SUCCESS WHETHER THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD BE REPRESENTED AT THE HAGUE MEETING.

(WX) VIEQUES ISLAND, PUERTO RICO, MARCH 2-(AP)-SOME 6,000 MARINE AND ARMY TROOPS STORMED THE BEACHES TODAY IN THE START OF A FIVE-DAY WAR-GAME ASSAULT TO CAPTURE THIS ISLAND FROM "AGGRESSOR" NATION.

THE INVADERS, WHO INCLUDED THE PUERTO RICAN 65TH INFANTRY DIVISION AND A SMALL UNIT OF CANADIANS, ENCOUNTERED SOME CLEVER DEFENSE TACTICS BUT PUSHED BEYOND THE AIR FIELD DURING THE FIRST THREE HOURS OF BATTLE. THE MARINES WERE FORCED TO MOVE MUCH OF THEIR EQUIPMENT LANDING OPERATIONS FROM BLUE BEACH, THE EASTERN SECTOR OF THE INVASION, TO RED BEACH.

ONE WAVE OF MARINES BRINGING ASHORE TANKS WAS RULED TO HAVE FAILED IN THE EFFORT BECAUSE OF DELAY IN GETTING OVER A SIX-FOOT BANK OF SAND THROWN UP ACROSS THE ENTIRE BEACH BY "AGGRESSOR" BULL DOZERS. THE MARINES BROUGHT SOME BULL DOZERS TO PUSH OPENINGS THROUGH THE BANK.

THE "AGGRESSOR" FORCE IS SMALL BUT HIGHLY TRAINED AND WELL DUG IN. THE LEADERS HAVE BEEN ON THE ISLAND SINCE DECEMBER WORKING OUT TACTICS TO TEST THE TRAINING OF TROOPS.

DOZENS OF HIGH RANKING MILITARY OFFICIALS, SENATORS AND CONGRESSMEN WITNESSED THE LANDING AND SUBSEQUENT MANEUVERS FROM OBSERVATION POINTS ON HILLS. THEY REEMBARKED ON SHIPS FOR THE RETURN TO SAN JUAN AND A FLIGHT TO WASHINGTON.

BY THE TIME THE GUESTS PULLED AWAY IN LANDING BOATS THE ISLAND WAS COVERED WITH SMOKE FROM BRUSH FIRES STARTED BY EXPLOSIVES USED TO SIMULATE GUNFIRE, LAND MINES AND BOMBS.

NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 2-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON INDICATED TODAY THAT ALL MAJOR ISSUES INVOLVED IN WRITING THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY HAVE BEEN SETTLED.

THE SEVEN COUNTRIES DRAFTING THE PACT, HOWEVER, HAVE NOT YET DETERMINED WHAT OTHER NATIONS SHOULD BE BROUGHT IN AS ORIGINAL SIGNERS, HE DISCLOSED. THE QUESTION OF INVITING ITALY IS RECEIVING ESPECIALLY CAREFUL STUDY.

ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT HE DID NOT KNOW OF ANY OUTSTANDING DIFFERENCES ON THE TEXT OF THE TREATY. HE EXPECTS TO MEET WITH THE AMBASSADORS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, CANADA, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG TOMORROW AND POSSIBLY AGAIN EARLY NEXT WEEK TO TRY TO WIND UP DETAILS OF DRAFTING.

THE TREATY WOULD COMMIT THE UNITED STATES AND ALL OTHER MEMBER NATIONS TO RESIST AN ATTACK AGAINST ANY ONE OF THEM, BUT EACH COUNTRY WOULD DECIDE WHAT STEPS IT WOULD TAKE IN FULFILLING THE COMMITMENT.

ACHESON SAID HE HOPES TO MAKE THE TEXT PUBLIC BEFORE IT IS SIGNED. CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAD DECLARED EARLIER THAT IT SHOULD NOT BE MADE PUBLIC UNTIL AFTER SIGNING, LEST SOME UNFORESEEN QUESTION ARISE AND CAUSE TROUBLE.

WHILE NOT COMMENTING DIRECTLY ON CONNALY'S VIEW, ACHESON SAID THAT BEFORE THE TEXT WAS RELEASED IT WOULD HAVE TO BE AGREED TO BY ALL THE COUNTRIES INVOLVED. HE THEREBY APPEARED TO RULE OUT THE PROBABILITY OF SOME UNFORESEEN ISSUE COMING UP.

ON THE QUESTION OF ITALY, ACHESON DECLINED TO GO INTO ANY DETAIL. THE AMBASSADORS AND HE HAVE BEEN DISCUSSING THE POSSIBILITY OF OTHER NATIONS JOINING IN THE PROJECT, HE SAID, AND THE ITALIAN MATTER IS STILL UNDER DISCUSSION. NATIONS WHICH APPEAR REASONABLY SURE OF EARLY INVITATIONS ARE NORWAY AND DENMARK AND PROBABLY ICELAND AND PORTUGAL.

FROM OTHER INFORMANTS IT WAS LEARNED THAT NEW AND UNEXPECTED OPPOSITION HAD ARISEN TO MAKING ITALY ONE OF THE ORIGINAL SIGNERS. BUT IT WAS REPORTED THAT A COMPROMISE MAY BE WORKED OUT WHEREBY ITALY COULD ADHERE TO THE PACT IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE OTHER NATIONS HAVE SIGNED IT.

A33WX

THE PROBLEM IS A DELICATE ONE FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT BECAUSE SEVERE POLITICAL DIFFICULTIES MIGHT DEVELOP FOR PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S GOVERNMENT IF IT SEEMED THAT ITALY WAS BEING OFFERED ANYTHING LESS THAN A FULL PARTNERSHIP IN THE DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

THE NEW OPPOSITION TO ITALY AS AN ORIGINAL SIGNER IS REPORTED TO COME CHIEFLY FROM LEADERS OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE--CHAIRMAN CONNALY AND SENATORS VANDENBERG (R-MICH) AND GEORGE (D-GA). THEIR VIEW WAS REPORTED TO BE THAT THE PACT SHOULD NOT BE EXTENDED IMMEDIATELY INTO THE MEDITERRANEAN AREA.

BRITAIN AND THE BENELUX COUNTRIES ARE ALSO REPORTED COOL TO THE IDEA, WHILE FRANCE STRONGLY FAVORS IT.

ITALY IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND ITS MILITARY RESOURCES ARE SHARPLY LIMITED BY ITS PEACE TREATY. THESE AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS HAVE ENTERED INTO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE OPPOSITION.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THOSE WHO HAVE ARGUED FOR BRINGING ITALY IN BEFORE THE PACT IS SIGNED HAVE CONTENDED ITALIAN SECURITY IS ESSENTIAL TO THE SECURITY OF WESTERN EUROPE.

(300) CHINA

BY BILL ROSS

WASHINGTON,MARCH 2-(AP)-THE FUTURE OF UNITED STATES AID TO CHINA APPARENTLY HINGES ON THE OUTCOME OF PEACE TALKS NOW UNDERWAY BETWEEN THE NANKING GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNIST GENERALS.

STATE DEPARTMENT AND ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS WERE TIGHT-LIPPED, PROBABLY FOR THIS REASON, ABOUT MOST PHASES OF PROPOSED NEW ADMINISTRATION RECOMMENDATIONS TO CONGRESS CONCERNING THE TICKLISH CHINA AID QUESTION.

A TREND OF OFFICIAL THINKING ON FUTURE ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO CHINA, HOWEVER, WAS UNFOLDED YESTERDAY ON CAPITOL HILL. ROGER D.LAPHAM, CHIEF OF ECA'S MISSION TO CHINA, RECOMMENDED TO THE JOINT SENATE-HOUSE FOREIGN AID "WATCHDOG" COMMITTEE THAT CONGRESS APPROVE CONTINUED HELP FOR NON-COMMUNIST AREAS.

HE TOLD THE LAWMAKERS THAT CURRENT U.S. SPENDING FOR CHINESE ECONOMIC AID IS ABOUT $20,000,000 (M) MONTHLY. THE FUNDS ARE BEING USED TO SUPPLY FOOD, FERTILIZER AND INDUSTRIAL MATERIAL FOR KEY CITIES AND AREAS NOT UNDER COMMUNIST DOMINATION.

LAPHAM LATER SAID RECOVERY COSTS OVER A YEAR COULD BE MORE THAN 12 TIMES THE MONTHLY SPENDING FIGURE, "OR SUBSTANTIALLY LESS" DEPENDING ON FUTURE COMMUNIST MOVES. AS LAPHAM PHRASED IT:

"IF OUR POLICY IS TO DISCONTINUE OPERATIONS IN COMMUNIST TERRITORY, THEN WE WOULD NOT NEED ANYTHING LIKE $240,000,000. IF THE COMMUNISTS TAKE SOUTH CHINA--AND IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO MOVE SOUTH FROM THEIR PRESENT POSITIONS TO CANTON--WE WOULD NOT OPERATE ON THE MAINLAND AT ALL."

LAPHAM LEFT NEWSMEN WITH THE IMPRESSION THAT THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR IS ALL BUT OVER.

"IT IS GENERALLY CONSIDERED THAT MOST CHINESE ARE TIRED OF WAR AND WANT PEACE," HE REPORTED. "ACTING PRXSIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN WANTS TO MAKE PEACE BUT THE COMMUNISTS SEEM TO BE IN NO HURRY."

LAPHAM SAID HE PLANS TO RETURN TO THE ORIENT WITHIN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

THE FORMER SAN FRANCISCO MAYOR AND SHIPPING MAGNATE CAME HERE LAST WEEK FROM SHANGHAI.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 2-(AP)-THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AGREED TODAY TO STIPULATE THAT 15 PER CENT OF THE FOREIGN AID WHEAT SHIPPED TO EUROPE IN THE NEXT YEAR BE IN THE FORM OF FLOUR.

IN THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION'S FIRST YEAR OF OPERATIONS, 25 PER CENT OF THE WHEAT WAS REQUIRED TO BE IN THE FORM OF FLOUR. THE AGENCY HAD ASKED THAT THE RESTRICTION BE WIPED OUT.

AMERICAN MILLERS, CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) TOLD NEWSMEN, PUT "A GOOD DEAL OF PRESSURE" ON THE COMMITTEE TO REQUIRE THAT WHAT THEY CALLED THEIR HISTORICAL FLOUR MARKET IN EUROPE BE PROTECTED.

MILLERS FIRST URGED RETENTION OF THE 25 PER CENT FIGURE, LATER SCALED IT DOWN TO 18 PER CENT.

CONNALLY SAID THE COMMITTEE FELT THAT "WE WOULD HAVE A FIGHT ON THE FLOOR OF THE SENATE IF WE DID NOT RECOGNIZE THE DEMANDS OF THE DOMESTIC FOLK."

THE COMMITTEE WILL MEET AGAIN TOMORROW, AND CONNALLY SAID HE HOPES IT WILL THEN REACH FINAL AGREEMENT ON THE ECA REQUEST FOR AUTHORITY TO SPEND UP TO $5,580,000,000 (B) FOR FOREIGN RELIEF NEEDS TO JULY 1, 1950.

(270) ATLANTIC PACT

WASHINGTON,MARCH 2-(AP)-A POSSIBLE HITCH DEVELOPED TODAY IN STATE DEPARTMENT PLANS TO SEEK FULL PUBLICITY SOON FOR THE TEXT OF THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) TOLD REPORTERS "I DON'T THINK THE FULL TEXT OF THE TREATY SHOULD BE DISCLOSED UNTIL ALL THE NATIONS HAVE SIGNED IT. PREMATURE RELEASE MIGHT CAUSE TROUBLE IF ANY NEW QUESTION AROSE BEFORE IT WAS SIGNED BY ALL THE NATIONS."

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAVE EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT THE TREATY TEXT COULD BE MADE PUBLIC BY AGREEMENT WITH THE OTHER GOVERNMENTS IN TIME TO PERMIT TWO OR THREE WEEKS OF PUBLIC DISCUSSION BEFORE THE SIGNING.

THE LATEST FORMAL COMMENT ON THAT SUBJECT WAS MADE BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON FEBRUARY 16. "I HOPE AND EXPECT," HE SAID, "THAT IT WILL SOON BE POSSIBLE TO HAVE PUBLIC DISCUSSION ON THE BASIS OF AN ACTUAL TEXT."

SOME OBSERVERS THOUGHT THAT THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CONNALLY'S AND ACHESON'S VIEWS MIGHT BE MORE APPARENT THAN REAL.

IF THE STATE DEPARTMENT COULD SHOW THAT FINAL AGREEMENT ON A TEXT WOULD EFFECTIVELY PRECLUDE ANY NEW QUESTIONS FROM ARISING BEFORE THE FORMAL SIGNING THERE WOULD SEEM TO BE BY CONNALLY'S OWN STATEMENT NO REASON FOR FURTHER SECRECY.

PERSONS FAMILIAR WITH THE PROGRESS OF NEGOTIATIONS, NOW IN THE LAST STAGE, SAID THEY WERE PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY.

ACHESON AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG HELD ANOTHER DRAFTING SESSION YESTERDAY AND TENTATIVELY PLANNED TO MEET AGAIN ON THURSDAY. THEIR AIM IS TO GET THE TREATY IN FINAL SHAPE BY THIS WEEK-END IF POSSIBLE, THEN REFER IT TO THE OTHER CAPITALS FOR A COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW AND APPROVAL.

NIGHT LEAD

FORT WORTH, TEX., MARCH 2-(AP)-EIGHT DAYS OF SUSPENSE ENDED TODAY FOR NEXT OF KIN OF A B-50 BOMBER CREW. THEIR MEN WERE DOWN--SAFE AND WITH HISTORY WRITTEN IN THE EXHAUST OF "LUCKY LADY II."

"I'LL BE DOGGONED," SAID MRS. GLENN E. HACKER WHEN TOLD THE "SECRET MISSION" HER HUSBAND FLEW WAS THE FIRST NON-STOP FLIGHT AROUND THE WORLD.

"I'LL JUST BE DOGGONED," SHE SAID IN A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION FROM HER HOME IN TUCSON, ARIZ.

HACKER WAS FIRST NAVIGATOR ON THE FLIGHT--FORT WORTH TO FORT WORTH VIA THE AZORES, SAUDI ARABIA, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS AND HONOLULU, MORE THAN 23,000 MILES AROUND THE GLOBE.

"I'D HAVE HAD A STORMING TIZZY IF I'D KNOWN ABOUT IT BEFORE HAND," SAID MRS. ARTHUR M. NEAL, WIFE OF THE SECOND PILOT.

"I JUST ABOUT HIT THE CEILING WHEN I HEARD ABOUT THE FLIGHT," SAID MRS. DAVIS, WIFE OF STAFF SGT. ROBERT G. DAVIS.

BOTH MRS. NEAL AND MRS. DAVIS ALSO LIVE AT TUCSON. THE CREW OF "LUCKY LADY II" IS NORMALLY BASED AT DAVIS-MONTHAN AIR BASE, TUCSON. HACKER'S HOME IS ELDORADO, KAS., NEAL'S AT GRASS VALLEY, CALIF., AND DAVIS IS FROM NILES, MICH.

MRS. HACKER SAID HER HUSBAND "LEFT HERE TUESDAY OF LAST WEEK AND COULDN'T TELL ME A THING. IT WAS A VERY SECRET MISSION AND I'VE JUST BEEN SITTING HERE, SCARED TO DEATH, WONDERING WHAT IT WAS.

"BUT, OH, MY, ISN'T IT WONDERFUL. I'M THRILLED TO DEATH. YOU KNOW I'M MIGHTY CRAZY ABOUT THAT HUSBAND OF MINE."

THE BIG FOUR-ENGINED BOMBER TOOK OFF FROM CARSWELL AT 12:21 A.M. CST, SATURDAY, FEB.26. IT COMPLETED THE ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP 94 HOURS AND ONE MINUTE LATER.

MRS. NEAL SAID IT WAS HER HUSBAND'S SECOND TRIP AROUND THE WORLD. "HE WAS ON A B-29 FLIGHT LAST SUMMER, YOU KNOW." THIS FLIGHT MADE STOPS TO TAKE ON FUEL. THE "LUCKY LADY" REFUELED IN MID-AIR WITHOUT MISSING A PROP SPIN.

"I HAD A FEELING THIS MISSION MIGHT BE ANOTHER ROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP, BUT I DIDN'T KNOW."

TOLD THAT THE SHIP LANDED SMOOTHLY, SHE LAUGHED AND SAID:

"THAT'S ART ALL RIGHT. HE LANDS 'EM PRETTY WHEN SOMEBODY'S WATCHING."

MRS. DAVIS SAID THE FLIGHT WAS "NEWS TO ME, BUT WONDERFUL NEWS."

SHE ALSO PRAISED THE GROUND CREWS.

"YOU HAVE TO HAVE A WONDERFUL GROUND CREW TO PUT A PLANE IN SHAPE TO STAY UP THAT LONG," SHE SAID. "OF COURSE, THE FLYERS ARE MARVELLOUS, TOO."

"I'M REALLY PROUD OF HIM AND GLAD TO KNOW THAT HE GOT BACK ON THE TRIP," SAID W. R. MCLEROY OF ALVARADO, TEX. HE WAS SPEAKING OF HIS SON, STAFF SGT. ROBERT R. MCLEROY, A RADIO OPERATOR ON THE BOMBER.

CAPT. JAMES GALLAGHER, PILOT OF THE BOMBER, AND HIS WIFE HAD PLANNED A VACATION IN NEW ORLEANS FOR THE MARDI GRAS. THEN A "SECRET MISSION" CAME UP. MRS. GALLAGHER WENT TO THE HIGH JINXS OF REX IN THE CRESCENT CITY. CAPT. GALLAGHER OF MELROSE, MINN., WENT AROUND THE WORLD, IN 94 HOURS AND ONE MINUTE, NON-STOP.

NIGHT LEAD FLIGHT (500 UP)

BY ELTON C.FAY

FORT WORTH,TEX.,MARCH 2 (AP)-THE UNITED STATES AIRFORCE HAS CIRCLED THE GLOBE NON-STOP FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY.

THE LUCKY LADY II, A B-50 MEDIUM BOMBER, AND HER HAPPY, WEARY CREW OF 14, SURPRISED THE WORLD TODAY BY WINDING UP THE EPOCHAL FEAT HERE. REFUELING ON THE WING MADE IT POSSIBLE.

NINETY-FOUR HOURS AND ONE MINUTE AFTER ITS UNANNOUNCED TAKEOFF FROM CARSWELL AIR FORCE BASE HERE, LUCKY LADY SETTLED GENTLY BACK DOWN ON A CARSWELL RUNWAY AT 9:22 A.M., CENTRAL STANDARD TIME. SHE HAD MADE AN EASTWARD FLIGHT AROUND THE EARTH AT ALMOST THE GREATEST GIRTH--MORE THAN 23,000 MILES--TAKING ON GASOLINE FOUR TIMES FROM FLYING TANKERS.

THE GRINNING CREWMEN STEPPED OFF THE PLANE TO A WARM WELCOME BY THE AIRFORCE'S HIGHEST OFFICERS. BOTH THE HIGH COMMAND AND THE MEN WHO MADE THE FLIGHT SAID THEY SAW SOME STRATEGIC AND TACTICAL LESSONS IN THE EXPERIMENTAL MISSION.

CAPT.JAMES GALLAGHER OF MELROSE, MINN., THE CHIEF PILOT AND COMMANDER, SUMMED IT UP LIKE THIS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"IT SEEMS TO ME YOU CAN GO JUST ABOUT ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD ANY TIME.

GEN.CURTIS E.LEMAY

"IT SEEMS TO ME YOU CAN GO JUST ABOUT ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD ANY TIME.

GEN. CURTIS E.LEMAY, CHIEF OF THE STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND, WAS ASKED IF THIS MEANT THAT, USING THE AERIAL REFUELING METHODS, "YOU CAN DELIVER AN A-BOMB ANYWHERE IN RUSSIA."

LEMAY LOOKED A LITTLE STARTLED, THEN SAID:

"LET'S SAY ANY PLACE THAT WOULD REQUIRE AN ATOMIC BOMB."

THE SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT WAS A SECOND START. ANOTHER B-50 TURNED BACK LAST FRIDAY SHORTLY AFTER THE TAKEOFF BECAUSE OF AN ENGINE FIRE.

SECRECY SHROUDED THE PROJECT FOR THE WHOLE 94 HOURS THE BOEING B-50 BOMBER WAS IN THE AIR. NOT EVEN NEWSMEN WHO WERE BROUGHT TO CARSWELL AIR BASE HERE WERE TOLD THE PURPOSE OF THEIR TRIP UNTIL SHORTLY BEFORE THE SCHEDULED ARRIVAL OF THE PLANE.

IN LAYING OUT THE ROUTE DIPLOMATIC ARRANGEMENTS WITH A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES HAD TO BE MADE.

AND THE AIR FORCE WAS CAREFUL TO STEER THE BOMBER WIDE OF SUPER-SENSITIVE RUSSIA. THE NEAREST THE PLANE APPROACHED RUSSIAN TERRITORY WAS AT A POINT NEAR KARACHI, INDIA, HUNDREDS OF MILES FROM ANY SOVIET-CONTROLLED REGION.

HERE IS HOW THE 23,425 MILE FLIGHT WAS ACCOMPLISHED:

THE B-50 IS A POSTWAR SUCCESSOR TO THE WARTIME B-29 SUPERFORTRESS WHICH BLASTED JAPAN AND DROPPED ATOMIC BOMBS ON HIROSHIMA AND NAGA-SAKI. IT TOOK OFF AT 12:21 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, SATURDAY, HEADED EASTWARD. OVER THE AZORES, B29S CONVERTED INTO TANKERS ROSE FROM LAGENS FIELD AS THE B-50 RADIOED IT WAS APPROACHING, TWO MINUTES AHEAD OF SCHEDULE ON THE FIRST 3,884 MILE LEG OF THE FLIGHT.

THE NEXT RE-FILL WAS OVER DHAHRAN, SAUDI ARABIA, ABOUT 5,200 MILES FROM THE AZORES. A TAIL WIND HAS HELPED AND THEY WERE TWO HOURS AND 55 MINUTES AHEAD OF THE ORIGINAL FLIGHT PLAN. BUT AGAIN THE TANKERS WERE AT THE RENDEZVOUS POINT, READY TO FLY ALONG ABOVE THE B-50 AS IT KEPT STEADILY ON COURSE.

THE "LUCKY LADY II"--HER NAME WAS A GOOD OMEN--DRONED STEADILY EASTWARD, EATING UP THE MILES AND COMING IN OVER THE PHILIPPINES ONE HOUR AND 25 MINUTES TO THE GOOD FOR THE THIRD REFUELING.

THE PILOT DIDN'T PUSH THE PLANE ON THE NEXT LEG. SHE FLEW ABOVE HAWAII FOR THE FOURTH AND FINAL REFUELING 58 MINUTES AHEAD OF THE FLIGHT PLAN.

WHEN THE LUCKY LADY ROARED OVER THE CONTROL TOWER AT HER DEPARTURE POINT HER TIME WAS ALMOST EXACTLY ON THE PLANNED DOT--9:22 A.M., CENTRAL STANDARD TIME.

CURIOUS THINGS HAPPEN TO TIME WHEN MAN GOES FLYING EASTWARD AGAINST THE SUN'S PATH. THE CREW WAS GONE FROM THIS BASE FOR FOUR NIGHTS, BUT DURING THEIR FLIGHT THEY SPENT FIVE PERIODS OF DARKNESS IN THE AIR.

CAPT. JAMES GALLAGHER OF MELROSE, CALIF., THE PILOT, SERVED AS SPOKESMAN FOR HIS FELLOW CREWMEN AT A NEWS CONFERENCE.

THE THING THEY LIKED BEST WAS THAT "EVERYTHING WAS QUITE NORMAL." THE ENGINES KEPT SMOOTHLY AT WORK THROUGHOUT THE LONG HOURS. THE WEATHER WAS "EXCELLENT" ALMOST THE WHOLE WAY. FOR ONLY FOUR OF THE 94 HOURS DID CLOUDS FORCE THE USE OF INSTRUMENTS FOR FLYING.

THE CREW WAS TIRED FROM THE GRIND, BUT SAID THEY HAD ENOUGH SLEEP. BUT THEY FOUND, UPON LANDING, THAT BOTH THEMSELVES AND THEIR AIRPLANE HAD BECOME GUINEA PIGS FOR A HOST OF LABORATORY TECHNICIANS.

A204KX

THERE WASN'T ANYTHING THE MATTER WITH THEIR HEALTH, BUT THE AIR SURGEONS GRABBED THEM AND HEADED THEM FOR A 24-HOUR STAY IN A HOSPITAL WHERE THEIR REACTIONS, BLOOD COUNT AND OTHER THINGS THAT INDICATE FATIGUE WILL BE ANALYZED.

THE AIRFORCE, BEING MODEST, DIDN'T HAVE MUCH TO SAY ABOUT HISTORY-MAKING. BUT BOTH ITS HIGH COMMAND AND THE MEN WHO MADE THE FLIGHT SAID THEY SAW SOME STRATEGIC AND TACTICAL LESSONS IN THE EXPERIMENTAL MISSION.

GENERAL LEMAY TOLD REPORTERS THAT ONE PURPOSE OF THE SECRET FLIGHT WAS TO FIND HOW GOOD MILITARY SECURITY COULD BE FOR A MISSION INVOLVING UPWARDS OF A SCORE OF TANKER PLANES BASED AT FOUR POINTS AROUND THE WORLD. THE BOMBER AND THE TANKERS HAD TO USE THE RADIO FREQUENTLY, BUT SO WELL GUARDED WERE THEIR WORDS THAT NO INKLING OF THE FLIGHT WAS GIVEN.

"PART OF THE PLAN," SAID LEMAY, "WAS TO SEE IF WE COULD DO THIS WITHOUT COLUMNISTS--AND OTHER PEOPLE--FINDING OUT ABOUT IT."

TO ANOTHER QUESTION, LEMAY SAW NO REASON FOR USING THE REFUELING TECHNIQUE FOR THE GIANT, SIX-ENGINED CONSOLIDATED VULTEE B-36. THAT PLANE ALREADY HAS FLOWN MORE THAN 8,000 MILES NON-STOP AND HIGH AIR FORCE OFFICIALS ARE CONFIDENT IT CAN REACH OUT TO 10,000 OR 12,000 MILES.

DID THE AIR FORCE CONSIDER A ROUND-WORLD FLIGHT THE WAY, OVER THE NORTH AND SOUTH PLES?

"I DON'T SEE ANYTHING RIGHT NOW TO WARRANT IT

NORTH AND SOUTH POLES?

"I DON'T SEE ANYTHING RIGHT NOW TO WARRANT IT," SAID LEMAY. "BUT IF WE NEED THE INFORMATION, WE'LL DO IT."

GENERALS AND COLONELS PASSED CUPS OF HOT COFFEE ALONG THE LINE TO EACH MAN.

NEWSMEN PEPPERED THEM WITH QUESTIONS.

GALLAGHER SAID "IT SEEMS TO ME YOU CAN GO JUST ABOUT ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD ANY TIME," AND ADDED "GIVE US A LITTLE REST AND WE CAN START OUT AGAIN."

AS VANDENBERG ROSE TO END THE SHORT INTERVIEW EVERYBODY IN THE CROWDED BRIEFING ROOM, INCLUDING OFFICERS, NEWSMEN AND TWO MESS BOYS SERVING COFFEE, STARTED APPLAUDING.

ALTHOUGH NONE OF THE FLYERS GOT SICK OR WERE HURT BY THE LONG GRIND, ARMY DOCTORS PUT THEM UNDER OBSERVATION FOR 24 HOURS TO SEE WHAT HAPPENS TO MEN WHO FLY AROUND THE WORLD IN 94 HOURS.

Soviet Strikes Back at U.S. by Ousting Army Graves Registration Team

2 DAY SIEGE ENDS

8-Man Repatriation Mission Hauls Down Flag and Burns Records

FRANKFURT, Germany, (Friday) March 4—(AP) The Russians bowed today to American pressure and ordered a blockaded Soviet repatriation mission to leave Frankfurt.

The Russians struck back quickly at a two-day siege imposed by U.S. army authorities by ordering U.S. grave registration men out of the Soviet occupation zone at once.

A Soviet announcement said American grave teams working at Sondershausen in Thuringia and Parchim in Mecklenburg "have left the Soviet zone at the request of Soviet military authorities."

9 Men Affected

Grave registration command officers estimated about seven or eight enlisted men and two officers were affected by the expulsion. They have been working in Soviet-held territory looking for mising U.S. soldiers who died in the advance across German soil now held by the Russians.

The eight men in the Soviet mission said they would quit the building they occupied here within a few hours—enough time for them to pack their belonging and get out.

The Russians had been cut off from all water, food, gas and electric power for more than 36 hours. All the U.S. Army would offer them was hospital service—under armed guard—if any one took ill.

The Soviets made their announcement through Col. Sterling A. Wood, Frankfurt provost marshal, who visited them in company with Col. A. Laserev, chief of the Soviet military mission here. LT COL ANDREI LASAREV Lasarev formally transmitted the evacuation orders to the besieged mission from the Soviet high command.

Lasarev and Wood arrived at the mission headquarters at 11:30 p.m. last night (5:30 p.m. EST).

Pull Down Flag

The Russians pulled down their red flag over the mission building and burned their records in the middle of the living room. The big blaze was visible outside.

The mission ignored U. S. Army orders to leave the premises on March 1. Gen. Lucius D. Clay contended there was not enough repatriation business for Russia to warrant the mission staying any longer.

The U. S. State department supported the American military governor in a note to the Soviet Union. This was in reply to a protest from Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov that the order to get out violated U. S.-Russian agreements. The State department said the protest was packed with "misrepresentation and distortion."

A statement by Col. Lasarev released by the Soviet news agency ADN in Berlin blasted the blockade as a "violation of the elemental principles of humanity and international law."

Hit U. S. Attitude

"The Soviet command has instructed me to tell you that on account of the shocking attitude of the American authorities against the Soviet repatriation mission permission for work of the American graves registration unit in the Soviet-occupied zone of Germany has been cancelled.

"Members of the American group are herewith requested to leave the territory of the Soviet zone at once."

The Russians had previously declined to leave Frankfurt without orders from Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, the Russian commander in Germany. Last night Sokolovsky denounced the American action as a "policy of violence."

After the evacuation order had been given the eight Russians Col. Wood told newsmen the besieged Soviets would be permitted to depart under escort of members of the Soviet military mission.

In order to speed their departure Col. Wood ordered electric lights and telephone service restored so the eight men could make the necessary arrangements.

Originally it had been announced that the U. S. Army would furnish escort to the Soviets to the Russian zone border at Helmstedt, but this was changed on order of U. S. Army military government headquarters in Heidelberg. ADD

Wire, Floodlights Surround Russ Mission

Richard D. Logan

Frankfurt, March 3 (AP)—United States army engineers strung barbedwire entanglements around the blockaded Russian repatriation mission today and set up floodlights.

The explanation was obscure. A military policeman said the new move was to prevent foods being smuggled to the eight blockaded Russians, and to prevent them from leaving "on their own," without reporting to American authorities first.

The Americans want the Russians to leave—in fact, ordered them to go—and have offered transportation facilities to the border if the Russians leave voluntarily.

Watch Wire Stringing

The eight Russians who ignored the United States Army's order to leave by March 1 watched the wire-stringing operations curiously from windows of the three-story building. They showed no intention of leaving, although they are cut off from water, light, gas, telephone service and food from the outside. On the chance that water might leak to the mission through faulty valves, the engineers even ordered the pipes sawed in half.

A Russian visitor to the mission had relayed an appeal for water which was denied. But this morning an English-speaking member reported through the military-police guards that the mission spent a comfortable night and had a good breakfast. How this was accomplished without water, gas or electricity was not explained. A German cook, last of the servant staff, left the building this morning.

Reds Bask In Sun

During sunny spells this morning, the Russians basked on the balcony of the rear of the house.

The front door opened at 8 A.M. and a Russian officer poked his head out to ask: "Can we have a newspaper?"

Lieut. Edward L. Covak, of Duluth, Minn., in charge of the military police cordon, said only Stars and Stripes, an English-language paper, was available.

Courtesy Of Military Police

"That's okay," said the Russian, so Covak handed him the paper.

"This is through courtesy of American military police," Covak added politely.

The Russian thanked him.

The Russians in the house have had only one visitor since the siege started. A Soviet colonel, accompanied by Col. Sterling A. Wood, American provost marshal, went there last night.

Get No Water

The Russian visitor reported those inside had only one request—water. But Wood said later he had orders to shut off the water. The digging up of the street to cut the pipe emphasized that stand.

The blockade started yesterday. Gen. Lucius D. Clay several weeks ago told the Russians to withdraw their mission March 1. Its work of getting Russian displaced persons back to Russia, Clay said, had ended.

The Soviets replied the mission was indispensable and insisted on its right to stay. The eight men refused to leave without orders from their superiors.

Military police then shut off water, gas, electricity, telephone service and all outside contacts.

The Russians were believed to have plenty of food on hand. There was snow on the ground, but so far they have made no move to use it as a source of water.

In Berlin, Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky denounced the blockade as "shameless police operations." His statement, made through S.N.B., the Soviet news agency, said nothing about the mission's pulling out.

U.S. and Soviet Notes on Repatriation Mission

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Following are the texts of a Russian note protesting the action of General Lucius D. Clay, United States commander in Germany, in ordering the Soviet repatriation mission to leave the United States zone, and the United States reply supporting General Clay's action:

Soviet Note

From the Soviet Foreign Office:
Feb. 24, 1949

No. 12

The Soviet Government considers it necessary to direct the attention of the Government of the United States of America to the inadmissible situation in the matter of repatriation of Soviet citizens from the United States zones of occupation of Germany and Austria.

According to the far from complete data at the disposal of the Soviet repatriation authorities, there are at present in the American zone of occupation of Germany over 116,000 and in the American zone of occupation of Austria over 19,000 Soviet citizens subject to repatriation. Moreover, on territories controlled by American authorities there are also at present a large number of unrepatriated Soviet children who, during the period of war, lost their parents or were forcibly separated from them and abducted to Germany by Hitlerites and who remain unprotected, since Soviet repatriation representatives cannot gain admittance to the places where they are located.

Such situation regarding repatriation of Soviet citizens has arisen from the fact that American military authorities in Germany and Austria in violation of obligations accepted by the Government of the United States of America are placing numerous obstacles in the way of the work of the Soviet repatriation representatives as has frequently been pointed out by the Soviet side.

Official representatives of the American military authorities systematically refuse Soviet repatriation officers organization meetings with Soviet citizens in displaced persons camps and are hindering conduct of conversations with them. Thus, for example, on Sept. 2, 1948 a representative of the American military authorities at Stuttgart told a Soviet officer that he had orders to forbid conversations between Soviet repariation officers and Soviet displaced persons. Facts of this nature are numerous.

In May, 1948, American military authorities in Germany by letter signed by American General Huebner forbade introduction of, sale and distribution among Soviet displaced citizens of Soviet newspapers, books and magazines. In reality Soviet citizens located in American camps for displaced persons are everywhere deprived of the opportunity to receive and become acquainted with Soviet newspapers and books.

With toleration of the military authorities in the American occupation zones of Germany and Austria, activity directed against the repatriation of Soviet citizens of various committees, organizations, "centers" and groups hostile to the Soviet Union has intensified, since these committees and "centers" have been handed over to yesterday's Hitlerite agents and accomplices. There have been established in displaced persons camps conditions of persecution and terror in relation to all Soviet citizens striving to return to their homeland. There are whole series of facts when there have been organized against Soviet repatriation officers on the occasion of their visits to American camps incidents prearranged by criminal elements striving to disrupt the work of repatriation and whose acts go unpunished.

Says Protests Were Ignored

The Soviet military authorities in Germany and Austria have made frequent representations to American military authorities concerning the necessity of stopping the activity of these elements and organizations hostile to the Soviet Union and which are directed toward disruption of repatriation and concerning the establishment for Soviet missions of conditions assuring the unhindered return of Soviet citizens to their homeland. However, American military authorities have not only not adopted necessary measures but on the contrary the facts testify that their action recently was directed toward the complete disruption of the work of the Soviet repatriation missions.

In January, 1949, American military authorities in Germany and Austria officially informed the Soviet command that the activities of the Soviet repatriation missions were to be terminated as of March 1, 1949. The Soviet Government considers such a statement by the American military authorities in contradiction with the Soviet-American repatriation agreement of Feb. 11, 1945, which does not permit unilateral abrogation of this agreement.

Bringing the above to the attention of the Government of the United States of America, the Soviet Government states that the actions of the American military authorities in Germany and Austria is in violation of the Soviet-American repatriation agreement of Feb. 11, 1945 and in contradiction of the agreed decisions of the Council of Foreign Ministers of April 23, 1947 regarding displaced persons.

These actions also contradict the resolution of the General Assembly [of the United Nations] of Nov. 17, 1947, which stated that the General Assembly "confirms its point of view according to which the principal task regarding displaced persons is to encourage by all possible means their most rapid return to their countries of origin and to cooperate in this return in accordance with the resolution of the General Assembly of Feb. 12, 1948, in which there should not be any obstacles in the way of the most expeditious settlement of this task."

The Soviet Government having completed in good time the repatriation of American citizens had the right to expect that the Government of the United States of America and its representatives in the occupied territories would likewise loyally carry out the obligations resulting from the above-mentioned agreements.

In virtue of the above the Soviet Government insists that the Government of the United States of America issue instructions to the American occupation authorities in Germany and Austria to take measures guaranteeing normal conditions of work for the Soviet repatriation missions, and in accordance with the Soviet-American agreement on repatriation and the decision of the Council of Foreign Ministers on displaced persons, revoke the orders which limit the number of personnel and periods of work of the Soviet repatriation missions in these zones.

U. S. Reply

To Soviet Minister of Foreign Affairs:

March 3, 1949

The following are the views of the United States Government regarding the questions raised in the Minister's note No. 12 of Feb. 24.

This Government considers the Minister's note replete with misrepresentation and distortion of fact. There is no basis for the Soviet Government's statement that large numbers of Soviet citizens desirous of returning to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics remain in the American area of occupation as a result of hindrances caused to the operation of the Soviet repatriation mission by American authorities or for any reason other than their own volition.

As repeatedly emphasized by American military authorities in Germany in communicating with the Soviet military authorities regarding the Soviet repatriation mission, there has been no desire on the part of this Government to impede in any way the repatriation of Soviet citizens in accordance with agreements reached between the United States and the Soviet Governments and within the framework of decisions of the United Nations regarding repatriation.

On the contrary, ample and adequate facilities have been given to the Soviet repatriation officials in order that they might speedily conclude their mission.

Repatriation activities have been carried on since the conclusion of the repatriation agreement of Feb. 11, 1945, with the active and full cooperation of the American occupation authorities despite irregularities in the conduct of members of the Soviet repatriation mission. As stated in General Clay's communication to Marshal Sokolovsky of Jan. 1, 1949, the decision to terminate accreditation of the Soviet repatriation mission resulted only from the small volume of repatriation now being carried on. It was further stated that any repatriation work that may remain may be carried on by representatives of the Soviet military mission. There is therefore no question of abrogation of the agreement of Feb. 11, 1945.

Regarding the statement that the Soviet Government completed in good time the repatriation of American citizens, the Soviet Government is aware of this Government's profound dissatisfaction with the progress of the repatriation of American citizens within the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as a result of the many communications addressed to the Minister by the American Ambassador at Moscow to which no adequate response has been made.

Rejects Russian Charges

The Government of the United States finds unacceptable remarks contained in the Minister's note under reference which attempt to demonstrate that illegal activities of groups in opposition to the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics have been permitted to exist by American military authorities and that persons desirous of returning to the Soviet Union have been prevented from doing so.

The American occupation authorities have implemented in every feasible way the resolution of the General Assembly of the United Nations of Feb. 12, 1946, including Paragraph C II which states, in part, "No refugees or displaced persons who have finally and definitely, in complete freedom, and after receiving full knowledge of the facts, including adequate information from the Governments of their countries of origin, expressed valid objection to returning to their countries of origin and who do not come within the provisions of Paragraph D below, shall be compelled to return to their country of origin * * *" as well as the resolution of Nov. 17, 1947. Persons who come within the scope of the provision cited, of course, cannot legitimately be considered potential repatriates.

It is apparent from the results achieved in recent months by the Soviet repatriation mission in Germany that the great bulk of its work has been completed. During the three months ended Oct. 31, 1948, the activities of the Soviet repatriation mission resulted in repatriation of persons from the American zone of occupation at an average rate of only thirty-four per month. In the three months ended Jan. 31, 1949, the rate had fallen further to less than nine persons per month. It is obvious that such limited repatriation activities can be arranged adequately by the existing Soviet military mission. The latter will continue to receive the full cooperation of the American military authorities in achieving the voluntary repatriation of Soviet citizens in accordance with the agreements mentioned above as well as the decisions of the conference of Foreign Ministers April 23, 1947.

This Government therefore reaffirms the position taken by the United States Commander in Chief in his communication of Jan. 1, 1949, and requests that personnel of the Soviet repatriation mission be withdrawn forthwith.

U.S. Note Backs Clay Ouster Of Russ Mission

Washington, March 3 (AP)—The United States Government, in a note to Russia, today gave Gen. Lucius D. Clay full support in his demand that the Soviet repatriation mission be withdrawn from the American zone of Germany.

The American note, made public by the State Department, said Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's protest against Clay's action was packed with "misrepresentation and distortion of fact."

Molotov's protest was delivered to the American Embassy in Moscow on February 24.

Molotov To Get Note

The American note was to be delivered to Molotov at Moscow today by Foy Kohler, ranking diplomat now on duty there.

Soviet Charges Rejected

General Clay, American military governor, ordered the Soviet mission out on the ground that there is not enough still going on in its line to justify the Russians in staying.

Few of the persons from Soviet territory in the American zone have been willing to go back home in recent months.

In substance, the American note rejected numerous specific charges made by Molotov and turned down his basic demand that the United States overrule Clay.

Fast Distortion Alleged

The note told Molotov in effect that voluntary return of persons to Russia was O.K. with the American Government but enforced return was not.

"This Government," the State Department said, "considers the Minister's note replete with misrepresentation and distortion of fact.

"There is no basis for the Soviet Government's statement that large numbers of Soviet citizens desirous of returning to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics remain in the American area of occupation, as a result of hindrances caused to the operation of the Soviet Repatriation Mission by American authorities or for any reason other than their own volition."

American Co-Operate

The United States declared that repatriation activities of the Soviets had been carried on with active cooperation of American occupation authorities in Germany, despite "irregularities in the conduct of members of the Soviet Repatriation Mission."

These irregularities were not detailed but State Department officials have long considered that the repatriation mission was carrying on propaganda, espionage and other work outside its proper assignment.

U.S. Is Dissatisfied

"There is no question of abrogation of the agreement of February 11, 1945," which laid down the privileges of the United States and Russia in repatriating citizens from each other's territories at the end of the war, the note said.

"Regarding the statement that the Soviet Government completed in good time the repatriation of American citizens," it went on, "the Soviet Government is aware of this Government's profound dissatisfaction with the progress of the repatriation of American citizens within the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as a result of the many communications addressed to the Minister by the American Ambassador in Moscow to which no adequate response has been made."

Big Three Would Exclude Berlin In Setting Up German Republic

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 3—(AP) The three western military governors called today for a decentralization of powers in the forthcoming western German republic and excluded Berlin from the federal regime.

Western German political leaders assailed the changes, suggested by the military governors in the proposed constitution for the republic. One of them, Carlo Schmid, told newsmen in Bonn that the Social Democratic party cannot accept the allies' suggestions in their present form.

Suggest 10 Changes

The constitution was drafted by an all-German parliamentary council in Bonn. In all the American, British and French authorities suggested 10 changes.

Besides the question of western Berlin's status, the changes dealt with electoral machinery and the division of legislative power in such fields as public welfare, civil and criminal law, courts and war damages. The rights and powers of the individual states in western Germany would be strengthened in relation to the projected central government.

The governors, American Gen. Lucius D. Clay, British Gen. Sir Brian Robertson and French Gen. Pierre Koenig, have informed the Germans also that they wanted the draft constitution revised to reduce the central government's financial powers.

Members of the Bonn council said the military governors' recommendations represent a "complete victory" for the French, who fear a revival of German nationalism.

French Object

The French objected to the inclusion of Western Berlin as the 12th state in the new republic. They contended such an action would serve as official recognition by the United States, Britain and France that the four-power allied control council in Berlin has ceased to exist. Actually, the council has not functioned since the Russians pulled out last spring.

Ernst Reuter, Western Berlin's anti-communist mayor, said the military governors' decision is "not very polite or very wise." He pointed out that, in the municipal election last December, Western Berliners voted overwhelmingly in favor of the west and against communism.

Reuter indicated the German leaders at Bonn would not make an issue of Berlin for the present. He added, however:

"I am sure that this is not the last word on the subject and that some day Berlin will be incorporated" in the western German republic.

Jacob Kaiser, chairman of Berlin's Christian Democratic party, said in Bonn the action on Berlin was a "disheartening blow" to the Germans in that city. He said he believed these factors determined the French position:

"France fears Soviet Russia and believes an incorporation of Berlin might make ultimate reconciliation with Moscow more difficult. France fears the revival of a Germany with Berlin incorporated as the ultimate central capital."

Attacked By Russ Paper

Taegliche Rundschau, official Soviet newspaper in Berlin, charged the Western Allies were rushing to complete the western German republic as part of their "war preparations."

"Everything indicates that this haste is connected with the creation of the so-called Atlantic pact and other aggressive military blocs," it said.

"Nice words cannot hide the role in store for western Germany. They (the Western Allies) are doing everything to make western Germany the assembly area for military aggression."

Allies Veto Plan To Put Berlin In New State

Frankfurt, Germany, March 3 (AP)—The three Western military governors today ruled out inclusion of Berlin in the forthcoming Western German state.

The French objected to including Berlin on the ground that it would serve as official Western recognition that the four-power Allied Control Council in Berlin had ceased to exist.

The parliamentary council drawing up a constitution for the new state at Bonn had specified that Berlin would be included.

Mayor Attacks Stand

The military governors' ruling drew an immediate attack from Berlin's fiery mayor, Ernst Reuter. The anti-Communist Socialist Mayor declared that it was "not very polite or very wise."

Reuter pointed out that western Berliners voted overwhelmingly in December in favor of the West and against communism.

He expressed doubt that the French objection was based solely on the grounds stated, but added: "It is not for me to comment on what the other French reasons may be."

Nationalism Spur Feared

Some American observers said the French object to having Berlin play any important role in the future state because they fear it would strengthen German nationalism.

Reuter indicated that the German leaders at Bonn would not make an issue of Berlin for the present.

He added, however: "I am sure that this is not the last word on the subject and that some day Berlin will be incorporated in the state."

May Send Representatives

The military governors said there would be no objection if Berlin sent a "small number of representatives" to the Bonn meeting.

The governors, American General Lucius D. Clay, British General Sir Brian Robertson and French General Pierre Koenig, said they also told German leaders yesterday that they wanted the proposed basic law revised to reduce the central government's financial powers.

Germans Rapped On Land Reform

Berlin, March 3 (AP)—United States Military Government chided the Germans today for failing to carry out the land-reform program adopted more than two years ago.

The plan called for breaking up large estates in the American zone. The land would be distributed among homeless refugees, small farmers who need more land to earn a living and city workers needing garden plots.

There are estimated to be more than 1,200,000 acres in big estates in the United States zone.

"Very Little" Land Taken

But "very little" of this land has yet been taken, a Military Government spokesman said in a broadcast to the Germans.

The German officials seem to be sparing private land owners. Virtually all the estates broken up so far were public property, the spokesman pointed out.

He also complained that refugees are getting only a third of the land already given out, although one of the chief aims of the reform was to provide them with homes.

Lawsuits Are Factor

The spokesman conceded that landlords' lawsuits are responsible for some of the delay in land reforms. But he insisted that "vigorous effort" by the German state governments could speed settlement of the legal issues and get the program into effective operation.

Reds Ban English as Decadent Tongue

Classed With Greek and Latin as Dead Language and Forbidden as Study in Germany.

Berlin, March 3 (A. P.).—The Russsians have banned the teaching of English in adult education classes in Red Army occupied areas of Germany, the British Military Government said here today.

The Russians class English as a "decadent" subject along with Greek, Latin, and philosophy, which also were dropped. In place of these subjects, the schools teaching adults were instructed to provide compulsory coursess in politics, a British educational officer said.

A Good Skate's Penalty

Brunswick, Germany, March 3 (AP)—A skier who accidentally ran the Russian blockade by crossing the frontier into the Soviet zone in the Harz Mountains was held by police for two days.

They made him give them ski lessons.

CZECH REFUGEE TELLS OF BROAD RED SPY NETWORK

Richard K. O'Malley

MUNICH, Germany, March 3 (AP)—A refugee Czechoslovak army officer testified before a U.S. military commission today that his communist-bossed country has laid out a broad spy network in Europe.

Capt. Otakar Feifar, who fled Czechoslovakia last November, appeared as a surprise prosecution witness in the espionage trial of three Czechs and five Germans. The eight are accused of obtaining military information for a foreign power.

Armed guards watched over him. A prosecuting attorney explained Feifar was not under arrest and was talking "in all willingness."

Life In Danger

"He is dynamite," the attorney said. "He has to be protected. There are five armed guards in this courtroom with orders to shoot."

Feifar had ben in the Czech army intelligence service. He told in a low voice of the workings of Czech espionage in Germany. His story of the operation:

His chief job was to obtain military, political and industrial data in the U. S. occupation zone. He got his orders from a Czech army unit "just below the general staff level."

He recruited agents from information supplied by his superiors. Overall direction came from the Czech interior ministry. Feifar identified one of the German defendants, Egon Richter, 23, as his agent "Kuernaz." He said cover names assigned to agents were kept by the general staff in Prague.

Edith Dittrich, a Czech defendant, watched Feifar scornfully.

Illegal Border Crossing

The prosecution has introduced a purported statement from her saying she made five illegal border crossings, but was working for "a United States of Europe." She was reported to have been assigned to report on the Americans' Neubiberg air base and to try to get a job in the office of the military government for Bavaria.

Statements attributed by the prosecution to the others indicated the Czechs were highly interested in refugees from their own country.

Gertie Doerre, sullen blonde sudetan German expelle, was quoted as saying she was assigned not only to get information on the Americans, but to advise of Russian troop strength in Germany. Russia and Czechoslovakia are political and military partners.

The statement said Miss Doerre was beaten at Prague with a rubber hose until she agreed to work for the Czech intelligence service.

The eight on trial are among 20 espionage suspects rounded up last fall. Six already have been convicted and sentenced to prison. The others await trial.

Munich Spy Trial Hears Of Czech Espionage Net

MUNICH, Germany, March 3 (AP).—A former Czechoslovak Army officer testified before an American military commission today that his Communist-bossed country has laid out a broad spy network in Europe.

Captain Otakar Feifar, who fled from Czechoslovakia in November, appeared as a surprise prosecution witness at the espionage trial of three Czechs and five Germans. The eight are accused of obtaining military information for a foreign power.

Armed guards watched over Feifar today. A prosecuting attorney explained he was not under arrest and was talking "in all willingness." Feifar was in the Czech army intelligence service. He testified that his chief job was to obtain military, political and industrial data in the American occupation zone of Germany. He got his orders from a Czech Army unit "just below the general staff level."

The eight on trial were among twenty espionage suspects rounded up last fall. Six have been convicted and sentenced to prison.

BRITAIN APPROVES $3 BILLION FUND FOR ARMED FORCES

Carter B. DAVIDSON

LONDON, March 3 (AP)—The House of Commons approved tonight Britain's biggest peacetime defense fund after Defense Minister A. V. Alexander said it was needed "so long as Russia maintains her veto on peace and security."

The budget for 1949-50 was estimated at 759,860,000 pounds ($3,039,440,000).

The vote was 227 to 3. The House beat down 291 to 155 a conservative amendment contending the money is not being spent wisely.

Churchill Opposed

Winston Churchill was among the sponsors of the amendment. Prime Minister Attlee said he had asked Churchill to discuss defense spending with him privately in order to guard against disclosing Britain's plans to possible foes, but added "he has not so far informed me of the time he would see me."

In debate, Alexander said the five-nation Brussels Alliance is making military plans for "any sudden emergency."

He made the statement after a week in which communist spokesmen of France, Italy, Britain, Germany, the United States and Austria had said western communists would back the Soviet Union in event of war between the east and west.

Finnish and Danish communists made similar declarations of loyalty to Russia tonight.

Alexander said the Brussels Alliance—composed of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—is studying tactical problems connected with the defense of western Europe.

No Aggresive Purpose

It is clear "before ourselves and the rest of the world that our defense measures have no aggressive purpose," he said, adding:

"We regret their necessity, but our duty is clear. So long as Russia maintains her veto on peace and security, so long shall we have to be prepared to carry whatever burden is needful to enable us to play our proper part in the defense of the free peoples of the world."

Meanwhile, a war office spokesman said the "if-war-comes" statements of communists outside of eastern Europe flow naturally from the writings of communist leaders. Apparently he was referring to the communist concept which classed Russia as the starting point of a world revolution of the proletariat.

Maurice Thorez, secretary-general of the French Communist party, made the first of the recent statements on the communist attitude in the evnt of a new war. He said, in case the Soviet army had to "chase an enemy onto our soil," the People of France would welcome the Russians as liberators. Similar declarations came from communist leaders in Italy, Britain and Germany.

West Europe 'Planning For An Emergency'

London, March 3 (AP)—Defense Minister A. V. Alexander told Parliament today the nations of western Europe are making military plans for "any sudden emergency."

He said the western European union alliance of Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg is studying tactical problems of the defense of western Europe.

"Under Field Marshal Montgomery, it is preparing plans for action in any sudden emergency," he said during debate on defense.

Heads Supply Board

Lord Montgomery is chairman of the alliance military committee, the supply board of the five nations.

Alexander said the alliance has made a thorough review of the defense production capacity of each member.

"In the supply board, as in the chiefs of staff committee, we have been glad to welcome Canadian and United States officers who participate in the meeting as nonmembers," he said.

The United States and Canada are negotiating in Washington with the five alliance members about a North Atlantic treaty. The United States is expected to be asked to finance largely the rearming of the European members.

Financing Studied

Alexander said the supply board is arranging for the equipment of the new defense forces of western Europe. Fighter aircraft already are being supplied to France, Belgium and Holland. More planes will be supplied this year, plus those to be made in those countries under license from Britain. Alexander said the defense and finance ministers are studying financing.

Alexander said British policy is to "insure a sufficient flow of new equipment to keep an adequate war potential for expansion in a sound and healthy condition."

The major re-equipment measures in the year ahead will relate to aircraft and associate equipment like radar," he said. "We shall be spending over $800,000,000 in production this year."

He denied charges that surplus British war munitions have been disposed of in an irresponsible way.

U.S. Bombers To Make Raids

London, March 3 (AP)—United States B-29 Superfortress bombers will take part in British war exercises in Scotland for nine days, starting Saturday. The bombers will make mock raids in groups and singly.

0-Power Parley Called On Assembly of Europe

By The Associated Press.

LONDON, March 3—The Brussels powers decided formally today to call a ten-nation conference in Paris this month to write a charter for the proposed "Parliament of Europe."

The nations are Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Italy and Eire, diplomats reported. The first five countries are the Brussels powers, who approved the idea in principle in January.

The Permanent Commission of the Brussels alliance looked over, possibly for the first time, the draft of the projected North Atlantic defense pact with the United States and Canada.

ATOM SCIENTIST HELD IN FRENCH SPY PROBE

PARIS, March 3—(AP) A geologist member of France's Atomic Energy commission has been arrested and jailed in the government drive against communist spies, security police said tonight.

The geologist, eighth to be arrested in the roundup, was identified by police as a man named Pelas, who the police said had been employed for a year with the atomic commission's department of uranium research. The atomic energy commission is headed by Scientist Frederic Joliot-curie, who is a communist.

Anglo-French Trade Talks Gain

PARIS, March 3 (AP).—France and Great Britain are making "progress" at trade talks, experts said todya. Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps and Finance Minister Maurice Petsche announced in a communique their "satisfaction with the progress achieved by officials on several important points."

British Cancel Industry Order, Buy Grain Instead

PARIS, March 3 (AP).—Great Britain has canceled $76,800,000 worth of industrial items scheduled for purchase under American aid and used the dollars instead to buy bread grains such as wheat, rye and corn.

This was learned today when Economic Co-operation Administration Headquarters here released details of procurement authorizations for January.

A British E. C. A. spokesman insisted the items were canceled because orders had not been filled and not because the United Kingdom was waiting for better prices. During January Britain received authorization to spend $100,800,000, including the readjusted $76,800,000. Since the E. C. A. began operating ten months ago, Britain has had $1,117,400,000 worth of items approved.

FRENCH FIND SKELETONS

German World War I Soldiers Suffocated In Quarry

Arras, France, March 3 (AP)—Skeletons of Germans buried alive in a quarry dugout by Allied shells in 1918 have been uncovered by accident after twenty years of peace and a second World War.

The time-weakened roof cracked yesterday under the tread of a rabbit hunter, Fleury le Blond, who was working his way through the thicket which grew above the tomb. He investigated.

Tomb Ordered Sealed

Hospital beds and an operating room showed at least part of the 50-foot long structure was used as a hospital. French officials said they believed it also served as a command post.

The Germans apparently suffocated after artillery fire filled up the exits.

Lying in the smoldering beds were the skeletons of patients. In the ruins of the operating room were the bones of what must have been doctors. A patient had evidently been on the operating table.

But an official of the nearby city of Lille said there were too many helmets and rifles around for the dugout to have been used solely as a hospital.

The mayor of nearly Roeux-Arras ordered the tomb sealed and banned sightseers. Excavation will be done by the Graves Registration Command of the French Army.

Finds Hospital of Skeletons

Hunter Stumbles Into 1918 German Unit Buried by Allied Artillery Shell.

Arras, France, March 3 (A. P.).—Searchers today dug into a subterranean German Army field hospital, buried since the patients and doctors were suffocated when a shell sealed off their communication trench in 1918. Skeletons of patients were found on their cots in rows along the walls. German rifles and helmets were stacked by the door.

The underground hospital was found yesterday by a rabbit hunter who broke through the dugout's crumbling roof in a deserted quarry. The hunter, Fleury Le Blond, said he was pushing his way through foliage when his foot broke through the ground. Peering inside, he saw skeletons and returned to Arras to report his discovery.

Digging into the hospital, he and others found the grim spectacle. A skeleton or two were thought those of doctors. One patient apparently was being operated on when the shell struck. A communication trench, between the hospital and a near-by dugout, had been buried by an Allied artillery shell. The patients and doctors died of suffocation.

Arras, near Lille, was in the British sector when the great offensive began in 1918.

NORWAY TO JOIN ALLIANCE TALKS

Accepts Bid to Take Part in North Atlantic Treaty Parleys

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 3—(AP) Denmark decided tonight to take part in the talks for a North Atlantic Defense Alliance.

(In Washington the Norwegian ambassador announced Norway had accepted an invitatoin to join the negotiations. The decision was made by the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) in a closed meeting today in Oslo.

(The ambassador, Wilhelm Munthe De Morgenstierne, said he will represent his country at a meeting with negotiators in the U. S. State department tomorrow.)

Scored by Reds

Diplomatic sources said the Danish action was taken by the parliamentary Foregin Relations committee. Subsequently Danish Communists condemned the projected North Atlantic pact and voiced solidarity with Russia.

The diplomatic informants said the committee will reaffirm its action tomorrow and the affirmative reply, to be drafted by Premier Hans Hedtoft's government, will be sent then to Washington.

An overwhelming majority in Danish and Norwegian parliaments favors taking part in the North Atlantic treaty talks.

Meanwhile, Norway delivered to the Soviet embassy in Oslo her reply to the proposal advanced by Moscow Feb. 5 for a Norwegian-Russian non-aggression pact.

Will Reject Reds

Contents of the note will not be made public until tomorrow, but it has been considered certain that Norway will reject the Soviet offer. The Russians accompanied their proposal with a warning to the Norwegians to stay out the North Atlantic pact.

That alliance, now being negotiated in Washington, would link the United States and Canada with the nations of western Europe. All Norwegian parties except the Communists have supported the position of Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange that Norway must pin her security upon the western powers.

Norway and Denmark are the western guardians of the Skagerrak, the strategic waters between the Baltic sea and the Atlantic. Sweden still is clinging to her traditional role of an unattached neutral, but prominent Swedes have said the country may be able to maintain this position only a little while longer.

Communist Leader Aksel Larsen told a party rally in Copenhagen tonight that in any east-west war Danish Communists would "make common cause with the people of the Soviet Union, with the popular Democratics (Communist-led countries) and with all other Communist parties." The meeting adopted a resolution condemning the North Atlantic pact.

NORWAY ANSWERS REDS ON ALLIANCE OFFER

OSLO, Norway, March 3—(AP) Norway delivered to the Soviet embassy today her reply to Russia's Feb. 5 proposal for a Norwegian-Russian non-aggression pact.

Contents of the note will not be made public until tomorrow, but it has been considered certain that Norway would reject the Soviet proposal. The Norwegians already have decided to join talks in Washington for a North Atlantic alliance.

BULGARS LAUD SOVIET ARMY

Observe Independence Day By Denouncing West

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 3 (AP)—Bulgarians observed their independence day today with praise for Russia's armed forces and denunciation of the Western powers.

It was the seventy-first anniversary of the Russian-dictated treaty of San Stefano, which freed the Bulgarians from Turkish rule and established the state as an autonomous principality.

The Turks had been defeated by troops of the Russian czar, Serbia's army and Bulgarian volunteers. Bulgaria's German allies of World War II were run out of Bulgaria by Soviet forces in 1944.

Ministers Assailed

"Long live the invincible Red Army, our liberator," said banners carried in a parade through swirling snow here today.

The controlled press paid tribute to the Russian Army.

Editorials attacked what they called Western imperialists, atomic democracies and their "Bulgarian tools," including fifteen Protestant ministers being tried on charges of spying for the United States and Britain.

The Otechestven Front, official organ of the Communist-led Fatherland Front Government, called upon Bulgarians for renewed vigilance to protect their "people's democracy."

Headed By Soviet

"The population's indignation against the methods which representatives of the atomic democracies employ speak well for the sound criticism of our people," it said; "We must guard the integrity of our motherland, the freedom and independence of our country. We must develop and grow with the Slav peoples and the peoples' democracies headed by the great Soviet Union, the fortress of peace, democracy and progress and our eternal friend."

The capital closed shop for the holiday.

The trial of the ministers was recessed.

Dimiter Georgiev, 54, supreme prosecutor of the nation, will demand conviction of all defendants in a final speech tomorrow. They have already entered pleas of guilty.

Defense lawyers will speak after the prosecutor closes.

Romania Ousts Owners Of Expropriated Land

BUCHAREST, March 3 (AP).—Former landowners whose large estates are being taken over by the government have been given lodgings in provincial towns until an inventory of their holdings is over. They have been forbidden to stay in Bucharest or within a fifty-kilometer (thirty-mile) radius of the frontier. Exceptions have been made for the aged, infirm and needy.

The land seized consists of scattered farms, estimated at 315,000 acres in all, which the government left to former big land owners under the expropriation decree of 1945. Livestock, poultry and farm machinery also were taken over. The broadcast decree of the Supreme Presidium exempted only personal belongings.

The decree said the expropriation was ordered because the owners, Romania's former landed gentry, failed to comply with regulations and committed sabotage which led to deterioration of farm machinery.

Vishinsky Better, Returns To Moscow

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 3 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, the Soviet Union's Deputy Foreign Minister, left Karlovy Vary (Karlsbad) today a well man, and flew back to Moscow. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

An informant of very high authority said that during Vishinsky's stay at the health resort, he had entirely recovered from an illness which brought him there more than a month ago.

The informant said Vishinsky's condition had been so grave that not even his friends in the Czechoslovak Government visited him. His only visitors were officials of the Soviet Russian Embassy here, it was said.

Attendants at the Red Army sanatorium in the Hotel Imperial at Karlovy Vary said that when Vishinsky arrived he was in a highly nervous condition.

China Expects Peace Parley By Midmonth

Nanking, March 3 (AP)—Premier Sun Fo announced today peace talks with the Communists are expected to start in Peiping around March 15.

Sun said a Red leader had told him verbally that sometime around that date would be opportune for the peace conference. He declined to name the Communist leader.

The Premier expressed optimism on the outcome of the conference for an end of the long and costly civil war.

Kidnap Plotters Seized

Meanwhile, Central News Agency reported several persons had been arrested in Shanghai and Nanking in a plot to kidnap Acting President Li Tsung-jen and other Nationalist leaders. Some newspapers previously had said there were "wholesale arrests" in the plot.

The plotters, said the news agency, were secret agents belonging to Marshal Li Chi-sen's Kuomintang revolutionary committee. Li Chi-sen once was a friend of retired President Chiang Kai-shek but now is his bitter political foe.

China Peace Talk Forecast

Nanking, China, March 3 (AP)—Official talks seeking "an honorable, equitable settlement" of China's civil war are expected to begin in Peiping about March 15, Premier Sun Fo told a press conference today.

Sun said he had been informed orally "by a Communist leader that some time after the middle of March may be opportune to begin a peace conference." He declined to identify his informant, but said Acting President Li Tsung-jen already had named a ten-man committee to draft a peace program.

Actual negotiations in Communist-held Peiping will be conducted by four delegates on each side, the Government Premier said.

Modification Implied

Sun expressed optimism, declaring the Communists now understand the Government position. Asked what this position was or what proposals would be made to the military dominant Communist, Sun replied that the time was not ripe for public disclosure.

He added, however, that the unofficial Shanghai peace mission which visited Peiping last week had returned with a feeling that the Communists understood "a unilaterally dictated peace is not only difficult of achievement but also unendurable."

[This intimated that the Communists were willing to modify their January terms, which called for virtual total surrender of the Government and punishment of almost all top Government men as "war criminals."]

Armed Force Cut Opposed

At the same time, Sun said the Defense Ministry was stiffly opposing Government efforts to reduce the Nationalist armed forces from 4,200,000 to 2,500,000.

Sun said reduction from 6,300,000 to 4,200,00 was begun early in February.

"Regardless of whether internal peace will materialize," he stated, "it is of vital importance that army reorganization be carried out. This is because the nation has too many troops for the treasury to maintain."

Probably Include Militia

[The figures given by Sun probably include local militia, as the best neutral estimates never have credited the Nationalists with more than 3,000,000 troops.]

Meanwhile, the official Government Central News Agency said Nanking garrison headquarters confirmed arrest of secret agents of Marshal Li Chi-shen in Nanking and Shanghai.

Missing B-29 Carried Gas To B-50

Manila, March 3 (AP)—Air Force officials revealed today that a B-29 missing in northern Luzon was one of the tanker planes that refueled the globe-circling Lucky Lady II on its historic flight around the world.

Brig. Gen. Jared V. Crabb, commander of the fighting wing at Clark Air Base, said the missing B-29 with its crew of nine, met and refueled the world-circling B-50 but failed to get back here.

It was reported last about 90 miles from Clark Air Base.

Search Plane Crashes

An air force F-51 fighter searching for the lost B-29 was reported by the Manila Chronicle tonight to have crashed in northern Luzon. The pilot, Lieut. Frederick R. Pruczinsky, had parachuted to safety when the plane's engine quit. The pilot, whose home address was not available, reportedly was not injured.

Witnesses reported to the Clark Air Base that a B-29, flying at a low altitude, was seen in that area a few hours after the air refueling of the Lucky Lady on Tuesday.

All available aircraft were pressed into the search for the missing B-29. The Sierra Madre Mountain range was being searched, also.

Escorted Her For While

General Crabb said the B-29 escorted the Lucky Lady II out over the Pacific after the refueling. Communications between the B-50 and the B-29 were maintained for some time, the general said.

General Crabb said he was particularly impressed with "how routine it all was. No fanfare. Nothing out of the ordinary."

He added, "A lot of people here didn't know it was going on."

The B-29 was expected back at Clark Field at 5.20 P.M., Tuesday.

The Sierra Madre peaks were obscured by clouds at that time. It is feared the plane smashed into one of them.

New Cabinet Is Reported In Tel Aviv

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 3 (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion was reported today to have formed a new Cabinet of twelve members. He is to present it to President Chaim Weizmann tonight and to Parliament Tuesday for a vote of confidence.

Sources close to the Cabinet said it will represent the four central parties only. Ben-Gurion's Socialist Labor party, Mapai, is said to have the biggest representation.

A letter to Weizmann from Acting Palestine Mediator Ralph Bunche was published. The United Nations official expressed hope Israel "will very soon begin to reap the rich benefits which will inevitably flow from peace in Palestine and friendly co-operation with the Arab states."

72 Of 120 Votes Claimed

Informants said the new Cabinet will have an estimated 72 of the 120 votes in Parliament.

Ben-Gurion will be Defense as well as Prime Minister, these sources said. Moshe Shertok will be retained as Foreign Minister and Eliezer Kaplan as treasurer. Mrs. Golda Myerson, envoy to the Soviet Union, is to be Labor Minister.

The Right wing religious bloc is allocated three places. The Liberal Progressive party and the Sephardic party of Oriental Jews each are given one place.

ISRAEL FORMS CABINET OF 12

Ben-Gurion To Submit List To President Weizmann

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 3 (AP)—Premier David Ben-Gurion has formed a twelve-member Cabinet and is to present it soon to President Chaim Weizmann, a source close to the Government said today.

The informant said the Cabinet was made up of representatives of Israel's four middle-of-the-road parties, excluding the extreme right and left.

The four parties control 72 of the 120 votes in the recently elected Knesset (parliament.)

Outline Of Cabinet

The informant gave this outline:

Seven ministers from Ben-Gurion's Socialist Labor (Mapai) party, including Ben-Gurion as Premier and Defense Minister; Moshe Shertok, Foreign Minister; Eliezer Kaplan, treasurer; and Mrs. Golda Myerson, former Milwaukee schoolteacher, Labor Minister.

Three ministers from the religious bloc.

One from the Liberal Progressive party,

One from the Sephardic party of Oriental Jews.

Armistice talks continued at Rhodes between Israel and Trans-Jordan. There were reports in Haifa and London of troop movements on the Israeli-Trans-Jordan borders, but United Nations headquarters in Haifa had no confirmation.

To Seek Peace Parley

A British Foreign Office spokesman said the Foreign Office had received reports from Amman, capital of Trans-Jordan, of an Israeli movement toward the Trans-Jordan seaport of Aqaba, but "they are not sufficiently authenticated to warrant a comment."

[British troops are stationed at Aqaba by request of King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan under the terms of his mutual assistance treaty with Britain.]

Mark Ethridge, a member of the United Nations Palestine conciliation commission, told a new conference in Jerusalem the commission will try to promote a general Arab-Jewish peace conference.

He said the prospects for such a conference would be discussed between the commission and the Arab states at a meeting in Beirut, Lebanon, March 21.

Dutch Push Plan For Indonesia Settlement

Batavia, Java, March 3 (AP)—The Dutch appeared today to be pushing their plan to settle the future status of Indonesia despite Republican opposition.

The Netherlands Government gave temporary recognition today to a new representative body for the Dutch-occupied republic.

The announcement said it was not desirable to set up an actual state at present, but it was urgently necessary for the 7,500,000 people involved "to have a voice in the administration of their own territory and in political discussions with the central government.

Won't Attend Parley

Former Republican leaders refused to fall in with the Dutch plans.

President Soekarno and other Indonesian officials exiled on the island of Bangka are reported to have notified the Dutch they will have no part of the proposed round-table parley at The Hague March 12 unless they are restored in their former capital of Jogjakarta.

Indication of the Indonesian attitude was given Monday when Mohammed Rum, chairman of the Republican delegation to the United Nations Commission, said the Republicans considered the Dutch move to hold round-table talks an effort to evade the Security Council resolution.

Dutch Refuse To Obey

The United Nations resolution of January 28 ordered the Dutch to allow Republicans to function again as a republic in Jogjakarta. The Dutch refused.

Bitter guerrilla fighting continued, meantime, in the former Republican capital, with the Dutch apparently getting the worst of it.

A Netherlands spokesman acknowledged that the Dutch Army had suffered some twenty casualties beating off rebel attacks in Jogjakarta Tuesday. He said the guerrillas had heavy losses.

Gen. Simon Spoor, commander of Dutch forces, flew to Jogjakarta yesterday to take command. The Dutch said the situation now is under control.

Burma Refuses to Rejoin British Commonwealth

RANGOON, March 3 (AP).—The Burmese government said today it is not considering re-entry into the British commonwealth of nations.

In a statement, it said the step would not solve Burma's present troubles with various rebel groups including Communists, Karens and other dissidents. Premier Thakin Nu said Sunday a year of rebellion has cost Burma 30,000 lives and $6,400,000.

An official spokesman said the "intense nationalism" of Burma does not permit a re-entry. He was commenting on a statement at New Delhi by Herbert V. Evatt, Australian External Affairs Minister, that Burma sooner or later would rejoin the commonwealth. He said the Burmese do not welcome such a suggestion. Burma attained independence fourteen months

MEXICAN REDS BACK FOREIGN COMMUNISTS

MEXICO CITY, March 3—(AP) Mexican communist leaders supported today the pro-Soviet attitude of French and Italian chiefs. They omitted, however, any direct comment on a "welcome" to invading Soviet troops.

Dionicio Encina, secretary general of the Mexican Communist party, in a signed statement said "Maurice Thorez in France and Palmiro Togliatti in Italy were fully justified" in siding with the Soviets "if their governments, in the service of Yankee imperialism, should join in the aggression against the USSR."

He said "in case our country should be dragged into a war against the Soviet Union by the Yankee monopolists, our people should oppose it with all their strength and join the camp of peoples struggling for peace."

FORRESTAL QUITS AS DEFENSE CHIEF

Louis A. Johnson, Washington Lawyer, Named to Post by Truman

WASHINGTON, March 3—(AP) President Truman today accepted the resignation of Secretary of Defense James V. Forrestal and chose Louis A. Johnson, who was army mobilizer on the eve of World War II, for the key post.

If confirmed by the Senate, as is expected, Johnson will take over from Forrestal on March 31.

The 58-year-old Johnson, a West Virginia and Washington lawyer, becomes head man in the Pentagon in the midst of America's most gigantic peacetime military preparations.

As Assistant Secretary of War under Franklin D. Roosevelt he directed the planning for army mobilization a decade ago. Last fall, he was fund raiser for the Truman campaign for the presidency.

Forrestal, first man to head up the Army, Navy and Air Force under the unification act, was the last remaining member of the Roosevelt cabinet.

President Truman's decision to put a new man in Forrestal's place had long been rumored. However, as is customary in such cases, the White House today made public correspondence in which Forrestal urged acceptance of his resignation for "urgent personal considerations" and the president "reluctantly" acquiesced.

Forrestal's letter reviewed his government career of eight and one half years, first as undersecretary and secretary of the Navy under Roosevelt, and for the past 18 months as secretary of defense.

He paid "profound tribute" to the armed services for their work during the war and since. He also expressed appreciation for the president's support "in the difficult initial period of the process of unification of the armed forces."

Forrestal Praised

Praising Forrestal highly, Mr. Truman wrote him:

"Your entire service has been characterized by vision, foresight, and a broad appreciation of the vital importance of relating our military potential to the requirements of our national policy."

The reports that Forrestal would be replaced grew insistent right after the election in which he made no stumping tour for Mr. Truman as some of his cabinet colleagues did. Associates said later, however, that the president had asked the secretaries of Defense and State to stay out of the campaign.

Johnson, on the other hand, was chairman of the Democratic Finance committee in the campaign. As such he drew credit for most of the financial aid scraped together for the Truman cause when many another Democrat was without hope of victory.

Johnson inherits a $15,000,000,000 defense program, a vast arming of America stemming from difficulties with Russia. He takes over from a man foremost in advocating a "tough" policy in dealing with communist expansion.

The new secretary is handed the difficult jobs of achieving harmony under the unification program, which has been one of Forrestal's headaches. The latter has advocated greater power over the three armed services. He has referred to "many arguments and disagreements".

Text of Truman and Forrestal Letters

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—President Truman's letter accepting the resignation of James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, follows:

Dear Jim:

Your letter received this day confirms our many previous conversations and discussions. I am therefore fully cognizant of the considerations which prompt your desire to relinquish your duties as the Secretary of Defense.

At my personal urging you have agreed to remain in Washington far beyond the time when you had expressed a hope of leaving Government service.

Your service to your country covering a period of almost nine years during this Administration and that of my predecessor has been as varied as it has been distinguished. It embraced those momentous months that preceded Pearl Harbor, as well as all the war years and the critical period that has followed the cessation of hostilities.

Work With Navy Cited

First, as Under Secretary and during a term as Secretary of the Navy which bridged two administrations, you directed a production program which made the American Navy the greatest seapower in history.

It then fell to you to assume even larger responsibilities as the country's first Secretary of Defense. You discharged all these duties well and faithfully.

While hostilities were in progress you gained first-hand knowledge of war problems through personal visits to the principal areas of war. Your entire service has been characterized by vision, foresight, and a broad appreciation of the vital importance of relating our military potential to the requirements of our national policy.

As a member of the National Security Council your competent service has been a major contribution to the successful operation of that organization.

Because of those urgent personal considerations about which you have spoken to me so many times, I accept your resignation effective at the close of business on March 31.

Although I take this action reluctantly, I do so with less misgiving because I know you will be standing by to give advice and counsel as we go forward in the work of enhancing the national security.

For all that you have done in your country's behalf and for the service which you will continue to give out of your abundant experience, I tender you heartfelt assurance of my gratitude and appreciation.

With every good wish,

Very sincerely yours,

HARRY S. TRUMAN.

The text of Secretary Forrestal's letter to the President:

My dear Mr. President:

It has been my privilege to have served our country for over eight and one-half years, including service as a member of your Cabinet and as a member of the Cabinet of President Roosevelt. During the last eighteen months I have served as Secretary of Defense.

As you pointed out in your message on the State of the Union, basic and substantial progress has been made in the year and a half during which the National Security Act of 1947 has been in effect.

In my opinion that progress can be accelerated and the foundations more firmly established if your forthcoming recommendations for changes in the act, which you and I have discussed, are adopted by the Congress.

These circumstances enable me for the first time to take into account those urgent personal considerations about which I have spoken to you and to submit my resignation with the hope that you may accept it, effective on or about March 31st.

Praises Service Personnel

I cannot let this occasion pass without paying profound tribute to the men and women in the armed services—Army, Navy, and Air Force alike—who, during the war and since, have rendered such devoted and unselfish service—and, above all, to those who made the highest sacrifice.

To them and to the citizens of the nation who assisted in the great task of mobilization of our strength in defense of our liberty, I want to express my gratitude, both as a citizen and as an official of this Government.

I am mindful of your wish that this will not mark the end of our association, and repeat that if at any time in the future you desire to call upon me for service, I shall be at your command.

I wish to take this occasion to express again my deep appreciation of your consistent understanding and support in the difficult initial period of the process of unification of the armed forces.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES FORRESTAL.

U.S. FORMS NEW UNIT ON REICH

Murphy Called Home To Head State Department Office

Washington, March 3 (AP)—A new office to handle German and Austrian affairs was created by the State Department today. Diplomats said this appeared to be a move to strengthen civilian control over occupation policy.

Robert D. Murphy was called home to head the office. Murphy, who has the rank of Ambassador, is political adviser for Gen. Lucius D. Clay, occupation commander in Germany.

At the same time it was announced that George F. Kennan, director of the State Department's policy-planning staff, is leaving early next week for a survey of occupation problems and will consult with Clay and American officials on the scene.

Difficult Relations

Clay has submitted his resignation. There have been difficulties in the past over relations among Clay, the State and Army departments. Still under study is a proposal for the State Department to take over actual direction of the occupation from the army.

Creation of the new office of German and Austrian affairs is in general line with recommendations made last month by the Hoover Commission to centralize responsibilities for the occupation. The new agency will take over duties and functions from four sections of the State Department.

To Take Murphy's Post

The reorganization breaks up the existing machinery under Charles E. Saltzman, Assistant Secretary for Occupation Areas. Saltsman will handle special assignments for Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, an announcement said, "pending further organization developments."

James W. Riddleberger, deputy political adviser, will take over Muhpry's office as Clay's political assistant.

The shakeup gives a new and more important role to Murphy, who has been United States political adviser on German affairs since September, 1944. A veteran career diplomat, he had a similar role early in the war in North Africa and Italy.

Trip Of B-50, Strategy Toward Soviet Linked

Other news concerning world flight. [Page 3.]

Washington, March 3 (AP)—Diplomats today assigned the nonstop round-the-world flight of an American bomber a significant and highly dramatic place in the grand strategy of the cold war.

An important fact in terms of international politics is that the State Department had opportunity to block the flight, but did not do so. Two and a half years ago a somewhat similar project was vetoed by the diplomats.

Thus the changed attitude may be taken as a measure of the extent to which relations between Russia and the West have gone downhill.

The decline started at the peak of hopes for East-West co-operation in peacemaking. Its present low point is characterized by the belief of the Western powers that military readiness to strike back is now an absolute essential of peace.

Broader-Scale View

In this sense the B-50 trip provides a single dramatic instance. It shows what the United States and other Western powers are trying to accomplish on a broader scale and in a different way through the proposed Atlantic security treaty.

Top American officials define the purpose of that treaty as being to confront any potential aggressor—by which they currently mean Russia—with such "overwhelming" force that he would not dare attack.

In the flight of the B-50 bomber the Soviets can now read unprecedented evidence of the range of American strategic air power. They may reason that no single one of their cities, should war ever come, would be safe.

"Any Place" Vulnerable

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, chief of the Strategic Air Command, was asked at Fort Worth whether the round-the-world flight means "you can deliver an A-bomb anywhere in Russia."

He put his answer this way: "Let's say any place that would require an atom bomb."

Chairman Tydings (D., Md.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee commented solemnly: "This flight offers some measure of what another world war would mean to all peoples."

However, the Air Force was meticulous in laying out its flight plan for the B-50. It made sure that at no point did the route approach Russia or Soviet-held areas. The nearest the B-50 came to Russia was hundreds of miles to the south.

Assuming that the Atlantic treaty project goes through, the Russians will have further evidence that America's striking power could be provoked into action not alone by an attack on the United States. It could be set off by an attack on any of the other countries in the North Atlantic alliance.

Speculation On Motive

So far as the State Department is concerned, the flight apparently was not made primarily as a saber-rattling gesture. It seems to have been conceived as an effort by the Air Force—perhaps with an eye on congressional appropriations — to prove it could be done.

But officials confirmed today that the proposal was put before the State Department and cleared there.

In the Summer of 1946 plans were announced by the Air Force for a similar flight. The United States then was negotiating with Russia and other nations in the Paris Peace Conference.

Byrnes, Acheson Cautious

Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, at the Paris meeting, and Under Secretary Dean Acheson—now Secretary — in Washington, felt it was a bad time to do anything that might rock the diplomatic boat. There was still hope of working things out with the Russians.

So Acheson, as the man on the job in Washington, blocked the plan and a possible irritant to Russia was avoided.

Now, the lack of diplomatic objection shows how top officials feel these days about getting along with the Russians.

Move To Curb Communists

Washington, March 3 (AP)—Swift legislative moves to curb American Communists today followed the statement by leaders of the party indicating support of Russia in case of war.

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.) said he and Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) would join in sponsoring stringent restrictions on the Communist party. They got such a bill through the House last year, when Mundt was a member of that body, but it did not pass the Senate.

In another development, Senator Eastland (D., Miss.) announced he will urge enactment of a law requiring the registration of all Communists as the agents of a foreign power.

Called Part Of Conspiracy

He said the statement of Foster and Dennis appeared to be part of an "international conspiracy." He linked it with similar declarations by Communist leaders in Italy, France, Britain and Norway.

Eastland is chairman of a judiciary subcommittee which is considering a bill aimed at curbing espionage and sabotage by allowing Federal courts to accept evidence obtained by wire tapping. He said the mandatory registration of all Communists might be incorporated in that measure.

Russia Again Protests Japan's Labor Policies

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP).—The Soviet Union today urged the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission to order Japan to revoke two new no-strike, no-bargaining laws for government workers.

Russian Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin said the acts, approved by the Japanese Parliament and by General Douglas MacArthur, "rudely violate" declared labor policies of the commission. He asked the commission, at a closed-door session, to direct General MacArthur to take "appropriate measures" to have the laws abrogated.

Mr. Panyushkin was defeated in a similar move in the commission in January. The policy-making group of the war-time Pacific Allies voted then, 10 to 1, against a rebuke to General MacArthur and the Japanese government.

Today the Soviet envoy also protested against proposals for a new Japanese labor relations adjustment law and a new trade union law.

His statement was made public after the commission's weekly meeting.

House Group Favors State For Hawaii

Washington, March 3 (AP)—The House Territories subcommittee today approved statehood for Hawaii.

The subcommittee acted favorably on a bill by Delegate Joseph R. Farrington (R., Hawaii) after a brief hearing and review of previous congressional investigations. Chairman Redden (D., N.C.) said the subcommittee's action in closed session was unanimous.

The subcommittee voted to urge the full Public Lands Committee to approve the bill for House action.

A bill to admit Alaska to the Union as a state will be considered tomorrow by the same subcommittee.

U.S. REDS TRAITORS, TRUMAN ASSERTS

WASHINGTON, March 3—(AP) President Truman contemptuously applied a "traitor" label today to American communists who have indicated they would support Russia rather than the United States if war broke out.

"I have no comment to make on such a statement by traitors," he told a news conference, authorizing direct quotation of his words.

A reporter had asked him what he thought about the statement issued yesterday by William Z. Foster, communist national chairman, and Eugene Dennis, the party's general secretary, pledging American communists to oppose any war provoked by "Wall Street" interests.

Face Federal Charge

Both Foster and Dennis are under federal charges of conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the United States government.

The President was asked whether the communists' statement would bring any new prosecution moves in their trial. He said he knew of no plans to that effect. Did he think the communists might prejudice their trial by the statement? Mr. Truman said he didn't know—he wasn't on the jury.

The communists' declaration, however, brought a promise of swift legislative moves to curb American reds.

Senator Mundt (R-S.D.) said he and Rept. Nixon (R-Calif.) would join in sponsoring stringent curbs on the Communist party. They got such a bill through the House last year, when Mundt was a member of that body, but it did not pass the Senate.

Seek 'Registration'

In another development, Senator Eastland (D-Miss.) announced he will urge enactment of a law requiring the registration of all communists as the agents of a foreign power. He said the statement of Foster and Dennis appeared to be part of an "international conspiracy." He linked it with similar declarations by communist leaders in Italy, France, Britain and Norway.

Eastland is chairman of a judiciary subcommittee which is considering a bill aimed at curbing espionage and sabotage by allowing federal courts to accept evidence obtained by wire-tapping. He said the mandatory registration of all communists might be incorporated in that measure.

TESTIMONY NEARS END IN 'AXIS SALLY' TRIAL

WASHINGTON, March 3— (AP) Taking of testimony in the "Axis Sally" treason trial may wind up tomorrow.

Only one more witness remains to be heard, Federal Judge Edward M. Curran said today.

The witness, Johannes Schmidt-Hansen, is flying here from Germany to testify in behalf of Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars, 48, accused of betraying this country by broadcasting for the wartime Nazi radio.

The trial marked time today awaiting Schmidt-Hansen's arrival. When it became apparent he could not reach Washington for many hours, Judge Curran ordered a recess until 1:45 p.m. tomorrow.

Attorneys expressed a belief that Schmidt-Hansen would complete his testimony by the time court adjourns tomorrow.

In that event, John M. Kelley, Jr., chief government prosecutor, and James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars' counsel, will begin their final arguments to the jury on Monday. Kelley will talk first, followed by Laughlin, then Kelley again.

The arguments will be followed by Judge Curran's instructions to the jury. Indications were that the case would reach the jury late Tuesday or Wednesday.

This is the sixth week of the trial.

TIME BORROWED

Grain Export Quotas Raised

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP).—The Department of Agriculture today announced export quotas which would allow total shipments of at least 700,000,000 bushels of grain and grain products during the marketing year ending June 30. Such exports would exceed by far last year's record of 588,000,000 bushels. Last year's volume also was the largest ever exported by any country in a single year.

U.S. Farm Wife To Teach Germans

Chicago, March 3 (AP)—An Iowa farm wife has been chosen to teach German farm women how to organize along democratic lines.

Mrs. Raymond Sayre, of Ackworth, Iowa, president of the Associated Women of the American Farm Bureau Feedration, will report at Washington for briefing March 21, and shortly afterward will be flown to Frankfurt, Germany.

There she will spend about two months as an ambassador without portfolio under army supervision.

Mrs. Sayre, mother of four, is a "master farm homemaker," a Farm Bureau Federation award. She made her first trip abroad as a delegate to an international meeting of rural women in 1939.

General Reveals B-50's Flight Began with New England Tests

EAST HARTFORD, March 3—(AP) The non-stop, round-the-world flight of a Boeing B-50 bomber, ending yesterday, had its beginnings in three experimental 5,000 mile, non-stop flights conducted in New England last summer.

All three flights originated at Westover Air Force Base, Mass., and ended at United Aircraft's Rentschler airport here. Each of the flights swung to the far corners of the United States before turning back to Rentschler airport.

Conducted by Pratt-Whitney

Revelation of these preliminary experiments was permitted today by the Air Force's Material Command. Major General Franklin O. Carroll, director of research and development, Wright-Patterson Air Force base, Dayton, Ohio, said.

"The long distance experimental flights conducted last summer by Pratt and Whitney aircraft's engineering flight test section and air material command research engineers contributed valuable information to help make the B-50 round-the-world flight a success."

Captain Robert Mortland, United States Air Force, was the pilot on each of the flights. He was accompanied by flight personnel and engineers of Pratt & Whitney aircraft, manufacturers of the 3,500-horsepower Wasp major engines which power the bomber. The flights were part of a comprehensive test program to establish the best long-range operational procedures for the big Wasp major engines.

Lauds B-50

During the period the tests were being conducted, the airplane was based at Rentschler Airport, adjacent to the Pratt & Whitney aircraft plant. At the beginning of each of its long non-stop flights, the B-50 was flown to Westover field for fueling and takeoff, because of that field's longer runways. The non-stop flights were made in May, June and July, 1948, and each flight lasted from twenty-one to twenty-four hours. Captain Mortland swung as far south as Florida, over Texas into New Mexico, and one flight consisted of a leisurely swing over the states of Washington and Oregon before returning to East Hartford.

Captain Mortland said the B-50 was "a polished airplane . . . superior to any four-engined plane I have ever flown."

Globe-Encircling Flyers Out Of Quarantine

Fort Worth, Texas, March 3 (AP)—The crew of Lucky Lady II, by chance the first men to fly nonstop around the world, had slept out a 24-hour quarantine today.

The fourteen men landed at Carswell Airbase yesterday, 94 hours and 1 minute after standby orders became operational. They had crossed seven seas and four continents, covered more than 23,000 miles, refueled in midair four times and circumnavigated the globe at nearly its greatest girth.

Chance placed Lucky Lady II, its pilot, Capt. James Gallagher, and others in the crew in history. Another plane was to have made the flight.

First One Disabled

The B-50 bomber, which started what the Air Force chose to call a "routine training mission," got as far as the Azores after taking off last Friday. The engine fire which forced this plane down sent Lucky Lady II aloft.

There still was a possibility that Gallagher and his crew, refreshed from twelve hours of sleep and in high spirits, would be own to Washington to be congratulated by President Truman.

No definite schedule was arranged other than followup news conferences and radio and television interviews today.

Bitter disappointment was felt by Lieut. F. W. Jewell and crewmen of the B-50 "Global Queen," which was forced to land Saturday at Lagens, Azores.

The quarantine was part of the "training mission." The fourteen men were weary-eyed when they dropped out of escape hatches and bomb-bay doors although beaming and in good physical condition. But medical officers wanted to check the effects of a nonstop flight and to give the men a chance to sleep—on beds with springs and sheets instead of GI blankets, thin cot mattresses and a bomber floor.

Newsmen were permitted to question the men only briefly yesterday before they went into quarantine.

WAR WAIF RUNS AFOUL RED TAPE

Boy's Trip From Australia To Negro Father Interrupted

San Francisco, March 3 (AP)—Geoffrey Joiner, war baby, didn't have the right immigration papers with him when he arrived by plane from Australia today.

So there'll be some delay in the 5-year-old boy's meeting with his father, James Trenon Joiner, in Cleveland.

"He's not entitled to entry in the United States with the document he has," said Irving F. Wixon, immigration director. "I've sent a wire to Washington to ge things straightened out."

Has Mother's Citizenship

Geoffrey was born in Australia. His Negro father was in the United States Navy. His mother was a white Australian. She put him in a Sydney children's home, gave up all claim to him, and then married.

In such a case, "he takes the citizenship of his mother," Wixon explained. "He has a passport with a visitor's visa, but it is evident he has come here to stay. I have no authority to admit him."

But Wixon says he hopes the Immigration Department's higher echelon in Washington can fix things so the boy can proceed to Cleveland, possibly tomorrow.

Geoffrey is a guest of the Travelers' Aid Society, which took him in town when he arrived today aboard a British Commonwealth Pacific Airlines plane.

Funds Only For Mission Work, Pastor Asserts

Phoenix, Ariz., March 3 (AP)—The Rev. Peter Deyneka, director of the Russian Gospel Association, Inc., Chicago, said today funds sent by his organization to Bulgaria were solely for missionary work.

A defendant in the Bulgarian spy trials, the Rev. Mitko Dimitrov, 39, was quoted in a dispatch from Sofia March 1 saying he had received $2,000 from the Rev. Mr. Deyneka and has used it in black market transactions.

The Rev. Mr. Deyneka said funds sent by his association to foreign countries were transmitted through commercial banks. He said he was quite sure payment was made in the currency of the country to which it was sent.

Destroyer Deal Brought U.S. Closer To War, Churchill Says

New York, March 3 (AP)—Winston Churchill writes in his war memoirs that transfer of 50 American destroyers to Britain in 1940 "brought the United States definitely nearer to us and to the war."

The transfer "was the first of a long succession of increasingly unneutral acts in the Atlantic which were of the utmost service to us," he says. "It marked the passage of the United States from being neutral to being nonbelligerent."

The second volume of the memoirs is being serialized in Life magazine.

Invasion Most Feared

The wartime Prime Minister reveals that President Roosevelt and his advisers devoted long, careful study to the destroyer question before deciding to turn them over to embattled Britain in September, 1940, the month in which Churchill most feared Nazi invasion.

He writes that the transfer "would, according to all the standards of history, have justified the German Government in declaring war upon them.

"The President judged that there was no danger, and I felt there was no hope, of this simple solution of many difficulties. It was Hitler's interest and method to strike his opponents down one by one."

No Comparison In Values

The war leader says the destroyer deal was proposed by his Government early in August, 1940, as a trade in which the United States would receive bases in the West Indian Islands and Bermuda.

"There was, of course," he writes, "no comparison between the intrinsic value of these antiquated and inefficient craft and the immense permanent strategic security afforded to the United States by the enjoyment of the island bases.

"But the threatened invasion, the importance of numbers in the narrow seas, made our need clamant."

No Narrow Viewpoint

Churchill says that, even though he believed the bases were worth more than the destroyers, he also felt "that the survival of Britain is bound up with the survival of the United States" and "it seemed to me and to my colleagues that it was an actual advantage to have these bases in American hands.

"I therefore did not look upon the question from any narrow British point of view."

Before the deal was closed, Churchill acceped Roosevelt's suggestion that the bases be turned over to this country on a 99-year lease basis.

The 'Dakar Fiasco'

Churchill also tells of the "Dakar fiasco"—the failure of the British navy and an expeditionary force under Gen. Charles de Gaulle to capture the northwest Africa port in September, 1940.

The fate of the expedition was sealed twelve days before the attempted landing when six French warships sneaked past Gibraltar and went to Dakar to reinforce the garrison there, he writes.

'Not The Way To Fight Pact,' Wallace Says

New York, March 3 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said tonight recent Communist statements are not "the way to fight against and organize the opposition to . . . the cold-war policy."

He said "reactionaries will seize upon these statements as a pretext for more witch-hunts, to stir up the lowest kind of thoughtless chauvinism and to press for even greater military appropriations."

In an address at a dinner tonight, Wallace said:

"I can understand why the threat of the North Atlantic military pact caused Thorez (French Communist leader), Togliatti (Italian Communist chief), William Z. Foster and Eugene Dennis to make the statements they did. . . .

"But I cannot agree that their recent statements are the way to fight against and organize the opposition . . . the cold-war policy."

World Revolt Seen As Red Aim Again

By William L. Ryan

New York, March 3 (AP)—Does Moscow feel the time is ripe for reviving the Lenin dream of world revolution?

A new Comintern—Communist International—embracing the Communists of all the world—may be taking shape. Events of the past two weeks form a pattern which seems to indicate this.

In quick succession the Communists of France, Italy, Britain, Germany, the United States and Austria have announced they would welcome the "liberating armies" of the Soviet Union if war should erupt between the East and West.

Lenin's Concept

The Communist International Information Bureau (Cominform) may be getting ready to hatch out a military alliance to match the projected North Atlantic pact. There are reports that a Cominform military conference has been called for March 15 in Hungary.

In the concept of Nicolai Lenin, hero of the Russian Revolution, Russia was looked upon as the beginning point of a world revolution of the proletariat. Under Stalin, however, Russian communism for a while took a different road, tending toward national development.

The war had much to do with Russia's temporary disavowal of the world-revolution idea. In 1943 Stalin announced dissolution of the Comintern, founded by Lenin in 1919, which was to have been the instrument of world revolution.

West Denounced

In the early years of the war the Communists veered this way and that according to events in the Soviet Union. The world's Communists denounced Western nations for imperialist war while Russia was tied up with Germany in a nonaggression pact, and then overnight found the war a holy one against fascism when Hitler attacked the Soviet Union.

With the war over and the Allies victorious, the Russian attitude began to change again. Nationalism no longer was popular with the Russian Communists. The Cominform was formed around the Communist parties of Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary, France, Italy and Yugoslavia, with the announced intention of fighting the Marshall plan.

Tito Expelled

Marshall Tito, of Yugoslavia, was concentrating his Communist regime on rebuilding his country first and thinking in terms of world revolt second. This was "nationalist rightist deviationism" in the phraseology of the Communists, and Tito was expelled in disgrace from the Cominform for straying from the tenets of Lenin. Likewise in Poland there was a group which thought reconstruction of that war-wrecked land was of top importance. This group was stepped on quickly and, unlike Tito, knuckled under.

The announced purpose of the Cominform was propaganda, but it turned out to be a little Comintern, closely knitting the Communists of Europe. With the rising East-West tension, fanned by the Atlantic pact negotiations, the Communist pattern began to take shape.

Thorez Statement

Maurice Thorez, secretary general of the French Communist party, started the ball rolling. He said the French people might be led into war against their wishes and might find that the Russians had to "chase the enemy onto our soil." In such a case, he said, the French would welcome the Russians as liberators. The French Communists took up his rallying cry: "France will never fight the Soviet Union." Thorez's statement was condemned by a vote of the Chamber of Deputies.

The echoes had not died away when Palmiro Togliatti, fiery Communist boss of Italy, made a similar statement. The Italian people, he said, would aid Russian armies if the Russians ever chased "an aggressor" onto Italian soil.

Two days later Harry Pollitt, general secretary of the British Communist party, said British Communists would try to sabotage any "imperialist aggressive war" against Russia.

Red Accusations

A day later the German Communists were heard from. The Communist-led Socialist Unity party declared that "in case of any aggression the German people must fight against the aggressors and support the Soviet Army in its effort to create peace." The statement was signed by Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewohl, cochairmen of the party, and like the other Communist statements it accused the West of preparing for war against Russia.

Last night the same sort of statement came from the Communists of the United States. They pledged themselves to oppose any war provoked by "Wall Street" interests. National Chairman William Z. Foster and General Secretary Eugene Dennis signed the statement declaring American Communists would take no part in an "unjust, aggressive and imperialist war."

Austrian Position

Today the Austrian Communist party was heard from. Said the Austrian Communist newspaper Volksstimme, "The Austrian people will support the Soviet Union in case of war" and will "not shed blood for the dollar."

The statements all had something in common. They were all carefully prepared statements and, with the possible exception of the Austrian one, all issued by the party's top leadership. It was like a musical round—each new voice coming in on the main theme.

Holland Asks Help By U.N.

Lake Success, N.Y., March 3 (AP). The Netherlands appealed to the United Nations today to co-operate in the Indonesia talks scheduled to begin at The Hague March 12. The immediate United States reaction was cool.

An American delegation spokesman said the United States would oppose any United Nations participation at The Hague roundtable unless the arrested leaders of the Indonesian Republic agreed to attend.

Dispatches from Batavia reported the Republican leaders have refused to attend and that the Dutch have recognized a new group as representatives of the territory formerly held by the republic.

Variance Admitted

The Netherlands appeal was in a letter to Alberto Inocente Alvarez, of Cuba, this month's president of the Security Council. It was signed by J. W. M. Snouck Hurgronje, Dutch representative at the United Nations.

The Dutch acknowledged that their newly announced approach toward Indonesian sovereignty by summer was at variance with the Security Council's resolution of January 28 outlining a plan of action. The letter said, however, the Dutch and the Council differed only in the way the independence of Indonesia should be attained and not in the general goal.

The Dutch in their letter told the Council they had "lifted the remaining restrictions on the liberty of movement of the Republican leaders" arrested last December.

Bold New Approach

After calling the Council's attention to the plans for The Hague conference and the invitations sent to the Republican leaders and members of the three-nation United Nations Indonesian commission, the Dutch letter said:

"In the plan outlined above, it (the Dutch Government) is making a bold new approach to the whole problem, which should result in a considerably accelerated achievement of its aim with regard to Indonesia, which . . . is the same as that of the Security Council and the Indonesians.

"It therefore appeals to the Council to further the realization of this plan, which in the present circumstances offers the quickest and most effective way of establishing a democratic U.S.I. (Untied States of Indonesia) and a durable voluntary co-operation between the Netherlands and Indonesia."

U. S. FORCES UN VOTE ON ISRAEL MEMBERSHIP

LAKE SUCCESS, March 3—(AP)—The United States tonight won a fight to have a vote soon, probably tomorrow, on Israel's application for membership in the United Nations.

Egypt blocked a final vote tonight with a long argument on procedure.

The Security Council was called to meet again tomorrow and the new March president, Dr. Alberto Inocente Alvarez of Cuba, served notice the delegates would deal directly with the Israeli application then.

Egyptian delegate Mahmoud Bey Fawzi warned the council against recognizing what he called zionist aggression by admitting Israel. He said the council must take care against a "new Munich."

U. S. delegate Warren R. Austin was supported by Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, in calling for a vote now.

Israel first applied for membership in Paris on Nov. 29, 1948, but got only five of the necessary seven votes.

PARIS, MARCH 3-(AP)-FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADERS ARE CONTINUING TO PLEDGE THEIR FOLLOWERS TO GREET RUSSIAN TROOPS AS LIBERATORS IF THEY EVER ARRIVE ON FRENCH SOIL.
RENEWAL OF THAT PLEDGE BY MAURICE THOREZ AND JACQUES DUCLOS, TOP FRENCH REDS, LAST NIGHT BROUGHT A THUNDEROUS OVATION FROM 18,000 PRO-COMMUNISTS HERE.
THEY REPEATED IN A DOZEN DIFFERENT FORMS THEIR CURRENT SLOGAN:

EARLIER, THE COMMUNIST PUBLICATION FRANCE NOUVELLE PUBLISHED A MONTH-OLD SPEECH BY THOREZ IN WHICH HE QUOTED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT MADE BY LENIN IN 1907:
"IN CASE WAR SHOULD BREAK OUT, SOCIALISTS HAVE THE DUTY OF INTERFERING TO END IT PROMPTLY AND TO TAKE ADVANTAGE WITH ALL THEIR STRENGTH OF THE ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL CRISES CREATED BY THE WAR TO STIR UP AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE AND BRING TO THE END OF CAPITALIST DOMINATION."
THOREZ CHARGED THE LEADERS OF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT "ON AMERICAN ORDERS" ARE "PREPARING AN IMPERIALIST WAR AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION."
"WE MUST," HE ADDED, BREAK WITH ALL THE TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS THAT HAVE ALIENATED THE INDEPENDENCE OF OUR COUNTRY."
THE GOVERNMENT MEANWHILE CONTINUED ITS ROUNDUP OF SPIES. INTERIOR MINISTER JULES MOCH, TARGET OF BITTER ATTACKS BY RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS, TOLD THE CABINET 20 PERSONS HAVE BEEN OR ARE BEING QUESTIONED AND EIGHT HAVE BEEN ARRESTED.

Helsinki, Finland, March 3-(ap)-Finland's communists joined the swelling chorus of loyalty pledges to the soviet union today.

Like the communists of the united states, france, italy, britain, austria and germany, the finnish communists announced [illegible] they will do their utmost to prevent "aggression" from the west.

Ville Pessi, secretary-general of the party and a member of parliament, declared in the party's newspaper, tykansan sanomat, that the finnish communists agree with the other parties that "the aggressors must be stopped before their atlantic pact and other military blocs have a chance to foment a new war."

Pessi said the statements of communist leaders maurice thorez of france and palmiro togliatti of italy had been misinterpreted and that their aim was to lend support in the prevention of aggression.

Thorez and togliatti said their communists would welcome and aid soviet occupation troops in their countries in the event of a war.

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, MARCH 3-(AP)-PARLIAMENT'S FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE VOTED APPROVAL TODAY FOR DENMARK'S PARTICIPATION IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE TALKS.

A FORMAL REPLY TO THE INVITATION OF THE WESTERN POWERS PROBABLY WILL BE WORKED OUT TONIGHT BY THE GOVERNMENT AND SENT TO WASHINGTON TOMORROW, DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID. THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, WHICH ORDERED THE GOVERNMENT TO DO THIS, IS EXPECTED TO REAFFIRM ITS DECISION IN THE MORNING. THE RULING SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY ALREADY HAD VOTED APPROVAL.

DENMARK WILL BE THE SECOND OF THE SCANDINAVIAN NATIONS TO JOIN THE TALKS. NORWAY ALREADY HAS MADE UP HER MIND TO TAKE PART IN THE WASHINGTON NEGOTIATIONS INSTITUTED BY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, CANADA, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

INFORMANTS SAID AT LEAST 125 OF THE 150 MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT FAVOR JOINING IN THE PACT DISCUSSIONS. BEFORE THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE MEETS THE PARTIES WILL DISCUSS THEIR POSITION SEPARATELY.

A FORMAL ACCEPTANCE WOULD BE SENT TO WASHINGTON IMMEDIATELY, AND FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN PROBABLY WOULD SPEED HIS DEPARTURE FOR THE UNITED STATES IN ORDER TO JOIN THE NEGOTIATIONS BEFORE THE PACT IS SIGNED.

THE NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENT IS CONSIDERING A SIMILAR DECISION, WITH ALL PARTIES EXCEPT THE COMMUNISTS OPENLY BACKING THE POSITION OF FOREIGN MINISTER HALVARD LANGE THAT NORWAY MUST PIN ITS SECURITY UPON THE NORTH ATLANTIC POWERS.

NORWAY AND DENMARK ARE THE WESTERN GUARDIANS OF THE SKAGERRAK, THE STRATEGIC LINK BETWEEN THE BALTIC AND ATLANTIC. DESPITE THEIR LONG TRADITIONS OF NEUTRALITY, BOTH WERE OCCUPIED BY THE NAZIS IN THE WAR.

SWEDEN, WHOSE TRADITION OF NEUTRALITY ALSO GOES BACK FOR MORE THAN ONE AND A THIRD CENTURIES, IS STILL CLINGING TO HER OLD POLICY. BUT THE SPLIT IN SCANDINAVIA MAY BE ONLY TEMPORARY. PROMINENT SWEDES HAVE BEEN ADMITTING THAT THEY MAY BE ABLE TO CLING TO THE ROLE ONLY A LITTLE WHILE LONGER. SWEDEN ESCAPED OCCUPATION IN THE LAST WAR.

IN DEFENSE TALKS WITH NORWAY AND DENMARK EARLY THIS YEAR, SWEDEN OFFERED THE OTHER TWO SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES AN OUTRIGHT ALLIANCE PROVIDED THEY ADOPTED HER POLICY OF NEUTRALITY TOWARD THE BIG POWERS.

THE THREE NATIONS WERE UNABLE TO AGREE ON SWEDEN'S PROPOSAL.

IN THE SCANDINAVIAN DISCUSSIONS DENMARK FAVORED A MIDDLE COURSE--A SCANDINAVIAN ALLIANCE WHICH WOULD DRAW UPON THE WESTERN POWERS (CHIEFLY THE UNITED STATES) FOR REARMAMENT. THE WASHINGTON POLICY IN ANSWER TO THIS WAS THAT THE SUPPLY OF ARMS WAS NOT SUFFICIENT TO MAKE COMMITMENTS TO NATIONS NOT BOUND TO MILITARY COOPERATION WITH THE UNITED STATES.

NIGHT LEAD BLOCKADE 550

BY RICHARD O'REGAN

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 3-(AP)-THE U.S. ARMY PREPARED TONIGHT FOR A LONG SIEGE OF THE SOVIET REPATRIATION MISSION. SECURITY MEASURES WERE TIGHTENED TO MAKE ABSOLUTELY SURE NO SUPPLIES REACH THE EIGHT-MAN MISSION.

HOSPITAL CARE WAS OFFERED FOR ANY WHO GET SICK.

WATER, FOOD, GAS AND ELECTRIC POWER ALL HAVE BEEN CUT OFF FOR MORE THAN 36 HOURS. BUT THERE ARE NO SIGNS OF WEAKENING AMONG THE RUSSIANS. THEY PEER OUT OCCASIONALLY THROUGH A WINDOW WHOSE SILL IS STACKED WITH VODKA BOTTLES.

"WE KNOW THEY HAVE A SMALL AMOUNT OF WATER AND A REASONABLE SUPPLY OF FOOD, BUT HOW LONG IT WILL LAST I DO NOT KNOW," SAID COL. STERLING WOOD, GREYING U.S. PROVOST MARSHAL.

"IF ANY ONE OF THEM GETS SICK, WE WILL ESCORT HIM TO AN ARMY HOSPITAL AND KEEP HIM THERE UNDER GUARD. BUT I AM NOT GOING IN THERE AND FORCE ANY MAN WHO IS SICK TO LEAVE."

GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY ORDERED THE MISSION TO LEAVE THE U.S. ZONE MARCH 1, SAYING ITS USEFULNESS AS AN INSTRUMENT TO RETURN DISPLACED PERSONS TO RUSSIA WAS OVER BECAUSE FEW DPS HAD DECIDED IN THE LAST YEAR TO RETURN. THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT SUPPORTED HIM IN A NOTE TO RUSSIA TODAY, REPLYING TO A PROTEST FROM SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV. MOLOTOV SAID THE ORDER VIOLATED AGREEMENTS. THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THE PROTEST WAS PACKED WITH "MISREPRESENTATION AND DISTORTION."

THE RUSSIANS DECLINED TO LEAVE FRANKFURT WITHOUT ORDERS FROM MARSHAL VASSILY D.SOKOLOVSKY, THE RUSSIAN COMMANDER IN GERMANY. SOKOLOVSKY GAVE NO HINT HE WOULD ORDER THE MISSION OUT, BUT DENOUNCED THE AMERICAN ACTION AS "A POLICY OF VIOLENCE."

AS THE SECOND NIGHT OF THE SIEGE FELL OVER THE DARKENED MISSION, FENCES ON BOTH SIDES BLAZED WITH FLOODLIGHTS. EIGHT ADDITIONAL MILITARY POLICEMEN WERE PUT ON DUTY TO MAKE A TOTAL OF 16 SURROUNDING THE BUILDING.

AN EIGHT-FOOT BARBED WIRE FENCE WAS PUT UP AT THE REAR, WHERE NO REAL FENCE HAD EXISTED.

"THESE EXTRA MEASURES HAVE BEEN ORDERED," WOOD SAID, "BECAUSE, AS FAR AS I CAN HELP IT, NOTHING WILL GO IN OR OUT. I WANT TO MAKE SURE."

WOOD BANNED HIS SOLDIERS EVEN FROM GIVING THE RUSSIANS COPIES OF THE U.S. ARMY NEWSPAPER STARS AND STRIPES. THEY ASKED FOR ONE AND GOT IT THIS MORNING.

"WHEN I HEARD ABOUT THAT," WOOD SAID, "I VERY DEFINITELY PUT AN END TO IT."

THE MILITARY POLICE GOT MUCH MORE STRICT DURING THE DAY. THEY ORDERED AUTOMOBILES AND CURIOUS GERMANS AWAY FROM THE FRONT OF THE BUILDING. THEY SET UP A PORTABLE KITCHEN TO FEED THEMSELVES.

A3

IF THE RUSSIANS EVER GET ORDERS FROM SOVIET HEADQUARTERS IN BERLIN, 350 MILES AWAY, THE WORD WILL HAVE TO BE SENT TO THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION HERE. THE MISSION THEN WILL HAVE TO PASS ON THE ORDERS THROUGH THE AMERICAN COLONEL. THE RUSSIANS' TELEPHONE LINE IS CUT.

WOOD WENT TO THE REPATRIATION MISSION LAST NIGHT WITH HEAD OF THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION HERE, A COL. LAZAREV.

FIRST, COL. ARGOONOV (HEADING THE REPATRIATION MISSION) COMPLAINED TO COL. LAZAREV THAT HE SHOULD HAVE BEEN TO SEE HIM BEFORE," WOOD SAID. "THEN HE COMPLAINED AT LENGTH ABOUT THE WATER. HE SAID NOT EVEN PRISONERS WERE LEFT WITHOUT WATER. I REPLIED THAT THEY WERE NOT PRISONERS AND THAT I WAS WILLING TO ESCORT THEM OUT OF THE BUILDING ANY TIME THEY WISHED TO GO.

"THEN THE RUSSIANS WISHED TO KNOW IF THEY COULD SERVICE THEIR VEHICLES. I SAID THAT THEY WERE FREE TO GO ANYWHERE INSIDE THEIR YARD, WHERE THEIR VEHICLES ARE.

"THEN THEY ASKED PERMISSION FOR REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MILITARY MISSION TO COME AT ANY TIME THEY ASKED, WITHOUT CLEARING THROUGH ME. THAT WAS DENIED BY ME."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, FRIDAY, MARCH 4-(AP)-EIGHT RUSSIAN SOLDIERS HAULED DOWN THE RED FLAG TODAY AND LEFT THEIR AMERICAN-BLOCKADED REPATRIATION MISSION HEADQUARTERS.

THE RUSSIANS DROVE AWAY FROM THE LARGE YELLOW HOUSE IN A CONVOY OF GERMAN AUTOMOBILES AND TRUCKS EARLY TODAY.

THE SOVIET COMMAND IN BERLIN LAST NIGHT AUTHORIZED THE MEMBERS OF THE MISSION TO LEAVE THE AMERICAN ZONE. THE RUSSIAN BERLIN COMMAND AT THE SAME TIME RETALIATED BY ORDERING U.S.GRAVES REGISTRATION TEAMS OUT OF THE SOVIET ZONE IMMEDIATELY.

THE EIGHT RUSSIANS HAD BEEN UNDER A TWO-DAY SIEGE IMPOSED BY U.S. ARMY AUTHORITIES AFTER THE SOVIETS REFUSED TO HEED AN ORDER FROM GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY TO LEAVE ON MARCH 1.

THE RUSSIANS PILED THEIR BELONGINGS ON THEIR TRUCKS AND STARTED FOR THE SOVIET ZONE BORDER AT HELMSTEDT WITH AN ESCORT PROVIDED BY THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION IN FRANKFURT.

A FIVE-MAN U.S.GRAVES REGISTRATION TEAM ARRIVED IN THE AMERICAN SECTOR OF BERLIN LAST NIGHT FROM PARCHIM IN MECKLENBURG. ANOTHER AMERICAN UNIT OF THREE ENLISTED MEN AND TWO OFFICERS WAS BELIEVED EN ROUTE TO BERLIN FROM SONDERSHAUSEN IN THURINGIA.

BEFORE THE EIGHT RUSSIANS WERE ALLOWED TO LEAVE EVERY PIECE OF THEIR LUGGAGE WAS SEARCHED FOR ANY PICTURES THEY HAD TAKEN OF THE AMERICAN GUARDS WHO HAD LAID SIEGE TO THE BUILDING OCCUPIED BY THE REPATRIATION MISSION FOR TWO DAYS.

FOR MORE THAN 36 HOURS THE RUSSIANS HAD BEEN CUT OFF FROM ALL WATER, FOOD, GAS AND ELECTRIC POWER. ALL THE U.S.ARMY OFFERED THEM WAS HOSPITAL SERVICE--UNDER ARMED GUARD--IF ANYONE GOT SICK.

THE RUSSIAN HIGH COMMAND IN BERLIN GAVE ORDERS TO THE REPATRIATION MISSION TO GETOUT AND THE EIGHT MEN ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD LEAVE.

BERLIN, MARCH 3-(AP)-RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED GERMAN POLICE HAVE ARRESTED A MEMBER OF THE ANTI-COMMUNIST CITY COUNCIL OF WEST BERLIN.

THE COUNCILMAN, WHOSE ARREST WAS DISCLOSED BY THE BRITISH-LICENSED NEWSPAPER TELEGRAF TODAY, IS WERNER RUEDIGER, AN EMPLOYE OF THE PAPER. TWO OTHER TELEGRAF EMPLOYES WERE ARRESTED WITH HIM.

FRAU RUEDIGER SAID HER HUSBAND WAS ARRESTED LAST FRIDAY AFTER POLICE SEARCHED THEIR HOME IN THE SOVIET SECTOR. SHE SAID THE POLICE CONFISCATED SOME SILVER MONEY THEY FOUND IN THE HOUSE.

SHE SAID SHE DOES NOT KNOW WHAT CHARGES, IF ANY, HAVE BEEN PLACED AGAINST HIM AND HAS NOT BEEN ALLOWED TO VISIT HIM.

RUEDIGER WAS ONE OF THE SOVIET SECTOR RESIDENTS WHO RETAINED THEIR COUNCIL SEATS WHEN THE NEW CITY COUNCIL WAS CHOSEN LAST DECEMBER. THE ELECTION WAS BOYCOTTED BY THE COMMUNISTS. THE SOVIET SECTOR DID NOT TAKE PART IN THE ELECTION AND SET UP ITS OWN COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT.

RUEDIGER IS A MEMBER OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ANTI-COMMUNIST SOCIALISTS WHO HAVE A MAJORITY IN THE CITY COUNCIL.

THE TELEGRAF PRINTED CHARGES THAT RUSSIA IS FORCING GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR TO SIGN CONTRACTS FOR TWO MORE YEARS LABOR IN RUSSIA.

THIS STORY CAME OUT AS THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWSPAPER, TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU, WAS FEATURING A FRONT PAGE HEADLINE TO THE EFFECT "THE SOVIET UNION CONDEMNS FORCED LABOR" BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE TELEGRAF SAID ITS INFORMATION CAME FROM PRISONERS RECENTLY RELEASED FROM RUSSIA. IT SAID THE RUSSIANS HAVE CLOSED THE BIG CAMP AT FRANKFURT-ON-ODER FOR RETURNING PRISONERS ON THE GROUNDS THAT PRISONERS STILL IN RUSSIA HAVE VOLUNTARILY ENLISTED TO STAY ON AS WORKERS.

MEANWHILE THE BRITISH LICENSED PAPER, SOZIAL DEMOKRAT, REPORTED A MYSTERIOUS CLOAK OF SECRECY HAD BEEN THROWN BY THE RUSSIANS AROUND THREE BALTIC SEAPORTS IN SOVIET-OCCUPIED TERRITORY. THE PAPER SAID THESE WERE WISMAR, ROSTOCK AND STRALSUND. THE ROSTOCK PORT, IT SAID, IS SCREENED BY A HIGH, GUARDED FENCE.

NIGHT LEAD AUSTRIAN (200)

BY G.K. HODENFIELD

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, MARCH 3-(AP)-THE AUSTRIAN COMMUNIST PARTY TODAY PLEDGED SUPPORT TO THE SOVIET UNION IN CASE OF WAR. IT HAS AN ARMED FORCE OF ABOUT 5,000 MEN. AUSTRIANS AS A WHOLE ARE OVERWHELMINGLY ANTI-COMMUNIST.

RELIABLE SOURCES SAY THE COMMUNIST GROUPS ARE FAIRLY MOBILE, TRAINED IN STREET FIGHTING AND SABOTAGE. THEY HAVE RIFLES OF A VARIETY OF MAKES, GERMAN, CZECH AND BRITISH.

THE LARGEST AND PROBABLY MOST EFFICIENT GROUP IS THE SOVIET WERKSHUTZ, A UNIFORMED FACTORY GUARD. IT WAS ESTABLISHED SHORTLY AFTER THE END OF THE WAR WITH THE ANNOUNCED PURPOSE OF GUARDING RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PLANTS, FACTORIES AND OIL FIELDS. THE GUARD IS NOW ESTIMATED AT 3,500 OR MORE MEN.

THE GENERAL OPINION OF WESTERN OBSERVERS HERE IS THAT THE COMMUNIST GROUPS WOULD BE OF LITTLE HELP IN BATTLE, BUT WOULD HAVE A NUSIANCE VALUE FOR SUCH WORK AS DISRUPTING COMMUNICATIONS.

THE OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, VOLKSSTIMME, OUTLINED THE AUSTRIAN COMMUNIST STAND IN AN EDITORIAL.

"THE AUSTRIAN PEOPLE WILL SUPPORT THE SOVIET UNION IN CASE OF WAR," IT SAID. "THE PEOPLE OF AUSTRIA WILL NOT SHED BLOOD FOR THE DOLLAR. THEY WILL NOT RAISE THEIR HANDS AGAINST THE LAND OF SOCIALISM."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD RUSSIA--220
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,MARCH 3-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES TONIGHT APPARENTLY WON ITS FIGHT TO EJECT THE SOVIET REPARATION MISSION FROM THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY.
IN THE PROCESS, SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV WAS ACCUSED IN A STIFF AMERICAN NOTE OF DISTORTING AND MISREPRESENTING THE FACTS AS HE TRIED TO BLOCK THE OUSTER.
IN BERLIN THE SOVIET CONTROLLED RADIO ANNOUNCED THAT RUSSIAN AUTHORITIES HAD ORDERED THE EIGHT-MAN MISSION TO LEAVE ITS BLOCKADED HOUSE IN FRANKFURT, AMERICAN ZONE HEADQUARTERS, AND COMPLY WITH GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY'S ORDER TO LEAVE THE ZONE.
IN WASHINGTON THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD ANNOUNCED ONLY A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE TEXT OF A HOT NOTE TO MOLOTOV COMPLETELY REJECTING THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER'S DEMAND THAT WASHINGTON REVERSE CLAY'S ORDER.
BUT THE RUSSIANS GOT IN A FACE-SAVING GESTURE EVEN AS THEY KNUCKLED UNDER TO CLAY'S DEMAND. THE SAME BROADCAST SAID THE AMERICAN GRAVES REGISTRATION PERSONNEL WILL HAVE TO LEAVE THE SOVIET ZONE.
THE RUSSIAN MOVE APPARENTLY ENDS THE BRIEF DEADLOCK OVER WHICH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA HAD EXCHANGED ANGRY WORDS IN THIS LATEST EPISODE OF THE COLD WAR. BUT AMERICAN OFFICIALS EXPECTED THAT SOVIET PROPAGANDISTS WOULD MAKE MUCH OF THE INCIDENT.
THE HOUSE IN WHICH THE MISSION WAS SITUATED HAD BEEN ISOLATED BY AMERICAN POLICE. EVEN THE WATER WAS CUT OFF FROM THE RUSSIANS HOLED UP THERE WHILE THE HIGH LEVEL EXCHANGE WAS GOING ON.
THE AMERICAN NOTE, RELEASED HERE BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WAS SENT TO MOLOTOV IN REPLY TO A PROTEST AGAINST CLAY'S ORDER WHICH THE SOVIET FOREIGN OFFICE HAD HANDED TO THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN MOSCOW ON FEBRUARY 24.
"THIS GOVERNMENT," THE U.S.NOTE SAID, "CONSIDERS THE MINISTER'S NOTE REPLETE WITH MISREPRESENTATION AND DISTORTION OF FACT.
"THERE IS NO BASIS FOR THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT THAT LARGE NUMBERS OF SOVIET CITIZENS DESIROUS OF RETURNING TO THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS REMAIN IN THE AMERICAN AREA OF OCCUPATION AS A RESULT OF HINDRANCES CAUSED TO THE SOVIET REPATRIATION MISSION BY AMERICAN AUTHORITIES OR FOR ANY REASON OTHER THAN THEIR OWN VOLITION.
THAT OPENING SALLY IN THE AMERICAN STATEMENT GOT TO THE HEART OF THE ARGUMENT AS IT EXISTS FORMALLY BETWEEN RUSSIAN AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS. THE RUSSIANS CONTEND THERE ARE 116,000 RUSSIAN CITIZENS IN THE AMERICAN OCCUPATION ZONE OF GERMANY, NOT COUNTING CHILDREN, AND THAT THE REPATRIATION MISSION SHOULD REMAIN TO HELP THEM RETURN HOME.
THE AMERICAN POSITION IS THAT WHATEVER THE NUMBER, PRACTICALLY ALL THE SOVIET CITIZENS STILL REMAINING IN THE AMERICAN ZONE ARE THERE BY CHOICE. FURTHER, THE UNITED STATES HAS SAID IT HAS NO INTENTION OF LETTING THE RUSSIANS FORCE THOSE VOLUNTARY EXILES TO GO BACK TO SOVIET TERRITORY.

A208WX
THERE IS ANOTHER ANGLE. TODAY'S U.S.NOTE SAID THAT AMERICAN OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES HAD COOPERATED WITH THE SOVIET REPATRIATION MISSION FULLY "DESPITE IRREGULARITIES IN THE CONDUCT OF MEMBERS."
THE STATE DEPARTMENT DID NOT SPELL OUT THESE IRREGULARITIES BUT OFFICIALS SAY THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT THE SOVIET MISSION HAS ENGAGED IN ACTIVITIES OUTSIDE ITS FIELD, PARTICULARLY ESPIONAGE AND PROPAGANDA

WORK.
THE AMERICAN NOTE REJECTED OUTRIGHT MOLOTOV'S CHARGES THAT AMERICAN AUTHORITIES HAD FAILED TO COOPERATE AND HAD IMPEDED REPATRIATION OF SOVIET CITIZENS. AT THE SAME TIME THE UNITED STATES DENOUNCED HIS STATEMENT THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAD COMPLETED IN GOOD TIME THE REPATRIATION OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.
"THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IS AWARE OF THIS GOVERNMENT'S PROFOUND DISSATISFACTION WITH THE PROGRESS OF REPATRIATION OF AMERICAN CITIZENS WITHIN THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS AS A RESULT OF THE MANY COMMUNICATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE MINISTER BY THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW TO WHICH NO ADEQUATE RESPONSE HAS BEEN MADE," THE NOTE SAID.
OFFICIALS SAID THAT ACTUALLY ABOUT 2,000 OR MORE PERSONS IN THE SOVIET UNION HAVE SOME SORT OF CLAIM ON UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND THAT THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT HAS REFUSED FOR A LONG TIME TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT.

(7-50) JOHNSON PERSONALITY
BY EDWARD E.BOMAR
WASHINGTON,MARCH 3-(AP)-BY CHOOSING LOUIS A.JOHNSON TO BE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN PUT NEW BLOOD INTO THE ATTEMPT TO UNIFY THE ARMED FORCES.
THE HOOVER COMMISSION REPORTED THIS WEEK THAT ALTHOUGH THE SO-CALLED UNIFICATION ACT IS ON THE BOOKS, THERE IS MUCH WORK YET TO BE DONE TO PRODUCE REAL HARMONY.
A SIX-FEET-TWO ONETIME COLLEGE WRESTLER WITH A TREMENDOUS FUND OF DRIVING ENERGY, JOHNSON KNOWS THE INS AND OUTS OF THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AS FEW CIVILIANS DO. AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR FOR MORE THAN THREE YEARS JUST BEFORE PEARL HARBOR, HE ALSO HAD A CHANCE TO BCOME FAMILIAR WITH THE VAST RAMIFICATIONS OF INDUSTRY SUPPORTING THE ARMED FORCES.
UNLIKE SECRETARY FORRESTAL, WHO FORMERLY HEADED THE NAVY DEPARTMENT, JOHNSON'S BACKGROUND IS ARMY AND AIR FORCE.
THERE IS LITTLE QUESTION OF HIS BACKING FOR STRONG CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT, WHICH THE HOOVER COMMISSION ALSO URGED IN ITS ADVICE TO CONGRESS ON GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION.
JOHNSON WAS A WORLD WAR I INFANTRY CAPTAIN, IS A FORMER NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, AND AN ARDENT CHAMPION OF NATIONAL MILITARY PREPAREDNESS. BUT HE SHOWED A MARKED LACK OF AWE FOR "BRASS HATS" WHO WERE HIS ASSISTANTS WHEN HE WAS DIRECTING THE MOBILIZATION OF INDUSTRY TO MEET THE THREAT OF WORLD WAR II.
FOR LONG PERIODS HE WAS ACTING SECRETARY OF WAR, AND ISSUED ORDERS WHICH TROD ON THE TOES OF THE MILITARY PROFESSIONALS. ONE CUT DOWN THE NUMBER OF ENLISTED MEN SERVING AS "DOG ROBBERS" OR OFFICERS' SERVANTS. ANOTHER TRIMMED THE NUMBER OF GENERALS AND COLONELS.
JOHNSON HAS BEEN IN THE FOREFRONT OF SPECULATION ABOUT FORRESTAL'S SUCCESSOR EVER SINCE THE ELECTION. AT MR.TRUMAN'S BEHEST, AT A TIME WHEN DEMOCRATIC CHANCES APPEARED DIM, HE TOOK ON FOR THE CAMPAIGN THE UNPALATABLE JOB OF CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL FINANCE COMMITTEE.
TAKING THE CABINET POST, HE MUST DESERT A LARGE LAW PRACTICE, MOSTLY DEALING WITH CORPORATION AFFAIRS. THE FIRM OF STEPTOE AND JOHNSON WHICH HE HEADS HAS BRANCHES IN WASHINGTON AND CHARLESTON, W.VA. ASIDE FROM PRIVATE PRACTICE, JOHNSON IS GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE I.G.FARBEN INDUSTRY BRANCHES IN THIS COUNTRY. HE WAS NAMED BY THE ALIEN PROPERTY CUTODIAN WHO TOOK THE PROPERTIES OVER FROM NAZI GERMAN CONTROL AT THE START OF THE WAR. JOHNSON HAS SPENT MOST OF HIS TIME IN RECENT MONTHS IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

OTHER GOVERNMENT SERVICE JOHNSON HAS HAD INCLUDED A SPECIAL MISSION TO INDIA FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT EARLY IN 1942 TO SURVEY WHAT INDIA COULD DO TO HELP HALT THE JAPANESE ADVANCE AND TO REASSURE THE INDIAN PEOPLE ON THE AIMS AND PURPOSES OF THE ANTI-AXIS ALLIES.
NOW 58, JOHNSON IS A NATIVE OF ROANOKE, VA., AND BEGAN A VARIED AND ACTIVE CAREER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA WHERE HE WAS A CHAMPION WRESTLER AND ORATOR, AND PRESIDENT OF HIS LAW CLASS. HE HEARD THAT CLARKSBURG, W.VA., WAS A YOUNG MAN'S TOWN, AND WENT THERE TO HANG OUT HIS SHINGLE.
AT 26 HE WAS ELECTED TO THE WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE. HE WAS PARTY FLOOR LEADER AND THINKING OF RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR WHEN THE WAR CAME ON AND CHANGED HIS PLANS. WHEN HE RETURNED FROM MORE THAN A YEAR'S FRONT LINE SERVICE IN FRANCE, HE WAS A LIEUTENANT COLONEL, AND A COMMANDER OF THE FRENCH LEGION OF HONOR. ON RETURNING HOME HE WROT THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF HIS VIEWS OF WHAT WAS WRONG WITH THE ARMY AND WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT IT.
IN 1920 HE MARRIED RUTH F.MAXWELL AND SETTLED DOWN TO THE LIFE OF A SUCCESFUL SMALL TOWN LAWYER. THEY HAVE TWO DAUGHTERS. JOHNSON KEPT HIS HAND IN POLITICS, AND WON A REPUTATION AS A JOVIAL JOINER OF ORGANIZATIONS OF ALL TYPES.
AS AMJICAN LEGION NATIONAL COMMANDER IN TROUBLED 1932-33, HE WON MR.ROOSEVELT'S FAVOR BY HELPING QUIET DISSATISFACTION IN THE ORGANIZATION OVER A FEDERAL ECONOMY CUT OF 25 PER CENT IN VETERANS' PENSIONS. IN 1937 HE BACKED MR.ROOSEVELT'S FIGHT TO REORGANIZE THE SUPREME COURT. MR.ROOSEVELT MADE HIM ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR IN 1937, A POST THEN CHARGED WITH STATUTORY AUTHORITY FOR INDUSTRIAL MOBILIZATION.
IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT, JOHNSON AND HIS CHIEF, SECRETARY HARRY WOODRING, WERE OFTEN AT ODDS. THERE WERE RECURRENT REPORTS THAT WOODRING WAS RESIGNING AND JOHNSON WOULD BE PROMOTED. WOODRING STAYED ON HOWEVER UNTIL MR.ROOSEVELT NAMED HENRY L.STPMO. JOHNSON TURNED DOWN A JOB AS PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT, SCOTCHED RUMORS HE MIGHT BE APPOINTED SECRETARY OF COMMERCE AND WENT BACK TO HIS LAW PRACTICE UNTIL HE TOOK ON THE INDIA MISSION.
AS ASSISTANT WAR SECRETARY, JOHNSON HAD A DIRECT HAND IN PLANNING FOR EXPANDING THE ARMY,

HOWEVER UNTIL MR.ROOSEVELT NAMED HENRY L.STIMSON. JOHNSON TURNED DOWN A JOB AS PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT, SCOTCHED RUMORS HE MIGHT BE APPOINTED SECRETARY OF COMMERCE AND WENT BACK TO HIS LAW PRACTICE UNTIL H TOOK ON THE INDIA MISSION.
AS ASSISTANT WAR SECRETARY, JOHNSON HAD A DIRECT HAND IN PLANNING FOR EXPANDING THE ARMY, AND PREPARING THE SELECTIVE SERVICE ACT. HE WORKED HARD FOR THE VAST EXPANSION OF THE AIR FORCE WHICH CAME ALONG LATER.
SOME NEW DEALERS LACKED ENTHUSIASM FOR THE BLUEPRINTS OF THE FUTURE WAR ECONOMY JOHNSON HELPED DRAFT. MR.ROOSEVELT ORDERED SUPPRESSED THE REPORT OF A WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD WHICH JOHNSON SET UP TO ORGANIZE INDUSTRY FOR WARTIME ROLES, AND DISBANDED THE BOARD.

(370) MUNDT-COMMUNISTS

BY OLIVER W.DE WOLF

WASHINGTON,MARCH 3-(AP)-SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD) SAID TODAY THAT HE AND REP.NIXON (R-CALIF) WILL INTRODUCE A BILL LATER THIS MONTH TO IMPOSE STERN CURBS ON THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

MUNDT SAID THAT THE BILL WILL FOLLOW CLOSELY ONE WHICH HE AND NIXON INTRODUCED IN THE LAST SESSION OF CONGRESS. THAT ONE PASSED THE HOUSE BUT DIED IN THE SENATE. THE NEW BILL WILL BE CLARIFIED AND "TIGHTENED UP," MUNDT SAID.

HE SAID THAT THE STATEMENT OF AMERICAN COMMUNIST LEADERS IN NEW YORK YESTERDAY PROVIDED "ANOTHER REASON WHY LEGISLATION OF THIS TYPE SHOULD BE PASSED BY CONGRESS." THE COMMUNISTS SAID THAT IN EVENT OF ANOTHER WAR THEY WOULD NOT SUPPORT THE "PREDATORY WAR AIMS OF AMERICAI IMPERIALISM."

MUNDT, A FORMER MEMBER OF THE HOUSE, PLUGGED DURING HIS SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN LAST YEAR FOR A BROADER AND STRONGER MUNDT-NIXON BILL.

THE PRINCIPAL FEATURES OF THE PROPOSED BILL ARE:

1. A REQUIREMENT THAT ALL COMMUNISTS REGISTER WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE UNDER THEIR CORRECT LEGAL NAMES. THE COMMUNISTS WOULD BE REQUIRED TO REGISTER AS A PARTY AND FURNISH THE DEPARTMENT WITH MEMBERSHIP LISTS, NAMES OF OFFICERS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.

2. A BAR AGAINST ALL COMMUNISTS FROM EMPLOYMENT WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. IT WOULD PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR COMMUNISTS SEEKING EMPLOYMENT AS WELL AS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OFFICER EMPLOYING THEM.

3. DENIAL OF PASSPORTS TO ANY MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

4. A REQUIREMENT THAT COMMUNISTS IDENTIFY ALL OF THEIR "FRONT" ORGANIZATIONS IN WHICH THEY MAINTAIN ANY FINANCIAL OR DIRECTIONAL CONTROL.

5. A REQUIREMENT THAT COMMUNISTS LABEL ALL LITERATURE SENT THROUGH THE MAILS AND IDENTIFY ALL RADIO PROGRAMS AS COMMUNIST LITERATURE OR BROADCASTS.

MUNDT DISCLOSED THAT HE AND NIXON ARE NOW TRYING TO DETERMINE WHETHER THEY CAN ADD A SECTION TO THE BILL TO DEAL WITH PEACETIME ESPIONAGE.

HE RECALLED IN THIS CONNECTION THE TESTIMONY OF WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, A SELF-ACKNOWLEDGED FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER, WHO TOLD THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE THAT HE HAD OBTAINED SECRET PAPERS FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT PRIOR TO WORLD WAR II.

MUNDT SAID THAT HE AND NIXON WERE ALSO TRYING TO FIGURE OUT "A WORKABLE FORMULA" FOR IDENTIFYING GROUPS NOT LABELED AS COMMUNIST, "BUT WHICH CARRY OUT THE SAME INTENTS AND PROGRAMS AS THE COMMUNIST PARTY."

HE SAID THIS WAS AN ATTEMPT TO REACH ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING THE COMMUNIST PARTY, WHICH MIGHT ATTEMPT TO CHANGE THEIR NAMES TO AVOID BEING PROSECUTED.

THE PROPOSED BILL WOULD PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF THE VARIOUS PROVISIONS OF THE ACT, RANGING FROM FINES OF $2,000 TO $5,000 AND IMPRISONMENT RANGING FROM TWO TO FIVE YEARS, OR BOTH.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 3-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS EASING ITS TRADE RESTRICTIONS ON YUGOSLAVIA, OFFICIALS SAID TODAY, EVIDENTLY WITH THE AIM OF HELPING TO WIDEN THE RIFT BETWEEN MARSHAL TITO AND MOSCOW.

THESE SOURCES REPORTED THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAS APPROVED THE NEW POLICY WHICH MAY SPUR SHIPMENT OF INDUSTRIAL GOODS TO YUGOSLAVIA.

SINCE MARCH OF LAST YEAR YUGOSLAVIA HAS BEEN INCLUDED IN THE VIRTUAL EXPORT BAN THIS COUNTRY APPLIED TO SOVIET RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES. THE OBJECTIVE OF THESE CURBS IS TO PREVENT SHIPMENT OF POTENTIAL WAR-USE GOODS TO COUNTRIES BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN.

MARSHAL TITO, HOWEVER, HAS SINCE BROKEN WITH THE KREMLIN RULERS FOLLOWING HIS DENUNCIATION BY THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED COMINFORM. IN RECENT WEEKS THE RUSSIAN-DOMINATED STATES HAVE PROCLAIMED AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE OF YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH IN TURN HAS SPEEDED TITO'S EFFORTS TO ARRIVE AT SOME TRADE ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE WEST.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE BAN ON SHIPMENT OF WAR POTENTIAL ITEMS STILL STANDS FOR YUGOSLAVIA. UNDER THE NEW POLICY DECISION, HOWEVER, SHE MAY BE ABLE TO BUY SOME HEAVY GOODS, SUCH AS MACHINERY AND INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT NEEDED FOR PRODUCTIVE PURPOSES.

IN RETURN, YUGOSLAVIA IS EXPECTED TO SELL TO AMERICAN BUYERS SUCH THINGS AS COPPER, LEAD AND ZINC.

ROBERT D.MURPHY WAS CALLED HOME TO HEAD THE OFFICE. MURPHY, WHO HAS THE RANK OF AMBASSADOR, IS POLITICAL ADVISER FOR GENERAL LUCIUS D. CLAY, OCCUPATION COMMANDER IN GERMANY.

AT THE SAME TIME IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT GEORGE F.KENNAN, DIRECTOR OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S POLICY PLANNING STAFF, IS LEAVING EARLY NEXT WEEK FOR A SURVEY OF OCCUPATION PROBLEMS AND WILL CONSULT WITH CLAY AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS ON THE SCENE.

CLAY HAS SUBMITTED HIS RESIGNATION. THERE HAVE BEEN DIFFICULTIES IN THE PAST OVER RELATIONS AMONG CLAY, THE STATE AND ARMY DEPARTMENTS. STILL UNDER STUDY IS A PROPOSAL FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO TAKE OVER

ACTUAL DIRECTION OF THE OCCUPATION FROM THE ARMY.

CREATION OF THE NEW OFFICE OF GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN AFFAIRS IS IN GENERAL LINE WITH RECOMMENDATIONS MADE LAST MONTH BY THE HOOVER COMMISSION TO CENTRALIZE RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE OCCUPATION. THE NEW AGENCY WILL TAKE OVER DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS FROM FOUR SECTIONS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

THE REORGANIZATION BREAKS UP THE EXISTING MACHINERY UNDER CHARLES E.SALTZMAN, ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR OCCUPATION AREAS. SALTZMAN WILL HANDLE SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS FOR SECRETARY ACHESON, AN ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, "PENDING FURTHER ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENTS."

WALLGREN HAS TO RECEIVE THE APPROVAL OF THE COMMITTEE, THEN THE SENATE ITSELF, TO WIN CONFIRMATION.

CAIN'S LETTER TO MR.TRUMAN WAS DATED FEBRUARY 28. IT SAID, IN PART:

"MY OPPOSITION TO MR. WALLGREN IS BOTH FIRM AND HONEST. X X X I RESPECTFULLY SUGGEST THAT THE NOMINEE, WHILE PERHAPS POSSESSING VIRTUES REQUIRED BY SOME ASSIGNMENTS, IS SINGULARLY LACKING IN WHAT YOU REQUIRE FROM ADVISERS AND ASSISTANTS WHOSE SOLE OBJECTIVE IS THAT OF KEEPING OUR NATION FREE AT HOME AND SECURE FROM AGGRESSION ABROAD."

CAIN ALSO WROTE JOHN R.STEELMAN, THE PRESIDENT'S ASSISTANT, THAT "MR.WALLGREN MUST BE JUDGED BY HIS PAST CONDUCT AND ASSOCIATION, AND HE IS FOUND WANTING WHEN HE IS EXAMINED AGAINST THE REQUIREMENTS OF ANY REASONABLE STANDARD."

THE POSITION TO WHICH WALLGREN WAS NOMINATED PAYS $14,000 A YEAR. THE NATIONAL RESOURCES BOARD'S DUTY IS TO LAY PLANS FOR INDUSTRIAL MOBILIZATION IN THE EVENT OF WAR.

CAIN TOLD MR.TRUMAN HE WOULD BE GLAD TO CONSULT WITH HIM PERSONALLY ABOUT THE NOMINATION IF THE PRESIDENT CHOSE.

(380) CHINESE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 3-(AP)-CHINESE AMBASSADOR WELLINGTON KOO URGED THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY TO MAKE THE FULLEST USE OF AVAILABLE AMERICAN FUNDS EARMARKED FOR AID TO HIS COUNTRY.

THE PRESENT $400,000,000 (M) CHINESE AID PROGRAM EXPIRES APRIL 3. OF THIS, $125,000,000 (M) WAS SET ASIDE FOR MILITARY AID AND MOST HAS BEEN OBLIGATED. THE BALANCE IS GOING FOR CIVILIAN AID UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION. MOST OF IT, TOO, HAS BEEN COMMITTED.

KOO TALKED FOR A HALF AN HOUR WITH UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE JAMES WEBB, THEN TOLD REPORTERS:

1. HE HAS DISCUSSED WITH WEBB "IN A GENERAL WAY" CHINA'S DESIRE FOR A NEW AMERICAN AID PROGRAM AFTER APRIL 3. KOO WOULD NOT GIVE DETAILS ON THIS.

2. HE HAD ALSO ASKED THAT CHINA BE GIVEN ANY FUNDS OUT OF THE PRESENT PROGRAM WHICH MIGHT BECOME AVAILABLE AFTER APRIL 3 AS A RESULT OF NON-DELIVERY OF GOODS. FOR EXAMPLE, SUPPOSE CHINA PLACES A $50,000,000 ORDER THROUGH A GOVERNMENT AGENCY BEFORE THE DEADLINE AND THE PRODUCING COMPANY DISCOVERS AFTER THE DEADLINE THAT THE GOODS ARE NOT AVAILABLE. THE CHINESE THEN WOULD LIKE THE MONEY THUS FREED TO BE PUT INTO OTHER AID FOR CHINA RATHER THAN TO REVERT TO THE AMERICAN TREASURY.

3. HE TOOK UP WITH WEBB A REQUEST MADE TO THE ECA FOR DIVERSION OF ABOUT $500,000 [redacted] OF CHINESE AID TO HELP HARD-PRESSED CHINESE STUDENTS IN THIS COUNTRY. HE SAID THERE ARE ABOUT 3,600 STUDENTS HERE ALTHOUGH NOT ALL OF THEM NEED HELP.

KOO ALSO REPORTED HE HAD BEEN TOLD--OBVIOUSLY BY WEBB--THAT A CRITICISM OF CHINA WHICH COLUMNIST DREW PEARSON ATTRIBUTED TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WAS NOT ACCURATELY GIVEN BY PEARSON.

THE NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST HAD SAID THAT ACHESON TOLD A GROUP OF HOUSE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS THAT SOME OF THE U.S. FUNDS SUPPLIED TO CHINA'S NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAD GONE INTO THE POCKETS OF GOVERNMENT LEADERS INSTEAD OF BEING USED TO FIGHT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THE CHINESE EMBASSY ISSUED A DENIA

LEADERS INSTEAD OF BEING USED TO FIGHT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THE CHINESE EMBASSY ISSUED A DENIAL TODAY. WHEN KOO WAS ASKED WHETHER HE HAD RECEIVED ANY WORD FROM WEBB ON THE MATTER, HE SAID:

"WELL, EVIDENTLY THE QUOTATION WAS NOT ACCURATE AT ALL, I WAS CLEARLY INFORMED."

(ADVANCE)--NEW YORK, MARCH 3-(AP)-WINSTON CHURCHILL WRITES IN HIS WAR MEMOIRS THAT TRANSFER OF 50 AMERICAN DESTROYERS TO BRITAIN IN 1940 "BROUGHT THE UNITED STATES DEFINITELY NEARER TO US AND TO THE WAR."
THE TRANSFER "WAS THE FIRST OF A LONG SUCCESSION OF INCREASINGLY UNNEUTRAL ACTS IN THE ATLANTIC WHICH WERE OF THE UTMOST SERVICE TO US," HE SAYS. "IT MARKED THE PASSAGE OF THE UNITED STATES FROM BEING NEUTRAL TO BEING NON-BELLIGERENT."
THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE MEMOIRS IS BEING SERIALIZED IN LIFE MAGAZINE AND THE NEW YORK TIMES.
THE WARTIME PRIME MINISTER REVEALS THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND HIS ADVISERS DEVOTED LONG, CAREFUL STUDY TO THE DESTROYER QUESTION BEFORE DECIDING TO TURN THEM OVER TO EMBATTLED BRITAIN IN SEPTEMBER, 1940, THE MONTH IN WHICH CHURCHILL MOST FEARED NAZI INVASION.
HE WRITES THAT THE TRANSFER "WOULD, ACCORDING TO ALL THE STANDARDS OF HISTORY, HAVE JUSTIFIED THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT IN DECLARING WAR UPON THEM.
"THE PRESIDENT JUDGED THAT THERE WAS NO DANGER, AND I FELT THERE WAS NO HOPE, OF THIS SIMPLE SOLUTION OF MANY DIFFICULTIES. IT WAS HITLER'S INTEREST AND METHOD TO STRIKE HIS OPPONENTS DOWN ONE BY ONE."
THE WAR LEADER SAYS THE DESTROYER DEAL WAS PROPOSED BY HIS GOVERNMENT EARLY IN AUGUST, 1940, AS A TRADE IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES WOULD RECEIVE BASES IN THE WEST INDIAN ISLANDS AND BERMUDA.
"THERE WAS, OF COURSE," HE WRITES, "NO COMPARISON BETWEEN THE INTRINSIC VALUE OF THESE ANTIQUATED AND INEFFICIENT CRAFT AND THE IMMENSE PERMANENT STRATEGIC SECURITY AFFORDED TO THE UNITED STATES BY THE ENJOYMENT OF THE ISLAND BASES.
"BUT THE THREATENED INVASION, THE IMPORTANCE OF NUMBERS IN THE NARROW SEAS, MADE OUR NEED CLAMANT."
CHURCHILL SAYS THAT, EVEN THOUGH HE BELIEVED THE BASES WERE WORTH MORE THAN THE DESTROYERS, HE ALSO FELT "THAT THE SURVIVAL OF BRITAIN IS BOUND UP WITH THE SURVIVAL OF THE UNITED STATES" AND "IT SEEMED TO ME AND TO MY COLLEAGUES THAT IT WAS AN ACTUAL ADVANTAGE TO HAVE THESE BASES IN AMERICAN HANDS.
"I THEREFORE DID NOT LOOK UPON THE QUESTION FROM ANY NARROW BRITISH POINT OF VIEW."
BEFORE THE DEAL WAS CLOSED, CHURCHILL ACCEPTED ROOSEVELT'S SUGGESTION THAT THE BASES BE TURNED OVER TO THIS COUNTRY ON A 99-YEAR LEASE BASIS.
CHURCHILL ALSO TELLS OF THE "DAKAR FIASCO"--THE FAILURE OF THE BRITISH NAVY AND AN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE UNDER GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE TO CAPTURE THE NORTHWEST AFRICA PORT IN SEPTEMBER, 1940.

Molotov Out as Foreign Minister In Soviet High Command Shakeup; Vishinsky Is Appointed to Post

WORLD CAPITALS PONDER ON REASON FOR SUDDEN MOVE

Changes Made During Critical Period in East-West Cold War

ANNOUNCEMENT IS TERSE

No Mention Made of Molotov's Status as Deputy Prime Minister

LONDON, (Saturday,) March 5 (AP)—Vyacheslav M. Molotov was replaced last night as Soviet foreign minister by his fiery deputy, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, in a stunning shakeup of Russia's high command.

The Moscow radio made the announcement but gave no explanation. It merely said that Molotov had been released "from the duties of minister of foreign affairs." No mention was made of his other job—deputy prime minister of the Soviet Union.

A. I. Mikoyan, regarded as one of Russia's ablest traders, was replaced as minister of foreign trade by M. A. Menshikov.

Diplomats Puzzled by News

Capitals of the world were puzzled by the news. It was noted immediately that the changes came during a critical period in the east-west cold war—a diplomatic struggle that has appeared recently to be going against the Soviet Union.

In the nations beyond the iron curtain there were a variety of theories as to the meaning of the changes. None were supported by any concrete evidence.

A key United Nations diplomat at Lake Success, N. Y., said Molotov's release actually was a promotion and signified no change in Soviet policy. According to this informant, Molotov is being groomed to succeed aging Josef Stalin as prime minister.

The round-faced Molotov will be 59 next Monday. He is an "old Bolshevik" who began his revolutionary career when he was 15. Western diplomats long have regarded him as a possible successor to Stalin.

Does the shift in Russia's diplomatic high command mean Russia is preparing to make a greater effort in the cold war, stand pat, or look for a way to make a deal with the west?

Causes Wide Speculation

Nobody outside the politbureau—the ruling body of the Soviet Union—knew for sure. Diplomats in Washington thought Russian policy might get tougher or might get softer.

Western minds have been intrigued by the possibility that a fundamental split exists within the politbureau, with a moderate element favoring an understanding with the western world. President Truman recently made an oblique reference to this possibility.

London's reaction was much like that of Washington. It was recalled that only yesterday Denmark and Norway risked Russia's ire by placing their hopes for security in the projected North Atlantic Alliance. Norway rejected a Russian offer for a non-aggression treaty. It was a di matic defeat for the Soviet Union.

Vishinsky's reputation as a firebrand orator would not appear to indicate that Russia was backing down in the cold war. As deputy foreign minister Vishinsky has attended virtually all the important inter-allied and United Nations conferences since 1945.

In international councils the slang term "Vishinskyism" has come to mean a vitriolic type of oratory.

Vishinsky Shrewd

Vishinsky knows how to maneuver his way in the intricate and sometimes dangerous channels of Soviet politics. One evidence of this is the fact that originally he was a member of the Menshevik faction which ultimately lost out to the Bolsheviks.

It was during the Moscow trials of 1936 and 1937 that Vishinsky first gained world attention. He was the prosecutor. So well did he do his work that more than a dozen of the early revolutionists who had fought at Lenin's side were condemned.

Vishinsky recently returned to Moscow after being treated in Czechoslovakia for what was described as a serious illness. He is 66.

Actually all that the world knew about the change was contained in this Russian broadcast:

The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet has released the deputy chairman of the council of foreign ministers of the U.S.S.R., Comrade V. M. Molotov from the duties of minister of foreign affairs of the U.S.S.R., and has appointed A. Y. Vishinsky foreign minister of the U.S.S.R.

"The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet has released the deputy chairman of the council of the ministers of the U.S.S.R., A. I. Mikoyan, from the post of minister of foreign trade and has appointed M. A. Menshikov in his place."

Will Stalin Step Aside?

If the theory that Molotov is being groomed for a promotion actually is correct, a second question naturally follows. Is Stalin who was 69 last December, preparing to step aside as the leader of Russia's millions? He has been reported in poor health since the war.

It has never been clear in western minds how a change of power would take place in Russia in the event of Stalin's sudden death. There has been speculation that the top leaders might then grapple among themselves for the top spot. It is generally assumed that the one who would gain complete control over the police and military apparatus first would win. Now, diplomats asked, is this true?

Mikoyan, the retiring minister of foreign trade, has been regarded as one of the most pro-western members of the Politbureau. He is a witty, polite Armenian. Many international businessmen regard him as a sharp bargainer.

Mikoyan also has been considered as high on the list of possible successors to Stalin. His chances, however, were not regarded as anywhere near as good as those of Molotov.

Menshikov is not so well known abroad. He has been vice minister of foreign trade.

The Russian shakeup came at a time when communists outside Russia have shifted their line. Early in the year they were decalring there was no reason why communist and capitalist countries could not exist peacefully side-by-side.

Within the past week communist spokesmen of France, Italy, Britain, Germany, the United States, Austria, Finland and Denmark have said that western communists would back the Soviet Union in the event of war between the east and west.

Now the non-communist world will wait to see whether the appointment of Vishinsky as Soviet foreign minister will bring another shift in the communist line.

A watch also will be kept for pictures of Soviet leaders. Heretofore Molotov usually has been photographed standing close to Stalin.

RUSSIA WANTS PEACE, MOSCOW RADIO SAYS

LONDON, March 4—(AP) The Moscow radio said tonight Russia wants peace and "unswervingly conducts a policy of cooperation among all democratic countries, regardless of their internal social system."

The broadcast, which was in English, was heard here. The Soviet radio monitor said it came just before the announcement of the change of Russia's foreign minister.

LONDON URGES U.N. WATCH ON SOVIET POLICY

British Foreign Office Reserves Official Comment

London, Saturday, March 5 (AP)—The British Foreign Office today reserved official comment when told of the Moscow Cabinet shifts which saw Vyacheslav M. Molotov replaced as Foreign Minister by Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

Foreign Office sources, however, said it was a question whether a change in Soviet foreign ministers meant, necessarily, a change in policy.

These sources said Soviet policy should be watched closely in the United Nations, the Far East, and in the London talks on the Austrian treaty for any signs of a shift.

"Molotov is stubborn," one source said, "but Vishinsky is full of fire."

"It is interesting the change came at this time when the Atlantic pact is on the point of being realized," the sources commented.

Some See Stiffer Russian Policy, Others Hint at Military Move

WASHINGTON, March 4—(AP) The shift in Russia's diplomatic high command startled official Washington tonight and set off a terrific round of speculation as to what it means in the cold war.

When informed diplomats heard that Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had been replaced by Andrei Y. Vishinsky, their first reaction was this: HIGHLIGHTED

It could mean that Russian policy is about to shift—in either direction. The Russians might be about to toughen and intensify their diplomatic and propaganda attacks on the west, or they might be preparing to ease up and seek a period of international calm. The diplomats said further developments must be awaited to determine which of these guesses is correct.

Speculate on Military Move

On Capitol Hill, some legislators expressed concern lest Russia might be preparing some military move, perhaps in the direction of Finland and Norway. The Moscow announcement comes on the heels of Norway's decision to line up with the western powers in a North Atlantic security pact designed to bar the way to any Russian aggression.

President Truman was informed of the Moscow announcement, but withheld comment. So also did Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), ranking minority member of the committee.

Two members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee agreed tonight that the Soviet action portends a significant new move of some kind.

Rep. Lawrence Smith (R-Wis) told a reporter:

"I'm looking for some drastic move. I think if anything it will be a military move. I wouldn't be surprised to see the Russians go into Helsinki, and Norway also. There have been reports of Russian troops massed along the Norwegian border."

Rep. Richards (D-SC) said the Russian announcement "suggests that there's a new move coming out of Moscow. What it is is hard to conjecture."

Capital Circles Startled By Shakeup of Red Chiefs

Richards said it could be a move in either direction—toward a tougher policy or toward better relations with the United States.

Stiffer Policy Seen

"My own personal reaction," Smith said, "is that it undoubtedly is a change in policy, a stiffening of policy because of the situation that has been created in China and elsewhere.

"I have an idea the Russians may be playing it wide and fast and calling our hand in Europe because of the Atlantic Pact, the Marshall Plan and the Norwegian and Danish maneuvers toward the side of the western powers.

"The Russians probably feel that they must take some counter measures to overcome the trend."

Other comment:

Senator Smith (R-NJ), member of Foreign Relations Committee: "I don't get very much cheer from the fact that Mr. Vishinsky, who has been very difficult, is succeeding Mr. Molotov, who also has been very difficult, neither of them seem to understand what we are trying to do in this country in our efforts to obtain peace for the world."

Senator Flanders (R-Vt): "With Vishinsky succeeding Molotov, it looks as though there will be no mollifying of the Molotov policy."

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich): "The change doesn't seem to hold out any hope for improvement of the Russian government. In fact, it may prove to be a change for the worse. Vishinsky's speeches against the United States have been more inflammatory than Molotov's."

Molotov "Losing Cold War"

Among diplomats, there was a tendency to attribute the Molotov-Vishinsky shift to western successes against the Soviets in the cold war. Whatever may be in store for him in the future, it is a fact that Molotov, despite his poker face and his stone wall methods, has failed to block the political unification and military rearmament programs of the west.

It is equally a fact, however, that on the record at least Andrei Y. Vishinsky, lawyer, editor and jack of all trades in the Soviet government, has generally been regarded as a number two man capable of carrying on Molotov's policies any time he needed a deputy.

Responsible observers here do not wholly discount the possibility that despite Molotov's "release" from his duties, he may still remain in a position of power. For example, he is a member of the politburo and there is no word in the official announcement to indicate that he is being retired from that body.

In fact, the politburo has always been regarded here as composed of life members. It is the all powerful board which runs the Soviet Union under Stalin's direction.

Vishinsky is an entirely different type of man from Molotov. Whereas the former foreign minister was solemn, silent and uninspiring in his social contacts with westerners, Vishinsky is humorous, quick with a wisecrack and able as any good lawyer should be to protect himself in the verbal clinches.

On the international conference circuit which the United States, Russia and other great powers have been traveling since the end of the war, there are many American and British officials who would rather try to do business with Vishinsky than with Molotov.

Not that they felt they could accomplish more with Vishinsky once top Russian policy was set, but simply that he was likely to be more varied in his responses and unlikely, as Molotov often did, simply to repeat his basic arguments over and over.

SPECULATION RISES ON NEXT RUSSIAN MOVE

Elevation Of Vishinsky Poses Question On Malik Status

F. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., March 4 (AP). One United Nations diplomat said tonight that the release of Vyacheslav M. Molotov as Foreign Minister of Russia means a promotion for him and no change in Soviet policy. But not all of his colleagues agreed completely with him.

This one diplomat, who would not be identified, said that Molotov is being prepared for the post of Prime Minister held by Joseph Stalin.

He pointed out that Molotov still is Deputy Prime Minister and now apparently has the inside track in the race to succeed the Generalissimo.

He said further that the move was meant to take some of the burden of Soviet policy off Molotov's shoulders so he could be ready to step into Stalin's shoes.

When the news first broke, United Nations delegates and secretariat officials were amazed and puzzled by the announcement from Moscow.

Diplomats Frankly Puzzled

United Nations sources familiar with the Russian setup speculated at first that the move might forecast an attempt to get together with the Western powers.

But they saw next that A. I. Mikoyan, regarded here as one of the most pro-Western of the fourteen-member ruling Politburo, was being released from his post as Minister of Foreign Trade.

This was taken in United Nations circles to mean that there would be no change in the near future in Russian policy; that the cold war would go on and that Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Molotov's successor, would have a free hand for more bitter attacks on Western policies.

Other United Nations diplomats said they were not certain that the move meant an eventual promotion for Molotov—but they said frankly they were puzzled and they would have to await developments.

Malik At Lake Success

Vishinsky carried out his instructions at the Paris Assembly of the United Nations last fall obviously to the satisfaction of his superiors in Moscow. He made many speeches attacking the United States, Britain and France and closed the Assembly on the sour note that nothing had been accomplished at that session.

Vishinsky had been expected to head the Russian delegation to the United Nations Assembly in New York city beginning April 5. This merely is an extension of the Paris session, which failed to complete its work last December.

The Vishinsky promotion raised the question whether he would come, or leave the chief delegate's job here to his resident ambassador, Jakob A. Malik, Deputy Foreign Minister.

Malik was at Lake Success today for the Security Council meeting at which Israel's application for membership was approved. But he had left the headquarters before the startling information from Moscow was received.

Gromyko May Be Delegate

A member of his staff said the delegation had no comment on the developments.

There is a possibility, some United Nations persons said, that Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister who was a delegate here until last summer, would return as one of the delegation.

Gromyko went to Russia last year for his first vacation at home since the war. After a long rest in the Crimea, he went back to Moscow and was reported at work there in the Foreign Ministry.

Delegation members here said they did not know what particular duties Gromyko now has but that he still is Deputy Foreign Minister.

Malik ranks Gromyko in the hierarchy of deputies, preceding him in that classification by about five months.

A large group of Russian and White Russian delegates at the Economic and Social Council were interested in the news but had no comment.

Trygve Lie Silent

One delegate, told of the development, blinked in obvious astonishment but recovered and said with a grin: "I know nothing about it. I am an economist."

Dr. Juliusz Katz-Suchy, Polish delegate who repeatedly attacks United States policy in United Nations debates, was silent. He said: "No comment."

That was the reaction also from Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, who rarely has anything to say on moves in the governments of member nations.

One eastern European delegate said he believed the change meant only a shift in personalities and that no change in Russian policy was involved.

The whole atmosphere at the United Nations tonight was one of expectancy—to see what the Soviet Government might have up its sleeve next.

No Comment From Acheson

New York, March 4 (AP)—The release of Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Russian Foreign Minister, brought no immediate comment tonight from Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, or his predecessor.

An aide to Acheson, in New York to address the annual dinner of the Overseas Press Club, said the Secretary of State had no comment to make on Molotov's release from office.

George C. Marshall, former Secretary of State, also here to address the dinner, likewise made no comment on the release of Molotov.

Mrs. Marshall answered the telephone in Marshall's hotel suite, talked to her husband and said he would make no comment.

2 Albanians Face Anti-Russ Charges

London, March 4 (AP)—The Albanian radio said today two members of the Albanian Parliament face prosecution for "anti-Marxian and anti-Soviet activity." The Communist Balkan nation deprived the men of their immunity.

Facing trial are Kotchi Dzodze and Pandi Kristo. The Albanian radio asserted they "co-operated with Yugoslav Trotskyites to deprive Albania of her independence and reduce her to a Yugoslav colony."

Albania, like other countries the Communists and Russia dominate, has been at odds with Yugoslavia since the Cominform started lambasting Premier Marshal Tito for straying from the party line.

Attlee Hails 'Recovery'

Reports Unexampled Progress Under Labor Government

LONDON, March 4 (AP).—Prime Minister Attlee said today Great Britain has "made unexampled progress toward recovery" under the Labor government.

"The foundations of a new social order have been laid," he said in a message supporting the Labor candidate in a special election to fill a vacancy in Commons.

The by-election will be held March 10 in th North St. Pancras (London) District.

COMMUNIST LOSES FRENCH IMMUNITY

Assembly Action Preliminary To Defamation Case

Paris, March 4 (AP)—The National Assembly lifted today the Parliamentary immunity of Roger Garaudy, Communist deputy.

The step is preliminary to prosecution of Garaudy for defamation. His name appeared on tracts in December, 1947, attacking Robert Schuman, who was then Premier, as "gauleiter of the dollar" among other things. The lower House vote was 363 to 202.

The Assembly refused by a 296-221 vote to lift the immunity of Marcel Cachin, Communist leader.

His Newspaper Assailed

Andre Mutter, Rightist deputy, tried to get Cachin's immunity taken away. He charged that the Communist daily, L'humanite, of which Cachin is nominal director, published in 1947 defamatory stories about his conduct during the occupation.

The Government has pending against Cachin and Florimond Bonte, Communist leader requests that their immunity be revoked in connection with the recent Communist utterances of support for Russia in event of war.

Atomic Office Searched

Police searched French atomic research headquarters in quest of clues against a Communist spy ring. The high commissioner for atomic energy, Frederic Joliot-Curie, is a Communist.

The headquarters were searched after the arrest of Paul Pelas, a geologist on the atomic research project and a Communist. Police said they found documents of national defense, which Pelas had no reason to hold, in his office at the atomic energy secretariat.

French Atom Quarters Searched In Spy Hunt

Paris, March 4 (AP)—Police disclosed today they made a search at French atomic research headquarters to get evidence against a Communist spy ring.

Frederic Joliot-Curie, high commissioner for atomic energy, is a member of the Communist party.

Police said it was a raid at the Communist weekly, France d'Abord, Friday that first put them on the track of 25-year-old Paul Pelas. The arrest of Pelas, a geologist on the atomic research project, was announced yesterday.

Pelas was identified as a member of the Communist party and a member of the board of directors of the pro-Communist publishing house Hier et Aujourd' Hui (yesterday and today).

After going to Pelas's home, the police added, they went through his office at the high commissariat.

Pelas was the eighth man jailed in the Government's anti-spy drive. It was not stated if any other office in the atomic headquarters was searched.

West Europe Board Starts Its Planning

8-Man Commission Meets on Economic Program

PARIS, March 4 (AP).—Western Europe's new economic directorate went to work today to draw up a long-range, co-ordinated recovery program for the Marshall plan nations.

The eight-man executive commission of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation held two closed sessions and scheduled a third meeting tomorrow.

Robert Marjolin, O. E. E. C. secretary-general, told a news conference tonight that the commission, formed a few weeks ago, agreed to base its studies on the O. E. E. C. General Council resolution of last month, which defined its No. 1 objective for 1949 as financial and monetary stabilization within each of the nineteen participating areas.

This resolution urged a rapid increase in exports and a drastic cut of imports from the dollar zone to bring Europe's export and import schedules into balance as soon as possible.

The commission is expected to draft a set of resolutions for submission to the full nineteen-member Council.

Malmedy Probe Ruses Upheld (N)

Frankfurt, Germany, March 4 (AP)—A United States Army review board today condoned the use of "ruses, strategems, stool pigeons and similar practices" to get evidence from Nazi SS men accused of the Malmedy massacre.

More than 900 unarmed American prisoners and Belgian civilians were slaughtered in the Malmedy area during the Battle of the Bulge. B. CURRY

Among the 73 Elite Guard men convicted in July, 1946, by a United States military court of the atrocity were Col. Gen. Joachim Peiper, dare-devil tank leader who was one of Hitler's closest friends, and three other generals.

Execution Stay Ordered

Willis M. Everett, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., defense attorney, fought the convictions all the way to the Supreme Court, charging the prosecution had used sham courts, threats and the third degree to get evidence.

After the Supreme Court in June, 1948, refused to hear the pleas for writs of habeas corpus, Kenneth C. Royall, Army Secretary, ordered a stay of execution for seventeen of the 43 condemned to die. Thirty of the 73 convicted had received jail terms.

The defense mentioned only twelve persons in its petitions.

Royall ordered a review board set up in Germany to investigate allegations in the habeas corpus petitions.

Justified By Case

Today's ruling by that board sustained the defense allegations, but said the practices were "justified by the difficulty of cracking the case."

It made no recommendation other than that its findings be taken into account in any further consideration of the case.

The board said "in certain instances, probably about eight to ten, the use of a so-called mock trial was resorted to in an effort to soften up a witness."

"There would be a table covered with a black cloth, on which stood a crucifix and burning candles and behind which sat one or more people impersonating judges.

Last Chance To Talk

"The defendant would be brought from his cell hooded. . . . Sometimes other people were brought in who purported to testify against him. One member of the prosecution team would play the part of the prosecutor and another would act as a friend of the defendant.

"No sentence was pronounced, but the accused was made to understand it was his last chance to talk and undoubtedly in some cases understood he had been convicted.

"Following the mock trial, the man who had played the friend of the accused would . . . advise him to tell what he knew."

Physical Force Used

The board also said:

"The conditions obtaining at the prison and the method employed in the interrogations had a definite psychological effect on the defendants and resulted in their being more amenable to giving statements.

"The defense had difficulties in the preparation of its case, but such difficulties were ironed out and the defense, considering all the circumstances of the case, had a reasonable time in which to prepare its case.

"Physical force was not systematically applied in order to obtain statements, but undoubtedly in the heat of the moment on occasions interrogators did use some physical force."

Malmedy Case Ruses Upheld (AP)

Frankfurt, Germany, March 4 (AP)—An army review board said today that general use of "ruses, strategems, stool pigeons and similar practices" in the Malmedy massacre case were "justified by the difficulty of cracking the case."

The justice review board was named by Gen. Lucius D. Clay to investigate charges that improper methods—including physical violence and mock trials—were used to obtain evidence from the Malmedy defendants.

The Germans were charged with the massacre of American soldiers during the Battle of the Bulge in 1944.

12 Executions Stayed

Execution of the twelve defendants were stayed pending the review.

The board said "in certain instances, probably about eight to ten, the use of a so-called mock trial was resorted to in an attempt to soften up a witness who was thought to be susceptible to such procedure.

"There would be a table with a black cloth on which stood a crucifix and burning candles and behind which sat one or more people impersonating judges," it said.

Some Violence Threats

The board found that "physical violence was not systematically applied in order to obtain statements." It added, however, that "undoubtedly in the heat of the moment on occasions interrogators did use some physical force on a recalcitrant suspect.

"In certain instances interrogators made threats to the accused that if they did not talk their relatives would be deprived of their ration cards."

The board said such practices "in certain instances exceeded the bounds of propriety" but it has been unable to identify such cases.

Time For Defense Case

The board concluded:

1. There was a general use of other ruses, stratagems, stool pigeons and similar practices justified by the difficulty of cracking the case.
2. The conditions obtaining at the prison and the methods employed in the interrogations had a definite psychological effect on the defendants and resulted in their being more amenable to giving statements.
3. The defense had difficulties in the preparation of its case, but such difficulties were ironed out and the defense, considering all the circumstances of the case, had a reasonable time in which to prepare its case.

Methods Protested

Defense counsel had protested that improper methods were used in obtaining pretrial statements from defendants.

Describing the "mock trials," the board said:

"The defendant would be brought from his cell hooded. Allegations that these hoods were blood-stained were not supported by any testimony before the board.

"Sometimes other people were brought in who purported to testify against him. There is no evidence on which the board can find that the prisoner himself was forced to testify at such a trial. One member of the prosecution team would play the part of the prosecutor and another would act as a friend of the defendant.

"No sentence was pronounced, but the accused was made to understand that it was his last chance to talk and undoubtedly in some cases understood he had been convicted.

"Following the mock trial," the board continued, "the man who had played the friend of the accused at the mock trial would talk to him confidentially and advise him to tell what he knew. This procedure met with varying success, but undoubtedly some defendants would confess at least part of their crimes under the influence of such procedures."

ANGRY REDS QUIT FRANKFURT AFTER TWO-DAY 'SIEGE'

T. A. REEDY (N)

BERLIN, March 4—(AP) The Soviet repatriation mission quit the American zone of Germany tonight after a motor trip reminiscent of the pioneer days of the automobile.

The eight Russians and their convoy of six worn out vehicles left Frankfurt at dawn. Apparently they had motor and tire trouble all the way. It took them three to four hours longer than anyone else requires to reach Helmstedt, on the American-Russian zonal border.

When they crossed the border at 6:35 p.m. (12:35 p.m. EST) they were towing a broken-down truck loaded with spare tires and gasoline cans.

Defied U. S. Order

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, ordered the Soviet mission out of the United States zone on the grounds that its work was finished and that any Russians now left in western Germany wanted to stay there.

The eight members of the mission refused to leave, however. For two days a "little blockade" imposed by the U. S. Army sealed them in their Frankfurt mansion.

Finally Soviet Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky instructed them to come to Berlin. In retaliation Sokolovsky ordered the U. S. Graves Registration Commission to leave the Soviet zone at once.

Four American soldiers attached to the commission arrived safely in Berlin last night without knowing why the Russians were chasing them out. They are: Sgt. Robert R. Koch, Leavenworth, Kans.; Cpl. Andrew W. Keller, Knoxville, Tenn.; Cpl. Michael Sepa, Perryopolis, Pa., and Pfc. Rosendo M. Martinez, San Francisco.

Capt. John G. Gerl, Milwaukee, Wis., and Cpl. John Mohoff, Los Angeles, already were in Berlin for a weekend when the Russians issued their order.

The six men are members of Graves registration units assigned to search for bodies of American soldiers killed during the war. American officers here said the graves commission's job in eastern Germany is accomplished for all practical purposes.

Reds In Angry Mood

The Russians were in an angry mood when they left Frankfurt. One spat at an American girl who was watching their departure.

They left a litter of paper, cigarette butts and communist literature in the house where they had lived for two days without lights, water or other facilities.

Before American authorities allowed the mission to take off from Frankfurt they confiscated several rolls of film. The Russians had taken pictures of troops and other persons who stood around the mission headquarters during the "little blockade."

Once the Russians reached their side of the zonal boundary they halted briefly. Then they proceeded on the additional hundred miles to Berlin.

One of the Russian trucks was dripping pools of oil before it left Frankfurt this morning. A U. S. military police officer said: "We offered to send a wrecker truck along behind, but the Russians refused."

Clark Likely For Clay Post

Berlin, March 4 (AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark appeared tonight to be the leading candidate to succeed Gen. Lucius D. Clay as military governor of Germany.

Although Clay's retirement is not expected to take place for some weeks or even months, it is understood here that Clark is the Army's choice. W. GALLAGHER

The State Department is studying recommendations from the Army Department that civilians take over military government functions in Germany.

Stronger Influence Expected

Whether the State Department will take over probably depends on the recommendation to be made by the State Department's chief policy planner, George Kennan, who will visit Germany next week.

Even if the State Department does not take over directly, it is expected to exert a more direct influence on German affairs in the future.

The appointment of Ambassador Robert Murphy to head a reorganized German-Austrian department in Washington is viewed as a step in that direction.

Even if an army man like Clark is appointed, it is expected that he will take his orders directly from the State Department in the future.

Up to now, policy making in Germany has been under the Army.

Regime Will Be Formed

The transition to State Department control would be particularly advantageous at this time. Probably before Clay's departure, a western German government will already be formed. This means that American negotiations with the Germans will be exerted through an established German government. Such a situation is properly the function of the State Department.

The Army would be left free to handle only police and security duties.

From the Army and policy point of view the appointment of Clark has definite advantages.

Outspoken Foe Of Communism

First, it cannot be interpreted by the Soviet Union as a sign of appeasement of communism. Clark has established himself as an outspoken opponent of Soviet policy.

Second, it helps settle an administrative problem of the Army. The Army now has seven four-star generals. Its new table of organization calls for a cutting down to five by next year.

Since Europe requires a four-star general in command equal to his French or British counterpart, appointment of any but a present four-star general would increase the Army's difficulties.

Factor Against Wedemeyer

If a lieutenant general were appointed, he would have to be raised to a full general, thereby making further complications in the Army's present high command.

This is considered a factor working against the appointment of either Lieut. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer or Lieut. Gen. Walter B. Smith, both of whom have been mentioned for the post.

No definite date has yet been set for Clay's retirement. It is expected he will stay for some months—probably June—until the western German state is set up.

Gen. Clay Backs Farben Sentences

Berlin, March 4 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay approved today prison sentences of from eighteen months to eight years for the directors of the I. G. Farben chemical trust.

An American court convicted them in July of plundering in countries overrun by Germany and participating in the German slave-labor program.

The main count against th thirteen directors was establishing a synthetic rubber plant near the Auschwitz concentration camp where an setimated 3,000,000 died. Witnesses swore some from Auschwitz worked for Farben.

Ten Acquitted

All thirteen were acquitted of plotting and waging war. Of the 23 executives indicted, ten were acquitted.

Clay, United States military governor in Germany, upheld these sentences:

Otto Ambros, technical expert at Auschwitz, and Walter Duerrfeld, eight years; Fritz Ter Meer, seven years; Carl Krauch, chairman of the board and a leader of Hermann Goering's four-year plan, and Heinrich Buetefisch, six years; George von Schnitzler, vice chairman of the board, five years; Hermann Schmitz, your years; Max Ilgner, three years; Ernest Buergin, Heinrich Oster and Paul Haefliger, two years; Friedrich Jaehne and Hans Kugler, eighteen months.

Haefliger, Ilgner, Jaehne, Kugler and Oster all were freed after sentencing because they had been jailed that long.

Russia Given Spy Data, Court Told

Munich, Germany, March 4 (AP). Capt. Otakar Feifar, chief prosecution witness at the spy trial of eihgt Europeans, said today that almost all the data collected in Germany went to Russia.

He made the statement during a recess in the trial before a United States commission of three Czechs and five Germans.

Feifar, who fled Czechoslovakia in November and brought with him secret files, testified that the defendants were linked with a far-flung spy ring operated by the Communist Czech Government.

Richter Best Agent

He called Egon Richter, 23, former German sailor, one of the best agents.

He listed a substantial file which he said Richter furnished on movements of United States airlift supplies to blockaded Berlin and of United States troop dispositions.

German Red Party Rebukes Own Paper

Berlin, March 4 (AP)—The Communist-dominated Socialist Unity party (SED) rebuked its own official newspaper today for "fostering anti-Bolshevist sentiments."

It was an article praising Leon Trotzky's role in the Brest-Litovsk peace negotiations of 1918 which provoked the SED Politburo's anger at the newspaper, Neues Deutschland. Trotzky was exiled by Marshal Stalin's regime.

"To avoid such political confusion" in the future, the Politburo ordered the elimination of the paper's "discussion section," where the article was printed. The section will be changed to one devoted to teaching "the theory and principles of our party," the Politburo directed.

A special commission was appointed to see that the section stays strictly within the party lines.

Neues Deutschland displayed prominently the party's rebuke against itself.

Murphy Recall Hold Part Of Berlin Shifts

Berlin, March 4 (AP)—Robert D. Murphy's recall to Washington to take a new job is regarded here as the beginning of an exodus of Gen. Lucius D. Clay's occupation staff.

Clay disclosed recently that he has asked to be relieved as military governor as soon as possible.

Murphy has been political adviser to the military governor ever since the war.

Not Sure Of Duration

He said today that he does not know whether his appointment as head of the United States State Department's new Office on German and Austrian Affairs is a temporary or permanent assignment. He said he will leave his family in Berlin "temporarily at least," while he flies to Washington in the next few days.

"It was put up to me as a temporary assignment of a month or two to help reorganize the office in the State Department which handles German and Austrian affairs," he said.

He declined to comment on whether his transfer is connected with reports that the State Department may take over control of the occupation.

New Ban on the Movie

HAMBURG, Germany, March 4 (AP).—The British film, "Oliver Twist," has been banned by the British Military Government in Germany, the Eagle-Lion Film Company announced today.

There were riots at Berlin recently when the film was shown there. Polish Jews demonstrated outside the theater until a showing of the film was stopped by the manager.

The Jews objected that the character of Fagin in the Dickens classic was too emphatically portrayed as a Jew.

Cominform Boycotting Of Church Events Seen

Vatican City, March 4 (AP)—The Cominform has declared a worldwide boycott of the Holy Year celebrations, Vatican radio announced today.

"The Cominform has issued orders to the Soviet satellite states in eastern Europe to forbid their nationals to take part in the Holy Year celebrations to be held next year in Rome," the broadcast said.

Nations of eastern Europe were asked not to issue exit visas to pilgrims to visit Rome during the Holy Year celebrations, the radio added. "On ly exceptional short-term visas will be issued to top Catholic Church leaders to leave those countries during 1950."

Rakosi Talk Is Awaited

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 4 (AP)—Deputy Premier Matyas Rakosi, Communist leader who is known as the most powerful member of the Hungarian Government, will deliver a pronouncement tomorrow on "The Internal Political Situation and the Tasks of the Party." The announcement stirred widespread interest, as his rare speeches in the past usually have meant new milestones in Hungary's post-war history.

MAR 5 1949

Bulgaria Asks Death For Clerics

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 4 (AP)—Communist prosecutors demanded today that four Bulgarian Protestant ministers be hanged as traitors and that heavy prison sentences be imposed upon eleven others.

The trial of the fifteen on charges of treason and spying for the United States and Britain neared its final stage in Sofia's district court. The prosecution declared the ministers were servants of "Anglo-American imperialism and the Western church mission boards."

Western capitalism and American church missions also were attacked in defense summations. The defense lawyers, asking mercy for the group, said the ministers were "the poor, unfortunate victims" of Western education and that the lure of Western gold had made them the tools of American anti-Communist propaganda and espionage.

Nasty Rumors About Soviet

Bulgaria's supreme prosecutor, Moscow-trained Dimiter Georgiev, called for the death of the four defendants who were members of the council of the United Evangelical Churches of Bulgaria:

THE REV. VASSIL ZIAPKOV, 48, Congregationalist.

THE REV. YANKO IVANOV, 48, Methodist.

THE REV. NIKOLA NAUMOV, 49, Baptist.

THE REV. GEORGI CHERNEV, 46, Pentecost.

They not only spied for the United States and Britain, the prosecutor charged, "but sought to propagate a revolt against the (Communist) Bulgarian regime with the aim of inducing promised American intervention." He said they spread "nasty rumors about the Soviet Union."

Property Confiscation Asked

"Before the war they served for German Hitlerite Fascist intelligence and after the war for American imperialism," he said.

Georgiev's assistant, Todor Tsakov, called for imposition of the "severest" penalty upon the four and "the heaviest kind of punishment" upon the others, including confiscation of property.

Sentences for espionage may vary from ten years in prison to death under Bulgarian law. Six of the fifteen also are accused of illegal dealings in foreign currency, punishable by prison sentences and fines.

But doubt was expressed in some official circles that the maximum penalties would be imposed upon those convicted. A Government press officer commented: "I don't think it will be so terrible."

Mitigating Circumstances

Tsakov himself told the court he found mitigating circumstances in the cases of some of the lesser defendants. He said the Rev. Haralan Popov, 41, a Pentecostal pastor, has "sincerely repented" and the Rev. Inocho Drainov, 41, also of the Pentecostal faith, has "a sweet character."

The four main defendants, he said "represented the hostile center around which gathered the whole espionage net."

"All defendants have betrayed the state security to foreign intelligence," he said. "All crimes were committed wilfully and deliberately. All the defendants are denounced not only before their laymen but before the entire population. They are hypocritical criminals. Those anonymous foreign philanthropists who financed these defendants are the church missionaries, the war mongers."

Cost Put At $80,000

Tsakov declared the alleged espionage and black-market activities had cost Bulgaria 25,000,000 leva. At current exchange rates, that is about $80,000.

Tsakov and his chief each spoke two hours.

"In the spy network of the Evangelical leaders," said Georgiev, "were mixed the names of prominent Americans and Englishmen after 1944, as well as the names of various American church boards and the World Council of Churches movement. That is why this trial is significant not only here but abroad."

He said testimony of witnesses had substantiated confessions of the defendants from the stand. There have been "no restraints on the defendants," he said, and the trial has been "carried out with complete publicity in the presence of foreigners."

Quotes Shaw And Fast

The prosecutor contended the four leaders spread stories that there was starvation in Russia and that 15,000,000 persons were held there in slave labor.

"As a national representative, I have heard many rumors about the Soviet Union," Georgiev said. "But I never heard such nasty rumors as those spread by Protestant churches and they are God-serving people. Only people who have sold their consciences for money could spread such rumors."

Seeking to paint a picture of Russia as a leading progressive nation, he quoted from the writings of George Bernard Shaw, Howard Fast and Upton Sinclair.

Death Is Urged For Top 4 In Sofia Trial

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 4 (AP)—The Communist prosecutor today demanded the death penalty for the top four of fifteen Protestant churchmen who are charged with spying and treason against Bulgaria.

In a two-hour summation, Moscow-trained Dimiter Georgiev accused the defendants not only of spying but of trying to promote a revolt against Bulgaria's Communist-dominated Government which he said was to have brought intervention by the United States and Britain.

The prosecutor said the names of prominent Americans and Englishmen were mixed "in the spy network of evangelical leaders" as well as the names of various American church boards and the World Council of Churches.

"Trial Significant Abroad"

"That is why this trial is significant not only here but abroad," he declared.

The four for whom the prosecutor demanded the death penalty are Vassil Georgiev Ziapkov, a Congregationalist; Yanko Nikoliv Ivanov, a Methodist; Nikols Mihailov Naumov, a Baptist, and Georgi Nikolov Chernev, of the Pentecost Church.

If the court's sentence should be death, the defendants would be hanged.

Defense Urges Mercy

He asserted that the real masters of the four were British and American "imperialists" and American church mission boards.

Defense lawyers urged mercy. They used almost the same arguments as the prosecutor, saying the pastors were victims of the West and the lure of western gold. Counsel for the top four defendants argued against treason convictions.

Defense arguments are expected to end tomorrow. The judgment probably will be handed down Monday.

"Tried To Fool Court"

The prosecutor asserted that all the defendants had made long, public confessions in court and that these had been substantiated by the testimony of witnesses.

In denouncing the top four, he said: "With weeping and repenting they tried to fool the court."

This was a reference to the sobbing and crying of Ziapkov and Naumov when they recited their long public confessions.

Served The Germans

He also charged the main defendants "before the war served for German Hitlerite Fascist intelligence and after the war for American imperialism."

The prosecutor also contended that there had been "no restraints on the defendants," all of whom confessed publicly. He said the trial was "carried out with complete publicity in the presence of foreigners."

He accused all four of Bulgaria's Protestant churches of spreading anti-Russian rumors. These, he said, included stories about starvation in Russia and 15,000,000 people in slave labor there.

U.S. Writers Quoted

Angrily, he declared:

"As a national representative I have heard many rumors against the Soviet Union. But I never heard such nasty rumors as those spread by the Protestant churches and these are God-serving people. Only people who have sold their consciences could spread such rumors."

Attempting to paint a picture of the Soviet Union as a leading progressive nation, the prosecutor quoted from the writings of George Bernard Shaw and the American authors Howard Fast and Upton Sinclair.

NORWAY SITS IN ON TREATY TALKS

Denmark Expected to Take Part in Atlantic Pact Negotiations

E. BARFOED

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Mar. 4—(AP) Despite Russian pressure, Denmark and Norway today placed their hopes for security in the projected North Atlantic alliance.

The Norwegian government officially joined the Atlantic Pact negotiations in Washington after rejecting a Russian bid for a non-aggression treaty designed to tie Norway to the east.

Denmark is sending Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen to Washington Tuesday. A government communique said he will seek "the best possible basis for Denmark's final attitude" toward the proposed Atlantic accord.

Danes Seen Choosing West

Although the announcement did not so specify, diplomatic informants here said the Danish government's decision means that Denmark finally has chosen the west. Norway followed a similar procedure, sending her foreign minister, Halvard M. Lange, for exploratory talks with state department officials in Washington last month.

For the time being, Sweden stood alone in shunning the talks. However, high diplomatic sources in Oslo have predicted that Sweden will join up with the west in six months, or sooner, if Russia makes a move toward Finland. Sweden tried and failed to have the other Scandinavian nations join her in a defense agreement of their own.

The swing of Denmark and Norway produced the expected press reaction in Russia. The newspaper Evening Moscow blasted the "ruling circles" of the Scandinavian nations as "traitorous."

Criticizing Norway particularly for rejecting Russia's offer of a non-aggression treaty, the newspaper said:

"These peaceful acts of the U.S.S.R. government in relation to Norway are met with bayonets by the reactionary ruling circles in the United States and Britain and their hirelings in Scandinavia."

Norse, Danes Brave Soviet Ire Over Pact

Oslo, Norway, March 4 (AP)—Two Scandinavian nations braved Russian ire today by indicating a will to join the projected North Atlantic defense alliance.

Norway rejected a Soviet offer of a nonaggression pact and decided to join the Atlantic talks in Washington.

Denmark is sending Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen to Washington Tuesday, and a Copenhagen communiqué today said he will seek "the best possible basis for Denmark's final attitude" toward the alliance.

Danes Send Word To U.S.

Rasmussen's visit to the United States will have the same purpose as Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange's talks with State Department officials last month, Danish informants said.

The communiqué added that the Danish Ambassador in Washington had been instructed to inform the United States Government of this latest step taken by Denmark.

A Copenhagen diplomatic informant commented:

"Denmark is following Norway's course and no doubt remains that she will end up in the same place—along with Norway and the Western union powers in the North Atlantic defense pact."

MAR 5 1949

Sweden's Entry Predicted

Sweden, for the time being, stood alone in shunning the talks. But high diplomatic sources here have predicted Sweden will join up in six months, or sooner, if Russia should make a move toward Finland. Sweden tried and failed to have the Scandinavian nations join a defense agreement of their own.

Russ Also Hit Swedish Plan

In Russia the newspaper Evening Moscow blasted the "ruling circles" of the Scandinavian nations as "traitorous." Commentator Nikolai Yastrebov declared the Norwegian Government was "exhibiting special zeal" in aiding the plans of the British and American organizers of the pact.

The Moscow commentator also denounced Sweden's Scandinavian union plan as one of "reactionaries."

Referring to the Soviet Union's offer of a nonaggression pact to Norway, the newspaper said: "These peaceful acts of the U.S.S.R. Government in relation to Norway are met with bayonets by the reactionary ruling circles of the United States and Britain and their hirelings in Scandinavia."

With Norway's decision already made, her Parliament began a wordy discussion of the Norwegian attitude toward the projected Atlantic pact. The discussion was a formality aimed at giving the opposition a chance to get their ideas on public record.

Norse Vote Is 118 To 11

A secret meeting of Parliament last night voted, 118 to 11, with only the Communists opposing, to accept the American invitation to join the alliance talks in Washington at once. Ambassador Wilhelm de Munthe Morgenstierne is ready to take part in tonight's session in Washington on the drafting of the alliance.

Terje Wold, chairman of the special foreign affairs committee, from which the Communists are excluded, said Norway has not yet undertaken any obligations but has resolved only to take part in the talks. Any pact which evolves from the talks must be ratified by Parliament if Norway's Government decides to join up.

Norway Rejects Russ Pact

Norway has handed a note to Russia rejecting the Soviet offer of a nonaggression pact. Premier Einar Gerhardsen told Parliament he regretted that the Soviet Union is working against the recovery of western Europe. He added:

"This, and the fact that Communists outside the Soviet Union are striving to hamper reconstruction, is one of the greatest tragedies of our time."

The note handed the Soviet Embassy said a nonaggression pact with Russia was unnecessary because both she and Russia were members of the United Nations, and thus pledged to refrain from the use of force against each other.

Tries To Reassure Russia

Norway expressed a desire to maintain warm "good neighbor relations" with Russia.

The Norwegian Government declared "most categorically that it neither will take part in a policy which has aggressive aims, nor will it grant bases for foreign military forces on Norwegian territory as long as Norway is not attacked or subjected to threats of attack." It promised in no instance will the Government decide from "loose and provocatory rumors" whether there is a threat of an attack.

"Facts alone" will decide what defense steps should be taken, said the note. "It is self evident that such appraisal rests solely with hte Norwegian Government."

Russia had proposed a nonaggression pact with Norway as a proof of its peaceful intentions, and had warned Norway not to join the North Atlantic alliance with the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The warning pointed out that Norway has a common frontier with Russia.

SOVIETS SCARE NORWEGIANS IN ARCTIC SECTOR

Residents Of Finnmark Province Helpless Before Russians

(N)

MAR 5 1949

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Kirkenes, Norway, March 4 (AP)—Communist agitators are spreading fear among the scattered Norwegians who live in Arctic isolation near the Soviet border.

The campaign has this theme: Norway risks serious trouble with Russia by seeking military guarantees from the Western powers.

Many non-Communists in the Far North now are so alarmed by the situation that they decline to be seen publicly with foreigners from Western countries.

Defended By Ski Patrols

Fear grips the 50,000 Norwegians scattered over 18,000 square miles in the snowy wilderness beyond the Arctic Circle. These Norwegian pioneers do not lack individual courage, but they realize how helpless they would be before Russian guns.

Their homes in isolated Finnmark province are defended by only a few Norwegian army ski patrols. The frontier with Russia is 122 miles long. Less than one Norwegian soldier per mile is on guard.

Kirkenes, the chief industrial community on Norway's Arctic coast, is only 4 land miles from Russia. But it is 1,100 air miles from Oslo, Norway's capital. It is even farther by sea.

Preying on memories of the Nazis' wartime occupation, the Communists urge Norwegian workers to join the Communist party "before it's too late." They hint that only Communists will be spared rough treatment if Russian troops, in "self defense," move into northern Norway this year.

Fear Of Communist Blacklist

Demoralizing as this agitation is, the Communists go about their tasks unmolested by police. Because of a fear of a Communist blacklist, authorities here treat Gotfried Hoelvold, the region's No. 1 Communist, with utmost consideration.

He edits a Communist newspaper, the only paper published in Kirkenes, is a town councilman and acts as official interpreter for the Norwegian army at occasional frontier parleys with the Soviet Army.

Hoelvold said in an interview:

"I cannot say yet whether the Soviet Union will consider itself seriously endangered by American intrigue in Norway and act accordingly, as it did when Finnish reactionaries built the Mannerheim line."

Norwegian Communists, he declared, "intend one day to follow Czechoslovakia's example and establish socialism regardless of Norwegian plutocrats."

The police chief of Kirkenes said he deeply regretted the publication abroad of the names of Communists in Finnmark suspected of spying for the Soviet army.

"It only increases our difficulties with Russia," he explained.

Communist agitators moving through fishing settlements, lumber camps and mining centers denounce the Norwegian Labor Government in Oslo as a "clique of imperialist quislings." They accuse labor party leaders of "preparing another ninth of April." That was the day in 1940 when Germany invaded Norway with the help of local Nazis.

Head Start For Russians

Despite this ominous atmosphere, it is the impression of this correspondent—formed after six days along the Russian frontier—that no armed adventure by the Soviet Army is now impending here.

Nothing in Arctic Norway conceivably menaces the Soviet Union. At this writing there is no reason to suppose that Norway will dare to try to convert Finnmark, with western help, into a military bastion like Alaska.

All the apparent odds are that Finnmark will remain as it is—a setup for Russian troops if they march westward. The Soviet Army does not have to start rolling now to win a race with the Allies for Finnmark. Geographically, the Russians always would have a big head-start.

No Rich Economic Booty

Although Norway has no iron-clad western guarantee of protection as yet, seizure of Finnmark might produce a violent reaction from the west. Finnmark offers no rich economic booty. It is relatively unimportant except for its strategic location, commanding the passage warmed by the Gulf stream between the Arctic and Atlantic oceans.

The rich iron ore mines at Kirkenes were wrecked by the war and will not be producing again before 1952. The required American machinery still has to be delivered around the North Cape. Elsewhere in Finnmark are fisheries and forests—of which the Soviet Union already has plenty.

It may be expected that the real defense of Finnmark in the future will not depend on the strength of any military bases here but on the general strength of the Western alliance in the rest of the world. If any part of Norway is to be strongly fortified by the Western allies, military logic appears to point to the southern part, not the remote north.

Units of a Russian division keep the frontier 4 miles from Kirkenes tightly sealed. Their only contact with the Norwegians is at ludicrously formal conferences held in a strip of no man's land 12 feet wide beside ice-covered Girls' Lake.

Norwegian Envoy Hails Pact Aims And Red Arm

New York, March 4 (AP)—Norway's Ambassador tonight praised both the "absolutely peaceful" aims of the proposed Atlantic pact and the "glorious Red Army which was the first to liberate a part of Norwegian soil."

Ambassador Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne told the Overseas Press Club in a prepared speech that talks with Sweden and Denmark toward a Scandinavian pact, produced no results because they did not believe they could defend themselves and Sweden decided to continue her neutrality policy.

But Norway, he said, "today does not believe that 'neutrality' has any relation to the facts of life."

Therefore, he said, it was "natural" for her to join with other Atlantic nations.

Saying his country was "eternally grateful" for the assistance of England, the United States and Russia during the war, he said Norway has never had any "serious divergencies of any kind" with Russia.

Two Polish Priests Doomed In Killings

Warsaw, Poland, March 4 (AP)—A Polish military tribunal at Lodz today sentenced two Catholic priests to die for inciting an underground band to kill supporters of the Warsaw Communist Government.

Those condemned were the Rev. Waclaw Ortotowski and the Rev. Marian Losos.

Another priest, the Rev. Stafan Farys, was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment.

Jan Malolepszy, accused of being the leader of the "Polish Conspiracy Army," was sentenced to death.

More Daring Posts Ordered For Russians

Moscow, March 3 (AP)—The central committee of the Communist party today ordered all party, Government, trade union and youth organizations to advance women to leading posts in "more daring" fashion.

It also ordered that the utmost be done to improve the working and living conditions of women, and that "all assistance" be extended women in bringing up the younger generation.

The special decree was issued in connection with International Women's Day, March 8.

The central committee said there are 280,000 Soviet women who are engineers, foremen and technicians, and that 44 per cent of all specialists with a completed higher education in the Soviet Union are women.

It said 2,500,000 have been awarded the order of "Glory of Motherhood" and the "Medal of Motherhood," while 28,500 mothers have been given the highest award, "Mother Heroine."

ATMOSPHERE COLD AT RHODES PARLEY

Opening of Talks Between Transjordan, Israel Omits Formal Greetings (N)

RHODES, March 4 (AP)—Israel and Transjordan began armistice talks today in a chilly atmosphere that precluded even the formal introduction of the members of the two delegations to each other.

So frigid was the fourteen-minute session in the Yellow Room of the Hotel Des Roses that the Israeli delegation said the "negotiations caanot go on" unless a more cordial attitude developed. The head of the Transjordanian delegation was reported to have snubbed his Israeli counterpart. Later the Transjordanian representative apologized to Israeli delegate Reuben Shiloah, saying that no snub had been intended.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations Mediator for Palestine, was made chairman of the talks. The announcement said that an agenda was approved and both delegations had presented their credentials. The agenda, phrased in general terms, made no specific mention of demarcation lines or the withdrawal or reduction of forces.

Dr. Bunche was the only person to speak at today's session, which was closed to reporters. He said:

"The two parties already have taken a voluntary first step toward peace in the form of a cease-fire agreement in the Jerusalem area, which you voluntarily negotiated and entered into Nov. 30, 1948.

"You have also, through direct negotiations, arranged for and carried out an exchange of prisoners of war. The step you now are called upon to take, the conclusion of an armistice agreement, is a much bigger one, but the direction is the same."

Referring to the experience gained during the Egytian-Israeli talks, Dr. Bunche added: "I see no reason why the negotiations in which you now are engaged should not be successfully concluded in a much shorter time."

That optimistic view was not shared by many Middle East observers. They stated that the current talks might be long drawn out because a final decision on the issues must come from Amman rather than from the Transjordanian delegatio here, and issues involving British policy would, in turn, be referred by Amman to London as Britain and Transjordan were linked by treaty.

Transjordan's military position is quite different from that of Egypt. Israel defeated the Egyptian Army in the field. Transjordan's Arab Legion and the Israeli Army, on the other hand, fought each other to a standstill.

Considerable concern has been voiced in Tel Aviv over reports that Transjordan would ask for access to the Mediterranean through the port of Jaffa and for Arab possession of Beersheba. Israel, on the other hand, wants Transjordanian troops to evacuate sections of Jerusalem and a release o the Arab grip on Latrun, astride the Tel Aviv-Jerusalem road.

Trans-Jordan, Israeli Talks Are 'Cool' (D)

Rhodes, March 4 (AP)—Israel and Trans-Jordan opened an armistice session today in a frigid atmosphere.

Palestine Mediator Ralph Bunche was unable to get the delegations to meet each other formally. The fourteen-minute session was so cool that the Israelis let it be known that "negotiations cannot go on" unless there is a change.

Closed To Press

The first meeting was closed to reporters.

The news blackout will be like that which prevailed at the successful Israeli-Egyptian talks.

Formal meetings of full delegations are expected to be relatively brief. Real agreements, if reached, likely will come in private conferences with Palestine Mediator Ralph Bunche.

No Objection

The Israeli delegation in both instances told reporters unofficially it had no objection to a liberal press policy. The Israelis agreed with the Egyptians earlier, and with Trans-Jordan now, that the press be excluded.

Trans-Jordan is one of the seven Arab League countries which vowed to destroy Israel when it was created from partitioned Palestine last May.

Both delegations have been here since Tuesday. A reliable United Nations source said Trans-Jordan has been stalling and would not agree until today on a formal opening of the conference. Even so, Maj Radi Bey el Hindawi took off unexpectedly for Amman by plane on an undisclosed mission. It was agreed generally that Hindawi returned to the Trans-Jordan capital to advise his Government on the position he expects the Israelis to take.

Iran Protests Russ Press Attacks

MAR 5 1949

Tehran, Iran, March 4 (AP)—Iran announced today she has protested to the Soviet Embassy here against Russian radio and press attacks.

The Iranian note referred specifically to:

1. Russian allegations that the United States Military Mission had turned Iran into a military base against the Soviet Union.
2. Russian accusations that Iranian authorities are foreign agents.
3. Soviet criticism of recent banning of the left-wing Tudeh (Masses) party in Iran, after an attempt on the life of the Shah by a Tudeh member.

Strike Order Aims To Bar Rifle Snatching

Bombay, India, March 4 (AP)—Bombay's Government, laying anti-sabotage plans in anticipation of a Communist-led rail strike March 9, is taking no chances.

Constables, the Government announced today, will be kept in groups—to insure that their rifles won't be snatched away.

Burmese Rebels Attack Rail Town

MAR 5 1949

Rangoon, March 4 (AP)—A Burmese communiqué said Karen rebels and Communists attacked the railtown of Nyaunglebin, 90 miles north of Rangoon, again today. The report said the attackers were driven off by Government shelling and suffered 30 dead.

Independent sources said 500 Karens and Communists took part in the attack. The rebels occupied Nyaunglebin for a short time yesterday. Government sources said the Burmese air force twice bombed Karen positions today in the battle-scarred town of Insein, 10 miles north of Rangoon.

death in 1947 of King Ananda Mahidol, first believed to have been an accident but later termed murder.

Two household servants and a former secretary have been charged with the slaying. The trial has been postponed many times and now is scheduled to be transferred to Switzerland in April to permit testimony of King Phumiphon Audulet, who is a student there.

U.S. Sailor Says Foreign Legion Forced Him In (P)

Listed as Navy Deserter for 19 Months, He Reaches Canton From Indo-China

CANTON, China, March 4 (AP).—An American Navy man who disappeared in the Mediterranean nineteen months ago reported today he was forced into the French Foreign Legion and carried to French Indo-China before he could escape.

[In Paris, a French Defense Ministry spokesman said the American had joined the Legion voluntarily and fled before the French could release him upon learning of his Navy status. The spokesman added: "We have so many people who want to get into the Legion these days that we don't have to shanghai any one."]

The seaman, James Patrick Ryan, twenty-four, of Huntingdon, Pa., declared in an interview he was one of several Americans held against their will in the Foreign Legion.

Placed in Hospital

The American Consul placed him in a Canton hospital for treatment of jungle ulcers and malnutrition suffered in his five-month flight from Indo-China.

Ryan said he missed his ship, the destroyer Harlan R. Dickson, at San Remo, Italy, July 2, 1947.

Four Siamese Slain While Held By Police

Bangkok, Siam, March 4 (AP)—Four former Government leaders were shot to death today while in police custody.

Police announced that the four, who were arrested in the investigation of last week end's abortive uprising, were shot while attempting to escape.

Earlier two other suspected plotters were killed, allegedly while resisting arrest.

Underground Roles

All were prominent in the anti-Japanese underground during the war.

Those slain today were Dr. Thongplaev Cholophum, former Deputy Finance Minister; Thongin Bhuribhad, former Minister of Industry; Chamrong Daoruang, former Deputy Commerce Minister, and Thawin Udon, former member of the House of Elders.

Thongin and Thawin were defense counsel in the case of the Shanghaied Into French Foreign Legion, U.S. Navy Man Says

Canton, China, March 4 (AP)—James Patrick Ryan, 24, United States Navy sailor missing for nineteen months from his ship in the Mediterranean, today charged he was shanghaied into the French Foreign Legion.

Ryan, who gave his home-town as Huntington, Pa., said he was brought halfway around the world to fight the Viet Nams in Indo-China before be managed to escape. He said it took him five months on foot and by river boat to reach Canton. He was being treated at a hospital for malnutrition and jungle ulcers on orders from the American consul.

One Of Several

The American charged he was one of several Americans being held against their will in the French Foreign Legion.

Ryan said he was a seaman aboard the U.S.S. Dickson. He missed the ship at San Remo, Italy, on July 2, 1947, he said. The sailor said he hoped to catch it at Nice, France, and rushed there only to be picked up by French Foreign Legion military police and questioned.

"I spoke no French and they no English," he said. "So we talked in German which I picked up during the war.

"That was my mistake," Ryan continued. "They refused to believe I was an American and threw me in a military jail."

Wrote Ambassador

The American said he wrote several letters to the United States Ambassador in Paris but received no replies.

"I was guarded 24 hours a day," he said.

Two weeks later, he went on, he was taken to the Foreign Legion replacement depot at Marseilles and kept in irons. He asserted that when he refused to sign enlistment papers he was sent to Fort Nicholas prison. There, he said, his Navy uniform was taken, his head was shaved and he was issued Legion clothing. Then, he said, he was sent to North Africa.

Conditions "Terrible"

At Sidi Bel Abbes, the main Legion replacement center in North Africa, Ryan said, he was accused by French Secret Service men of being either a German o. a foreign agent. He said the French again tried to force him to sign enlistment papers.

"They put me in a cell with about two dozen other fellows to think it over," Ryan related. "Conditions were terrible. The men with me were of all nationalities, caught just like me."

He said once he managed to contact the American Legation in Tangiers by mail from a legion post in Morocco. The legation, he said, told him by letter that he would be released in about two weeks. But before his release could be effected, Ryan said, the French shipped him off to a post deep in the Sahara, where he trained as a paratrooper.

Tells Of Beatings

"There was no chance to escape," Ryan said. "After a week in the desert you would be done for. If the heat didn't get you the Arabs would. They got $5 and a new overcoat for handing you over to the French."

After training, Ryan said he was shipped to Singapore and saw one of his own ships as he passed through the Suez Canal on the way. He said he was beaten several times for trying to smuggle letters out.

Ryan said he was sent to Indo-China at a post near the Chinese border.

"We were attacked every night by the Viet-Namese," Ryan said. "Seven of us planned to escape.

Feared Beheading

"Finally, on October 10, 1948, I was put on night guard. Four of my friends backed out of the escape plan. They knew if they were caught by either side it meant they would be beheaded."

Ryan said he and two others, a Czech and a German (both now in a Canton jail), made a dash through the jungle for the Chinese border. After narrow escapes and getting lost, they finally made their way into China.

Chinese customs men picked them up, Ryan said, and told them: "You are very lucky, only one man got out before you in the past year."

Upon their arrival here the Czech and German were jailed pending further inquiry into their strange tale.

United States naval authorities here have issued instructions that Ryan be turned over to the commander of the United States Navy in the Philippines as soon as practicable. The Navy has Ryan listed as a deserter.

Ryan Voluntarily Joined, French Say

Paris, March 4 (AP)—The National Defense Ministry said today that James Patrick Ryan, American sailor, joined the Foreign Legion voluntarily.

Ryan alleged in Canton today that he was shanghaied into the Legion.

A spokesman said Ryan arrived in Nice without a passport or other papers and that someone seems to have suggested that he join the Legion.

While Ryan was training as a parachutist in Africa, the French learned of his United States Navy status and decided to release him. He was transferred to Indo-China, however, and fled before his record caught up with him, according to French records.

The official added:

"We have so many people who want to get into the Legion these days that we don't have to shanghai anyone."

Legislative Yuan Blasts Premier As It Meets

Nanking, March 4 (AP)—The Legislative Yuan convened today for its first working meeting of this session in an atmosphere distinctly hostile to Premier Sun Fo.

Twelve members immediately demanded that the Premier comply with the seven decrees on protection of constitutional rights promulgated by Acting President Li Tsung-jen. They attacked Sun's Government for failure to implement these measures.

A majority resolution criticized the Premier for failure to enforce those decrees, including the prohibition of illegal arrests, abolition of the secret service and the release of political prisoners.

Canton Decision Denounced

The legislators rejected by acclamation a formal request that the Chinese Legislature meet in South China. Several members denounced the Cabinet's decision to transfer its functions to Canton.

Legislative Yuan President Tung Kuang-sheng announced that Sun may appear Tuesday to deliver his administrative report. A Cabinet meeting today began drafting the report.

Li Li-san, the Chinese Communist who assertedly broke with Red Leader Mao Tze-tung several years ago and fled to Moscow, was reported in Peiping to confer with Mao and other Chinese Communist policy makers on peace proposals.

Nationalist Chiefs Confer

Virtually all of the active Nationalist Government leaders were in Nanking to confer with President Li. Premier Sun is the chairman of the ten-man committee drafting the proposals to the Reds.

It was learned authoritatively that the committee had agreed on four points: (1) That the present constitution may be revised, even changed radically if the Reds insist; (2) that the Communists should moderate their request for the surrender of war criminals; (3) possible dissolution of the present National Assembly and Legislative Yuan if the Reds press for it; (4) reorganization of China's armies.

The Women: Men In Japan Are Pursued

Tokyo, March 4 (AP)—Along with the new look, which some Japanese women have adopted, many have adopted a new outlook on life.

Instead of the meek, mild little wren who came at the male's beck and call, Japanese women today are growing aggressive.

In fact, this aggressiveness has a lot of males worried—particularly those of a marriageable age.

The war left Japan short of men. Husband-hunting Japanese women have taken to pursuing men of their choice, whether they are married or not. Husband snatching is becoming common. The new tactics have the men puzzled.

Eligible bachelors are reluctant to head for the altar. There are many reasons for this—the housing shortage, the high cost of living and the high cost of the marriage ceremony itself.

It costs 10,000 yen (about $29) for only a routine wedding.

Japan Slates 15 Million In Shipbuilding Fees

Tokyo, March 4 (AP)—Japan hopes to collect $15,000,000 in fees in the next eighteen months for building ships for Norway, Denmark and Russia, General MacArthur's headquarters reported today.

A report from the industry division said Japan's shipbuilding industry will turn out 395 tugs and barges for Russia, an 18,000-ton oil tanker and six whaling ships for Norwegian interests and a 17,000-ton tanker and three 5,000-ton cargo vessels for Danish accounts.

Mexico City, March 4 (A. P.).—The World Radio Conference has decided to continue working at least another week. The conference, convened here last October 22, is charged with drawing up a plan to share the eight overcrowded shortwave broadcast bands between six and twenty-six megacycles.

Delegates learned that the conference had cost the sixty-five participating countries $670,000 to date.

ARGUMENTS BEGIN MONDAY IN TRIAL OF 'AXIS SALLY'

WASHINGTON, March 4—(AP) A star defense witness, flown here from Germany, was rejected by defense counsel today as the six-weeks-old treason trial of Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars drew near the end.

Final arguments will begin Monday. The case is expected to go to the jury late Tuesday or Wednesday.

The 48-year-old defendant, a native of Portland, Maine, faces a possible maximum sentence of death in the electric chair if convicted.

The last witness, Johannes Schmidt-Hansen, a wartime Nazi radio official, had been billed by Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin for a stellar role in supporting Miss Gillars' contention that she broadcast for the Germans only in fear of her life.

Defense Rejects Witness

But in a bench conference as the trial reconvened, Laughlin protested to Judge Edward M. Curran that his "star witness" had been taken to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and required to sign a statement before Laughlin was permitted to see him this morning.

As a result, Laughlin said, Schmidt-Hansen had lost all value as a defense witness.

The trial had been held up pending Schmidt-Hansen's arrival by plane from Germany.

In a surprise move, Chief Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., then called Schmidt-Hansen to the witness stand to question him on Miss Gillars' testimony that she had been forced to take a wartime oath of allegiance to Germany.

Miss Gillars had told the federal court jury that Schmidt-Hansen, her boss on the Nazi radio, warned her that she was "in danger" and directed her to swear loyalty to Hitler's Germany or risk the consequences.

This occurred, she testified, after she denounced the Japanese as "yellow monkeys" when she heard of Japan's sneak attack on Pearl Harbor. She said she gave Schmidt-

Hansen a signed oath of allegiance on Dec. 9, 1941, explaining that she did so "in order to live."

Today, Schmidt-Hansen said he had no recollection of any such incident.

Under cross-examination, however, he said he thought it was a matter of routine policy to require an oath of allegiance from an alien working for the German radio.

MEDINA DENIES REDS' CHALLENGE OF JURY SYSTEM

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today denied the plea of 11 U.S. communist officials that the federal jury system here is loaded against them.

At the same time, he rejected motions to dismsis the conspiracy indictments against the 11 men who comprise the high command of the Communist Party in the United States. They are charged with conspiracy to advocate the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Trial Starts Monday

The rulings cleared the way for the actual trial to begin Monday. Selection of a jury is scheduled to start then.

Judge Medina had foreshadowed his decision on the defense attack against the jury system by announcing a week ago that the trial on the indictment would start March 7.

In his 31-page opinion on the jury system challenge, the judge held that "not only have defendants failed to prove this charge but the evidence, largely adduced by them, conclusively refutes it."

The seven-week-old trial has been devoted almost entirely to the assault by attorneys for the communists on the method of selecting jurors in the southern New York district. Thus the defense assumed the role of prosecutor and the government has been defending the jury system.

Counsel for the communists maintained that jury panels here largely consist of wealthy persons and executives and that persons of low income, laborers, negroes, jews and women are discriminated against.

Based on this argument, they asked that the case against their clients be thrown out since members of the grand jury who returned the indictments were selected by discriminatory methods.

But Medina said the voluminous masses of material introduced in evidence by the defense itself, "when viewed in their entirety, x x x seem to me to establish beyond peradventure of doubt that no such deliberate, wilful and planned discrimination and exclusion x x x existed at any time in this district.

"The evidence shows that in no instance was any inquiry or investigation made of any particular individual or groups of individuals by anyone connected with the jury clerk's office before sending out the notices to appear for qualification.

The judge declared that jury notices went to many working people, Negroes and others who the defense claims were largely shunted aside.

Medina said that "had any such iniquitous system as that alleged by defendants been in force for such a long period as that from 1940 to 1949, or indeed for any substantial period, its existence would necessarily have been widely known and it is hard to believe that a storm of protest would not have arisen and immediate steps been taken to uproot such intolerance and discrimination.

"Of all places in the United States, it seems to me that New York city would be the one least likely to permit such a system to flourish in its midst. The challenge is overruled; the motions are in all respects denied."

The presiding judge repeatedly accused the defense attorneys of stalling and finally said they were seeking wilfully to sabotage the administration of justice.

Soviets Are Deaf To Repatriation Note Of U.S.

Washington, March 4 (AP)—The United States has run into a wall of silence in its efforts to learn the fate of some 2,000 persons in Russia who have a claim to American citizenship.

Diplomatic authorities said today many hundreds of these people may have been forced for several years now to work in Russian camps as virtual slave labor.

Most of them fell into Soviet hands during the war as the Red Army advanced across eastern Europe. The citizenship status of many is in dispute.

Silent Treatment

The American Embassy in Moscow yesterday delivered to Foreign Minister Molotov an official statement of United States displeasure with the silent treatment given all appeals to do something for these people.

The note was sent in connection with the American-Russian argument over the ouster of the Soviet reparations mission from Frankfurt.

Commenting that Molotov had declared on February 24 that the Russians had lived up to all their repatriation agreements, the State Department had this to say:

"The Soviet Government is aware of this Government's profound dissatisfaction with the progress of the repatriation of American citizens within the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as a result of the many communications addressed to the Minister by the American Ambassador at Moscow to which no adequate response has been made."

Fall Into Three Groups

The persons affected were described as falling into three groups: Those who are straight-out American citizens; those who hold citizenship in both the United States and in one of the Russian satellite countries, and those Russian-Americans who may be claimed as citizens by both countries.

The United States may now make a major issue of the matter either in the United Nations or by direct appeal to world public opinion.

Russ To Cut Ore, Importers Told

Washington, March 4 (AP)—Government officials said today the Soviet export agency has given private United States importers "fairly definite" word that Russia is going to make sharp cuts in shipments of two war-vital metals to this country.

The Soviet agency, Soyuz Prom Export, has hinted at a 90 per cent slash in shipments of manganese and a 40 per cent cut in chrome ore. It has not said when it would begin, according to "informal" reports from importers. The metals are used in hardening steel.

Pressure Surmised

The absence of specific dates or schedules for the cutdown led United States officials to surmise that Russia might be using the threat as pressure to get an easing of the year-old ban on United States shipments of industrial goods to the Soviet.

The Russian agency, however, tied the cutback threat to explanations that the Soviet needs to keep more of its supplies for domestic use.

There had been recurrent reports in trade circles before that a cutback in Russian manganese and chrome shipments was impending, although the Russians last fall signed contracts for deliveries about equal to those of 1948.

Reports Had Abated

These reports, however, had abated as current deliveries continued to come through in full scale. In late January, Eugene Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel, said publicly he saw no evidence the Russians would not deliver on their contracts.

New reports from importers, however, have taken a more concrete tone, said Government officials familiar with the trade situation.

United States orders for 1949, much in line with 1948 deliveries, called for about 400,000 tons of manganese and around 150,000 tons of chrome ore from Russia.

Naturalized Red Curb Studied

Washington, March 4 (AP)—Representative Walter (D., Pa.), today said he is working on a bill to cancel citizenship of Communist party members who became naturalized Americans.

Walter said he is interested also in taking steps against party members who are American born, but that that would be difficult.

Apparently his bill would not apply to William Z. Foster and Eugene Dennis, party leaders President Truman branded as "traitors."

Truman's Reaction

Foster is head of the American Communist party and Dennis is secretary. They said in New York Wednesday that they would work against what they called the "war aims of American imperialism" in the event of another conflict.

Asked for his reaction, Mr. Truman remarked for direct quotation: "I have no comment on any statements made by traitors."

The Foster-Dennis statement, following a pattern adopted by Communist leaders in Britain, France and Italy, stirred up proposals for new steps to combat communism.

Plans "Stringent" Curbs

Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) of the Un-American Activities Committee, said he is going to name a subcommittee to draft "stringent" measures against what he called the Communist "conspiracy."

Walter is the second ranking Democrat on the committee and is likely choice for the subcommittee chairmanship. He also is chairman of the Democratic caucus.

Committee officials said Foster and Dennis were born in this country and are American citizens. But they said Walter's proposal to "denaturalize" Reds would catch "quite a few of the major officers" of the party.

Deportation Studied

Walter is considering a provision to permit deportation of those whose citizenship would be revoked.

Like Representative Wood, Senator Eastland (D., Miss.) labelled it a "conspiracy," and Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) backed up Wood's move for legislation.

"Congress ought to make it a legal offense," Lodge said in referring to the statement.

Area Off Florida Asked For Secret Air Research

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 4—The armed services have asked for an area off the east coast of Florida in the vicinity of Banana River for secret air research. No details were released, but an Air Force official said the three services "plan a research program requiring aerial activity."

He said no experience involving atomic energy were planned, but said the type of testing was secret. Only aerial activity of the Army is in the guided missile field, conducted by Army ordnance.

A bill now before the House Rules Committee asks authority for the Air Force to begin work on a new guided missile area that eventually would cost $200,000,000. The Air Force told Congress it needed a longer guided missile proving area than the 150-mile one it has at White Sands, N. M. Air Force experts said they planned to fire missiles of 500-mile range this year, and eventually would need a 3,000-mile range.

Names Of 5,200 Cleared By Army Discharge Review

Washington, March 4 (AP)—The Army has cleared the names of 5,200 World War II veterans who were dishonorably discharged.

But it has declined to erase such discharges for the remainder of 24,000 ex-service men whose cases have been reviewed.

This was disclosed today by Brig. Gen. W. W. Irvine, president of the Army Discharge Review Board, at the American Legion rehabilitation conference.

Irvine said 1,500 of the 5,200 who had their discharges raised from one of the three unsatisfactory grades to "honorable discharge" or "discharge under honorable conditions" didn't even have to make an appeal.

Their cases were reviewed and previous errors corrected through screening by the Army, Irvine said.

'S.O.B.' Called Human Lapse

Catholic Review Says Americans Should Be Able to Forgive a Little Vehemence.

Baltimore, March 4 (A. P.).—The Catholic Review, official organ of the archdioceses of Baltimore and Washington, has this to say about President Truman's recent "S. O. B." remark:

"When President Truman shocked so many sensitive souls by a lapse from his accustomed diction and dignity, he was just being guilty of a fairly common human failing.

"Our Chief Executive is not lacking in elegance and eloquence, nor is he without that simple dignity that becomes his high station. A lapse is always regrettable.

"But if it marks a return to straight thinking and talking in the White House, Americans should be able to forgive a little vehemence from one whose known kindness and consideration for others makes it evidently a slip of the tongue, not a hardening of the heart."

U.S. Lets War Waif Join Negro Father

San Francisco, March 4 (AP)—The Immigration Department today speedily gave the green light to 5-year-old Geoffrey Joiner, bound from Australia to his father in Cleveland, James Trenon, former United States Navy sailor. Geoffrey has a seat reserved on a United Air Lines plane leaving tonight for Chicago, and should be in Cleveland tomorrow.

The hitch in Geoffrey's trip from a Sydney (Australia) children's home developed when he arrived here yesterday. Irving J. Wixton, immigration director, said under United States laws Geoffrey bore the nationality of his mother, a white Australian, and not that of his Negro father, who served in that country during the war.

Wixon today received telephoned approval froc Washington to send Geoffrey along to his father.

U.N. COUNCIL BACKS BID FROM ISRAEL

Admission Virtually Certain When Assembly Meets

Lake Success, N.Y., March 4 (AP). Israel's application for membership in the United Nations was approved today by the Security Council. This made virtually certain her admission as the fifty-ninth United Nations member soon after the Assembly meets April 5.

The Council voted nine to one in favor of the application. The lone opposing vote was that of Egypt. Her delegate, Mahmoud Bey Fawzi, said his country and his delegation "wash their hands" of the Council's action.

British Delegate Abstains

Britain's delegate, Sir Terence Shone, abstained after telling the Council his Government wanted the Israeli Government to clear up its intentions regarding Jerusalem and the Arab refugees.

Shone said some Israeli officials had indicated that they would oppose the United Nations decision to internationalize Jerusalem. He said Britain would not use the veto to block the application now.

Last December, the Council failed to approve Israel's application, only five countries voting for it. France and China, which abstained in December, approved the bid today.

The other countries voting for Israel today were the United States, Argentina, Norway, Russia, the Ukraine, Canada and Cuba.

LONDON--SECOND ADD THIRD LEAD MOLOTOV X X X STALIN

ONE OF THE MEN OFTEN MENTIONED AS A LIKELY SUCCESSOR TO STALIN DIED LAST AUGUST. HE WAS A.A.ZHDANOV, A PRIME MOVER IN THE COMINFORM (COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU).

HE, ALONG WITH MOLOTOV AND L.P.BERIA, RUSSIAN SECURITY CHIEF, HAD BEEN MENTIONED FREQUENTLY AS THE THREE MOST LIKELY SUCCESSORS TO STALIN.

JUST BEFORE THE ANNOUNCEMENT LAST NIGHT OF MOLOTOV'S REPLACEMENT, THE MOSCOW RADIO SAID RUSSIA WANTS PEACE AND "UNSWERVINGLY CONDUCTS A POLICY OF COOPERATION AMONG ALL DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES, REGARDLESS OF THEIR INTERNAL SOCIAL SYSTEM."

THE BROADCAST SAID STALIN HAD POINTED OUT THE "ROAD TO PEACE AND SECURITY" IN REPLIES HE MADE EARLIER THIS YEAR TO AN AMERICAN NEWS CORRESPONDENT.

AT THAT TIME STALIN SAID HE HAD "NO OBJECTION" TO A MEETING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO DISCUSS A "PEACE PACT" BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION.

STALIN OFFERED TO MEET MR.TRUMAN IN RUSSIA, POLAND OR CZECHOSLOVAKIA, BUT HIS APPROACH WAS NOT MADE THROUGH OFFICIAL CHANNELS. THE WHITE HOUSE EXPLAINED THAT MR.TRUMAN WOULD BE WILLING TO MEET STALIN ANY TIME IN WASHINGTON.

AT THE SAME TIME MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE A.I.MIKOYAN WAS RELIEVED OF HIS DUTIES AND REPLACED BY M.A.MENSHIKOV.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY SAID:

"THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE U.S.S.R. HAS FREED DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, COMRADE V.M.MOLOTOV, FROM DUTIES AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND DESIGNATED AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMRADE A.Y.VISHINSKY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT SAY ANYTHING ABOUT WHAT JOBS HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN. VISHINSKY HAD BEEN MOLOTOV'S DEPUTY AND MENSHIKOV HAD BEEN DEPUTY TO MIKOYAN.

ONLY TWO DAYS AGO MIKOYAN APPEARED AT A MOSCOW RAILWAY STATION WELCOMING A NORTHERN KOREAN GOVERNMENT DELEGATION TO THE SOVIET CAPITAL.

PHOTOGRAPHS IN YESTERDAY'S NEWSPAPERS SHOWED MIKOYAN GREETING THE KOREANS.

ANNOUNCEMENTS CONCERNING APPOINTMENTS OF HIGH SOVIET OFFICIALS USUALLY ARE ACCOMPANIED BY ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE JOBS ASSIGNED TO THEIR PREDECESSORS. IF THE ANNOUNCEMENTS ARE NOT MADE COINCIDENTALLY THEY USUALLY FOLLOW A SHORT TIME THEREAFTER.

LONDON, SATURDAY, MARCH 5-(AP)-THE FIRST BRITISH NEWSPAPER TO COMMENT ON RUSSIA'S CHANGE IN FOREIGN MINISTERS SAID TODAY IT WOULD NOT BE SURPRISING IF "A SHARP CHANGE OF DIRECTION" OF SOVIET POLICY WERE TO FOLLOW.

THE CONSERVATIVE YORKSHIRE POST MADE THIS FORECAST ON THE NEWS THAT V.M. MOLOTOV WAS BEEN REPLACED BY ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY. IT SAID THE LIKELY NATURE OF ANY NEW POLICY "CAN IN PART BE INFERRED FROM THE CHARACTER OF THE MEN CONCERNED."

THE POST SAID MOLOTOV IS "NOT A STRONG MAN" WHEREAS VISHINSKY IS "A MAN OF INVINCIBLE OBSTINACY."

"HE IS LIKELY TO PROVE MORE RIGID, NOT NECESSARILY A MORE IMAGINATIVE INSTRUMENT OF STALIN'S POLICY," THE NEWSPAPER CONTINUED. "IT WILL REQUIRE A GOOD DEAL OF OPTIMISM TO BELIEVE THE NEW COURSE WILL LEAD THE WORLD TOWARD MORE PEACEFUL TIMES."

UNDATED MOLOTOV

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

VYACHESLAV MIKHAILOVICH MOLOTOV, THE RETIRING SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER, NOW 58, IS ONE OF THE CHARTER MEMBERS OF RUSSIA'S REVOLUTIONARY HIERARCHY. HIS ADVANCEMENT TO TOP SPOTS IN THE SOVIET POLITICAL PICTURE WAS AS METEORIC AS THE PROGRESS OF THE SOVIET UNION ITSELF.

AT 15 HE BEGAN HIS REVOLUTIONARY CAREER. TWENTY-ONE YEARS LATER HE BECAME A FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER OF THE POWERFUL POLITBURO.

IN RECENT YEARS MOLOTOV CARRIED THE BALL FOR RUSSIA AT ALL MAJOR COUNCILS OF FOREIGN MINISTERS AND WAS REGARDED AS A STOLID AND IMPERTURBABLE PREACHER OF THE SOVIET PHILOSOPHY.

HE TOOK OVER THE POST OF FOREIGN COMMISSAR (LATER CHANGED TO FOREIGN MINISTER) ON MAY 31, 1939. IT WAS A TURNING POINT IN HISTORY.

HE ROSE TO LEADERSHIP IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS UPON THE DISMISSAL OF MAXIM LITVINOFF, THE MAN WHO NEGOTIATED UNITED STATES RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA IN 1933.

AT THE TIME MOLOTOV TOOK OVER, BRITAIN AND FRANCE, WITHOUT THE SOVIET UNION, HAD MADE WHAT THEY THOUGHT WAS A SETTLEMENT OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK QUESTION. THEY HAD REACHED AGREEMENT WITH ADOLF HITLER AND BENITO MUSSOLINI AT MUNICH.

ON AUG. 21 OF THAT YEAR (1939) MOLOTOV ROCKED THE WORLD BY SIGNING THE NOW-FAMOUS 10-YEAR NON-AGGRESSION PACT WITH THE GERMAN DICTATOR. JOACHIM VON RIBBINTROP, HITERL'S FOREIGN MINISTER, FLEW TO MOSCOW AND SIGNED THE PACT WITH

GERMAN DICTATOR. JOACHIM VON RIBBINTROP, HITLER'S FOREIGN MINISTER, FLEW TO MOSCOW AND SIGNED THE PACT WITH MOLOTOV ON AUG. 24.

THE FOLLOWING WEEK NAZI GERMANY LAUNCHED WORLD WAR II BY INVADING POLAND. MOLOTOV, THE BESPECTACLED, PROFESSORIAL, COMMUNIST ORATOR, WAS AT THE HELM OF RUSSIA'S FOREIGN MINISTRY FOR THE STRENUOUS SEVEN YEARS OF WAR.

DURING THE WAR YEARS, AND DURING THE POST-WAR PERIOD WHICH SAW THE ADVENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HE ACQUIRED A REPUTATION AMONG WESTERN DIPLOMATS OF BEING ONE OF THE MOST STUBBORN AND ENIGMATIC FIGURES THEY HAD MET. RARELY DID HE GIVE AN INCH IN DEBATE. NEVER DID HE VEER FROM THE RIGID SOVIET LINE. ALWAYS HE WAS POLITE BUT FIRM.

AT THE WAR'S END THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE CHANGED. NO LONGER WERE RUSSIA AND THE WEST THE FAST ALLIES THEY HAD BEEN DURING THE GLOBAL CONFLICT. HARDLY HAD THE BATTLES BEEN WON WHEN RUSSIA AND HER ALLIES IN EASTERN EUROPE BEGAN ACCUSING THE GREAT WESTERN POWERS OF IMPERIALIST WAR-MONGERING.

IN THIS PERIOD, MOLOTOV THE STUBBORN FIGHTER, THE OLD REVOLUTIONARY, PRESSED THE SOVIET CASE BEFORE THE COUNCILS OF THE WORLD. WITH A DEADPAN FACE, WITH AN AIR OF COMPLETE CONFIDENCE, HE ADHERED STRICTLY TO THE CHANGING POLITICAL LINE OF RED RUSSIA.

MAR 5 1949

SO NOTED WAS HE FOR THIS STUBBORNNESS THAT SEN. TOM CONNALLY OF TEXAS ONCE WAS MOVED TO ASK AT A PARIS CONFERENCE WHETHER THE STOCKY MOLOTOV COULD SAY 'YES' IN ANY LANGUAGE, INCLUDING RUSSIAN.

COLORLESS, ROUND-FACED AND UNEMOTIONAL, MOLOTOV ALWAYS COMMANDED RESPECT FROM HIS WESTERN COLLEAGUES, WHETHER IT BE AT MOSCOW, LONDON, PARIS, SAN FRANCISCO, NEW YORK, YALTA, POTSDAM, TEHRAN OR WASHINGTON. BUT DESPITE THIS NONE OF THE FOREIGN DIGNITARIES WITH WHOM HE DEALT EVER FELT THEY TRULY KNOW HIM. HE REMAINED THE DISTANT PERSONALITY, IN THE TRADITION OF THE KREMLIN, IN THE TRADITION OF THE MEN WHO FOLLOWED HIM INTO THE WORLD COUNCILS--THE VISHINSKYS AND GROMYKOS.

IT WAS GENERALLY AGREED BY THE MEN WHO ARUGUED WITH HIM THAT HE WAS FIRMLY BOUND TO INSTRUCTIONS LAID DOWN BY HIS COMRADES ON THE POLITBURO IN MOSCOW. AND WHATEVER WAS MOLOTOV'S ROLE IN THAT POWERFUL SOVIET GROUP, THERE WAS NO QUESTION OF HIS LOYALTY IN FOLLOWING THE PRE-AGREED LINE.

IN MOSCOW HE WAS SCARCELY KNOWN OUTSIDE INNER GOVERNMENTAL CIRCLES EXCEPT BY NAME. HIS APPEARANCE IS THAT OF AN ORDINARY CIVIL SERVANT. IN HIS DARK BUSINESS SUIT AND RIMLESS EYE-GLASSES HE FREQUENTLY PASSED UNRECOGNIZED AMONG THE MOSCOW'S MEN-IN-THE-STREET.

HIS GIVEN NAME AT BIRTH WAS SCRIABIN. MOLOTOV WAS THE LAST OF A LENGTHY LIST OF PSEUDONYMS HE TOOK IN HIS LONG CAREER AS A COMMUNIST REVOLUTIONARY. THIS LAST NAME HE TOOK, DERIVED FROM THE RUSSIAN WORD "MOLOT", MEANING HAMMER, WAS AN APPROPRIATE ONE FOR THIS EXPRESSIONLESS FIGHTER IN RUSSIA'S BATTLE AGAINST THE WEST IN THE CURRENT HISTORY OF THE WORLD.

THE STOLID, INDEFATIGABLE LITTLE MOLOTOV, IS MARRIED AND THE FATHER OF TWO DAUGHTERS.

UNDATED VISHINSKY

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, NAMED TO REPLACE V.M. MOLOTOV AS RUSSIA'S FOREIGN MINISTER, IS BEST KNOWN TO THE WESTERN WORLD FOR HIS VITRIOLIC ATTACKS ON COUNTRIES AND INDIVIDUALS OPPOSING THE SOVIET UNION. HE HAS JUST RECOVERED FROM A SERIOUS ILLNESS.

VISHINSKY HAS ATTENDED VIRTUALLY ALL THE IMPORTANT INTER-ALLIED AND UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCES SINCE 1945. HE WAS AT YALTA WHEN ROOSEVELT, STALIN AND CHURCHILL MET. LATER HE WAS AT POTSDAM AFTER PRESIDENT RUMAN HAD SUCCEEDED ROOSEVELT.

AT LAST YEAR'S U.N. SESSION IN PARIS, VISHINSKY IN A MANEUVER PROPOSED THAT THE BIG FIVE POWERS CUT THEIR ARMS BY A THIRD. HE DEMANDED THAT THE BERLIN BLOCKADE DEADLOCK GO TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS--A MOVE IN WHICH HE FAILED--AND LATER REJECTED A PLAN BY SIX NEUTRAL POWERS TO SOLVE THE BERLIN CRISIS.

ONE OF HIS "VISHINSKYISMS" AT THE PARIS MEETING WAS SHOUTED

AT AN AMERICAN DELEGATE IN THE 58-NATION POLITICAL COMMITTEE:
"YOU ARE PREPARING A PEARL HARBOR FOR THE SOVIET UNION, AREN'T YOU?"
VISHINSKY WAS A LONG-TIME REBEL AGAINST THE CZARIST REGIME. HE PARTICIPTED IN THE REVOLT OF 1905 AND SPENT A YEAR IN PRISON IN CONSEQUENCE. IN THE SOVIET DEMOCRATIC (LATER COMMUNIST) PARTY HE WAS A MEMBER OF OPE MENSHEVIK FACTION, WHICH ULTIMATELY LOST TO THE BOLSHEVIKS. DECPITE HIS EARLY IDENTIFICATION WITH THE LOSING GROUP, HIS RISE TO FAME APPARENTLY WAS NOT SERIOUSLY HAMPERED.
HE TOOK PART IN THE FIGHTING WHICH FOLLOWED THE OCTOBER REVOLUTION IN 1917, LEADING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMUNIST REGIME.
IT WAS AS THE DREADED PROSECUTOR IN THE MOSCOW PURGE TRIALS OF 1936 AND 1937 THAT VISHINSKY FIRST ATTRACTED WORLD ATTENTION. AS THE RESULT OF HIS SPIRITIED PROSECUTION, MORE THAN A DOZEN OF THE EARLY REVOLUTIONISTS WHO HAD FOUGHT AT LENIN'S SIDE WERE CONDEMNED.
EVEN BEFORE THESE TRIALS VISHINSKY HAD BEEN ONE OF THE LEADING LAWYERS IN THE U.S.S.R. HE GRADUATED FROM THE COLLEGE OF LAW AT KIEV UNIVERSITY IN 1902 AND HAS BEEN A PROFESSOR OF JURISPRUDENCE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MOSCOW. A HISTORY OF RUSSIAN LAW WHICH HE WROTE HAS JUST BEEN PUBLISHED IN ENGLISH IN THE UNITED STATES.
WHEN RUSSIA WAS CHARGED BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS IN LONDON IN JANUARY, 1946, WITH FAILURE TO EVACUATE IRAN ON SCHEDULE AND BRINGING PRESSURE FOR OIL CONCESSIONS IN THAT COUNTRY, VISHINSKY COUNTERED WITH A BITTER ATTACK ON BRITISH POLICIES IN GREECE.
WHEN THE GENERAL ASSEMELY MET IN NEW YORK IN SEPTEMBER, 1947, VISHINSKY DELIVERED A 92-MINUTE ATTACK ON THE U.S. FOREIGN POLICY, DENOUNCING THE MARSHALL PLAN AND CALLING SEVERAL LEADING AMERICANS "WARMONGERS."

PREVIOUS TO THAT HE HAD SIGNED AT CAIRO, A TRADE PACT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND EGYPT, THE FIRST AGREEMENT EVER SIGNED BY THE TWO COUNTRIES. THE AGREEMENT PROVIDED FOR BARTER OF RUSSIAN GRAINS FOR EGYPTIAN COTTON.
IN 1945 MENSHIKOV TOOK A PROMINENT PART IN THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND REHABITATION ASSOCIATION. AS A DEPUTY DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF UNRRA, MENSHIKOV HEADED A RELIEF DELEGATION TO POLAND.
MIKOYAN WAS AN INTELLECTUAL WITH A SHARP EYE FOR THE RUBLE AND CONSIDERED HIGH IN THE RUNNING FOR PRIME MINISTER STALIN'S POSITION. WHAT THE NEW SHIFT WILL MEAN TO MIKOYAN'S FORTUNES IS ANYBODY'S GUESS. NO NEW JOB WAS ANNOUNCED FOR HIM.
WHILE CHANGING POLICIES, THE SOVIET UNION SOMETIMES PUTS LEADERS IN THE BACKGROUND FOR AWHILE.
MIKOYAN ONCE CAME TO THE UNITED STATES TO STUDY AMERICAN METHODS AND RETURNED TO THE SOVIET UNION TO INTRODUCE FROZEN FOODS, CELLOPHANE WRAPPING, GRAPEFRUIT JUICES AND CORNFLAKES.

UNDATED MOLOTOV COMMENT (400)
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
GOVERNMENT LEADERS AND DIPLOMATS THE WORLD OVER HEARD LAST (FRI) NIGHT THAT V.M.MOLOTOV HAS BEEN REPLACED AS SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER BY FIERY ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY AND ASKED: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?
MANY SUGGESTED THERE MIGHT BE A CHANGE IN RUSSIAN POLICY BUT OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON, THE UNITED NATIONS AND LONDON COULD NOT AGREE ON WHETHER IT MEANT A HARDENING OR SOFTENING OF THE SOVIET LINE.
NO ONE WANTED TO TALK PUBLICLY. BUT ONE UNITED NATIONS DIPLOMAT EXPRESSED PRIVATELY THE OPINION THAT THE CABINET SHIFT MEANT THAT MOLOTOV IS BEING RELIEVED OF SOME BURDENS TO PREPARE HIM TO TAKE OVER FROM PRIME MINISTER STALIN. STILIN WILL BE 70 NEXT DECEMBER.
HOWEVER, THIS VIEW WAS NOT SHARED BY MANY U.N. DIPLOMATS AND CONGRESSMEN IN WASHINGTON. A FEW OF THE LATTER EXPRESSED FEAR THE CHANGE MIGHT MEAN A RUSSIAN MILITARY MOVE TOUCHED OFF BY THE WESTERN POWERS' NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.
BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMEN TOOK THE ATTITUDE THAT A CHANGE IN FOREIGN MINISTERS DID NOT NECESSARILY MEAN REVISION OF FOREIGN POLICY. ONE SPOKESMAN SAID RUSSIA'S NEXT MOVES IN THE UNITED NATIONS, THE FAR EAST AND IN THE LONDON TALKS ON THE AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY SHOULD BE WATCHED CLOSELY FOR THE REAL SIGNS.
OFFICIAL WASHINGTON WAS STUMPED AT FIRST. THEN SOME OFFERED A CAUTIOUS PROPHECY THAT RUSSIA MIGHT NOW BE FLIP-FLOPPING TO PREPARE FOR A PERIOD OF INTERNATIONAL CALM--AND EVEN COOPERATION WITH THE WEST.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN WITHHELD COMMENT. MANY RECALLED THAT HE HAD SAID IN RECENT MONTHS THAT THERE WERE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION WITHIN THE KREMLIN, AND A FEW LAWMAKERS WONDERED WHETHER LAST NIGHT'S KREMLIN ANNOUNCEMENT MIGHT PROVE THIS.
THERE WAS A TENDENCY IN THE U.S. CAPITAL TO ATTRIBUTE THE MOLOTOV-VISHINSKY SHIFT TO WESTERN SUCCESSES IN THE COLD WAR. AFTER ALL, UNDER MOLOTOV, RUSSIA HAD SEEN THE MARSHALL PLAN SUCCEEDING IN WESTERN EUROPE AND THE ALLIANCE OF THE WESTERN NATIONS IN THE ATLANTIC BLOC.
REP. RICHARDS (D-SC) COMMENTED: "THE RUSSIANS PROBABLY FEEL THEY MUST TAKE SOME COUNTER MEASURES TO OVERCOME THE TREND."
SEVERAL SENATORS EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT A HARDENING OF RUSSIA'S POSITION COULD BE LOOKED FOR BECAUSE OF VISHINSKY'S VITRIOLIC ATTACKS ON THE UNITED STATES IN THE UNITED NATIONS.
COMMUNISTS OUTSIDE THE IRON CURTAIN APPARENTLY HAD NO ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE OF THE CHANGES. THE CHIEF EDITOR OF THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER UNITA IN ROME SAID HE HAD HAD NO PREVIOUS WORD THAT MOLOTOV WAS ON HIS WAY OUT.

MOLOTOV INTERPRETIVE

BY J. M. [redacted], JR.

AP FOREIGN AFFAIRS ANALYST

V.M.MOLOTOV HAS BEEN RELEASED AS FOREIGN MINISTER OF SOVIET RUSSIA AND REPLACED BY A.Y.VISHINSKY.

THUS THE "HAMMER," WHO HAD DIRECTED MANY BLOWS AT THE WESTERN WORLD, IS SUCCEEDED BY A MAN WHO HAS BEEN EVEN MORE BITTER, A MAN WHO IS JUST BACK FROM A MONTH AT A HEALTH SPA WHERE A RUSSIAN SPOKESMAN HAD DESCRIBED HIM AS TOO NERVOUS "TO CONCENTRATE ON ANYTHING."

WORLD DIPLOMATS WERE STARTLED. IT WAS NOT A PIECE OF NEWS TO BE DIGESTED QUICKLY. IN THE FIRST HOURS FOLLOWING THE MOSCOW RADIO'S TERSE ANNOUNCEMENT, SPECULATION SEEMED TO CANCEL SPECULATION.

THE FIRST THOUGHT, OF COURSE, WAS THAT IMPORTANT CHANGES IN THE RUSSIAN ADMINISTRATION ALWAYS MEAN IMPORTANT CHANGES IN POLICY. SINCE VISHINSKY HAS BEEN EVEN MORE BITTER THAN MOLOTOV IN HIS CRITICISM OF THE WEST, SINCE RUSSIA HAS BEEN MOVING TROOPS NORTH OF FINLAND, WAS THERE TO BE A DESPERATE MOVE TO BREAK OUT OF THE ANTI-COMMUNIST ENCIRCLEMENT WHICH HAS BEEN GRADUALLY TIGHTENING?

OR, DESPITE VISHINSKY'S ATTITUDE IN THE UNITED NATIONS, HAD HE BEEN CHOSEN TO HELP STALIN, FACED BY GROWING WESTERN STRENGTH, MAKE SOME CONCILIATORY MOVE?

MOLOTOV, OF COURSE, HAS JUST TAKEN A TERRIBLE BEATING IN HIS EFFORT TO KEEP SCANDINAVIA FROM JOINING THE NEW WESTERN DEFENSE BLOC. THE AIRLIFT HAS SURVIVED THE WINTER AND MADE THE BLOCKADE OF BERLIN A FARCE. RUSSIA, WHO MADE SO MANY FRIENDS DURING THE WAR, HAS MOSTLY LOST THEM. SINCE MOLOTOV HAS FOLLOWED THE POLITBURO LINE, WOULD HE BE MADE A SCAPEGOAT FOR ITS FAILURE? THE FIRST REACTION IS THAT HE AND STALIN HAVE BEEN COMRADES TOO LONG FOR THAT.

AGO (AGCYS OUT)

FROM WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT RUSSIA'S MILITARY AND ECONOMIC SITUATION IT IS ALSO HARD TO BELIEVE THAT SHE WOULD TAKE ANY CHANCE OF WAR NOW.

THE BARE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT MOLOTOV HAS BEEN "RELIEVED" SUGGESTS THAT HE IS POLITICALLY DEAD. IT COULD BE THAT HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN MENTIONED TOO OFTEN AS STALIN'S SUCCESSOR. STALIN HAS A REPUTATION FOR PLAYING OFF MEMBERS OF HIS OFFICIAL FAMILY AGAINST EACH OTHER TO KEEP THEM FROM GETTING TOO BIG. BUT THIS JUST DOESN'T QUITE SEEM TO FIT IN MOLOTOV'S CASE.

WHEN MOLOTOV REPLACED LITVINOFF IT WAS A TOUGH MAN IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS REPLACING A MORE CONCILIATORY MAN. THE IMPLICATION WAS CLEAR AND POLICY FOLLOWED IT IN THE SUBSEQUENT YEARS. BUT MOLOTOV AND VISHINSKY HAVE DISPLAYED COMPLETE UNITY OF POLICY AND APPROACH.

COULD IT BE, THEN, THAT MOLOTOV IS BY NO MEANS POLITICALLY DEAD? THERE HAVE BEEN SOME INDICATIONS THAT RUSSIA MIGHT NOW BE TURNING BACK TO THE WORLD REVOLUTION WHICH LENIN PREACHED, WHICH THE COMINTERN FOSTERED, BUT WHICH STALIN HAD MORE OR LESS SIDETRACKED IN FAVOR OF DEVELOPING RUSSIA FIRST. THERE HAS BEEN TALK OF THE FORMATION OF A NEW COMINTERN AND A NEW CALL FOR PROLETARIAN REVOLT TRANSCENDING THE NATIONAL BUNDARIES WITHIN WHICH THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN WORKING, COUNTRY BY COUNTRY, SINCE THE WAR. IT IS NOT IMPOSSIBLE THAT MOLOTOV WOULD CONSIDER SUCH A CAMPAIGN THE REALLY BIG FIELD OF ENDEAVOR, ESPECIALLY IF HE MIGHT STILL BE SLATED TO SUCCEED STALIN.

ALL THIS SPECULATION IS COMPLICATED BY THE SIMULTANEOUS REPLACEMENT OF A.I.MIKOYAN AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE. ARE MIKOYAN AND MOLOTOV BEING PUNISHED FOR LOSING THE COLD WAR, OR WILL THEY TURN UP AT THE HEAD OF AN INTENSIFIED EFFORT TO WIN IT?

THE REAL ANSWERS CAN COME ONLY FROM MOSCOW, IN THE FORM OF DEVELOPMENTS.

SN637PES

WHEN MOLOTOV REPLACED THE FORMER FOREIGN MINISTER LITVINOV IN 1939, THE TACTICS OF SOVIET DIPLOMACY UNDERWENT A RADICAL CHANGE. LITVINOV HAD BEEN AN EXPONENT OF COOPERATION AMONG THE POWERS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF PEACE. THERE WERE AND ARE MANY AMERICAN OFFICIALS WHO FELT THAT THIS WAS QUITE APART FROM THE OVERALL OBJECTIVE OF THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT TO COMMUNIZE THE WORLD. FOR THAT REASON THEY CONSIDERED LITVINOV'S VIEWS "TACTICAL," HAVING ONLY AN IMMEDIATE EFFECT UPON RUSSIA'S LONG RANGE OBJECTIVES.

MOLOTOV'S ADVENT TO POWER OPENED THE ERA OF RUSSIAN MILITARISM AND ISOLATIONISM IN DIPLOMACY--THE ERA THAT PRODUCED THE RUSSIAN-GERMAN TREATY, THE ABSORPTION OF THE BALTIC STATES, THE PARTITION OF POLAND AND FINALLY THE RUSSO-GERMAN WAR.

A54WX add - was she - (molotov [illegible] xxx cut over.

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN A RESERVATION IN THE MINDS OF THE BEST INFORMED PERSONS HERE AS TO WHETHER MOLOTOV REALLY UNDERWENT ANY CHANGE OF HEART WHEN HE HELPED NEGOTIATE THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AT SAN FRANCISCO AND LATER PILOTED RUSSIA THROUGH THE EARLY STAGES OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION. THERE WAS NEVER ANY EVIDENCE, HOWEVER, OF ANY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MOLOTOV AND VISHINSKY ON MAJOR POINTS.

VISHINSKY LAUNCHED THE "WAR MONGERING" ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS AT A MEETING OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN NEW YORK ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO AND HAS BEEN ON OTHER OCCASIONS THE VIOLENT OPPONENT OF AMERICAN AND WESTERN VIEWS.

IN THE UNITED NATIONS HE HAS IN THE PAST LOCKED HORNS WITH MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT OVER THE ISSUE OF CIVIL RIGHTS, PARTICULARLY AS THOSE INVOLVED FREEDOM OF CHOICE FOR RUSSIA'S DISPLACED CITIZENS IN GERMANY WHO DID NOT WANT TO GO HOME.

INFORMED AUTHORITIES HERE BELIEVED THAT IF THE KREMLIN WANTS TO LAY DOWN A NEW LINE OF TACTICAL COOPERATION WITH THE WEST AND UNDERTAKE TO WORK OUT SOME SORT OF TRUCE IN THE COLD WAR, VISHINSKY PROBABLY WOULD DO A BETTER JOB THAN MOLOTOV BECAUSE OF HIS GREATER CHARM, SKILL IN ARGUMENT AND FLEXIBILITY OF MIND.

IF ON THE OTHER HAND THE RUSSIANS NOW MEAN TO INTENSIFY THE COLD WAR, TO COMMAND UNSWERVING LOYALTY FROM COMMUNIST PARTIES IN ALL CONTRIES AND TO MAKE A LAST DITCH FIGHT AGAINST THE WEST, THEN VISHINSKY CAN DO THAT JOB TOO.

IN FACT SUCH A DEVELOPMENT PROBABLY WOULD BE MORE IN LINE WITH THE RECORD OF HIS ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN BLOCKING INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT, IN BATTLING THE WESTERN POWERS IN THE UNITED NATIONS AND IN SECONDING AND CARRYING OUT MOLOTOV'S POLICIES.

ALTHOUGH PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SPOKEN IN RECENT MONTHS OF A POSSIBLE SPLIT IN THE POLITBURO, HIS OWN TOP RUSSIAN ADVISORS ACTUALLY DO NOT BELIEVE THERE IS OR EVER HAS BEEN ANY SPLIT OVER RUSSIA'S REVOLUTIONARY WORLD OBJECTIVE. THEY DO BELIEVE THERE MUST BE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION OVER TIMING AND TACTICS AND THAT EXPONENTS OF DIFFERENT VIEWS MAY HAVE TO RELY UPON PREMIER STALIN FROM TIME TO TIME TO RESOLVE THE DIFFERENCES.

BUT IT WOULD TAKE A LOT OF EVIDENCE OVER A LONG PERIOD OF TIME TO CONVINCE THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND OTHER WESTERN FOREIGN OFFICES THAT VISHINSKY'S ADVENT TO RUSSIA'S TOP FOREIGN POLICY POST MEANT ANY REAL CHANGE IN FUNDAMENTAL LONG-RANGE SOVIET PURPOSES.

MOLOTOV VISITS--350

WASHINGTON,MARCH 4-(AP)-V.M.MOLOTOV PAID THREE VISITS TO THIS NATION'S CAPITAL--FIRST AS AN OBSCURE "MR.BROWN" AND LAST AS A LAVISHLY FETED GUEST AT THE SOVIET UNION'S 29TH BIRTHDAY PARTY ATTENDED BY THE TOP RANKS OF AMERICAN OFFICIALDOM.

BUT FEW PEOPLE OUTSIDE WHITE HOUSE INTIMATES WILL REMEMBER THE FIRST TIME MOLOTOV APPEARED ON THE WASHINGTON SCENE ON MAY 29,1942.

NOT UNTIL A WEEK AFTER HE HAD ENDED HIS SIX-DAY VISIT AND WAS BACK IN MOSCOW DID PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT REVEAL HIS PRESENCE HERE AND THE REASONS FOR THE SECRET TRIP.

THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER CAME HERE, THE LATE PRESIDENT SAID, TO NEGOTIATE AN UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE WESTERN POWERS AND RUSSIA "WITH REGARD TO THE URGENT TASKS OF CREATING A SECOND FRONT IN EUROPE IN 1942. X X X"

DURING HIS BRIEF VISIT, MOLOTOV STAYED AT THE BLAIR HOUSE WHICH NOW SERVES AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S TEMPORARY RESIDENCE.

PASSERSBY MIGHT HAVE SPOTTED HIM AS HE WANDERED AROUND THE WHITE HOUSE GROUNDS FEEDING THE SQUIRRELS WITH NUTS HE PURCHASED FROM A PASSING VENDOR. BUT NONE KNEW THAT "MR.BROWN" WAS THEN IN THE PROCESS OF ALTERING WORLD HISTORY.

THE SECOND TIME MOLOTOV FLEW INTO WASHINGTON'S AIRPORT HE WAS MET WITH OFFICIAL FANFARE. SECRETARY OF STATE STETTINIUS HEADED THE WELCOMING GROUP.

HE THEN WAS ENROUTE TO SAN FRANCISCO FOR THE ORGANIZATION MEETING OF THE UNITED NATIONS. AT THAT TIME THE QUESTION OF IRAN'S FUTURE WAS IN THE FOREFRONT OF WORLD DISCUSSIONS. AND AT A PRIVATE MEETING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE WAS TOLD IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS THAT THIS COUNTRY WAS NOT AT ALL HAPPY OVER THE WAY RUSSIA WAS DOING THINGS IN EASTERN[illegible]

GTHE DATE FOR THAT SECOND

TOLD IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS THAT THIS COUNTRY WAS NOT AT ALL HAPPY OVER THE WAY RUSSIA WAS DOING THINGS IN EASTERN EUROPE.

THE DATE FOR THAT SECOND HURRIED VISIT WAS APRIL 22,1945.

THE FOLLOWING YEAR MOLOTOV TOOK TIME OUT FROM THE UNITED NATIONS MEETING IN NEW YORK TO MAKE AN OVERNIGHT TRIP TO WASHINGTON.

MR.TRUMAN WAS SUFFERING FROM A COLD AT THE MOMENT--IT WAS IN NOVEMBER, 1946--AND MOLOTOV PAID A TEN-MINUTE COURTESY CALL AT THE WHITE HOUSE WHERE HE SAID HE HAD A "GOOD CONVERSATION" WITH THE PRESIDENT.

AFTERWARDS, THE THEN NO. 2 MAN IN THE SOVIET HIERARCHY, WAS GUEST OF HONOR AT THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY'S GALA PARTY CELEBRATING THE 29TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SOVIET WORKERS REVOLUTION. MORE THAN 3,000 GUESTS PACKED THE ORNATE ASSEMBLY ROOMS IN WHICH ALL MANNER OF FOOD AND DRINKS WERE SERVED IN MOUNTAINOUS QUANTITIES.

DEFENSE (530)

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON,MARCH 4-(AP)-BRITAIN NEXT YEAR WILL SPEND HER BIGGEST PEACETIME DEFENSE BUDGET EXCEPT THE YEARS BEFORE SHE HAD DEMOBILIZED AFTER WORLD WAR II.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS APPROVED DEFENSE ESTIMATES OF 759,860,000 POUNDS ($3,039,440,000) LAST NIGHT BY A VOTE OF 227 TO 3.

THIS WAS AFTER DEFENSE MINISTER A.V.ALEXANDER HAD DECLARED THE HUGE EXPENDITURE WAS NECESSARY "SO LONG AS RUSSIA MAINTAINS HER VETO ON PEACE AND SECURITY."

ALEXANDER DEFENDED THE BUDGET AS COMMUNIST CHIEFS IN MEXICO AND THE PHILIPPINES JOINED THE PARTY LEADERS OF FRANCE, ITALY, GERMANY, BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES, FINLAND AND DENMARK IN DECLARING LOYALTY TO RUSSIA IN EVENT OF AN EAST-WEST WAR.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN WASHINGTON SAID AMERICAN COMMUNIST LEADERS WHO INDICATED THEY WOULD SIDE WITH RUSSIA WERE "TRAITORS." HENRY A. WALLACE, IN A NEW YORK SPEECH, SAID HE COULD UNDERSTAND WHY THE THREAT OF A NORTH ATLANTIC PACT COULD CAUSE THE COMMUNISTS TO MAKE THE SERIES OF STATEMENTS, BUT EXPRESSED DOUBT THEY WERE HELPING ORGANIZE OPPOSITION TO THE COLD WAR.

ALSO ALLUDING TO THIS STRING OF COMMUNIST DECLARATIONS, FRENCH PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE DECLARED "FRENCHMEN MUST DO THEIR DUTY AGAINST ALL POSSIBLE INVASION."

HE SPOKE IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WHICH ALSO VOTED EARLY TODAY THE SUM OF 59,966,477,000 FRANCS ($193,221,600) FOR THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIRFORCE IN MARCH AND APRIL. THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT HAS BUDGETED 350,000,000,000 FRANCS ($1,160,000,000) FOR THE ARMED FORCES IN 1949, BUT IS AUTHORIZING ACTUAL EXPENDITURES IN SMALL AMOUNTS UNTIL THE GOVERNMENT SETTLES ON A CLEAR OVER-ALL DEFENSE POLICY.

A40

THE VOTE WAS 365 TO 164 AFTER COMMUNISTS ATTACKED THE EXPENDITURE ON GROUNDS THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS PREPARING AN AGGRESSIVE POLICY AGAINST RUSSIA.

THE MORE THAN $3,000,000,000 VOTED FOR DEFENSE IN 1949-50 BY THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS COMPARES WITH A LITTLE OVER $2,500,000,000 WHICH BRITAIN BUDGETED EARLY IN 1939, BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR. SHE SPENT $6,600,000,000 IN 1946-47 BEFORE SHE HAD DEMOBILIZED, NEARLY HALVED THAT IN 1947-48 AND ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES AT $2,770,000,000 IN THE YEAR ENDING THIS MARCH 31.

BEFORE APPROVING THE DEFENSE BUDGET THE HOUSE BEAT DOWN, 291 TO 155, A CONSERVATIVE AMENDMENT QUESTIONING WHETHER THE MONEY IS BEING SPENT WISELY.

WINSTON CHURCHILL, WHO EMERGED FROM A CONSERVATIVE PARTY MEETING

LAST NIGHT FIRMLY ENTRENCHED AS PARTY LEADER, WAS ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THE AMENDMENT. REPORTS THAT HE MIGHT BE ASKED TO SHARE HIS LEADERSHIP AS A RESULT OF RECENT DEFEAT IN A BYE ELECTION FAILED TO MATERIALIZE.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE SAID HE HAD INVITED CHURCHILL TO PRIVATE CONFERENCE TO GO OVER THE WAY THE DEFENSE MONEY WILL BE SPENT. HE SAID HE DID NOT WANT A PUBLIC DISCUSSION THAT WOULD DISCLOSE PLANS TO "POSSIBLE FOES."

ALEXANDER SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE MILITARY COMMITTEE OF THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE HEADED BY FIELD MARSHAL LORD MONTGOMERY WAS MAKING TACTICAL STUDIES FOR THE DEFENSE OF WESTERN EUROPE. BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG ARE IN THE ALLIANCE.

A SUPPLY BOARD ALSO IS REVIEWING THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION CAPACITIES OF ALL FIVE COUNTRIES, ALEXANDER ADDED, AND IS ARRANGING FOR THE RE-EQUIPMENT OF NEW DEFENSE FORCES OF THE ALLIES.

HE SAID FIGHTER AIRCRAFT ALREADY ARE BEING SUPPLIED TO FRANCE, BELGIUM AND THE NETHERLANDS.

RUSSIANS

BY BRACK CURRY

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MARCH 4-(AP)-EIGHT ANGRY RUSSIAN SOLDIERS RAN DOWN THE RED FLAG OVER THE RUSSIAN REPATRIATION MISSION HEADQUARTERS TODAY AND BOARED OFF TO THE SOVIET ZONE OF GERMANY IN A MOTOR CONVOY.

THE RUSSIANS WERE GRIM-FACED AS THEY LEFT THE BUILDING IN WHICH THEY HAD BEEN BLOCKADED FOR TWO DAYS BY AMERICAN MILITARY POLICE.

ONE RUSSIAN TRUCK DRIVER SPAT AT AN AMERICAN GIRL BYSTANDER AS HE LEFT THE MISSION GROUNDS.

THE SIEGE OF THE BIG YELLOW HOUSE FINALLY FORCED RUSSIAN HEADQUARTERS IN BERLIN TO ORDER THE MISSION TO COMPLY WITH AMERICAN ORDERS TO LEAVE THE U.S. OCCUPATION ZONE.

BUT RUSSIAN AUTHORITIES STRUCK BACK QUICKLY. THEY ORDERED U.S. GRAVES REGISTRATION MEN TO LEAVE THE SOVIET ZONE AT ONCE. A FIVE-MAN AMERICAN GRAVES REGISTRATION TEAM ARRIVED IN BERLIN FROM MECKLENBURG LAST NIGHT. ANOTHER FIVE-MAN UNIT WAS BELIEVED ENROUTE FROM THURINGIA.

THE RUSSIAN REPATRIATION MISSION LEFT FRANKFURT IN THREE AUTOMOBILES AND TWO TRUCKS PILED HIGH WITH THEIR BELONGINGS. THEY WERE ESCORTED BY MEMBERS OF THE SOVIET MILITARY MISSION HERE.

THE EIGHT MEN HAD BEEN SEALED IN THEIR QUARTERS FOR TWO DAYS BY A "LITTLE BLOCKADE" IMPOSED BY THE U.S. ARMY AFTER THEY FAILED TO HEED AN ORDER FROM GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY TO LEAVE THE AMERICAN ZONE BY MARCH 1. CLAY SAID THEY HAD NO REASON TO REMAIN AS THE RETURN OF DISPLACED PERSONS TO RUSSIA HAD DWINDLED TO ALMOST NOTHING.

THE RUSSIANS PROTESTED THAT THE ORDER TO LEAVE WAS A VIOLATION OF THE YALTA AND TEHERAN AGREEMENTS BUT THEIR PROTEST WAS REJECTED BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT.

THE TRUCKS WHICH WERE IN THE RUSSIAN CONVOY WERE CRAMMED WITH WORN-OUT SPARE TIRES, BATTERED GASOLINE DRUMS AND TRUNKS.

AFTER THEY LEFT, REPORTERS FOUND THE MISSION BUILDING IN A STATE OF UTTER DISORDER. OVERLOADED ASH TRAYS HAD SPILLED ONTO TABLES AND FLOORS. SEVERAL CHESS BOARDS HAD BEEN OVERTURNED, SCATTERING THE FIGURES ABOUT THE FLOOR.

AN UPTURNED VODKA BOTTLE HOLDING A CANDLE WAS FOUND IN THE ENLISTED MEN'S MESS. THE U.S. ARMY HAD CUT OFF GAS, ELECTRICITY AND WATER FROM THE BUILDING AT THE BEGINNING OF THE BLOCKADE.

A19

COMMUNIST LITERATURE WAS STACKED HIGH ON BOOKSHELVES IN THE SPACIOUS LOBBY. THE RUSSIANS ALSO LEFT BEHIND A NUMBER OF BOOKS. PAINTINGS OF FAMOUS RED ARMY MARSHALS OF WORLD WAR 2 DECORATED THE WALLS.

INCONGRUOUS IN THE COLD WAR BETWEEN EAST AND WEST WAS THE CONFERENCE ROOM WHERE THE STANDARDS OF THE FOUR WARTIME ALLIES-BRITAIN FRANCE, THE U. S. AND RUSSIA--HUNG SIDE BY SIDE.

THE MISSION MEMBERS HAD SPENT HOURS BURNING DOCUMENTS AND PACKING THEIR BELONGINGS BEFORE THEY LEFT THE BUILDING.

THEY APPEARED WELL-SHAVEN, ALTHOUGH THE MISSION'S WATER SUPPLY HAD BEEN CUT OFF DURING THE SIEGE. COL. STERLING WOOD, FRANKFURT PROVOST MARSHAL, REPORTED THE BATHTUBS IN THE 24-ROOM HOUSE WERE ALMOST FULL OF WATER, INDICATING THEY HAD EXPECTED THE WATER TO BE SHUT OFF WHEN THEY OVERSTAYED THE U.S. DEADLINE.

BEFORE THE RUSSIANS WERE ALLOWED TO LEAVE, EVERY PIECE OF THEIR LUGGAGE WAS SEARCHED FOR ANY PICTURES THEY MIGHT HAVE TAKEN OF THE MP'S WHO GUARDED THE BUILDING FOR TWO DAYS.

COL. A. LASEREV, CHIEF OF THE RUSSIAN MILITARY MISSION HERE, INFORMED THE MEMBERS OF THE REPATRIATION MISSION OF THE ORDERS FROM BERLIN FOR THEM TO LEAVE.

A STATEMENT BY LASEREV, RELEASED BY THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY ADN IN BERLIN, TERMED THE BLOCKADE A "VIOLATION OF THE ELEMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF HUMANITY AND INTERNATIONAL LAW." HIS STATEMENT ALSO ANNOUNCED PERMISSION FOR AMERICAN GRAVES REGISTRATION TEAMS TO WORK IN THE SOVIET ZONE HAD BEEN CANCELLED.

ONE INFORMANT HERE SAID:

OSLO, NORWAY, MARCH 4-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF THE NORWEGIAN NOTE TO RUSSIA REJECTING THE OFFER OF A NON-AGGRESSION PACT: (500)

THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT HAS CAREFULLY CONSIDERED THE SOVIET UNION'S STATEMENT OF FEB. 5TH LAST.

THE STATEMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION GOVERNMENT OF JAN. 29TH, 1949 GAVE THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT OPPORTUNITY TO EXPOSE ITS VIEWS ON NORWAY'S SECURITY PROBLEMS. IT SAID, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THAT IT HAD DECIDED, IN CONSIDERATION OF NORWAY'S SITUATION ON THE ATLANTIC OCEAN AND ITS POSITION AS A SEAFARING NATION, TO SET ON FOOT AN INQUIRY TO ASCERTAIN THE FORMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH NORWAY POSSIBLY MIGHT PARTICIPATE IN A REGIONAL SECURITY SYSTEM COMPRISING COUNTRIES ON THE ATLANTIC OCEAN.

THIS INQUIRY HAS LED TO THE RESULT THAT THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT, AFTER NORWAY'S STORTING HAS DECLARED ITSELF IN AGREEMENT WITH SUCH A STEP, NOW INTENDS TO TAKE PART IN PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS OF THE CLOSER DETAILS OF THE FRAMING OF AN ATLANTIC PACT. THE PURPOSE OF THESE DISCUSSIONS IS TO FIND A MUTUALLY BINDING AGREEMENT BUILT ON THE PRINCIPLE OF SOLIDARITY AND COLLECTIVE SECURITY WITHIN A REGIONAL AREA CONSTITUTING A NATURAL UNIT. THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT IS CONVINCED THAT THIS PACT WILL NOT SERVE AGGRESSIVE AIMS AND THAT IT WILL BE FORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS. NORWAY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO JOIN THE PACT UNDER ANY OTHER CONDITION. THE FINAL DECISION AS TO WHETHER NORWAY SHALL ENTER INTO THE CONTEMPLATED PACT WILL BE MADE BY THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT AND NORWEGIAN STORTING WHEN THE PACT IS AVAILABLE IN ITS FINAL FORM.

B35 (SEG)
THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT HAS STUDIED THE SOVIET UNION'S LAST STATEMENT WITH A SINCERE WILL TO UNDERSTAND AND TO MEET THE WISH THAT THERE BE CLARITY IN THE NEIGHBORLY RELATIONS OF THE TWO COUNTRIES. IT THEREFORE DESIRES TO REITERATE MOST CATEGORICALLY THAT IT NEITHER WILL TAKE PART IN A POLICY WHICH HAS AGGRESSIVE AIMS, NOR WILL IT GRANT BASES FOR FOREIGN MILITARY FORS ON NORWEGIAN TERRITORY AS

BASES FOR FOREIGN MILITARY FORCES ON NORWEGIAN TERRITORY AS LONG AS NORWAY IS NOT ATTACKED OR SUBJECT TO THREATS OF ATTACK. IT DESIRES, MOREOVER, TO STATE THAT APPRAISAL OF THE FACTORS PERTAINING TO POSSIBLE THREAT OF ATTACK AGAINST OUR COUNTRY IN NO INSTANCE WILL BE BUILT ON LOOSE AND PROVOCATORY RUMORS. THE FACTS ALONE WILL FORM THE BASIS FOR DECIDING WHICH STEPS SHALL BE TAKEN IN DEFENSE OF OUR LAND AND IT IS SELF-EVIDENT THAT SUCH APPRAISAL RESTS SOLELY WITH THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT.

THE SOVIET UNION GOVERNMENT ALLUDES IN ITS STATEMENT OF FEBRUARY 5TH TO THE POSSIBILITY OF MAKING A NON-AGGRESSION PACT WITH NORWAY IF THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT HAS ANY DOUBTS ABOUT THE SOVIET UNION GOVERNMENT'S GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY.

GOOD NEIGHBOR RELATIONS BETWEEN NORWAY AND THE SOVIET UNION, TO WHICH THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT SO CORRECTLY REFERS IN ITS STATEMENT OF FEBRUARY 5TH, HAVE DEEP HISTORICAL ROOTS AND NORWAY DESIRES WARMLY TO PRESERVE AND STRENGTHEN THEM. THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT IS CONVINCED POSSIBLE NORWEGIAN ADHERENCE TO AN ATLANTIC PACT WILL NOT SHAKE THIS DESIRE WHICH RUNS THROUGH THE ENTIRE NORWEGIAN NATION. BY JOINING THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER, WHICH LAYS UPON MEMBER STATES THE DUTY TO REFRAIN FROM THE "THREAT OR USE OF FORCE AGAINST THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OR POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE OF ANY STATE," THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE MOREOVER PLEDGED THEMSELVES NOT TO ATTACK ONE ANOTHER. IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT FAILS TO SEE THE NEED TO REITERATE THIS PLEDGE BY A SPECIAL NON-AGGRESSION PACT BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES. THE STORTING HAS DECIDED WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S VIEWS IN THIS MATTER.

THE SOVIET UNION GOVERNMENT HAS IN ITS STATEMENT OF FEBRUARY 5TH REAFFIRMED ITS FRIENDLY DISPOSITION TOWARDS NORWAY. THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT WISHES TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS ITS OWN AND THE NORWEGIAN PEOPLE'S FRIENDLY FEELINGS TOWARD THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS PEOPLE.

RUSSIAN AND NORWEGIAN ARMY OFFICERS BOW STIFFLY. THEY DISCUSS SUCH TOPICS AS FOUR MISSING NORWEGIAN CARBIOU OR A NORWEGIAN BOAT THAT DRIFTED AGAINST THE RUSSIAN BANK OF THE PASVIK RIVER. NO MATTER HOW TRIVIAL THE QUESTION, RUSSIAN OFFICERS DELAY A DECISION UNTIL THE MATTER IS REFERRED TO A DISTANT HIGHER HEADQUARTERS.

ACROSS THE PASVIK RIVER LIES THE PETSAMO AREA, RICH WITH NICKEL MINES. IT BELONGED TO FINLAND UNTIL THE WESTERN ALLIES APPROVED ITS ANNEXATION BY RUSSIA IN 1944.

SOVIET TROOPS HAVE CLEARED FINNISH FARMERS AND VILLAGERS FROM A DEEP SECURITY BELT. NORWEGIAN AUTHORITIES AND CIVILIANS SEEM COMPLETELY IGNORANT OF HOW LIFE GOES ON NOW IN PETSAMO.

KIRKENES, NORWAY, MARCH 4-(AP)-NORWAY'S ARCTIC POPULATION IS SCARED STIFF OF RUSSIA.

FEAR OF WHAT THEY CALL "OUR GREAT NEIGHBOR" GRIPS 50,000 NORWEGIANS SCATTERED OVER 18,000 SQUARE MILES OF THE FAR NORTH.

THIS ISOLATED REGION -- FINNMARK PROVINCE -- IS DEFENDED BY A FEW NORWEGIAN ARMY SKI PATROLS. NOTHING MORE.

THE FRONTIER WITH RUSSIA IS 122 MILES LONG. LESS THAN ONE NORWEGIAN SOLDIER PER MILE IS ON GUARD.

KIRKENES, THE CHIEF INDUSTRIAL COMMUNITY ON NORWAY'S ARCTIC COAST IS FOUR QUICK LAND MILES FROM RUSSIA. BUT IT IS 1,100 STORMY AIR MILES FROM OSLO. IT IS EVEN FARTHER BY SEA.

UNMOLESTED BY POLICE, THE NORWEGIAN COMMUNIST PARTY IS FEVERISHLY ACTIVE IN ALL VILLAGES ALONG THE ARCTIC OCEAN.

A COMMUNIST CAMPAIGN IS UNDERWAY, WARNING THAT NORWAY, BY SEEKING AN ATLANTIC MILITARY ALLIANCE, IS RISKING THE FATE OF FINLAND IN 1939.

RED AGITATORS ARE TOURING FISHING SETTLEMENTS, LUMBER CAMPS AND MINING CENTERS. THEY URGE WORKERS TO JOIN THE COMMUNIST PARTY "BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE."

THEY HINT THAT ONLY COMMUNISTS WILL BE SPARED ROUGH TREATMENT IF THE RED ARMY IN "SELF DEFENSE" MOVES INTO NORTHERN NORWAY THIS YEAR.

LESS THAN 15 PERCENT OF THE POPULATION HAS VOTED THE COMMUNIST TICKET SINCE THE WAR. AN EVEN SMALLER PERCENTAGE WEARS THE COMMUNIST PARTY BUTTON -- USUALLY HIDDEN ON THE UNDERSIDE OF COAT LAPELS.

AS A COMPETING PARTY IN NORWAY'S FREE DEMOCRACY, THE ARCTIC COMMUNISTS ARE INSIFNIFICANT. AS A FIFTH COLUMN DEMORALIZING PEOPLE'S SPIRIT, THEY ARE A HANDY TOOL FOR MOSCOW.

THE NORWEGIAN LABOR GOVERNMENT IN OSLO IS DENOUNCED BY THE COMM-

UNISTS AS A "CLIQUEOF IMPERIALIST QUISLINGS."
LABOR PARTY LEADERS ARE ACCUSED OF "PREPARING ANOTHER NINTH OF APRIL." THAT WAS THE DAY GERMANY INVADED NORWAY IN 1940 WITH THE HELP OF LOCAL NAZIS.
THE FAR NORTH'S DREAD OF RUSSIA'S NEXT MOVE IS NOT ALLAYED BY THE NUMBER ONE COMMUNIST HERE -- GOTFRIED HOELVOLD.
HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW "I CAN NOT SAY YET WHETHER THE SOVIET UNION WILL CONSIDER ITSELF SERIOUSLY ENDANGERED BY AMERICAN ITRIGUE IN NORWAY AND ACT ACCORDINGLY, AS IT DID WHEN FINNISH REACTIONARIES BUILT THE MANNERHEIM LINE."
HOELVOLD SAID SHARPLY THAT NORWEGIAN COMMUNISTS "INTEND ONE DAY TO FOLLOW CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S EXAMPLE AND ESTABLISH SOCIALISM REGARDLESS OF NORWEGIAN PLUTOCRATS."

MOSCOW, MARCH 4-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER EVENING MOSCOW BLASTED "RULING CIRCLES" OF THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES TODAY FOR THEIR ATTITUDE ON THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.
COMMENTATOR NIKOLAI VASTREBOV SAID THE POLICIES OF THESE CIRCLES ARE "TRAITOROUS," AND HE EXPRESSED WRATH AT NORWAY FOR HER REJECTION OF A SOVIET OFFER OF A NON-AGGRESSION TREATY.
THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT, SAID THE ARTICLE, IS "EXHIBITING SPECIAL ZEAL" IN FURTHERING THE PLANS OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN ORGANIZERS OF THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. HE ALSO BLASTED SWEDEN'S PROPOSAL OF A SEPARATE SCANDINAVIAN DEFENSE UNION AS THE IDEA OF "REACTIONARIES."
SPEAKING OF THE RUSSIAN OFFER OF A NON-AGGRESSION TREATY TO NORWAY, THE ARTICLE SAID:
"THESE PEACEFUL ACTS OF THE U.S.S.R. GOVERNMENT IN RELATION TO NORWAY ARE MET WITH BAYONETS BY THE REACTIONARY RULING CIRCLES IN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN AND THEIR HIRELINGS IN SCANDINAVIA.
"WITH STREAMS OF DIRTY FABRICATIONS AND INSINUATIONS, THE MERCENARY REACTIONARY PRESS GREETED THE SOVIET DECLARATION. HOWEVER, NO SLYNESS OR INTRIGUES COULD HIDE FROM THE WORLD THE SINCERE FRIENDLY INTENTIONS OF THE U.S.S.R."

NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT
WASHINGTON, MARCH 4-(AP)-LITTLE NORWAY POLITELY BUT FIRMLY DEFIED SOVIET PRESSURE TODAY.
REJECTING MOSCOW'S PROPOSAL FOR A NON-AGGRESSION TREATY, NORWAY FORMALLY JOINED THE RANKS OF THE NON-COMMUNIST POWERS NOW NEGOTIATING A NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT HERE.
AMBASSADOR WILHELM MUNTHE DE MORGENSTIERNE, THE SOLEMN-FACED NORSE ENVOY, WENT INTO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S OFFICE AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT SHORTLY AFTER NOON TODAY AND TOOK HIS SEAT AS A FULL-FLEDGED PARTNER IN THE SECURITY TALKS.
HE THUS BECAME THE ONLY REPRESENTATIVE OF A NORTH ATLANTIC POWER WHICH HAS A COMMON BORDER WITH RUSSIA.
THE MOUNTING CLAMOR OF PROTEST AND DENUNCIATION POURING OUT OF RUSSIAN AND COMMUNIST CENTERS INDICATES THAT THE LOT OF HIS COUNTRY AND THE REST OF SCANDINAVIA MAY BE A DISTURBED ONE FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS.
MORGENSTIERNE WAS WELCOMED BY ACHESON AND THE RANKING DIPLOMATS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND CANADA AS THE EIGHTH NEGOTIATOR--BUT NOT THE LAST.
DENMARK IS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW THE NORWEGIAN EXAMPLE SHORTLY AFTER A VISIT HERE NEXT WEEK OF ITS FOREIGN MINISTER. ITALY ALSO MAY YET BE BROUGHT IN AS AN ORIGINAL SIGNER, AND SO MAY ICELAND AND PORTUGAL.
THE DIPLOMATIC MACHINERY WHICH IS EXPECTED TO PRODUCE A FINISHED TREATY BY THE END OF NEXT WEEK AND A SIGNED TREATY BY THE END OF THE MONTH IS NOW WORKING AT TOP SPEED.
THESE DEVELOPMENTS MARKED THE SITUATION TODAY:
1. A SESSION LASTING FOR TWO HOURS AND A HALF PRODUCED WHAT SOME OF THE AMBASSADORS CALLED "SATISFACTORY PROGRESS."
MORGENSTIERNE SAID HE HAD MADE A "FEW PERSONAL OBSERVATIONS" AND "GOT SOME MATERIAL." ACTUALLY HE RECEIVED A COPY OF THE TEXT AS DRAFTED TO DATE. THE NEXT MEETING PROBABLY WILL BE HELD MONDAY.
2. DIPLOMATS SAID THERE IS NOW A CONSIDERABLE BELIEF THAT THE TREATY WILL BE SIGNED HERE IN WASHINGTON BEFORE THE END OF THE MONTH AT A CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS OF ALL THE COUNTRIES WHICH BY THEN HAVE JOINED IN THE TALKS.
OTTAWA, CANADA'S CAPITAL, AND BERMUDA, IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC, HAD ALSO BEEN MENTIONED AS ALTERNATIVE CONFERENCE SITES.

A13WX
MAR 5 1949
3. AT COPENHAGEN, THE DANISH GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THAT FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN WILL LEAVE TUESDAY FOR WASHINGTON TO SEEK "THE BEST POSSIBLE BASIS FOR DENMARK'S FINAL ATTITUDE" TOWARD THE PROJECTED TREATY.
DENMARK, IT WAS SAID IN WASHINGTON, HAS NOT RECEIVED A FORMAL INVITATION TO JOIN THE TALKS BECAUSE THAT WOULD COME ALONG LATER. DENMARK'S POSITION IS MUCH THE SAME AS NORWAY'S LAST MONTH WHEN THE NORWEGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER CAME HERE ON A FACT-FINDING MISSION. THE DECISION TO SEND RASMUSSEN TO WASHINGTON WAS MADE AT A CABINET MEETING IN COPENHAGEN LAST NIGHT.
4. IN OSLO, THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT HANDED THE SOVIET EMBASSY A NOTE SAYING THAT A NON-AGGRESSION PACT BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES WAS UNNECESSARY BECAUSE BOTH ARE ALREADY PLEDGED AS MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO REFRAIN FROM ANY AGGRESSION.
NORWAY EXPRESSED HOPE FOR CONTINUED "GOOD NEIGHBOR RELATIONS" WITH RUSSIA AND PLEDGED ITSELF AGAINST JOINING IN ANY POLICY WITH "AGGRESSIVE AIMS."
RUSSIA HAD PROPOSED THE NON-AGGRESSION PACT IN A NOTE ON FEB. 5. THE IDEA WAS TO ASSURE THE NORWEGIANS THAT THEY NEED NOT JOIN THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE SYSTEM BECAUSE THEY WOULD HAVE NO NEED FOR SUCH PROTECTION.
DESPITE THE POLITENESS OF NORWAY'S NOTE, THERE WAS NO QUESTION IN THE MINDS OF AMERICAN DIPLOMATS THAT THE OSLO GOVERNMENT HAS COURAGEOUSLY DECIDED TO STAND FIRM AGAINST MOSCOW'S PRESSURES AND CAST ITS LOT WITH THE FATE OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN-NORTH AMERICAN POWERS.
NOR WAS THERE ANY UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE FIERCENESS OF THE RUSSIAN REACTION OR THE EXTREME DISPLEASURE WHICH THIS LATEST FAILURE OF SOVIET DIPLOMACY HAS AROUSED IN THE KREMLIN.
DISPATCHES FROM MOSCOW SAID THE NEWSPAPER "EVENING MOSCOW" BLASTED "RULING CIRCLES" OF THE SCANDANAVIAN COUNTRIES FOR A "TRAITOROUS" ATTITUDE NORWAY WAS SINGLED OUT FOR ANGRY CRITICISM ON THE GROUND THAT IT IS "EXHIBITING SPECIAL ZEAL" IN FURTHERING ALLEGED PLANS OF BRITISH AND AMERICAN ORGANIZERS OF THE ATLANTIC SECURITY SYSTEM.
ELSEWHERE IN THE MOSCOW PRESS, OTHER STORIES DENOUNCED THE SCANDANAVIANS IN COMPARABLE TERMS.

RE-ARMING

BY RUTH COWAN

WASHINGTON,MARCH 4-(AP)-IMPORTANT SECRET WHEELS IN THE PENTAGON ARE BEING QUIETLY OILED FOR ACTION SHOULD THE SENATE APPROVE THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT.

ONE OF THE GROUPS INVOLVED IS THE TIGHT-LIPPED JOINT MUNITIONS ALLOCATIONS COMMITTEE OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHICH WOULD HAVE THE JOB OF FINDING UNCLE SAM'S POSSIBLE BILLION-DOLLAR SHARE OF SHIPS, GUNS, PLANES TO HELP REARM THE WESTERN UNION NATIONS.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THIS KEY COMMITTEE, VICE ADM.ROBERT B.CARNEY, HAS JUST RETURNED FROM A SIX-WEEK ROUND-THE-WORLD PLANE TRIP. HE SAID HE WANTED TO GET AN IDEA OF PROBLEMS FACED BY THE NATIONS EXPECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE TREATY AND AN INKLING OF WHAT PLANS THE JOINT ALLOCATION COMMITTEE WOULD HAVE TO MAKE SHOULD THE PACT BECOME REALITY.

SERVING ON THIS COMMITTEE WITH ADM.CARNEY, WHO IS DEPUTY CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS FOR LOGISTICS, ARE LIEUT.GEN.HOWARD A.CRAIG, AIR FORCE DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF FOR MATERIAL, AND LIEUT.GEN.THOMAS B.LARKIN, JUST NAMED ARMY DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS. THEY ARE THE TOP MEN RESPONSIBLE FOR (A) ARMING AND SUPPLYING THE THREE BRANCHES OF THE U.S. ARMED FORCES, (B) PREPARING FOREIGN MILITARY AID PROGRAMS AND (C) ALLOCATING MUNITIONS UNDER ORDERS FROM EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY.

THE TEXT OF THE PACT HAS NOT BEEN DISCLOSED. BUT IT IS EXPECTED TO BE A GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY AND A PLEDGE OF MUTUAL AID. THIS WOULD REQUIRE ONLY SENATE APPROVAL.

TO GIVE IT SUBSTANCE, THE ADMINISTRATION WOULD THEN ASK CONGRESS TO AUTHORIZE THE TRANSFER OF MILITARY SUPPLIES TO ARM AND EQUIP THOSE COUNTRIES COOPERATING WITH THE UNITED STATES IN ITS SECURITY. NEXT WOULD COME REQUESTS FOR APPROPRIATIONS TOTALLING POSSIBLY A BILLION DOLLARS.

STATE DEPARTMENT SOURCES INDICATE AUTHORIZATION FOR AID WOULD BE SOUGHT FOR BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, CHINA, GREECE AND TURKEY AND SOME OTHERS.

WHILE THESE STEPS ARE BEING TAKEN, PLANNING GOES ON. OVERSEAS THE DELEGATES OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WILL BE COMPILING LISTS OF ARMAMENT NEEDS, AND SEEKING WAYS TO ALLOCATE RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRODUCTION AMONG ALL ALLIED NATIONS.

THE QUANTITY AND TYPE OF MUNITIONS SUPPLIED BY THE U.S. WOULD DEPEND ON THE STRATEGY DECIDED, THE COUNTRIES INCLUDED IN THE ALLIANCE, THE INTERNAL ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF COUNTRIES INVOLVED, AND THEIR INDUSTRIAL CAPACITIES, CARNEY CONTINUED. THEN, HE SAID, "WE'LL HAVE TWO THINGS TO DO:

"ONE WOULD BE TO DECIDE WHICH SURPLUS ITEMS COULD COME OFF ARMY AND NAVY SHELVES AND GO INTO THE KITTY. THE OTHER WOULD BE TO DECIDE ON PROCUREMENT OF ITEMS OF WHICH THERE IS NOT A SURPLUS."

ON THIS TRIP CARNEY DID NOT VISIT ALL THE COUNTRIES THAT MAY JOIN THE ALLIANCE. BUT HE TALKED WITH U.S. REPRESENTATIVES IN MANY OF THEM, AND HE SAID HE RETURNED WITH THE DISTINCT IMPRESSION THAT THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN STRENGTHENED IN EUROPE.

HE SAID HE BELIEVED THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS GIVEN PARTICIPATING NATIONS INCREASED CONFIDENCE NOT ONLY IN THE UNITED STATES BUT ALSO IN THEMSELVES.

MOSCOW, MARCH 4-(AP)-FOREIGN OBSERVERS HERE SAID TODAY THEY CONSIDER IT LIKELY THE MAIN EMPHASIS IN SOVIET-KOREAN NEGOTIATIONS HERE WILL BE ON ECONOMIC SUBJECTS.

THIS IMPRESSION WAS SUPPORTED SOMEWHAT BY THE FACT THAT THE DELEGATION FROM THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC WAS MET AT THE STATION HERE YESTERDAY BY SOVIET MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE A.I. MIKOYAN.

MIKOYAN IS THE LEADING EXPERT ON THE SOVIET UNION FOREIGN ECONOMIC RELATIONS. IT IS CONSIDERED PROBABLE THE GROUNDWORK FOR THE DISCUSSIONS ALREADY HAS BEEN LAID BY A KOREAN TRADE DELEGATION WHICH HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW FOR MONTHS NEGOTIATING WITH MIKOYAN'S MINISTRY.

(THE "KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC" IS THE NAME ADOPTED BY THE SOVIET-SPONSORED GOVERNMENT OF NORTH KOREA, OCCUPIED AFTER THE WAR BY SOVIET TROOPS.)

IT ALSO IS CONSIDERED PROBABLE THE KOREANS MAY REQUEST CREDITS OR OTHER FORMS OF ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE AND IT IS THOUGHT SUCH REQUESTS ARE LIKELY TO RECEIVE A FRIENDLY HEARING.

A COMPREHENSIVE BILATERAL TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE KOREANS AND RUSSIANS WILL BE ONE OF THE SUBJECTS DISCUSSED. IT IS PROBABLE THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR TO NORTH KOREA, COL. GEN. T.F. SHTIKOV, WHO FORMERLY WAS THE RUSSIAN ARMY COMMANDER IN THE AREA, WILL PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE TALKS. OBSERVERS SAID ALSO IT IS ALMOST CERTAIN THE KOREAN PREMIER KIM IR SEN WOULD HAVE AN INTERVIEW WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN.

THE KOREAN PREMIER AND HIS GOVERNMENT HAVE MADE IT CLEAR THAT THEIR CHIEF PROBLEM IS TO GET THE U.S. ARMY OUT OF SOUTHERN KOREA. THEY CLAIM THIS IS THE ONLY REAL BARRIER TO THE UNIFICATION OF KOREA UNDER THEIR LEADERSHIP. THEY ALSO MAY BE DISCUSSED HERE.

TRANS-JORDAN IS ONE OF THE SEVEN ARAB LEAGUE STATES WHICH VOWED TO DESTROY ISRAEL WHEN THE JEWISH STATE WAS PROCLAIMED LAST MAY.

BOTH THE ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN DELEGATIONS HAVE BEEN IN RHODES SINCE TUESDAY. A RELIABLE U.N. SOURCE SAID TRANS-JORDAN WOULD NOT AGREE UNTIL TODAY ON A FORMAL OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE.

ONE MEMBER OF TRANS-JORDAN'S DELEGATION, MAJ.RADI BEY EL HINDAWI, TOOK OFF UNEXPECTEDLY FOR AMMAN BY PLANE. HE IS EXPECTED TO ADVISE KING ABDULLAH ON THE ANTICIPATED ISRAELI POSITION IN THE NEGOTIATIONS AND THEN RETURN TO RHODES TOMORROW.

SUBSEQUENTLY IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT REUBEN SHILOAH OF THE ISRAELI DELEGATION WILL GO TO TEL AVIV TOMORROW FOR CONSULTATIONS. HE IS EXPECTED TO RELAY THE ISRAELI VIEWPOINT HERE THAT TRANS-JORDAN'S REPRESENTATIVES HAVE ASSUMED A "HIG AND MIGHTY" ATTITUDE.

WITH RHODES

Tel Aviv, March 4--(AP)--Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok told Hebrew newspaper editors tonight the Israeli peace delegations on Rhodes had offered objections to a proposal that Trans-Jordan's delegates represent Iraq in some phases of the armistice discussions.

Shertok said the Israeli delegates had informed the Trans-Jordan delegates they could not be accepted as representing the Iraqis in efforts to bring about overall peace in the Holy Land unless formal credentials were presented from the Iraq government.

The foreign minister said this was necessary to make sure Iraq forces in Palestine would be bound by whatever decisions are reached.

THIS WAS TAKEN AS ANOTHER INDICATION THE TALKS MIGHT BE LENGTHY, SUGGESTING FINAL DECISIONS MUST COME FROM AMMAN RATHER THAN FROM THE DELEGATION HERE. ISSUES AFFECTING BRITISH POLICY WOULD BE REFERRED TO LONDON, EXPERTS SAID. BRITAIN AND TRANS-JORDAN ARE ALLIES. see Rhodes-(Day) XXXL. 1aRe.

ONE ISSUE LIKELY TO BE SENT TO LONDON FOR DECISION CONCERNS THE SOUTHERN FRONT OF THE NEGEV DESERT, WHICH TOUCHES THE GULF OF AQABA, WHERE BRITISH FORCES ARE STATIONED. THE ISRAELIS REGARD THE BRITISH TROOPS WITH GREAT SUSPICION AND ARE ALMOST CERTAIN TO ASK THEIR WITHDRAWAL BEFORE AGREEING ON A GENERAL ARMISTICE WITH TRANS-JORDAN.

BY JAMES M. LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MARCH 4-(AP)-THE ISRAELI-TRANS-JORDAN ARMISTICE TALKS ON RHODES MAY DECIDE WHETHER THERE CAN BE HARMONY BETWEEN THE JEWISH STATE AND ITS ARAB NEIGHBORS.

BUT AN ARMISTICE WILL NOT BE QUICKLY OR EASILY ACHIEVED.

THIS CASE IS QUITE DIFFERENT FROM THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATED BY ISRAEL AND EGYPT.

THE ISRAELIS HAD DEFEATED EGYPT IN THE FIELD, HAD THOUSANDS OF EGYPTIAN TROOPS SURROUNDED AT FALUJA AND THREATENED TO TAKE THE EGYPTIAN COASTAL STRONGHOLD OF GAZA.

THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION AND THE ISRAELI ARMY FOUGHT EACH OTHER TO A STANDSTILL IN THE FIELD AND NEITHER SIDE IS IN A DESPERATE MILITARY POSITION WHICH WOULD MAKE AN IMMEDIATE ARMISTICE IMPERATIVE.

TRANS-JORDAN APPEARS TO BE IN THE BETTER BARGAINING POSITION BECAUSE SHE HOLDS TERRITORY THE ISRAELIS WANT--AND THE ISREALIS ARE NOT SURE THEY HAVE ANYTHING THEY ARE WILLING TO TRADE FOR IT.

CONSIDERABLE CONCERN HAS BEEN VOICED IN ISRAELI CIRCLES OVER REPORTS THAT KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN WILL ASK FOR ACCESS TO THE MEDITERRANEAN THROUGH THE PORT OF JAFFA, THE RETURN OF ARAB REFUGEES TO JAFFA, RAMLE AND LYDDA, AND BEERSHEBA--SOMETIMES CALLED THE MOTHER CITY OF THE ARAB RACE--AS A LINK TO EGYPT.

IN MOST NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE ARABS ISRAEL HAS BEEN ABLE TO ARGUE IT WAS ONLY ASKING FOR WHAT THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN GIVEN HER.

THAT ARGUMENT WON'T HOLD TRUE IN THIS CASE. ALTHOUGH TRANS-JORDAN WAS NOT MENTIONED IN THE PARTITION PLAN, THE PLAN DID GIVE JAFFA TO THE ARABS. IT ALSO GAVE THEM RAMLE AND LYDDA, A WEDGE TO JAFFA.

ISRAELI FORCES TOOK THE PORT CITY OPPOSITE TEL AVIV AND THE INLAND AREA AND NO SPOKESMAN HERE IS WILLING TO CONCEDE ISRAEL MIGHT HAND THE WAR PRIZE BACK. TURNING THEM OVER TO ABDULLAH WOULD CUT ISRAEL IN TWO AND BAR HER ROAD TO JERUSALEM.

THE ISRAELIS SO FAR HAVE BEEN UNWILLING TO EVEN DISCUSS YIELDING BEERSHEBA, IN THE NEGEV DESERT AREA. THEY WON IT FROM THE EGYPTIANS AND RETAINED IT UNDER THE ARMISTICE WITH EGYPT.

THE ISRAELIS, ON THE OTHER HAND, WANT THE MOUNT OF OLIVES AND OTHER SECTIONS IN JERUSALEM, THE SITES OF AN ANCIENT HEBREW BURIAL GROUND AND A MODERN HOSPITAL AND UNIVERSITY. THE TRANS-JORDAN LEGION, MOST EFFECTIVE ARAB FIGHTING FORCE THE ISRAELIS MET, HOLDS THE SHEIKH JARRAH SECTION OF NORTHERN JERUSALEM WHICH BARS THE WAY.

THE ISRAELIS ALSO WANT THE ARABS OUT OF LATRUN WHICH SITS MIDWAY ON THE TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM ROAD.

AMONG THE PRINCIPAL REASONS CITED WAS THAT THE UNSTABLE NATIONALIST ECONOMY COULD NOT DERIVE LASTING BENEFITS FROM SUCH A LOAN. THE DANGER THAT THE SILVER DOLLARS MINTED BY THE NATIONALISTS WOULD BE DRAINED OFF ABROAD OR INTO CHINESE COMMUNIST AREAS WAS POINTED OUT ALSO.

NEW COMMUNIST REGULATIONS IN NORTH CHINA ARE REPORTED TO FORBID FREE CIRCULATION OF SILVER DOLLARS. HOWEVER, SOME SOURCES FEAR THAT SILVER DOLLARS NOW CIRCULATING IN NATIONALIST TERRITORY MAY BE SLOWLY ABSORBED INTO COMMUNIST AREAS BY ATTRACTIVE EXCHANGE RATES BEING OFFERED THERE.

MR.TRUMAN SENT A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO CONGRESS ASKING LEGISLATION TO:
1. CREATE NEW POSTS TO BE FILLED BY ADDITIONAL ASSISTANT SECRETARIES OF STATE "TO PERMIT THE DEPARTMENT TO ORGANIZE ITS PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES ON A GEOGRAPHIC BASIS."
2. TRANSFER CERTAIN POWERS NOW VESTED IN SUBORDINATE OFFICIALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE.
MR.TRUMAN SAID THE SECOND POINT IS NEEDED "TO PROVIDE THE SECRETARY WITH AUTHORITY COMMENSURATE WITH HIS RESPONSIBILITIES AND FURTHER TO APPLY THE PRINCIPLE X X X OF CLARIFYING THE LINES OF RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY WITHIN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH."
THIS PRINCIPLE, HE SAID, HAS BEEN RECOMMENDED BY THE HOOVER COMMISION, HEADED BY FORMER PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER, WHICH HAS BEEN STUDYING METHODS FOR MAKING THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MORE EFFICIENT AND MORE ECONOMICAL.
"THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS ACTIVITIES OF THIS GOVERNMENT ARE CARRIED ON BY A NUMBER OF AGENCIES, BUT THE GREATEST SHARE OF THE RESPONSIBILITY IS BORNE BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE," MR.TRUMAN WROTE.
"MOREOVER, THE PRESIDENT AND THE CONGRESS AS WELL RELY UPON THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO PROVIDE LEADERSHIP AMONG THE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES CONCERNED WITH VARIOUS ASPECTS OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND TO RECOMMEND THE STEPS NECESSARY TO ACHIEVE AN INTEGRATED AND CONSISTENT FOREIGN POLICY.
"MANY OF OUR HOPES FOR WORLD PEACE AND DOMESTIC SECURITY ARE DEPENDENT UPON THE MACHINERY FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF FOREIGN POLICY AND FOR TRANSLATING POLICIES INTO ACTION." HE SAID.
MR.TRUMAN NOTED THAT UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, THE DEPARTMENT HAS ALREADY MADE "CERTAIN URGENT ADJUSTMENTS" AND FURTHER STEPS ARE BEING CARRIED OUT BY SECRETARY ACHESON "WITH MY APPROVAL."

To the Congress of the United States:

The conduct of the foreign relations of the United States has become an increasingly momentous responsibility of our Federal Governme Many of our hopes for world peace and domestic security are dependent upon the effectiveness of our machiner for the development of foreign policy and for translating policies into action

The foreign affairs activities of this Government are carried on by a number of agencies, but the greatest share of the responsibility is borne by the Department of State.

Moreover, the President, and the Congress as well, rely upon the Secretary of State to provide leadership among the Government agencies concerned with various aspects of foreign affairs and to recommend the steps necessary to achieve an integrated and consistent foreign policy.

Needs Held Recognized

The State Department has, for some time, recognized the need for modifications and improvements in its internal organization to enable it to discharge the increased responsibilities which have been assigned to it in the post-war period.

During the past year, under the leadership of Secretary Marshall, the department made certain urgent adjustments in its organization and undertook comprehensive studies of its long-range organizational requirements.

The major recommendations arising from these studies received my approval some months ago, but were not placed in effect pending the completion of the report of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government.

The commission has made a thorough study of our governmental machinery for the conduct of foreign affairs. With respect to the organization of the Department of State, the commission's recommendations generally embody and endorse the organizational plans formulated by the department.

With my approval, the Secretary of State is now proceeding to put these plans into effect.

In order fully to carry out this reorganization two changes in the statutes governing the department are required.

First, additional positions of Assistant Secretary of State should be created to permit the department to organize its principal activities on a geographic basis and at the same time, to maintain its requisite relationships with the Congress, and with the other executive agencies and the international organizations.

Shift in Powers Is Asked

Second, certain powers vested by the Foreign Service Act of 1946 in subordinate officials should be placed in the Secretary, subject to his delegation.

This action is needed to provide the Secretary with authority commensurate with his responsibilities, and further to apply the principle, strongly recommended by the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, of clarifying the lines of responsibility and authority within the executive branch.

Early action on these measures is desirable to strengthen this Government's resources for achieving its international objectives.

The suggestions of the commission with regard to the personnel management of the Department of State and the Foreign Service will require additional study before recommendations can be submitted to the Congress.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 4-(AP)-AMBASSADOR ROBERT D.MURPHY, DIPLOMATIC ADVISER ON GERMANY, IS DUE HOME FROM BERLIN IN A FEW DAYS TO ORGANIZE A SHAKEUP IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S HANDLING OF GERMAN AFFAIRS. IT MAY HAVE FAR REACHING EFFECTS ON OCCUPATION POLICY.

AT THE SAME TIME, GEORGE F.KENNAN, THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S LONG RANGE POLICY PLANNER, IS GOING TO GERMANY. KENNAN WILL UNDERTAKE A REVIEW OF THE SITUATION THERE. HIS ASSIGNMENT WILL BE AT LEAST AS IMPORTANT AS THE MURPHY APPOINTMENT IN ITS IMPACT ON THE GOVERNMENT'S GERMAN POLICY.

THE EXACT POSITION OF GENERAL LUCIUS D.CLAY, AMERICAN COMMANDER IN GERMANY, AS A RESULT OF THESE AND OTHER RECENT MOVES IS NOT YET ENTIRELY CLEAR. HE HAS ASKED FOR RETIREMENT AND PRESUMABLY CONSIDERS HIMSELF ON THE WAY OUT.

SOME OF THE BEST INFORMED OBSERVERS HERE BELIEVE THE BALANCE OF POWER OVER AMERICAN POLICY ON GERMAN AFFAIRS IS PASSING FROM GENERAL CLAY'S HANDS INTO THE HANDS OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND UNDER SECRETARY JAMES WEBB.

THE SHAKEUP, INSOFAR AS IT INVOLVES DEPARTMENTAL MACHINERY AND PERSONALITIES, WAS ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT. IT IS ANOTHER OF ACHESON'S MOVES TO REORGANIZE THE AMERICAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS AGENCY TO TRY TO MAKE IT A MORE EFFICIENT POLICY INSTRUMENT. THE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED:

1. THE OFFICE OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR OCCUPIED AREAS HAS BEEN WIPED OUT. THIS HAS BEEN HELD BY CHARLES E.SALTZMAN, WHO REMAINS AN ASSISTANT SECRETARY, ON SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT.

2. A NEW OFFICE OF GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN AFFAIRS HAS BEEN CREATED AND MURPHY, POLITICAL ADVISOR TO CLAY, HAS BEEN CALLED HOME TO RUN IT. IN THIS CAPACITY THE 54-YEAR-OLD MURPHY MIGHT BECOME QUALIFIED EITHER TO MOVE ON TO SOME HIGHER POST IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR POSSIBLY TO RETURN TO GERMANY SOME DAY AS A CIVILIAN GOVERNOR.

SALTZMAN'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR RUNNING JAPANESE OCCUPATION POLICY HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED TO THE OFFICE OF FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS, A REGULAR AGENCY OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

3. KENNAN "WILL DEPART EARLY NEXT WEEK ON A SHORT VISIT TO GERMANY IN ORDER TO FAMILIARIZE HIMSELF WITH THE SITHATION THERE."

4. MURPHY'S WORK AS POLITICAL ADVISOR TO CLAY WILL BE TAKEN OVER BY THE DEPUTY POLITICAL ADVISOR, JAMES W.RIDDLEBERGER, A CAREER DIPLOMAT AND LONGTIME EXPERT ON GERMAN AFFAIRS.

MAR 5 1948

FOR THE TIME BEING AT LEAST THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS NOT TAKING OVER DIRECT OPERATION OF THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY. SOME TOP OFFICIALS HOPE IT NEVER WILL. INSTEAD ACHESON AND WEBB WANT TO SEE WHETHER CLOSER COOPERATION WITH THE ARMY DEPARTMENT--WHICH HAS DIRECT RESPONSIBILITY FOR RUNNING THE MILITARY OCCUPATION--WILL SOLVE MANY PROBLEMS THAT PREVIOUSLY COMPLICATED THE OPERATION.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 4-(AP)-LOUIS A.JOHNSON, WHO WILL TAKE OVER SOON AS SECRETARY OF NATIONAL DEFENSE, SAID TODAY THAT "STRENGTH MEANS PEACE."

"AND WITHOUT STRENGTH THERE IS NO PEACE," THE 58-YEAR-OLD LAWYER AND ARMY VETERAN EMPHASIZED TO REPORTERS OUTSIDE PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S OFFICE. HE HAD CALLED TO PLEDGE "MY FULL DEVOTED LOYALTY."

JOHNSON WAS WITH JAMES V.FORRESTAL, WHO IS STEPPING OUT MARCH 31 AS TOP MAN IN THE PENTAGON TO RETURN TO PRHNLZI.

IKI.

H

AS TOP MAN IN THE PENTAGON TO RETURN TO PRIVATE AFFAIRS. THE TWO ARE GOING OVER TOGETHER THE VAST AMERICAN FIGHTING MACHINE THAT IS BEING FASHIONED TO DISCOURAGE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

MR.TRUMAN'S NOMINATION OF JOHNSON IS EXPECTED TO SLIDE THROUGH THE SENATE. THE PRESIDENT ALSO IS EXPECTED TO ASK CONGRESS TO GIVE THE DEFENSE SECRETARY MORE POWER. FORRESTAL HAS ASKED FOR IT, AND THE HOOVER COMMISSION ON GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION HAS URGED IT. GENERAL DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER SPOKE OUT ALONG THE SAME LINE LAST NIGHT.

MEANWHILE, REPORTS SPRANG UP ANEW TODAY THAT SECRETARY OF THE ARMY KENNETH D.ROYALL SOON WILL BE GIVING UP HIS POST, DESPITE MR.TRUMAN'S STATEMENT YESTERDAY THAT HE IS STAYING ON THE JOB ALONG WITH NAVY SECRETARY SULLIVAN AND AIR FORCE SECRETARY SYMINGTON.

FORRESTAL, ASKED ABOUT HIS PLANS, TOLD REPORTERS HE HAS NONE EXCEPT FOR A LONG REST.

CABINET

BY JACK BELL

VASHINGTON,MARCH 4-(AP)-SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER TODAY MOVED INTO TOP BILLING IN SPECULATION ABOUT FURTHER CABINET CHANGES AS COL. LOUIS A.JOHNSON PREPARED TO SUCCEED JAMES FORRESTAL AS SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

AN ADMINISTRATION LIEUTENANT SAID THAT IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN MAKES ANY MORE CHANGES, SAWYER MAY BE THE NEXT TO PULL OUT. BUT IT WAS EMPHASIZED THAT THERE MAY BE NO CABINET SHIFTS IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

THE PRESIDENT'S ASSURANCE AT YESTERDAY'S WHITE HOUSE NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE SECRETARIES OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE ARE GOING TO KEEP THEIR JOBS QUIETED ONE RUMOR CONCERNING SAWYER'S POST.

THERE HAD BEEN TALK OF SECRETARY OF THE NAVY JOHN L.SULLIVAN AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO SAWYER. BUT ADMINISTRATION INSIDERS WHO ASKED TO REMAIN ANONYMOUS SAID THIS IDEA HAS BEEN DROPPED.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT ALSO KILLED OFF--AT LEAST TEMPORARILY-- SPECULATION THAT BOTH SECRETARY OF THE ARMY KENNETH C.ROYALL AND SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE W.STUART SYMINGTON MIGHT BE ON THE WAY OUT.

THERE WERE SOME AROUND MR.TRUMAN, HOWEVER, WHO SAID PRIVATELY THAT ROYALL'S TENURE MAY NOT BE TOO LONG. THE SAME PERSONS SAID SYMINGTON HAD MADE HIS PEACE WITH THE WHITE HOUSE AND COULD LOOK FORWARD TO A LENGTHY STAY.

ROYALL TOLD REPORTERS HE WANTS TO RETURN TO HIS LAW PRACTICE IN GOLDSBORO,N.C., "WHENEVER I CAN DO SO IN GOOD CONSCIENCE."

SAWYER'S CHIEF DIFFICULTIES WERE SAID TO STEM FROM A BRUSH WITH DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE OFFICIALS OVER FINANCES DURING THE CAMPAIGN.

HE WAS SAID TO HAVE BEEN TOO BUSY AT ONE POINT TO SEE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN J.HOWARD MCGRATH AND COL.JOHNSON, WHO HEADED THE CAMPAIGN FINANCE COMMITTEE. THERE WERE INDICATIONS, HOWEVER, THAT SAWYER LATER CONTRIBUTED AND THAT HE DID SOME WORK IN OHIO FOR MR.TRUMAN.

ANY OPPOSITION TO SAWYER FROM NATIONAL COMMITTEE OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, SEEMED UNLIKELY TO AFFECT HIS STATUS TOO MUCH.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHOICE OF JOHNSON AS FORRESTAL'S SUCCESSOR HAD BEEN FORECAST PREVIOUSLY. A CLARKSBURG,W.VA., LAWYER, JOHNSON IS A FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR AND FORMER NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION.

FORRESTAL SAID IN HIS LETTER OF RESIGNATION--WHICH WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE MARCH 31--THAT HE WANTED TO QUIT BECAUSE OF "URGENT PERSONAL CONSIDERATIONS" ABOUT WHICH HE HAD SPOKEN TO THE PRESIDENT.

A6WX

IN ACCEPTING, MR.TRUMAN SAID HE DID SO "RELUCTANTLY." THE PRESIDENT ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE HAD "LESS MISGIVING BECAUSE I KNOW YOU WILL BE STANDING BY TO GIVE ADVICE AND COUNSEL AS WE GO FORWARD IN THE WORK OF ENHANCING THE NATIONAL SECURITY."

FORRESTAL WAS ONE OF THOSE ACCUSED OF DOING LITTLE TO AID MR. TRUMAN'S RE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN. BUT THE PRESIDENT TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE EXCHANGE OF LETTERS TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT WHY FORRESTAL WAS LEAVING.

MIGHT LEAD MILITARY BILLS (430)

WASHINGTON, MARCH 4-(AP)-THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE WAS URGED TODAY TO HOLD TALK DOWN TO A MINIMUM WHEN THE HOUSE TAKES UP A MYSTERIOUS AMERICAN SPY BILL WHICH ONE MEMBER SAID INVOLVES SOMEWHAT "DIRTY BUSINESS."

AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MEASURE PERMITS THE HIGHLY SECRET CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) TO OFFER SANCTUARY IN THIS COUNTRY TO FOREIGNERS WHO MAY RISK DEATH TO AID OUR AGENTS. UP TO 100 A YEAR WOULD BE ALLOWED TO ENTER EACH YEAR WITHOUT REGARD TO IMMIGRATION LAWS.

THE CIA ALSO COULD TRAIN ITS AGENTS IN PUBLIC OR PRIVATE INSTITUTIONS HERE OR ABROAD, AND ARRANGE FOR THEIR TRAINING BY VARIOUS ASSOCIATIONS, BUSINESS FIRMS, OR THE ARMED SERVICES.

MEMBERS OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE WENT BEFORE THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE TO SEEK CLEARANCE FOR THE BILL UNDER PROCEDURE CALLING FOR ONLY MINIMUM DISCUSSION.

MAJORITY LEADER MC CORMACK (D-MASS) LATER TOLD THE HOUSE THAT IT MAY BE CALLED UP MONDAY UNDER RULES SUSPENSION PREVENTING AMENDMENTS AND LIMITING DEBATE TO 40 MINUTES.

REP. SHORT (R-MO), OPPOSING A REQUEST IN COMMITTEE FOR DEBATE ON THE FLOOR, DECLARED "THE SUBJECT MATTER IS HIGHLY SECRET AND DEALS DIRECTLY WITH OUR NATIONAL SECURITY."

"I MIGHT SAY," HE ADDED, "IT'S MORE OR LESS DIRTY BUSINESS."

REP. BROWN (R-OHIO) TOLD THE RULES COMMITTEE THAT THE ALIEN ADMISSION PROVISION "WAS INSERTED FOR SPECIAL PURPOSES WHICH CANNOT BE DISCUSSED PUBLICLY."

AND ANOTHER ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEEMAN, REP. BROOKS (D-LA), SAID THAT OPEN DEBATE AND SECURITY REVELATIONS WOULD LEAD TO "SERIOUS EMBARRASSMENT" FOR THE UNITED STATES.

THE BILL, WHICH WOULD GIVE PERMANENT AUTHORITY TO THE CIA WHICH NOW OPERATES UNDER PRESIDENTIAL EMERGENCY POWERS, IS ONE OF FOUR SECURITY MEASURES HANDED TO THE RULES COMMITTEE. IT APPROVED THE OTHER THREE BUT WITHOUT RESTRICTIVE FLOOR PROCEDURE.

THE OTHER BILLS WOULD (1) AUTHORIZE ERECTION OF A $161,000,000 RADAR AIR NET AROUND THE UNITED STATES AND ALASKA TO WARN OF THE APPROACH OF HOSTILE AIRCRAFT, (2) APPROVE A LONG RANGE GUIDED MISSILES PROVING SETUP (MILITARY MEN SAY THEY ARE ABOUT READY TO TEST A MISSILE THAT CAN GO 500 MILES HORIZONTALLY), AND (3) CREATE THE POST OF UNDERSECRETARY OF DEFENSE WHO WOULD RANK JUST UNDER THE SECRETARY.

A750X

NO PUBLIC HEARINGS WERE HELD ON THE SPY BILL. ONE AIM OF IT IS TO ENCOURAGE AND COMPENSATE FOREIGNERS FOR THEIR HELP. OFFICIALS SAID AMERICAN AGENTS HAVE OPERATED ON A "POVERTY BASIS, WITHOUT SPECIFIC CONGRESSIONAL AUTHORITY FOR THEIR SPY WORK OR FOR PAYMENT TO INFORMERS.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS ALSO SAY THE PENDING BILL WOULD HELP BRING RENEGADE COMMUNISTS FORWARD WITH INFORMATION FROM THE IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES.

WHILE THE BILL WOULD PUT THE STAMP OF DIRECT AUTHORITY ON PRESENT CIA OPERATIONS, ITS BUDGET WOULD CONTINUE TO BE HIDDEN WITHIN EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT RECORDS. ITS PERSONNEL AND ACTIVITIES WOULD REMAIN SECRET.

REP. BROWN WANTED TO KNOW IF THE BILL WOULD GIVE THE CIA POWER TO OPERATE WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AS "A SORT OF OGPU," OR SECRET POLICE.

IN ANSWER REP. SASSCER (D-MO) SAID THE CIA OPERATES "SOLELY WITHOUT THE UNITED STATES" WHILE THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION OPERATES SOLELY WITHIN IT. THERE IS SOME LIAISON BETWEEN THEM, HE ADDED.

NEW YORK, MARCH 4-(AP)-GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL SAID TONIGHT THAT THROUGH THE "MAGNIFICENT" WORK OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM "MORE COOPERATION HAS BEEN SHOWN IN FIVE MONTHS THAN IN THE PREVIOUS 500 YEARS."

MARSHALL AND HIS SUCCESSOR, SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, WERE SPEAKERS AT THE TENTH ANNUAL DINNER OF THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO MARSHALL, ACHESON MADE A PASSING REFERENCE TO THE REPLACEMENT OF RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV BY DEPUTY MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY.

NEITHER MARSHALL NOR ACHESON WOULD COMMENT ON THE SHIFT, BUT ACHESON SAID:

"TO SUCCEED MARSHALL REQUIRES MORE COURAGE THAN ONE MAN IS REQUIRED TO SUMMON IN A LIFETIME. INDEED, I'M WONDERING HOW MR.VISHINSKY FEELS ABOUT THIS SITUATION."

MARSHALL EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE "DETERMINED TO GO THROUGH WITH" THE MARSHALL PLAN. HE PRAISED THE PLAN'S ADMINISTRATION DESPITE DIFFERENCES IN LANGUAGES, HISTORICAL BACKGROUNDS AND AGE-OLD CONTROVERSIES OF THE 16 MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS.

HE SAID THERE HAD BEEN A "TREMENDOUS CHANGE IN THIS COUNTRY AND PEOPLE DON'T REALIZE THE EFFECT OF WHAT WE SAY AND DO. WE ARE UNACCUSTOMED TO OUR POSITION AS A POWERFUL INFLUENCE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD."

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW, HE SAID, THAT IN THE POSTWAR YEARS "THE RULES WERE ALL AGAINST US.

"SOME PEOPLE SAID WE WERE ON THE SIDE OF A CUMBERSOME DEMOCRACY," HE SAID. "ALL OUR ACTIONS AND EVERYTHING WE SAID WERE COMMENTED O'."

"ON THE OTHER SIDE, A SMALL GROUP OF MEN--10 OR 12 MEN--DETERMINED EVERYTHING."

HE ADDED THAT THE NEWSPAPERS AND THE PEOPLE GOVERNED BY THESE MEN "HAD LITTLE ELSE TO DO BUT ACQUIESCE."

NORWEGIAN AMBASSADOR WILHELM MUNTHE DE MORGENSTIERNE SPOKE OF THE "ABSOLUTELY PEACEFUL" AIMS OF THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC PACT AND PRAISED THE "GLORIOUS RED ARMY WHICH WAS THE FIRST TO LIBERATE A PART OF NORWEGIAN SOIL."

COMMENTING ON CURRENT NEWSPAPER REPORTS, HE SAID THAT "THERE IS A VERY GOOD CHANCE OF DENMARK'S JOINING IN THE PACT."

TALKS WITH SWEDEN AND DENMARK TOWARD A SCANDINAVIAN PACT, HE SAID, PRODUCED NO RESULTS BECAUSE THEY DID NOT BELIEVE THEY COULD DEFEND THEMSELVES AND SWEDEN DECIDED TO CONTINUE HER NEUTRALITY POLICY.

NEW YORK, MARCH 4-(AP)-GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER HAS CALLED FOR A REVISION OF THE ARMED FORCES UNIFICATION ACT TO GIVE THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MORE AUTHORITY OVER THE THREE SERVICES--THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE.

HE SAID LAST NIGHT THAT PLANS FOR AN EFFECTIVE UNIFIED ARMED FORCES LAW HAVE BEEN OPPOSED BY "AN INTRENCHED BUREAUCRACY WHO FELT THAT IF A CIVILIAN WATCHED OVER THEIR ACTIVITIES THEY WOULD LOSE THOSE VESTED RIGHTS THAT WERE SO PRECIOUS TO THEM."

EISENHOWER IS ON LEAVE AS PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY TO HEAD TALKS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

SPEAKING BEFORE THE NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION, HE SAID THE PRESENT UNIFICATION LAW WAS COUCHED IN "WISHY-WASHY" TERMS. WHILE IT DOES NOT MAKE UNIFICATION IMPOSSIBLE, HE SAID, IT "CERTAINLY MAKES IT DIFFICULT."

THE CIVILIAN IN CHARGE OF THE UNIFIED SERVICES," HE SAID, "WAS NOT GIVEN FULL AUTHORITY TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT HE WISHED TO BE DONE, AND EVEN SOUND TECHNICAL ADVICE WAS DENIED HIM."

THE RESIGNATION OF JAMES V. FORRESTAL, THE FIRST SECRETARY FOR DEFENSE, WAS ACCEPTED YESTERDAY BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

EISENHOWER SAID HE THINKS A $15,000,000,000 (B) MILITARY BUDGET IS NOT EXCESSIVE UNDER PRESENT WORLD CONDITIONS. BUT HE CRITICIZED WHAT HE TERMED A TENDENCY TO VIEW THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION WITH "DOUBT, FEAR AND EVEN HYSTERIA."

"LET US LOOK ON OUR PROBLEMS LIKE A MAN WHO KNOWS HE IS STRONG NO MATTER HOW HUMBLE HE MAY BE," HE SAID.

TWO OTHER NEW DELHI CONFEREES, CEYLON AND NEPAL, WILL NOT BE REPRESENTED SINCE THEY DO NOT HAVE UNITED NATIONS MEMBERSHIP.

NEW YORK, MARCH 4-(AP)-COMMUNIST GERHARD EISLER PHILOSOPHIZED ABOUT FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT LAST NIGHT, AND PROPOSED A "NOBEL PRIZE FOR STUPIDITY" FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK.

"SOMETIMES I GET ARRESTED IN ORDER NOT TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY," EISLER SAID, "AND SOMETIMES I GET ARRESTED BECAUSE I DO NOT LEAVE THE COUNTRY."

EISLER, WHO HAS BEEN DESCRIBED IN WASHINGTON AS THE NATION'S NO. 1 COMMUNIST, SPOKE AT A DINNER OBSERVING THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF A HUNGER STRIKE BY HIMSELF AND FOUR OTHERS IN AN ATTEMPT TO GAIN RELEASE IN BAIL PENDING DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS. SUBSEQUENTLY BAIL WAS GRANTED.

DESCRIBING HIMSELF AS "ONLY AN AVERAGE COMMUNIST" AND "NOT THE NO. 1 COMMUNIST," EISLER SAID:

"I CAN DO NOTHING BUT CONTINUE MY FIGHT TO GO HOME (TO GERMANY), AND USE MY TIME TRYING AS MUCH AS I CAN TO SPREAD MARXIST AND LENINIST IDEALS. BUT I AIN'T (CQ) GOING TO OVERTHROW THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT--NOT BY VIOLENCE AND NOT EVEN PEACEFULLY."

EISLER SAID HE IS BEING KEPT HERE--ACCORDING TO A RECENT STATEMENT BY A FEDERAL ATTORNEY--BECAUSE "WE CAN WATCH HIM BETTER."

A WASHINGTON FEDERAL COURT INJUNCTION HAS DELAYED DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS AGAINST EISLER AND THE OTHERS BECAUSE OF ALLEGED FAILURE OF THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE TO COMPLY WITH THE ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICES ACT.

LAST NIGHT'S DINNER WAS SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN, WHICH CLARK HAS LISTED AS SUBVERSIVE.

FORT MEADE, MD., MARCH 4-(AP)--COL. HAROLD H. MCCLUNE, FORMER COMMANDER OF AN ARMY PRISON CAMP IN GERMANY, WAS ACQUITTED TODAY OF CHARGES OF NEGLECT OF DUTY AND INHUMANE TREATMENT OF INMATES.

THE SEVEN-MAN COURT MARTIAL BOARD DELIBERATED 20 MINUTES.

THREE OF MCCLUNE'S SUBORDINATES PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN CLEARED OF THE CHARGES IN SEPARATE COURT MARTIALS.

FOUR ENLISTED MEN AT THE WURZBURG REHABILITATION CENTER COMPLAINED THEY SUFFERED FROSTBITE WHILE PRISONERS [redacted] in January, 1947.

ONE OF THEM, NEGRO PRIVATE JOSEPH SUGGES, BLAMED THE COLD FOR AMPUTATION OF HIS FEET WHEN HE WAS FLOWN BACK TO AMERICA.

THE COLONEL, WHO WAS RECALLED FROM RETIREMENT IN SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, TRIED, TESTIFIED HE BELIEVED THE MEN PURPOSELY INFLICTED INJURY ON THEMSELVES "TO TAKE IT EASY" IN THE INFIRMARY.

HE ADMITTED THE CELL BLOCK WAS COLD. AFTER AN INSPECTION, HE TESTIFIED, HE ORDER POT-BELLIED STOVES INSTALLED.

LT. COL. WILLIAM C. FITZHUGH, THE PROSECUTOR, WAS HALTED IN HIS FINAL ARGUMANT BY BRIG. GEN. EDWIN A. ZUNDEL, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD.

ZUNDEL INTERRUPTED THE JUDGE ADVOCATE AND SNAPPED "THAT IS UNCALLED FOR."

FITZHUGH APOLOGIZED.

THE PRINCIPAL DEFENSE ARGUMENT WAS THAT COLONEL MCCLUNE'S DUTIES WERE SO UMEROUS HE WAS ABLE TO DEVOTE ONLY ABOUT ONE-THIRD OF HIS TIME TO THE PRISON STOCKADE.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 4-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS DECIDED TODAY TO EMBARK AT ONCE ON TWO PROJECTS AIMED AT CARRYING OUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" FOR BACKWARD AREAS.

THE 18-NATION ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL APPROVED:

1. A CHILEAN PROPOSAL CALLING ON U.N. EXPERTS TO DRAFT BY NEXT JULY A DETAILED REPORT ON POSSIBLE WAYS OF FINANCING ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT OF UNDEVELOPED REGIONS AND SPEEDING UP THE INTERNATIONAL FLOW OF PRIVATE CAPITAL.

2. A U.S. PROPOSAL ORDERING U.N. ECONOMISTS TO SUBMIT A CONCRETE PROGRAM BY JULY TO IMPLEMENT THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM FOR LARGE-SCALE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO BACKWARD AREAS.

THE VOTE ON BOTH PROPOSALS WAS 15 TO 0, WITH RUSSIA, WHITE RUSSIA AND POLAND ABSTAINING. THE SOVIET BLOC HAD ATTACKED THE TRUMAN PROGRAM AS A SCHEME TO GIVE WALL STREET CONTROL OF THE UNDEVELOPED AREAS.

THE COUNCIL ALSO ASKED THAT VARIOUS U.N. BODIES, INCLUDING SUCH SPECIALIZED AGENCIES AS THE INTERNATIONAL BANK, GIVE TOP PRIORITY TO THE QUESTION OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

TODAY'S ACTION CAME JUST ONE WEEK AFTER U.S. ASSISTANT SECRETARY

OF STATE WILLARD L.THORP OUTLINED THE TRUMAN PROGRAM TO THE COUNCIL. THE DELEGATES HOPE TO HAVE A CONCRETE FORMULA BEFORE THEM WHEN THEY MEET IN GENEVA THIS SUMMER.

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE DISCLOSED AT HIS WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE THAT U.N. EXPERTS ALREADY ARE AT WORK ON THE PROGRAM. HE ALSO ANNOUNCED HE WOULD CALL TOGETHER IN NEW YORK LATER THIS MONTH THE HEADS OF ALL THE U.N. SPECIALIZED AGENCIES FOR TALKS ON THE TRUMAN PROGRAM.

THE COUNCIL DISPOSED OF THE ISSUE JUST AS LIE AND TWO OF HIS ASSISTANT SECRETARIES-GENERAL, BYRON PRICE AND ADRIAN PELT, PREPARED TO LEAVE FOR GENEVA TO STUDY THE PROBLEM OF HOUSING U.N. THE CHILEAN PROPOSAL ORDERED U.N. EXPERTS TO STUDY POSSIBLE WAYS OF FINANCING THE DEVELOPMENT OF BACKWARD AREAS.

THE AMERICAN MEASURE CALLED FOR CONCRETE PLANS TO PROVIDE LARGE-SCALE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO UNDER-DEVELOPED REGIONS.

BOTH RESOLUTIONS WERE PASSED BY 15 TO 0, WITH RUSSIA, WHITE RUSSIA AND POLAND ABSTAINING.

Russia Attacks Plan For West German State

MAR 5 1949

COLD WAR STEPPED UP AS SOVIET CHIEF BARS RECOGNITION, APPROVAL

Sokolovsky, In Letter To Clay, Lists Claims To Property

Berlin, March 5 (AP)—The Soviet Union served notice tonight it will not recognize or accept the western German state being formed under the guidance of the United States, France and Britain.

The notice came in a letter from Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian commander in Germany, to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor. The letter bitterly attacked the United States' restitution policies in Germany and gave no indication there will be any softening of Russia's cold war against the West.

[Editor's Note—Sokolovsky's letter gives the first indication of what the Kremlin's policy is to be under its new Foreign Minister, Andrei Y. Vishinsky. In his initial appraisal of the Vishinsky-Molotov switch, Paul W. Ward in The Sun yesterday warned against assumptions, voiced in many quarters, that the Moscow shakeup presaged a move toward rapprochement with the United States and other non-Communist powers.]

Attacks U.S. Policy

After listing scores of Soviet claims against properties in western Germany, Sokolovsky gave the warning about the proposed western German state.

The letter claimed the United States has blocked Soviet attempts to obtain their lawful properties in western Germany. It went into great detail and attacked the United States restitution policy.

The letter, distributed by the Soviet news agency, said in part that the situation regarding the restitution of Soviet property in the American occupation zone of Germany is "completely inadmissable."

Sokolovsky stressed in his letter that the Soviet Union got back properties worth only 80,000 marks in 1948 while other nations, mainly those of the western bloc, had received properties worth 174,000,000 marks.

"These facts show," the letter said, "that such unsatisfactory results were caused by efforts of American authorities to prevent the restitution of Soviet property looted by the Nazis."

Sabotage Of Mission Charged

The letter claimed United States authorities in Germany have sabotaged activities of the Soviet restitution mission by not permitting the Russian mission to inspect German factories, archives, museums, and art galleries in its efforts to pin down Soviet properties there.

The communication said most of the Soviet applications for return of Russian property have been turned down by American authorities under several pretenses, even in cases when the German had said Soviet property was in their hands.

Attlee Inspects Air Lift, Calls It World Wonder

Arrives in Berlin on 2-Day Tour of Operations in American, British Zones

BERLIN, March 5 (AP).—Prime Minister Attlee tonight called the Berlin air lift "one of the wonders of the world."

After a tour of the British and American airports in this blockaded city Mr. Attlee told reporters "there will never be anything like this."

Mr. Attlee declined, at a three-minute news conference, to comment on Russia's change of Foreign Ministers.

A British correspondent asked whether the British government planned to take the initiative to bring about new four-power talks on Germany. Before Mr. Attlee could reply, Group Captain B. C. Yarde, Gatow airport commander, interrupted: "I want to remind you gentlemen that the Prime Minister came here to talk of the air lift."

Shaking hands with German ground workers at Gatow, Mr. Attlee declared: "We are working for a common goal." A German spokesman replied: "We are glad to participate in this great task."

Mr. Attlee arrived last night for a two-day tour of air-lift operations here and in the British zone. He inspected Tempelhof, the American airdrome, this morning. General Lucius D. Clay, American commander, and American Ambassador Robert D. Murphy greeted him.

"You're doing a grand job," he told an American crew.

Vishinsky's Old Post Goes To Gromyko

Former Ambassador To U. S. Is Named Foreign Deputy

LONDON, March 5 (AP).—Andrei A. Gromyko, who has made many sharp attacks on the Western Powers before the United Nations, has been appointed Russia's First Deputy Foreign Minister, the Moscow radio announced tonight.

He succeeds fiery Andrei Y. Vishinsky, advanced yesterday to the post of Foreign Minister to succeed Vyacheslav M. Molotov.

In contrast to his predecessor, Gromyko is quiet and soft-spoken. Nevertheless, he was in the forefront of many East-West clashes in the U.N. Security Council, where he headed the Soviet delegation from 1946 to 1948.

RETURNED HOME LAST YEAR

He was Russian Ambassador to Washington from 1943 until 1946. Gromyko returned to Russia last July and spent a long vacation in the Crimea before assuming new duties in the Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

The new appointment was obviously a promotion for Gromyko. Although he had been Deputy Foreign Minister since 1946, he was junior by several months to another deputy, Jakob A. Malik, who succeeded Gromyko as head of the Russian U.N. delegation.

TRUCE BID DOUBTED

Most diplomatic observers in London agree that the Russian cabinet shakeup hardly foreshadows any bid for truce in the cold war between East and West. All of them conceded it might presage some Soviet Politburo plan to woo the West, but only a small minority say they think it actually does. Vishinsky for Molotov is not construed as much of a peace move.

Many diplomats speculated that Molotov is on the way upstairs to greater power, although conceding frankly they have no inside information to guide them.

There was speculation that the aging Prime Minister Josef Stalin, now 69, is preparing to hand over power to Molotov, his No. 1 lieutenant.

An informed source, close to Britain's Foreign Office, said he believed Molotov was about to become a sort of super-director of Russian policy, or "general supervisor of foreign policy."

Georges Bidault, former French Foreign Minister who has negotiated with both Molotov and Vishinsky in Big Four discussions, pretty well summed up the views of the skeptical majority of observers:

"My reaction is not good. I fear that optimism would be foolhardy."

ANNOUNCEMENTS CITED

The most optimistic observers pinned their hopes on the Moscow radio's handling of the announcement last night (early Saturday, Moscow time).

It was made in a Russian-language broadcast at dictation speed just after an English-language broadcast which said the Soviet Union desires peace and "unswervingly conducts a policy of cooperation among all democratic countries, regardless of their internal social system."

The Kremlin has not explained whether the fact the two pronouncements moved close together was significant. No-body outside the Kremlin walls can tell for a certainty.

Official spokesmen for British and European governments carefully withheld official comment until things have crystallized. But informally they had plenty to say, and most of them saw nothing to cause them to rejoice.

They noted that Communist leaders outside Russia have adopted a militant policy in recent weeks, in sharp contrast to their earlier declarations that there was no reason why Communist and capitalist countries can't live peaceably. Chiefs of the Communist movement in France, Italy, Britain, Germany, Austria and some other places have changed the theme to talk of war. Maurice Thorez, the French Communist leader, started it off by saying Soviet troops pursuing an aggressor on French soil should be welcomed by the people.

The diplomats said that looked like a poor build-up for any spectacular peace gesture.

REYNAUD OPTIMISTIC

A source close to the British Foreign Office saw little to choose between the toughness of Molotov and Vishinsky. He said one has expounded Politburo policy as vigorously as the other, and Vishinsky is not known as a gentle man.

But Paul Reynaud, who was wartime Premier of France, took an optimistic slant nevertheless. He said Vishinsky's appointment "may be considered as the sign of a change in Soviet foreign policy at which the friends of peace can only rejoice." He speculated that Molotov was relieved because of "a certain number of disappointments" over his policies. Failure to stop the West's plans for a North Atlantic defense pact, and failure to head off a formation of a West-German government authorized by the Western occupation forces in Germany are two examples.

AUSTRIA SEES NO CHANGE

Officials in Austria, whose independence treaty depends on solution of the Big Four deadlock in talks at London, said privately they do not expect Russia's relations with the West will ease.

Many European newspapers, as their first reaction, speculated that Molotov had been fired. They did not agree, however, on what the shift means. Many of them counseled patience until somebody in the Kremlin tells a little more.

In Italy, the independent rightist Giornale d'Italia headlined its story, "grave dissension in the Kremlin" and called Molotov "victim No. 1 of the Atlantic pact."

Il Populo, organ of Premier Alcide

de Gasperi's Christian Democratic Party, said it is premature to say now whether it means the Russian attitude will harden or soften. It said Molotov had met "considerable difficulties" on foreign policy matters.

Berlin newspapers connected with the Western Allies foresaw little change in Soviet policy as a result of the cabinet shuffle. The Soviet licensed Nacht Express carried a cautious hint that the shift may give Molotov more power.

Scandinavian countries, under strong Russian pressure to stay out of the North Atlantic pact, refrained from editorial comment. The influential Aftontidningen of Stockholm, in a news story, however, interpreted it "as a sign of a hardening Russian foreign policy."

Two Russians Called 'Best Filibusterers' By Vandenberg

Washington, March 5 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) said today Russia's shift of Andrei Y. Vishinsky to Foreign Minister succeeding Vyacheslav M. Molotov means a "ruthless" man replaces a "relentless" man.

Vandenberg admitted that "I do not know what the latest shift among the Soviet czars means." He added:

"If the change means anything, it remains for the (Soviet) Politburo overlords to say. But while there is life there is hope."

"Best Filibusterers"

Vandenberg, chief Republican exponent of the nation's bipartisan foreign policy, was the first American leader to comment on Russia's switch of foreign ministers. He is former chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He said Vishinsky and Molotov have proved themselves "the most accomplished pair of filibusterers I ever saw perform" in thwarting peace efforts.

Vandenberg gave these descriptions:

"Mr. Molotov is solemn, stern, imperturbable—and relentless.

"Mr. Vishinsky is vivid, eloquent, lively—and ruthless."

Ambassador Meets Webb

Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin called on Under Secretary of State Webb this afternoon.

Panyushkin had requested the appointment earlier for undisclosed purposes.

There was no on-the-record evidence that Panyushkin had any instructions to provide the American Government with information on the shakeup.

There was speculation that he may have wanted to discuss the New York "spy case" involving a Russian working for the United Nations.

Truman Silent

At the White House, William D. Hassett, presidential secretary, said there would be no comment from President Truman. He said the change was not mentioned at the regular staff meeting with the President today.

The Soviet shift had diplomatic authorities running a wide range of possibilities in seeking a meaning. These veered from a dangerous move in the cold war to a sign that Russia may be planning a "softer" attitude toward the West.

Some said it might be no more than a simple administrative change. Officials agreed that only future developments will clarify the situation.

Secretary of State Acheson and former Secretary Marshall withheld comment.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee agreed with Vandenberg that the United States will have to wait to see what the Soviet Foreign Office change means.

Foe Of Democracies

He said that as American representative to numerous international conferences, he thinks he knows something of the attitude of both Molotov and Vishinsky. He went on:

"Each is a militant supporter of the Soviet policy of opposition to the democracies of Western Europe and particularly to the United States. . . .

"It is to be hoped that the changes may evidence an approach to international co-operation and the search for world peace within the United Nations. Within a short time we shall no doubt be enabled to make an appraisal of Russian policy and learn whether or not any changes therein are imminent."

A third member of the committee, Senator Smith (R., N.J.), said: "I don't get very much cheer from the fact that Mr. Vishinsky, who has been very difficult, is succeeding Mr. Molotov, who also has been very difficult."

See Possible Gains

But one authority on Russian relations, who asked that his name be withheld, said the change might forecast an easing of tension between the Soviet Union and the West.

Negotiations toward an Atlantic security pact, he said, may have "pushed the Soviets into a clear demonstration that their present policies have failed."

Others took a dimmer view. Representative Lawrence Smith (R., Wis.), of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said, "I'm looking for some drastic move. I wouldn't be surprised to see the Russians go into Helsinki, and Norway also."

Officials said there was no prior indication that Molotov was on the way out, or that he was due a shift. He has been considered a possible successor to Premier Joseph Stalin.

In 1939 Molotov replaced Maxim Litvinov, generally considered more friendly toward the West.

The change then was a prelude to Russia's nonaggression pact with Germany on the eve of World War II.

Minor News In Daily Worker

New York, March 5 (AP)—The Daily Worker, Communist party organ in the United States, carried the story of the Molotov-Vishinsky shift in Russia on the bottom of Page 3 today. It ran 150 words.

British Eggs, Milk To Be Ration Free

London, March 5 (AP)—Eggs and milk will be ration free during the flush production period this spring for the first time since 1941, John Strachey, Food Minister, said today.

He added, however, "I am not claiming that this is more than temporary."

Present egg and milk rations seek to guarantee every infant one egg and a pint of milk a day, and every adult about one egg and two and a half pints of milk a week.

Extra supplies sometimes are available above the rationed minimum.

British Recall Demand Protested By Romania

London, March 5 (AP)—Romania told Britain today her demand for the recall of two Romanian diplomats here was an "unjustified reprisal."

Britain asked for the withdrawal of Eugen Balas and Jacob Magura, Romanian Legation officials, after Romania demanded recall of Charles Robinson and William Watson, British Legation officials in Bucharest. The Romanians said Robinson and Watson took "an active part in the conspiracies of . . . plotters, spies and saboteurs."

Romania, in a note delivered today, protested Britain's counteraction saying the British are "not in a position to give any reason" for their action.

French Spy Probe Called U.S.Inspired

PARIS, March 5 (AP).—Communism's official voice in France, the newspaper L'Humanite, charged today the current French spy investigation was begun "on orders from Washington."

Police have arrested eight Communists, one of whom they say has admitted giving French arms secrets to a foreign military attache.

L'Humanite quoted the independent weekly Aux Ecoutes (the Listening [illegible] as saying: "We are in a position to specify that the American information services are not unfamiliar with the recent operation."

"Thus," said L'Humanite, "the operation of (Interior Minister Jules) Moch seems to have been organized by foreign information services and on orders from Washington so as to eliminate more easily and system-atically every Communist from government positions and from nationalized industries, in accordance with the purest totalitarian orthodoxy."

Atlantic Pact Issue May Split Italian Cabinet

Leaders of Right-Wing Socialists Opposed to Italy Joining Alliance

ROME, March 5 (AP).—Italy's plans to enter the proposed North Atlantic security pact have encountered opposition from the Socialist Labor party (P. S. L. I.), and a Cabinet crisis is threatened. Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition government, which includes the moderate P. S. L. I., already has pledged its support to the projected alliance.

The party's directors voted yesterday to oppose Italian adherence to any treaty 'which might sooner or later include assumption of military pledges." The vote was eight to seven, splitting the party's directorate and weakening the leadership of Vice-Premier Giuseppe Saragat, who heads the P. S. L. I.

The directors accepted a motion proposed by a Left-Wing party director, Ugo Guido Mondolfo, contending that membership in an alliance such as the Atlantic pact would "damage the interests not only of Italy but of Europe as well."

The motion said "a state of (internal) disorder" might result from adherence to such a pact. A party spokesman said the resolution was aimed at the present form of the proposed alliance.

A counter motion proposed by Mr. Saragat was defeated. It called for Italian adherence to "a particular statute" offering "maximum security to the democratic nations."

Members of Parliament who belong to the P. S. L. I. will meet Monday or Tuesday to consider the directors' decision. Normally, they approve the directors' policy decisions almost automatically. This time the legislators will be asked to decide whether the matter should be submitted to a party congress, because the decision yesterday was by such a narrow margin.

ANTI-ZIONIST DRIVE NOTED

Italian Agency Reports Move In Eastern Europe

Rome, March 5 (AP)—A report that Iron Curtain countries are fostering propaganda campaigns against zionism and the State of Israel was carried by the Italian news agency Astra today. The dispatch, from Trieste, said some Zionists had been expelled.

Astra mentioned no specific country. It said only that the campaigns were in eastern Europe's "new democracies," the term used in that area to describe Communist-led states.

Communist party orators and the controlled press in Communist countries accuse Zionists of being controlled by reactionary interests in Britain and the United tSates, the dispatch said. It quoted Communist propagandists as assailing "the alarming situation that has arisen in the State of Israel through the action of reactionary forces."

Designed To Save People

In each country, the article said, the campaign is billed as being designed to save the people from "the depressing influence of Zionists" and "Zionist intrigues."

It quoted newspaper articles and orators as demanding that "the hearths of Zionist propaganda be annihilated in the new democracies" and that "those resisting be expelled."

Hungary, Rumania Send Poland Meat

WARSAW, March 5 (AP).—Poland is importing meat from Hungary and Rumania to relieve shortages in cities.

The government said 56 carloads of meat arrived from Hungary for Warsaw, Lodz and the Silesian districts. Rumania was reported sending 1000 tons.

The sale of meat is expected to be restricted to three days a week. Long lines of buyers form before shops as early as 5 A. M. to get the limited supplies. Hotels, restaurants and cafes have ample amounts. The government said bad distribution caused the shortages and asserted the situation is easing.

Gestapo Chief To Die

Warsaw, Poland, March 5 (AP)—Fritz Adolf Fischer, wartime Gestapo chief for the German general government of Poland, was sentenced to death by a district court today for killing thousands of Jews.

Envoy Informs Danes: 'Expect Russ To React'

Copenhagen, Denmark, March 5 (AP)—The Danish Minister in Moscow has reported to his Government that its affiliation with the Atlantic pact could be expected "to result in reaction" from the Soviet Government, a high parliamentary authority said today.

The report from the Minister, K. A. Monrad-Hansen, did not suggest what the reaction might be.

The Danish Government announced yesterday that it was sending Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen to Washington next week to seek "the best possible basis for Denmark's final attitude" on joining the contemplated alliance.

Yugoslavia Closes Polish Bureau

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 5 (AP).—Yugoslavia shut the Polish Information Service headquarters in Belgrade today. The action came as new testimony of increasing strain between the Tito government and Cominform countries.

A sign in the window of the Polish bureau said only that the closing had been ordered by the Yugoslav government. It added a request for the return of books on loan.

The Belgrade press recently denounced the Polish bureau's activities as primarily propaganda. Cited in particular were displays purporting to show differences between Polish and Yugoslav food rations. It was charged they presented a false picture of conditions in Poland.

To 8 Years Imposed

BUDAPEST, Hungary, March 5 (AP).—A Workers' Court convicted 13 persons today of black market money deals in an alleged political conspiracy with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty and sentenced them to prison.

NIGHT

Simultaneously, Communist Deputy Premier Matyas Rakosi charged diplomatic documents proved the Vatican had plotted to form a "union of Catholic countries" as a Danube monarchy. He said in a speech that efforts to reach an agreement between the Roman Catholic Church and the Hungarian government failed "because the Vatican placed their interests at the disposal of American imperialism."

(The Vatican has refused to negotiate church-state differences with Hungary until Cardinal Mindszenty is freed from his life sentence and freedom of religion is guaranteed in Hungary.)

Among the 13 convicted today were Msgr. Imre Boka, the Cardinal's former treasurer, and two other Roman Catholic priests. Msgr. Boka's sentence was fixed at four years' imprisonment, loss of political rights for an additional five years, and a fine of 1000 florients ($83).

The heaviest sentence — eight years — was imposed on Dr. Gabor Horvath, former secretary to Duke Paul Esterhazy. Horvath had pleaded guilty and asked that blame be placed on him, rather than on the Duke, who was convicted Feb. 8 with Cardinal Mindszenty and sentenced to 15 years in prison. Esterhazy once was the wealthiest man in Hungary.

The court rejected efforts of six defendants to withdraw pre-trial confessions which they said were drawn from them by police intimidation.

BROKER GETS 3 YEARS

Presiding Judge Pal Biro called the repudiation by Georgy Nagy, a broker, "an attempt to influence court room spectators" and sentenced him to three years in jail.

In rejecting repudiations by Zsigmond Deutsch, a broker, and the four others, Judge Biro said the evidence showed their pre-trial confessions "could not be the inventions of police authorities."

Deutsch who pleaded that he had confessed and implicated four innocent persons only because he was held in solitary confinement, was sentenced to four years. The other four who repudiated, and their sentences, are:

Ede Dukesz and Victor Dukesz, three years and $5250 fine each; Pal Csonka, three and a half years and $2125 fine, and Mrs. Jozsef Forgacs, 18 months and $83 fine.

OTHER SENTENCES

Other sentences were:

Rev. Jozsef Zid, treasurer of the Jesuit order in Hungary, and the Jesuit Brother Janos Zaradi, three years in jail each, and nine years loss of political rights.

Karoly Foldes, a broker, four years imprisonment.

Dezso Tolnai, a banker, two years imprisonment and $1250 fine.

Gabor Vajkai, a banker, one year in jail and $1830 fine.

Under Hungarian law, the sentence of a Workers' Court may not be appealed. Cardinal Mindszenty was convicted by a People's Court, from which appeal is permitted. The Cardinal seeks a reduction of sentence, and the prosecution has countered with an appeal that the sentence of life imprisonment was not heavy enough.

2 TRIALS DUE LATER

The number of defendants had been reduced by illness from 15 to 14, and then 13. Trials of Divadar Wydler, a banker, and Sandor Foldes, a broker, will be held later.

Deputy Premier Rakosi made his charge against the Vatican at a meeting of leaders of the Hungarian Workers (Communist and Socialist) Party, of which he is secretary-general.

He spoke of the case of Cardinal Mindzenty, the Hungarian five-year plan and problems of the party and the government. Referring to the alleged plan for a "Danubian monarchy," he said the United States permitted Archduke Otto Hapsburg, pretender to the non-existent Austro-Hungarian throne, to form an Austrian Legion in 1942. 13 Jailed in Hungary As Mindszenty Plotters

Terms Ranging Up

13 Given Terms In Money Case In Hungary

Budapest, Hungary, March 5 (AP). A workers' court today convicted thirteen persons accused of conspiring with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in black-market money dealings. They received prison terms ranging from one to eight years and were fined.

Pal Biro, the presiding judge, ruled that six of the accused could not withdraw confessions made before the trial. The six asserted in court that they had been intimidated.

MAR 6 1949

Other Defendants

The judge said these assertions had to be considered in the light of testimony from other defendants that they had been questioned by police "under the most liberal circumstances."

Appeals from Workers' Court sentences are not allowed. Cardinal Mindszenty and his codefendants were tried and sentenced by a Peoples' court, from which appeals are permitted.

The judge said one charge of intimidation made by Gyorgy Nagy, broker, was "nothing but an attempt to influence courtroom spectators."

Other confessions defendants sought to repudiate, he said, were "clear and convicing and could not be the invention of police authorities."

Prosecutor Displeased

The prosecutor, Lajos Hegyvari, was visibly displeased with the sentences, which most in the courtroom regarded as light.

Cardinal Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment February 8. An appeal has been filed. Among those tried in the present case was the Cardinal's treasurer.

Three of the thirteen were Roman Catholic priests. One of these was Msgr. Imre Boka, the Cardinal's treasurer. He was sentenced to four years in prison and loss of political rights for another five years and was fined 1,000 florients ($83).

Dr. Gabor Horvath, former secretary to Duke Paul Esterhazy, drew the longest term—eight years.

Took The Blame

He took all the blame in the currency speculations charge of which his employer was accused, saying he would rather face death than be disloyal.

Esterhazy, once the richest man in Hungary, was sentenced to fifteen years on February 8.

Those sentenced today were described by the Communist-run Government as minor actors in an alleged political conspiracy. They included several bankers and brokers. (ADD)

Two Jesuits Sentenced

Two other priests — the Rev. Jozsef Zid, treasurer of the Jesuit Order in Hungary, and his subordinate, Jesuit Brother Janos Zaradi — were sentenced to three years, and nine years' loss of political rights. Nagy was sentenced to three years in jail.

Two bankers were sentenced to lesser terms: Dezso Tolnai, two years and $1,250, and Gabor Vajkai, one year and $1,830.

Another Repudiation

Another broker, Zsigmond Deutsch, who repudiated a pre-trial confession in which he named four other persons as accomplices, was sentenced to four years.

The four he implicated were sentenced to 18 months to 3½ years and fined. They, too, withdrew pretrial confessions, also charging intimidation.

Deutsch said in court he was only partly guilty. He said he named four acquaintances at random in order to get himself freed from a month's solitary confinement.

Those He Named

The four he named, together with their sentences, were:

Mrs. Jozsef Forgacs, eighteen months and $83.

Ede Dukesz, three years and $5,250.

Viktor Dukesz, three years and $5,250.

Pal Csonka, three years and six months and $2,125.

Another broker, Karoly Foldes, was sentenced to four years. The trials of two other defendants—Divadar Wydler, a banker, and Sandor Foldes, a broker—were postponed because of illness.

Magyar Charges Vatican Plot

Budapest, March 5 (AP)—Matyas Rakosi, Communist Deputy Premier, asserted today the Vatican had plotted to form a "union of Catholic countries" as a Danube monarchy.

Rakosi said the Communist-led Hungarian Government failed to agree with the Catholic Church "because the Vatican placed their interests at the disposal of American imperialism."

He spoke at a meeting of the central leadership of the Hungarian Workers party (Communist), of which he is secretary general. The party is a merger of the Communists and Socialists.

Considered "Real Boss"

Rakosi is also chairman of the "People's Front of Independence," the national coalition of parties governing Hungary. [He is regarded abroad as Hungary's real boss.]

DAY

He spoke of the case of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, the Hungarian five-year plan, and the problems of the party and coalition.

He asserted the Vatican's plan for a "Danubian monarchy" was proved by diplomatic documents. He recalled that the United States permitted Otto Hapsburg, pretender to the Hungarian throne, to form in 1942 an "Austrian Legion."

"Vatican Pacts"

Rakosi said the Vatican "gladly concluded a pact with Hitler and Mussolini and supported Mindszenty even when the Hungarian Government placed the charges against him at the Vatican's disposal."

He asserted the Vatican "does not want agreement and peace, but war and unrest."

He said the Hungarian people "were pleased by the arrest and trial of Mindszenty and greeted it with enthusiasm." [The 1941 census showed 65.7 per cent of the Hungarians to be Roman Catholics.]

CLERICS' FATE DUE TUESDAY

15 Bulgarian Protestants Beg Court Mercy in Final Pleas

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 5 (AP)—Verdicts in the treason trial of fifteen Bulgarian Protestant ministers are to be returned at 3 P.M. (8 A.M., E.S.T.) Tuesday. All begged the court's mercy in final pleas today.

A motion-picture crew filmed the scene as the ministers, four of them weeping, again expressed repentance and asked for a new chance to work for the Communist-controlled Government.

They face possible penalties ranging from ten years' imprisonment to death on charges of seeking to overthrow the Government, spying for the United States and Britain and dealing illegally in foreign currency.

NIGHT

Most Emotional Plea

The No. 1 defendant, the Rev.

Vassil Ziapkov, made the longest and most emotional plea, crying:

"If you were a Fascist court I would not expect from you other than simply a verdict, but since you are a people's court I expect something more than a punishment, a chance to repair my errors. I am starting a new life. My old life ends today. Up to now, I have been serving foreign gods. Please help me to become a hero of the Fatherland Front (the Government). If you give me the gift of life, I shall dedicate my life to faithful work for the Fatherland Front."

The prosecution has demanded death for Ziapkov, 48-year-old Congregationalist, and three others who served with him on the Supreme Council of the United Evangelical Churches of Bulgaria.

Phrases In Pleas

Others who wept were the Rev. Nikola Naumov, 49, a Baptist associate of Ziapkov on the Supreme Council, and two lesser defendants, the Rev. Ladin Popov, 36, Pentecost, and the Rev. Alexander Zahariev, 65, a Methodist.

Naumov said he was a sick man and "my days are numbered" but a study of Communist literature in jail had given him "a new insight into life and I now want to repair my sins."

One of the shortest pleas was made by Rev. Georgi Charnev, 46, Pentecost pastor and Supreme Council member, for whom the prosecution demanded death.

"I pray for mercy and I repent," he said. "I have put an end to my shameful past and I ask for an extenuating and just verdict."

Through other pleas ran such phrases as:

"Give me a chance to work for socialism."

"I want to dedicate my life to the Fatherland Front."

"I will represent a contribution to my people."

U.S. Radio Assailed

After the pleas, the court recessed until Tuesday.

Defense lawyers, who completed their addresses to the court this morning, denounced Western capitalism and American church mission boards as "the real master of the fifteen, just as did the prosecution.

Defense lawyer Georgi Mehskov assailed the United States radio Voice of America in his speech, saying:

"I raise the voice of distrust against the drunken Voice of America, which said last night there is no religious freedom in Bulgaria."

The trial has been under way a week.

Bulgaria's Trial Of 15 Protestant Pastors Ends

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 5 (AP)—Bulgaria's trial of fifteen Protestant pastors for espionage and treason ended today after all the defendants made pleas for mercy and a new chance to work for the Communist-controlled Government.

The court recessed at 2.05 P.M. (7.05 A.M., E.S.T.) until 3 P.M. (8 A.M., E.S.T.) Tuesday, at which time it will pass sentence.

The prosecution demanded death sentences for the four chief defendants and long prison terms—up to life—for the other eleven.

Movies Made Of Final Pleas

Court authorities made motion pictures of the final pleas.

The longest and most emotional was made by the man regarded as the main defendant, Vassil Georgiev Ziapkov, 48, of the Congregational Church. He was one of those for whom the state asked the hanging penalty.

The other three who cried were Nikola Mihailov Naumov, 49, of the Baptist Church, who also faces a possible death sentence; and two of the lesser defendants — Ladin Ivanov Popov, 36, of the Pentecost Church, and Alexander Georgiev Zahariev, 65, Methodist Church.

Asks "Chance To Reform"

Ziapkov, through his tears, told the court:

"During this trial a moving picture of our dark criminal life has been portrayed. If you were a Fascist court, I would not expect from you other than simply a verdict, but since you are a people's court, I expect something more than a punishment, a chance to repair my errors.

"I am starting a new life. My old life ends today. Up to now I have been serving foreign gods. Please help me to become a hero of the Fatherland Front. . . . If you give me the gift of life, I shall dedicate my life to faithful work for the Fatherland Front."

A Sick Man

The Rev. Mr. Naumov cried that he was a sick man, adding: "My days are numbered." He said that while a prisoner of the secret police he had an opportunity to read "progressive" literature. This, he said, gave him "a new insight into life and I now want to repair my sins and work for the Fatherland front and the motherland."

The Rev. Yanko Nikolov Ivanov, 48, a Methodist, admitted his guilt, but pleaded for his life.

"I beg you to pass a verdict under very extenuating circumstances so that at the end of my life I will represent a contribution to my people."

"I Repent"

The Rev. Georgi Nikolov Chernev, 46, of the Pentecost Church, took just one moment to say:

"I pray for mercy and I repent. I put an end to my shameful past and I ask for a just verdict."

Most of the others also were brief in their appeals for mercy.

[Church officials both in Europe and America have denied any connections with the defendants which could be regarded as espionage.]

The main defense speeches today were in behalf of the Rev. Georgi Chernev, 46, Pentecost pastor, and Naumov, the leading defendants.

Blames "American Trusts"

Arseni Georgiev, attorney for Chernev, asserted that Protestant ministers in Bulgaria had collected information, transmitted their reports to foreign missions and been paid by these missions "for the past 70 or 80 years," and just continued this practice after the Communists took over the state. Behind those missions, he said, stand American trusts and big magnates."

Attorney Georgi Meshkov, appearing for another defendant, said: "I raise a voice of distrust against the drunken Voice of America which said there is no religious freedom in Bulgaria."

Papers Insulting National or Foreign Officials To Be Closed

TEHRAN, March 5 (AP).—The Majlis (Parliament) has passed a press law to punish newspapers which insult the Shah, his family or the heads of foreign states. The Premier, members of his Cabinet, the Speaker of the Majlis and judges also are protected by the new measure, which provides for suppression of guilty newspapers.

Newspapers which provoke the population to rise against the government also can be suppressed, under the new law. The writers of insulting articles, the law says, must be arrested and dealt with in court within twenty-four hours after their newspaper is suppressed.

NANKING SCANS PEACE ENVOYS

Li, Sun Fo Confer As Reds Charge New War Plot

Nanking, China, March 5 (AP)—Acting President Li Tsung-jen and Premier Sun Fo conferred today on the makeup of a Chinese Government mission to talk peace officially with the Communists.

Sun has said the Reds would be ready to negotiate some time after March 15. Shao Li-tze, former ambassador to Moscow, is mentioned as most likely chairman of the government delegation.

The Communist radio, however, again dashed cold water on peace efforts by accusing the Nationalists of plotting further war and declaring the No. 1 Red condition for settling the civil war still was "punishment of war criminals, including Sun Fo."

Scheme Laid To Chiang

Communist broadcasts heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press charged that Sun, the "retired" Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and others were preparing to recruit 2,500,000 more soldiers for new warfare "behind the facade of peace."

[One broadcast said Chiang had instructed Mayor K. C. Wu of Shanghai "to wait patiently for three months until completion of war preparations." Another charged, without supporting details, that the Nationalists still were receiving American munitions.

[Still another said Chiang was daily issuing orders and directing his "gang" for renewal of the war. This last allegation found some substantiation from Nanking.]

Demands Chiang Quit China

While acting President Li was working on the peace problem, the Nanking independent paper National Salvation Daily demanded that Chiang Kai-shek stop interfering in Government affairs and leave China.

"His (Chiang's) manipulation of government affairs may not be known by the public," said the paper, "but he cannot fool Communist intelligence agents.

"Either for the sake of war or peace, Chiang must go abroad. If the people want peace, they must first demand departure of Chiang, or the Communists will again start military operations within one month."

This view is echoed by many Chinese officials, including some of the closest former subordinates of Chiang.

Secret Police Active

Since the Generalissimo "retired" from China's presidency January 21, open criticism of him has been kept at a minimum by the intensified activities of his secret police. Some recent arrests, such as that of Chen Yi, former governor of Formosa, are said to have been made on direct orders from Chiang.

Arrests earlier this week of suspects in an alleged plot to kidnap acting President Li were believed by well-informed Chinese to be a political tactic engineered by Chiang from his retreat near Fenghwa, 210 miles southeast of Nanking.

Gen. Chiang Chih-chung, cabinet minister and peace advocate, was reported yesterday to have gone to Fenghwa to urge Chiang to retire more completely and to a greater distance. It is not known what luck he had, but others who have tried it before have received curt rebuffs.

China Set To Pick Peace Delegates

Nanking, March 5 (AP)—Government delegates for peace talks with the Chinese Communists may be announced after a meeting of Acting President Li Tsung-jen and Premier Sun Fo today.

Mentioned as likely choices were Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow; Chang Chih-chung, Northwest political administrator, and former Premier Chang Chun, pacification commander at Chungking.

They are Ministers Without Portfolio in Sun's Cabinet. Shao recently returned from unofficial talks in Peiping. He was an observer with W. W. Yen, elder statesman from Shanghai.

Army Changes Favored

Earlier, a committee of ten headed by Sun was reported to favor revision of China's constitution and reorganization of the Army provided the Communists soften their demand for punishment of "war criminals."

The committee is drafting proposals to make to the Reds, who have hinted a session can be held after March 15.

The Premier's administrative report is due next Tuesday to the hostile legislative Yuan.

Resignation Sought

Some legislators have demanded Sun's resignation. However, he has improved his relations with the Yuan.

Karen Rebels Battle Forces Of Government

Rangoon, Burma, March 5 (AP)—The Government announced today severe fighting is going on between Karen rebels and Government forces south of the rail town of Myitnge.

A communiqué said the Karens, who are fighting for a separate state of Karenistan, were moving northwest toward Mandalay when they ran into Government troops. Scattered fighting elsewhere in Burma also was reported—around Maymo, miles above Mandalay and at D 80 miles from Rangoon o ad to Mandalay.

War Peril Real Says Premier Of Canada

Montreal, March 5 (AP)—Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said today a person would have to lack the "most elementary realism" to consider another war an impossibility.

"There is no doubt that war is avoidable—and I am sure that if we follow our present firm policy we can avoid war," he said. "But one would have to be lacking elementary realism to consider war an impossibility."

St. Laurent made the statements in a speech at a Richelieu Club luncheon.

Blames Russ For Unrest

In the speech, largely devoted to an outline of Canada's reasons for supporting the North Atlantic alliance, the Prime Minister blamed Russia for the current international unrest.

"Because of the systematic obstruction, the bad will and the unrestrained ambitions of a great power, we cannot say that there is security in the world today," he said.

"Christian nations have not lost hope that the United Nations will work, but pending that time they are conscious of the necessity for them to assure their own security through regional pacts, such as the North Atlantic pact.

"Canada Couldn't Be Neutral"

"For my part, I am convinced that the most practical way of assuring maintenance of peace is to bring about as soon as possible the union of nations friendly to peace," he said.

If another war started, the United States and Russia inevitably would be involved. In such an eventuality, he reiterated, it would not be possible for Canada to remain neutral.

"We are, in effect, stituated between these two great powers and, whether we wished it or not, the war would be at our doorstep.

Soviet U.N. Aid Arrested With U.S. Girl Employee In Defense-Secrets Theft

FIRST LEAD PRECEDE WASHINGTON DAY SPIES

BY JOE HALL

NEW YORK, MARCH 5-(AP)-A RUSSIAN ENGINEER ON THE UNITED NATIONS STAFF AND A YOUNG WOMAN EMPLOYE OF THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WERE ACCUSED TODAY OF SPYING ON U.S. DEFENSE SECRETS. THEY WERE ARRESTED AFTER FBI AGENTS HAD STALKED THEM THROUGH BUSY NEW YORK STREETS.

SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN PROMPTLY WENT TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON AND DEMANDED THE RUSSIAN'S RELEASE. THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID MERELY IT WAS LOOKING INTO THE MATTER.

HE WAS SUSPENDED IMMEDIATELY FROM HIS U.N. POST. WILDER FOOTE, DIRECTOR OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION'S PRESS DEPARTMENT, SAID THE RUSSIAN WOULD NOT COME UNDER U.N. IMMUNITY.

FEDERAL JUDGE SIMON H.RIFKIND SET BAIL OF $20,000 FOR MISS COPLON ALTHOUGH THE GOVERNMENT SOUGHT $50,000. HER ATTORNEY DECLARED THAT DOCUMENTS FOUND IN HER PURSE WERE NOT IMPORTANT AND WERE "PLANTED."

THE 27-YEAR-OLD GOVERNMENT WORKER, MISS JUDITH COPLON, WAS ACCUSED OF TAKING SECRETS FROM DEPARTMENT FILES FOR DELIVERY TO VALENTINE A. GUBITCHEV.

LATE TONIGHT A MEMBER OF THE RUSSIAN EMBASSYY STAFF IN WASHINGTON GOT PERMISSION TO SEE GUBITCHEV AT THE FEDERAL DETENTION HOUSE.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS SAID LEV.S.TOLOKONNIKOV, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE EMBASSY IN CHARGE OF CONSULAR AFFAIRS, AND ANOTHER RUSSIAN WOULD VISIT THE PRISONER TONIGHT.

THE U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID THOMAS POWER, DEPUTY SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE U.S. MISSION, AND A NUMBER OF JUSTICE DEPARTMENT MEN WOULD SIT IN ON THE VISIT.

F.B.I. AGENTS ARRESTED THEM TOGETHER LAST NIGHT. A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE TRAIL LED FROM 193RD STREET DOWN TO 14TH STREET AS THEY SOUGHT TO EVADE SURVEILLANCE IN NEW YORK'S BUSY STREETS.

THE ACCOUNT AWAKENED CHOES OF THE SPY STORIES TOLD TO THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE LAST SUMMER BY MISS ELIZABETH BENTLEY AND WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, BOTH CONFESSED COURIERS FOR COMMUNIST ESPIONAGE RINGS.

MISS BENTLEY IN PARTICULAR DESCRIBED CLANDESTINE MEETINGS WITH GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES ON STREET CORNERS AND ELSEWHERE AT WHICH SHE SAID SHE WAS GIVEN SECRET DATA. FULL DETAILS OF HER STORY WERE NOT REVEALED AND NO PROSECUTIONS HAVE RESUL:
GUBITCHEV, 32-YEAR-OLD ENGINEER WHO HAS
THE PERMANENT U.N. HEADQUARTERS UNDER CON
$100,000 BAIL AT HIS ARRAIGNMENT.

SO FAR.
EN WORKING ON PLANS FOR CTION HERE, WAS HELD IN

THESE DOCUMENTS, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID IN ITS WASHINGTON ANNOUNCEMENT, WERE "TYPEWRITTEN SUMMARIES OF INFORMATION ABSTRACTED FROM CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS INVOLVING SECURITY DATA AND RESTRICTED INFORMATION."

THE DEPARTMENT INDICATED MISS COPLON HAD BEEN WATCHED CLOSELY FOR SOME TIME AND SAID THERE HAD BEEN OTHER "CLANDESTINE MEETINGS" BETWEEN HER AND GUBITCHEV.

MISS COPLON, A DIMUNITIVE BRUNETTE WHO SMILED AND APPEARED AT EASE AT HER ARRAIGNMENT, CAME UNDER SUSPICION AS THE RESULT OF A ROUTINE GOVERNMENT LOYALTY CHECK, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT INDICATED.

IT ADDED THAT AS SOON AS THE FBI REPORTED HER "SUSPECTED AFFILIATIONS," ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK "INSURED AGAINST THE MISUSE OF RESTRICTED INFORMATION COMING INTO THE POSSESSION OF THE DEPARTMENT."

HOWEVER, GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES WOULD NOT COMMENT ON THE ASSERTION OF MISS COPLON'S ATTORNEY THAT THE DOCUMENTS WERE "PLANTED." NOR WOULD THEY DISCUSS THE WORTH OF THE PAPERS.

THE ARRESTS WERE CONSIDERED LIKELY TO FURNISH FUEL TO CONGRESSMEN AND OTHERS WHO HAVE PROTESTED THAT SPIES AND SUBVERSIVE AGENTS MIGHT GET INTO THE UNITED STATES THROUGH U.N. AFFILIATIONS.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID THE F.B.I. TRAILED MISS COPLON FROM THE TIME SHE LEFT WASHINGTON AT 1 P.M. YESTERDAY UNTIL SHE MET GUBITCHEV AT 193RD STREET AND BROADWAY HERE AT 7:23 P.M.

A155

FROM 7:23 "UNTIL 9 P.M. BOTH THESE INDIVIDUALS AVOIDED DIRECT CONTACT WHILE THEY EMPLOYED THE USUAL TECHNIQUES USED TO DETECT SURVEILLANCE," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

"THEY FINALLY EFFECTED A CONTACT WHEN BOTH DASHED ABOARD A BUS NEAR 42ND STREET. THE TWO WERE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY ON THIRD AVENUE BETWEEN 14TH AND 15TH STREETS."

MISS COPLON'S MOTHER, MRS.SAMUEL COPLON, CRIED "I DON'T BELIEVE IT. I DON'T BELIEVE IT," WHEN TOLD BY TELEPHONE OF THE ARREST.

"WHAT'S THE MATTER, WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH MY DAUGHTER?" SHE SOBBED. "OH, TELL ME QUICK. OH GOD, GOD, PLEASE TELL ME?"

MISS COPLON WAS GRADUATED IN 1943 FROM BARNARD, THE WOMEN'S COLLEGE OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, WITH AN OUTSTANDING RECORD. SHE HAS WORKED FOR THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SINCE THEN.

GRADUATED CUM LAUDE WITH A MAJOR IN HISTORY, SHE HAD AN EXCEPTIONAL RECORD IN EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AT BARNARD AND WAS HIGHLY COMMENDED BY HER PROFESSORS. HER CLASS YEARBOOK SAID SHE IS "DEEPLY PHILOSOPHICAL ABOUT THE FUNDAMENTALS OF LIFE."

GUBITCHEV, A STOCKY MAN WHO SAT IMPASSIVELY AT THE ARRAIGNMENT, CAME TO THIS COUNTRY IN 1946 WITH A GROUP OF SOVIET ARCHITECTS AND ENGINEERS WHO WORKED ON PLANS FOR THE PERMANENT U.N. BUILDINGS.

HIS WIFE LIVES WITH HIM IN AN UPPER MANHATTAN APARTMENT. THEY HAVE A 13-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER. GUBITCHEV WORKED IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY OF THE SOVIET UNION BEFORE COMING HERE, U.N. FILES INDICATE. HIS U.N. SALARY IS $6,600 A YEAR. OFFICIALS OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION SAID HIS WORK HAD BEEN SATISFACTORY.

RAYMOND WHEARTY, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, TOLD JUDGE RIFKIND THAT THE RUSSIAN ENGINEER "HAS TO LEAVE TO RETURN TO RUSSIA IN JUNE."

WHEARTY GAVE THIS AS THE REASON FOR SEEKING $100,000 BAIL. THE JUDGE AGREED TO THE AMOUNT BUT SAID THAT WHEN GUBITCHEV OBTAINED COUNSEL, THE ATTORNEY COULD SEEK A REDUCTION.

THE JUDGE ALSO GAVE GUBITCHEV THE PRIVILEGE OF COMMUNICATING WITH THE COURT BY LETTER WITHOUT JAIL CENSORSHIP IF THE RUSSIAN HAD ANY TROUBLE IN GETTING A LAWYER.

GUBITCHEV, AFTER TELLING RIFKIND HE HAD BEEN UNABLE TO GET AN ATTORNEY SO FAR, SAID "I DO NOT KNOW THE LAW. I DO NOT NOW THE TERMS. I AM IN A DIFFICULT POSITION."

"I KNOW YOU ARE," THE JUDGE COMMENTED.

MISS COPLON'S ATTORNEY TOLD RIFKIND HIS CLIENT HAS AN "UNBLEMISHED RECORD" AND ADDED:

"SHE IS FAR FROM ANY SINISTER TYPE, FAR FROM THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE CHARGE. THE REQUEST FOR HIGH BAIL IS SLIGHTLY ON HYSTERIA AND I ASK FOR LOW BAIL IN THE INTEREST OF ALLAYING HYSTERIA."

BUT THE JUDGE REPLIED, "IT IS A GRAVE CHARGE," AND SAID HE WOULD SET BAIL AT $20,000 AS A FORM OF "GUARDIAN ANGELSHIP" FOR MISS COPLON.

NEITHER WAS ABLE TO RAISE THE BAIL.

THE SPECIFIC CHARGE AGAINST THE COUPLE IS CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ESPIONAGE TO REMOVE GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AND CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD THE GOVERNMENT OF THE IMPARTIAL SERVICES OF MISS COPLON.

U.N. OFFICIALS SAID THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE WORLD ORGANIZATION AND THE UNITED STATES ON IMMUNITY APPLIES ONLY TO U.N. EMPLOYES PERFORMING THEIR OFFICIAL DUTIES.

A U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID GUBITCHEV WAS NOT AN OFFICIAL DUTY AT THE TIME OF HIS ARREST AND THAT, IN ANY CASE, HIS SUSPENSION WOULD REMOVE ANY EXEMPTION FROM PUNISHMENT.

MEMBERS OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION TO THE U.N. COULD NOT BE REACHED FOR COMMENT ON THE ARRESTS.

IN WASHINGTON, REP. NIXON (R-CALIF) A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, DEMANDED A "FULL SCALE INVESTIGATION" OF THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT'S "SHOCKING, INEXCUSABLE LAXITY" IN THE CASE OF MISS COPLON.

SOON AFTERWARD REP.WOOD (D-GAL, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, CALLED A MEETING FOR MONDAY.

A SPOKESMAN SAID THE COMMITTEE MAY TRY TO QUESTION MISS COPLON AND GUBITSCHEV IF IT WOULD NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FBI'S WORK.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT DID NOT COMMENT ON NIXON'S CRITICISM.

SOON AFTERWARD REP.WOOD (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, CALLED A MEETING FOR MONDAY.

A SPOKESMAN SAID THE COMMITTEE MAY TRY TO QUESTION MISS COPLON AND GUBITSCHEV IF IT WOULD NOT INTERFERE WITH THE FBI'S WORK.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT DID NOT COMMENT ON NIXON'S CRITICISM.

THE GIRL'S FATHER, SAMUEL, A RETIRED TOY JOBBER, WAS KNOWN FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS AS THE "SANTA CLAUS OF THE ADIRONDACKS" BECAUSE OF HIS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS EVE PILGRIMAGE UPSTATE TO GIVE TOYS TO NEEDY MOUNTAIN CHILDREN.

TODAY HIS SON, BERTRAM, CALLED HIS FATHER "A RABID, CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN" BUT SAID THE FATHER AND DAUGHTER NEVER HAD "SERIOUSLY DISCUSSED" POLITICS.

THE BROTHER SAID MISS COPLON HAD TOLD THEM LITTLE ABOUT HER GOVERNMENT WORK AND THEY HAD NOT QUESTIONED HER BECAUSE SHE SAID THE WORK WAS CONFIDENTIAL.

Government Worker Is Seized With Him After N.Y. Chase

Washington, March 5 (AP)—Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin demanded today that the United States release a Russian United Nations attache arrested in New York on a spy charge.

Panyushkin called on Under Secretary of States James Webb and discussed the case for almost an hour.

Webb told him the State Department is looking into the matter in consultation with the Justice Department and the United Nations secretariat, for which the Russian, Valentine A. Gubitchev, worked.

Arrested with the Russian was an American woman employé of the Justice Department, Miss Judith Coplon, 27. Both were charged with stealing United States secrets.

Only Special Immunity

It was learned that in the view of responsible Washington officials Gubitchev does not have what is normally considered full diplomatic immunity.

Rather, under laws governing United States-United Nations relations, he is said to have only such immunity as is necessary for him to carry on his work in a relatively minor position.

A guarded announcement from the Justice Department hinted at a spy-thriller sequel to last summer's sensational stories of a wartime Red spy ring operating in high Government places and relaying inside information by courier to Soviet agents in New York.

Seized After Chase

Arrested in New York last night, after an uptown-downtown movie-style chase, the Justice Department said, were:

JUDITH COPLON, 27, formerly of Brooklyn, N.Y., an employe of the department since 1943. Officials would say only that she had a minor Government job.

VALENTINE A. GUBITCHEV, 32, identified by United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie as a construction engineer for the United Nation's permanent headquarters in New York.

Gubitchev was held in $100,000 bail and Miss Coplon in $20,000 bail at their arraignment in New York on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage.

Lie Suspends Russian

The Justice Department referred to Gubitchev as "a member of the Russian delegation" to the United Nations, but officials said later that he actually was an employé of the secretariat.

He is a Russian national. United Nations officials said he came here in 1946 with architects planning the United Nations headquarters building.

The case was expected to increase outcries already heard in Congress about the possibility that spies and saboteurs might enter this country through the United Nations headquarters.

Abstracts In Purse

The Justice Department said FBI agents followed Miss Coplon to New York yesterday and arrested her with Gubitchev after trailing them through elusive maneuvers.

In Miss Coplon's purse, the department said, were "typewritten summaries of information abstracted from confidential documents involving security data and restricted information."

Just what was in the documents was kept secret. The department, however, indicated that they actually were worthless.

Information Guarded

That suggestion came from the department's statement that Miss Coplon had been under suspicion for sometime as a result of information growing out of a routine loyalty check.

As soon as the FBI reported on her "suspected affiliations," the department said, Attorney General Clark "insured against the misuse of restricted information coming into the possession of the department."

Officials queried on that point would give no additional assurance. Neither would they discuss the possibility that there may have been material from sources other than the Justice Department.

Closely Watched On Trip

After its sketchy announcement of the arrest, the department clamped down on all information about the case, even to the extent of declining to give out anything on Miss Coplon's background and Washington associations.

It did say there had been previous "clandestine meetings" between Miss Coplon and Gubitchev.

"Continued investigation," it added, "disclosed that Miss Coplon's activities on March 4, 1949, paralleled her activities prior to other meetings with Gubitchev, and, accordingly, her activities were closely scrutinized from the moment she departed from Washington at 1 P.M. Friday en route to New York city.

Direct Contact Avoided

"Director Hoover (J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI) said that FBI agents observed extreme caution on the part of Miss Coplon from the moment she arrived in New York city until her contact with the Russian employé.

"From 7.23 P.M., when both appeared at the appointed place, at One Hundred and Ninety-third street and Broadway, until 9 P.M., both these individuals avoided direct contact while they employed the usual techniques used to detect surveillance.

"They finally effected a contact when both dashed aboard a bus near Forty-second street.

"I don't believe it—I don't believe it," Miss Coplon's mother sobbed when told of her daughter's arrest.

The mother, Mrs. Samuel Coplon, was reached by telephone at her Brooklyn home. At first mention of her daughter she cried:

"What's the matter? What's the mater with my daughter? Oh, tell me quick! Oh, God, God, please tell me!"

Expected Home Last Night

"I'll never believe it," she repeated when the situation was sketched for her.

Then she broke away, sobbing, and a woman who identified herself as an aunt of Miss Coplon took over the telephone.

The aunt said the family "knew something was wrong" because Miss Coplon, expected home last night, had not shown up.

"We—our family—do not believe it," the aunt added. "We'll never believe anything like that of Judith. Never! Never! Never!

Bentley Stories Paralleled

"This is our country. We were all born here and have lived here all our lives. It is our country."

She would not give any information on Miss Coplon's background.

"The two were taken into custody on Third avenue between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets."

The department would give no

hint of any connection between the activities attributed to Miss Coplon and the Russian and any previous leakage of secrets.

The few circumstances reported, however, paralleled in part the stories told to the House Un-American Activities Committee last summer by Miss Elizabeth Bentley and Whittaker Chambers, both self-described former couriers for Red spy rings engaged in stealing Government secrets.

Complaints Are Voiced

Miss Bentley and Chambers both told of street-corner meetings, contacts with Russians and trips to New York with bundles of United States security information.

Many angles of their stories have been left publicly unexplored.

The accounts set off predictions in Congress that successor spy rings some day would be found.

Restricted To New York

There have been complaints at the Capitol against exceptions to immigration laws permitting the United Nations and foreign delegations to the United Nations to bring to New York persons who otherwise would be excluded.

Several, including some known Communists, have been admitted under rules requiring them to stay in New York and its environs.

The formal charge is "conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States pertaining to the removal of Government records and defraud the United States of the faithful and impartial services of Miss Coplon."

INQUIRY ASKED ON U.S. AGENCY

Nixon Calls Justice Department 'Lax' On Espionage

Washington, March 5 (AP)—Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) demanded today a "full-scale investigation" of what he called the Justice Department's "shocking, inexcusable laxity" toward a woman employé accused of stealing official secrets.

Nixon is a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Shortly afterward, Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) called a committee meeting for Monday. And a spokesman said the group will:

1. Consider investigating the case of the woman, Judith Coplon, and the agency in the Justice Department for which she worked. She and a Russian member of the United Nations staff, Valentine A. Gubitchev, were arrested by the FBI in New York last night on spying charges.

2. Possibly decide whether to have a full-fledged investigation to determine whether foreign delegations to the United Nations are used as a base of operations for spying on the United States.

No Justice Department Comment

This committee authority said the group already has investigators at Lake Success, N.Y., the United Nations headquarters.

He said that if it can be done without interfering with the work of the FBI, the committee may try to question Miss Coplon and the Russian at a closed-door meeting soon.

The Justice Department had no comment on Nixon's criticism.

Nixon accused the department of refusing to co-operate and thus blocking an inquiry involving Miss Coplon and others in the Justice Department office in which she worked. A person associated with the committee at the time said today that the committee sought to make the investigation more than two years ago.

Mentioned In 1946 Report

Miss Coplon was mentioned in a committee investigator's report made to Chairman Wood on September 3, 1946. It said that in the office in which she worked, the division of alien registration "everything pro-Russian is considered satisfactory" and "everything anti-Russian is condemned."

A committee aide of the 1946 period said today the report was based on information obtained from a man who formerly worked in the same office.

He said the Justice Department was told of the information the committee picked up but no steps were taken as a result, and committee efforts to get more information were futile.

Full-Scale Inquiry Urged

"This," Nixon said, "was in the agency of the Government charged with investigating the loyalty of all Federal employes.

"I have examined the report in our files on this case and it certainly indicates shocking, inexcusable laxity on the part of the Justice Department in screening its own employes for loyalty.

"It certainly is a commentary on the qualifications of the department to act as a major arm of the United States Government in investigating and prosecuting subversive activities.

"I think the committee should immediately institute a full-scale investigation, with public hearings of this case and the way the Department of Justice handled it."

Wants Public To Be Informed

He said the public "is entitled to know how many more people like her (Miss Coplon) are on the pay roll."

Nixon said the report in the committee files states the division in which Miss Coplon worked was responsible for keeping four Communist fronts from registering as alien organizations.

ADIRONDACKS SANTA' FATHER OF SPY FIGURE

Judith Coplon's Arrest 'Awful Blow To Family,' Her Brother Says

New York, March 5 (AP)—The man who was Santa Claus to poor mountain children in the Adirondacks for more than 25 years was in a new role today—father of an alleged spy.

The one-time "Santa Claus of the Adirondacks," Samuel M. Coplon, is the father of Judith Coplon, Justice Department worker charged with conspiracy to commit espionage.

Now a paralytic invalid, Coplon was secluded in his Brooklyn home today while his 27-year-old daughter was arraigned and held in $20,000 bond.

His wife is invalided by a heart ailment.

Brother Trying To Raise Bail

Judith's brother, Bertram, who took over his father's top bussiness some years ago, said at the home today that the spy charge was "an awful shock to the family."

Young Coplon said he went to his sister's arraignment and was trying to raise bail from friends.

"I don't know where I'll get it but I'm going to get it," he said. "I told her to keep her chin up; that the family was behind her."

His father, a native of Troy, N.Y., gave $10,000 worth of toys to needy mountain children in 1935 on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his annual "Santa Claus" pilgrimage upstate.

In recent years his illness had forced him to drop his Santa Claus role.

Father "Rabid Republican"

He began the yearly trip to the mountains with his crates of toys after he went to live at Johnsburg, N.Y., for his health following the Spanish-American war.

His son described Coplon today as "a rabid, conservative Republican" who once had been a party poll watcher at Albany, his wife's native town.

"But he never had any serious discussions of politics with my sister," Bertram said. "My sister probably voted the same way I did—we always voted for the man we thought best."

The family never had questioned Miss Coplon about her Government job, he said, and she had not talked much about it because "she told us it was confidential work."

He said they never had heard of her speak of Valentine A. Gubitchev, Russian engineer arrested with her.

"I can't even pronounce his name," he added.

Gubitchev Not Immune, U.N. Men Say

Lake Success, March 5 (AP)—United Nations officials said today that United Nations immunity will not apply in the case of Valentine A. Gubitchev, an employé arrested last night and accused of stealing American secrets.

Secretary General Trygve Lie ordered the suspension of Gubitchev, a 32-year-old Russian engineer connected with construction of the new United Nations headquarters in New York. He was an employé of the United Nations Secretariat, drawing $6,000 a year. He had been in this country since 1946, officials said.

Only Official Acts

Officials at Lake Success said the headquarters agreement on immunity between the United States and the United Nations applies only to United Nations employés in the performance of their official duties. Wilder Foote, director of the United Nations press department, said specifically it does not apply to acts performed outside official duty.

The officials expressed belief that since Gubitchev was off United Nations territory when arrested he could not be deemed to be on official duty.

They said his suspension from the United Nations would remove immunity now. Whether Gubitchev would claim immunity remains to be seen. There were no Russian officials available here today for official comment.

FBI Assumption

United Nations informants earlier said they thought the FBI men who arrested Gubitchev and Miss Judith Coplon, an employé of the Justice Department, had assumed that the doctrne of immunity did not apply to Gubitchev in this case.

One official said the United Nations had no warning. Andrew W. Cordier, executive assistant to Lie, was awakened at 1 A.M. for the news.

He notified Lie and other officials, who assigned Oscar Schachter, of the United Nations legal staff, to represent the United Nations. Lie and other officials left this morning for Geneva.

United Nations files show Gubitchev is married and has a 13-year-old daughter. His wife was reported in New York, his daughter in Russia.

TRUMAN ASKS CHANGES IN DEFENSE UNIT

Urges New Powers For Chief, Higher Status For Agency

Washington, March 5 (AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to give his Defense Secretary the authority he needs to direct the frequently feuding armed forces.

To bring this about, he recommended that the service unification law be changed to set up the National Military Establishment as a full-fledged "Department of Defense."

In a special message to Congress—where lawmaking currently is slowed down by a Senate filibuster—he urged "prompt consideration" for his recommendations.

Speed Seen Essential

1. The President's assertion that it is essential to have an effective and workable organization in a world of long range bombers, guided missiles and atom bombs.

2. The fact that within a month a new Defense Secretary, Louis A. Johnson, will succeed James Forrestal. The outgoing secretary has complained of insufficient authority over the three elements of the unified military establishment.

While Mr. Truman did not mention this point, one of the basic troubles of the defense establishment is that it existed chiefly as a co-ordinating agency of Government. It has not been a true department, with the chief having full authority over all units in it. Nor does it have, as other departments, an undersecretary and assistant secretaries to help administer the Secretary's directives.

Subordinate Posts Proposed

Mr. Truman obviously had these points in mind when he recommended converting the National Military Establishment into a regular executive department. In line with this, he also recommended creation of the positions of undersecretary and three assistant secretaries.

In general, Mr. Truman's report was in line with the recommendations of the Hoover Commission which investigated the national security organization. However, the proposal for converting the National Military Establishment into a regular Government department went beyond the recommendations of the commission.

The President made no reference to a suggestion by the commission that the civilian secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force be demoted to the status of undersecretaries of defense. There have been reports on Capitol Hill that this recommendation was deemed politically inexpedient.

Specific Limits Cited

But the Chief Executive had some things to say about the powers which the Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries now have. He said:

"While the Secretary of Defense, as the head of the National Military Establishment, ought to be ultimately accountable, under the President, for its administration, he is specifically limited by this act in the degree to which he may hold the military departments responsible to him. The departmental secretaries are specifically authorized to deal directly with higher authority.

"Furthermore, the key responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense have been assigned by this statute, not to the Secretary, but to boards and agencies which derive much of their authority from the military departments themselves."

Joint Chiefs "Chairman" Asked

What this amounts to, Mr. Truman said, is that the present law "fails to provide a fully responsible official with authority adequate to meet his responsibility, whom the President and the Congress can hold accountable."

The President also recommended —as did the Hoover Commission— that there be a "chairman" of the joint chiefs of staff.

[The joint chiefs of staff is composed of the chiefs of staff of the Army and Air Force, the chief of naval operations and the chief of staff to the commander in chief. Much of the interservice quarreling has focused in the joint chiefs organization.]

Mr. Truman proposed that the chairman be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate. He said the chairman should "take precedence over all other military personnel" and be the principal military adviser to the President and Defense Secretary.

Would Be Military Man

This appeared to indicate the chairman would be a military man rather than a civilian.

Mr. Truman last month announced temporary appointment of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to "preside" over the joint chiefs of staff.

Eisenhower is on leave from his job as president of Columbia University. The phrasing of Mr. Truman's message today regarding the military nature of the chairman raised again the question of whether Eisenhower might be asked to remain as permanent chairman, should Congress approve today's recommended changes.

President Asks For Changes In Defense Setup

Washington, March 5 (AP)—President Truman called today for broad changes in the national military establishment, including conversion of the new agency into a regular department of Government.

In a special message to Congress, he said that present powers of the Defense Secretary over the armed forces are "too limited."

The secretary should be given "appropriate responsibility and authority," said the President.

Head For Joint Chiefs

Moreover, he recommended appointment of a chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, with "precedence" over the three commanders of the armed forces now constituting the staff.

In general, Mr. Truman's recommendations followed those of the Hoover commission, which studied the national-defense organization along with other agencies.

He said the commission's recommendations "have great merit and present an objective to which I believe we must continue to move."

More Help Proposed

Mr. Truman also backed the proposals of the commission to give the Defense Secretary more assistance.

He said there should be an Under Secretary of Defense and three assistant secretaries.

This was not provided in the present law. Apparently one reason was that the National Military Establishment was not created as a full-fledged Government department, with the usual setup of under and assistant secretaries. It exists chiefly as a co-ordinating agency for the armed forces.

No "Demotion" Involved

However, the President's message made no mention of one recommendation by the commission—that the present civilian secretaries of the armed forces be demoted to the positions of "under secretaries" of defense for Army, Navy and Air.

In discussing limitations on the power of the Defense Secretary as prescribed by the present service unification law, Mr. Truman mentioned as an example:

"The departmental secretaries are specifically authorized to deal directly with higher authority. Furthermore, many of the key responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense have been assigned by this statute, not to the Secretary but to the boards and agencies which derive much of their authority from the military departments themselves.

Fails To Provide Authority

"In short, the act fails to provide for a fully responsible official with authority adequate to meet his responsibility, whom the President and the Congress can hold accountable."

The President said that:

"I, therefore, recommend that the National Security Act be amended to accomplish two basic purposes: First, to convert the National Military Establishment into an executive department of the Government, to be known as the Department of Defense; and, second, to provide the Secretary of Defense with appropriate responsibility and authority and with civilian and military assistance adequate to fulfill his enlarged responsibility."

Would Aid Johnson

These new powers would be given to the incoming Defense Secretary, Louis Johnson, whose appointment was announced by Mr. Truman Thursday. Johnson succeeds James Forrestal, one of the first to complain about inadequate authority for the Defense Secretary.

In the preamble to his recommendations, the President spoke of the swift changes in modes of warfare.

"The speed of aircraft has doubled," he said. "The needs of undersea warfare have been revolutionized, the range and accuracy of guided missiles have increased, the potentialities of the atom have been more fully revealed."

"Essential In Modern World"

All this, he reasoned, meant that the "effective and workable organization of our Government, and especially our armed forces, is essential in the modern world."

In proposing the appointment of a chairman for the joint chiefs of staff, who would be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate, Mr. Truman went along with the majority of the Hoover commission. The majority report of the commission recommended appointment of a chairman.

However, four of the nine members who participated in the study, including Secretary of State Dean Acheson, contended in a dissenting opinion that a mere chairman was inadequate. They said there should be a "single chief of staff over the joint chiefs" with power to initiate and stop discussions. He would bring to the secretary the recommendations of the joint chiefs—and report any disagreements, together with his own recommendations on how to settle them.

Asks Prompt Attention

The President urged Congress to give prompt consideration to the recommendations for change.

"From the standpoint of present and potential cost to the nation, there is no more important area in which to work for improved organization and operations," he said.

"Action from these recommendations will prove beneficial to the Congress, the American people, and the President by providing better means of assuring defense needs and administering the defense program. We should seize this opportunity to strengthen our defense organization which is so vital to the security of this nation and the peace of the world."

Truman on Armed Services

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—The complete tetxt of President Truman's message to Congress today on revision of the armed services unification act follows:

The maintenance of adequate armed forces has been one of the principal functions of the Federal government since the establishment of this nation. Today we maintain our armed forces in support of our primary desire for world peace. They are evidence of our determination to devote our utmost efforts toward achieving that all-important goal.

Throughout our history the steady advance of science and technology has resulted in constant changes in the means of warfare and the character of our armed forces. In the few years since the cessation of hostilities in World War II tremendous developments in technology have been made. The speed of aircraft has doubled, the means of undersea warfare have been revolutionized, the range and accuracy of guided missiles have increased. The potentialities of the atom have been more fully revealed.

The development of man's ability to shrink space and time and to control natural forces makes imperative a corresponding development of the means for directing and controlling these new powers. The effective and workable organization of our government, and especially of our armed forces, is essential in the modern world.

Commission Report

The recent reports of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government have focused attention on the importance of the sound organization of the Federal government. The commission has stated that the first essential to the achievement of better government is a general clarification of the lines of authority and responsibility within the executive branch. In its report, entitled "National Security Organization," the commission has specifically applied this principle to the organization of our armed forces. The report states that we now lack adequate civilian authority and control over the military forces, that maximum efficiency and economy is not being realized in defense expenditures and that interservice relationships must be improved to achieve the most effective defense. The recommendations of the commission, which would strengthen the national military establishment and the position of the Secretary of Defense, have great merit and present an objective toward which I believe we must continue to move.

I have long been aware of the necessity for keeping our national security organization abreast of our security requirements. To this end I recommended unification of the armed forces to the Congress in December, 1945. My desire was to improve our defense organization while the lessons of World War II were still fresh in the minds of all. We must not forget these lessons in evaluating our security position today.

A great deal was learned from those four years of war. We learned, among other things, that the organization of our War and Navy Departments, prescribed by detailed statutes, was far too rigid and inflexible for the actual conduct of war. We learned that modern war required the combined use of air, naval and land forces welded together under unified commands overseas and under the strategic direction of the joint chiefs of staff.

Costly Policies

Other lessons were also learned. We learned that widely diverse supply policies of the separate services were costly and hampered the total effectiveness of military orperations. We learned that there were great differences in training and combat doctrine among the services, and that these differences often provoked sharp conflicts in our theaters of operation.

My message to the Congress of December, 1945, had a double purpose. It was intended to take advantage of our war-time experience and to prevent a return to the outmoded forms of organization which existed at the outbreak of the war.

Following that message, the subject of the proper organization of our armed forces was debated throughout the nation. After the most careful consideration, the National Security act was enacted by the Congress in July, 1947.

This act has provided a practical and workable basis for beginning the unification of the military services and for coordinating military policy with foreign and economic policy. A few examples of the progress achieved in the period since the act became effective are evidence of its value.

The efficiency of military purchasing has steadily increased until today more than 75 per cent of the material of the armed services is procured under co-ordinated purchasing arrangements.

Joint Training

A number of joint training and education programs have been instituted so that the personnel of each service may gain a greater understanding of the weapons and doctrine of the other services.

A uniform code of military justice has been developed, designed to be applicable to the personnel of all the armed forces. This code is now before the Congress for its consideration.

The co-ordination of military policy with foreign and economic policies has been greatly improved, principally through the efforts of the National Security Council and the National Security Resources Board.

The last eighteen months have dispelled any doubt that unification of the armed forces can yield great advantages to the nation. No one advocates a return to the outmoded organization of the days preceding the National Security act. On the contrary, the issue today is not whether we should have unification, but how we can make it more effective.

We have now had sufficient experience under the act to be able to identify and correct its weaknesses without impairing the advantages we have obtained from its strength. We have also had the advantage of a thoroughgoing appraisal by the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. On the basis of our experience to date, as further borne out by the commission, we should now proceed to make the needed improvements in the act.

The duties and responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense as now set forth in the act are of too limited a character, and are restricted to specified items. For example, the act expressly provides that all duties not specifically conferred upon the Secretary of Defense are to remain vested in the Secretaries of the the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force. While the Secretary of Defense, as the head of the national military establishment, ought to be ultimately accountable, under the President, for its administration, he is specifically limited by this act in the degree to which he may hold the military departments responsible to him. The departmental secretaries are specifically authorized to deal directly with higher authority. Furthermore, many of the key responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense have been assigned by this statute, not to the Secretary, but to boards and agencies which derive much of their authority from the military departments themselves.

In short, the act fails to provide for a fully responsible official with authority adequate to meet his responsibility, whom the President and the Congress can hold accountable. The act fails to provide the basis for an organization and a staff adequate to achieve the most efficient and economical defense program and to attain effective and informed civilian control.

I, therefore, recommend that the National Security act be amended to accomplish two basic purposes: First, to convert the national military establishment into an executive department of the government, to be known as the Department of Defense; and, second, to provide the Secretary of Defense with appropriate responsibility and authority, and with civilian and military assistance adequate to fulfill his enlarged responsibility.

Within the new Department of Defense, I recommend that the Departments of the Army, the Navy and the Air Force be designated as military departments. The responsibility of the Secretary of Defense for exercising direction, authority, and control over the affairs of the Department of Defense should be made clear. Furthermore, the present limitations and restrictions which are inappropriate to his status as head of an executive department should be removed. The Secretary of Defense should be the sole representative of the Department of Defense on the National Security Council.

Not a Blanket Transfer

I am not recommending the blanket transfer of all statutory authority applicable to the Departments of the Army, the Navy and the Air Force to the Secretary of Defense. Neither am I recommending any change in the statutory assignment of combatant functions to the Army, Navy and Air Force. I recommend, however, that the Secretaries of the Army, the Navy and the Air Force administer the respective military departments under the authority, direction and control of the Secretary of Defense.

To meet these additional responsibilities, the Secretary of Defense needs strengthened civilian and military assistance. This can be provided by the creation of new posts and by the conversion of existing agencies of the national military establishment into staff units for the Secretary. I recommend that Congress provide an Under Secretary of Defense and three Assistant Secretaries of Defense.

The duties now placed by statute in the Munitions Board and the Research and Development Board should be recognized as responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense. The act should be amended to make possible the flexible use of both of these agencies, and of the joint chiefs of staff, as staff units for the Secretary of Defense. Finally I recommend that the Congress provide for . chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, to be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate, to take precedence ove. all other military personnel, and to be the principal military adviser to the President and the Secretary of Defense, and to perform such other duties as they may prescribe.

Vital to World Peace

In my judgment, these changes will make possible effective organization and management of the Department of Defense. They will provide a responsible official at its head, with strengthened civilian and military assistance, to undertake the immense job of aiding the President and the Congress in determining defense needs and in supervising the administration of our defense activities. These measures are essential to continued and accelerated progress toward unification. I am convinced that only through making steady progress toward this goal can we be assured of serving our major objectives, the most effective organization of our armed forces; a full return on our defense dollar, and strengthened civilian control.

I urge the Congress to give prompt consideration to these recommendations. From the standpoint of present and potential cost to the nation, there is no more important area in which to work for improved organization and operations. Action on these recommendations will prove beneficial to the Congress, the American people and the President by providing better means of assuring defense needs and administering the defense program. We should seize this opportunity to strengthen our defense organization which is so vital to the security of this nation and the peace of the world.

AIR ACADEMY GIVEN FORRESTAL FAVOR

Two Oldline Schools Held Unable To Supply 3 Services

Washington, March 5 (AP)—The National Military Establishment came out today for an Air Force academy, like the Army's at West Point and the Navy's at Annapolis.

James Forrestal, Defense Secretary, announced the military establishment has "decided to support legislation authorizing an air academy" because it is impossible for the two oldline schools to supply officers for all three services.

His announcement indicated a bill would go to Congress soon after April 1.

Forrestal asked a newly created eight-man advisory board on service academies to make recommendations for the air-academy plan not later than that date. The advisory board includes Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University.

No Decision On Location

There has been no decision on location, defense spokesmen said.

Forrestal said that:

"Although the Departments of the Army and Navy have agreed to allocate up to 40 per cent and seven per cent of the current graduating classes at West Point and Annapolis, respectively, on a voluntary basis, to be commissioned in the Air Force, this plan for the present academic year does not represent a permanent solution, nor can it be considered a precedent for the future.

"Since there can be no question concerning the need for an expansion in the capacity of the present academy system and since West Point and Annapolis cannot, for physical reasons, be expanded substantially beyond their present size, it has been decided to support legislation authorizing the establishment of a third, air academy."

Air Force Drafting Legislation

The Air Force has started drafting legislation. Forrestal wrote President Truman on December 15 that there probably would be need for a separate air service academy. Both the Army and Navy are understood to have complained to the defense establishment about the extra load placed on their schools by the requirements for schooling Air Force junior officers.

Forrestal, in his announcement today, pointed out it would be "a number of years" before an air service academy could be organized, planned and constructed and that meanwhile, "we must adopt some equitable arrangement which will provide" partial solution to the Air Force's problem now.

Suggestions Received

The service-school advisory committee has received various suggestions for the military academy system, among them:

1. Making the academies for all three services a single National Military Establishment academy. Graduates would be officers of the National Military Establishment instead of officers of a particular service. The thought here is to end service-consciousness and loyalty to a single service.

2. Have the same basic education in all three academies for the first two or three years, with the final year devoted to special training for the Army, Navy or Air Force.

3. Rotate men through the three schools, to give them a rounded military education.

The Air Force has contended that a new and separate air academy could be built at less cost than would be required for expanding West Point and Annapolis.

Eight-Man Advisory Board

The service-academy advisory board is composed of five civilian educators and a representative of each of the armed forces, Eisenhower, serving in his civilian capacity as Columbia president, (he is now on temporary duty as presiding officer of the Joint Chiefs of Staff), is vice chairman.

In addition to Eisenhower, the civilian members are: Dr. Robert L. Stearns, president of the University of Colorado, chairman; Dr. James P. Baxter, president of Williams College; Dr. George D. Stoddard, president of the University of Illinois; Dr. Frederick A. Middlebush, president of the University of Missouri.

The armed forces are represented by Rear Admiral James L. Holloway, superintendent of the Naval Academy; Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, superintendent of West Point Military Academy and Maj. Gen. David M. Schlatter, deputy chief of staff for atomic energy of the Air Force.

More Nations Due To Discuss Pact

Washington March 5 (AP)—Several more countries may soon join the North Atlantic alliance talks despite growing Russian attacks on the security project.

Diplomatic officials foresaw swift action in that direction today, with Norway officially lined up alongside the Western powers.

Ambassador Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne has taken his place in the negotiations as Norway's representative, bringing the total of negotiators to eight. The other countries are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Italy And Portugal Cited

Several other states are considered eligible for membership in the projected security alliance.

Denmark's Foreign Minister will leave for Washington to investigate the treaty possibilities next Tuesday. While Italy's exact relationship with the treaty powers is in doubt, she may still come in as an original signer. Iceland and Portugal both know they would be welcomed but have not yet received official invitations.

Meanwhile, the Government of Ireland has decided that it cannot join an alliance with Britain so long as Ireland remains divided.

May Be Signed In Month

Secretary of State Acheson, Morgenstierne and the other ambassadors are scheduled to meet again Monday.

The treaty, binding North America and western Europe into an intercontinental security system, is expected to be completed by the end of next week and signed by the end of the month—probably in Washington, according to responsible authorities. (AP)

FLEET 'DAMAGED' BY 'A-BOMB' BLAST

Missile Dropped From Plane Flying At 20,000 Feet

Washington, March 5 (AP)—A simulated underwater burst of an atomic bomb theoretically caused heavy damage and sinkings today in the Navy task force on Caribbean maneuvers.

Admiral W. H. P. Blandy announced the "atomic" strike with a mock bomb dropped from a Navy plane. The bomb carried a T.N.T. charge and the resulting burst closely resembled the Bikini atom bomb test in miniature.

Blandy says in his dispatch to Washington that:

"There was no doubt that some of the ships were to be ruled out of action as a result of the heavy damage or sinkings which the nearest ones would unavoidably have sustained."

Dropped From 20,000 Feet

The war games in the vicinity of Puerto Rico already have seen the use of mock atom bomb attack on the fleet. However, this attack was with a bomb which exploded in the air above the fleet.

Blandy said the bomb exploded underwater today was dropped from an altitude of at least 20,000 feet. It exploded underwater near the center of the large force of nearly 60 ships a few seconds after the attacking bomber swept past overhead.

The technique in this attack was different from any previously tried with either live atom bombs or simulated nuclear fission missles.

Suspended In "Well"

At Bikini, in the only actual underwater shot ever made, the bomb was suspended in a "well" opened through the bottom of a medium sized landing ship. Actual depth of the bomb at the time it exploded was never disclosed officially, but the assumption was it was not over 30 feet.

Today's experiment was made by dropping the "bomb" from a plane, somewhat in the manner used to plant marine mines, a technique widely used by both sides during World War II.

Blandy's announcement did not indicate to what depth the air-dropped bomb penetrated before the explosion occurred. Although he mentioned that the explosion occurred "a few seconds" after the bomber passed overhead it was to be presumed that much of this time was consumed in the fall of the bomb to the seas surface.

Greek Refugees' Needs Called Urgent Problem

Washington, March 5 (AP)—The most urgent welfare problem in Greece is the relief needs of 666,000 refugees, one-third of them children, a Red Cross official said today.

Gaile Galub, a member of the American Red Cross international activities staff, returned this week from a month-long stay in Greece planning the distribution of a $100,000 American Red Cross allocation of clothing and shoes for those children.

Galub said there is urgent need for additional outside assistance.

Gen. Carter Gets Post in Britain

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP).—The White House announced today that Brigadier General Marshall Carter is going to London as the State Department's representative on the program of military aid to the Western European countries. General Carter will be on loan from the Army to the State Department. He was secretary to General George C. Marshall while Mr. Marshall was Secretary of State, and also has been secretary to Mr. Marsha..'s successor, Dean Acheson.

Restore Hospital-Plan Cuts Truman Made, Legion Says

Washington, March 5 (AP)—The American Legion wants the Veterans Administration hospital program carried out as it stood before President Truman cut it.

Also the Legion wants the hospitals left under full VA control and not shifted into a general Federal medical program as recommended by the Hoover Commission.

The stand was stated emphatically last night in a resolution adopted unanimously by the veterans' organization's rehabilitation commission.

Broad Plan For Benefits

At the same time the commission called for "adequate" pensions, death compensation, disability payments and more liberal insurance in a broad plan for veterans' benefits.

The group also recommended a 25-cent annual increase in dues of the 3,100,000 Legion members for a fund to fight what it said might grow into "the greatest onslaught against veterans' expenditures ever witnessed in the United States."

President Truman ordered a 16,000-bed cut in hospital construction plans of the Veterans Administration, at an estimated saving of $280,000,000.

Warns Of Economy Drive

Henry H. Dudley, of Indianapolis, the Legion's national adjutant, declared that "the Government has always started its economy moves to the detriment of the veteran" and that such a move already has started.

Norway Envoy Defines Need For Pact

New York, March 5 (AP)—Norway's Ambassador says that the North Atlantic Pact, with which his country is aligned, is designed to stop any "crazy Hitler" who might "challenge the free world."

Ambassador Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne said last night that Norway "learned her lesson in 1940" when invaded by Nazis, and "today does not believe that 'neutrality' is related to the facts of life."

"All that Norway wants," he said, "and all that the Atlantic countries want, I am sure, is to be absolutely certain that through solidarity we can hold the frontiers of freedom, law and democracy."

Failure Of Talks

De Morgenstierne said there is a "very good chance" of Denmark's joining the pact. He said talks toward a Scandinavian pact had failed because the countries decided they could not defend themselves "without assistance from the outside."

The Ambassador, who spoke at a dinner for Gen. George C. Marshall, former United States Secretary of State, praised the "glorious Red Army which was the first to liberate a part of Norwegian soil" from the Nazis.

Marshall's successor, Dean Acheson, spoke briefly. Neither he nor Marshall commented on the replacement of Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov by Deputy Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, except for a passing reference by Acheson.

Courage Required

"To succeed Marshall requires more courage than one man is required to summon in a lifetime. Indeed, I'm wondering how Mr. Vishinsky feels about this situation," Acheson said.

Marshall told the gathering of 1,000 he was confident Americans are "determined to go through" with the Marshall plan, under which he said there has been more international economic co-operation "in five months than in the previous 500 years."

Benes's Brother, 72, In U.S. To Visit Kin

New York, March 5 (AP)—Vojtech Benes, 72-year-old elder brother of the late President Eduard Benes of Czechoslovakia, arrived in the United States today to visit relatives.

He declined any comment on political affairs in his homeland as he landed from the S.S. America of the United States Lines.

The former member of the Czech Parliament until the Communist coup of a year ago said he was on his way to visit his daughter, Mrs. Alice Benes Vicek, of Mishawaka, Ind. He said he hopes also to see his son, Vaclav, a lecturer at McGill University in Montreal, and his brother, John, 79, who lives in Milwaukee.

MOLOTOV--REACTION (380)

BY ROBERT UHLETT

LONDON, MARCH 5-(AP)-DIPLOMATS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD SPECULATED TODAY OVER WHETHER FOREIGN MINISTER V.M. MOLOTOV OF RUSSIA HAS BEEN FIRED OR PROMOTED..

MOSCOW SAID ONLY THAT THE TOUGH LITTLE MAN, REGARDED AS SECOND ONLY TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN YESTERDAY, HAD BEEN "RELEASED" FROM HIS DUTIES AS FOREIGN MINISTER.

POLICY MAKERS AND LITTLE MEN ALIKE WONDERED WHETHER THE MAJOR KREMLIN SHIFT WOULD QUIET OR INFLAME THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR.

A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE NOTED THAT MOLOTOV APPARENTLY STILL REMAINS A DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MEMBER OF THE RULING POLITBURO WHICH DETERMINES RUSSIA'S POLICY. HE SAID HE BELIEVED THE MOVE WOULD STRENGTHEN MOLOTOV'S POSITION, MAKING HIM SOME SORT OF "GENERAL SUPERVISOR OF FOREIGN POLICY."

THE FIRST REACTION OF MANY EUROPEAN NEWSPAPERS WAS THAT MOLOTOV HAD BEEN FIRED FOR FAILING TO BLOCK THE ANTI-COMMUNIST NORTH ATLANTIC PACT AND THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. BRITISH OFFICIAL CIRCLES SPECULATED MORE CAUTIOUSLY THAT THE AGING STALIN MIGHT BE GETTING READY TO HAND OVER POWER TO HIS CHIEF DEPUTY.

SOME BRITISH DIPLOMATS, DISILLUSIONED AFTER FOUR YEARS OF FRUITLESS DEALINGS WITH RUSSIAN LEADERS, PRIVATELY WERE SKEPTICAL THAT MOLOTOV'S SHIFT MEANT A CHANGE TO A SOFTER SOVIET POLICY.

THE SEMI-OFFICIAL FRENCH NEWS AGENCY SAID FRENCH OFFICIAL CIRCLES CONSIDER THE KREMLIN SHAKEUP "ESSENTIALLY AN INTERNAL AFFAIR."

SEN. MARCEL PLAISANT, CHAIRMAN OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF THE FRENCH COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC, PREDICTED A CHANGE IN SOVIET POLICY BUT DECLINED TO SPECULATE WHETHER IT WOULD BE HARDER OR SOFTER TO THE WEST.

"THE U.S.S.R. IS GETTING READY TO CHANGE ITS FOREIGN POLICY AND TO FACILITATE THIS CHANGE, IT IS CHANGING THOSE WHO EXECUTE POLICY, THOUGH IT MAY CHANGE THEM BACK IF NECESSARY," HE COMMENTED.

PAUL REYNAUD, WARTIME PREMIER OF FRANCE, SAID THE KREMLIN SHIFT "MAY BE CONSIDERED AS A SIGN OF CHANGE IN SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY AT WHICH THE FRIENDS OF PEACE CAN ONLY REJOICE." A SPOKESMAN IN THE FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID HE WAS "CAUGHT ABSOLUTELY BY SURPRISE." HE DECLINED COMMENT.

ITALIAN REACTION WAS MIXED, LIKE THAT OF ALL EUROPE. AN INFORMED SOURCE CLOSE TO THE ITALIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID RUSSIAN HOSTILITY TOWARD THE WEST "WILL NOT CHANGE GREATLY."

IL POPULO, NEWSPAPER OF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, SAID IT WOULD BE "PREMATURE" TO FORECAST A HARSHER OR SOFTER RUSSIAN ATTITUDE. THE ARTICLE SAID MOLOTOV HAD ENCOUNTERED "CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTIES" IN FOREIGN POLICY.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIALS, WITH THEIR INDEPENDENCE TREATY DEPENDING ON STALEMATED BIG FOUR TALKS IN LONDON, SAID PRIVATELY THEY DID NOT THINK RUSSIA'S RELATIONS WITH THE WEST WILL BE EASED.

LORD BEAVERBROOK'S EVENING STANDARD HEADLINED ITS STORY: "MOLOTOV: NERVE-WAR BLUFF OR PROMOTION?" HIS MORNING DAILY EXPRESS BANNERED "MOLOTOV SACKED." THE LABORITE DAILY HERALD AND LIBERAL NEWS CHRONICLE BOTH SAID IN HEADLINES MOLOTOV WAS FIRED. NO LONDON PAPER PRINTED AN EDITORIAL ON THE CHANGE.

THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY SAID "IT SHOULD BE NOTED SIMPLY THAT MOLOTOV MAY BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE BEEN THE INSPIRER, ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS, OF AN INTRANSIGEANT POLICY, WHILE STALIN SEEMED TO GIVE EVIDENCE OF A SPIRIT OF CONCILIATION."

COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS RAN THE MOSCOW ANNOUNCEMENT WITHOUT COMMENT. THE SOVIET-LICENSED NACHT EXPRESS OF BERLIN INDICATED CAUTIOUSLY THE SHIFT MIGHT BE A STEP UP FOR MOLOTOV TO FREE HIM FROM DETAILED WORK IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY. NEWSPAPERS IN WESTERN BERLIN WERE UNANIMOUS IN DOUBTING THAT A CHANGE IN RUSSIAN FOREIGN POLICY

WOULD RESULT.
THE LIBERAL AFTONBLADET OF SWEDEN PREDICTED "A NEW POLITICAL PLAY WITH GREAT EVENTS" AND SAID "MOLOTOV'S DISMISSAL MEANS THAT THOSE WHO DICTATED THE ANTI-AMERICAN POLICY ARE REMOVED."

MOLOTOV-VISHINSKY (ROUNDUP)

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON, MARCH 5-(AP)-RUSSIA ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT THAT ACID-TONGUED ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY HAS REPLACED VYACHESLAV M. MOLOTOV AS HER FOREIGN MINISTER.

THIS MAJOR CHANGE IN RUSSIA'S HIGH COMMAND WAS DISCLOSED TO A STARTLED WORLD IN A BRIEF DISPATCH OVER THE MOSCOW RADIO. THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, TOO, THAT THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE FOR THE LAST 23 YEARS --A.I. MIKOYAN--ALSO HAD BEEN REPLACED BY HIS DEPUTY.

DISPATCHES FROM MOSCOW SAID BRIEF, ROUTINE STORIES ABOUT THE SHAKE-UP WERE CARRIED ON THE BACK PAGES OF MOSCOW PAPERS.

VISHINSKY, THE SUCCESSOR TO THE VETERAN MOLOTOV, HAS BEEN REGARDED AS MORE BITTER TO THE WEST IN HIS SPEECH THAN MOLOTOV. BUT HE COULD SCARCELY BE MORE UNYIELDING THAN MOLOTOV. MIKOYAN WAS CONSIDERED BY MANY TO BE FRIENDLY TO WESTERN NATIONS.

HIGH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES IN WORLD CAPITALS WERE RELUCTANT TO DISCUSS WHAT THE CHANGE MEANT. THEY WANTED TIME TO STUDY, TO SEE WHAT HAPPENED NEXT.

MAR 6 1949

IN GENERAL OBSERVERS SAW THESE POSSIBILITIES:

1. MOLOTOV, 58, LONG REGARDED AS THE NO.2 MAN IN RUSSIA AND MOST LIKELY SUCCESSOR TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN, IS BEING RELIEVED OF SOME OF HIS DUTIES TO GIVE HIM MORE TIME TO PREPARE FOR TAKING OVER STALIN'S JOB. STALIN WILL BE 70 NEXT DECEMBER. HIS HEALTH HAS BEEN REPORTED POOR. THE SOVIET ANNOUNCEMENT MADE NO REFERENCE TO MOLOTOV'S LOSING HIS OTHER JOBS. HE ALSO IS DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER.

2. MOLOTOV, IN SPITE OF HIS LONG YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE COMMUNIST CAUSE, HAS BEEN SACKED BY STALIN FOR REASONS UNKNOWN, PERHAPS BECAUSE OF THE SOVIET POST-WAR FAILURE TO STIFLE THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, AND TO PUSH THE WEST OUT OF BERLIN BY BLOCKADE. IT COULD MEAN "PALACE INTRIGUE" AS THE RESULT OF A FUNDAMENTAL SPLIT IN RUSSIA'S RULING POLITBURO. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS REPORTED SUCH A SPLIT.

3. IN LINE WITH SUCH REASONING, THE SUDDEN SHIFT MAY HERALD A DRASTIC CHANGE IN RUSSIAN FOREIGN POLICY, SUCH AS IN 1939, WHEN MOLOTOV SUCCEEDED MAXIM LITVINOFF AS FOREIGN COMMISSAR (LATER CHANGED TO FOREIGN MINISTER). LESS THAN THREE MONTHS AFTER HE TOOK OVER, MOLOTOV SIGNED A 10-YEAR NON-AGGRESSION PACT WITH HITLER, PAVING THE WAY FOR THE NAZI ATTACK ON POLAND AND THE WAR.

IF A NEW POLICY IS COMING, OBSERVERS HAD NO IDEA WHETHER IT WILL RESULT IN A HARDER OR SOFTER KREMLIN ATTITUDE IN THE COLD WAR.

ALL THAT THE WESTERN WORLD LEARNED IMMEDIATELY ABOUT THE CHANGE WAS THE POKER-FACED RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT:

"THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET HAS RELEASED THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS OF THE U.S.S.R., COMRADE V.M. MOLOTOV, FROM THE DUTIES OF MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE U.S.S.R. AND HAS APPOINTED A.Y. VISHINSKY FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE U.S.S.R.

"THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET HAS RELEASED THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF THE MINISTERS OF THE U.S.S.R.,' A.I. MIKOYAN, FROM THE POST OF MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE AND HAS APPOINTED M.A. MENSHIKOV IN HIS PLACE."

A33

THERE WAS NO ELABORATION FROM ANY RUSSIAN SOURCE. THE ANNOUNCEMENT GAVE NO CLUE WHAT MOLOTOV OR MIKOYAN WOULD DO NEXT, IF ANYTHING.

THE MIKOYAN-MENSHIKOV CHANGE WAS OVERSHADOWED BY THE SENSATIONAL MOLOTOV REPLACEMENT.

BUT MIKOYAN, REGARDED BY SOME AS ONE OF THE MOST PRO-WESTERN MEMBERS OF THE POLITBURO, ALSO HAD THE IMPORTANT JOB AS HEAD OF THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL FOR MUTUAL AID (ECMA), RUSSIAN ORGANIZATION OF SATELLITE NATIONS FORMED RECENTLY AS A COUNTER TO THE MARSHALL PLAN. THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE ANNOUNCEMENT IF MENSHIKOV WOULD TAKE OVER THIS JOB, TOO.

MIKOYAN, LIKE MOLOTOV, IS A DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE SOVIET COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

MAR 6 1949

BOTH VISHINSKY AND MENSHIKOV HAD BEEN THE CHIEF ASSISTANTS OF THE MEN THEY SUCCEEDED.

THE RUSSIAN CHANGE IN LEADERSHIP CAME AGAINST THIS WORLD BACKDROP:

THE WEST TOOK A MAJOR STEP FORWARD IN A MILITARY ALLIANCE AS NORWAY AND DENMARK, STRATEGIC SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES, LINKED THEMSELVES MORE FIRMLY WITH POWERS WRITING THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT -- AN AGREEMENT BITTERLY OPPOSED BY RUSSIA AS AN AGGRESSIVE INSTRUMENT AIMED AT HER. ONE OF MOLOTOV'S LATEST ACTS WAS TO ISSUE A WHITE PAPER DECLARING ALL-OUT DIPLOMATIC WAR ON THIS PROJECTED PACT.

ANOTHER MAJOR CURRENT IN THE EAST-WEST DIVISION WAS A SERIES OF RELATED STATEMENTS BY COMMUNIST LEADERS IN VARIOUS NATIONS OUTSIDE THE IRON CURTAIN THAT THEIR FOLLOWERS WOULD SIDE WITH RUSSIAN IN ANY WAR.

THESE STATEMENTS FOLLOWED ON THE HEELS OF A SO-CALLED COMMUNIST "PEACE OFFENSIVE" CLIMAXED BY STALIN'S RECENT OFFER, MADE TO A U.S. NEWSMAN, THAT HE WOULD BE WILLING TO MEET PRESIDENT TRUMAN -- EAST OF THE IRON CURTAIN.

THE NEW RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT BORE NO DATE. HOWEVER, IT MUST HAVE BEEN EXECUTED WITHIN THE LAST TWO DAYS BECAUSE MIKOYAN AS RECENTLY AS THURSDAY GREETED A KOREAN DELEGATION ARRIVING IN MOSCOW. A PICTURE OF THIS WAS PRINTED IN MOSCOW PAPERS ONLY YESTERDAY.

VISHINSKY RECENTLY RETURNED FROM A MONTH IN A CZECHOSLOVAK HEALTH SPA, WHERE A RUSSIAN SPOKESMAN HAD DESCRIBED HIM AS TOO NERVOUS "TO CONCENTRATE ON ANYTHING."

MAR 6 1949

A34

CAPITALS OF THE WORLD WERE PUZZLED BY THE NEWS COMING AT THIS CRITICAL STAGE IN THE COLD WAR. PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON WITHHELD IMMEDIATE COMMENT, AS DID OTHER WORLD LEADERS.

UNITED NATIONS SOURCES DECLINED TO BE QUOTED BY NAME, BUT ONE HIGH RANKING DIPLOMAT SAID AT LAKE SUCCESS THAT THE RELEASE OF MOLOTOV AS FOREIGN MINISTER MEANS A PROMOTION FOR HIM AND NO CHANGE IN SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY. HE SAID IT MEANT A STEP TOWARD MOLOTOV'S TAKING OVER STALIN'S JOB. OTHER U.N. DIPLOMATS SAID THEY WERE NOT CERTAIN THIS THEORY WAS RIGHT. MOST FRANKLY ADMITTED PUZZLEMENT AND SAID THEY WOULD AWAIT DEVELOPMENTS.

WESTERN NEWSPAPERS WENT ALL-OUT ON THE STORY. SIX OF THE NINE LONDON MORNING PAPERS -- FIRST TO CARRY THE NEWS HERE -- GAVE THE STORY TOP PLAY. THE COMMUNIST DAILY WORKER WAS ONE OF THE THREE PAPERS THAT SUBORDINATED THE STORY. IT CARRIED LESS THAN 75 WORDS BELOW THE FRONT PAGE FOLD.

PRESS INTERPRETATION AND REACTION WERE MIXED. SEVERAL PAPERS WENT ON THE THEORY MOLOTOV HAD BEEN FIRED. BUT THE IDEA HE WAS BEING PRO-

NOTED TO THE GET-READY SPOT FOR STALIN'S POSITION WAS MENTIONED, TOO. THE LONDON DAILY MAIL STORY SAID POSSIBLY MOLOTOV'S HEALTH WAS A FACTOR.

THE LONDON HERALD SPECULATED THAT OTHERS IN THE POLITBURO HAD BEEN JEALOUS OF MOLOTOV. IT SAID ALSO HIS DISMISSAL WAS MEANT TO BE A "REMINDER TO ALL OTHERS THAT STALIN IS STILL THEIR MASTER AND THAT ANY OF THEM MAY, IF THEY LOSE HIS FAVOR, FALL INTO DISGRACE."

MOLOTOV -- WHOSE NAME IN RUSSIAN MEANS "THE HAMMER" -- ACQUIRED A REPUTATION IN THE NEARLY 10 YEARS HE HANDLED RUSSIA'S FOREIGN RELATIONS AS ONE OF THE MOST STUBBORN AND ENIGMATIC FIGURES DEALING WITH WESTERN DIPLOMATS. RARELY DID HE GIVE AN INCH IN DEBATE. HE HEWED RIGIDLY TO THE SOVIET LINE, AND CAUSED HIS OPPONENTS TO WONDER IF HE COULD SAY "YES" IN ANY LANGUAGE. HE WAS COLORLESS, ROUND-FACED AND DEAD-PAN.

SINCE THE DEATH LAST AUGUST OF ANDREI ZHDANOV, ANOTHER POLITBURO MEMBER, WHO WAS THE LEADING SOVIET FOUNDER OF THE COMINFORM (COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION BUREAU), MOLOTOV WAS CONSIDERED SUPREME IN THE FIELD OF CANDIDATES FOR STALIN'S JOB.

HE BEGAN HIS REVOLUTIONARY CAREER WHEN HE WAS 19 AND WAS A FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO WHEN HE WAS 36. HIS STEPPING INTO LITVINOFF'S SHOES WAS A TURNING POINT IN HISTORY. SINCE THEN, MOLOTOV HAS REPRESENTED THE SOVIET AT DIPLOMATIC MEETINGS AT MOSCOW, LONDON, PARIS, WASHINGTON, SAN FRANCISCO, NEW YORK, YALTA, TEHRAN, POTSDAM AND OTHER PLACES.

A35

VISHINSKY, WHO HAS ATTENDED VIRTUALLY ALL THE IMPORTANT INTER-ALLIED AND UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCES SINCE 1945, IS KNOWN TO THE WEST FOR HIS VITRIOLIC ATTACKS ON COUNTRIES AND INDIVIDUALS OPPOSING THE SOVIET UNION. RED-FACED, GREY-HAIRED, LOUD-VOICED, HE IS THE FLASH-IEST ORATOR EVER TO SPEAK FOR THE SOVIET BEFORE THE U.N. HE IS 65.

THE NEW FOREIGN MINISTER FIRST ATTRACTED ATTENTION OUTSIDE THE SOVIET AS THE DREADED PROSECUTOR IN THE MOSCOW PURGE TRIALS OF 1936 AND 1937. BEFORE THAT HE HAD BEEN A LEADING SOVIET LAWYER.

VISHINSKY TALKED FOR AN HOUR AND 33 MINUTES BEFORE THE U.N. IN HIS FAMOUS "WARMONGER" SPEECH IN SEPTEMBER, 1947. THEN HE LABELED AS WARMONGERS JOHN FOSTER DULLES, U.S. DELEGATE, AND EIGHT OTHER AMERICANS.

MIKOYAN, THE DISPLACED TRADE MINISTER, WAS REGARDED AS AN INTELLECTUAL, ALSO CONSIDERED HIGH IN THE RUNNING FOR STALIN'S JOB. AN ARMENIAN WITH A CHARLIE CHAPLIN MUSTACHE, MIKOYAN WAS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE POLITBURO'S BRIGHTEST BRAINS. HE HAS BEEN CALLED THE MOST FRIENDLY OF ALL THE POLITBURO MEMBERS.

HE DEALT PERSONALLY WITH MOST TRADE DELEGATIONS THAT CAME TO MOSCOW AND COULD DRIVE A HARD BARGAIN. HE WAS IN CHARGE OF ALL TRADE, INTERNAL AND FOREIGN.

WALTER DURANTY, FORMER NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT IN RUSSIA, DESCRIBED MIKOYAN IN HIS LATEST BOOK AS "SAVAGELY ANTI-BRITISH."

MENSHIKOV, WHO SUCCEEDS HIM, BECAME FIRST DEPUTY MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE IN A SOVIET SHAKEUP OF VICE MINISTRIES IN SEPTEMBER, 1948. PREVIOUS TO THAT HE SIGNED A TRADE PACT FOR RUSSIA AT CAIRO PROVIDING FOR BARTER OF RUSSIAN GRAIN FOR EGYPTIAN COTTON. IT WAS THE FIRST AGREEMENT EVER SIGNED BY RUSSIA AND EGYPT.

IN 1945 MENSHIKOV TOOK A PROMINENT PART IN THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND REHABILITATION ASSOCIATION. AS A DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF UNRRA, HE HEADED A RELIEF DELEGATION TO POLAND.

AMONG THE LONDON PAPERS COMMENTING ON THE CHANGES, THE LABORITE DAILY HERALD SAID THAT IF STALIN WERE THINKING OF CONCILIATION WITH THE WEST "MIKOYAN WOULD HAVE BEEN A BETTER CHOICE FOR FOREIGN MINISTER THAN THE EMINENTLY PUGNACIOUS VISHINSKY -- AND MIKOYAN GOES OUT WITH MOLOTOV."

THE NEWS CHRONICLE, LIBERAL, ON THE OTHER HAND NOTED THE SPATE OF COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA OF A FEW WEEKS AGO ALONG THE LINE THAT EAST COULD LIVE WITH WEST. IT CITED STALIN'S INDICATED WILLINGNESS TO MEET PRESIDENT TRUMAN, AND COMMENTED:

"NOW IF IN FACT STALIN HAS DECIDED TO CHANGE THE COURSE OF FOREIGN POLICY HE COULD NOT KEEP MOLOTOV. THAT MASTER OF THE 'TURNDOWN' IS TOO DEEPLY COMMITTED BY HIS OWN PAST.

"VISHINSKY ON THE OTHER HAND DOES NOT CARRY MOLOTOV'S LIABILITIES. SOME WHO HAVE DONE BUSINESS WITH HIM HAVE IN FACT PROFESSED TO FIND A MORE ACCOMMODATING SPIRIT BEHIND THOSE FLASHING SPECTACLES AND FIERY ORATORY."

THE DAILY MAIL'S CORRESPONDENT IN STOCKHOLM, GORDON YOUNG, PUT FORWARD THREE POSSIBLE REASONS FOR SHIFTING MOLOTOV: HE IS BEING PROMOTED TO TAKE OVER SOME OF STALIN'S DUTIES IN COORDINATING FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC POLICIES; HIS HEALTH NECESSITATES HIS RETIREMENT FROM PUBLIC LIFE; OR HIS "POLICY OF OPPOSITION TO A PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES HAS LED TO HIS REMOVAL."

THE CORRESPONDENT SAID MIKOYAN PROBABLY WAS ONE OF THE MEN MEANT WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID RECENTLY THERE WERE THOSE IN THE POLITBURO WHO WANTED AN UNDERSTANDING WITH WESTERN NATIONS.

HE SAID HIS SUCCESSOR MENSHIKOV COULD BE COUNTED UPON NOT TO ARGUE WITH THE POLITBURO'S PLANS, AND THAT VISHINSKY WAS AN "EXPERT IN ORGANIZING FOREIGN POLITICAL AND UNDERGROUND MOVEMENTS."

OTHER SOURCES AT LAKE SUCCESS ACQUAINTED WITH VISHINSKY SAID THAT ALTHOUGH HE HAS DELIVERED SOME OF THE MOST BITTER TIRADES EVER HEARD IN UNITED NATIONS HALLS, HE WAS CAPABLE OF CARRYING OUT ANY POLICY GIVEN TO HIM BY THE POLITBURO. HE IS PRIMARILY A LAWYER AND ADVOCATE, NOT A POLICY MAKER, THEY SAID.

JUST BEFORE MOSCOW ANNOUNCED THE CHANGE THE MOSCOW RADIO DECLARED IN AN ENGLISH BROADCAST THAT RUSSIA WANTED PEACE AND "UNSWERVINGLY CONDUCTS A POLICY OF COOPERATION AMONG ALL DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES, REGARDLESS OF THEIR INTERNAL SOCIAL SYSTEM."

JR510AES

BRITISH PAPERS USED SUCH HEADLINES AS "MOLOTOV SACKED" IN THEIR FIRST STORIES ABOUT THE SHUFFLE. THE LABORITE LONDON DAILY HERALD SUGGESTED THE APPOINTMENT OF THE "EMINENTLY PUGNACIOUS VISHINKY" DID NOT INDICATE A SOFTENING SOVIET ATTITUDE. THE NEWS CHRONICLE SAID THAT "ANY CHANGE (IN FOREIGN MINISTERS) WOULD SEEM TO BE A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER."

AN ACCOMPANYING SHIFT IN THE KREMLIN LINEUP WAS EQUALLY BAFFLING AND NO MORE REASSURING TO THE WESTERN OBSERVERS. THIS WAS THE RELEASE OF A.I.MIKOYAN FROM THE POST OF MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE, AND APPOINTMENT OF M.A.MENSHIKOV AS HIS SUCCESSOR.

MIKOYAN HAD BEEN REGARDED BY MANY SOURCES AS THE MOST FRIENDLY POLITBURO MEMBER WITH WHOM THE WEST HAD TO DEAL. HE IS AN INTELLECTUAL, RATED ONE OF THE SHARPEST THINKERS IN THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT, AND SOMETIMES HAS BEEN MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO STALIN.

MENSHIKOV HAS A LONG RECORD OF GOVERNMENTAL WORK IN FOREIGN TRADE.

IT WAS NOT CLEAR WHETHER MENSHIKOV ALSO WILL INHERIT MIKOYAN'S JOB AS HEAD OF THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL FOR MUTUAL AID (ECMA), RUSSIAN-BACKED COUNTER TO THE MARSHALL PLAN.

~~FIRST LEAD MOLOTOV~~

BY EDDY GILMORE AND THOMAS P.WHITNEY

MOSCOW, MARCH 5-(AP)-RESPONSIBLE OFFICERS OF THE UNITED STATES EMBASSY WERE EMPHATIC TODAY IN THEIR OPINION THAT THE RETIREMENT OF V. M. MOLOTOV AND A. I. MIKOYAN FROM MINISTERIAL POSTS DOES NOT IMPLY ANY LESSENING OF THEIR GREAT AUTHORITY IN THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.

MOLOTOV WAS "FREED FROM HIS DUTIES" AS FOREIGN MINISTER AND MIKOYAN WAS RELEASED AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE YESTERDAY.

THERE WAS NOTHING HERE TO INDICATE THAT THE APPOINTMENT OF ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY AS FOREIGN MINISTER MEANS ANY SUBSTANTIAL CHANGE IN RUSSIA'S FOREIGN POLICY.

HOWEVER, DIPLOMATS HERE AGREED THAT SHOULD THERE BE A SHIFT IN FOREIGN POLICY, NOW WOULD BE AN EXCELLENT TIME TO PUT IT INTO EFFECT.

EMBASSY OFFICERS AND OTHER RESPONSIBLE WESTERN OBSERVERS HERE BELIEVE THAT MEMBERS AND ALTERNATE MEMBERS OF THE RUSSIAN COMMUNIST PARTY'S POLITBURO DERIVE THEIR BASIC AUTHORITY FROM THEIR MEMBERSHIP IN THIS TOP POLICY BODY. BOTH MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN ARE STILL POLITBURO MEMBERS.

MOLOTOV ALSO REMAINS FIRST DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS OF THE U.S.S.R. -- A POSITION SECOND ONLY TO THAT OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN IN GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY.

MIKOYAN ALSO CONTINUES AS VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

IT WAS SUGGESTED BY AMERICAN AND BRITISH OBSERVERS HERE THAT MOLOTOV PROBABLY WILL DEVOTE A LARGE PORTION OF HIS TIME AND ENERGY TO HIS WORK AS FIRST VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL. BY DOING THIS, IT WAS SUGGESTED, HE WOULD BE EASING THE BURDEN OF WORK ON STALIN.

THE OBSERVERS DO NOT FEEL THAT THE MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN RETIREMENTS FROM MINISTERIAL POSTS MEAN ANY FOREIGN POLICY CHANGE.

THEY CLAIM NO ANALOGY CAN BE DRAWN BETWEEN THE RETIREMENT OF MAXIM LITVINOFF FROM THE POSITION OF PEOPLE'S COMMISSAR (FOREIGN MINISTER) FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN MAY, 1939, AND THE RETIREMENT OF MOLOTOV.

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS STATED THAT LITVINOFF WAS REPLACED IN 1939 BECAUSE IT WAS NECESSARY FOR A MORE AUTHORITATIVE PERSON TO OCCUPY THAT POST AT A TIME WHEN THERE WAS IMMINENT DANGER OF WAR.

THE SOVIET INFORMATION BUREAU'S DOCUMENT, "FALSIFIERS OF HISTORY," ISSUED A YEAR AGO, SAID.

"AS REGARDS THE APPOINTMENT OF V.M. MOLOTOV TO THE POST OF PEOPLE'S COMMISSAR OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, IT WAS PERFECTLY CLEAR THAT IN SO COMPLEX A SITUATION, WHEN FASCIST AGGRESSORS WERE PREPARING A SECOND WORLD WAR, WHEN GREAT BRITAIN, BACKED BY THE UNITED STATES, WAS PLAINLY ABETTING THEM TOWARD WAR AGAINST THE U.S.S.R., IT WAS NECESSARY TO HAVE IN SUCH A RESPONSIBLE POST AS PEOPLE'S COMMISSAR OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS A POLITICAL LEADER OF GREATER EXPERIENCE AND GREATER POPULARITY IN THE COUNTRY THAN M.LITVINOFF."

A52

LITVINOFF, WHO IN 1939 WAS NOT A MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO, WAS REPLACED BY MOLOTOV, WHO WAS A POLITBURO MEMBER AND SIMULTANEOUSLY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF PEOPLE'S COMMISSARS -- THAT IS, PRIME MINISTER.

NOW, ON THE CONTRARY, MOLOTOV, RETAINS HIS MEMBERSHIP IN THE POLITBURO AND IN THE POST OF FIRST DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, RETIRES FROM THE POSITION OF FOREIGN MINISTER. HE WAS SUCCEEDED BY ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, WHO HAD BEEN MOLOTOV'S CHIEF ASSISTANT IN THE FOREIGN POLICY FIELD.

THIS IS A DIFFERENT SORT OF CHANGE FROM THAT OF MAY, 1939.

DURING THE WAR MOLOTOV TOOK OVER THE HIGHLY IMPORTANT JOB OF SUPERVISING TANK PRODUCTION IN RUSSIA. SEPT.30, 1943, HE WAS AWARDED THE TITLE OF HERO OF SOCIALIST LABOR FOR HIS SERVICES TO THE TANK INDUSTRY. JUNE 11, 1945, HE WAS AWARDED THE ORDER OF LENIN FOR SUCCESSFULLY CARRYING OUT GOVERNMENT ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE WAR.

MIKOYAN WAS CREDITED WITH THE JOB OF KEEPING BOTH THE FRONT AND REAR SUPPLIED WITH FOOD DURING THE WAR. HE ALSO WAS A MEMBER OF THE DEFENSE COMMITTEE OF THE SOVIET UNION. HE WAS AWARDED THE TITLE OF HERO OF SOCIALIST LABOR SEPT.03, 1943, FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO WAR WORK.

BOTH THE NEW MINISTERS, VISHINSKY AND M.A.MENSHIKOV, WHO SUCCEEDED MIKOYAN HAVE HAD CONSIDERABLE DEALINGS WITH WESTERN OFFICIALS AND DIPLOMATS. VISHINSKY WAS WELL KNOWN TO AVERELL HARRIMAN, FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, AND LORD INVERCHAPEL, FORMER BRITISH ENVOY.

BOTH HARRIMAN AND INVERCHAPEL LIKED TO RECALL A TRAIN TRIP THEY MADE TO ROMANIA WITH VISHINSKY IN CONNECTION WITH ELECTIONS THERE AND THE ROMANIAN ARMISTICE. THEY TRAVELED TOGETHER FOR SEVERAL DAYS AND HAD INTERESTING PERSONAL DISCUSSIONS AS THEY ROLLED THROUGH THE COUNTRYSIDE ON THE LONG ROAD TO BUCHAREST. HARRIMAN AND INVERCHAPEL RETURNED WITH MANY IMPRESSIONS OF VISHINSKY ON THIS JOURNEY.

GEN. WALTER BEDELL SMITH, PRESENT U.S. AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, PROBABLY HAD MORE PERSONAL RELATIONS WITH VISHINSKY THAN WITH ANY OTHER SOVIET OFFICIAL. HE TOO ALWAYS EXPRESSED A PERSONAL LIKING FOR THE THEN DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER.

PAYING A BIG TRIBUTE TO VISHINSKY'S MENTAL ABILITY, AMERICANS AND BRITONS HERE ALWAYS AGREED ON THIS DESCRIPTION: "HE IS QUITE HUMAN AND APPROACHABLE."

HAROLD WILSON, BRITAIN'S YOUTHFUL PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, PROBABLY HAS HAD MORE DEALINGS WITH MENSHIKOV THAN ANY OTHER WESTERNER HAS HAD IN RECENT YEARS. HERE ON TWO OCCASIONS IN CONNECTION THE ANGLO-SOVIET TRADE, WILSON SAW MENSHIKOV SEVERAL TIMES. UNRRA OFFICIALS ALSO KNEW HIM. MENSHIKOV WAS APPOINTED DEPUTY MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE LAST SEPTEMBER.

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MARCH 5-(AP)-ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY REPLACED VYACHESLAV M. MOLOTOV AS FOREIGN MINISTER TODAY IN A MOMENTOUS SHIFT OF HELMSMEN IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS.

RUSSIA'S SECOND MOST IMPORTANT OFFICIAL IN DEALINGS WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD, FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER A.I. MIKOYAN, ALSO WAS REPLACED BY HIS DEPUTY, M.A. MENSHIKOV, AFTER 23 YEARS AT THE JOB. UNTIL TODAY VISHINSKY ALSO HAD BEEN MOLOTOV'S DEPUTY.

THESE DRAMATIC CHANGES--THE MOST IMPORTANT IN THE SOVIET UNION SINCE MOLOTOV TOOK OVER THE FOREIGN MINISTRY A DECADE AGO FROM MAXIM LITVINOFF--WERE ANNOUNCED BY THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET IN A BRIEF STATEMENT WHICH LEFT UNANSWERED A HOST OF QUESTIONS.

APPEARING ON THE BACK PAGES OF MORNING NEWSPAPERS UNDER THE HEADLINE, "ANNOUNCEMENTS," IT SAID:

"THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE U.S.S.R. HAS FREED DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, COMRADE V.M. MOLOTOV, FROM DUTIES AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND DESIGNATED AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMRADE A.Y. VISHINSKY.

"THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE U.S.S.R. FREED DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS OF THE U.S.S.R., COMRADE A.I. MIKOYAN, FROM DUTIES AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE AND DESIGNATED AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE, COMRADE M.A. MENSHIKOV."

THERE WAS NO HINT AS TO WHAT NEW JOBS MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN MIGHT

OF TAKING. IT SAID NOTHING ABOUT THEIR BEING RELIEVED OF THEIR DUTIES AS DEPUTY CHAIRMEN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS. ON THE CONTRARY IT USED THOSE TITLES IN REFERRING TO THEM.

THERE WAS NO HINT AS TO WHAT SIGNIFICANCE THE CHANGES MIGHT PORTEND.

(DIPLOMATS IN LAKE SUCCESS, LONDON, WASHINGTON AND OTHER WORLD CAPITALS WERE DUMBFOUNDED BY THE UNVEILED CHANGE. THEY SPECULATED THAT IT MIGHT BE PREPARATORY TO MOLOTOV'S SUCCEEDING PRIME MINISTER JOSEF STALIN, OR THAT IT MEANT THAT MOLOTOV HAD BEEN GIVEN THE BOOT IN ORDER TO EXECUTE A FAR-REACHING CHANGE IN SOVIET POLICY IN THE COLD WAR WITH THE WEST. OTHERS, RECALLING THAT VISHINSKY HAS BEEN THE MOST SCATHING DENOUNCER OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE WEST IN UNITED NATIONS SPEECHES, SPECULATED THAT THE SOVIET WAS MERELY SEEKING A MORE EFFECTIVE INSTRUMENT OF THE SAME POLICY.

A25

(THOSE WHO BELIEVED THAT VISHINSKY'S APPOINTMENT MIGHT MEAN A CHANGE OF POLICY OR A MORE VIGOROUS CHANGE IN TACTICS IN CARRYING OUT THE OLD POLICY, POINTED OUT THAT RUSSIA HAS NOT BEEN FARING WELL IN THE COLD WAR.

(ONLY YESTERDAY THE SOVIET SUFFERED A DIPLOMATIC DEFEAT WHEN NORWAY JOINED THE WASHINGTON NEGOTIATIONS FOR A NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT AND DENMARK MOVED IN THE SAME DIRECTION. THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS BEEN MARKING UP SUCCESSES DESPITE THE MOST BITTER SOVIET OPPOSITION, AND THE BERLIN BLOCKADE HAS BEEN TURNING AGAINST THE RUSSIANS.)

MOLOTOV, WHO WILL BE 59 ON MARCH 9, HOLDS THE FOLLOWING POSITIONS BESIDES BEING DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF THE

BESIDES BEING DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS:

MEMBER OF THE ALL-POWERFUL POLITBURO; MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL OF THE UNION, ONE OF THE TWO HOUSES OF THE RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT; DEPUTY TO THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE RUSSIAN SOVIET FEDERAL SOCIALIST REPUBLIC (R.S.F.S.R.) THE LARGEST REPUBLIC IN THE SOVIET UNION; AND MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

MIKOYAN ALSO HOLDS THESE OTHER JOBS: MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO, MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL OF NATIONALITIES, ONE OF THE TWO HOUSES OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, AND A MEMBER OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE R.S.F.S.R.

MOLOTOV, A STALWART IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY FROM ITS EARLIEST DAYS AND AN INSIDER ALMOST FROM THE FIRST, ALWAYS HAS BEEN KNOWN AS A "STALIN MAN." HE WAS PREMIER FROM 1930 TO 1941 WHEN STALIN TOOK OVER THE POST HIMSELF IN THE WAR EMERGENCY.

MOLOTOV TOOK OVER THE FOREIGN MINISTRY FROM LITVINOFF ON MAY 3, 1939, JUST BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR. HE HANDLED RUSSIA'S DIPLOMACY THROUGH THE DIFFICULT YEARS BEFORE RUSSIA WAS INVADED BY GERMANY IN 1941, DURING THE WAR AND THROUGH THE POST-WAR YEARS. THROUGHOUT, VISHINSKY, WHO IS 65, WAS HIS RIGHT-HAND MAN.

MIKOYAN BECAME COMMISSAR OF FOREIGN TRADE IN 1926 AND AS SUCH BECAME ONE OF RUSSIA'S BEST KNOWN OFFICIALS ABROAD. HE IS 55 AND HIS SUCCESSOR MENSHIKOV IS SLIGHTLY YOUNGER. ONLY THREE DAYS AGO MIKOYAN WAS ON HAND AS THE OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVE TO GREET A NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT DELEGATION WHICH ARRIVED FOR DISCUSSIONS IN MOSCOW.

HE HAD TRAVELED TO THE UNITED STATES, AND FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR W. AVERELL HARRIMAN HAD HIM AS A GUEST AT HIS MOSCOW RESIDENCE SEVERAL TIMES. AT HIS MANY OFFICIAL RECEPTIONS HE WAS ONE OF THE MOST FRIENDLY OF HOSTS. AT NUMEROUS KREMLIN FUNCTIONS HE SAT NEXT TO AMERICANS OR BRITONS.

MENSHIKOV, ABOUT WHOM LESS IS KNOWN, WAS APPOINTED DEPUTY MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE IN SEPTEMBER LAST YEAR.

~~WASHINGTON, MARCH 5-~~(AP)-WHILE HOPEFUL THAT RUSSIA'S UNEXPECTED CHANGE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS MIGHT RESULT IN GREATER INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION, OFFICIAL WASHINGTON KEPT ITS FINGERS CROSSED TODAY.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID:

"IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT THE CHANGES MAY EVIDENCE AN APPROACH TO INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND THE SEARCH FOR WORLD PEACE WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS."

BUT HE COMMENTED THAT BOTH ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, AND VYACHLESAV M. MOLOTOV, THE MAN HE IS REPLACING, ARE MILITANT SUPPORTERS "OF THE SOVIET POLICY OF OPPOSITION TO THE DEMOCRACIES OF WESTERN EUROPE AND PARTICULARLY TO THE UNITED STATES."

"NEITHER," HE ADDED, "HESITATES TO BLOCK ACTION IN THE UNITED NATIONS BY THE USE OF THE VETO."

SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, ADMITTED FREELY THAT HE DOESN'T KNOW WHAT THE SOVIET SHIFT MEANS.

BUT HE ADDED:

"WHILE THERE IS LIFE, THERE IS HOPE."

HOWEVER HE MADE THIS APPRAISAL OF THE TWO MEN:

"MR.MOLOTOV IS SOLEMN, STERN, IMPERTURBABLE--AND RELENTLESS.

"MR.VISHINSKY IS VIVID, ELOQUENT, LIVELY--AND RUTHLESS.

TOGETHER, HE DESCRIBED THEM AS "THE MOST ACCOMPLISHED PAIR OF FILIBUSTERERS I EVER SAW PERFORM."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN, PREPARING TO LEAVE TOMORROW FOR A VACATION AT KEY WEST, FLA., HAD NO COMMENT ON THE SHAKE-UP. PRESIDENTIAL SECRETARY WILLIAM D.HASSETT SAID THE MATTER WASN'T MENTIONED AT MR. TRUMAN'S REGULAR MEETING WITH HIS STAFF TODAY.

SENATOR BREWSTER (R-MAINE) SPECULATED THAT "MOLOTOV MAY EMERGE IN STALIN'S PLACE."

BREWSTER SAID, HOWEVER, THERE IS NO PARTICULAR SIGNIFICANCE TO THE SHIFT IN FOREIGN MINISTERS AS FAR AS SOVIET STRATEGY IS CONCERNED.

"RUSSIA HAS A TIGHTLY KNIT DICTATORSHIP," HE SAID. "IT'S JUST ANOTHER CHANGE LIKE MOVING SCENERY AROUND."

SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN WAS AS SILENT AS THE KREMLIN ITSELF ABOUT THE REASONS BEHIND REPLACING MOLOTOV WITH VISHINSKY.

PANYUSHKIN CALLED AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT THIS AFTERNOON AND TALKED TO UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE WEBB. WHEN HE EMERGED REPORTERS ASKED HIM TO COMMENT ON THE CHANGE. HIS REPLY WAS ONE WORD:

"NO."

RUSSIAN INTERPRETIVE (700)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 5-(AP)-A NEW RUSSIAN ISOLATIONISM MAY LIE AT THE HEART OF THE KREMLIN POLICIES WHICH BROUGHT ABOUT THE REPLACEMENT OF SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV BY HIS FAST-TALKING DEPUTY, ANDREI VISHINSKY.

THIS POSSIBILITY EMERGED TODAY OUT OF SPECULATION STIRRED AMONG WASHINGTON OFFICIALS AND DIPLOMATS BY THE STARTLING SOVIET DEVELOPMENT.

IT COULD MEAN EITHER A SOFTENING OR TOUGHENING OF RUSSIAN POLICY TOWARD THE WEST--EITHER SOVIET MOVES FOR A TRUCE IN THE COLD WAR OR THE OPENING UP OF NEW POLITICAL BATTLEFRONTS.

IF RUSSIAN POLICY IS TO BE SOFTENED, AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE CONVINCED THAT IT WILL BE DONE GRADUALLY. THEY SET IT WILL PROBABLY SHOW UP IN NEGOTIATIONS OVER LONG STANDING CONTROVERSIES SUCH AS THE AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY, BERLIN BLOCKADE AND RELATED GERMAN PROBLEMS, AND REARMAMENT AND ATOMIC CONTROLS IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

BUT IF THE RUSSIANS DO NOT WANT A TRUCE, THEIR TOUGHER POLICY WILL BE MANIFESTED IN THEIR BORDER COUNTRIES, TOP OFFICIALS HERE BELIEVE. IT MIGHT SHOW UP IN IRAN, FINLAND AND TURKEY, AND IN WHAT THEY DO ABOUT THE LINE UP OF NORWAY WITH THE ATLANTIC PACT POWERS.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS EMPHASIZED THAT NO REALLY ACCURATE APPRAISAL OF THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE MOLOTOV-VISHINSKY SHIFT CAN BE MADE UNTIL MORE INFORMATION IS AVAILABLE. NEITHER CAN THE PARALLEL REPLACEMENT OF FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER MIKOYAN BY HIS DEPUTY BE ANALYZED FULLY.

HOWEVER, IT IS BELIEVED HERE THAT IF A NEW PERIOD OF ISOLATIONISM IS AT HAND, RUSSIA'S WORLD RELATIONS MAY FOLLOW LINES OF THE PREWAR DECADES RATHER THAN THE 10 YEARS THAT MOLOTOV HELD POWER.

THIS WOULD MEAN THAT THE FOREIGN OFFICE WOULD BE OVERSHADOWED IN REAL FOREIGN RELATIONS BY THE COMINFORM. THIS IS THE OLD COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL IN NEW POSTWAR DRESS.

WHILE THE ISSUES HAVE NEVER BEEN TOO CLEARLY KNOWN, IT IS BELIEVED THERE HAS BEEN RIVALRY BETWEEN THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE COMINFORM SINCE ITS CREATION A YEAR AND A HALF AGO. THE COMINFORM WAS SET UP TO FIGHT THE MARSHALL PLAN IN THE OPEN IN EASTERN EUROPE AND UNDER COVER IN WESTERN EUROPE. IT COULD READILY EXPAND TO BECOME THE REAL UNDERCOVER INSTRUMENT BY WHICH SOVIET COMMUNISM OPERATES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD TOWARD RUSSIA'S LONG-RANGE OBJECTIVES. IT MAY BE THAT ALREADY.

AMERICAN AND OTHER WESTERN DIPLOMATS HERE BELIEVE THE FOLLOWING POINTS ARE PROBABLY TRUE WITH RESPECT TO THE SOVIET SHAKEUP:

1. MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN, TOP-LEVEL POLITICAL FIGURES IN RUSSIA FOR A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, WERE MEMBERS OF THE CONTROLLING POLITBURO. THEY PROBABLY CONTINUE IN POWER.

A163WX

2. MOLOTOV MAY HAVE BEEN MOVED INTO A SPOT FROM WHICH HE CAN BE PREPARED TO TAKE OVER STALIN'S DUTIES INCREASINGLY. MIKOYAN MAY BE GIVEN SOME OTHER RESPONSIBLE POSITION.

3. THE SUCCESSORS TO THESE TWO TOP-FLIGHT MEN IN THE FOREIGN POLICY AND FOREIGN TRADE MINISTRIES ARE REGARDED BY RUSSIAN OBSERVERS HERE AS "TECHNICIANS"--THAT IS, MEN ACCUSTOMED TO TAKE ORDERS RATHER THAN TO MAKE BASIC POLICY.

4. IF THE RUSSIANS THEMSELVES SHARE THE WESTERN VIEW THAT VISHINSKY AND THE NEW FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER HAVE MUCH LESS PRESTIGE AND INFLUENCE THAN THE MEN THEY REPLACED, THEN THE CONCLUSION IS THAT THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE TRADE MINISTRY ARE BEING MINIMIZED BY THE POLITBURO.

THESE POINTS LEAD TO THE SPECULATION THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT MAY BE TURNING IN UPON ITSELF, LEAVING DIRECT HANDLING OF ITS FOREIGN MINISTRY TO MEN OF LESSER STATURE THAN IT EMPLOYED DURING THE PAST 10 YEARS.

SEVERAL OTHER PIECES FIT INTO THIS KIND OF A PATTERN. ONE IS THAT THE SOVIETS A YEAR AGO REACHED THE OUTER LIMITS OF COMMUNISTS EXPANSION AS FIXED BY THE AREA OF THEIR MILITARY POWER.

MEANWHILE, THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS HAVE CONSTRUCTED A ROUGH WALL OF ARMIES AND POLICIES TO BLOCK FURTHER SOVIET-COMMUNIST EXPANSION.

HAVING PUSHED UP TO THAT LINE THE RUSSIANS WERE ALSO CONFRONTED WITH A STEADYING OF POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN THE WESTERN COUNTRIES. THIS HAS MADE INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT THE EFFORTS OF COM-MUNIST AGENTS TO O

COUNTRIES. THIS HAS MADE INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT THE EFFORTS OF COM-MUNIST AGENTS TO OVERTHROW WESTERN GOVERNMENTS FROM WITHIN.

WITHIN RECENT MONTHS, THEREFORE, AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAVE BELIEVED THAT THE KREMLIN WAS UP AGAINST SOME EXTREMELY DIFFICULTPOLICE DECISIO

MAR 6 1949

THAT THE KREMLIN WAS UP AGAINST SOME EXTREMELY DIFFICULT POLICY DECI-SIONS. THESE APPEARED TO COME DOWN FUNDAMENTALLY TO THE ISSUE OF WAR OR PEACE--SHOULD THE EXPANSION PROGRAM WHICH MOLOTOV HAD OPERATED AS FOREIGN MINISTER BE PRESSED FORWARD AT THE RISK OF WAR WITH THE WEST, OR SHOULD THE EMPHASIS BE PRIMARILY ON CONSOLIDATION.

THE TENDENCY IN WASHINGTON TODAY IS TO SPECULATE THAT WITH THE SHIFTING OF MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN THE DECISION HAS BEEN MADE FOR CON-SOLIDATION OF ALL THE AREAS UNDER DIRECT OR INDIRECT RUSSIAN INFLUENCE.

IF THIS IS TRUE IT DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN AN END TO TROUBLE ALTHOUGH IT COULD MEAN LESS DIRECT CONFLICT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WEST. THE KREMLIN, IN FACT, MIGHT WELCOME A TRUCE ON MANY FRONTS OF THE COLD WAR.

~~WASHINGTON, MARCH 5-(AP)-~~HERE IS THE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) CONCERNING THE RUSSIAN SHIFT OF ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY TO SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER SUCCEEDING VYACHESLAV M. MOLOTOV: (ABOUT 150)

-DASH-

"I DO NOT KNOW WHAT THE LATEST SHIFT AMONG THE SOVIET CZARS MEANS. I KNOW BOTH MR. MOLOTOV AND MR. VISHINSKY VERY WELL. I SAT ACROSS THE TABLE FROM ONE OR THE OTHER OF THEM, AND SOMETIMES BOTH, FOR 213 DAYS IN 1946.

"MOST OF THE TIME THEY WERE ENGAGED IN SAYING 'NO' TO EVERY PEACE-PLAN OF THEIR ERSTWHILE ALLIES. THEY ARE THE MOST ACCOMPLISHED PAIR

OF 'FILIBUSTERERS' I EVER SAW PERFORM.

"THERE IS A GREAT DIFFERENCE IN PERSONALITIES. MR. MOLOTOV IS SOLEMN, STERN, IMPERTURBABLE--AND RELENTLESS. MR. VISHINSKY IS VIVID, ELOQUENT, LIVELY--AND RUTHLESS.

"BUT I NEVER DISTINGUISHED ANY DEGREE OF DIFFERENCE IN THEIR LOYALTY TO THE MOSCOW COMMUNIST LINE. IF THE CHANGE MEANS ANYTHING IT REMAINS FOR THE POLITBURO OVERLORDS TO SAY. BUT WHILE THERE IS LIFE HERE IS HOPE."

RP214PES

NEW YORK, MARCH 6-(SUNDAY)-(AP)-ROBERT MAGIDOFF, CORRESPONDENT EXPELLED FROM MOSCOW, SAID TODAY HE BELIEVES THAT THE MOLOTOV-VISHINSKY SHIFT IS "IN PREPARATION FOR THE WITHDRAWAL OF STALIN FROM THE POST OF PRIME MINISTER IN FAVOR OF MOLOTOV."

THE 43-YEAR-OLD WRITER SAID THAT IT IS "AN OPEN SECRET AMONG INFORMED PEOPLE IN MOSCOW" THAT V.M.MOLOTOV, WHO WAS REPLACED BY ANDREI VISHINSKY AS FOREIGN MINISTER, HAS BEEN "PRESIDING OVER CABINET MEETINGS FOR SOME TIME."

"AT THE SAME TIME, STALIN HAS BEEN WITHDRAWING VERY GRADUALLY FROM PUBLIC LIFE," MAGIDOFF SAID. "THIS NEW SHIFT IS A PREPARATORY STEP TOWARD MAKING MOLOTOV PRIME MINISTER."

MAGIDOFF, A MOSCOW CORRESPONDENT FOR 12 YEARS, WAS EXPELLED LAST SPRING ON UNOFFICIAL CHARGES OF BEING AN AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER. HE DENIED THE SOVIET'S CHARGES. HE HAD SERVED AS A NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY CORRESPONDENT FOR SEVEN YEARS, AND PREVIOUSLY WORKED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. HE IS NOW ON A LECTURE TOUR. A BOOK ON RUSSIA, "IN ANGER AND PITY," BY MAGIDOFF, WAS PUBLISHED YESTERDAY BY DOUBLEDAY & CO.

MAGIDOFF SAID HE BELIEVES THAT MOLOTOV WAS RELIEVED FROM THE "DAILY TASKS OF FOREIGN MINISTER TO GIVE HIM MORE TIME TO DETERMINE OVERALL POLICY OF THE CABINET, OF WHICH HE IS FIRST VICE-CHAIRMAN."

"I DON'T ATTACH MUCH SIGNIFICANCE TO THE CHANGE FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF FOREIGN POLICY," MAGIDOFF SAID. "IF THERE IS A CHANGE, IT WILL BE ONLY SKIN DEEP.

"I DON'T THINK VISHINSKY WILL BE ALLOWED TO MAKE HIS OWN POSITION. WHILE HE IS A MUCH SMOOTHER, MORE BRILLIANT AND WARMER PERSONALITY THAN MOLOTOV, MOLOTOV, AS A MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO, WILL SUPERVISE VISHINSKY AS FOREIGN MINISTER.

"THE CHANGE IS SIGNIFICANT AS REGARDS INTERNAL SOVIET POLICY, ESPECIALLY AS CONCERNS STALIN."

STALIN SOME TIME AGO GAVE UP HIS POST AS MINISTER OF ARMED FORCES, AS A FIRST STEP IN HIS WITHDRAWAL, MAGIDOFF SAID THE FOREIGN MINISTER SHIFT HE SAID, MARKS A SECOND STEP LEADING TOWARD STALIN'S WITHDRAWAL AS PRIME MINISTER. MAGIDOFF PREDICTED THAT "VERY SOON" EVIDENCE WILL SHOW THE "BUILDING UP OF SOME ONE TO REPLACE STALIN IN HIS THIRD JOB, THAT OF SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE PARTY."

MAGIDOFF'S HOME IS NOW IN LOUISVILLE, KY.

HP-TA217AES

DESPITE MURMURS OF ALARM FROM CAPITOL HILL, DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS APPEARED UNANIMOUS IN THE OPINION THAT THIS TIME NO SUCH BASIC CHANGE IS IN PROSPECT.

THEIR SPECULATION INCLUDED THIS ADDITIONAL LIST OF POSSIBILITIES:

1. THE RELIEF OF MOLOTOV AND FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER A.I.MIKOYAN MIGHT MEAN A POLITICAL OVERTURN WITHIN THE RULING SOVIET AGENCY, THE POLITBURO--ALTHOUGH OFFICIALS SAID THEY KNEW NOTHING DEFINITE TO SUPPORT THAT IDEA.

2. MOLOTOV AND POSSIBLY MIKOYAN MAY BE ASSIGNED TO NEW POSTS. BUT WHILE MOLOTOV HAS BEEN MENTIONED TO SUCCEED STALIN THERE IS LITTLE TO SUGGEST THAT STALIN IS READY TO STEP ASIDE NOW.

3. THE CHANGE MIGHT BE ENTIRELY ADMINISTRATIVE. THE POLITBURO, WHICH FORMERLY HAD A MEMBERSHIP OF 14, HAS BEEN REDUCED IN NUMBER BY TWO DEATHS.

ONE OFFICIAL SUGGESTED IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED NECESSARY TO TAKE SOME OF THE SENIOR MEMBERS AWAY FROM GOVERNMENT POSTS AND ASSIGN THEM TO TASKS WITHIN THE POLITBURO, FREE OF ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY. ADD WASH (Cov-Vandenberg-Dulles) XXX WAR II

AS FAR AS IS KNOWN HERE, VISHINSKY IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO.

THE AUTHORITY WHO SAID RUSSIA MIGHT NOW BE LOOKING FORWARD TO A LESS STRENUOUS PERIOD IN ITS DEALINGS WITH THE WEST ADDED ALONG THAT LINE THAT VISHINSKY MIGHT BE CONSIDERED OF SUFFICIENT STATURE TO MEET THE LESSER DEMANDS WHICH WOULD RESULT FROM SUCH A POLICY CHANGE.

THE IDEA THAT MOLOTOV MIGHT BE IN ILL HEALTH WAS GENERALLY RULED OUT. VISHINSKY, DISPATCHES THIS INDICATED, HAS RECOVERED ENTIRELY FROM A REPORTED NERVOUS AILMENT WHICH SENT HIM TO A RESORT IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR TREATMENT.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 5-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS DIPLOMATS SPECULATED TODAY THAT VYACHESLAV [redacted] EVENTUALLY WILL SUCCEED PRIME MINISTER JOSEPH STALIN AND THERE WILL BE NO LET-UP IN THE COLD WAR.

THAT WAS THE FIRST OFF-THE-CUFF OPINION IN UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS ABOUT THE UNEXPECTED SHIFT IN THE TOP BRACKETS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.

NO ONE HERE PROFESSED TO KNOW WHAT THE RUSSIANS ACTUALLY WOULD DO NEXT NOR WHEN STALIN WOULD RETIRE, IF HE DID PLAN TO RETIRE.

DIPLOMATS WHO HAVE FOLLOWED RUSSIAN POLICY SAID THEY BELIEVED THE APPOINTMENT OF ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY AS FOREIGN MINISTER WAS NO BARGAIN FOR THE WEST.

VISHINSKY HAS MADE THE MOST BITTER ATTACKS ON WESTERN DELEGATES, OFFICIALS AND POLICIES EVER MADE IN UNITED NATIONS HALLS. HIS ACID SPEECHES, PARTICULARLY HIS "WAR-MONGERING" TALK IN THE 1947 ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK, HAVE NEVER BEEN APPROACHED FOR BITTERNESS IN U.N. DEBATES.

HE WAS EXPECTED TO BE THE CHIEF DELEGATE AT THE ASSEMBLY MEETING IN NEW YORK APRIL 5 BUT HIS PROMOTION MIGHT MEAN THAT HE CANNOT LEAVE MOSCOW. MOLOTOV CAME HERE IN 1946 PARTLY BECAUSE IT WAS THE FIRST ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK AND PARTLY BECAUSE THERE WAS A COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS ON THE SCHEDULE ALSO. BUT HE NEVER CAME BACK TO A U.N. ASSEMBLY AND LEFT THE BURDEN OF CHIEF REPRESENTATIVE TO VISHINSKY.

JAKOB A. MALIK, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, IS CHIEF DELEGATE HERE NOW AND MAY HEAD THE DELEGATION AT THE APRIL SESSION. BUT NO ONE IN THE RUSSIAN CIRCLES HERE PROFESSED TO KNOW WHAT THE ASSEMBLY PLANS ARE.

UNITED NATIONS DELEGATES AND WORKERS WERE STARTLED BY THE MOSCOW

ANNOUNCEMENT. THEY QUICKLY LOST ALL INTEREST IN WORK AND STARTED SPECULATING ON WHAT IT MEANT.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAD JUST ADJOURNED AFTER APPROVING ISRAEL'S APPLICATION FOR U.N. MEMBERSHIP. THE VOTE WAS 9 TO 1 WITH BRITAIN ABSTAINING. EGYPT CAST THE LONE VOTE IN OPPOSITION.

THE ASSEMBLY WILL BE ASKED EARLY IN APRIL TO GIVE THE FINAL APPROVAL SO ISRAEL MAY BECOME THE 59TH MEMBER OF THE U.N.

THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL WAS DISCUSSING CHARGES OF SLAVE LABOR AGAINST THE RUSSIANS. RUSSIAN DELEGATES HEARD THE NEWS AS THEY LEFT THE DAY'S MEETINGS AND THEY ENGAGED IN QUICK CONVERSATION -- IN RUSSIAN -- BUT THEY WOULD NOT SAY ANYTHING ABOUT THE CHANGE.

NO U.N. MEETINGS WERE SCHEDULED TODAY -- BUT THE MOLOTOV SHIFT IS THE TOP TOPIC IN LITTLE GROUPS OF U.N. DELEGATES AND WORKERS ABOUT NEW YORK. THE BIG QUESTION IS: WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

UNDATED MOLOTOV COMMENT

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

(NY) SOME OF THE NATION'S EDITORIAL WRITERS FELT THE REPLACEMENT OF V.M.MOLOTOV BY ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY AS RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER MUST HAVE SOMETHING "SENSATIONAL" AND "IMPORTANT" BEHIND IT, BUT OTHERS SCOUTED THE IDEA.

"WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT THE SOVIET CABINET SHAKEUP MEANS," SAID THE NEW YORK WORLD TELEGRAM, "BUT WE DO KNOW WHAT IT DOES NOT MEAN. AS LONG AS COMMUNIST DICTATORSHIP REMAINS, IT WILL BE BY NATURE AN INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY OF TYRANNY X X X NO CHANGES IN CABINET OR CONSTITUTION OR LEADERSHIP HAVE ALTERED THAT IN THE PAST, OR CAN IN THE FUTURE."

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION SAID THAT "PUTTING VISHINSKY IN THE TOP POSITION IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS X X X MEANS SOMETHING IMPORTANT. WE CAN BUT HOPE IT DOES NOT MEAN THE COLD WAR IS BEGINNING TO HEAT UP."

THE NEWARK STAR-LEDGER, NOTING THAT MAXIM LITVINOV'S EXIT FROM THE SAME JOB WAS "A PRELUDE TO THE HITLER-STALIN PACT," COMMENTED:

"THE PRESENT (MOVE) IS PROBABLY A PRELUDE TO SOMETHING QUITE SENSATIONAL. BUT WHAT?"

THE LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL TITLED ITS EDITORIAL "THE MEN MAY CHANGE BUT NOT THE KREMLIN," AND SAID "THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN MOSCOW SIGNIFICANTLY REGARDS THE CHANGE IN STATUS (OF MOLOTOV) AS A PROMOTION. THIS SEEMS AS GOOD A GUESS TO US AS ANY."

"THE SHIFT IS ONE OF THOSE THINGS WHICH CAN MEAN ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN--AND NOTHING MUCH TO ANYONE UNTIL FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS OF RUSSIAN FOREIGN POLICY SHOW WHAT, IF ANYTHING, IS SIGNIFIED," SAID THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR.

THE ST. PAUL DISPATCH COMMENTED: "IT SEEMS HARD TO BELIEVE THAT THE ELEVATION OF SUCH A MAN AS VISHINSKY TO MOLOTOV'S POSITION FORESHADOWS ANY FAVORABLE CHANGE IN RUSSIAN POLICY."

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL SPECULATED THAT MOLOTOV IS BEING "BROUGHT FORWARD TO GREATER PROMINENCE" AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO STALIN BUT ADDED THAT "WHATEVER DEVELOPS FROM THE SHIFT IS A CHANGE IN TACTICS X X X THE BASIC COMMUNIST STRATEGY REMAINS UNCHANGED."

"EVERY MOVE STALIN MAKES," SAID THE LOS ANGELES MIRROR, "MUST BE VIEWED IN RELATION TO THE FUNDAMENTAL, NEVER-CHANGING COMMUNIST AIM OF WORLD REVOLUTION."

THE RICHMOND NEWS-LEADER SAID "THE WEST CANNOT BE ANY WORSE OFF X X X FOR THE QUITE SUFFICIENT REASON THAT OUR DIPLOMATS COULD NOT BE CALLED UPON TO DEAL WITH A MORE DIFFICULT MAN THAN THE RETIRING OFFICIAL X X X OCCASIONALLY THERE WAS A GLINT OF UNDERSTANDING GOOD HUMOR IN VISHINSKY'S EYES, BUT IN MOLOTOV'S, NEVER."

B68

"EVEN THOSE WHO PROFESS TO UNDERSTAND THE RUSSIANS BEST FIND NO DEFINITE CLUE," SAID THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN. "A STRAW IN THE WIND MAY BE THE FACT THAT COMMUNIST PARTY LEADERS IN DEMOCRATIC LANDS, AS IF ANTICIPATING A CRISIS, HAVE SO RECENTLY GIVEN AN OPEN PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO MOSCOW."

"DOES IT MEAN A SHOWDOWN IN THE NEAR FUTURE WITH THE WEST?" ASKED THE CHATTANOOGA TIMES. "DOES IT MEAN MOLOTOV MAY REPLACE STALIN AS HEAD OF THE SOVIET REPUBLIC?" THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE ANSWER MUST BE FOUND "IN THE STERN BRAINS OF THE POLITBURO."

THE BOSTON GLOBE SAID THE CHANGE "SEEMS TO PORTEND A MAJOR SHIFT IN THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE SOVIET UNION" AND ADDED:

"IT IS WORTH NOTICING THAT VISHINSKY'S ELEVATION FOLLOWS ON THE HEELS OF THE RETIREMENT OF SEVERAL AMERICAN OFFICIALS X X X POWERFULLY IDENTIFIED WITH OUR NATION'S RECENT POLICY COURSES ABROAD."

THE NEW YORK TIMES SAID THAT "TWO CONCLUSIONS DO SEEM TO BE JUSTIFIED. THE FIRST OF THESE IS THAT RUSSIAN FOREIGN POLICY IS NOT BRILLIANTLY SUCCESSFUL. IF IT WERE, NO SHAKE-UP WOULD BE NECESSARY. X X X THE OTHER CONCLUSION IS THAT RUSSIA IS, AS HAS BEEN SUSPECTED, AN ORIENTAL DESPOTISM AND OPERATES ACCORDINGLY, WITH A BIG MAN (CAP B, M) AT THE TOP AND COURT FAVORITES STRUGGLING FOR POWER."

THE NEW YORK HERALD-TRIBUNE SAID "SOVIET POLICY WELL MAY BE UNDERGOING A MAJOR CHANGE IN DIRECTION AND THAT THE PROGRESS OF WESTERN EUROPEAN RECOVERY AND THE "POSSIBILITY OF THE SPREAD OF TITOISM" MUST BE "TROUBLING FACTORS TO THE KREMLIN."

"IT WOULD SEEM THEN THAT RUSSIA HAS TURNED, FOR THE MOMENT AT LEAST, TO DISCIPLINING AND CONSOLIDATING ITS HARD CORE IN THE WEST," THE HERALD TRIBUNE ADDED. "BUT WHATEVER THIS PORTENDS IN TERMS OF BASIC SOVIET POLICY, IT IS CLEAR THAT RUSSIAN ACTS, NOT THE SHIFTS AND CHANGES OF RUSSIAN PERSONALITIES, MUST BE THE TESTS."

RUSSIA'S NEW FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY IS A FREE-SWINGING ORATOR WHO PACKED IN CAPACITY CROWDS WHENEVER HE SPOKE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS.

HE ALWAYS SPEAKS IN A LOUD VOICE. SHOUTING IS HIS NORMAL FORM OF DELIVERY. AS HE WARMS UP, HIS ARMS WHIP THE AIR AND HIS VOICE GROWS EVEN LOUDER.

VISHINSKY TURNED IN WHAT MIGHT BE CONSIDERED HIS TOP SPEAKING PERFORMANCE IN HIS "WARMONGER" SPEECH AT THE 1947 U.N. ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK. HIS SPEECH RAN 8,000 WORDS AND TOOK ONE HOUR AND 33 MINUTES. HE PUT THE LABEL OF "WARMONGER" ON JOHN FOSTER DULLES, U.S. REPRESENTATIVE TO THE U.N., AND OTHERS.

EVERY NOW AND THEN VISHINSKY GETS OFF A VIVID PHRASE.

IN ONE BLAST AGAINST THE UNITED STATES HE CHARGED THE U.S. WITH PREPARING "A PEARL HARBOR" FOR RUSSIA.

HE ONCE ATTACKED A U.N. COMMITTEE REPORT ON THE BALKANS AS A "PILE OF GARBAGE." HE SAID U.N. BALKAN INVESTIGATORS WERE "AMATEUR SHERLOCK HOLMSES."
A CUBAN OF ITALIAN DESCENT ONCE CHALLENGED VISHINSKY TO A DUEL FOR DEFINING THE ITALIAN SOLDIER AS A BETTER RUNNER THAN A FIGHTER.
IN AN ATTACK ON THE U.S. ATOMIC ENERGY POLICY VISHINSKY SHOUTED THAT THE U.N. MUST "BAN THAT HELL OF THE BOMB." ONCE, WITH SARCASM, HE REFERRED TO "THAT LITTLE BOMB".
WHEN DULLES CHARGED AT PARIS THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE TRYING TO ENCIRCLE THE WORLD VISHINSKY CRIED "BOSH" AND "FAIRY TALES."
VISHINSKY IS A TABLE THUMPER WHEN THE GOING GETS ROUGH, AND WHEN SITTING DOWN HE BOUNCES UP AND DOWN IN HIS CHAIR, WAVING HIS ARMS, DURING AN ARGUMENT.
HE NEVER FORGETS HE ONCE WAS RUSSIA'S TOP PROSECUTOR. HE FIRST GAINED WORLD NOTICE AS PROSECUTOR IN THE MOSCOW PURGE TRIALS OF 1936 AND 1937.
VISHINSKY IS A SLIGHTLY BUILT MAN WITH GREY HAIR AND A RED FACE. HE TALKS WITH A NERVOUS, QUICK STEP. HE IS GENIAL OFF THE U.N. FLOOR.
HE DID SOME SURPRISING THINGS AT THE U.N. HE ONCE HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR 2 1/2 HOURS WITH MORE THAN 200 PRESENT. HE TURNED UP AT ST. PATRICK'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN NEW YORK CITY FOR A SOLEMN MASS INTENDED TO INVOKE DIVINE GUIDANCE ON THE U.N. DELIBERATIONS.
HE STARTED OUT IN RUSSIA WITH THE MENSHEVIK MINORITY FACTION OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY WHICH LATER LOST TO THE BOLSHEVIKS, THE MORE LEFT-IST OF THE TWO.

UNDATED GROMYKO (180)
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ANDREI A.GROMYKO WHO NOW STEPS UP THE LADDER TO BECOME RUSSIA'S FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, IS THE MAN WHO MADE AMERICANS VETO-CONSCIOUS. HE HAD BEEN UNTIL LAST YEAR THE SOVIET UNION'S PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE ON THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL.
GROMYKO WAS A DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER; HE NOW BECOMES FIRST DEPUTY, FILLING THE FORMER POSITION OF ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, WHO HAS BECOME FOREIGN MINISTER.
IN UNITED NATIONS CIRCLES GROMYKO IS KNOWN AS "MOLOTOV'S WHITE-HAIRED BOY."
HE HAS BEEN STEEPED IN THE COMMUNIST LINE AND IN WORLD COUNCILS HAS NEVER WAVERED.
BORN IN 1909 NEAR GOMEL IN THE SMALL TOWN OF GROMYKI, HE GREW UP WITH THE REVOLUTION AND THE SOVIET STATE. HE STUDIED ECONOMICS, GOT A MASTER'S DEGREE IN 1936 AND LECTURED IN THE ACADEMY OF SCIENCES IN MOSCOW.
IN 1939 HE WAS APPOINTED HEAD OF THE AMERICAN SECTION OF THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN OFFICE. THEN HE CAME FURTHER INTO THE AMERICAN LIMELIGHT WHEN HE WAS APPOINTED COUNSELOR AT THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON. IN 1943 HE SUCCEEDED WESTERN-MINDED MAXIM LITVINOFF AS AMBASSADOR. HE WAS THEN 34.
WHEN HE BECAME HEAD OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS IN 1946 IT WAS APPARENT TO OBSERVERS HIS DIPLOMACY CONSISTED IN EXECUTING MOSCOW'S WILL TO THE LETTER.
MOST U.S. CITIZENS THINK OF GROMYKO AS THE VETO MAN AND FOR HIS DRAMATIC WALK-OUTS FROM HEATED DEBATES.

DISCUSSING THE SITUATION IN FRANCE, MOSCOW RADIO'S OWN COMMENTATOR YERMASHEV SAID "THE FRENCH PEOPLE ARE FULLY DETERMINED TO STRUGGLE AGAINST THE CONVERSION OF THEIR COUNTRY INTO A WAR BASE OF THE ANGLO-AMERICAN AGGRESSORS."
IT WAS MAURICE THOREZ, FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADER, WHO FIRST OPENLY EXPRESSED THE NEW PARTY LINE. THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT RETALIATED WITH A SERIES OF ARRESTS OF COMMUNISTS ON TREASON CHARGES.
"THE PRESENT INNER POLITICAL EVENTS IN FRANCE HAVE A WIDE INTERNATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE," SAID YERMASHEV. "THE ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC WORLD IS FOLLOWING THEM."
HARRY POLLITT, GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE BRITISH COMMUNIST PARTY, DESCRIBED THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC PACT AS A "STEP TOWARD WAR." HE TOLD A POLITICAL MEETING IN NOTTINGHAM:

EARLIER TODAY, RAKOSI CHARGED IN A SPEECH TO COMMUNIST LEADERS IN BUDAPEST THAT THE VATICAN HAD PLOTTED TO FORM A "UNION OF CATHOLIC COUNTRIES" AS A DANUBE MONARCHY.

THE VATICAN SOURCE SAID MSGR. GIULIO CZAPIK, ARCHBISHOP OF EGER AND DEAN OF HUNGARY'S CATHOLIC BISHOPS, HAD TOLD RAKOSI THE BISHOPS WERE WILLING TO ISSUE A PUBLIC STATEMENT MAKING CLEAR THAT THE "CHURCHES WERE OPEN TO WORSHIP AND THE FAITHFUL WERE NOT FORBIDDEN TO TAKE THE SACRAMENTS BUT THAT CATHOLIC SCHOOLS AND INSTITUTIONS HAD BEEN NATIONALIZED AND THEREFORE PURE RELIGION WAS NOT POSSIBLE FOR CATHOLICS IN HUNGARY."

THE INFORMANT SAID RAKOSI WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SNAPPED BACK AT MSGR. CZAPIK:

"IF YOU WERE REPLACING (JOSEF) CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, THINGS WOULD BE EVEN WORSE BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND THE HUNGARIAN STATE".

THE VATICAN SOURCE SAID THAT RAKOSI'S REMARKS TO MSGR.CZAPIK WERE A CLEAR INDICATION OF PRESENT RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN THE COMMUNISTS

AND HUNGARIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS.

IN HIS SPEECH TODAY, BAKOSI SAID THAT THE "MAJORITY OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS DO NOT LIKE THE HUNGARIAN DEMOCRACY." HE ADDED THAT "THE FACT THEY WERE INCLINED TO CONCLUDE AN ECONOMIC AGREEMENT WITH THE GOVERNMENT THREE DAYS AFTER MINDSZENTY'S ARREST AND 10 DAYS LATER COMMENCED TALKS CONCERNING CHURCH-STATE RELATIONS PROVED THEY WERE FULLY AWARE THERE IS NO QUESTION OF A PERSECUTION OF RELIGION." HE ALSO CHARGED THE VATICAN WITH HAVING INTERFERED AND DISAPPROVED OF FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND BISHOPS.

GUATEMALA, GUATEMALA, MARCH 5-(AP)-THE GUATEMALIAN FOREIGN OFFICE IN STRONG LANGUAGE TODAY EXPRESSED "DEEP REGRET" THAT THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE HAVANA CONFERENCE ON DEPENDENT TERRITORIES.

IT LIKENED THE UNITED STATES DECISION NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CONFERENCE BEGINNING MARCH 15, TO A SOVIET VETO IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

(THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON YESTERDAY IT WILL NOT SEND A DELEGATE, MAINTAINING THE SAME STAND IT TOOK AT THE BOGOTA INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCE, WHERE IT OPPOSED THE FORMATION OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEPENDENT TERRITORIES. THE COMMITTEE SEEKS "ELIMINATION" OF EUROPEAN COLONIES IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE THROUGH PEACEFUL MEANS.

(THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT EXPRESSED DOUBTS THAT THE COMMITTEE COULD FULFILL ITS PURPOSE "WITHOUT ENDANGERING THE PRINCIPLES WHICH ALL AMERICAN STATES HAVE ACCEPTED IN INTER-AMERICAN AGREEMENTS OR IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS.")

IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT, GUATEMALA SAID IT TAKES EXCEPTION TO THE UNITED STATES ARGUMENT. IT SAID ABOLITION OF THE COLONIAL SYSTEM IS COMPATIBLE WITH THE DOCTRINES OF WASHINGTON, MONROE, JEFFERSON AND FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE CLAIMED THIS WAS THE FIRST TIME IN MORE THAN 50 YEARS THAT THE "WILL OF THE MAJORITY" HAD BEEN IGNORED IN THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES, ADDING:

"FOR THE TIME BEING (GUATEMALA) CANNOT DO LESS THAN MAKE KNOWN HER DISILLUSIONMENT IN VIEW OF THESE NEW PRACTICES--CAREFUL NOTE OF WHICH SHOULD BE TAKEN BY THE REPUBLICS OF THE CONTINENT."

(270) WASHINGTON, MARCH 5-(AP)-THE EVIDENCE IN THE "AXIS SALLY" TREASON TRIAL IS ALL IN.

FINAL ARGUMENTS BY PROSECUTING AND DEFENSE ATTORNEYS WILL BEGIN MONDAY AND CONTINUE INTO TUESDAY. THE JURY IS SCHEDULED TO RECEIVE THE CASE EITHER LATE THAT DAY OR ON WEDNESDAY.

TESTIMONY IN THE SIX-WEEK-OLD TRIAL OF MILDRED E.GILLARS, 48, ENDED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. FEDERAL JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAN THEN ADJOURNED COURT UNTIL 11 A.M. MONDAY.

JOHANNES SCHMIDT-HANSEN AND ERWIN CHRISTIANI, BOTH FORMER GERMAN RADIO OFFICIALS, WERE THE FINAL WITNESSES.

JOHN M. KELLEY, JR., THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, PUT SCHMIDT-HANSEN ON THE STAND AFTER MISS GILLARS' ATTORNEY, JAMES J. LAUGHLIN, DECIDED NOT TO USE HIM AS A DEFENSE WITNESS.

SCHMIDT-HANSEN, ONCE MISS GILLARS' BOSS, TESTIFIED THAT HE DID NOT RECALL ASKING HER FOR A STATEMENT AFFIRMING HER LOYALTY TO GERMANY, AS SHE HAD SAID HE DID.

KELLEY THEN ASKED WHETHER HE RECALLED ASKING MISS GILLARS TO GO TO THE BLACK FOREST TO BROADCAST FOR A SECRET GERMAN STATION. THE WITNESS INSISTED HE DID NOT RECALL EITHER INCIDENT.

"THAT IS A MATTER OF EIGHT OR TEN YEARS AGO," HE SAID. "IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR ME OR ANY OTHER PERSON TO HAVE EXACT RECOLLECTION OF SUCH DETAIL."

CHRISTIANI, RECALLED BY LAUGHLIN, REPEATED EARLIER TESTIMONY THAT SCHMIDT-HANSEN TOLD HIM TO SUSPEND MISS GILLARS AFTER SHE CALLED THE JAPANESE "YELLOW MONKEYS AND OTHER WORDS" AFTER THE PEARL HARBOR ATTACK.

IF CONVICTED, MISS GILLARS FACES A POSSIBLE DEATH SENTENCE. THE MINIMUM PENALTY FOR TREASON IS FIVE YEARS IN PRISON.

THE JURY, COMPOSED OF SEVEN MEN AND FIVE WOMEN, WILL DECIDE ONLY WHETHER THE MAINE-BORN DEFENDANT BETRAYED AMERICA TO WORK FOR THE WARTIME GERMAN RADIO. IN FEDERAL COURT PROCEDURE, THE JUDGE--NOT THE JURY--FIXES THE PUNISHMENT.

CHAPIN TOLD REPORTERS HE FOUND MR.TRUMAN EXTREMELY INTERESTED AND "VERY MUCH ALIVE TO THE QUESTION IN THAT AREA."

CHAPIN HAS BEEN IN THIS COUNTRY EIGHT DAYS. HE WAS RECALLED FOR CONSULTATION AFTER THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT DEMANDED HIS WITHDRAWAL.

ASKED ABOUT RUSSIA'S CHANGE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS, CHAPIN SAID HE COULD NOT MAKE ANY COMMENT. HE SAID HE KNEW SO LITTLE OF THE INTRICACIES OF THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT AS HE SAW IT FROM HIS POST AT BUDAPEST.

"FROM MY LITTLE PLACE, I COULD SEE ONLY PART OF THE PICTURE," HE ADDED. HE SAID THE TRIAL OF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY WAS A "VERY DEFINITE PART" OF THAT PICTURE.

CHAPIN DID NOT INDICATE WHAT HIS FUTURE DUTIES MIGHT BE.

"I WILL BE HERE A WEEK OR TEN DAYS, THEN TAKE A LITTLE LEAVE. I'LL SEE WHAT COMES UP THEN," HE SAID.

WASHINGTON,MAR.5-(AP)-THE CAPITAL HEARD REPORTS TODAY THAT ARMY SECRETARY KENNETH C.ROYALL MAY STEP OUT OF HIS JOB BY MID-APRIL.

THE REPORTS CAME FROM PERSONS WHO, BECAUSE OF FRIENDSHIP AND OFFICIAL ASSOCIATION, WERE IN POSITION TO BE WELL INFORMED BUT WHO COULD NOT PERMIT USE OF THEIR NAMES.

THEY PERSISTED DESPITE A WHITE HOUSE NEWS CONFERENCE STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN THURSDAY THAT ALL THREE SERVICE SECRETARIES--ROYALL, NAVY SECRETARY SULLIVAN AND AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON--WOULD STAY ON THEIR JOBS. MR.TRUMAN MADE THAT COMMENT IN CONNECTION WITH HIS ANNOUNCEMENT THAT LOUIS JOHNSON WOULD SUCCEED JAMES FORRESTAL AS DEFENSE SECRETARY.

ROYALL HAS VISITED THE WHITE HOUSE SEVERAL TIMES WITHIN RECENT WEEKS. HE HAS TOLD REPORTERS HE WANTS TO LEAVE "WHENEVER I CAN DO SO IN GOOD CONSCIENCE."

REPORTS OF THE POSSIBILITY OF ROYALL'S DEPARTURE FROM THE ARMY SECRETARYSHIP HAS BROUGHT WITH IT SPECULATION OVER OTHER SHIFTS.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 5-(AP)-THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT TONIGHT SUSPENDED U.S. PARCEL POST SERVICE INTO BERLIN.

POSTMASTERS WERE ORDERED TO REFUSE ALL BERLIN-BOUND PACKAGES AND TO RETURN TO THEIR SENDERS THOSE ALREADY ON HAND.

FRENCH AND SOVIET SECTORS OF THE SOVIET-BLOCKADED GERMAN CAPITAL.

A DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL SAID THE ACTION WAS TAKEN BECAUSE OF TRANSPORTATION DIFFICULTIES.

THE ACTION FOLLOWED CONFERENCES BETWEEN POSTAL, ARMY AND STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, JOHN GILLEN, TOP ASSISTANT IN THE INTERNATIONAL MAIL DIVISION, TOLD A REPORTER.

SINCE THE RUSSIAN LAND BLOCKADE INTERRUPTED TRAIN SERVICE IN AND OUT OF BERLIN, U.S. PARCEL POST PACKAGES HAVE BEEN SHIPPED BY BOAT TO GDYNIA, POLAND, AND FORWARDED BY POLISH AUTHORITIES INTO BERLIN.

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT SAID THE POLISH POSTAL OFFICIALS HAVE NOW ADVISED THEM THAT TRANSPORTATION DIFFICULTIES WILL MAKE A CONTINUATION OF THIS FOREWARDING SERVICE IMPOSSIBLE.

PRIOR TO THE BLOCKADE, U.S. PARCEL POST WAS SENT BY BOAT TO BREMEN, AND FORWARDED FROM THERE TO BERLIN BY TRAIN.

THE AIRLIFT WHICH IS SUPPLYING BLOCKADED BERLINERS WITH VITAL SUPPLIES HAS NEVER BEEN INVOLVED IN THE PARCEL POST DELIVERY.

THIS COUNTRY SUPPLIES AN AIR PARCEL POST SERVICE TO MOST OF EUROPE, BUT THIS HAS NEVER BEEN EXTENDED TO BERLIN.

1. SUPPLIES MORE EVIDENCE OF A NEED FOR LEGISLATION TO CURB COMMUNISM.
2. PERHAPS INDICATES THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IS "UNFIT AND UNQUALIFIED" TO GUARD NATIONAL SECURITY AGAINST RED INFILTRATION.
3. MAY HAVE CAUSED "THE PRESIDENT AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO INSIST ON THEIR RED HERRING STATEMENTS." PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID SEVERAL TIMES THAT THE COMMITTEE'S HUNT FOR COMMUNIST SPIES IN GOVERNMENT WAS A RED HERRING INTENDED TO DRAW ATTENTION FROM THE FAILURE OF CONGRESS TO ACT ON HIS PROGRAM.
4. POSSIBLY OFFERS A REASON FOR "THE POLICY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IN REFUSING TO COOPERATE WITH THE COMMITTEE IN EXPOSING COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES AND FOR THE STRANGE RELUCTANCE TO PLACE THE SECURITY OF THE COUNTRY ABOVE POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS."

NEW YORK, MARCH 5-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS SOURCES SAID TODAY THE QUESTION OF IMMUNITY MAY ARISE IN THE ARREST OF VALENTINE A. GUBITCHEV, WHOM THEY IDENTIFIED AS A RUSSIAN NATIONAL EMPLOYED BY THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIAT.

THEY SAID THAT CONGRESS, ALTHOUGH AUTHORIZING A U.N. HEADQUARTERS AREA BE RECOGNIZED AS AN INTERNATIONAL ZONE, HAS NOT PASSED AN IMMUNITY AGREEMENT WHICH WOULD PROTECT U.N. EMPLOYES FROM ARREST UNDER LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

FOR THIS REASON, THESE SOURCES SAID, THEY BELIEVE FBI MEN ACTED UNDER THE ASSUMPTION THERE IS NO IMMUNITY FOR GUBITCHEV.

THEY SAID HE CAME HERE FROM RUSSIA IN 1946 WITH ARCHITECTS PLANNING THE U.N. HEADQUARTERS BUILDINGS. THEY SAID HE HAS BEEN WORKING AS AN ENGINEER IN THE HEADQUARTERS PLANNING OFFICE IN MANHATTAN.

A SPOKESMAN SAID U.N. OFFICIALS HAD BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE FBI ARRESTS AND WERE NOW LOOKING INTO THE MATTER. OSCAR SCHACHTER, A LAWYER EMPLOYED BY THE U.N., IS HANDLING THE SECRETARIAT'S INTERESTS.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE QUESTION OF IMMUNITY INVOLVES SEVERAL OTHER FACTORS, INCLUDING THE NATURE OF THE CHARGE.

HE POINTED OUT THAT SEVERAL AVOWED COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN PERMITTED TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES TO U.N. MEETINGS WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THEY WOULD RESTRICT THEIR MOVEMENTS TO NEW YORK CITY, LAKE SUCCESS AND THE IMMEDIATE TRAVEL AREA BETWEEN THE TWO PLACES.

A BREAK-DOWN OF PERSONNEL FIGURES BY THE U.N. AS OF DEC. 31, 1948 SHOWS 1,500 UNITED STATES CITIZENS ON THE PAYROLL. THIS IS BY FAR THE LARGEST NATIONAL GROUP EMPLOYED BY THE U.N.

THE TOP RUSSIAN NATIONAL IN THE SECRETARIAT IS ARKADY A.SOBOLEV, ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL IN CHARGE OF SECURITY COUNCIL AFFAIRS. SOBOLEV HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW FOR THE LAST MONTH ON A VISIT WITH HIS FAMILY BUT U.N. OFFICIALS SAID HE IS EXPECTED BACK THIS MONTH.

THE PERSONNEL RECORDS LIST THE FOLLOWING CITIZENS OF THE OTHER BIG FIVE COUNTRIES WORKING HERE: CHINA, 121, FRANCE 347, AND BRITAIN 276.

THEY ALSO SHOW THE FOLLOWING EMPLOYES FROM COUNTRIES IN THE RUSSIAN BLOC: POLAND, 38, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, 30, YUGOSLAVIA 7.

THERE ARE 43 STATELESS PERSONS AND PERSONS OF UNDETERMINED NATIONALITY, INCLUDED IN THIS TOTAL, U.N. OFFICIALS SAID, ARE SOME RUSSIANS WHO ARE NOT SOVIET CITIZENS.

MEMBERS OF THE SECRETARIAT LIVE MOSTLY ON LONG ISLAND AND IN NEW YORK CITY.

THERE ARE NO RESTRICTIONS ON THEIR MOVEMENTS AND THEY OBEY THE TRAFFIC REGULATIONS AND OTHER LAWS JUST AS UNITED STATES CITIZENS DO. UNDER THE HEADQUARTERS AGREEMENT WITH THE U NITED STATES, IMMUNITY APPLIES IN THE PERFORMANCE OF THEIR OFFICIAL BUSINESS BUT DOES NOT EXTEND TO UNOFFICIAL ACTIVITIES OUTSIDE THE U.N.

THERE IS A CAMPAIGN IN NEW YORK NOW TO MAKE THE U.N. WORKERS FEEL MORE AT HOME. SEVERAL COMMUNITIES AROUND NEW YORK HAVE ENTERTAINED U.N. SECRETARIAT PEOPLE ON WEEK-END PARTIES AND AT CHRISTMAS AND NO DISTINCTION HAS BEEN REPORTED ON THESE JUNKETS.

IN ACTUAL PRACTICE AS FAR AS OUTWARD APPEARANCES GO, U.N. EMPLOYES LIVE AND WORK HERE JUST AS THOUGH THEY WERE WORKING IN ANY FACTORY OR OFFICE BUILDING.

U.N. - FRANCO (300)

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 5-(AP)-A RELIABLE SOURCE SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES WOULD VOTE FOR AN EXPECTED LATIN AMERICAN ATTEMPT TO REMOVE UNITED NATIONS RESTRICTIONS ON TOP AMBASSADORS TO FRANCO SPAIN.

THIS SOURCE WOULD NOT BE IDENTIFIED, BUT HE IS FAMILIAR WITH UNITED STATES POLICY.

HE SAID SOME COUNTRIES IN LATIN AMERICA FAVOR REPEALING THE RESOLUTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY ON DEC. 12, 1946, WHICH ASKED ALL U.N. MEMBERS TO REMOVE THEIR AMBASSADORS OR OTHER CHIEFS OF MISSION FROM MADRID AND ALSO BARRED PARTICIPATION BY GENERALISSIMO FRANCISCO FRANCO'S REPRESENTATIVES IN UNITED NATIONS SPECIALIZED AGENCIES.

THE REPEALER IS EXPECTED TO COME BEFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SESSION IN NEW YORK NEXT MONTH. THE FRANCO QUESTION, WHICH HAS BEEN BEFORE THE U.N. SINCE APRIL, 1946, IS ON THE AGENDA AT THE REQUEST OF POLAND. POLAND IS SEEKING STRONG U.N. ACTION AGAINST FRANCO BUT OBSERVERS HERE SAID THERE WAS NO LIKELIHOOD THE U.N. WOULD ADOPT A STRONGER COURSE.

AN ATTEMPT TO REAFFIRM THE 1946 RESOLUTION FAILED IN THE 1947 ASSEMBLY BY ONE VOTE. THE 1946 RESOLUTION STILL STANDS.

AFTER THE 1946 RESOLUTION WAS APPROVED, BRITAIN, THE UNITED STATES AND A NUMBER OF OTHER U.N. MEMBERS COMPLIED. THE U.S. IS REPRESENTED IN MADRID BY A CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, PAUL CULBERTSON, AND THE AMBASSADOR'S POST HAS NOT BEEN FILLED SINCE THE ASSEMBLY ACTED. ARGENTINA, HOWEVER, SENT A NEW AMBASSADOR TO MADRID AND FOR A TIME WAS THE ONLY LARGE COUNTRY WITH A TOP-RANKING CHIEF OF MISSION IN THE SPANISH CAPITAL.

THE RELIABLE SOURCE HERE SAID THE U.S. WOULD NOT TAKE THE INITIATIVE IN THE MOVE IN THE ASSEMBLY NEXT MONTH. HE SAID HE EXPECTED SOME LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRY TO INTRODUCE A RESOLUTION TO REPEAL THE 1946 RESOLUTION.

THIS SOURCE SAID THERE WOULD BE A HOT FIGHT AND THE VOTE WOULD BE CLOSE. A TWO-THIRDS VOTE IS NEEDED.

AT PRESENT, THIS SOURCE SAID, NINE U.N. MEMBERS HAVE CHIEFS OF MISSION IN SPAIN. HE LISTED THESE AS EGYPT AND SYRIA, OF THE ARAB BLOC, AND ARGENTINA, BOLIVIA, PERU, PARAGUAY, NICARAGUA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC AND EL SALVADOR IN THE LATIN AMERICAN GROUP.

CLEVELAND, MARCH 5-(AP)-FIVE-YEAR-OLD GEOFFREY JOINER WAS RE-UNITED WITH HIS NAVY VETERAN FATHER AT CLEVELAND AIRPORT TODAY AFTER A FLIGHT FROM SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA.

THE CHILD, SON OF A NEGRO FATHER AND WHITE AUSTRALIAN MOTHER, APPEARED NERVOUS AND AWE-STRUCK AS HE STEPPED OFF A UNITED AIRLINES PLANE, WHICH BROUGHT HIM HERE FROM CHICAGO ON THE LAST LAP OF THE LONG JOURNEY.

THE FATHER, TRENNON JOINER, GATHERED THE CHILD UP IN HIS ARMS AND TRIED TO RE-ASSURE HIM THAT HE WAS HOME AT LAST. THE BOY WAS BASHFUL AND APPARENTLY OVERWHELMED BY THE MEETING. HE DID NOT SAY ANYTHING BUT IT WAS OBVIOUS FROM HIS SMILES HE WAS HAPPY.

IMMIGATION AUTHORITIES STOPPED THE CHILD AT THE WEST COAST YESTERDAY BECAUSE HE LACKED PROPER ENTRANCE PAPERS. LAST NIGHT THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT PLACED HIM IN CUSTODY OF THE TRAVELERS' AID SOCIETY AND HE CONTINUED HIS TRIP HERE BY PLANE.

JOINER WAS IN THE NAVY WHEN GEOFFREY WAS BORN IN AUSTRALIA. AFTER JOINER RETURNED TO AMERICA, GEOFFREY'S MOTHER PLACED HIM IN A CHILDREN'S HOME AND GAVE UP ALL CLAIMS TO HIM. LATER, SHE REMARRIED.

A WEALTHY AUSTRALIAN, UPON HEARING OF GEOFFREY'S LONELINESS, CONTRIBUTED FUNDS TO SEND HIM HERE. PREVIOUSLY, HIS FATHER HAD WRITTEN AUSTRALIAN AUTHORITIES FOR THE BOY'S CUSTODY.

IT WILL BE NECESSARY FOR JOINER TO FILE ADOPTION PAPERS BECAUSE THE BOY IS ON A VISITOR'S VISA, IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES SAID.

SHANGHAI, SUNDAY, MARCH 6-(AP)-CHINESE GOVERNMENT CIRCLES WERE REPORTED BALKING TODAY AT GIVING RUSSIA AN EXTENSION OF ITS TRADE AND AVIATION MONOPOLY IN SINKIANG PROVINCE, IN FAR NORTHWEST CHINA.

GEN.CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, THE GOVERNMENT COMMANDER IN THE NORTHWEST, IS SAID TO BE PROPOSING RUSSIA BE GRANTED THE MONOPOLY FOR THE NEXT 40 YEARS. GENERAL CHANG HAS BEEN HANDLING THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA, AND GENERALLY HAS RUN THINGS TO SUIT HIMSELF IN THE NORTHWEST.

BUT THE BEST REPORTS AVAILABLE HERE SAY THE FOREIGN OFFICE RECOMMENDS SHORTENING THE LENGTH OF THE AGREEMENT AND LETTING OTHER FOREIGN TRADE INTERESTS INTO SINKIANG.

BY A QUIRK OF CHINESE POLITICS, HOWEVER, IT WILL BE GENERAL CHANG, NOT THE FOREIGN OFFICE, WHO NEGOTIATES THE AGREEMENT. PRESUMABLY, HE CAN OVERRIDE THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT NOTIFIED RUSSIA LAST SEPTEMBER IT INTENDED TO TERMINATE THE RUSSIAN-CHINESE AIR AGREEMENT, BUT THE SOVIETS APPEAR NOT TO HAVE PAID MUCH ATTENTION TO THE NOTICE.

CENTRAL NEWS, THE GOVERNMENT AGENCY, REPORTS FIVE RUSSIAN DELEGATES HAVE ARRIVED AT TIHWA, SINKIANG'S CAPITAL, TO NEGOTIATE A RENEWAL OF THIS AIR AGREEMENT AS WELL AS TRADE PACTS.

ALSO ON THE AGENDA WILL BE A DISCUSSION OF RELATIONS BETWEEN SINKIANG AND NEIGHBORING SIBERIA. THE BORDER THEORETICALLY HAS BEEN CLOSED FOR MORE THAN A YEAR.

RUSSIA'S AIR MONOPOLY IN SINKIANG WAS POINTED UP LAST YEAR WHEN THE GOVERNMENT PREVENTED AN AMERICAN PLANE LOADED WITH SUPPLIES FOR THE U.S. CONSULATE FROM GOING TO TIHWA.

GENERAL CHANG IS REPRESENTED AS ONE OF CHINA'S FOREMOST ADVOCATES OF PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS. HE IS ON THE FIRST OFFICIAL PEACE DELEGATION NAMED BY ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN.

U.S. Grand Jury Will Be Given Spy Case Today

Russian UN Aide, American Girl Accused in Theft of Secret Papers

PUSH IMMUNITY FIGHT

House Probe Group Weighs Launching of New Espionage Drive

NEW YORK, March 6—(AP) Details of the newest case of alleged spying against the United States, involving a woman employe of the Justice Department and a Russian engineer, will be laid before a federal grand jury tomorrow.

The principals in the case, Miss Judith Coplon, 27, and Valentine A. Gubitchev, 32, have been served with subpoenas to appear before the grand jury.

The two were seized Friday night by FBI agents who reported trailing them almost the length of Manhattan Island before taking them into custody.

Stole Secret Papers, Is Charge

The young woman was accused of attempting to turn over to the Russian documents she had taken from Justice Department files.

The Russian, who has been working on plans for a permanent United Nations headquarters in New York, is held in $100,000 bond. Miss Coplon was held in $20,000 bail.

Neither had been able to furnish it tonight.

The New York Herald Tribune reported tonight that more suspects in the theft of government security documents are expected to be rounded up shortly.

The newspaper said additional suspects might include "a fair number of government employes."

"The report on additional arrests," the Herald Tribune said, "drew a blank from the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which preferred to keep silent on the subject."

Meanwhile it appeared likely the Russian government would insist that Gubitchev is immune from prosecution because of his diplomatic status. He is attached to the Russian United Nations delegation.

The Justice Department said in Washington that Soviet representatives had told the man in an interview last midnight that he is fully protected by diplomatic immunity.

The Soviet ambassador already had made representations to the State department in Washington.

The State department's answer was that it is investigating the case, Wilder Foote, director of the U.N. press section, said Gubitchev did not have diplomatic immunity.

Grand Jury to Get Case

Details of the case will be presented the grand jury, beginning at 11 a.m. (E.S.T.) Monday morning by two special assistants to the attorney general, Raymond P. Whearty and Thomas Donegan. This was announced in Washington by Attorney General Tom Clark.

Bill Planned To Fight 'Communist Conspiracy'

Senator Ferguson To Present Measure Prompted By Statements Of Party's Leaders

House committee may turn to new spy inquiry.....Page 2

Washington, March 6 (AP)—Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) said tonight he will introduce in the Senate anti-subversive legislation which recognizes "the world Communist conspiracy."

"The need for such legislation has been emphasized in the past week by the co-ordinated statements of world Communist leaders, including leaders of the American Communist party," Ferguson said. "They demonstrated that Communists the world over consider themselves to hold a superior loyalty to Russia."

Would Identify Propaganda

The bill, which Ferguson said he will introduce at the next Senate session, would require that Communist organizations in the United States register with the Government and identify their propaganda.

It would also make it unlawful for anyone to do anything which "would substantially contribute to the establishment within the United States of a totalitarian dictatorship" under foreign control.

Fines would range up to $10,000 and imprisonment up to ten years.

A statement issued by leaders of the United States Communist party last week, Ferguson declared, shows that "American Communists would do whatever possible to sabotage the security and defense efforts of the United States."

BRITAIN PRODUCES FIRST PLUTONIUM

LONDON, March 6—(AP) Britain has produced its first plutonium, the rare substance used in creating atomic power.

The ministry of supply announced the news today and called it "one of the most important steps forward in the country's atomic energy program."

The plutonium was produced at Britain's atomic energy research establishment in Harwell.

Plutonium, which can be split to produce great energy, "was extraced from a uranium slug which had been irradiated for several months in 'gleep', the low power atomic pile," the ministry of supply said.

"Because of the low power at which 'gleep' operates, the amount of plutonium is small, but it is sufficient for investigating the chemical and chemical engineering problems which will be met in the large-scale handling of plutonium."

Plutonium can only be produced in quantity in an atomic pile, the ministry of supply said. It does not exist naturally on the earth and was first produced in quantity in the United States in 1942.

U.S. OPPOSES LOOT SEARCH BY RUSSIANS

Officials Charge Soviet Intends 'Fishing' Trips In Germany

Berlin, March 6 (AP)—United States authorities said today they would reject a Soviet demand to send investigators all over the American zone of Germany to look for Nazi loot.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander, made the demand in a long letter to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, denouncing American restitution policies and laying claim to widespread properties. The letter was published by Soviet agencies last night.

"What the Soviets are trying to do is to get fishing expeditions into the American zone," a high American official commented. "In no case will the Russian or anyone else be allowed to go poking their noses around."

Sokolovsky asked that three-man teams of the Soviet restitution mission be allowed to operate in each state of the American zone, inspecting factories, archives, museums and art galleries.

Says Deadline Expired

An economics official said the deadline for filing claims for properties looted by the Nazis expired a year ago.

"Exceptionally meritorious cases which cropped up since are being considered," he said, but pointed out that the Russians and every other interested nation have had three and a half years to get their claims in.

The official added that German armies found a "much-less lucrative field for loot" in Russian and eastern Europe than in the West.

"What they looted in the East was mostly food and some raw materials," he said. "They found art and machinery in the West."

LEIPZIG FAIR IS UNDER WAY

Snowstorm Limits Attendance At Historic Exhibition

Leipzig, Germany, March 6 (AP)—The 700-year-old Leipzig fair opened today in a snowstorm which limited the attendance.

Counting on 80,000 visitors, the fair got under way with only 20,000. Only a sprinkling came from the West to this ancient city, deep in the Soviet zone. Most of the 6,000 exhibits were displayed by eastern German firms and a few from the Soviet satellite states.

Western German producers were forbidden by Allied Military Government to display their wares.

A few sent their representatives in an effort to line up contracts with producers in the Soviet zone, hoping the East-West blockade would lift in time for them to expect deliveries.

Export Products Shown

In nine buildings, Leipzigers and other eastern Germans showed what they can produce for export. The clothing was shoddy and the styles old-fashioned. The food—such as coffee, chocolate, bonbons and cakes—was without genuine sugar.

The exhibits illustrated to even an amateur observer how badly the Soviet zone economy has sagged. The exhibitors admitted it and most of them said they were merely showing their products to "keep their hand in" against the time when they can produce for export.

The Russians introduced a new currency for the show and called it a "valuta mark." They copied the Western joint export-import agency plan down to the last detail in this respect.

No Rate For Rubles

Foreign visitors were required to pay all their bills in "valuta marks," which were calculated at three and one third to the dollar. All the eatable food and livable lodgings in Leipzig for foreigners were held for payment in only valuta marks.

There was no exchange rate established for Russian rubles. The Soviet zone eastern mark was pegged at 25 per cent lower in value than the West mark.

A flourishing black market struck up quickly in valuta marks, with the tacit approval of German proprietors in Leipzig. They complained they would lose money on this year's fair because the valuta mark was a phony piece of money and was fixed at too high a price.

Illustrating this, Dutch, Belgian, Swiss and French buyers left Leipzig today after only one day's stay. They said they could not afford to pay the prices fixed under the valuta mark.

Actually, in the prices established for food, drinks and other so-called "free" commodities, the Russians admitted the western mark was four times as good as their own eastern mark.

He flew from Berlin and saw the snow covered bases at Luebeck, Celle and Wunstorf, in the British zone. He will return to London tomorrow.

Attlee's arrival at Celle coincided with a special celebration by the 317th troop carrier group, U. S. air force, which today carried its 100,000th ton of supplies into blockaded Berlin.

Settlement Reported In Trieste Ship Strike

Rome, Monday, March 7 (AP)—The Italian news agency (ANSA) said a strike by 8,000 shipyard workers in Trieste ended early today after an agreement was reached between owners and labor representatives.

The strike, which began last Monday, had threatened to paralyze all major industry in the American-British occupied port. The men sought higher pay.

The Allied Military Government labor office held continuous meetings and was finally successful in effecting an agreement, ANSA said.

Other strikes set for today which would have affected refinery, warehouse and port workers were subsequently called off.

Catholic Action Paper Denies Vatican Plot

Rome, March 6 (AP)—The Catholic Action newspaper, Il Quotidiano, said today Hungarian charges that the Vatican had plotted to form a monarchist union of Danube Catholic countries were a repetition of "monotonous insolence."

The charges were made yesterday in Budapest by Matyas Rakosi, Communist deputy premier.

Il Quotidiano said the Church remained firmly opposed "to all states which suffocate Catholic liberty without accords or with accords later violated."

Mr. Lie, accompanied by Byron Price and Adrien Pelt, assistant secretarys general, is expected to remain about a week.

BULGARIA ASSAILS WESTERN ATTACKS ON PASTORS' TRIAL

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 6—The official newspaper of Bulgaria's communist government said today western attempts to discredit the espionage trial of 15 Protestant pastors had failed.

"He who laughs last laughs best," the editorial said. It joked about "the western mind" for regarding as inconceivable the confessions made by the defendants and indignantly rejected suggestions that the state secret police obtained the confession by force.

The trial of the pastors was concluded yesterday. The judgment of the three-man court is due Tuesday. The prosecution has asked death by hanging for four of them and "heavy sentences" up to life, for the remainder.

U. S., Britain Assailed

Throughout the seven days the trial was in session "western capitalism" and foreign church missions were attacked as the "real masters" of the accused clergymen.

Today the government newspaper charged that:

1. "Two-faced protests" by the United States and British governments in advance of the trial had attempted to prejudice the proceedings as church persecution, and discredit the confessions from the defendants by suggesting that duress had been employed.

2. United States church missions had used the pastors to collect information for the "war mongers of a new war."

3. Western newsmen, after being "freely admitted" to the trial, were disappointd because there were "no sensations" and the defendants all confessed.

4. The British Council of Churches produced a fake document alleging that Bulgarian communists had ordered an anti-church campaign.

Defendants Called "Vile"

The defendants themselves were described in the newspapers as vile, dirty and disgusting." It said their public confessions in court had revealed more than the statements obtained from them while they were held by the secret police. The newspaper continued:

"Espionage and treachery are revealed. Revealed are the dark and gloomy plans of imperialism. The enemies of mankind discriminate neither in ways nor means nor in their tools in their attempt to bring new bloodshed and gain domination of the world.

"All this shows the supreme necessity for the sharpest vigilance from all Bulgarians."

The newspaper indignantly denied that Bulgaria, by conducting the trial, had violated her peace treaty pledge to respect human rights. Espionage, and not religion, was the issue at the trial, the editorial added.

All of the defendants asked for mercy, many of them weeping as they did so.

U.S. Embassy Not Surprised

Moscow, March 6 (AP)—The placing of Andrei A. Gromyko in the No. 2 spot in the Foreign Ministry was viewed today as an indication no sweeping charge in Soviet policy is in the offing.

Gromyko has been an outstanding spokesman since 1943 for the policies of Vyacheslav M. Molotov, who yesterday was released from his duties as Foreign Minister, but was kept in all his other jobs, including that of Deputy Prime Minister.

An announcement early today said Gromyko had been named first deputy to Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Molotov's successor in the Foreign Ministry.

Russia's Chief "No" Man

Gromyko, smooth, dark-haired, soft spoken, has been a vice minister in the Foreign Ministry under Molotov since December, 1946. This was shortly after he was named chief delegate to the United Nations, where he served from 1946 to 1948.

There he voiced most of Russia's "noes" in the Security Council.

[It was Gromyko who also staged Russia's dramatic walkout from the Security Council to express Russia's violent disapproval of Security Council consideration of the Iran case in 1946.]

From August, 1943 to November, 1946, he was Soviet Ambassador to the United States, the Soviet Union's most important foreign diplomatic post. He succeeded Maxim Litvinoff at Washington.

He returned to Moscow in July last year where he headed up the American section of the Foreign Office. He will be 40 on July 18.

It Had Been Anticipated

Stepping into the shoes of white-haired Vishinsky as deputy foreign minister, Gromyko again is quite likely to be frequently seen at international conferences and meetings of the United Nations.

His appointment was no surprise to American Embassy chiefs, who already had expressed the opinion that he was a likely candidate for the post. They also had expressed the opinion that Molotov's release from direct charge of the Foreign Ministry meant no change in Soviet foreign policy.

It was pointed out here that Molotov, on the basis of official announcements so far, continues in his all-important jobs as first deputy prime minister and member of the polich-making Politburo.

With a new foreign minister in office, foreign observers here have brought up the question of a possible meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

They also pondered whether the new appointment may lay the groundwork for another attempt to solve the Berlin blockade question and the general German problem. Molotov handled the last discussions of the Berlin situation in Moscow last summer. Vishinsky was present at most of the meetings.

Nenni Sees No Policy Change

Rome, March 6 (AP)—Pietro Nenni, pro-Communist leader of Italy's Socialist party, sees "no modification in Soviet foreign policy."

The Communist-line newspaper Il Paese quoted him today as saying, "I believe that the substitution of Molotov by Vishinsky follows a plan of utilizing men in authority who are considered most adapted to various phases of Russia's internal and international life."

"As a consequence of the international situation," he was quoted, "it is evidence that between Molotov and Vishinsky there was no state of difference regarding imposition of political order but solely a diverse style."

Assails Atlantic Pact

In a speech today at Florence, Nenni assailed the projected North Atlantic pact and declared: "Italy will not fight a third world war only because the (Catholic) Church fears bolshevism and the bourgeoise are afraid of the Red flag."

Luigi Longo, another prominent Italian Communist leader, told a group at Milan the Communists are "strong because all people—even those of America—will side with us because we are the keepers of the ideals of peace, progress and justice, which act powerfully upon the workers' hearts.

At Naples Giuseppe di Vittorio, Communist labor boss, accused the United States of sponsoring the Atlantic pact in order to pave the way for an attack upon Russia.

All three spoke at Communist-sponsored celebrations of "International Woman's Day."

Ben-Gurion's Party To Hold 7 Of 12 Israel Cabinet Seats

Tel Aviv, Palestine, March 6 (AP). Premier-Designate David Ben-Gurion's own Palestine Labor party (Mapai) will hold seven of the twelve seats in the cabinet which he will present to the Israeli Parliament Tuesday.

The new cabinet will command 72 votes of the 120 in Parliament.

The bloc of religious parties has three representatives, and the left-of-center Progressive party and the Jewish Sephardic party one each in the cabinet.

Three portfolios remain temporarily unfilled in case the left-wing Mapam and right-wing General Zionist party decide to enter the coalition.

Mapam demanded that the Government promise in advance not to accept any offer of Marshall Plan aid and not to join any Mediterranean bloc. Ben-Gurion and Foreign Minister Moshe Shareth (formerly Shertok) refused to make any such commitments, on the ground that they would be a departure from the strictly neutral foreign policy they intend to pursue.

MAR 7 1949

Among the Mapai members of the new government are Ben-Gurion, who has the Defense Ministry as well as the premiership; Shareth; Eliezer Kaplan, finance, and Mrs. Goldie Meyerson, labor and rehabilitation.

Israel, Trans-Jordan Resume Talks Today

Rhodes, March 6 (AP)—Armistice talks between Israel and Trans-Jordan are expected to be resumed here tomorrow, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, Palestine mediator, said tonight.

Reuben Shiloah, the chief Israeli delegate, and Major Riad Bey Iindawi, a member of Trans-Jordan's delegation, are due here after trips to their respective capitals for conference. The negotiations opened Friday in an atmosphere so chilly there was talk of calling the whole thing off.

ISRAELI'S RED LEADER VOWS 'ARMY SUPPORT'

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 6.—(AP) The chain of communist leaders' statements vowing loyalty to the Soviet Union in event of war reached into the Middle East, to Israel, today.

Meir Willner, Israeli communist leader and a member of the new parliament declared at a public meeting that "nobody in Israel will raise his hand against the red army if and when the world plunges again into war."

He made the declaration at a belated celebration of the red army's 31st anniversary of February 23. Two representatives of the Soviet Embassy in Tel Aviv were present. Communists have two members in the 120-member constituent assembly.

Chinese Detain French Warship

Canton, China, March 6 (AP)—Chinese reports today said the Chinese Navy had detained the French warship Bisson for attempting to remove silver bullion from Kwangchowan, former French territory on the south coast of China.

The Chinese said the French were attempting to take unspecified quantities of silver from the Banque de l'Indochine, whereas the ship had been authorized only to remove records.

In Nanking a French Embassy spokesman said he was not aware the ship had been detained, but that the Chinese Foreign Office had authorized picking up the silver.

Listed As Minesweeper

The Bisson was identified by the Chinese as a "light cruiser," but naval directories list it as a 630-ton minesweeper.

Kwangchowan is a former French concession on the Luichow peninsula 250 miles southwest of Canton. It was returnd to China when France relinquished extra-territorial right in 1946.

Sun Fo Goes But Inflation Stays

Canton, China, March 6 (AP)—When Premier Sun Fo moved his refugee Cabinet to this southern city February 5, inflation came along; and now that Sun has returned to Nanking, inflation remains.

Before the Cabinet arrival, a three-room suite in the best hotel could be had for the equivalent of $5 a day, United States. Now a room costs the equivalent of $10, plus a special $1 surcharge.

Other living costs have doubled, and the Government currency is held in such low regard that most businesses either demand Hong Kong dollars or surcharges to guard against daily exchange losses.

Utilities, operating at fixed rates, are suffering. Twice in the last month bus lines stopped operating until the Government granted raises. Even now, the fare is less than three and one half United States cents, while gasoline has gone to about $1.25 a gallon.

Editor Seized For Criticizing Chiang; His Newspaper Closed

Nanking, China, March 6 (AP)—Garrison police late last night closed the newspaper National Salvation Daily and arrested its editor for criticizing Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

The paper had only said publicly what numerous Chinese have been saying privately: That the supposedly "retired" President Chiang should quit his secret interference in Government affairs and go abroad so there would be a chance for peace.

The suppression strengthened fears of many officials that Chiang, in his retreat near Fengwha, 210 miles to the southeast, had enough power left to block Acting President Li Tsung-jen's efforts to end the civil war with the Communists.

Chiang's Power Still Strong

Although he left Nanking January 21, Chiang has retained control of the bulk of Nationalist troops through commanders who remain personally loyal to him.

He also has a firm hold of about $270,000,000 in hard money assets that have been transformed mainly to the island of Formosa, plus the air force and troops based on Formosa.

In particular he still controls the secret police, who have kept to a minimum criticism of the generalissimo.

The National Salvation Daily editor, Kung Teh-po, has been among the few to criticize Chiang openly.

Yesterday his paper said Chiang's "manipulation of Government affairs may not be known by the public, but he cannot fool Communist intelligence agents." It urged that, "either for the sake of peace or war, Chiang must get aboard. If the people want peace they must first demand departure of Chiang or the Communists will again start military operations within one month."

The garrison police reacted quickly by banning the paper and arresting Editor Kung. A spokesman said the action was ordered by Gen. Tang En-po, Nanking-Shanghai defense commander who is personally loyal to Chiang.

Many members of the Legislative Yuan protested that the action was improper and illegal. Some predicted it would bring to a head the increasing complaints against Chiang's undercover manipulations and commended Kung for what he had written.

Kung, whose nickname is "the big cannon," because of his forthright editorials, has had trouble with the Chiang regime before.

On April 23, 1948, when he was opposing Sun Fo for the Vice Presidency, a mob wrecked the newspaper plant and beat seven employés.

The editor accused Sun of instigating the attack, demanded his arrest and threatened to sue, but nothing ever came of it. Sun subsequently became Premier, the position he now holds.

Chiang As Obstacle To Peace

Officials close to Acting President Li were fearful that the present development, demonstrating Li's inability to speak for all of Nationalist China, was a serious obstacle to peace. They felt that Chiang's continuing power and the bitter Communist hatred of him might block the recently-hopeful negotiations.

Gen. Chang Chih-chung, Cabinet Minister without Portfolio, returned from Fengwha last night. He was reported to have tried to persuade Chiang to retire completely. Two such previous efforts by other high officials were coldly rejected, and there was no indication that Chang had any better luck.

U.S. Troops Retaining Only One Manila Base

Manila, March 6 (AP)—Most of the few American troops still in Manila will leave this Philippines capital next week.

A two-year operation of moving to bases elsewhere in the islands is due to be completed March 14 under the military agreement of 1947.

The numbers of men and installations affected have not been disclosed, but the Army says about twenty locations will be given up. Only one, a 58-acre port reservation, will be retained inside the city limits.

Bogota, Colombia, March 6 (AP)—The workers Communist party—one of two splinter Communist groups in Colombia—declared in a statement today that in case of war "we the Communists will be on the side of the armies fighting against our mortal enemy the American imperialism." BIG THREE PLAN TALKS ON POLICY IN WEST GERMANY

Also Seek to Tighten Ranks to Meet Possible Red Moves

ATLANTIC PACT PUSHED

May Be Ready for Signing by End of Month, Observers Declare

WASHINGTON, March 6.—(AP) The United States, Britain and France are expected to hold a highly important conference soon on their joint policies for western Germany.

Top officials here and in London and in Paris were reported today to believe that the time is near for high level government decisions. They are up against such questions as (1) powers to be reserved to occupying nations when the new Western German government comes into force, (2) the common attitude of the west toward Russia on German problems, and (3) ways of integrating Western Germany more firmly into the economic and political structure of Western Europe.

To Be Ready for Red Moves

Moreover one major aim will be to strengthen western unity for dealing with whatever Spring moves Russia may be planning.

It is a foregone conclusion here that significant Soviet maneuvers are bound to come in the next two or three months. That was the belief even before the Soviet foreign office shake-up in which Andrei Vishinsky replaced J. M. Molotov last week.

Western diplomats were still trying today to figure out its meaning. Officials hope this week will bring real clues to the next twist in Moscow's diplomacy.

On the western side of the cold war, this loomed as a very busy week. These developments actually are scheduled or in prospect;

1. George F. Kennan, the State department's top policy planning officer, will begin in Germany a two to three weeks first hand review of America's occupation policies and operations.

His recommendations to Secretary of State Acheson will help lay the groundwork for American discussions with the British and French. This may mean a meeting in Washington before the end of the month.

2. Ambassador Robert Murphy is due here by midweek to complete revision of the State department's branches dealing with German affairs. Murphy, who has been the chief American diplomatic official under General Lucius D. Clay in Berlin, will head up a new State department office of German affairs.

Danish Envoy Coming to U. S.

3. Danish Foreign Minister Gustave Rasmussen is due to leave Copenhagen Tuesday for Washington. He will seek a basis for Denmark's entry into the final talks on the Atlantic defense agreement.

4. The relations between the treaty powers and Italy may be finally decided during the week. Senate Foreign Relations leaders Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Connally (D-Tex) objected last week to Italy's coming in as an original signer, saying Italy was essentially a Mediterranean nation. The senators' criticism was not regarded by diplomats as final, however. Some considered it highly likely that Italy still would join the negotiations before the signing.

5. Plans for the windup sessions on the historic security alliance also may be worked out during the week.

Present speculation is that the foreign ministers of the pact powers may gather in Washington toward the end of the month to sign the treaty and give it ceremonial sendoff. To complete America's part, senate approval and President Truman's signature are necessary.

6. The tentative draft of the pact, which would commit the member states to resist aggression, is believed to be virtually complete. Acheson and the other negotiators are expected to meet again tomorrow, or possibly Tuesday, to continue working out final details. Diplomatic authorities are confident that the text can be made public by the end of this week.

SEN. GEORGE ASKS ESTIMATE ON COST OF ATLANTIC PACT

WASHINGTON, March 6 — (AP) The State Department will have to put a cost tag on the North Atlantic security agreement before the Senate will approve it, Senator George (D-Ga) said today.

He said he believes that Secretary of State Acheson will have military cost estimates ready by the time the treaty reaches the Senate. The alliance itself would bind member nations against aggression. The cost would come in a companion proposal to strengthen western Europe with arms from the United States.

Senator Connally (D-Tex), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he does not think the two are inseparable.

He added it is his opinion the treaty now being negotiated by the State department could come before the Senate for approval—to be followed later by the military program.

Wants To Know Cost

George, however, said in an interview:

"They must bring the dollar cost of the security program along with the treaty. The treaty will not have a chance of passage unless this is done."

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), also a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he felt the committee should know what sort of military aid is planned.

George said Secretary of State Acheson "understands fully" that he will have to bring an estimate of the arms cost along with the defense treaty when it is ready for Senate discussion.

"We want to know how much money it is going to cost," George said, "and where it is to be spent."

George added the United States may be the arsenal for the defensive alliance which may include Canada, Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Norway and Denmark.

"It may be," George said, "they will want to build a munitions plant in Great Britain which is close to the continent.

"But these are things which must be determined and brought to the committee before an effort is made to get the Senate's approval of the treaty."

George said it is his understanding, that the cost of arming the North Atlantic pact members would run from $1,000,000,000 to $1,500,000,000.

PENSION LIMIT SUGGESTED BY CONGRESSMEN

2 Republicans, Both Veterans, Explain Stand On Pending Plan

Washington, March 6 (AP)—Two Republican members of the House Veterans Committee today proposed limiting veterans' pensions to former service men actually in need.

The committee has recommended legislation to give a $90-a-month pension to all veterans of the last two wars at age 65, regardless of their financial status.

Representatives Van Zandt (R., Pa.) and Davis (R., Wis.) said in a radio discussion they believed Congress should write a "needs" provision into the bill when it comes before the House for debate probably next week. Both are war veterans and Van Zandt once was national commander of the V.F.W.

Principle Favored

Van Zandt said he was wholeheartedly in favor of the principle of pensioning war veterans. If the United States can give money to foreign nations, including some of its former enemies, he said, it can give "a reasonable pension" to veterans.

The Pennsylvanian said veterans of the last two wars are in a distinct class in that they gave service "above and beyond" that required of ordinary citizens.

Davis commented that the heavy cost of a pension bill—estimated at more than $100,000,000,000 in the next 50 years—will be borne largely by veterans themselves through continued heavy taxes.

Responsibility Cited

He said he believes the country has a responsibility to give aid to those who are disabled and to the dependents of men who were killed. But a general pension without restriction, he said, might "seriously jeopardize" existing programs for aid to war veterans.

Davis expressed belief "the ordinary veteran" is not strongly advocating a pension for all service men regardless of need.

The House Rules Committee has scheduled a session for tomorrow to decide in what form the bill will be debated by the House.

"Spirit" Returned From Grave

Thus, declared Dively, was Rosella freed of the "spell" that had gripped her and brought her close to a nervous breakdown.

Reuben Rock died January 13 of tuberculosis. He was buried January 16 in Upper Claar Cemetery near his home in the mountainous Bulls Creek district that divides the Blair-Bedford county lines.

But, according to Dively, the "restless spirit" of Reuben returned from the grave to torment the young wife who had been so deeply devoted to him.

Rosella could not eat or sleep. She began to waste away. Her parents became convinced Reuben had practiced witchcraft by charming Rosella's picture.

"Reuben was saved at the end," Mrs. Dively said. "But he still had strange books and things in his house. Rosella was just crazy to be with him. She would go to him at any time."

Reuben's Ghost Finally Laid

The picture was found and destroyed. Reuben's ghost still hovered in the house, Dively said.

"We could even feel it right in the room with us. It knocked at the windows and screamed over the top of the house."

Then the family decided it had been a mistake to bury Reuben in his army uniform. He had given the uniform to Rosella. It had been her dearest possession.

Since the uniform was burned, Dively said, the noises have ceased and Rosella is returning to health.

Reuben's Spirit Lets Rosella Be When His GI Shroud Is Burned

Altoona, Pa., March 6 (AP)—The "hexed" widow of an army veteran today was reported recovering from the "spell" cast on her by her dead husband.

The strange story of Twentieth Century witchcraft came to light with the disclosure by Bedford county authorities that they had given permission to exhume the body of Private Reuben Rock, 29.

Arthur Dively, father of the comely widow, Mrs. Rosella Rock, 22, readily told of weird ceremonies at the reopened grave February 22.

The army uniform in which Reuben had been buried was stripped from the body, splashed with gasoline and burned. Salt was sprinkled on the body to ward off evil spirits. The corpse then was

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, MARCH 6-(AP)-UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC EXPERTS ARE CONSIDERING A VAST PROJECT FOR INCREASING TRADE BETWEEN EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA, IT WAS LEARNED HERE TODAY.

THE PROJECT IS EXPECTED TO BE DISCUSSED AT THE HAVANA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA NEXT MONTH. IT PROVIDES FOR SHIPMENT OF A WIDE RANGE OF LATIN AMERICAN RAW MATERIALS TO EUROPE, AFTER THE END OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, IN EXCHANGE FOR EUROPEAN MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT.

THE PROJECT WOULD BE THE FIRST STEP EVER TAKEN TOWARDS COORDINATING THE MUTUAL TRANSATLANTIC TRADE OF THE VARIOUS NATIONS OF EUROPE AND LATIN AMERICA.

IF ADOPTED, IT MIGHT RESULT IN FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES OF THE WORLD'S TRADE PATTERN, WITH EUROPEAN COUNTRIES DRAWING RAW MATERIALS FROM PREVIOUSLY UNTAPPED RESOURCES AND POSSIBLY EVENTUALLY RIVALLING THE UNITED STATES AS PRINCIPAL SUPPLIER OF MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT FOR LATIN AMERICA.

DETAILS OF THE PROJECT ARE NOT LIKELY TO BE WORKED OUT UNTIL AFTER THE PRINCIPLE HAS BEEN APPROVED BY BOTH THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE AND THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR LATIN AMERICA, BOTH REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE OUTLINE OF THE PROPOSED TRADING PROJECT WAS BASED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF A SIMILAR PROJECT CURRENTLY BEING PREPARED BY THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE FOR INCREASING TRADE BETWEEN THE INDUSTRIAL NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE AND THE MAINLY AGRICULTURAL NATIONS OF COMMUNIST EASTERN EUROPE.

THIS PRINCIPLE WAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED AT A RECENT CONFERENCE HERE OF THE UNITED STATES AND 24 COMMUNIST AND NON-COMMUNIST EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. THE DELEGATES AGREED THAT A GREATLY INCREASED EXCHANGE OF WESTERN MACHINERY FOR EASTERN RAW MATERIALS WAS ESSENTIAL TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY AND FURTHER ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

THE NEXT SESSION OF THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE, DUE TO MEET HERE NEXT MAY, IS EXPECTED TO CONSIDER THE DETAILS OF THE EAST-WEST PROJECT, WHILE DISCUSSING ONLY THE OUTLINE OF THE NEW LATIN-AMERICAN SCHEME.

THE TWO PROJECTS MIGHT CONTRADICT EACH OTHER IN SOME RESPECTS, IF LATIN AMERICA AND EASTERN EUROPE MADE GREATER DEMANDS ON WESTERN EUROPE'S MACHINERY THAN COULD BE AVAILABLE FOR EXPORT. THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE MAY THEN HAVE TO DECIDE WHETHER WESTERN EUROPE'S TRADE WITH THE COMMUNIST EAST OR WITH LATIN AMERICA WAS LIKELY TO BE OF GREATER IMPORTANCE IN ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

HE SAID THE PLAN, CALLING FOR A FEDERATION OF BULGARIA, YUGOSLAVIA, GREECE AND UNITED MACEDONIA, WAS DESIGNED "ON THE LINE OF THE FIGHT AGAINST BUILDING UP SOCIALISM IN YUGOSLAVIA."

A BIG PART OF THE ARTICLE CENTERED AROUND THE CENTURIES-OLD ISSUE OF UNITED MACEDONIA--NOW DIVIDED AMONG GREECE, YUGOSLAVIA, AND BULGARIA.

PIJADE CLAIMED BULGARIA, IN ADVOCATING THE PROGRAM, DID SO WITH "ULTERIOR MOTIVES"--PRESUMABLY TO SPLIT YUGOSLAV AND GREEK MACEDONIAN MINORITIES.

HE SAID BULGARIA -- UNLIKE YUGOSLAVIA -- HAS NOT GRANTED AUTONOMY TO ITS PART OF MACEDONIA AND REFUSED TO GRANT MACEDONIANS MINORITY RIGHTS.

HE SUGGESTED BULGARIA DO THIS FIRST AND THUS OPEN THE WAY FOR BULGARIAN AND HUGOSLAV MACEDONIANS TO GET TOGETHER TO DISCUSS THEIR OWN FUTURE.

FIRST LEAD INDONESIANS
BY KENNETH LIKES

BATAVIA, (MONDAY), MARCH 7-(AP)-INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS TODAY OFFICIALLY TURNED DOWN A DUTCH INVITATION TO TAKE PART IN ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCES AT THE HAGUE NEXT SATURDAY.

PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, HEAD OF THE REPUBLIC, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT COULD MAKE NO OFFICIAL DECISION UNLESS THE DUTCH RE-SEATED IT AT ITS CAPITAL CITY OF JOGJAKARTA.

HE MADE THIS STATEMENT IN A LETTER TO DR. LOUIS J.M. BEEL, DUTCH CROWN REPRESENTATIVE IN INDONESIA.

SOEKARNO AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS WERE TAKEN PRISONER BY THE DUTCH DURING "POLICE ACTION" LAST DECEMBER. THEY ARE NOW ON THE ISLAND OF BANGKA. THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL ORDERED THEIR RELEASE IN JANUARY.

SOEKARNO SAID IN HIS LETTER HE AGREED IN PRINCIPLE WITH THE PURPOSE OF THE DUTCH ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION--INTENDED TO LEAD TO SETTING UP AN INDEPENDENT INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT--BUT "IN THE PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES" IF HE AND REPUBLICAN LEADERS ACCEPTED THE DUTCH INVITATION THEY WOULD ATTEND THE HAGUE MEETING "ONLY AS PRIVATE INDIVIDUALS."

"DECISIONS TO BE MADE," HE SAID, "WILL INVOLVE HEAVY RESPONSIBILITY. SUCH RESPONSIBILITY CAN ONLY BE ASSUMED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA FULLY EXERCISING AUTHORITY IN ITS TERRITORY AND SEATED IN JOGJAKARTA. SUCH AUTHORITY WE LACK AT THIS MOMENT."

IF THE REPUBLICANS GO TO THE NETHERLANDS THEY STAND A CHANCE OF LOSING THE RECOGNITION THEY NOW HAVE FROM THE UNITED NATIONS AS ONE OF THE TWO PARTIES TO THE DISPUTE. ALSO THEY WOULD LOSE FACE WITH REPUBLICAN GUERRILLA FORCES STILL FIGHTING THE DUTCH AND WITH OTHER INDONESIAN NATIONALISTS.

IN CALLING THE CONFERENCE, THE DUTCH SAID AN EFFORT WOULD BE MADE TO TRANSFER SOVEREIGNTY TO A FEDERAL INDONESIAN REGIME CONSIDERABLY EARLIER THAN JULY 1, 1950--THE TARGET DATE SET BY THE U.N.SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE REPUBLICANS DO NOT REGARD THIS AS A SPECIFIC PROMISE. THEY FEEL IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE DUTCH REPUBLIC ACCEPT THE HAGUE TALKS THE EFFECT WILL BE TO REPLACE A FAIRLY DEFINITE U.N.PROGRAM FOR INDONESIA WITH A VAGUE ONE OF DUTCH CHOSING.

THE DUTCH SAID THE EIGHT REPUBLICAN LEADERS REMAINING ON BANGKA ISLAND WERE STAYING OF THEIR OWN FREE WILL AND WOULD BE ALLOWED TO COME TO BATAVIA ANY TIME THEY WISH.

THEY WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO RETURN TO JOGJAKARTA, THE FORMER REPUBLICAN CAPITAL WHICH DUTCH TROOPS OVERRAN IN THE EARLY PHASE OF THEIR OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE REPUBLIC LAST DECEMBER. THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS WERE CAPTURED AT THAT TIME AND INTERNED ON BANGKA.

MANY INDONESIAN LEADERS OF THE DUTCH-SPONSORED STATES OUTSIDE THE REPUBLIC ARE UNDERSTOOD TO WANT THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT RESTORED IN JOGJAKARTA. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THIS DOES NOT MEET WITH THE APPROVAL OF DR.LOUIS J.M.BEEL, HIGH REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NETHERLANDS CROWN.

THE DUTCH PREFER THEIR PLAN FOR ROUNDTABLE TALKS BECAUSE THEY WANT TO RUN THEIR OWN SHOW WITHOUT INTERFERENCE FROM THE UNITED NATIONS. THE U.N.COMMISSION HERE IS EXTREMELY UNPOPULAR WITH THE DUTCH.

MERLE COCHRAN, AMERICAN MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION, HAS BEEN BLASTED IN A NUMBER OF NEWSPAPER CARTOONS. THE ATTACKS WERE NOT MADE ON A PERSONAL BASIS BUT BECAUSE HE WAS IDENTIFIED WITH UNITED STATES INTEREST IN THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM.

THIS THEME HAS APPEARED REPEATEDLY IN DUTCH NEWSPAPERS HERE:

"THE AMERICANS OUGHT TO STAY HOME AND SETTLE THEIR OWN NEGRO PROBLEM BEFORE COMING HERE AND TELLING US WHAT TO DO."

SAN FRANCISCO,MARCH 6-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO TODAY INVITED NATIONALIST AIRMEN TO COME OVER TO THE RED SIDE AT ANY TIME. IT INTIMATED THAT A COMMUNIST AIR FORCE MIGHT BE CONTEMPLATED.
THE BROADCAST, HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, SAID MORE THAN 2,000 FORMER NATIONALIST AIR FORCE MEN NOW WERE IN COMMUNIST TERRITORY, 1,000 BEING IN PEIPING ALONE. IT SAID THEY WERE "CONTRIBUTING THEIR TECHNIQUE AND SKILL," BUT DID NOT SAY HOW.
IT SAID TEN PLANES RECENTLY HAD FLOWN TO JOIN THE REDS AND SAID AIRFIELDS IN COMMUNIST AREAS "ARE OPEN TO YOU ALL THE TIME; NEITHER A PASS NOR PREVIOUS CONTACT IS NECESSARY FOR YOUR LANDING."
THE COMMUNISTS NEVER HAVE HAD AN AIR FORCE, BUT NATIONALIST REPORTS MANY TIMES HAVE SAID WITHOUT CONFIRMATION THAT THEY WERE FORMING ONE IN MANCHURIA.

TOKYO, MONDAY, MARCH 7-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR'S ECONOMIC ADVISER WARNED TODAY THAT JAPAN MUST GET OFF THE "SURE ROAD TO FINAL NATIONAL DISASTER."
JOSEPH M.DODGE SAID JAPAN'S "INTERNAL POLICIES ARE NEITHER RATIONAL NOR REALISTIC. ITS FEET ARE NOT ON THE GROUND. IT IS WALKING ON STILTS. ONE LEG IS BUILT FROM EXTERNAL AID RECEIVED BY THE UNITED STATES, THE OTHER FROM INTERNAL SUBSIDIES."
"IT IS TIME TO BEGIN TO SHORTEN THE STILTS NOW," DODGE TOLD ALLIED CORRESPONDENTS AND JAPANESE NEWSMEN AT A PRESS CONFERENCE. DODGE, WHO HAS PERSONAL RANK OF MINISTER, HEADS A MISSION WHICH HAS SPENT SEVERAL WEEKS INVESTIGATING JAPANESE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.
THE U.S. HAS APPROPRIATED $1,250,000,000 (B) ON RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION IN JAPAN UP TO MARCH 31 OF THIS YEAR, HE SAID, ADDING:
"IT SHOULD BE CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS CONCERNED THAT LASTING BENEFITS TO JAPANESE ECONOMY SHOULD RESULT FROM THIS AID."
THE JAPANESE, DODGE SAID, MUST PRODUCE MORE AND SAVE MORE. THEIR GOVERNMENT MUST UNDERTAKE IMMEDIATE AND SOUND FISCAL IMPROVEMENTS AND RETRENCHMENTS TO IMPROVE THE SITUATION. THESE FINDINGS WERE MADE IN A PRESS STATEMENT.

MARSHALL PLAN

WASHINGTON,MARCH 6-(AP)-THE $5,580,000,000 EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM MUST BE SPELLED OUT IN MORE DETAIL BEFORE IT CAN BE TAKEN TO THE SENATE FLOOR FOR APPROVAL, SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) SAID TODAY.

GEORGE SAID HE PERSONALLY FELT THAT THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE COULD NOT JUSTIFY THE PROGRAM SATISFACTORILY BEFORE THE SENATE ON WHAT IT HAS IN HAND THE COMMITTEE IS EXPECTING ADDITIONAL FACTS.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA), ANOTHER COMMITTEEMAN, SAID HE BELIEVES A FURTHER EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED SPENDING SHOULD BE FORTHCOMING; THAT IT WOULD SUPPORT THE PROGRAM IN DEBATE.

GEORGE TOLD A REPORTER THAT "THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN TOO VAGUE ABOUT WHERE IT INTENDS TO SPEND THE DOLLARS." THE COMMITTEE HAS JUST ASKED ECA TO REPORT ON PROPOSED EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROJECTS AND IS AWAITING IT.

THE COMMITTEE IS NEARING APPROVAL OF THE BILL WHICH WOULD AUTHORIZE THE MARSHALL PLAN TO RUN TO JULY 1, 1950. MEANWHILE HEARINGS WENT ON IN THE HOUSE ON THE SAME BILL.

THERE, REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) TOLD A REPORTER HE IS GOING TO TRY HARD TO GET A PLUG FOR A UNITED STATES OF EUROPE INTO THE MEASURE.

"UNLESS THESE NATIONS GET TOGETHER," VORYS SAID, "THIS WHOLE THING IS OPERATION RAT HOLE. ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN AND OTHER OFFICIALS HAVE MADE THAT PERFECTLY CLEAR."

VORYS PILOTED THE ORIGINAL MARSHALL PLAN BILL THROUGH THE HOUSE LAST YEAR. AND AT THAT TIME HE SUCCESSFULLY BUCKED AN AMENDMENT BY REP.HALE BOGGS (D-LA) INTENDED TO PUT CONGRESS ON RECORD FOR A EUROPEAN UNION.

HE SAID HE HAS CHANGED HIS MIND NOW AND HAS TOLD BOGGS HE WAS WRONG.

WHAT VORYS WANTS TO DO NOW IS CHANGE THE PREAMBLE TO THE FOREIGN AID LAW SO IT BACKS THE POLICY OF A FEDERAL UNION FOR EUROPE. HE DOESN'T WANT TO SAY WESTERN EUROPE MUST UNITE BEFORE THEY CAN GET ANY MORE AMERICAN HELP.

WHAT THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE WILL DO WITH HIS PROPOSAL EVEN VORYS DOESN'T KNOW. HE SAID HE INTENDS TO INSIST ON A VOTE ON IT.

AN ATTEMPT IS BEING MADE BY SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) TO PUT CONGRESS ON RECORD FAVORING A POLITICAL UNION OF WESTERN EUROPE. HE HAS INTRODUCED A RESOLUTION TO THAT EFFECT.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE HOPES TO GET FINAL APPROVAL OF THE MARSHALL PLAN BILL TOMORROW. BUT SOME SENATORS WERE DOUBTFUL ECA WOULD BE ABLE TO GET TOGETHER ALL THE INFORMATION OVER THE WEEKEND.

GEORGE SAID THE COMMITTEE IS INTERESTED PARTICULARLY IN PROPOSED PROJECTS SUCH AS A STEEL MILL FOR NORWAY, A $1,000,000 (B) PROGRAM FOR ELECTRIFICATION OF WESTERN EUROPEAN RAILROADS, AND OIL REFINERIES FOR FRANCE, BRITAIN, AND OTHER COUNTRIES.

"WE WANT TO EXPLORE WHAT NEW PROJECTS ARE BEING DEVELOPED," GEORGE SAID, "TO GEET A BETTER IDEA OF WHERE THE DOLLARS ARE TO BE SPENT."

HE ADDED ECA HAS MADE ESTIMATES BUT THEY ARE NOT QUITE SATISFACTORY TO THE SENATORS WHO MUST DEFEND THE PROGRAM.

"THIS DOESN'T MEAN THE ECA'S AUTHORIZATION WILL BE CUT," GEORGE SAID. "BUT WE HAVE THE DUTY OF PUTTING A CEILING ON THE ECA'S SPENDING. THIS OBLIGATION IS NOT BINDING ON THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE, BUT IT STILL HAS A GREAT INFLUENCE.

AND WE WANT TO KNOW MORE PRECISELY WHAT WE ARE ASKING FOR."

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER, SAID THAT WHILE ECA SHOULD GIVE MORE DETAILS OF ITS PROGRAM, HE UNDERSTANDS THAT IT CAN'T BLUEPRINT A PROGRAM IN DETAIL "BECAUSE OF THE SHIFTING ECONOMY OF EUROPE. A PROGRAM PLANNED TODAY MAY HAVE TO BE DISCARDED FOR A MORE FAVORABLE PROJEDCT IN THE FUTURE."

MEANWHILE THE DOCUMENTS WHICH THE FBI SAID WERE TAKEN FROM MISS COPLON'S HANDBAG AT THE TIME OF HER ARREST HAVE BEEN SENT TO THE FBI LABORATORY IN WASHINGTON FOR DETAILED EXAMINATION, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID. WASH-ESPIONAGE-XXX CLARK.

THESE DOCUMENTS, THE FBI SAID, CONSTITUTED TYPED EXTRACTS OF GOVERNMENT PWP.

COINCIDENT WITH THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION IN NEW YORK, THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE MAY DECIDE IN WASHINGTON TOMORROW WHETHER TO MAKE:

(1) ANOTHER SEARCH FOR SPIES WITHIN THE U. S. GOVERNMENT;

(2) AND AN INQUIRY TO ASCERTAIN WHETHER FOREIGNERS ATTACHED TO THE UNITED NATIONS MAY BE INDULGING IN ESPIONAGE ACTIVITIES.

REP. NIXON (R-CALIF), COMMITTEE MEMBER, HAS SAID THAT THE COOMMITTEE GOT INFORMATION NEARLY TWO AND HALF YEARS AGO ABOUT CONDITIONS IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OFFICE WHERE MISS COPLON WORKED.

BUT, NIXON SAID, THE DEPARTMENT REFUSED TO COOPERATE AND FURTHER INQUIRY WAS BLOCKED.

HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT DISPLAYED "SHOCKING, INEXCUSABLE LAXITY" IN MISS COPLON'S CASE.

THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS IN UNCOVERING THE RAMIFICATIONS OF A COMMUNIST COURIER NETWORK WHICH TESTIMONY BEFORE IT SAID OPERATED DURING THE WAR TO SMUGGLE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION OUT OF THIS COUNTRY.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT REMAINED SILENT ON NIXON'S STATEMENTS.

MEANWHILE MISS COPLON, A NATIVE OF BROOKLYN, N.Y., AND AN HONOR GRADUATE OF BARNARD COLLEGE, IS BEING HELD IN THE WOMEN'S DETENTION WARD OF THE NEW YORK CITY JAIL.

TEARFUL RELATIVES HAVE INSISTED SHE IS INNOCENT OF WRONGDOING.

LAST NIGHT'S INTERVIEW WITH GUBITCHEV WAS HELD WITH MEMBERS OF THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY STAFF IN WASHINGTON, SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES ON THE UNITED NATIONS; JUSTICE AND STATE DEPARTMENT ATTORNEYS AND AN INTERPRETER.

THE QUESTION OF THE PRISONER'S IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION WAS EXPLORED AT THAT TIME AND, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID, THE RUSSIANS TOLD GUBITCHEV HE DOES ENJOY SUCH PROTECTION.

SO FAR THE RUSSIAN PROTEST AGAINST THE MAN'S ARREST HAS BEEN ONLY ORAL. WHETHER A FORMAL EXCHANGE OF DIPLOMATIC NOTES WILL OCCUR WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY KNOWN.

NIXON HOLDS THAT THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE SHOULD A FULL-SCALE INVESTIGATION OF THE WHOLE SITUATION.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID MISS COPLON CAME UNDER SUSPICION DURING A ROUTINE GOVERNMENT LOYALTY CHECK.

AN INVESTIGATION FOLLOWED AND THE DEPARTMENT SAID ENOUGH EVIDENCE WAS UNCOVERED TO LEAD IT TO ASSIGN FBI AGENTS TO WATCH HER. THE AGENTS SAID THEIR SEARCH DISCLOSED THAT SHE PREVIOUSLY HAD HELD SEVERAL "CLANDESTINE MEETINGS" WITH GUBITCHEV.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID PRECAUTIONS WERE TAKEN DURING THE SURVEILLANCE TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT MISS COPLON NO LONGER HAD ACCESS TO IMPORTANT DEFENSE SECRETS.

CLIMAX OF THE CLOAK-AND-DAGGER DRAMA CAME LAST FRIDAY WHEN MISS COPLON, WHO LIVED IN BROOKLYN, LEFT WASHINGTON BY TRAIN FOR NEW YORK. FBI AGENTS TOOK THE SAME TRAIN.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID SHE MET GUBITCHEV IN NEW YORK AT 7:23P.M., BUT THAT FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS AFTER THE TRAILS CROSSED, THE TWO "AVOIDED DIRECT CONTACT WHILE THEY EMPLOYED THE USUAL TECHNIQUES USED TO DETECT SURVILLANCE."

"THEY FINALLY EFFECTED A CONTACT WHEN BOTH DASHED ABOARD A BUS NEAR 42ND STREET," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID. SOON AFTERWARD, GUBITCHEV AND MISS COPLON WERE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK SAID THE PACKET OF PAPERS FOUND IN MISS COPLON'S PURSE HAD BEEN PLANTED AND WAS OF NO MAJOR VALUE.

NEW YORK, MARCH 6-(AP)-THE TWO TOP LEADERS OF THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY TODAY TOLD PRESIDENT TRUMAN THAT "DESPITE ALL THREATS AND PERSECUTIONS WE WILL CONTINUE RESOLUTELY TO WORK FOR PEACE."

THE STATEMENT, BY WILLIAM Z.FOSTER, THE PARTY'S NATIONAL CHAIRMAN, AND EUGENE DENNIS, GENERAL SECRETARY, WAS IN THE FORM OF A LETTER TO MR.TRUMAN. IT WAS MADE PUBLIC BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

THE LETTER WAS DESCRIBED AS A REPLY TO "THE PRESIDENT'S REFERENCE TO THEIR STATEMENT OF MARCH 2 AS THAT OF 'TRAITORS.'"

OPENING WITH THE QUESTION, "IS THE ADVOCACY OF PEACE TREASON?" THE TWO COMMUNIST LEADERS SAID:

"INSTEAD OF AN AGGRESSIVE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT--A RESURRECTED ANTI-COMMUNIST AXIS--WE SHALL CONTINUE, IN COMPANY WITH MILLIONS OF OTHER AMERICANS, TO URGE THAT OUR NATION SHALL SIGN A PACT OF FRIENDSHIP AND PEACE WITH OUR GREAT WAR-TIME ALLY, THE SOVIET UNION.

"THAT WAY LIES PEACE AND SECURITY FOR AMERICA AND THE WORLD."

THE LETTER SAID THE PRESIDENT HAD TERMED "TRAITORS MEN WHO BELIEVE THAT WAR IS NOT INEVITABLE AND THAT TWO SOCIAL SYSTEMS CAN COOPERATE IN THE INTERESTS OF WORLD PEACE--AND WHO WORK TOWARDS THAT END."

ASSERTING THAT "THIS IS NOT THE FIRST TIME THAT PATRIOTS HAVE BEEN PILLORIED FOR DARING TO FIGHT FOR PEACE," THE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS ADDED:

"ON OUR PART, WE COMMUNISTS WILL DEFEND IN THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST THE HIGHEST INTERESTS OF OUR COUNTRY. WE WILL DEFEND IN THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST OUR PEOPLE FROM ALL ENEMIES, WITHIN AND WITHOUT."

THE STATEMENT TO WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOOK EXCEPTION WAS ONE RELEASED LAST WEEK BY FOSTER AND DENNIS. IN THAT THEY CALLED ON COMMUNISTS TO "COOPERATE WITH ALL DEMOCRATIC FORCES TO DEFEAT THE PREDATORY WAR AIMS OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM AND BRING SUCH A WAR TO A SPEEDY CONCLUSION ON THE BASIS OF A DEMOCRATIC PEACE."

ASKED FOR COMMENT ON THE ORIGINAL STATEMENT, THE PRESIDENT TOLD HIS PRESS CONFERENCE: "I HAVE NO COMMENT ON A STATEMENT MADE BY TRAITORS."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 6-(AP)-THE NEW HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE MAY CHART TOMORROW ITS FUTURE POLICIES AND DECIDE WHETHER TO START IN ON ANOTHER SPY HUNT.

THE AGREST IN NEW YORK OF A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WOMAN EMPLOYE AND A RUSSIAN ENGINEER ON THE UNITED NATIONS STAFF BROUGHT DEMANDS FROM SOME COMMITTEE MEMBERS FOR:

1. ANOTHER SEARCH FOR SPIES WITHIN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT; AND
2. AN INQUIRY TO DETERMINE WHETHER FOREIGNERS ATTACHED TO THE U.N. MAY BE DABBLING IN ESPIONAGE.

A COMMITTEE OFFICIAL SAID THAT INVESTIGATORS HAD BEEN CHECKING ON THE U.N. SITUATION SECRETLY BEFORE THE ARREST OF MISS JUDITH COPLON, 27, OF THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT, AND VALENTINE A.GUBITCHEV, THE RUSSIAN ENGINEER.

BOTH WERE SEIZED BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION IN NEW YORK FRIDAY NIGHT AND WERE HELD ON BAIL YESTERDAY--$20,000 FOR MISS COPLON AND $100,000 FOR GUBITCHEV. THEY ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ESPIONAGE TO REMOVE GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS RELATING TO NATIONAL DEFENSE.

CHAIRMAN WOOD (D-GA) SAID THE COMMITTEE IS SURE TO REVIEW THE NEW DEMANDS BY ITS MEMBERS IF IT MEETS TOMORROW. AND, HE SAID THE GROUP WILL MEET IF HE CAN GET THE MEMBERS TOGETHER.

NO MOVES ARE LIKELY UNTIL THE COMMITTEE NAMES A COUNSEL AND HE BECOMES FAMILIAR WITH THE JOB. THAT APPOINTMENT MAY COME TOMORROW.

REP. NIXON (R-CAL.), A COMMITTEE MEMBER, WANTS AN IMMEDIATE AND FULL INVESTIGATION OF THE COPLON CASE. HE SAYS THERE HAS BEEN "SHOCKING INEXCUSABLE LAXITY" IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT. HE SAYS THE DEPARTMENT "MAY BE UNFIT AND UNQUALIFIED" FOR "PROTECTING THE NATIONAL SECURITY AGAINST COMMUNIST INFILTRATION".

A DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN SAID THERE WAS NO COMMENT ON NIXON'S REMARKS.

THE DEPARTMENT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR CHECKING NOT ONLY ON THE LOYALTY OF ITS OWN WORKERS BUT ALSO ALL GOVERNMENT WORKERS.

NIXON SAID THE COMMITTEE HAD A TIP NEARLY TWO AND A HALF YEARS AGO ABOUT CONDITIONS IN THE OFFICE WHERE MISS COPLON WORKED. HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT BLOCKED FURTHER INQUIRY AND REFUSED TO COOPERATE.

A COMMITTEE INVESTIGATOR SUBMITTED A WRITTEN REPORT TO WOOD IN SEPTEMBER, 1946, WHICH MENTIONED MISS COPLON AND SEVERAL OTHERS. IT WAS BASED ON INFORMATION FROM A FORMER EMPLOYE.

IT MADE NO SPECIFIC ACCUSATIONS AGAINST ANYONE. BUT IT SAID THAT IN THIS OFFICE EVERYTHING PRO-RUSSIAN WAS DEFENDED AND ANYTHING ANTI-RUSSIAN WAS CONDEMNED. IT SAID CASES OF VIOLATION OF THE ALIEN REGISTRATION LAW WERE BROUGHT TO ATTENTION THERE BUT NOT PROSECUTED.

THE 1946 COMMITTEE REPORT REFERRED TO HER EMPLOYMENT IN THE "ALIEN REGISTRATION" DIVISION. HOWEVER, A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL SAID THAT HER EMPLOYMENT RECORD SHOWS THAT SHE BEGAN WORK IN NEW YORK CITY WITH THE ANTITRUST DIVISION IN 1943. ONLY A YEAR AND A HALF AGO, THE OFFICIAL SAID, SHE WAS TRANSFERRED HERE TO WORK FOR THE FOREIGN AGENTS REGISTRATION DIVISION. THIS WAS BECAUSE OF HER KNOWLEDGE OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES, SHE WAS NAMED A POLITICAL ANALYST. THE DISCREPANCY IN DATES WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY EXPLAINED.

PHILADELPHIA,MARCH 6-(AP)-AREAS DEVASTATED BY AN AIR-BURSTING ATOMIC BOMB MAY BE ENTERED BY RESCUE PARTIES AS QUICKLY AS THEY CAN BE MOBILIZED AND DISPATCHED WITHOUT UNDUE FEAR OF HARMFUL EXPOSURE TO DEADLY RADIATION, AN A-BOMB EXPERT SAYS.

THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER IN A COPYRIGHTED STORY FOR MONDAY EDITION'S QUOTES DR.EUGENE P.PENDERGRASS, HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF RADIOLOGY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AND HOSPITAL AS SAYING:

"THE EARLY CONCEPT OF A 'DOOMED AREA' OF APPROXIMATELY TWO SQUARE MILES DIRECTLY UNDER THE POINT IN AIR WHERE THE BOMB EXPLODES--WHOSE POPULATION WOULD HAVE TO BE LEFT TO DIE BECAUSE OF THE DEADLY RADIATION EXISTING THERE--IS NOW THOROUGHLY DISPROVED.

"WHERE THE ATTACK IS MADE OVER A METROPOLITAN AREA, IT IS PROBABLY THAT MANY PERSONS WILL SURVIVE THE BOMB'S DEADLY INSTANTANEOUS RADIATIONS. THEIR SURVIVAL WILL BE THE RESULT OF CHANCE 'SHIELDING' EFFECT FROM REINFORCED CONCRETE, BRICK AND TILE FLOORS AND WALKS."

HOWEVER, THE PHYSICAL DESTRUCTION IN THE AREA WOULD BE VERY EXTENSIVE, PENDERGRASS SAID.

DR.PENDERGRASS WAS QUOTED BY THE INQUIRER AS SAYING HIS OPINIONS DO NOT RELATE TO UNDERWATER ATOMIC EXPLOSIONS, WITH ITS TOWERING "MUSHROOM" OF POISONOUSLY RADIOACTIVE WATER.

THE EFFECT OF THESE "NEW" CONCEPTS IS NOT ALL TO DEBUNK THE POWER AND FURY OF NUCLEAR EXPLOSION, THE INQUIRER SAID, BUT RATHER TO DRAW IT DOWN TO A SOMEWHAT CLEARER AND MORE RATIONAL FOCUS.

DR.PENDERGRASS' OPINIONS ARE BASED UPON YEARS OF CHEMICAL STUDY AND EVALUTATION OF RAY RADIATION, THE INQUIRER SAID. HE WAS PRESENT AS AN EXPERT CONSULTANT AT BIKINI AND LAST SUMMER MADE A SERIES OF STUDIES OF THE A-BOMB EFFECTS IN JAPAN.

DIPLOMATS SEE MOLOTOV IN LINE FOR STALIN'S JOB

A. GAUSHON

LONDON, March 7 (AP)—Senior British diplomats believe Vyacheslav M. Molotov is being groomed to step into Stalin's shoes as Soviet prime minister, reliable sources reported today.

These informants said the opinion apparently is based on reports which British Ambassador Sir Maurice Peterson has sent from Moscow. They said Peterson warned against expecting any basic change in Russian foreign policy as a result of Molotov's release as foreign minister.

The same views were expressed here privately by a high ranking diplomat of one of the eastern European communist countries.

Stalin to Stay Top Man

All expressed the opinion that Stalin would remain No. 1 man in Russia even if he should quit the post of prime minister. His supreme position would be safeguarded, they speculated, by his personal prestige and his posts as communist party secretary general and politburo member.

Ailing and 69, he may wish to be freed of administrative chores, however.

Informants made it clear that Ambassador Peterson himself did not make an outright prediction that Stalin contemplates retiring from the prime minister's job. They said the sense of his reports merely led British diplomats to think that is a possibility.

They did not exclude the possibility, however, that the release of Molotov and the foreign trade minister, A. L. Mikoyan, followed personal and political differences. But they pointed out that policy-making remains in the hands of the politburo.

Allies to Pool Views

The sources said Britain, the United States and France are likely to pool their views on the changes in an effort to form a firmer picture of the significance pending clarification by actual events.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin soon will discuss the Russian situation in greater detail with Ambassador Peterson. The ambassador, about to retire, is due back in the next few weeks. Bevin saw Prime Minister Attlee today to fill him in on the event. Attlee returned today from a week-end in Germany.

AUSTRIA PACT POINT DECIDED

A

But Yugoslavia Adds 7 More Claims For Treaty Terms

A. GAUSHON

London, March 7 (AP)—Big Four deputies finally agreed today on one point of Yugoslavia's demands on Austria, but found their work-load boosted by seven new Yugoslav claims.

The deputies are trying to write an Austrian independence treaty.

Still working on previous claims, representatives of the United States, Britain and France jointly proposed inserting into the projected treaty a clause guaranteeing the social, economic and cultural rights of all Austrian minority goups. Russia's deputy, George N. Zarubin, agreed.

Answer To Slovene Demand

This was an answer to Yugoslavia's demand that Austria guarantee the rights of Slovenes living outside a Slovene-populated Carinthian area which Yugoslavia proposed be made a politically autonomous province.

Yugoslavia also has gone on record as wanting certain unspecified frontier changes and "substantial" cash reparations.

Bar Germanic Propaganda

Russia backed all these claims in principle. The three Western powers opposed all of them except the minority rights proposition. The deputies will take up the reparations demand tomorrow.

The Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister, Ales Bebler, presented the new demands of the Tito Government. He proposed:

1. Austria must undertake to prohibit all Germanic and anti-United Nations propaganda.

2. All displaced persons and refugees who do not wish to be repatriated must leave Austria within three months after the conclusion of the treaty. (These would include thousands of Yugoslavs opposed to Marshal Tito, who still is in the Kremlin doghouse).

3. Austria must demilitarize her frontier with Yugoslavia to a depth of at least 20 kilometers (12 2/5 miles).

4. Austria must replace works of art and culture looted from Yugoslavia in the war years.

5. Austria must renounce all property right in Yugoslavia.

6. Austria must assume responsibility for paying her prewar debts to Yugoslavia.

7. Austria must refrain from changing the flow of various of her rivers which enter Yugoslavia. The note said the strenth and flow of the Upper Drava River has been weakened considerably by construction of two power stations just inside the Austrian frontier.

furthermore, to grant these people citizenship only with the consent of the countries of their origin.

7. Austria must refrain from changing the "regime"—or flow—of various of its rivers which enter Yugoslavia.

Slavs Make 7 New Demands On Austria

A GAUSHON

London, March 7 (AP)—Yugoslavia filed seven new war claims on Austria today. The Big Four Deputies already are bogged down in trying to write an Austrian independence treaty and the new claims helped tighten the deadlock.

In a note, Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler supplemented the Belgrade Government's previous claims with these demands:

1. Austria must undertake to prohibit all Germanic and anti-United Nations propaganda.

2. All displaced persons and refugees opposing repatriation must leave Austria within three months after conclusion of the treaty. (These would include thousands of anti-Tito Yugoslavs.) Austria must undertake,

Commonwealth Talks Proposed

London, March 7 (AP)—Britain has proposed holding urgent commonwealth talks in London or Ottawa to discuss joint defense plans and the onward rush of communism through the Far East.

A Government informant who reported this today said urgent consultations with governments of Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Canada, India, Ceylon and Pakistan are now going on.

A conference of commonwealth foreign ministers was at one time tentatively scheduled to take place in Colombo, Ceylon, in May.

The British now feel commonwealth talks should be held as soon as possible in a more accessible place.

The informant said the British Government shares fears of the Indian Government that the entire Indian subcontinent soon may become a target for Communist penetration.

They are asking Italy, Eire, Norway, Sweden and Denmark to the next meeting.

Each Nation On Council

Formal invitations will be accompanied by a proposed constitution. This was prepared by the five-power commission after the Brussels Pact foreign ministers decided to form the council and assembly.

The draft provides for a council made up of one minister from each member nation. The council will have power to make recommendations on all but defense questions.

The seat of both the council and the consultative parliament, according to the draft, will be in Strasbourg, France.

Opposed By Reds

Communists have fought a council of Europe. They link such a step with other "aggressive" moves aimed at Russia such as, they say, the Marshall Plan and the projected North Atlantic pact.

Such a political union might more definitely align the Western democracies in the cold war.

However, its ultimate purpose is a closely federated Europe on the line of the United States of America, with no trade or other barriers.

Harriman At Meeting

Other European representatives complained that this would require a heavy reduction in imports and living standards.

W. Averell Harriman, America's chief Marshall-plan envoy, attended part of the meeting.

The commission's discussions are based on an eight-point resolution passed by the O.E.E.C. council on February 17. The resolution said trade policy should be based on:

1. Financial and monetary stabilization in 1949.

2. Rapid increase in exports, including "invisible exports" like tourism and shipping.

3. Curtailment of dollar imports with a view to balancing trade.

4. Establishment of trade equilibrium in Europe, with increased exchange of goods.

5. Co-operation on investment and modernization by:

(a) Avoiding excess production capacity.

(b) Emphasizing projects that will help reduce the dollar deficit.

(c) Emphasizing investment in overseas territories.

6. Co-ordinating investment and exchanging data on them.

7. Attacking the problem of surplus population.

8. Regular review of progress, based on periodic reports from members.

W. Europe Trade Chiefs Split On Long-Term Aid

Paris, March 7 (AP)—Full agreement on long-term plans for Europe's recovery eluded western European trade chiefs meeting here today.

Seven Cabinet ministers and a diplomatic envoy in the executive commission of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation have been in daily session here since Friday.

Agreement in principle was reported on some parts of the program. Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, has proposed that each of the areas in the Marshall plan balance its imports and exports by 1952, when the plan is due to end.

Council Of Europe Unit To Draft Constitution

DANAA

Paris, March 7 (AP)—Ten European nations are expected to take another step this month toward formation of a political union of Western Europe.

They will meet, either in Paris or London, to work out a constitution for the new structure.

The five Brussels powers—Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—agreed last month to organize a council of Europe, together with an assembly with consultative powers.

Trade Experts Agree On West Europe Plan

Paris, March 7 (AP)—Western Europe's trade experts have agreed on a long-term recovery plan which probably will be announced tomorrow.

The trade leaders are seven Cabinet ministers and one diplomatic envoy who make up the executive committee of the organization for European Economic Co-operation. In addition to serving as a board of managers for administration of the Marshall plan, they are mapping steps to be taken after the scheduled expiration of that plan in 1952.

The plan is known to call for increased exports, curtailment of dollar imports, increased intra-European trade and co-ordination of investments.

European Drought Putting Out Lights

Paris, March 7 (AP)—A long drought is turning out the lights all over southern Europe. Water taps are running dry and crops are drying up.

For five months virtually no rain or snow have fallen in France. Worse conditions are reported from Portugal, Spain and, until recently, Italy. In other portions of Europe the effects have been lessened by recent rains and snow.

Ordinarily in these southern countries reservoirs are at low levels at this time of year, but they have not been this low in a long time.

Less Than 10 P.C. Full

Electric plants are being told to cut their power down to try and span the limited supply of water power until the April rains.

The reservoirs in these countries are used for the most parts for power generation instead of irrigation. In France these reservoirs are normally one-third to two-thirds full at this time of year. Now they are less than ten per cent full. Some are empty.

Portugal is rationing power. Electric signs are blacked out early at night in Lisbon. Industrial plants are being rationed there as they are in France. Domestic power users go without lights one to three days a week.

Italy goes without lights eleven hours a day, two to three days a week. France does the same.

Blizzard In Romania

Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia report heavy snows and normal crop prospects. Britain has been getting heavy snows, too. And today a twelve-hour blizzard raged throughout Romania.

Nobody has gone thirsty yet, but in Rome and other Italian cities, water faucets run dry for short times.

Neighborhood water supplies also have failed in some southern French towns where people are hauling water on donkeys and trucks.

France, however, has an abundant harvest of vegetables which grow the year round in some parts of the country.

But some wheat is now beginning to show yellow, where last year it was rich green, and the lack of rain may cut the yield.

Germans To Ask Socialization

Frankfurt, Germany, March 7 (AP)—Western Germany's Social Democrats plan to demand that the Western Allies give the west German state power to socialize heavy industry, American officials said today.

A minority faction in the left-of-center Social Democratic party favors turning down the proposed constitution unless this demand is met, these officials said.

They said the demand will take the form of a counter-proposal to recommendations by the three military governors. These were designed to lessen the authority of the central government.

The minority faction is not powerful enough alone, however to block the constitution.

The party feels the governors' recommendations would undercut their program for a direct share in the management of private industry in western Germany.

The Ruhr industrial area is the target of the drive for socialization of heavy industry.

REDS ORGANIZE AIRLIFT TO BEAT TITO BLOCKADE

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 7—(AP) The Abendpost said today the Russians are organizing their own airlift—to beat a Tito blockade of Albania.

The American zone newspaper said four-engined bombers will fly the 450-mile route over Yugoslavia from Budapest, Hungary, to Tirana, and the Albanian capital, twice a week with freight and passengers. There was no indication how many planes would be used. Abendpost said the report originated with the Budapest radio.

The decision was said to have been taken by the Budapest government which relied, however, upon Soviet planes and crews.

Follow Allies' Example

"The outstanding performance of the Berlin airlift has not left the Soviet airforce without ambition," said Abendpost, adding that it intended "to prove to true members of the cominform that the Russians are in a position to master this problem as well."

Russia has no air corridor over Yugoslavia, such as the western powers have to Berlin. What would happen if she tried to fly planes over Yugoslavia was anybody's guess. But Yugoslavia heretofore has guarded her air frontriers zealously.

Abendpost's report coincided with a dispatch from Washington saying that some diplomats believe Soviet foreign ministry changes involving Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov may mean that Russia is getting ready for a spring showdown with Marshal Tito.

This might involve an open move to unseat the Yugoslav marshal in order to solidify eastern Europe behind the cominform.

There was no explanation why the Russians would find it necessary to fly an airlift to Albania.

Since the cominform split with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia last summer, Albania has been cut off from land connections with her cominform neighbors. Yugoslavia cut off trade relations with her when she sided with the cominform. Albania had been dependent on Yugoslavia for financial and trade help.

Suffering In Albania

Theoretically, it is possible for Soviet ships to reach Albanian ports. However, recent Yugolsav press reports have told of dire suffering in Albania.

These reports have said Albanians were existing largely on a diet of beans. Prices of basic foodstuffs were said to have rocketed 200 per cent.

Relations apparently have been worsening. The Yugoslav press accused Albania last month of a series of shootings, incursions and unauthorized plane flights across the Yugoslav border.

In turn Albania announced she had liquidated a Yugoslav "bed of espionage" in the Albanian capital.

A Yugoslav note, announced in Belgrade today, accused Hungary of similar border shootings, apparently without casualties.

Russ Held Planning Balkan Airlift

Frankfurt, March 7 (AP) — The Frankfurt Abendpost said today the Russians are organizing a small-scale "anti-Tito" airlift.

It will operate from Budapest to Tirana, Albanian capital, the newspaper said, quoting Budapest radio. Albania is separated from its Cominform neighbors by Premier Marshal Tito's nonconformist Yugoslavia.

The lift will start with two flights a week over the 450-mile route by four-engined bombers with Russian pilots, the newspaper said.

"The outstanding performance of the Berlin airlift has not left the Soviet Air Force without ambition," it says.

Russ Planes And Crews

"To prove to true members of the Cominform that the Russians are in a position to master this problem as well, they are using the tense relations with the Tito regime in Yugoslavia to establish, as Radio Budapest reports, an airlift between Budapest and Tirana, the Albanian capital.

"Radio Budapest announces that this decision was taken by the Hungarian Government, but has to admit that the airlift will be carried out by four-engined TU-2 bombers, piloted by Russian crews.

"For the near future, the planes will fly the route twice a week with freight and passengers."

Russ Staging Ex-Red Hunt In East Zone

Berlin, March 7 (AP)—Soviet secret police are hunting ex-Communists in the Russian zone of Germany, the Conservative newspaper Montags Echo said today.

Thirty former Communists have been seized so far, charged with inciting Eastern Germans to resist Soviet occupation, the paper said.

Some of those seized were described as "victims of fascism who spent many years in Nazi concentration camps."

7 Nazis Face Trial In Mass Murders

Nuernberg, Germany, March 7 (AP)—Seven former German police officials went on trial today before a German criminal court at Lauf on charges of complicity in the extermination of 5,000 German Jews.

The list of defendants is topped by Dr. Benno Martin, accused of being former police president and chief of the Nazi secret police (Gestapo) in Nuernberg.

The prosecution based its charges on documents used by the International Military Tribunal in Nuernberg and the American War Crimes court in trials of Nazis.

AIR CHIEF IN GERMANY

WIESBADEN, Germany, March 7—(AP) Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, U. S. air force chief of staff, arrived tonight by plane from England on an inspection trip.

British, Italian Talks Slated

Rome, March 7 (AP)—The Italian Foreign Office said today talks will begin soon on a new alliance of friendship, commerce and navigation with Great Britain. It will replace one outdated by war and terms of the Italian peace treaty.

Romania Closes Jewish Aid Organization Office

Bucharest, Romania, March 7 (AP)—The Government closed the Romanian branch of the American Joint Distribution Committee, a Jewish aid organization, and sealed its offices today.

A Swiss Jewish office also was closed.

The Joint Distribution Committee was giving about $3,600,000 annually to help Romanian Jews. It was running handicraft and farming schools for those who wish to resettle in Palestine.

The order is in line with Romanian Government policy to refuse outside help, as it did with Catholic welfare relief and the International Red Cross.

BULGAR PASTORS TO HEAR COURT'S DECISION TODAY

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 7—(AP) A government spokesman predicted today new spy trials of Protestant churchmen.

He did so as 15 pastor defendants were called "squealing little rats" by a communist publication on the eve of their appearance to hear the court's judgment.

The state has demanded that four of the 15 be hanged, that the other 11 receive heavy sentences up to life imprisonment on charges ranging from treason, and spying for the United States and Britain, to black market money transactions.

To Know Fate Today

The trial ended Saturday and the three-man Sofia district court is to hand down its decision and sentences at 3 p.m. tomorrow, (8 a.m. Eastern Standard Time).

All have entered confessions of guilt obtained while they were in jail and have begged for mercy.

Western officials here have estimated that about 40 Protestant pastors already are in jail. Altogether there are 138 Congregational, Methodist, Baptist and Pentecostal pastors in the country.

The government spokesman, Vladimir Topencharov, deputy foreign minister, recalled that in the trial of the 15 names came out which were not mentioned in the original indictment. He said some of these would be brought to trial. The trials may be secret.

Several days ago Topencharov told correspondents two or three other trials would be held in the provinces. He said all were linked to the "conspiracy" in which the original 15 defendants were involved.

McNeil Raps Trial

(British Minister of State Hector McNeil told the House of Commons Monday there was "strong evidence" the trial was "part of a propaganda campaign rather than a judicial process." The British legation reported that most of the prosecution's witnesses were persons already under arrest, he said. The state had listed 53 witnesses but called only 11 of them to the stand. Many of them incriminated themselves in their testimony.

(McNeil, in answer to questions of a conservative member, said "it may be true" but the government has no proof that the defendants were starved or drugged. He said the same applied to the case of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Catholic primate of Hungary, who recently was sentenced to life imprisonment in a similar trial.)

Denied By Sofia Paper

The English-language Free Bulgaria, a Government press department publication, angrily denied today that the trial was part of a Communist campaign of religious persecution. It called such charges "crocodile tears, tripe and mad ravings."

"Why are Wall Street and Fleet Street (London's newspaper row) so upset over the fate of fifteen individuals who struck all foreign correspondents at the trial as small fry?" asked Free Bulgaria.

The explanation, said the publication, "is that socialism in the peoples democracies deprived imperialism of its most solid base—the predatory classes."

"The servants of God, enjoying an aura of sanctity," seemed a promising substitute, said the paper. "Indeed, they have performed most useful roles for the capitalist class in modern times—combining adroitly the worship of God with service to mammon."

But, said the publication, Bulgaria's police "saw through that diabolical game."

"Now," it added, "the little rats (the defendant pastors) are squealing, begging for mercy. In a frantic effort to avoid the hangman's noose they spill the beans."

Free Bulgaria alleged the World Council of Churches at Geneva directed the pastors in their alleged espionage.

Four Hangings Asked

The four chief defendants, for whom the Moscow-trained prosecutor has demanded the death sentence by hanging are: Vassil Ziapkov, Congregationalist; Yanko Ivanov, Methodist; Nikola Naumov, Baptist, and Georgi Chernev, Pentecost.

The other eleven ministers are Lambri Misgov, George Vassev, Harlan Popov, Ioncho Drianov, Ivan Stankulov, Zdravko Beslov, Zahari Raichcev, Ladin Popv, Mitko Dimitrev, Angel Dinev and Alexander Zahariev. AP

More Trials Due For Bulgarian Protestants

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 7 (AP)—A Government spokesman said today two or three more trials of Protestant churchmen on espionage charges will follow the windup of the hearing for fifteen ministers here tomorrow. The remaining trials are to be held in the provinces, perhaps in secret.

Vladimir Topencharov, Deputy Foreign Minister and Government press director, refused to say how many more churchmen are in jail, but a British official estimates they total 40. Topencharov declared all Protestant sects in Bulgaria were "included in this conspiracy."

Only 138 Are Listed

Only 138 ministers of the United Evangelical churches are listed in all Bulgaria. These include Congregational, Pentecost, Baptist and Methodist clergymen.

Topencharov said that in the current trial "names were mentioned of people not named in the original indictment" and that some of these probably will be brought to trial.

[British Minister of State Hector McNeil told the House of Commons today that most of the prosecution witnesses against the fifteen were persons already under arrest. Many of them incriminated themselves in their testimony that the defendants spied for Britain and the United States.]

Secret Trial Is Legal

Bulgarian law permits trials involving alleged treason to be held secretly. The Government spokesman said an exception was made for the current trial because of "its international implications."

"I am convinced," said the Briton, who declined use of his name, "that they [the Bulgarian Government] have at least 40 pastors in jail. They did not try them all at once for fear of the stink it would arouse in the Western press. They may try the others secretly. . . . This is only the beginning of the church purge here."

Persecution Is Denied

The Communist publication Free Bulgaria, meanwhile, angrily denied charges of religious persecution in the trial of the fifteen Protestant clergymen now awaiting judgment. The publication called the ministers "squealing little rats."

"In a frantic effort to avoid the hangman's noose," it said, "they spill the beans."

The ministers, all of whom have admitted the charges in court and begged for mercy, are to hear the verdicts tomorrow. The prosecution has demanded death for four of them and prison sentences for the others.

Sensitive To Broadcasts

The United States and British legations here report the Bulgarian regime especially sensitive to criticism by Voice of America broadcasts.

Free Bulgaria, printed in English by the Government press department, declared the charges of "religious persecution are "crocodile tears, tripe and mad ravings."

Border Troubles Arouse Slavs, Hungarians

Belgrade, March 7 (AP)—Yugoslavia accused Hungary today of provoking border incidents.

Borba, organ of the Communist party, disclosed a protest sent to the Hungarian Government, February 23. It apparently was one of a series of exchanges on frontier troubles during the past three months.

Specific Cases Cited

The article cited a number of specific cases. Included was an allegation that Hungarian guards have fired shots across the border. There apparently have been no casualties.

The note on February 23 mentioned an earlier communication from Hungary, which cited the possibility of "extraordinary measures" which might be taken as a result of border incidents.

Slavs Shift Blame

In its answer, Yugoslavia said that only Hungary could be blamed for the situation "which could come" if Hungary adopted such "extraordinary measures."

Borba said the troubles followed the Cominform denunciation of Yugoslavia eight months ago.

Rebel Band Is Trapped, Greeks Say

Athens, Greece, March 7 (AP)—The Greek Army general staff announced today that a guerrilla band unknown as the "scourge of the Southern Peloponnessus" has been trapped in a mountain region and is suffering heavy losses.

The Peloponnesus is the southern tip of Greece.

The spokesman said army units had killed 47 of the band and captured another 97 up until last night.

In another part of the Peloponnesus, he said, 14 rebels were killed, 42 captured and 8 surrendered.

ISRAEL, TRANS-JORDAN RESUME TREATY TALKS

RHODES, March 7 (AP)—Armistice talks between Israel and Trans-Jordan were resumed today after a two-day lapse.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting UN mediator, said he held lengthy sessions first with the Trans-Jordan delegation and then with the Israelis. The talks centered on an armistice line, the fifth item on the agenda.

The conference got underway last Friday in a chilly atmosphere and lasted only long enough for the delegates to approve an agenda. Then Maj. Riad El Hindawi, chief of the Trans-Jordan delegation, took off for Amman for instructions from his government. Reuben Shiloah of Israel returned to Tel Aviv for a similar reason. They came back to Rhodes today.

It seemed likely the negotiators will not meet again formally until it is clear whether Trans-Jordan also is authorized to speak for Iraq. AP

WISE SEES ISRAEL AS GREAT NATION

Rochester, N. Y., March 7 (A. P.).—Rabbi Stephen S. Wise predicted today that Israel would become "one of the great little States of history."

Here to speak tonight at the 100th annual meeting of Temple B'Rith Kodesh, Wise told a reporter that: "Small as it is, speaking of its area, and small as it is bound to remain, Israel will be great."

The Rabbi said the creation of the State was certain to bring "spiritual reinforcement to Jewish communities, such as our own American Jewry throughout the world."

American Jews will not show reduced loyalty to the United States but will be "full of friendliness and helpfulness" for Israel, he declared.

"The losses in Jewish life in the last century, culminating in the Nazi tragedy, have been counterbalanced by the triumph which lies in the establishment of the State in the Holy Land," he added.

Soekarno Rejects Conference Bid

Batavia, Java, March 7 (AP)—Indonesian Republicans made their refusal to attend a Dutch-sponsored conference on Indonesian statehood official today.

President Soekarno, head of the Republic, wrote Dr. Louis J. M. Beel, representative of the Dutch Crown in Batavia, that he and his Government could not attend the conference scheduled for The Hague next Saturday.

He reiterated previous unofficial statements that reseating of his Government at its capital, Jogjakarta, would have to come first.

Held On Bangka Island

Soekarno and other Republican leaders were taken prisoner by the Dutch last December and are now held on the Island of Bangka. The United Nations Security Council ordered their release in January.

Soekarno said in his letter that he agreed with the purpose of the round-table discussion—to set up an independent Indonesia—but "in present circumstances" if he and Republican leaders accepted the Dutch invitation they could attend only as individuals.

"Decisions to be made," he said, "will involve heavy responsibility. Such responsibility can only be assumed by the Government of the Republic of Indonesia fully exercising authority in its territory and seated in Jogjakarta. Such authority we lack at this moment."

Loss Of Burma Oil Reported

Singapore, March 7 (AP)—Dissident Burmese forces have seized the biggest Burmese oil town of Yenangyaung, well-informed British sources said today. They added that Burmese censorship is suppressing the news.

Yenangyaung, on the Irrawaddy River 270 miles northwest of Rangoon, was said to have been taken by members of the People's Volunteer Organization, formerly the private army of the assassinated nationalist leader, U Aung San.

Patched-Up Accord

The People's Volunteers revolted against the Government last summer. They patched up an accord in recent weeks when the rebellious Karens, supported in some cases by Communists, became a serious menace and began a series of operations close to Rangoon. The Volunteers began aiding Government troops, but the British informants said the bands which had taken Yenangyuang were not among those which had joined the Government.

The bands were said to have entered the town without opposition on the grounds that they were protecting it from Communists. The oil properties are British owned.

Oil Center Occupied

Singapore, March 7 (AP)—Informed British said today that forces not connected with the Burmese Government have taken over Yenangyaung, largest oil center in Burma.

They identified them as members of the People's Voluntary Organization, formerly the private army of the assassinated Nationalist leader, U Aung San. This information, they added, was being suppressed in Burma by rigid censorship.

Two Factions Involved

The P.V.O. revolted last summer, but came to an agreement with the Government in October. Recent dispatches from Rangoon have told of P.V.O.'s fighting alongside the Burmese Army in the campaign against the Karen rebels.

Sources here said the P.V.O. at Yenangyaung is not the group which joined the Government. The P.V.O. entered the oil town without opposition, claiming they were protecting it against Communists.

Property of British-owned oil firms is so far undamaged, they said.

CHINA CABINET, SUN FO RESIGN

Premier Announces Action To Legislature In Nanking

Nanking, China, Tuesday, March 8 (AP)—China's Premier Sun Fo announced today the resignation of his Nationalist Cabinet.

The Premier told some 200 members of the Legislative Yuan that Acting President Li Tsung-jen had accepted the en bloc resignation. The Yuan had convened to hear Sun's administrative report.

[Sun Fo and Li have been repeatedly reported at odds since Li became President on the "retirement" of Chiang Kai-shek.

Sun Fo Went To Canton

[With the Communists engulfing North China and Chiang taking refuge in the south, Sun Fo went with his Cabinet to Canton and sought to establish the capital there. Li then got into a tug-of-war, aimed at keeping the Government in Nanking while seeking peace with the Communists.]

Sun said the Cabinet decided at a meeting yesterday to hand in its resignation. The Premier was accompanied by Wu Te-chen, Vice-Premier, when he called on the Acting President yesterday afternoon to convey the Cabinet's decision.

Sun's resignation announcement was greeted by applause from members of the Chinese legislature who have spearheaded the criticism that led to the Cabinet's downfall.

Flanked By Cabinet

Sun made his announcement while flanked by members of the Cabinet. He then delivered the administrative report.

Meanwhile, the Catholic newspaper Yi Shih Pao demanded that the Chinese Government reject further aid from the United States which it blamed for prolonging the civil war.

The paper is controlled by Archbishop Paul Yu-Pin, now on an extended visit to the United States. [He is on the Communists' list of "war criminals," whose punishment they demand as a prelude to settling the war.

[Archbishop Yu-pin issued a

ment in Washington in which he declared that while he hadn't seen the text of the editorial nevertheless:

"I can say definitely that the views represented in the dispatches . . . are not my views.

"I have always advocated," he added, "and shall continue to advocate, American aid for China in her struggle against Communist domination.

["The Yi Shih Pao is owned by a group of Chinese Catholics. As president of the board of trustees of the Yi Shih Pao, I can say the policy of this paper has always been and still is anti-Communist.

Contribution Against Invasion

["It has always considered American aid to China as an important contribution to the free people of China in their struggle against Communist armed invasion.

["The Yi Shih Pao is published in six cities in China. However, the papers in Peiping and Tientsin have already been confiscated following the Communist occupation of those cities."]

The editorial, in a paper which always has been bitterly anti-Communist, charged the American aid program was political interference in China and was designed to carry out American military objectives.

Program Ends In April

It urged adoption of a resolution now being drafted by 50 members of the Legislative Yuan for an end to American aid.

Yi Shih Pao noted that, since the current Economic Co-operation Administration aid program for China is due to end in April "and there is no hope for any new appropriation," this would be a good time to renounce American assistance.

[Roger Lapham, ECA administrator for China, recommended in Washington last week that the program be continued at the current rate of about $20,000,000 a month.

Hospital Closings Prevented

[In discussing this situation only Sunday, James D. White, Associated Press news analyst now in Shanghai, noted a general Chinese feeling that American economic assistance was indirectly prolonging the war. However, he also noted that such great cities as Shanghai and Nanking very quickly would be without lights, heat or water and would have explosive hunger situations on their hands if ECA aid were suspended.

[A mail dispatch from Nanking, received in the United States yesterday, said an emergency grant of $12,000 by the ECA had prevented Nanking's hospitals from closing February 23 for lack of funds and fuel.]

Although fighting has been at a standstill for more than two months, the issue of war or peace remained confused.

Both sides were reported reinforcing and reorganizing their armies for possible resumption of large-scale fighting if current peace efforts fail.

China-Halted French Ship Now In Port

Nanking, March 7 (AP)—A French Embassy spokesman said today the French light cruiser Bisson had arrived at Saigon, Indo-China, after being delayed briefly by Chinese authorities at Kwanchowan, in south China.

Dispatches from Canton yesterday said the cruiser was detained at the former French concession port after loading silver bullion from a French bank.

The embassy spokesman said the incident was due to a misunderstanding. Permission to pick up the bullion had been obtained through the Chinese Foreign Office before the cruiser called at Kwanchowan, the French official said.

PROSECUTOR HITS 'AXIS SALLY' AS 'UNHOLY TRAITOR'

WASHINGTON, March 7—(AP) The government today denounced Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars as a traitor who broadcast "rotten, stinking propaganda" for wartime Germany and got a "sadistic joy" out of it.

"She sold out to them," Chief Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., told a Federal court jury. "She thought she was on the winning side, and all she cared about was her own selfish fame."

But Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin, beginning his summation after the government lawyer had finished, insisted that Miss Gillars broadcast for the Nazi radio only because she feared for her life if she refused.

Laughlin said the government had relied heavily on the testimony of former Nazi radio officials, and he added:

"A German Nazi is unworthy of belief, yet Mr. Kelley wants you to convict this defendant, a citizen of the United States, on their testimony."

Case Nears Jury

Kelley's scornful summation came as the dramatic treason trial, now in its seventh week, moved into the final stages. The case is expected to reach the jury late tomorrow or Wednesday.

The federal prosecutor termed Miss Gillars "an unholy traitor. . . . enamoured of her own cleverness."

The 48-year-old defendant, born in Portland, Maine, was pale but impassive as Kelley tore into defense contentions that she was driven to broadcast by her fear of the Nazi gestapo.

Kelley recalled that in one of her "Axis Sally" programs—beamed to U. S. troops in the field and to their families at home—Miss Gillars described the agonies of a wounded American flier before he died.

"In God's name," Kelley shouted, "what can excuse that? Only one thing—treason. The Germans wanted her to say that. She sold out to them and said it for them.

"Cruelty if I ever listened to it. She got a sadistic joy out of it."

Airtight Case, He Says

Kelley declared the government has presented an airtight case of treason "which covers the length and breadth of the indictment," and he went on:

"The purpose was to divide us, to weaken our effort to fight the war."

He said that throughout her trial, Miss Gillars had turned on a "gutter faucet" of tears; but he said:

"She damned President Franklin D. Roosevelt until she was blue in the face. Then she tells us she was on the German side because it was the Gentile side. She even said the war made Hitler unhappy.

"But she damned Roosevelt, Churchill and all the Jews."

Kelley recalled that Miss Gillars was broadcasting for the Germans in 1940 when the Nazi war machine crushed France and began thundering bombs on London. He reminded the jurors of newspaper photographs depicting Hitler clicking his heels in joy after the fall of France. Pointing at the white-haired defendant, Kelley said:

"She, too, absorbed the joy of conquest. She felt the Nazis simply could not lose."

Defense Takes Two Hours

Defense Attorney Laughlin spoke for more than two hours, and indicated that he will speak that much longer tomorrow.

Laughlin mentioned the treason convictions in Boston of Douglas Chandler and Robert Henry Best, but said they were commentators who prepared their own material while Miss Gillars was "just a small cog in the wheel." He said she had to broadcast what was prepared for her, or face a concentration camp or death.

Laughlin quoted from several "Axis Sally" broadcasts in which she expressed anti-Roosevelt, anti-British and anti-Jewish views.

Not Treason, He Says

He insisted, however, that she had a right to those views and that it did not constitute treason.

Laughlin said Miss Gillars didn't want to broadcast propaganda, but did so under "coercion and pressure."

"The law didn't expect this lady to hold her ground to such an extent that she would have been sent away to a concentration camp or death," he said. "She's not supernatural, she's a human being."

her to say that. She sold out to them and she said it for them."

He said it was "cruelty if I ever listened to it—she got a sadistic joy out of it."

Kelley said the purpose of Miss Gillars's broadcasts was clear—

"The purpose was to divide us, to weaken our effort to fight the war."

Kelley called her broadcasts "rotten, stinking propaganda," and added:

'Axis Sally' Is Excoriated

Prosecutor Says She Sold Out to Germans, Thinking She Was on Winning Side.

Washington, March 7 (A. P.).—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars heard herself denounced today as a selfish woman who put her ambitions ahead of her country's welfare.

This description came from John M. Kelley Jr., chief Government prosecutor in the treason trial of the 48-year-old Maine-born woman. The case in the United States District Court is now in the stage of final argument.

Kelley told the ury that Miss Gillars, who made radio broadcasts for the Germans during the war, thought she was on the winning side, and all she cared about was her own selfish fame.

Kelley recalled that in one broadcast Miss Gillars described the sufferings of an American flyer before his death. He went on:

"In God's name, what can excuse that? Only one thing—treason. The Germans wanted

JURY SELECTION FINALLY STARTS IN TRIAL OF REDS

NEW YORK, March 7 — (AP) The process of picking a jury to try 11 of the nation's high communists on conspiracy charges finally began today.

This followed a final—and futile—defense effort to halt the trial on the grounds that President Truman's recent remark about "traitors" made a fair trial impossible.

The President had used the word in commenting on statements issued by two U. S. communst party leaders.

30.24- 1549

Presiding Judge Harold R. Medina put an end to seven weeks of pre-trial defense arguments by denying motions to halt the trial on the basis of the President's remarks, and on other grounds.

Calls Jury Panel

Then, sweeping aside all objections, he called into the courtroom a panel of 60 persons, from which the jury is to be selected, and told them to expect a long trial—"several weeks, perhaps a month or more."

Court was adjourned after three prospective jurors had been dismissed. Judge Medina approved their excuses for not wishing to serve on the jury.

He said the defense would be permitted only 10 peremptory challenges—the usual amount. This allows defense attorneys to turn down any 10 prospective jurors without stating their reason.

Others may be rejected if there is a valid reason why they cannot or should not serve.

Judge Medina said he had a list of questions from prosecution and defense plus some of his own. He planned to put them to each prospective juror to determine his or her fitness to hear the case.

During the nearly two months of pre-trial legal scuffling, the defense shot motion after motion at Judge Medina in an effort to get the charges dismissed.

This led the judge to comment late today that "if this has not been stalling, then I've never seen it in my life."

Demonstrators, estimated by police to number 420, sang and chanted outside the court. Some carried babies in their arms. The rally was sponsored by the New York Civil Rights Congress in protest against the trial.

Courtroom Noisy

The courtroom itself was noisy at times as the defense exhausted motion after motion in other efforts to stop the trial.

"I will have no shouting at me in this court," Judge Medina warned Defense Attorney Abraham J. Isserman at one point.

The defense charged that President Truman "expects" that the jury to be picked in the case will "return only one verdict—that of guilty."

Mr. Truman was asked last week to comment on statements by Eugene Dennis and William Z. Foster that they would oppose any war provoked by "Wall Street." Dennis, U. S. party secretary, is one of the 11 on trial. Foster, party chairman, was indicted but poor health has delayed his trial.

"I have no comment on a statement made by traitors," the President told his news conference.

Defense counsel argued that the President's remark ruled out any hope of obtaining an impartial jury.

In denying the motion, Judge Medina said he intended to see to it that any jury chosen becomes thoroughly familiar with the words of the indictment and the issues in the trial. ADD

Spy Grand Jury Set To Probe Couple's Case

New York, March 7 (AP)—A Federal grand jury investigating subversive activities resumed deliberations today with the expectation of hearing evidence against a Russian engineer and a woman employé of the Department of Justice.

The two are being held in lieu of high bail on suspicion of espionage.

The early part of the jury's session today was taken up with some business left over from last week. This included additional questioning of William Rosen, 65, of Santa Monica, Cal., who last week proved to be a reluctant witness and was taken before a judge for instruction on questions he must answer.

Car Transaction On Record

Records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities show Rosen took title to an automobile on the day Alger Hiss, former State Department employé transferred it to a Washington automobile company. Hiss is under indictment on a charge of perjury in the grand jury's probe of subversive activities.

Attorney General Tom Clark assigned two special assistants, Raymond P. Whearty and Thomas Donegan, to present evidence in the latest phase of the investigation to the grand jury.

U.S. JURY SCANS NEW SPY PLOT

Washington Arrests Hinted; Seized Pair Faces Quiz

New York, March 7 (AP)—A Federal grand jury today began unraveling an alleged web of intrigue which the FBI said linked an American girl and a Russian United Nations aide in a spy plot.

The grand jury heard a single witness, an unidentified FBI agent today but was to resume its investigation Wednesday. There was widespread speculation as to new arrests, perhaps among Government workers in Washington.

Held here were Judith Coplon, 27-year-old Brooklyn-born analyst in the Justice Department, under $20,000 bail, and Valentin A. Gubitchev, 32, a Soviet engineering employé of the United Nations. He is under $100,000 bail.

Subpoenaed By Grand Jury

They are charged with conspiracy to commit espionage to remove Government documents relating to national defense.

Both are under subpoena to appear before the grand jury at an unspecified date. Gubitchev was suspended from his United Nations post after the pair were arrested on a bus in New York Friday night.

If convicted under peacetime espionage laws, they face maximum penalties up to 30 years in prison.

Miss Coplon was described as "cheerful and smiling" at the Women's House of Detention. But her attorney, Bertram Adams, said she wanted to perk up her appearance with fresh clothes.

Gubitchev is held in the Federal House of Detention.

Typed Extracts Found

Details that led to their arrest were scanty. However, Attorney General Tom Clark released enough information to hint at a movie-like pursuit of the couple by Federal agents.

Seized in Miss Coplon's handbag, agents said, were typed extracts from Justice Department records. They were being examined by the FBI laboratory in Washington.

The young woman, an honor graduate of Barnard College in New York, first came under suspicion during a routine Government loyalty check.

9 D.P. Ships To Leave Germany In March

Washington, March 7 (AP)—Nine ships with a combined capacity of 6,000 persons will leave north German ports in March with displaced persons who plan to settle in this country, the International Refugee Organization said tonight.

This represents an increase of two ships and 1,775 passengers over the number in February.

Three of the March ships will dock at Boston, five in New York and one in New Orleans.

The organization also announced that the S.S. Marine Flasher will arrive at New York Wednesday with 549 displaced persons bound for twenty states and the District of Columbia.

U.N. Probe Of Slave Labor

Lake Success, N.Y., March 7 (AP). A United States suggestion for a broad inquiry into slave labor conditions throughout the world was adopted today by the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

The vote was 14 to 3 with Russia, Poland and White Russia voting against it.

A Russian resolution urging that a world-wide inquiry be made by a 100-member committee was rejected, 15 to 3.

Based On AFL Charges

The United States proposal was handed to the Economic and Social Council after the American Federation of Labor had charged that millions of Russians are suffering inhuman treatment in labor camps. The American resolution did not name the Soviet Union but called upon the International Labor Organization to include the AFL charges in its investigation.

Trygve Lie, secretary general, was directed by the Economic and Social Council to approach all governments against whom forced labor charges were placed and ask how far they would co-operate in the inquiry.

Russia and Poland maintained that no slave labor conditions exist in the Soviet Union. They claimed the only real slave labor is in capitalist nations and the dependent territories.

Charges Spying Purpose

Russia has charged that the United States is trying to get American intelligence agents into little-known areas of Russia.

The Soviet delegate said his Government was willing to permit one-the-spot investigations by the huge committee envisaged in the defeated Russian proposal. The composition of that committee would have been on the basis of one representative for every million trade-union members.

Hernan Santa Cruz, of Chile, told the council a committee formed along such lines would be dominated by left-wing and Communist unions.

U.N. Approves Slave-Labor Probe

Lake Success, March 7 (AP)—The United Nations today approved an American request for a world-wide inquiry into slave labor.

The proposal went to the Economic and Social Council after the American Federation of Labor charged that millions of Russians were inhumanly treated in labor camps.

The United States resolution did not mention Russia by name, but called on the International Labor Organization (ILO) to include the AFL charges in its inquiry.

The vote on the inquiry was 14 to 3, with Russia, White Russia and Poland voting against it. India did not vote.

Called A Scheme

The council directed Secretary General Trygve Lie to approach each government against which charges have been made and inquire to what extent they will cooperate in the inquiry.

Russia left no doubt during debate that she would rebuff any United Nations effort to check behind the iron curtain. The Soviets contended it was a United States scheme to get American intelligence agents into Russia.

Russia and Poland denied slave labor existed in the Soviet Union. They contended that the only real slave labor was in capitalist countries. Russia charged that Americans are enslaved by the Taft-Hartley law. ADD

RED UN DELEGATE ILL

LAKE SUCCESS, March 7—(AP) Russia's top United Nations delegate, Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik, was reported ill in bed today at his apartment in the delegation building on Park avenue, New York.

A member of the Soviet delegation indicated he might have stomach trouble but his alternate said the nature of his illness was not yet determined.

Malik never before had missed a meeting of the Security Council since he came here last spring.

Russia was represented by Semen K. Tsarapkin, trusteeship expert of the Soviet delegation.

The council approved an American-backed proposal for the trusteeship council to handle all phases of the American report on former Japanese-mandated islands in the Pacific except the strategic angles. ADD

SENATE GROUP APPROVES FULL AID FOR EUROPE

Committee Adds Amendment Encouraging 'Unified Continent'

Washington, March 7 (AP)—The full $5,580,000,000 the Administration asked for the second installment of the Marshall plan was approved tonight by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, 13 to 0.

The committee added an amendment encouraging the "unification of Europe," despite objections from Chairman Connally (D., Texas) that it would give a "hollering point" to Russia, which charges the United States with dictating to foreign nations.

The committee decided against making any cuts at this time in the $5,580,000,000, which is designed to speed recovery of western Europe. Price fluctuations are too uncertain, committee leaders felt, to warrant a cut now, but several senators reserved the right to ask one later.

Directive For Hoffman

"If there should be a great price reduction, then ECA will be able to save its dollars," Connally said.

The committee made a decision not to turn ECA into an instrument for supporting the domestic commodity markets.

Paul Hoffman, ECA chief, was directed by a statement in the record to "give sympathetic consideration" to the United States economy in commodity purchases. This was not made mandatory.

Wherever possible, Hoffman is to purchase surplus American farm products. But the only mandatory provision on commodity buying is that fifteen per cent of the wheat shipped to Europe must be in the form of flour.

Connally Predicts Approval

The fund authorized in the measure is the second installment of the Marshall plan. To become law, the bill must be passed by Senate and House and signed by the President. Then an actual appropriation bill to carry out the program must be passed by Congress.

Connally said he would seek a Senate vote as soon as the "log jam" created by a Southern filibuster is ended and predicted approval.

The committee's thirteen members voted for the bill. Those not present left proxies to be voted.

Three Amendments Adopted

Connally said these amendments were adopted:

1. Giving Hoffman authority to act as the agent for the Bureau of Federal Supply in purchases of strategic and critical materials.

The ECA would have authority to make twenty-year contracts with foreign nations for strategic materials. These contracts would be made with the approval of the chiefs of other Government agencies involved in the materials purchase.

2. Giving ECA authority to fix uniform shipping rates for all relief packages sent to Europe by CARE and other relief organizations. ECA will pay the ocean freight on such shipments.

3. Providing that ten United States transports will be made available to Italy for transporting Italian immigrants to South and Central American countries. The operating costs and other immigration costs are to be paid by the Italian Government.

ECA Use Of Surplus Farm Products Boosted

Washington, March 7 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted today that surplus American farm products should be used in the European Recovery Program whenever possible.

Chairman Conally (D., Texas) said the Economic Co-operation Administration Act will not be changed to require any purchases of surplus farm products.

But he added the committ e voted to put a statement in the record that ECA Administrator Paul Hoffman shall consider the export of surplus farm products wherever it is possible.

This action came as the committee neared a vote on the $5,580,000,000 program to aid Europe's recovery in the next fifteen months.

BOWLES ASSERTS COLD WAR WILL END WITH CHAOS

HARTFORD, March 7—(AP) If the cold war goes on it will end in a catastrophe for all of us, Governor Bowles told about 250 Rotarians at the Hotel Bond here this afternoon.

Explaining the present situation as an outgrowth of three great revolutions after World War I—the Sun-Yat Sen revolution in India, and the Lenin revolution in Russia—he said World War II has brought an increase in the conflicts that were behind these revolutions.

"These people are all now aware of what technological techniques can produce and they are beginning to get a concept of what could be brought their way," the Governor said.

Sees 'Deep' Conflict

He described the present conflict between communism and capitalism as more than a struggle between two nations. He called it a "deep and profound conflict involving 2,000,000,000 people.

Governor Bowles praised the subsidiary organizations of the United Nations and said we have a right to expect them to do even more. He described controls which would be put on in the event of another war as "so sweeping that they would throw out everything that the people consider important."

He said these controls would be almost beyond comprehension.

Calling for building of a world sovereignty through the UN, he said "any work done in this direction should come through that organization." He pointed out that there is an article in the UN charter which would allow two-thirds of the world to amend the present charter and create a stronger international organization.

Strengthen UN

"Great democratic leaders have already made pleas to strengthen the UN but the action must originate from America or Russia."

Bowles suggested a "security inventory" to find out what each nation would need to feel a sense of security. He felt a common denominator would be protected borders and an insurance that they would not be attacked by a foreign power.

He said an international police force backed by the authority of the UN could have prevented bloodshed in Indonesia and Israel. The Governor called for creation of an international police force in the UN as soon as advisable.

"I say with deep conviction that although these may not be final answers it is better than sitting back and saying the problems are too big for us. That road will lead us to the doom of civilization," the Governor added.

Military Force Pledge Against Attack Reported

Chicago, March 7 (AP)—The Chicago Sun-Times said tonight that the Atlantic defense pact is a twenty-year treaty that pledges adherent nations to join in resisting—with military force—armed attack on any signer.

A London dispatch by Frederick Kuh said the treaty defines attack and the operating area of the military alliance as follows:

"An attack against one or more o fthe parties both in Europe and in North America will be considered a san attack against all. In consequence they will assist the paarty or parties attacked by taking immediately, both individual and collectively, such action, including the use of armed force, as is deemed necessary to restore and maintain security."

Area Definition Given

Kuh wrote that one of the treaty articles "declares that 'armed attack on the area of any of the parties in Europe, North Africa, or Algeria, or against the military forces of the parties in Europe, or against any territory, island possession, vessel, or aircraft in the North Atlantic area would be deemed an armed attack. . . .' (the treaty defines the North Atlantic as the entire part of the Atlantic Ocean north of the Tropic of Capricorn)."

Kuh said his digest of the treaty was obtained from British sources and is the first "complete summary" of the defense pact to be published.

His dispatch added that one article "declares that the treaty will remain in force for ten years, after which the parties may consult for the purpose of reviewing the treaty if necessary and may decide to terminate the pact after another ten years.

"This means," the Sun-Times dispatch added parenthetically, "that the treaty will remain in force for a minimum of twenty years. After twenty years the treaty may be denounced on two years' notice."

The Kuh summary said the first two articles of the pact dealt with an avowal of a devotion to peace.

"They pledge the signatory nations to do whatever they can to eliminate difficulties including economic ones, which might disturb the peace."

Call For Consultation

Other articles, Kuh said, call for reciprocal help among the members and consultation in case of a threa to peace.

"'Any armed attack will be reported to the Security Council,' the treaty adds," Kuh reported.

WORLD TRADE AT NEW MARK

Cash Value Rises While Quantity Of Goods Dips

Washington, March 7 (AP)—World trade set a new mark of $51,000,000,000 in cash value during 1948, the Commerce Department estimated today.

That was a six per cent gain over 1947, but it took higher prices to turn the trick. The quantity of goods exchanged among nations actually declined while cash value was rising.

The drop in quantity amounted to about three to four per cent below 1947 after discounting price increases of about 10 per cent, the department said.

Trade Less Than U.S. Sales

The "world trade" figure was reached by adding up estimated exports of all countries. The $51,000,000,000 total, although a peak in its line, is considerably less than the $130,000,000,000 value of retail sales in the United States in 1948.

Approximately one fourth of global exports, from a value standpoint, were United States shipments to other countries. These, totaling $12,600,000,000, dropped 18 per cent in value and 23 per cent in volume from 1947, although they more than doubled any prewar year.

MAR 8 1949

The slowing of United States shipments during 1948 while many countries were increasing their exports to the United States and other nations brought the trade situation closer toward a cash balance, the department noted.

U. S. Exports May Decline

United States exports, now paid for to a sizable degree by Government aid funds and loans, are likely to shrink further, the department warned.

The level at which United States exports eventually settle—high or low—will be determined largely by the amount of goods and services the United States buys from other countries, it observed.

The United States dollars other countries obtain by sales here are likely to set the limit on the amount they buy from the United States, it explained. Their other means of payment (gold and dollar holdings) have been "drastically reduced" and payment will have to be made out of current earnings.

THE CASE OF ONE DEFENDANT, SS LIEUTENANT HEINZ SCHUBERT, WHO WAS SENTENCED TO DEATH, IS STILL UNDER CONSIDERATION.

EXECUTION OF THE DEATH SENTENCES WAS ORDERED STAYED PENDING ACTION BY THE DEFENDANTS ON PETITIONS FILED WITH COURTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE DEFENDANTS WERE LEADERS OF THE SO-CALLED EINSATZ-GRUPPEN, CREATED AT THE DIRECTION OF ADOLF HITLER AND SS CHIEF HEINRICH HIMMLER IN MAY, 1941, SHORTLY BEFORE THE GERMAN ATTACK ON RUSSIA.

REPORTS OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE EINSATZ-GRUPPEN SHOWED THEY EXECUTED THEIR VICTIMS WITHOUT TRIAL EITHER BY MASS SHOOTING OR BY GASSING THEM IN SPECIAL BUILT TRUCKS OR VANS.

THE APPROVED SENTENCES INCLUDED TWO OF LIFE IMPRISONMENT. THE OTHERS RANGED FROM 20 YEARS TO TIME ALREADY SERVED.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, MARCH 7-(AP)-THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION'S GOVERNING BODY DECIDED TODAY TO INVESTIGATE THE SITUATION OF TRADE UNIONS IN VENEZUELA. IT WILL CONSIDER POSSIBLE ACTION AT THE NEXT MEETING OF THE BODY IN JUNE.

THE DECISION WAS TAKEN WITHOUT DISCUSSION UPON THE SUGGESTION OF DAVID A. MORSE, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF ILO. MORSE SAID THE UNITED NATIONS' ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL HAD BEFORE IT THE PROBLEM OF TRADE UNION MOVEMENTS IN CERTAIN OTHER COUNTRIES AND PROBABLY WOULD REFER THEM TO THE ILO FOR INVESTIGATION.

THE VENEZUELAN SITUATION WAS BROUGHT BEFORE THE ILO BY AUGUSTO MALAVA VILLABA, FORMER SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE VENEZUELAN CONFEDERATION OF WORKERS, WHO CHARGED IN A CABLE TO ILO THAT WORKERS WERE BEING PERSECUTED AND TRADE UNION PROPERTY CONFISCATED IN THAT COUNTRY.

COPENHAGEN,DENMARK,MARCH 7-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN SAID TODAY THE CURRENT WORLD SITUATION LEAVES ONLY TWO ROADS OPEN TO DENMARK--COMPLETE ISOLATION, OR THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

SPEAKING AT THE ANNUAL FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS' BANQUET IN COPENHAGEN, RASMUSSEN DECLARED:

"THE GOVERNMENT CAN HARDLY BELIEVE THAT WIDE CIRCLES IN DENMARK WOULD LINE UP BEHIND SUCH AN ISOLATION. THE GOVERNMENT CANNOT IN THE PRESENT SITUATION TAKE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF ADVISING THAT DENMARK SHOULD BE ALONE AND WITHOUT ARMS."

THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID DENMARK CONSIDERS TWO POINTS TO BE OF VITAL IMPORTANCE: FIRST, THAT THE ATLANTIC TREATY HAS ONLY PEACEFUL AND DEFENSIVE AIMS; AND SECOND, THAT IT IS FORGED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER.

RASMUSSEN SAID HE WILL GO TO WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY TO SEEK INFORMATION FROM THE U.S. GOVERNMENT ON THESE QUESTIONS. HE SAID HIS AIM WILL BE TO "FIND THE BEST POSSIBLE BASIS ON WHICH DENMARK CAN BUILD HER FINAL STANDPOINT TOWARDS THE PACT."

HE DID NOT SAY IN SO MANY WORDS THAT DENMARK INTENDS TO JOIN THE ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE BUT HE LEFT LITTLE DOUBT THAT WOULD BE THE FINAL RESULT.

COPENHAGEN,DENMARK,MARCH 7-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN TOLD DANES TONIGHT THERE IS NO DOUBT THEY MUST LOOK TO "THE ATLANTIC PACT OF PEACE AND DEFENSE."

THE ONLY OTHER ROAD, HE SAID IN A BROADCAST, IS "COMPLETE ISOLATION WITHOUT MILITARY AFFILIATION WITH OTHER POWERS."

"THE GOVERNMENT CAN HARDLY BELIEVE," HE ADDED, "THAT WIDE CIRCLES IN DENMARK WOULD LINE UP BEHIND SUCH AN ISOLATION."

HE SAID HE IS GOING TO WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY TO GAIN INFORMATION ON VITAL POINTS BEFORE DENMARK FINALLY MAKES UP HER MIND TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE.

AT THE SAME TIME THE PERMANENT COMMISSION OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION (BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG) ANNOUNCED IN LONDON IT HAD INVITED DENMARK, NORWAY, SWEDEN, EIRE AND ITALY TO ATTEND A LONDON CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS SETTING UP A COUNCIL OF EUROPE.

THE COUNCIL WOULD BE COMPOSED OF ONE MINISTER FROM EACH MEMBER NATION WITH POWER TO DISCUSS AND RECOMMEND SOLUTIONS ON ALL QUESTIONS BUT DEFENSE. A CONSULTATIVE PARLIAMENT WOULD HAVE POWER TO ADVISE THE COUNCIL. THE CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD ABOUT MARCH 28.

THE DANISH GOVERNMENT ALREADY HAD SAID IT WILL JOIN IN EXPLORATORY TALKS IN WASHINGTON ON THE ATLANTIC PACT. ALL PARTIES IN PARLIAMENT EXCEPT THE COMMUNISTS JOINED IN THE DECISION, CLOSE ON THE HEELS OF NORWAY WHO ALREADY HAS JOINED THE FORMAL NEGOTIATIONS IN WASHINGTON.

RASMUSSEN'S STATEMENT TONIGHT, HOWEVER, WAS THE MOST OUTSPOKEN ON THE SUBJECT YET MADE BY A DANISH LEADER.

HE TOLD THE DANISH PEOPLE THAT AS THE WORLD IS TODAY THEY COULD NOT BUILD THEIR EXISTENCE SOLELY "ON THE HOPE FOR PEACE AND RECONCILIATION AMONG THE NATIONS."

"TO THE GOVERNMENT THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT WE NOW MUST LOOK TOWARDS A COOPERATION WITH THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES AND THE ATLANTIC PACT OF PEACE AND DEFENSE," HE SAID.

LEAVING LITTLE DOUBT THAT DENMARK FINALLY WOULD DECIDE TO JOIN THE PACT, HE SAID THE "PRESENT TASK MUST BE TO INVESTIGATE IF IT (THE ALLIANCE) IS NOT THE SOLUTION THAT WILL GIVE US A MAXIMUM OF SECURITY, AND AROUND WHICH WE COULD RALLY THE GREAT MAJORITY OF THE DANISH PEOPLE."

THE TWO MAIN POINTS ON WHICH DENMARK MUST BE SATISFIED, HE ADDED, ARE THAT THE PROJECTED ALLIANCE HAS ONLY DEFENSIVE AIMS, AND THAT IT IS IN ACCORD WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

CONCERNING SECURITY, HE SAID "AN AGGRESSOR MUST KNOW THAT HE WILL HAVE TO FACE THE COMBINED ARMED FORCES OF ALL THE MEMBER NATIONS."

HE SAID "FOR A PERIOD BEYOND MAN'S MEMORY" IT HAD BEEN DANISH POLICY TO MAINTAIN HER PEACE, FREEDOM AND SOVEREIGNTY, AND THAT IT WAS "ABSURD" TO THINK SHE WOULD SHARE IN A POLICY WITH AGGRESSIVE AIMS.

MOSCOW, MARCH 7-(AP)-FOREIGN OBSERVERS HERE SPECULATED TODAY WHETHER THE DRAMATIC SHIFT IN SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTERS MIGHT BRING ABOUT NEW EFFORTS TO ARRANGE A MEETING OF THE BIG FOUR COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS.

TIED IN WITH THIS QUESTION WAS DISCUSSION OF WHETHER THE APPOINTMENT OF ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY AS SUCCESSOR TO V.M. MOLOTOV MIGHT LAY THE GROUNDWORK FOR ANOTHER TRY AT SOLVING THE BERLIN PROBLEM AND THE WHOLE GERMAN QUESTION.

MOLOTOV HANDLED THE LAST TOP-LEVEL DISCUSSIONS OF THE BERLIN SITUATION IN MOSCOW LAST SUMMER, BUT VISHINSKY WAS PRESENT AT MOST OF THE FOUR-POWER MEETINGS.

(THE RUSSIANS HAVE MADE A MEETING OF THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS ON ALL GERMAN PROBLEMS ONE OF THE CONDITIONS FOR LIFTING THEIR BERLIN BLOCKADE.)

THE APPOINTMENT OF ANDREI A. GROMYKO TO THE SECOND SPOT IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY MEANWHILE WAS VIEWED AS AN INDICATION NO SWEEPING CHANGE IN SOVIET POLICY IS IN PROSPECT.

GROMYKO HAS BEEN AN OUTSTANDING SPOKESMAN FOR THE POLICIES OF MOLOTOV, WHO, ON THE BASIS OF OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS SO FAR, CONTINUES IN HIS ALL-IMPORTANT JOBS AS FIRST DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MEMBER OF THE POLICY-MAKING POLITBURO.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF GROMYKO'S PROMOTION EARLY YESTERDAY CAUSED NO SURPRISE AT THE U.S. EMBASSY WHERE THE OPINION ALREADY HAD BEEN EXPRESSED THAT HE WAS A LIKELY CANDIDATE TO STEP INTO VISHINSKY'S SPOT.

GROMYKO, SMOOTH AND SOFT-SPOKEN, HAS BEEN A VICE MINISTER UNDER MOLOTOV SINCE DECEMBER, 1946. HE SERVED AS RUSSIA'S CHIEF DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS FROM 1946 TO 1948.

(IT WAS GROMYKO WHO STAGED THE DRAMATIC WALKOUT FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO EXPRESS THE SOVIET'S VIOLENT DISAPPROVAL OF THE COUNCIL'S CONSIDERATION OF THE IRANIAN CASE IN 1946.)

BEFORE TAKING OVER AT THE U.N., GROMYKO WAS AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA'S MOST IMPORTANT FOREIGN DIPLOMATIC POST, FROM 1943 TO NOV. 1946. HE SUCCEEDED MAXIM LITVINOFF AT WASHINGTON.

SINCE HIS RETURN TO MOSCOW LAST JULY HE HAS BEEN HEAD OF THE AMERICAN SECTION OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY.

TAKING OVER VISHINSKY'S JOB IS LIKELY TO MEAN THAT THE 40-YEAR-OLD GROMYKO WILL BE SEEN FREQUENTLY AT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

FOREIGN OBSERVERS PUZZLING OVER THE MEANING OF THE WEEK-END SHIFTS IN TOP SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY PERSONNEL RECEIVED NO CLUES FROM THE MOSCOW PRESS.

SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS CARRIED THE ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE PROMOTIONS OF VISHINSKY, GROMYKO AND M.A. MENSHIKOV ON THEIR FRONT PAGES -- BUT THERE WAS NO EDITORIAL COMMENT.

VISHINSKY, WITH HIS CUSTOMARY ENERGY, WENT ABOUT THE ROUTINE OF HIS NEW JOB. SATURDAY NIGHT HE WAS WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN WHEN THE SOVIET LEADER RECEIVED THE PREMIER OF THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (RUSSIAN-DOMINATED NORTH KOREA).

VISHINSKY'S NEW CHIEF DEPUTY, GROMYKO, ALSO LOST NO TIME IN TAKING OVER HIS NEW POST.

GROMYKO WAS PRESENT SATURDAY WHEN NIKOLAI SHVERNIK, CHAIRMAN OF THE PRESIDIUM OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, RECEIVED A FOREIGN DELEGATION.

RUSSIA'S NEW FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY IS A FREE-SWINGING ORATOR WHO PACKED IN CAPACITY CROWDS WHENEVER HE SPOKE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS.

HE ALWAYS SPEAKS IN A LOUD VOICE. SHOUTING IS HIS NORMAL FORM OF DELIVERY. AS HE WARMS UP, HIS ARMS WHIP THE AIR AND HIS VOICE GROWS EVEN LOUDER.

VISHINSKY TURNED IN WHAT MIGHT BE CONSIDERED HIS TOP SPEAKING PERFORMANCE IN HIS "WARMONGER" SPEECH AT THE 1947 U.N. ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK. HIS SPEECH RAN 8,000 WORDS AND TOOK ONE HOUR AND 33 MINUTES. HE PUT THE LABEL OF "WARMONGER" ON JOHN FOSTER DULLES, U.S. REPRESENTATIVE TO THE U.N., AND OTHERS.

EVERY NOW AND THEN VISHINSKY GETS OFF A VIVID PHRASE.

IN ONE BLAST AGAINST THE UNITED STATES HE CHARGED THE U.S. WITH PREPARING "A PEARL HARBOR" FOR RUSSIA.

HE ONCE ATTACKED A U.N. COMMITTEE REPORT ON THE BALKANS AS A "PILE OF GARBAGE." HE SAID U.N. BALKAN INVESTIGATORS WERE "AMATEUR SHERLOCK HOLMSES."

MAR 8 1949

A CUBAN OF ITALIAN DESCENT ONCE CHALLENGED VISHINSKY TO A DUEL FOR DEFINING THE ITALIAN SOLDIER AS A BETTER RUNNER THAN A FIGHTER.

IN AN ATTACK ON THE U.S. ATOMIC ENERGY POLICY VISHINSKY SHOUTED THAT THE U.N. MUST "BAN THAT HELL OF THE BOMB." ONCE, WITH SARCASM, HE REFERRED TO "THAT LITTLE BOMB".

WHEN DULLES CHARGED AT PARIS THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE TRYING TO ENCIRCLE THE WORLD VISHINSKY CRIED "BOSH" AND "FAIRY TALES."

VISHINSKY IS A TABLE THUMPER WHEN THE GOING GETS ROUGH, AND EVEN SITTING DOWN HE BOUNCES UP AND DOWN IN HIS CHAIR, WAVING HIS ARMS, DURING AN ARGUMENT.

MAR 8 1949

HE NEVER FORGETS HE ONCE WAS RUSSIA'S TOP PROSECUTOR. HE FIRST GAINED WORLD NOTICE AS PROSECUTOR IN THE MOSCOW PURGE TRIALS OF 1936 AND 1937.

VISHINSKY IS A SLIGHTLY BUILT MAN WITH GREY HAIR AND A RED FACE. HE WALKS WITH A NERVOUS, QUICK STEP. HE IS GENIAL OFF THE U.N. FLOOR.

HE DID SOME SURPRISING THINGS AT THE U.N. HE ONCE HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE FOR 2 1/2 HOURS WITH MORE THAN 500 PRESENT. HE TURNED UP AT ST. PATRICK'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN NEW YORK CITY FOR A SOLEMN MASS INTENDED TO INVOKE DIVINE GUIDANCE ON THE U.N. DELIBERATIONS.

HE STARTED OUT IN RUSSIA WITH THE MENSHEVIK MINORITY FACTION OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY WHICH LATER LOST TO THE BOLSHEVIKS, THE MORE LEFTIST OF THE TWO.

cairo, march 7-(ap)-egypt appeared today to have gained a vital foothold in running the suez canal--one of the world's most strategic waterways and richest financial undertakings.

official sources said the government has signed a new agreement with the suez canal company--international group which directs the waterway--that will bring into egyptian coffers more than $1,000,000 (m) a year in added taxes. it also will give the government a greater say in running the canal.

the agreement was signed by mamdouh riaz bey, egyptian commerce minister, and charles roux, board chairman of the suez canal company. it concluded several months' negotiations.

under the terms of the agreement egypt eventually will more than treble her total of directors in the company and staff the outfit with egyptian employes only.

government informants listed the main points of the agreement as follows:

1. taxes on the company's income will be increased to seven per cent. this will bring the amount collected by the government from 200,000 pounds ($800,000) to 500,000 pounds ($2,000,000).

2. egyptians will be appointed to fill three vacancies in the company's board of directors, bringing the total of egyptian directors to five. this number is to be gradually brought to 12 in time.

3. foreign employes will be replaced by egyptians according to proportions prescribed by egyptian law. however, the three-year period granted other companies to attain the proportions will be extended to an unspecified perio for the suez canal company.

4. foreign pilots will be gradually replaced by nationals graduated from the egyptian naval school.

5. fifty egyptians will be appointed as senior officials in the company.

6. egyptian products will be exempted from transit duties.

7. the company will build an auxiliary waterway to decrease traffic pressure in the main canal.

8. the company will waive refund of a loan of 106,000 pounds it had granted to the port said municipality.

the lockless canal, which runs between the red sea and the mediterranean, is so economically and militarily important that it is operated as an international project.

financially, however, it is a semi-private corporation. the suez canal company is made up of french, british, egyptian, american and dutch directors. it is registered as an egyptian company under egyptian law.

nobody knows who really "owns" the canal. there are 800,000 shares. in 1945 the british reportedly held 353,024, the others are scattered throughout the world, potentially holding the controlling interest in the canal.

the existing concession granted to ferdinand de lesseps in 1854 expires in 1968 when the canal will revert to the egyptian government.

CAIRO, EGYPT, MARCH 7-(AP)-THE SUEZ CANAL CO. AGREED TODAY TO GIVE EGYPT A BIGGER SHARE IN ITS MANAGEMENT, PAYROLLS AND PROFITS. THE CANAL IS ONE OF THE WORLD'S MOST IMPORTANT AND PROFITABLE WATERWAYS.

EGYPTIANS ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS WILL INCREASE GRADUALLY FROM THE PRESENT TWO TO SEVEN, UNDER AN AGREEMENT REACHED WITH THE CAIRO GOVERNMENT. HOWEVER, MOST OF THE 32 BOARD MEMBERS WILL CONTINUE TO BE FRENCH AND ENGLISH. ONE AMERICAN, S.PINKNEY TUCK, FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR TO EGYPT, IS ALSO A MEMBER.

MAHDOUH RIAD BEY, EGYPTIAN MINISTER OF TRADE AND COMMERCE, AND CHARLES ROUX, CHAIRMAN OF THE CANAL COMPANY BOARD, SIGNED AN AGREEMENT COVERING QUESTIONS RAISED BY EGYPT'S COMPANY LAW, PASSED IN 1947.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, RIAD BEY SAID THE PRINCIPLE WHICH GUIDED THE NEGOTIATIONS WAS THAT THE SUEZ CANAL SHOULD BECOME PART OF THE EGYPTIAN ECONOMY WITHOUT CAUSING ANY HARM TO THE CANAL MANAGEMENT."

HE ADDED IT WAS AGREED THAT EGYPTIANS SHOULD HOLD FOUR OUT OF FIVE TECHNICAL POSITIONS AND NINE OUT OF 10 ADMINISTRATIVE POSTS, SUCH AS CLERICAL AND SECRETARIAL JOBS.

UNDER THE AGREEMENT, RIAD BEY SAID, EGYPT WILL RECEIVE SEVEN PER CENT OF THE COMPANY'S TOTAL PROFITS BUT NOT LESS THAN THE PRESENT TAKE OF £355,000-EGYPTIAN ($1,473,250) ANNUALLY. THE NEW RATE WOULD BRING IN APPROXIMATELY £800,000-EGYPTIAN ($3,320,000) IN A YEAR LIKE 1948.

ADDITIONAL TAXES TO BE PAID EGYPT BY THE CANAL WILL TOTAL MORE THAN $1,000,000.

THE COMPANY AGREED TO BUILD A NEW CANAL 10 KILOMETERS LONG (A LITTLE MORE THAN 6 MILES) TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC ON THE MAIN CANAL AND PROMISED TO CONSTRUCT A NEW FISHING HARBOR AT PORT SAID.

FOREIGN PILOTS WILL GRADUALLY BE REPLACED BY NATIONALS GRADUATED FROM THE EGYPTIAN NAVAL SCHOOL.

FIFTY EGYPTIANS WILL BE APPOINTED AS SENIOR OFFICIALS IN THE COMPANY.

EGYPTIAN PRODUCTS WILL BE EXEMPTED FROM TRANSIT DUTIES.

THE LOCKLESS CANAL, WHICH RUNS BETWEEN THE RED SEA AND THE MEDITERRANEAN, IS SO ECONOMICALLY AND MILITARILY IMPORTANT THAT IT IS OPERATED AS AN INTERNATIONAL PROJECT.

NANKING, MARCH 7-(AP)-THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER YI SHIH PAO DEMANDED TODAY THAT THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT REJECT FURTHER AID FROM THE UNITED STATES, WHICH IT BLAMED FOR PROLONGING THE CIVIL WAR.

THE PAPER IS CONTROLLED BY ARCHBISHOP PAUL YUPIN, NOW ON AN EXTENDED VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES. (HE IS ON THE COMMUNISTS' LIST OF "WAR CRIMINALS," WHOSE PUNISHMENT THEY DEMAND AS A PRELUDE TO SETTLING THE WAR.)

(ARCHBISHOP YU-PIN (CORRECT) ISSUED A STATEMENT IN WASHINGTON IN WHICH HE DECLARED THAT WHILE HE HADN'T SEEN THE TEXT OF THE EDITORIAL, NEVERTHELESS:

("I CAN SAY DEFINITELY THAT THE VIEWS REPRESENTED IN THE DISPATCHES X X X ARE NOT MY VIEWS.

("I HAVE ALWAYS ADVOCATED," HE ADDED, "AND SHALL CONTINUE TO ADVOCATE, AMERICAN AID FOR CHINA IN HER STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST DOMINATION.

("THE YI SHIH-PAO IS OWNED BY A GROUP OF CHINESE CATHOLICS. AS PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE YI SHIH-PAO, I CAN SAY THE POLICY OF THIS PAPER HAS ALWAYS BEEN AND STILL IS ANTI-COMMUNIST.

("IT HAS ALWAYS CONSIDERED AMERICAN AID TO CHINA AS AN IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTION TO THE FREE PEOPLE OF CHINA IN THEIR STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST ARMED INVASION.

("THE YI SHIH-PAO IS PUBLISHED IN SIX CITIES IN CHINA. HOWEVER, THE PAPERS IN PEIPING AND TIENTSIN HAVE ALREADY BEEN CONFISCATED FOLLOWING THE COMMUNIST OCCUPATION OF THOSE CITIES.")

THE EDITORIAL, IN A PAPER WHICH ALWAYS HAS BEEN BITTERLY ANTI-COMMUNIST, CHARGED THE AMERICAN AID PROGRAM WAS POLITICAL INTERFERENCE IN CHINA AND WAS DESIGNED TO CARRY OUT AMERICAN MILITARY OBJECTIVES.

IT URGED ADOPTION OF A RESOLUTION NOW BEING DRAFTED BY 50 MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN FOR AN END TO AMERICAN AID.

YI SHIH PAO NOTED THAT, SINCE THE CURRENT ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION AID PROGRAM FOR CHINA IS DUE TO END IN APRIL "AND THERE IS NO HOPE FOR ANY NEW APPROPRIATION," THIS WOULD BE A GOOD TIME TO RENOUNCE AMERICAN ASSISTANCE.

(ROGER LAPHAM, ECA ADMINISTRATOR FOR CHINA, RECOMMENDED IN WASHINGTON LAST WEEK THAT THE PROGRAM BE CONTINUED AT THE CURRENT RATE OF ABOUT $20,000,000 (M) A MONTH.

(IN DISCUSSING THIS SITUATION ONLY SUNDAY, JAMES D. WHITE, ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS ANALYST NOW IN SHANGHAI, NOTED A GENERAL CHINESE FEELING THAT AMERICAN ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE WAS INDIRECTLY PROLONGING THE WAR. HOWEVER, HE ALSO NOTED THAT SUCH GREAT CITIES AS SHANGHAI AND NANKING WOULD VERY QUICKLY BE WITHOUT LIGHTS, HEAT OR WATER AND WOULD HAVE EXPLOSIVE HUNGER SITUATIONS ON THEIR HANDS IF ECA AID WERE SUSPENDED.

(A MAIL DISPATCH FROM NANKING, RECEIVED IN THE UNITED STATES TODAY, SAID AN EMERGENCY GRANT OF $12,000 BY THE ECA HAD PREVENTED NANKING'S HOSPITALS FROM CLOSING FEB. 23 FOR LACK OF FUNDS AND FUEL.)

PREMIER SUN FO IS SCHEDULED TO REPORT TUESDAY TO THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN ON HIS ADMINISTRATION.

ALTHOUGH FIGHTING HAS BEEN AT A STANDSTILL FOR MORE THAN TWO MONTHS, THE ISSUE F WAR OR PEACE REMAINED CONFUSED.

BOTH SIDES WERE REPORTED REINFORCING AND REORGANIZING THEIR ARMIES FOR POSSIBLE RESUMPTION OF LARGE-SCALE FIGHTING IF CURRENT PEACE EFFORTS FAIL.

NANKING, MARCH 7-(AP)-THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER, YI SHIH PAO, TODAY BLAMED AMERICAN AID FOR PROLONGING THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR.

THE NEWSPAPER, WHICH IS CONTROLLED BY ARCHBISHOP PAUL YUPIN, CALLED FOR AN IMMEDIATE END OF U.S. AID TO THE NATIONALISTS. THE ARCHBISHOP IS ON AN EXTENDED VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES.

YI SHIH PAO IN THE PAST HAS TAKEN A BITTER ANTI-COMMUNIST LINE.

IT CHARGED IN THE EDITORIAL THAT RECENT AMERICAN AID HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO CARRY OUT UNITED STATES MILITARY OBJECTIVES IN CHINA. THE EDITORIAL CHARGED THE CURRENT U.S. PROGRAM REPRESENTS POLITICAL INTERFERENCE IN CHINA.

YI SHIH PAO'S EDITORIAL WAS IN SUPPORT OF A RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY LEGISLATOR HSI CHENG-TO AND SOME 50 OTHER LAWMAKERS. THE RESOLUTION, BEING DRAFTED, WILL ASK THE GOVERNMENT TO STOP RECEIVING FURTHER AID FROM THE UNITED STATES.

THE NEWSPAPER SAID SUCH A STEP BY THE NATIONALISTS WOULD SHOW "SINCERITY FOR THE PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF THE CIVIL WAR WITH THE COMMUNISTS."

THE EDITORIAL CONCLUDED THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD TAKE SUCH ACTION "PARTICULARLY SINCE AT THE PRESENT TIME FUNDS ALREADY APPROPRIATED BY THE UNITED STATES FOR CHINA WILL SOON BE EXHAUSTED AND THERE IS NO HOPE FOR ANY NEW APPROPRIATION."

THE U.S. APPROPRIATION OF $400,000,000 (M) FOR AID TO CHINA IS SCHEDULED TO BE EXHAUSTED NEXT MONTH. ROGER LAPHAM, AMERICAN AID TO CHINA DIRECTOR, IS IN THE UNITED STATES DISCUSSING NEW HELP NOW.

MEANWHILE THE NANKING GARRISON COMMANDER, GEN. CHANG YAO-MIN, ANNOUNCED THE SUSPENSION OF THE NATIONAL SALVATION DAILY, A NANKING NEWSPAPER, WOULD CONTINUE FOR THREE DAYS. THE NEWSPAPER WAS SUSPENDED SATURDAY FOR SUGGESTING THAT CHIANG KAI-SHEK, THE RETIRED PRESIDENT, KEEP HANDS OFF CHINESE AFFAIRS AND GET OUT OF THE COUNTRY. CHIANG, THE PAPER SAID, WAS HINDERING PEACE EFFORTS.

ITS EDITOR, KUNG TEH-PO, WHO WAS JAILED, WILL BE GIVEN A STERN WARNING, THE NANKING COMMANDER SAID.

MANCHURIAN LEGISLATOR LI FUNG PROPOSED TO ASK THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN TOMORROW TO MOVE THE CAPITAL BACK FROM CANTON TO NANKING. LI'S RESOLUTION LIKELY WILL BE PROPOSED AFTER PREMIER SUN FO DELIVERS HIS ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT TOMORROW.

SUN HAS BEEN SHARPLY CRITICIZED BY SOME LAWMAKERS FOR FLEEING TO CANTON WITH HIS CABINET.

IN CANTON ONE OF CHIANG'S STRONGEST BACKERS, KU CHIU-PING, WARNED AGAINST SURRENDER TO THE COMMUNISTS. KU, ORGANIZATION DIRECTOR OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, DENOUNCED THE SORT OF PEACE ACCEPTED AT PEIPING BY NATIONALIST GEN. FU TSO-YI.

KU SAID NATIONALISTS MUST OVERCOME THEIR PRESENT ATTITUDE OF "DEFEATISM AND SURRENDER." SPEAKING AT A PARTY MEETING HE BRANDED AS "WISHFUL THINKING" PREDICTIONS THAT COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG WOULD SET UP A CHINA FREE OF TIES WITH SOVIET RUSSIA.

CHIANG'S FRIEND SAID THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY IS A SATELLITE OF MOSCOW IN ACCORD WITH COMINFORM PLANS FOR WORLD REVOLUTION.

DISPATCHES TO NANKING NEWSPAPERS SAID 5,000 "BANDITS" HAD BLOCKED ROAD COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN THE PROVINCES OF YUNAN AND KWEICHOW. THE NEWS ACCOUNTS SAID THE IMPORTANT HIGHWAY JUNCTION OF CHUANWEI IN EASTERN YUNAN HAD BEEN OCCUPIED BY THE "BANDITS," USUAL NATIONALIST TERM FOR COMMUNISTS.

CHUNGKING PACIFICATION HEADQUARTERS REPORTEDLY WAS PLANNING TO CONSCRIPT MEN TO INCREASE THE FORCES UNDER ITS JURISDICTION. CHUNGKING HEADQUARTERS IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PROVINCES OF YUNNAN, SIKIANG, KWEICHOW AND SZECHWAN.

BY ROBERT BUNNELLE (300)

OTTAWA, MARCH 7-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER LOUIS ST. LAURENT TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY CANADA IS STUDYING NEW LAWS TO CURB COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES.

THE COMMUNIST PARTY AS SUCH WAS OUTALWED DURING THE WAR. HOWEVER, THE LABOR PROGRESSIVE PARTY WAS FORMED IN 1943 AT A MEETING IN TORONTO OF FORMER COMMUNIST MEMBERS. ITS LEADER IS TIM BUCK, LEADER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. LABOR PROGRESSIVE LEADERS OFTEN CRITICIZE BOTH THE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC POLICIES OF THE COUNTRY.

ST.LAURENT SAID THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IS STUDYING VARIOUS STATEMENTS LABOR PROGRESSIVE HAVE MADE TO SEE IF THEY VIOLATE PRESENT LAWS.

THE QUESTION WAS RAISED BY GEORGE DREW, LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PARTY. IN A LETTER TO THE PRIME MINISTER HE CALLED ATTENTION TO RECENT STATEMENTS BY EUROPEAN AND U. S. COMMUNIST LEADERS. THESE STATEMENTS, DREW SAID, GIVE SIGNIFICANCE TO PAST COMMUNIST DECLARATIONS IN CANADA, ADDING:

"THEY MEAN THAT IN EVERY FREE NATION, COMMUNISTS WILL DO ALL IN THEIR POWER TO SABOTAGE PREPARATIONS FOR DEFENSE AND SELL OUT THEIR COUNTRY TO RUSSIA."

BUCK ISSUED A STATEMENT OVER THE WEEK-END CHARGING:

"UNITED STATES IMPERIALISM IS THE SOURCE AND DRIVING FORCE OF ALL THE AGITATION IN FAVOR OF WAR. X X X WE ARE FIGHTING TO KEEP CANADA OUT OF WAR. THAT IS WHY WE OPPOSE CANADA'S SIGNING OF THE ATLANTIC WAR PACT. THAT IS WHY WE URGE THAT ALL UNITED STATES TROOPS BE WITHDRAWN FROM CANADA. THE LABOR PROGRESSIVE PARTY IS OPPOSED TO AN IMPERIALIST ATTEMPT TO DESTROY SOCIALISM BY WAR."

BUCK'S STATEMENT MADE NO RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO WHAT CANADIAN COMMUNISTS SHOULD DO IF CANADA GOES TO WAR.

A BILL WAS INTRODUCED IN PARLIAMENT EARLIER THIS SESSION BY WILFRID LACROIX, OF QUEBEC, INDEPENDENT LIBERAL, AIMED AT COMMUNISTS. THIS BILL WOULD MAKE IT ILLEGAL "FOR ANY PERSON TO ATTEMPT IN ANY MANNER TO ESTABLISH IN CANADA A TOTALITARIAN DICTATORSHIP," DIRECTED BY FOREIGN POWERS OR PERSONS, OR TO PROMOTE SUCH AN ESTABLISHMENT.

THEN, HE MOVED TO GET THE TRIAL UNDERWAY BY SAYING "LET'S HAVE THE JURORS IN HERE." New York - TRIAL - XXX TRIAL

BUT ISSERMAN ALREADY WAS ON HIS FEET TO ASK DISMISSAL OF THE INDICTMENT ON ANOTHER GROUND--THAT IT FAILED TO CHRGE AN OVERT ACT.

JUDGE MEDINA DENIED THIS MOTION ALSO, POINTING OUT THAT IT HAD BEEN TURNED DOWN ALREADY AT A PRE-TRIAL HEARING BEFORE ANOTHER JUDGE.

THE TRIAL PRELIMINARIES HAVE CONSUMED SEVEN WEEKS. FOR NEARLY TWO MONTHS, THE DEFENSE ARGUED THAT THE METHOD OF PICKING JURIES IN THE SOUTHERN NEW YORK DISTRICT DISCRIMINATED AGAINST CERTAIN MINORITY GROUPS.

JUDGE MEDINA RULED, HOWEVER, THAT THE DEFENSE FAILED TO PROVE ANY DISCRIMINATION.

THE 11 COMMUNIST LEADERS FACE MAXIMUM PENALTIES OF 10 YEARS IN PRISON AND $10,000 FINES IF CONVICTED. THEY ARE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRING TO ADVOCATE OVERTHROW BY FORCE OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 7-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT BY A 4-4 VOTE TODAY UPHELD FOR THE SECOND TIME THE CONVICTION OF CARL ALDO MARZANI ON A CHARGE THAT HE CONCEALED COMMUNIST PARTY ACTIVITIES FROM GOVERNMENT LOYALTY EXAMINERS.

MARZANI WAS A WARTIME EMPLOYE OF THE HUSH-HUSH OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES AND OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT. HE WAS ACCUSED OF FALSELY REPRESENTING TO A SUPERIOR IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT THAT HE NEVER HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND NEVER HAD USED THE NAME "TONY WHALES."

THE SUPREME COURT BY A 4 TO 4 VOTE LAST DECEMBER 20 AFFIRMED HIS CONVICTION. JUSTICE DOUGLAS TOOK NO PART IN THE DECEMBER ACTION. NO OPINION WAS DELIVERED, AS IS CUSTOMARY IN THE EVENT OF A TIE VOTE. MARZANI'S ATTORNEYS THEN ASKED A REHEARING. IT WAS HELD FEBRUARY 28, WITH DOUGLAS AGAIN DISQUALIFYING HIMSELF.

TODAY'S SECOND VOTE OF AFFIRMANCE FOLLOWED THE RE-HEARING. AGAIN NO OPINION WAS DELIVERED.

IN ASKING FOR A NEW HEARING, MARZANI'S LAWYERS URGED DOUGLAS TO SIT IN ON THE CASE. THEY ALSO NOTED THAT JUSTICE JACKSON WAS NOT ON THE BENCH DURING THE FIRST ARGUMENT, ALTHOUGH HE TOOK PART IN THE FIRST 4 TO 4 VOTE. THEY ASKED JACKSON TO LISTEN TO THE SECOND ARGUMENT. THIS HE DID.

THE POSITION OF THE INDIVIDUAL JUDGES ON TIE VOTES IS NEVER DISCLOSED.

MARZANI WAS SENTENCED IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT HERE TO ONE TO THREE YEARS' IMPRISONMENT. THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS PREVIOUSLY HAD UPHELD THE CONVICTION.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT IN URGING THE SUPREME COURT TO DO LIKEWISE SAID MARZANI DURING WARTIME GOVERNMENT SERVICE HAD HANDLED DOCUMENTS CONTAINING MILITARY SECRETS.

MARZANI'S DENIAL OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES WAS SAID TO HAVE BEEN MADE AFTER HE RECEIVED NOTICE THAT HE WAS BEING ASKED TO RESIGN FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT JOB FOR "SECURITY REASONS." THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT CONTENDED THAT UNDER THE NAME "TONY WHALES" HE ONCE SERVED AS A COMMONIST ORGANIZER IN NEW YORK CITY.

BORN IN ITALY, MARZANI WAS GRADUATED FROM A SCRANTON, PA., HIGH SCHOOL. HE LATER RECEIVED DEGREES FROM WILLIAMS COLLEGE AND OXFORD UNIVERSITY. AT ONE TIME HE WAS AN ECONOMICS INSTRUCTOR AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

ORIGINALLY CONVICTED ON 11 COUNTS OF MAKING FALSE STATEMENTS TO THE GOVERNMENT, MARZANI WON DISMISSAL OF NINE OF THE COUNTS WHEN THE COURT OF APPEALS ACTED ON HIS CASE. THE APPEALS COURT KNOCKED OUT THOSE COUNTS UNDER THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. THE REMAINING TWO COUNTS CONCERNED THE DENIALS MADE TO HIS STATE DEPARTMENT SUPERIOR.

NEW YORK, MARCH 7-(AP)-TWO TOP LEADERS OF THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY URGED TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES SIGN "A PACT OF FRIENDSHIP AND PEACE WITH OUR GREAT WARTIME ALLY, THE SOVIET UNION."

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, COMMUNIST NATIONAL CHAIRMAN, AND EUGENE DENNIS, GENERAL SECRETARY, MADE THE PROPOSAL IN AN OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN WHICH THEY LIKENED THEMSELVES TO LINCOLN AND JEFFERSON AS ADVOCATES OF PEACE.

THE TWO COMMUNISTS SAID THEIR LETTER WAS A REPLY TO "THE PRESIDENT'S REFERENCE TO THEIR STATEMENT OF MARCH 2 AS THAT OF 'TRAITORS.'"

"IS ADVOCACY OF PEACE TREASON?" THE LETTER ASKED.

FOSTER AND DENNIS ASSAILED WHAT THEY CALLED "AN AGGRESSIVE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT -- A RESURRECTED ANTI-COMMUNIST AXIS," AND URGED A PACT BETWEEN THE U.S. AND RUSSIA AS A WAY TO "PEACE AND SECURITY FOR AMERICA AND THE WORLD."

"ON OUR PART, WE COMMUNISTS WILL DEFEND IN THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST THE HIGHEST INTERESTS OF OUR COUNTRY," THEY SAID. "WE WILL DEFEND IN THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST OUR PEOPLE FROM ALL ENEMIES, WITHIN AND WITHOUT."

THE LETTER SAID "NEITHER THE AMERICAN PEOPLE NOR THE SOVIET UNION IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PRESENT WORLD TENSION. RESPONSIBILITY RESTS SQUARELY ON WALL STREET AND ITS BI-PARTISAN PUPPETS."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN LAST WEEK TOOK EXCEPTION TO A STATEMENT BY FOSTER AND DENNIS CALLING ON AMERICAN COMMUNISTS TO "COOPERATE WITH ALL DEMOCRATIC FORCES TO DEFEAT THE PREDATORY WAR AIMS OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM" IN THE EVENT "WALL STREET" PROVOKED WAR.

WHEN ASKED FOR COMMENT, MR. TRUMAN SAID: "I HAVE NO COMMENT ON A STATEMENT MADE BY TRAITORS."

FOSTER AND DENNIS ARE UNDER FEDERAL CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO ADVOCATE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT. DENNIS IS ON TRIAL WITH TEN OTHER COMMUNIST LEADERS, BUT TRIAL OF FOSTER WAS SEPARATED BECAUSE OF HIS POOR HEALTH.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 7-(AP)-A SUIT ASSAILING THE GOVERNMENT'S LOYALTY CHECKUP AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL WAS FILED IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT TODAY.

THE PLAINTIFFS WERE 26 POSTAL EMPLOYES INVOLVED IN VARIOUS STAGES OF THE INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURE ESTABLISHED TO DETERMINE THE LOYALTY OF FEDERAL EMPLOYEES. THEY CONTENDED THEY HAD BEEN UNJUSTLY ACCUSED AND DEPRIVED OF BASIC AMERICAN RIGHTS.

THEY ASKED THE COURT TO DECLARE THE PROGRAM UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

REPRESENTED IN THE ACTION WERE WORKERS FROM CLEVELAND, PHILADELPHIA, DETROIT, NEW YORK CITY AND PLAINFIELD, N.J.

THEY INCLUDED 12 NEGROES AND EIGHT JEWS, AND O.JOHN ROGGE, THEIR ATTORNEY, SAID IN THIS CONNECTION THAT THE PROGRAM HAD BEEN USED AS AN INSTRUMENT FOR RACIAL AND MINORITY GROUP DISCRIMINATION, "ESPECIALLY IN THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT."

"THEY ARE NOT AFTER COMMUNISTS," ROGGE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER FILING THE SUIT. "THEY ARE AFTER LIBERALS."

HE SAID, IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, THAT NONE OF THE COMPLAINANTS HAD YET TAKEN HIS CASE THROUGH THE LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD OF 22 CITIZENS WHICH ACTS AS THE "SUPREME COURT" ON LOYALTY APPEALS.

HOWEVER, THE SUIT NAMED MEMBERS OF THE REVIEW BOARD AS DEFENDANTS, ALONG WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK, POSTMASTER GENERAL JESSE M. DONALDSON, AND THE THREE-MAN POST OFFICE LOYALTY BOARD.

BERTRAM A. WASHINGTON OF CLEVELAND, A NEGRO, WHO IS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF A NEWLY FORMED "FEDERAL EMPLOYEES DEFENSE COMMITTEE," TOLD REPORTERS THE REVIEW BOARD WAS NAMED BECAUSE IT HAD SET UP THE CHECKING PROCEDURE ATTACKED IN THE SUIT.

THE SUIT CONTENDED THAT THIS PROCEDURE VIOLATES AT LEAST FOUR SECTIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION GUARANTEEING FREEDOM OF SPEECH, THOUGHT, ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION AND PROTECTION AGAINST DISCRIMINATION ON ACCOUNT OF RACE, COLOR OR CREED.

WASHINGTON SAID HE HAS HAD 23 YEARS SERVICE AS A POSTAL CLERK AND HAD BEEN "FALSELY ACCUSED" OF ATTENDING A COMMUNIST GATHERING IN CLEVELAND. HE SAID THAT ON THE DAY INVOLVED, HE WAS AT A ROUTINE MONTHLY MEETING OF POSTAL WORKERS.

AMONG THE PLAINTIFFS WAS LOUIS STOVACK OF DETROIT, CHAIRMAN OF THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE OF THE AFL FEDERATION OF POSTAL CLERKS.

A FORMAL STATEMENT BY THE DEFENSE COMMITTEE SAID THAT ALTHOUGH STOVACK "BOASTS OF HIS ANTI-COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES," HE HAD BEEN ACCUSED OF "SYMPATHETIC ASSOCIATION" WITH COMMUNISTS BECAUSE HE ATTENDED A BALL SPONSORED BY THE MICHIGAN YOUTH CONGRESS 12 YEARS AGO.

ROGGE CONTENDED THAT SOME OF THE LOYALTY INVESTIGATIONS HAVE GONE INTO THE INTIMATE DETAILS OF MARITAL RELATIONSHIPS AND THE POLITICAL VIEWS OF RELATIVES NOT CONNECTED WITH THE FEDERAL PAYROLL.

DESCRIBING PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S 1946 EXECUTIVE ORDER SETTING UP THE LOYALTY CHECK AS "SO VAGUE AND INDEFINITE AS TO BE INCAPABLE OF COMPREHENSION," ROGGE, A FORMER ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL, ASSERTED:

"WE WANT THE PROGRAM ABOLISHED. BEFORE IT WAS BROUGHT FORWARD, WE HAD OUR CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION AND OTHER PROCEDURES TO ASSURE ABLE, LOYAL EMPLOYES IN THE GOVERNMENT."

SPIES

BY DOUGLAS B.CORNELL

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD) SAID TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS HAS HIRED SOME PEOPLE WHO WERE FIRED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AS SECURITY RISKS.

NAMES OF SEVERAL SUCH PERSONS, MUNDT SAID, ARE IN THE FILES OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE. THE SENATOR IS A FORMER MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE.

FOR SOME TIME, THE COMMITTEE HAS HAD INVESTIGATORS TRYING TO FIND OUT WHETHER FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS HAVE BEEN USING THE UNITED NATIONS AS A SHIELD FOR SPYING ON THIS COUNTRY.

"I BELIEVE," MUNDT TOLD REPORTERS, "WE SHOULD TAKE UP WITH THE UNITED NATIONS THE QUESTION OF AMERICANS WHO ARE EMPLOYED BY IT AND GET AN AGREEMENT THAT WHEN AMERICANS ARE HIRED, THEY WILL BE SCREENED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT."

MUNDT SAID HE THOUGHT THAT FRANCE, FOR INSTANCE, OR EVEN RUSSIA, SHOULD HAVE THE RIGHT TO SCREEN FRENCH OR RUSSIAN EMPLOYES WHO ARE PUT ON U.N. ROLLS.

"BUT WHEN AMERICANS ARE HIRED," HE SAID, "WE SHOULD BE SURE THEY REPRESENT THE AMERICAN POINT OF VIEW."

HIS REMARKS WERE ANOTHER AFTERMATH OF A SPY CASE WHICH BROKE OVER THE WEEK-END. IT DEVELOPED THIS WAY:

JUDITH COPLON, A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE AND VALENTINE A. GUBITCHEV, A RUSSIAN ENGINEER ON THE U.N. STAFF, WERE ARRESTED BY THE FBI IN NEW YORK FRIDAY NIGHT. THEY WERE ACCUSED OF STEALING AMERICAN SECRETS INVOLVING SECURITY DATA.

IN MISS COPLON'S PURSE THE FBI FOUND A PACKAGE OF TYPEWRITTEN SUMMARIES OF INFORMATION FROM CONFIDENTIAL PAPERS.

ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK ANNOUNCED THE ARRESTS SATURDAY.

A FEW HOURS LATER IT BECAME KNOWN THAT THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HAD RECEIVED A REPORT FROM AN INVESTIGATOR IN SEPTEMBER, 1946, MENTIONING MISS COPLON AND SEVERAL OTHER PERSONS IN THE OFFICE WHERE SHE WORKED. THE REPORT SAID THIS WAS THE OFFICE OF ALIEN REGISTRATION. HOWEVER, A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL SAID SHE WAS ASSIGNED TO THE FOREIGN AGENTS REGISTRATION DIVISION ONLY ABOUT 18 MONTHS AGO. SHE PREVIOUSLY WORKED IN THE ANTI TRUST DIVISION IN NEW YORK.

THE REPORT WAS DRAFTED BY A COMMITTEE INVESTIGATOR ON THE BASIS OF INFORMATION OBTAINED BY A FORMER EMPLOYE IN THE OFFICE. IT SAID THAT EVERY THING PRO-SOVIET WAS PRAISED IN THE DIVISION AND ANYTHING ANTI-RUSSIAN WAS CONDEMNED.

REPRESENTATIVE NIXON (R-CALIF), A COMMITTEE MEMBER, TOOK A LOOK AT THE REPORT. HE SAID THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT HAD BEEN INFORMED OF WHAT THE COMMITTEE HAD LEARNED BUT DID NOTHING ABOUT IT AND BLOCKED ATTEMPTS TO OBTAIN MORE INFORMATION.

HE DEMANDED AN IMMEDIATE, FULL SCALE INVESTIGATION.

NIXON SAID THE DEPARTMENT HAD SHOWN "SHOCKING, INEXCUSABLE LAXITY." HE QUESTIONED WHETHER IT WAS FIT AND QUALIFIED TO GUARD NATIONAL SECURITY AGAINST RED INFILTRATION.

THE COMMITTEE MAY MEET TOMORROW TO DECIDE WHETHER TO MOVE IN ON THE CASE.

A SUBCOMMITTEE MAY BE NAMED THIS WEEK TO CONSIDER LEGISLATION TO CURB COMMUNISM. REP.WALTER (D-PA) IS EXPECTED TO BECOME CHAIRMAN.

WALTER IS WORKING ON A BILL THAT WOULD PERMIT THE UNITED STATES TO TAKE AWAY THE CITIZENSHIP OF FORMER ALIENS WHO ARE COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS. HE SAYS HE UNDERSTANDS THAT WOULD CATCH ABOUT 15 PER CENT OF THE PARTY MEMBERSHIP, REPORTED BY COMMUNIST LEADERS AT AROUND 70,000.

(650) NIGHT LEAD INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-A WHOPPING HOUSE VOTE SENT TO THE SENATE TODAY A "HIGHLY SECRET" BILL TO HELP U.S. INTELLIGENCE AGENTS FISH OUT INFORMATION FROM BEHIND THE SOVIET IRON CURTAIN.

THIS PURPOSE WAS NOT ADMITTED OPENLY, DURING THE GUARDED BUT BRISK 40-MINUTE DEBATE, BUT WAS EXPLAINED PRIVATELY TO NEWSMEN BY CONGRESSIONAL AIDES FAMILIAR WITH THE BILL.

THE MEASURE PASSED 348 TO 4 ON A ROLLCALL VOTE.

VOTING "NO" WERE REPS.MARCANTONIO (ALP-NY), POWELL (D-NY), BOSONE (D-UTAH), AND MORRIS (D-OKLA).

THE BILL WOULD ESTABLISH THE U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY WITH PERMANENT STATUTORY AUTHORITY. IT OPERATES NOW UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDERS AND EMERGENCY WAR POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT.

IT WOULD ALSO ALLOW THE AGENCY TO BRING INTO THE UNITED STATES ALIENS WHO SUPPLY AMERICAN AGENTS WITH VITAL INFORMATION. THE AGENCY COULD BRING IN UP TO 100 A YEAR AS A REWARD FOR THEIR HELP--AND TO PROTECT THEIR LIVES. THEY WOULD BE ELIGIBLE FOR PERMANENT RESIDENCE AND CITIZENSHIP, BUT WOULD BE SUBJECT TO DEPORTATION IF THEY MISBEHAVE AFTER ARRIVING IN THIS COUNTRY.

AT LEAST TWO IMPORTANT SOURCES OF INFORMATION COULD BE TAPPED BY THIS MEANS, REPORTERS WERE TOLD:

1. OFFICIALS, AND FORMER OFFICIALS, OF WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES NOW IN THE GRIP OF COMMUNIST REGIMES MIGHT BE WILLING TO TALK TO U.S. AGENTS IF THEY AND THEIR FAMILIES COULD BE PROMISED SANCTUARY IN THIS COUNTRY.

2. THE PROSPECT OF U.S. CITIZENSHIP WOULD BE AN ATTRACTIVE REWARD FOR ALIEN OPERATIVES WILLING TO GO BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN AND POSE AS COMMUNISTS TO GET INFORMATION.

MOST OF THE OPPOSITION TO THE BILL CENTERED ON THE "REWARD" FEATURE. MARCANTONIO SAID IT MIGHT BE USED "TO BRING IN PEOPLE THAT A DEMOCRACY SUCH AS OURS WOULD WANT TO SPEW OUT."

REP.CELLER (D-NY), CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, PROTESTED THAT THE BILL WOULD "THROW OUT OF THE WINDOW ALL IMMIGRATION RESTRICTIONS."

"FASCISTS, COMMUNISTS, SYPHILITICS AND LEPERS COULD BE BROUGHT IN," CELLAR DECLARED. "THIS BILL ILLUSTRATES HOW THE COLD WAR IS UNHINGING THE NERVES OF SOME OF OUR HIGH MILITARY AUTHORITIES."

THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE BROUGHT THE BILL TO THE FLOOR WITH A STATEMENT THAT IT COULD NOT BE COMPLETELY EXPLAINED IN OPEN DEBATE.

"HOWEVER, THE COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES RECEIVED A COMPLETE EXPLANATION OF ALL FEATURES OF THE PROPOSED MEASURE," THE STATEMENT SAID. "THE COMMITTEE IS SATISFIED THAT ALL SECTIONS OF THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION ARE FULLY JUSTIFIED."

MARCANTONIO ATTACKED THIS, SAYING CONGRESS HAS NEVER BEFORE BEEN ASKED TO VOTE ON LEGISLATION WITHOUT AN EXPLANATION. THE SECRECY SURROUNDING THE MEASURE, HE SAID, "MAKES EVERY SECTION OF THE BILL SUSPECT."

REP.SASSCER (D-MD) SAID THE UNUSUAL IMMIGRATION AUTHORITY IN THE BILL IS NECESSARY IF THE AGENCY IS TO GET IN TOUCH WITH PEOPLE WHO HAVE INFORMATION "BECAUSE THOSE PEOPLE CAN ONLY CONTACT AMERICANS ONCE."

"IF THEY TRY TO GO BACK AGAIN," HE SAID, "THEIR HEADS MAY BE CUT OFF."

REP.SHORT (R-MO) DEFENDED THE SECRECY PROCEDURE, THOUGH ADMITTING HE DID NOT LIKE IT.

"IT WOULD BE SUPREME FOLLY FOR US TO DISCUSS EVERY PHASE AND RAMIFICATION OF THIS BILL HERE," SHORT COMMENTED.

THE BILL WOULD ALLOW THE CIA TO KEEP ITS BUDGET SECRET, AS AT PRESENT. THE INTELLIGENCE BUDGET IS HIDDEN NOW IN THE BUDGETS OF SEVERAL EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS.

THE AGENCY ALSO WOULD NOT HAVE TO ACCOUNT PUBLICLY FOR THE WAY IT SPENDS ITS MONEY. IT DOES NOT ACCOUNT FOR ITS SPENDING NOW, BUT ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE STAFF EXPERTS SAID ITS PRESENT PROCEDURE IS NOT SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZED IN ANY LAW.

THE AGENCY'S PAYROLL, AND OTHER DETAILS ABOUTS ITS ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS, SUCH AS PURCHASES, WOULD ALSO REMAIN SECRET.

IT WOULD BE PERMITTED TO ASSIGN ITS AGENTS FOR RESEARCH, STUDY OR TRAINING, TO PUBLIC OR PRIVATE INSTITUTIONS IN THIS COUNTRY AND ABROAD, OR TO TRADE, LABOR, AGRICULTURAL OR SCIENTIFIC ASSOCIATIONS, THE ARMED SERVICES, OR COMMERCIAL FIRMS. THE AGENCY WOULD PAY TUITION AND EXPENSES FOR THIS TYPE OF WORK.

THE BILL WOULD PERMIT THE AGENCY'S DIRECTOR TO SET UP THREE SPECIAL SCIENTIFIC AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS, AND TO PAY BETWEEN $10,000 AND $15,000 A YEAR TO PERSONS APPOINTED TO THEM.

THIS AUTHORITY, THE BILL SAYS, WOULD BE USED "TO EFFECTUATE THOSE SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE FUNCTIONS RELATING TO NATIONAL SECURITY WHICH REQUIRE THE SERVICES OF SPECIFICALLY QUALIFIED SCIENTIFIC OR PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL."

WASHINGTON, MARCH 7-(AP)-A SENATE ARMED SERVICE SUBCOMMITTEE APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY TODAY A BILL TO PROTECT AMERICAN SECRET CODES.

FIRST, IT MADE CHANGES WHICH UNDERSECRETARY OF THE NAVY W.JOHN KENNEY SAID WOULD MEET OBJECTIONS VOICED AGAINST THE ORIGINAL BILL BY THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS.

THE COMMITTEE MADE PUBLIC A LETTER FROM ERWIN D.CANHAM, PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY, WHICH SAID THAT WITH THE CHANGES "THE BILL IS ENTIRELY UNOBJECTIONABLE FROM OUR VIEWPOINT."

THE MEASURE WOULD FIX MAXIMUM PENALTIES OF 10 YEARS IN PRISON AND $10,000 FINE FOR PERSONS WHO DISCLOSE INFORMATION ABOUT AMERICAN CODES OR CRYPTOGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION METHODS.

KENNEY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT THE REVISED MEASURE WOULD NOT OUTLAW PUBLICATION OF THE CONTENTS OF A DECODED MESSAGE.

ONE OF THE OBJECTIONS RAISED BY THE NEWSPAPER EDITORS WAS THAT THE ORIGINAL BILL WAS INTERPRETED AS OUTLAWING SUCH PUBLICATION. THE EDITORS SAID THAT SECTION COULD BE USED TO BAR PUBLICATION OF INFORMATION TO WHICH THE PUBLIC WAS ENTITLED.

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-WESTERN GOVERNMENTS STILL PUZZLING OVER THE MOSCOW FOREIGN MINISTRY SHAKEUP ARE ACTING SPEEDILY TO BOLSTER THEIR "FRONTIER" AGAINST COMMUNISM.

THE MAIN CONVICTION IN WASHINGTON, LONDON AND PARIS IS SUMMED UP BY DIPLOMATS THIS WAY: WHETHER MOSCOW'S DIPLOMACY TOWARD THE WEST GETS TOUGHER, SOFTER OR CONTINUES UNCHANGED THE PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY OF THE WESTERN POWERS NOW IS TO BE PREPARED TO MEET ANY CONTINGENCY.

ACTUALLY MANY RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITIES HERE BELIEVE THAT THE REMOVAL OF V.M.MOLOTOV FROM THE FOREIGN MINISTRY AND HIS REPLACEMENT BY ANDREI VISHINSKY, A MAN OF LESSER STANDING IN RUSSIA, MEANS THAT THE SOVIETS ARE ABOUT TO INTENSIFY THEIR INTERNAL PROGRAMS AND LET UP ON COMMUNIST EXPANSION TEMPORARILY. THIS MAY MEAN A NEW PERIOD OF EXTREME RUSSIAN ISOLATIONISM.

IT MAY ALSO MEAN FURTHER COMMUNIST CRACKDOWNS ON THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES OF EASTERN EUROPE TO SECURE ABSOLUTE CONTROL OVER THE GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLES OF THE REGION. SPECULATION CONTINUES HERE THAT MOSCOW MAY BE MOVING GRADUALLY TOWARD ABSOLUTE ABSORPTION OF SOME OF THE EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES INTO THE SOVIET UNION.

IN ADDITION, A FEW HIGHLY PLACED INFORMANTS PRIVATELY BELIEVE THAT PREMIER STALIN AND HIS ASSOCIATES IN THE POLITBURO MAY BE PREPARING FOR A SPRING SHOWDOWN WITH MARSHAL TITO OVER CONTROL OF YUGOSLAVIA. AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAY THEY WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF RUSSIA AND SOME OF ITS COMPLETELY CONTROLLED STATES NEIGHBORING YUGOSLAVIA YUGOSLAVIA SHOULD MOVE OPENLY TO CRUSH TITO.

THE HARDENING COMMUNIST LINE IN THE WORLD THIS SIDE OF THE IRON CURTAIN--THE STEADY LINE OF PARTY LEADERS WHO SAY THEY WOULD SIDE WITH MOSCOW IN CASE OF WAR--IS CONSIDERED BY SOME EXPERTS ON SOVIET COMMUNISM TO BE EVIDENCE OF A TOUGHENING UP OF THE PARTY. THIS WOULD BE IN LINE WITH THE PURGES WHICH HAVE BEEN GOING ON FOR MONTHS IN EASTERN EUROPE AND WHICH MAY NOW BE LEADING TOWARD THE CLIMAX, A TEST OF POWER WITH TITO.

WESTERN OFFICIALS FRANKLY DID NOT KNOW OVER THE WEEK-END WHETHER THE MOLOTOV-VISHINSKY SWITCH MEANT A TOUGHENING OR SOFTENING OF RUSSIA'S ATTITUDES TOWARD THE WEST. AMERICAN EXPERTS ON RUSSIA AND WESTERN EUROPEAN DIPLOMATS HERE WERE GENERALLY AGREED THAT NO BASIC CHANGE IN RUSSIA'S GOALS OF WORLD COMMUNISM COULD BE EXPECTED.

IT IS TO MEET THIS ULTIMATE CHALLENGE AS WELL AS TO STRENGTHEN THE WEST AGAINST POSSIBLE SOVIET AGGRESSION THAT STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORITIES EXPECTED TO MOVE FORWARD ON SEVERAL FRONTS THIS WEEK:

GERMANY--SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IS SENDING HIS TOP POLICY PLANNER, GEORGE KENNAN, TO GET A FIRST HAND LOOK AT CONDITIONS IN GERMANY. THIS IS IN ANTICIPATION OF A TOP LEVEL CONFERENCE WITH BRITAIN AND FRANCE IN A FEW WEEKS ON FURTHER INTEGRATING WESTERN GERMANY INTO WESTERN EUROPE. MEANWHILE AMBASSADOR ROBERT MURPHY IS COMING HOME FROM BERLIN WHERE HE HAS BEEN CHIEF ADVISER TO GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY. MURPHY WILL ORGANIZE A NEW OFFICE OF GERMAN AFFAIRS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

ALL EVIDENCE INDICATES THAT AFTER LONG WRANGLING THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS ABOUT TO ASSUME FULL RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY FOR GERMAN POLICY.

ATLANTIC PACT--ACHESON HOPES TO GET FINAL APPROVAL ALL AROUND FOR A TENTATIVE DRAFT OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY SO THAT IT MAY BE RELEASED BY THE END OF THIS WEEK. THE TEXT IS SUBSTANTIALLY FINISHED. THERE IS INCREASING SPECULATION THAT IT WILL BE SIGNED AT A FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING OF POSSIBLY A DOZEN NATIONS IN WASHINGTON TOWARD THE END OF THE MONTH.

THE WESTERN LINEUP--EIGHT COUNTRIES ARE ALREADY IN THE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS--THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, NORWAY, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. FROM COPENHAGEN, FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN WILL LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON TUESDAY TO FIND OUT THE BEST POSSIBLE BASIS FOR DENMARK'S BECOMING ONE OF THE ORIGINAL SIGNERS OF THE TREATY. ICELAND AND PORTUGAL YET MAY JOIN ALSO AND DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAY WOULD BE WELCOME.

MD252AES

THE COMMITTEE ALSO ADOPTED A RESOLUTION WHICH WOULD PUT THE SENATE ON RECORD "TO ENCOURAGE UNIFICATION OF EUROPE." THIS WAS OFFERED BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS).

WASHINGTON- RX GOVERNMENT.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) HAS SOUGHT SENATE APPROVAL OF A RESOLUTION FAVORING "POLITICAL UNIFICATION" OF EUROPE--BUT THE COMMITTEE SHIED AWAY FROM THE USE OF THE WORD "POLITICAL." CONNALLY SAID HE AND SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) VOTED AGAINST BOTH THE WILEY AND FULBRIGHT RESOLUTIONS.

"OUR POSITION WAS," CONNALLY SAID, "IF THEY WANT TO UNITE LET THEM UNITE. THIS JUST GIVES RUSSIA ANOTHER HOLLERING POINT THAT WE ARE TRYING TO DICTATE TO EUROPE WHAT THEY SHOULD DO."

AMERICAN SHIPPING INTERESTS WON THEIR FIGHT FOR A CLAUSE PROVIDING THAT 50 PER CENT OF THE GROSS TONNAGE EXPORTED FROM THIS COUNTRY BY ECA MUST BE IN U.S. VESSELS "SO FAR AS PRACTICABLE."

HOFFMAN HAD OPPOSED THIS RESTRICTION SO ECA COULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE LOWER WORLD SHIPPING COSTS.

THE COMMITTEE VOTED DOWN AN AMENDMENT BY SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) WHICH WOULD HAVE SHUT OFF AID TO ANY COUNTRY WHICH DID NOT COMPLY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL'S ORDERS.

THIS WOULD HAVE HAD THE EFFECTOF BLOCKING AID TO THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT IN ITS INDONESIAN DISPUTE.

THE COMMITTEE REFUSED TO MAKE IT MANDATORY ON ECA TO BUY SURPLUS U.S. FARM PRODUCTS FOR EXPORT TO EUROPE.

THERE HAS BEEN GROWING PRESSURE FOR ECA TO BOLSTER THE SAGGING AMERICAN COMMODITY MARKET WITH ITS PURCHASES FOR EUROPE.

BUT THE COMMITTEE AGREED TO PUT IN ITS REPORT A STATEMENT THAT THE ADMINISTRATOR "MUST GIVE SYMPATHETIC CONSIDERATION" TO THE U.S. ECONOMY. AND WHEN "ALL THINGS ARE EQUAL," HE MUST CONSIDER BUYING U.S. COMMODITIES WHICH ARE IN SURPLUS.

HOFFMAN ARGUED AGAINST USING ECA TO SUPPORT OF THE DOMESTIC ECONOMY. HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT THERE ARE 109 U.S. COMMODITIES WHICH WANT "SPECIAL TREATMENT" FROM ECA.

(350) NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT

WASHINGTON, MARCH 7-(AP)-REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC POWERS SAID TODAY THEY HAVE NEARLY COMPLETED THE TASK OF WRITING A MUTUAL DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

FOLLOWING A TWO-HOUR AND 45-MINUTE MEETING OF THE AMBASSADORS WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, FRENCH AMBASSADOR HENRI BONNET TOLD NEWSMEN:

"WE ARE NEARING THE END OF THE DISCUSSIONS."

HE ADDED THAT "REALLY GOOD PROGRESS" WAS MADE AT TODAY'S SESSION. ANOTHER WILL BE HELD LATE THIS WEEK AND PERHAPS ANOTHER AFTER THAT, BONNET SAID.

THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, SIR OLIVER FRANKS, ECHOED BONNET'S OPTIMISTIC VIEW.

"WE HAVE HAD ANOTHER SATISFACTORY MEETING AND I THINK WE ARE MOVING TOWARD A CONCLUSION," HE SAID. "THERE CERTAINLY WILL BE ONE MORE MEETING AND PERHAPS ANOTHER BUT CERTAINLY NOT MUCH MORE."

BONNET DECLINED TO COMMENT WHEN NEWSMEN ASKED WHETHER THE AMBASSADORS DECIDED AT TODAY'S SESSION TO INVITE ITALY INTO THE ALLIANCE.

EARLIER, A CLOSE ASSOCIATE HAD SAID THAT CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEXAS) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAS DROPPED HIS OPPOSITION TO ITALY. THIS WAS REGARDED AS GREATLY BRIGHTENING ITALY'S CHANCES OF RECEIVING AN INVITATION.

CONNALLY HAS PREVIOUSLY OBJECTED TO ITALIAN PARTICIPATION ON GROUNDS THAT SHE HAS NOT ACHIEVED THE DEGREE OF POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC STABILITY WHICH WOULD MAKE HER AN ASSET.

A SENATE ASSOCIATE SAID THAT WHILE HE NOW HOLDS THE SAME VIEW, CONNALLY WILL NOT PRESS THE MATTER. HE WAS REPORTED WILLING TO LEAVE THE QUESTION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

NATIONS NOW TAKING PART IN THE TALKS ARE THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN, CANADA, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND NORWAY.

SENATOR WATKINS (R-UTAH) PROPOSED, MEANWHILE, THAT THE TEXT OF THE PROPOSED ALLIANCE BE MADE PUBLIC AT LEAST 60 DAYS BEFORE THIS COUNTRY SIGNS IT.

HE TELEGRAPHED PRESIDENT TRUMAN, VACATIONING AT KEY WEST, FLA., THAT IT WOULD BE "DECIDEDLY UNFAIR TO THE SENATE AND TO THE PARTICIPATING NATIONS" TO SUBMIT THE SIGNED TREATY TO THE SENATE WITHOUT PREVIOUS PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF ITS TERMS.

"I AM CONVINCED THE AMERICAN PEOPLE SHOULD BE GIVEN TIME TO STUDY AND THINK ABOUT THIS PROPOSED DEPARTURE FROM OUR HISTORIC POLICY OF 'NO ENTANGLING ALLIANCES' AND THAT THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE WOULD HAVE ADDITIONAL TIME IN WHICH TO STUDY THIS IMPORTANT MATTER," HE SAID.

RP1029PES

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-ITALY'S CHANCES TO BECOME A MEMBER OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE GREW BRIGHTER TODAY.

AN ADMINISTRATION LEADER IN THE SENATE REPORTED THAT CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEXAS) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL MAKE NO FIGHT AGAINST ITALY JOINING IN THE PACT.

THE TEXAS LAWMAKER PREVIOUSLY HAD OBJECTED TO ITALIAN PARTICIPATION ON THE GROUNDS THAT THE COUNTRY HAD NOT REACHED THE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC STABILITY WHICH WOULD ADD STRENGTH TO THE ALLIANCE. HE WAS SAID TO STILL HOLD THE SAME VIEWS BUT NOT STRONGLY ENOUGH TO MAKE A FIGHT OVER THE MATTER.

CONNALLY'S ATTITUDE IS IMPORTANT BECAUSE THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL HAVE TO PASS ON ANY PACT THAT IS FINALLY DRAFTED.

CONNALLY WAS REPORTED TO HAVE AGREED TO LEAVE THE DECISION ON ITALY TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, AND THE AMBASSADORS OF THE NATIONS NEGOTIATING THE TREATY.

THE QUESTION OF ADMITTING ITALY TO THE ALLIANCE WAS ONE OF THE MAIN TOPICS LISTED FOR A NEW MEETING TODAY BETWEEN ACHESON AND THE AMBASSADORS.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND NORWAY ARE NOW TRYING TO DRAW UP THE SECURITY AGREEMENT.

JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, MISS GILLARS' ATTORNEY, WAS READY WITH HIS REPLY: A LONG PLEA FOR ACQUITTAL ON THE GROUND THAT THE GRAY-HAIRED DEFENDANT ALWAYS WAS A LOYAL AMERICAN AND DID PROPAGANDA WORK FOR THE NAZIS UNDER COMPULSION.

WHEN LAUGHLIN GETS THROUGH--PROBABLY TOMORROW--KELLEY WILL HAVE ANOTHER TURN. THIS WILL WIND UP THE ARGUMENTS.

THEN FEDERAL JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAN WILL TELL THE JURY OF SEVEN MEN AND FIVE WOMEN HIS INTERPRETATION OF THE POINTS OF LAW.

KELLEY AND LAUGHLIN ALREADY HAVE FILED MANY SUGGESTIONS AS TO WHAT THE JUDGE SHOULD SAY.

THE JURY IS EXPECTED TO RECEIVE THE CASE WEDNESDAY. THERE IS A POSSIBILITY THE JURY WILL GET IT LATE TUESDAY. THE LENGTH OF THE FINAL PLEAS BY ATTORNEYS AND THE JUDGE'S INSTRUCTIONS WILL DETERMINE THE TIME.

THIS IS THE SEVENTH WEEK OF THE TRIAL OF THE MAINE-BORN MISS GILLARS, WHO WENT TO EUROPE IN 1929 AFTER YEARS OF FUTILE SEEKING AFTER FAME AS A DRAMATIC ACTRESS.

EVENTUALLY, SHE WENT TO WORK FOR THE GERMAN RADIO--IN MAY, 1940--AND BECAME KNOWN AS "AXIS SALLY" TO GI'S WHO LISTENED TO HER.

THE INDICTMENT CHARGES HER BROADCASTS GAVE "AID AND COMFORT" TO GERMANY AND WERE INTENDED TO WEAKEN THIS COUNTRY'S WAR EFFORT.

SHE REPLIED, IN NEARLY SIX DAYS ON THE WITNESS STAND, THAT SHE NEVER INTENDED TO BETRAY THIS COUNTRY OR ADHERE TO GERMANY'S CAUSE. SHE INSISTED THE NAZIS FORCED HER TO SHIFT FROM ANNOUNCING AND ENTERTAINING TO PROPAGANDA WORK. #

AXIS SALLY

BY KARL R.BAUMAN

(WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-THESE CONFLICTING PICTURES OF MILDRED E. (AXIS SALLY) GILLARS WERE PAINTED DURING HER LONG TREASON TRIAL:

GOVERNMENT PROSECUTORS BRANDED HER AS A BETRAYER OF AMERICA FOR CASH AND A STAR ROLE ON THE WARTIME NAZI RADIO.

"AXIS SALLY" AND HER ATTORNEY INSISTED SHE WAS A LOYAL AMERICAN WHO WAS FORCED TO BROADCAST NAZI PROPAGANDA.

THE 48-YEAR-OLD, GRAY-HAIRED, MAINE-BORN MISS GILLARS SPENT NEARLY SIX DAYS ON THE WITNESS STAND. HER TESTIMONY FEATURED REPEATED PROTESTATIONS OF LOV FOR AMERICA, OFTEN ACCOMPANIED BY TEARS.

PROSECUTORS HAMMERED HARD AT THIS STORY. THEY CONTENDED MISS GILLARS REFUSED TO COME HOME WHEN THIS COUNTRY WAS TRYING TO GET ITS CITIZENS OUT OF GERMANY PRIOR TO AMERICA'S ENTRY INTO THE WAR. THEY SAID SHE CAST HER LOT WITH THE GERMANS.

MISS GILLARS MADE MUCH OF THE POINT THAT HER PASSPORT WAS "SNATCHED" IN THE SUMMER OF 1940 (SHE ORIGINALLY SAID 1941 BUT CHANGED THIS TO 1940). WITHOUT A PASSPORT AND LACKING FUNDS, SHE INSISTED, SHE DID NOT THINK SHE COULD LEAVE.

PROSECUTORS DISPUTED THIS, AS THEY DID ALMOST ALL OTHER DEFENSE TESTIMONY. THEY SAID MISS GILLARS STILL HAD IN HER POSSESSION AN EARLIER PASSPORT WHICH ESTABLISHED HER IDENTIFICATION AS AN AMERICAN. THIS COULD HAVE BEEN USED TO GET HOME, THEY INSISTED. AND FAILING TO LEAVE BEFORE THE WAR, THEY ARGUED, MISS GILLARS STILL COULD HAVE USED THE OLD PASSPORT FOR IDENTIFICATION PURPOSES IN GERMANY.

MISS GILLARS, ON THE OTHER HAND, CONTENDED THAT HER LACK OF PROPER IDENTIFICATION PUT THE DREADED GESTAPO ON HER TRIAL AND CAUSED HER TO FEAR FOR HER LIFE.

SHE STEADFASTLY INSISTED THAT SHE NEVER WANTED TO DO PROPAGANDA WORK FOR THE NAZIS, AND BLAMED THE MAN SHE SAID SHE LOVED--THE LATE PROFESSOR MAX OTTO KOISCHWITZ--FOR HER BEING INDICTED AS A TRAITOR. SHE CALLED THE HERR PROFESSOR, A NATURALIZED AMERICAN WHO RETURNED TO GERMANY IN 1939, "MY DESTINY."

MISS GILLARS WENT TO WORK FOR THE GERMAN RADIO MAY 6, 1940. SHE CLAIMED SHE NEVER UTTERED "ONE PROPAGANDISTIC WORD" UNTIL KOESCHWITZ, HIMSELF INDICTED FOR TREASON HERE IN 1943, CAME INTO HER LIFE.

SHE SAID KOISCHWITZ, WHO HAD HIGH CONNECTIONS IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE, CAUSED HER TO BE SHIFTED TO THE "U.S.A. ZONE" OF THE NAZI OVERSEAS RADIO. THIS WAS THE WING OF THE GERMAN RADIO WHICH TURNED OUT PROPAGANDA FOR THE CONSUMPTION OF AMERICAN TROOPS OVERSEAS AND AMERICANS AT HOME.

DESPITE HER LOVE FOR KOISCHWITZ, SHE SAID, SHE RESISTED THE TRANSFER UNTIL HE GOT A FOREIGN OFFICE RULING MAKING HIM HER BOSS. EVENTUALLY, SHE ACKNOWLEDGED, SHE WAS INDUCED BY KOISCHWITZ TO DO PROPAGANDA WORK. HER ATTORNEY TOLD THE JURY KOISCHWITZ EXERCISED A "HYPNOTIC INFLUENCE" OVE HER.

PROSECUTORS BROUGHT OUT THAT MISS GILLARS WAS IN PARIS IN THE SUMMER OF 1944, WHEN AMERICAN TROOPS WERE APPROACHING THE FRENCH CAPITAL, AND THAT SHE MADE NO EFFORT TO HIDE OUT TO AWAIT THEIR ARRIVAL. SHE SAID SHE DIDN'T BECAUSE SHE WANTED TO BE WITH KOISCHWITZ. ASKED IF THAT MEANT MORE TO HER THAN ANYTHING ELSE IN THE WORLD, SHE REPLIED:

"I THINK A MAN USUALLY MEANS MORE TO A WOMAN THAN ANYTHING ELSE. I WOULD HAVE DIED FOR HIM."

SHE ALSO ACKNOWLEDGED UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION THAT SHE MIGHT HAVE TOLD STELLA KOISCHWITZ, A DAUGHTER OF THE ONE-TIME HUNTER COLLEGE (N.Y.) PROFESSOR, THAT SHE FEARED ARREST BY AMERICAN TROOPS AFTER THE WAR.

SHE WAS BROUGHT HERE FROM GERMANY AUG. 26, 1948, AND INDICTED FOR TREASON SEPT. 10. SHE HAD BEEN ARRESTED EARLIER IN GERMANY AND RELEASED AFTER SEVERAL MONTH HWILE THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT STILL WAS INVESTIGATING HER CASE.

SHEN SHE CAME HOME LAST AUGUST, IT WAS THE FIRST TIME SHE HAD SET FOOT ON AMERICAN SOIL SINCE 1929. FIRST SHE HAD GONE TO NORTH AFRICA, THEN TO ITALY, HUNGARY AND FINALLY GERMANY, REACHING BERLIN SEPT. 4, 1934. SHE TAUGHT ENGLISH IN THE BERLITZ SCHOOL AND DID VARIOUS OTHER JOBS UNTIL SHE WENT INTO RADIO WORK.

SHE SAID SHE WAS GLAD TO GET THE RADIO JOB BECAUSE "WOLVES WERE COMING CLOSER TO THE DOOR."

THE INDICTMENT ALLEGED THAT MISS GILLARS' RADIO ACTIVITIES WERE "WITH TREASONABLE INTENT AND FOR THE PURPOSE OF, AND WITH THE INTENT TO ADHERE TO AND GIVE AID AND COMFORT TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE GERMAN REICH, AN ENEMY OF THE UNITED STATES."

NO SO, MISS GILLARS TOLD THE JURY. SHE SAID OVER AND OVER AGAIN THAT SHE NEVER INTENDED TO BETRAY THIS COUNTRY OR TO ADHERE TO GERMANY.

THE INDICTMENT CHARGED TEN TREASONABLE ACTS TO MISS GILLARS. PROSECUTORS, HOWEVER, DID NOT PRESENT ANY EVIDENCE ON TWO OF THEM. THEY SAID THEY DID THIS TO SHORTEN THE TRIAL. THE INDICTMENT COVERED A PERIOD FROM DEC. 11, 1941 THROUGH MAY 8, 1945.

IT ALLEGED THAT MISS GILLARS MADE "RADIO SPEECHES, BROADCASTS, COMMENTARIES AND RECORDINGS," KNOWING THAT THEY WERE TO BE USED BY THE GERMAN RADIO AS PART OF ITS PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE AGAINST THIS COUNTRY AND "FOR THE PURPOSE AND WITH THE INTENTION OF WEAKENING AND DESTROYING THE CONFIDENCE OF THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THEIR GOVERNMENT; WEAKENING CIVILIAN SUPPORT OF THE WAR EFFORT X X X ; DESTROYING FAITH AND GOOD WILL AMONG THE UNITED STATES AND HER ALLIES AND WEAKENING THE FIGHTING POWERS AND THE MORALE OF SOLDIERS OF THE ARMED FORCES."

A FORMER GERMAN RADIO OFFICIAL TESTIFIED THAT MISS GILLARS WAS THE HIGHEST PAID OF ANYONE DOING ACTUAL BROADCASTING.

THE GOVERNMENT BROUGHT WITNESSES HERE FROM GERMANY AND HOLLAND AND PUT MANY SOLDIERS ON THE STAND TO TESTIFY THAT MISS GILLARS INTERVIEWED THEM, OR SOUGHT TO INTERVIEW THEM, IN GERMAN HOSPITALS AND PRISON CAMPS. SEVERAL GERMANS ALSO WERE BROUGHT HERE AS GOVERNMENT EXPENSE TO SUPPORT HER THAT SHE WAS FORCED TO DO PROPAGANDA WORK.

THE TRIAL BEGAN JAN. 24.

MISS GILLARS, BORN IN PORELAND,ME., NOV. 29, 1900, WANTED TO BE A FAMOUS DRAMATIC ACTRESS. SHE MET WITH LITTLE SUCCESS. SHE PLAYED MOSTLY MINOR ROLES ON ONE-NIGHT STANDS. THIS WENT ON FOR YEARS. THEN SHE WENT ABROAD AND EVENTUALLY TO TRIAL FOR TREASON.

FIRST LEAD MILITARY JUSTICE

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL AND A HARVARD LAW PROFESSOR URGED CONGRESS TODAY TO ADOPT A UNIFORM CODE OF MILITARY JUSTICE FOR ALL THE ARMED FORCES.

THEY TESTIFIED BEFORE THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE IN SUPPORT OF A BULKY BILL WHICH WOULD GIVE THE NATION ITS FIRST BLANKET CODE TO COVER THE ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE, MARINES, AND COAST GUARD.

FORRESTAL TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE BELIEVES THE PROPOSED CODE "IS THE NEAREST POSSIBLE APPROACH" TO A "PROPER ACCOMODATION BETWEEN THE METING OUT OF JUSTICE AND THE PERFORMANCE OF MILITARY OPERATIONS."

EDMUND M.MORGAN OF THE HARVARD UNIVERSITY LAW FACULTY AND CHAIRMAN IF A BOARD APPOINTED BY FORRESTAL TO DRAW UP THE CODE, SAID:

"WE HAVE TRIED TO PREVENT COURTS-MARTIAL FROM BEING AN INSTRUMENTALITY AND AGENCY TO EXPRESS THE WILL OF THE COMMANDER.

"TO MAKE THE ACTION OF COURTS-MARTIAL AND THE PROCEDURE FOR REVIEW FREE FROM HIS INFLUENCE, WE HAVE SET UP AN IMPARTIAL JUDGE FOR THE COURT-MARTIAL, MADE IT MANDATORY THAT LAWYERS REPRESENT THE PARTIES IN GENERAL COURT-MARTIAL CASES, REQUIRED THE COMMANDER TO CONSULT BEFORE AND AFTER TRIAL WITH HIS STAFF JUDGE ADVOCATE OR LAW SPECIALIST, AND PROHIBITED HIM FROM EITHER CENSURING OR REPRIMANDING THE COURT."

MORGAN DESCRIBED BRIEFLY SEVERAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE PROPOSED NEW CODE AND THE SEPARATE CODES NOW GOVERNING THE SERVICES. THERE ARE THREE; THE ARMY'S ARTICLES OF WAR, ARTICLES FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NAVY, AND THE DISCIPLINARY LAWS OF THE COAST GUARD.

THE NEW CODE, HE SAID, WOULD SET UP STANDARD PROCEDURES FOR ALL THE SERVICES, AND GIVE THEM THE SAME BASIC LAW. IT ALSO WOULD BE POSSIBLE, HE ADDED, FOR A CIVILIAN LAWYER TO CONDUCT ANY CASE INVOLVING MILITARY PERSONNEL.

THE CODE COMBINES INTO 140 SECTIONS THE ARMY'S 121 ARTICLES OF WAR AND THE 76 ARTICLES FOR GOVERNMENT OF THE NAVY. LEGAL PROCEDURES UNDER THE CODE WOULD BE STANDARDIZED FOR ALL SERVICES.

HOUSE COMMITTEE STAFF EXPERTS SAID THE NEW CODE WOULD MAKE TWO MAJOR CHANGES IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF MILITARY JUSTICE.

FIRST, IT WOULD SET UP A THREE-MEMBER CIVILIAN "JUDICIAL COUNCIL," WHICH WOULD HAVE APPEAL JURISDICTION OVER ALL MAJOR CASES, AND COULD REVERSE DECISIONS BY MILITARY REVIEW BOARDS. THE COUNCIL WOULD NOT, HOWEVER, REPLACE THE PRESENT AUTHORITIES OF THE SECRETARIES OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE, AND OF THE PRESIDENT, TO EXERCISE CLEMENCY IN CASES INVOLVING THE DEATH SENTENCE.

THE COUNCIL WOULD CONSIST OF LAWYERS APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT FOR INDEFINITE TERMS. THEIR SALARY WOULD BE $17,500 A YEAR, THE SAME AS FOR JUDGES ON THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS.

THE OTHER RESPECT IN WHICH THE CODE WOULD MATERIALLY CHANGE PRESENT PROCEDURE IS THAT THE AUTHORITY OF LOCAL COMMANDING OFFICERS TO PUNISH MINOR INFRACTIONS WITHOUT A TRIAL WOULD BE GREATLY INCREASED.

COMMANDING OFFICERS WOULD HAVE AUTHORITY TO REVOKE PRIVILEGES FOR TWO WEEKS, INSTEAD OF ONE AS AT PRESENT; TO RESTRICT A MAN TO HIS QUARTERS OR A LIMITED AREA FOR TWO WEEKS INSTEAD OF ONE, AND TO ASSIGN TWO HOURS OF EXTRA DUTY DAILY FOR TWO WEEKS. ARMY COMMANDERS CAN NOW ASSIGN ANY NUMBER OF HOURS OF EXTRA DUTY, BUT ONLY FOR ONE WEEK.

LOCAL COMMANDERS COULD CONFINE MEN IN THE BRIG, OR STOCKADE, FOR A WEEK. THE NAVY HAS THIS AUTHORITY NOW, BUT THE ARMY DOES NOT.

COMMANDERS ALSO COULD SENTENCE MEN TO FIVE DAYS ON BREAD AND WATER, AS NAVY OFFICERS CAN DO NOW. THE ARMY HAS NO SUCH PROVISION.

BOTH OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN WOULD BE SUBJECT TO THIS NON-JUDICIAL PUNISHMENT. ONLY ENLISTED MEN ARE SUBJECT TO IT NOW, AND OFFICERS CAN BE TRIED ONLY BY A GENERAL COURT MARTIAL.

DIFFERENCES IN LANGUAGE AND POLICY, ONE COMMITTEE STAFF MAN SAID, PRODUCED GREAT VARIATIONS IN PENALTIES DURING THE WAR. THE ARMY AND AIR FORCE CARRIED OUT THE DEATH PENALTY IN 141 CASES DURING THE WAR, WHILE THE NAVY COMMUTED ALL DEATH SENTENCES TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-A MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR VETERANS' PENSION BILL IS EXPECTED TO BE CLEARED TOMORROW BY THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE FOR HOUSE DEBATE, WHICH PROBABLY WILL START NEXT WEEK.

COMMITTEE ACTION HAD TENTATIVELY BEEN PLANNED FOR TODAY, BUT THE RULES COMMITTEE WAS OCCUPIED WITH OTHER LEGISLATION AND DID NOT GET AROUND TO THE PENSION MEASURE BEING PUSHED BY REP.RANKIN (D-MISS).

RANKIN, CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE VETERANS COMMITTEE, HAS ESTIMATED COST UP TO THE YEAR 2000 AT $109,000,000,000 (B). OTHER ESTIMATES HAVE BEEN AS HIGH AS $150,000,000,000 (B).

THE BILL WOULD GIVE A PENSION OF $90 A MONTH TO EVERY VETERAN OF WORLD WARS 1 AND 11, EXCEPT THOSE DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED. THE PENSION WOULD START AT AGE 65, REGARDLESS OF NEED OR PHYSICAL CONDITION.

VETERANS SUFFERING FROM NON-SERVICE CONNECTED DISABILITIES REQUIRING THE SERVICES OF A FULL-TIME ATTENDANT WOULD RECEIVE $120 A MONTH REGARDLESS OF THEIR AGE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS INDICATED, WITHOUT MENTIONING THE BILL SPECIFICALLY, THAT HE DOES NOT WANT IT PASSED BECAUSE OF THE HUGE COST.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS, AWARE THAT MEMBERS ARE RELUCTANT TO VOTE AGAINST ANY BILL BENEFITING VETERANS, SAY PRIVATELY THEY HOPE TO WATER IT DOWN AND CUT OUT SOME OF THE BILLIONS.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS MOST FREQUENTLY DISCUSSED WOULD (1) LIMIT THE PENSIONS TO WORLD WAR I VETERANS, (2) LIMIT PENSIONS TO THOSE ACTUALLY IN NEED, OR (3) GIVE ALL WORLD WAR II VETERANS A BONUS IN THE FORM OF A MONTHLY "PENSION" PAYABLE IMMEDIATELY. THESE PAYMENTS WOULD RUN UNTIL THE VETERAN HAD RECEIVED A FIXED SUM BASED ON LENGTH OF SERVICE.

(350) CRUISER

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-THE AMERICAN CRUISER MILWAUKEE, FLYING A HAMMER AND SICKLE PENNANT, IS DUE HOME TODAY AFTER NEARLY FIVE YEARS DUTY IN THE RUSSIAN NAVY.

MANNED BY A SOVIET CREW, THE 26-YEAR-OLD WARSHIP IS SCHEDULED TO BE RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES NAVY IN A BRIEF CEREMONY AT LEWES, DELAWARE.

THE VESSEL ORIGINALLY HAD BEEN EXPECTED TO REACH LEWES TODAY BUT THE NAVY LATER ANNOUNCED IT WOULD ARRIVE TOMORROW ABOUT 9 A.M. EST.

THE OLD MILWAUKEE IS THE FIRST OF 586 AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS LOANED THE RUSSIANS DURING THE WAR TO COME BACK TO THE UNITED STATES.

AS THE 7,050-TON VESSEL NEARED AMERICAN SHORES, THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS REPORTED PUTTING THE FINAL TOUCHES TO A NEW NOTE TO MOSCOW DEMANDING RETURN OF AT LEAST 31 OTHER VESSELS--28 FRIGATES AND THREE LAVGWKICEBREAKERS.

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT PROMISED IN WRITING LAST DECEMBER TO RETURN THESE 31 SHIPS--AFTER SIX VIGOROUSLY WORDED AMERICAN DEMANDS--BUT THUS FAR HAS FAILED TO KEEP THIS PROMISE.

NAVY DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS MEANWHILE MADE ARRANGEMENTS TO TOW THE MILWAUKEE TO PHILADELPHIA FOR FINAL INSPECTION ONCE IT TIES UP AT LEWES.

AFTERWARD, THE BATTLE-TESTED CRUISER PROBABLY WILL BE OFFICIALLY RETIRED FROM ACTIVE DUTY BECAUSE MODERN ADVANCES IN WARSHIP CONSTRUCTION HAVE FAR OUT-DATED IT.

RENAMED MURMANSK BY THE RUSSIANS, IT WAS MAINLY USED TO GUARD THE VITAL SEA LANES TO THE KEY RUSSIAN PORT OF THE SAME NAME. NAVY DEPARTMENT OFICIALS UNDERSTAND IT WAS USED ALSO TO HUNT DOWN GERMAN SEA RAIDERS BUT THEY HAVE NO DETAILS OF THESE ACTIONS.

THE BEST INFORMATION AVAILABLE INDICATES THE OLD MILWAUKEE ESCAPED ALL WAR DAMAGE AND IS IN GOOD CONDITION EXCEPT FOR ITS AGE.

30.24- 1571

THE RUSSIAN CREW, ESTIMATED AT AROUND 800 MEN, IS EXPECTED TO BE RETURNED TO RUSSIA PROMPTLY. A RUSSIAN VESSEL IS ACCOMPANYING THE MILWAUKEE ON THE VOYAGE TO SERVE AS TRANSPORTATION BACK TO RUSSIA FOR THE CREW.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS DISCLOSED TO A REPORTER A LIST OF THE OTHER 585 AMERICAN NAVAL SHIPS LOANED THE RUSSIANS DURING 1943, '44 AND '45.

THE LIST SHOWED THE CRUISER MILWAUKEE WAS THE BIGGEST. MOST OF THE OTHERS WERE SMALL SURFACE TORPEDO CRAFT--205 PT BOATS AND 140 SMALL SUB CHASERS.

IN ADDITION, RUSSIA STILL HAS 87 MERCHANT VESSELS, LEND-LEASED TO IT.

LEWE DEL., MARCH 7-(AP)-THE CRUISER MILWAUKEE, ON LEND-LEASE TO THE RUSSIAN NAVY FOR FIVE YEARS, WILL CHUG WITHIN FOUR MILES OF THE AMERICAN COAST TOMORROW--AND THERE SHE'LL STAY FOR FOUR DAYS.

THE RUSSIANS ARE RETURNING THE MILWAUKEE TO THE UNITED STATES. THE 26-YEAR-OLD WARSHIP WILL BECOME THE FIRST OF 586 AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS LOANED TO T RUSSIANS DURING THE WAR TO COME BACK HOME.

BUT THE RMAL SWITCH-BACK TO U.S. CONTROL WILL BE DELAYED UNTIL FRIDAY, AVY EXPLAINED TONIGHT.

THE UKEE IS BEING FOLLOWED BY THE FREIGHTER MOLOTOV, WHICH WILL TAKE ON OVIET CREW OF THE VESSEL AND TAKE THE MEN BACK TO RUSSIA. THE MOLOT ON'T REACH AMERICAN WATERS UNTIL FRIDAY.

A NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID THE 7,050-TON VESSEL WILL RIDE AT ANCHOR UNTIL THE MOLOTOV GETS HERE. NO ONE WILL BOARD THE SHIP.

HE ADDED THAT THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT ASKED FOR SHORE LEAVE FOR ANY OF THE SHIP'S OFFICERS OR CREW. IT IS CUSTOMARY, HE EXPLAINED, FOR SHORE LEAVE TO BE REQUESTED WHEN A FOREIGN VESSEL COMES TO THE U.S.

IF ASKED, SAID THE SPOKESMAN, SHORE LEAVE WILL BE GRANTED. HE ADDED THAT HE DOESN'T EXPECT THAT ANY LEAVE WILL BE REQUESTED.

SO NAVY OFFICIALS WILL MARK TIME IN LEWES WAITING FOR THE MOLOTOV. SO WILL REAR ADMIRAL EUGENGY G.GLINKOV OF THE SOVIET EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON. HE IS IN LEWES NOW.

REAR ADMIRAL GLINKOV WOULD NOT TALK WITH REPORTERS. HE WOULDN'T SAY WHE HER HE'LL BOARD THE MILWAUKEE--RENAMED MURMANSK BY THE RUSSIANS--IN ADVANCE OF THE TRANSFER TO THE AMERICAN NAVY.

AFTER THE TRANSFER, NAVY SHIPS WILL TOW THE MILWAUKEE UP THE DELAWARE RIVER TO PHILADELPHIA FOR FINAL INSPECTION. AFTER THAT, THE CRUISE PROBABLY WILL BE RET OFFICIALLY FROM ACTIVE DUTY.

AS THE MURMANSK, THE AMER SHIP WAS USED MAINLY TO GUARD SEA LANES TO THE KEY RUSSIAN PORT OF THE SAME NAME. SHE IS REPORTED TO BE IN GOOD CONDITION. HER CREW IS ESTIMATED AT 800 MEN.

CLEVELAND, MARCH 7-(AP)-REPRESENTATIVES OF MORE THAN 35,000,000 (M) AMERICAN PROTESTANTS GATHER HERE TOMORROW TO EXAMINE MAJOR ISSUES THREATENING WORLD PEACE.

DURING FOUR DAYS AND NIGHTS OF SESSIONS THEY HOPE TO REACH AGREEMENT ON ACTION WHICH WILL INCREASE CHRISTIAN INFLUENCE IN RELATIONS AMONG NATIONS.

THE CONFERENCE IS SPONSORED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE AND GOODWILL OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA. ATTENDING ARE 400 DELEGATES FROM 57 DENOMINATIONS AND SUCH ALLIED RELIGIOUS BODIES AS THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

THE REV. RICHARD FAGLEY, CO-EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE DEPARTMENT, SAID TODAY IN A DISCUSSION OF CONFERENCE AIMS:

"CHURCH LEADERS ARE INCREASINGLY ALERT TO THE HEAVY RESPONSIBILITY IMPOSED BY THE ENORMOUS POST-WAR POWER PLACED IN THE HANDS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. IF A WAY OUT OF THE PRESENT CRISIS IS TO BE FOUND, IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THIS POWER BE USED WISELY, PATIENTLY AND FOR MORAL ENDS.

"THE DESPERATE NEED OF OUR TIME IS FOR A CREATIVE INTERNATIONAL POLICY WHICH WILL UNITE MEN OF GOOD WILL AROUND THE EARTH IN CONSTRUCTIVE WORK FOR PEACE, JUSTICE AND WELFARE."

DELEGATES MEETING HERE, THOUGH IDEALISTIC IN THEIR AIMS, ARE PRACTICAL, WELL-INFORMED PERSONS OF AFFAIRS. AMONG THEM, FOR EXAMPLE, IS JOHN FOSTER DULLES, U.S. DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, WHO WILL ADDRESS THE CONFERENCE TOMORROW. THESE LEADERS WANT TO DEAL PRACTICALLY WITH THE BASIC PROBLEMS.

SO THEY'VE BROKEN THEM DOWN INTO FIVE GENERAL AREAS OF DISCUSSION. THESE ARE THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE CHURCH TO AMERICAN POLICY IN EUROPE, AMERICAN POLICY IN THE FAR EAST, THE UNITED NATIONS, GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR WORLD ORDER, AND THE "STRATEGY OF WORLD ORDER EDUCATION AND ACTION."

OF PRIME INTEREST IS THE CHURCHES' ATTITUDE ON AMERICAN POLICY IN EUROPE, THE PRESENT FOCAL POINT OF SOVIET-AMERICAN RELATIONS. DELEGATES SAY THEY MAY TACKLE THE RUSSIAN QUESTION FROM THIS LOGIC:

1. COMMUNISM STANDS CLEARLY OPPOSED TO CHRISTIANITY.
2. HOWEVER, THERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT POINTS AT WHICH THEIR INTERESTS COINCIDE.
3. THE CHRISTIAN CONCERN SHOULD BE TO PROVIDE AN ALTERNATIVE TO COMMUNISM THAT WINS SUPPORT OF PEOPLE WHOM COMMUNISM ATTRACTS.

THE DELEGATES' FINDINGS WILL BE PASSED ON TO THE RELIGIOUS BODIES REPRESENTED FOR CONSIDERATION AND ACTION.

GREATER ATTENTION WAS PAID TO MALIK'S ABSENCE BECAUSE OF THE CHANGES IN THE TOP BRACKETS OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY IN MOSCOW AND BECAUSE OF THE ARREST ON SUSPICION OF SPYING OF A RUSSIAN NATIONAL EMPLOYED BY THE U.N. LAKESUCCESS-XXX ANGLES.

A SECRETARY IN THE SOVIET DELEGATION WHO DID NOT GIVE HIS NAME SAID THAT MALIK HAD VISITED A HOSPITAL TODAY FOR STOMACH TROUBLE BUT HE DID NOT KNOW ANY MORE ON THE SUBJECT.

TSARAPKIN TOLD REPORTERS AFTER THE SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING THAT MALIK WAS CONFINED TO BED IN HIS QUARTERS IN THE DELEGATION BUILDING AND THEY DID NOT DEFINITELY KNOW WHAT WAS THE TROUBLE.

MALIK IS CHAIRMAN THIS MONTH ON THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION. A COMMISSION MEETING SET FOR TOMORROW WAS POSTPONED TO 3 P.M. FRIDAY BECAUSE OF HIS ILLNESS.

MALIK IS THE HIGHEST RANKING RUSSIAN IN THE UNITED STATES BUT HIS ASSIGNMENT OSTENSIBLY IS FOR UNITED NATIONS MATTERS ONLY.

HE TOOK THE PLACE LEFT BY ANDREI A.GROMYKO WHEN GROMYKO WAS RECALLED TO RUSSIA LAST SPRING FOR A VACATION. LAST SATURDAY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED GROMYKO'S APPOINTMENT AS FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER UNDER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY.

GROMYKO IS EXPECTED HERE TO HEAD THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION TO THE U.N. ASSEMBLY WHEN IT MEETS IN FLUSHING MEADOW PARK, NEW YORK, APRIL 5 TO COMPLETE THE WORK OF THE 1949 PARIS ASSEMBLY.

THE VOTE ON THE PACIFIC ISLANDS TRUSTEESHIP PLAN WAS 8 TO 0 WITH THREE COUNTRIES ABSTAINING. THE THREE WERE RUSSIA, THE SOVIET UKRAINE AND EGYPT.

TSARAPKIN TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL RUSSIA DID NOT OBJECT TO THE RESOLUTION BUT FELT THAT IT WAS TOO GENERAL. HE SAID RUSSIA DID NOT WANT IT TO APPLY TO FUTURE AGREEMENTS ON STRATEGIC AREAS BUT ONLY ON THE ISLANDS NOW ADMINISTERED BY THE UNITED STATES.

MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI, EGYPT, SAID HE ABSTAINED BECAUSE THE RESOLUTION DID NOT PROPERLY SET FORTH THE BALANCE BETWEEN THE TRUSTEESHIP AND THE SECURITY COUNCILS.

THE RESOLUTION WHICH THE COUNCIL APPROVED WAS DRAWN UP BY A MAJORITY OF THE COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS IN 1947. IT CALLED FOR THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL TO PERFORM ALL FUNCTIONS TOWARD TRUSTEESHIP TERRITORIES RELATING TO THE POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL ADVANCE OF THE INHABITANTS OF THE TERRITORY. THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESERVED TO ITSELF ALL DECISIONS ON SECURITY MATTERS.

RUSSIA OBJECTED IN 1947 THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL SHOULD HANDLE ALL MATTERS RELATING TO STRATEGIC AREAS. THAT WAS BEFORE THE RUSSIANS ENDED A BOYCOTT TO TAKE THEIR SEAT ON THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL, HOWEVER. AND THEY RAISED NO STRONG OBJECTION TODAY.

THE UNITED STATES REPORTED IN A LONG DOCUMENT MADE PUBLIC FEB.20 THAT THE IDEA OF SELF-GOVERNMENT IS TAKING HOLD IN THE FORMER JAPANESE-MANDATED ISLANDS. THE U.S. HAS CONDUCTED EXPERIMENTS IN ATOMIC ENERGY ON TWO ATOLLS, BIKINI AND ENIWETOK.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL MEET WEDNESDAY AT 3 P.M. (EST) TO DISCUSS THE DUTCH-INDONESIAN CONFLICT.

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 7-(AP)-SOVIET DIPLOMATS DARE NOT SPEAK THEIR OWN MINDS BUT ONLY THE MIND OF THE KREMLIN, MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT SAID TODAY.

THE WIDOW OF THE LATE PRESIDENT, HERE ON A LECTURE TOUR, ANSWERED QUESTIONS AT A PRESS CONFERENCE. THE FIRST QUESTION WAS ABOUT THE RELEASE OF VYACHESLAV MOLOTOV FROM HIS DUTIES AS SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER.

"I KNEW THAT WOULD BE THE FIRST QUESTION," SHE SAID. "I KNOW NOTHING, EXCEPT WHAT I READ IN THE PAPERS. WE'LL JUST HAVE TO WAIT AND SEE, AS TIMES GOES BY, WHAT THEY HAVE IN MIND."

MRS. ROOSEVELT, WHO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS, WAS ASKED ABOUT HER RELATIONS WITH SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES THERE.

"IT'S ALWAYS COMPLICATED TO WORK WITH PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT THEIR OWN MASTERS," SHE SAID. "THEY'VE GOT TO SAY WHAT THEY SAY, WHETHER THEY LIKE IT OR NOT.

"WE SIMPLY CAN'T GET MR. PAVLOV (ALEXEI PAVLOV, SOVIET DELEGATE) TO COME TO A MEETING AT 10:30 BECAUSE HE HASN'T YET GOT HIS DISPATCHES FROM MOSCOW. HE FREELY ADMITS HE CAN'T DO ANYTHING UNTIL HE GETS WORD FROM THE KREMLIN AND IT NEVER ARRIVES BY THAT HOUR."

MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID ITS DIFFICULT TO PUT "SUCH PEOPLE" INTO AN ORGANIZATION "WHERE THINGS ARE EVOLVING AND GROWING."

FOR INSTANCE, "YOU (A RUSSIAN) MIGHT NOT BE AWARE OF THE KREMLIN ATTITUDE ON A CERTAIN THING," SHE SAID. "SO, YOU SAY SOMETHING WRONG AND TOMORROW MORNING YOU ARE A DEAD DOG."

THE COMPOSERS, DMITRY D.SHOSTAKOVICH, ARAM I.KHACHATURIAN, SERGE S.PROKOFIEFF AND NICOLAI I.MIASKOWSKY, HAD ASKED THE STATE SUPREME COURT FOR AN INJUNCTION TO PREVENT 20TH CENTURY-FOX FROM USING THEIR NAMES AND MUSIC IN "THE IRON CURTAIN."

THE COURT DENIED THEIR PETITION AND THE COMPOSERS, ALL RESIDENTS OF RUSSIA, APPEALED THROUGH THEIR ATTORNEYS TO THE APPELLATE DIVISION OF THE COURT. THE DENIAL WAS UPHELD TODAY.

THE FILM IS BASED ON ESPIONAGE DISCLOSURES ATTRIBUTED TO RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CANADIAN SPY TRIALS.

THE COMPOSERS HELD IT "CAST UPON THEM THE FALSE IMPUTATION OF BEING DISLOYAL TO THEIR COUNTRY" AND VIOLATED THEIR CIVIL RIGHTS BY UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THEIR NAMES AND WORKS.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 7-(AP)-SPOKESMEN FOR THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY ITS PROPOSED NEW WESTERN PLANT WILL BE A FIELD STATION FOR TESTING DESIGNS FOR USE OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

IT WILL CONSIST, THEY SAID, OF A GROUP OF "PROTOTYPE PLANTS," SOME TIMES CALLED "PILOT PLANTS."

AEC COMMISSIONER ROBERT F.BACHER REVEALED THE PLAN IN A SPEECH LAST MONTH AT BOSTON.

"THIS FIELD STATION," HE SAID, "WILL BECOME A MAJOR NEW INSTALLATION IN THE NEXT FOUR YEARS. THE SITE FOR THIS NEW INSTALLATION HAS NOT YET BEEN SELECTED BUT ENOUGH PROSPECTING HAS BEEN DONE TO DETERMINE THAT IT WILL BE IN THE WESTERN PART OF THE UNITED STATES."

SENATOR MILLER (D-IDAHO) SAID SATURDAY HE HAS BEEN INFORMED A SITE NEAR POCATELLO,IDAHO, "HAS HIGH PRIORITY."

AEC WOULD NOT CONFIRM THIS DEFINITE LOCATION BUT SAID ONE SITE IS UNDER CONSIDERATION IN IDAHO AND ONE IN MONTANA. THESE, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, ARE TWO OF SEVERAL BEING STUDIED. THE DEGREE OF CONSIDERATION GIVEN ANY SPECIFIC SITE CAN'T NOW BE INDICATED.

COL.M.P.GOODFELLOW, PUBLISHER OF THE POCATELLO TRIBUNE, SAID HE HAD KNOWN FOR SOME TIME AN IDAHO SITE HAS BEEN GIVEN MUCH STUDY.

"SOUTHEASTERN IDAHO," HE SAID, "WOULD SEEM TO OFFER MANY ADVANTAGES FOR SUCH A STATION, NOT THE LEAST OF WHICH IS THE LARGE AMOUNT OF PUBLIC LAND IN THE AREA. THE GOVERNMENT WOULD DO WELL TO MAKE USE OF ITS PROPERTY."

BACHER SAID:

"THIS NEW TEST STATION WILL BE ESSENTIALLY A FIELD FACILITY FOR THE ARGONNE NATIONAL LABORATORY (CHICAGO), WHICH IS THE MAJOR CENTER FOR THE COMMISSION'S NUCLEAR REACTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM. THE OAK RIDGE NATIONAL LABORATORY, THE KNOLLS ATOMIC POWER LABORATORY AND THE WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC CORPORATION, AS WELL AS OTHER COMMISSION LABORATORIES, WILL ALSO USE THIS STATION AS A FIELD TEST SITE."

THE COMMISSION'S SPOKESMEN SAID THAT THOUGH THE PLANT WILL PRODUCE NOTHING EXPLOSIVE, HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH GUIDED MISSILES AND IS NOT A WEAPON CENTER "IN ANY SENSE," CERTAIN BASIC PRECAUTIONS OBSERVED AT SUCH PLANTS AS HANFORD,WASH., WILL BE OBSERVED.

THESE, HE SAID, WILL BE DIRECTED TOWARD SECURITY (MEANING SECRECY) AND SAFETY. THE AREA TO BE SELECTED, HE SAID, WILL BE AT SOME DISTANCE FROM POPULATION CENTERS AND WILL BE UNDER FENCE.

EMPLOYES AND THE TECHNICAL STAFF WILL BE HOUSED AT THE PLANT. THE SIZE OF THE COLONY WILL NECESSARILY BE DETERMINED BY THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PLANT.

BACHER SAID IT IS DEFINITELY PLANNED TO BUILD AT THE FIELD STATION "TWO OF THE FOUR REACTORS NOW ON THE DRAWING BOARDS."

ONE IS DESIGNED TO TEST MATERIALS FOR THEIR RESPONSE TO EXPOSURE TO ATOMIC ENERGY AND THE OTHER TO UTILIZE ATOMIC ENERGY FOR SHIP PROPULSION.

THE SPOKESMAN EXPLAINED THE TERM "REACTOR" AS THE SAME AS THE "PILE" REFERRED TO IN EARLIER DISCUSSIONS OF ATOMIC ENERGY. IT IS, HE SAID, "A SHORT OF MACHINE IN WHICH THE ATOMIC REACTION TAKES PLACE."

THE REACTOR, HE SAID, WILL BE "FAIRLY LARGE AND FAIRLY HIGH IN ENERGY" BUT WILL BE SHIELDED AGAINST UNCONTROLLED DISPERSION. IN ADDITION TO THE TWO PROJECTS MENTIONED BY BACHER, THE SPOKESMAN SAID A METHOD OF PRODUCING ELECTRIC POWER THROUGH HEAT GENERATED BY ATOMIC ENERGY IS UNDER STUDY.

THERE WAS NO ESTIMATE AVAILABLE AS TO THE COST OF THE WESTERN PROJECT BUT THE 1950 BUDGET CARRIES A RECOMMENDATION FOR $120,000,000 FOR AEC. THIS IS ABOUT TWICE THE CURRENT YEAR'S SPENDING.

ALTHOUGH THE PHYSICAL DESTRUCTION IN SUCH AN AREA WOULD BE VERY EXTENSIVE, DR.PENDERGRASS SAID:

"THE EARLY CONCEPT OF A 'DOOMED AREA' OF APPROXIMATELY TWO SQUARE MILES DIRECTLY UNDER THE POINT IN AIR WHERE THE BOMB EXPLODES X X X IS NOW THOROUGHLY DISPROVED.

"WHERE THE ATTACK IS MADE OVER A METROPOLITAN AREA, IT IS PROBABLE THAT MANY PERSONS WILL SURVIVE THE BOMB'S DEADLY INSTANTANEOUS RADIATIONS. THEIR SURVIVAL WILL BE THE RESULT OF CHANCE 'SHIELDING' EFFECT FROM REINFORCED CONCRETE, BRICK AND TILE FLOORS AND WALKSMZ

THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA SCIENTIST SAID HIS OPINIONS DO NOT PERTAIN TO UNDERWATER ATOMIC BOMB EXPLOSIONS WITH THEIR ACCOMPANYING "MUSHROOM" OF POISONOUSLY RADIOACTIVE WATER.

DR.PENDERGRASS SAID HE WAS NOT ATTEMPTING TO "DEBUNK" THE POWER OF NUCLEAR EXPLOSIONS, BUT RATHER TO DRAW IT DOWN TO A SOMEWHAT MORE RATIONAL FOCUS.

DR.PENDERGRASS WAS PRESENT AS AN EXPERT CONSULTANT AT BIKINI AND LAST SUMMER MADE A SERIES OF STUDIES OF THE A-BOMB EFFECTS IN JAPAN.

4 PASTORS IN SOFIA TRIAL GET LIFE

MAR 8 1949

15 Clerics Sentenced In Bulgaria

MAR 8 1949

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 8 (AP)—A Bulgarian court convicted fifteen Protestant ministers today on charges ranging from treason to rumormongering and sentenced four of them to life imprisonment.

Prison terms of from one to fifteen years were assigned the others.

Fines were levied against all fifteen and several defendants were sentenced to loss of their political and civil rights.

None appealed, so the sentences took effect immediately.

The Moscow-trained prosecutor, Dimiter Georgiev, also declared himself satisfied. He had demanded hanging for the four leaders of the group, members of the Supreme Council of the United Evangelical Churches of Bulgaria, but the court did not agree. All escaped the death penalty.

One Thanks The Court

One of the four, the Rev. Vassil Ziapkov, 48, drew four individual sentences, including two for life. However, all multiple sentences in the case are to be served concurrently and the average Bulgarian lifer, with time off for good behavior, is freed after fifteen years.

As a motion-picture crew filmed the scene, the Rev. Mr. Ziapkov burst into tears and declared:

"I am content. I promise to work with all my strength to build the new man in myself and to help in the construction of our Socialist republic.

The others made similar declarations. One, the Rev. Ladin Popov, thanked the court "for the mercy you showed me."

Judge Reads Sentences

The presiding judge, 38-year-old Constantine Undjiev, read the sentences in a 55-minute session. A huge plaster bust of Communist Premier Georgi Dimitrov was the dominating figure in the small courtroom.

Undjiev pronounced life sentences for the following chief defendants:

THE REV. MR. ZIAPKOV, head of the Congregational Church, accused of heading a spy net for Britain and the United States, also given fifteen years for incitement against the Government and five years for spreading rumors.

THE REV. YANKO IVANOV, 48, head of the Methodist Church.

THE REV. NIKOLA NAUMOV, 49, head of the Baptist Church.

THE REV. GEORGI CHERNEV, 46, head of the Pentecost Church.

Each was fined 1,000,000 leva ($3,570), and sentenced to confiscation of all property and loss of civil rights.

15 Years For Spying

The other sentences were:

THE REV. LAMBRI MISHKOV, 41, Congregationalist, fifteen years for spying, three years for spreading rumors, a fine of 250,000 leva ($890).

THE REV. GEORGI VASSEV, 48, Baptist, same as the Rev. Mr. Mishkov.

THE REV. HARALAN POPOV, Pentecostal, fifteen years for spying, three years for spreading rumors, a fine of 4,250,000 leva ($15,170) for black marketing.

THE REV. IONCHO DRIANOV, 41, Pentecostal, ten years for spying, fine of 150,000 leva ($535), deprived of rights for fifteen years.

THE REV. IVAN STANKULOV, 44, Baptist, same as the Rev. Mr. Drianov.

THE REV. ZDRAVKO BEZKOV, 28, youngest of the defendants, Methodist, fifteen years for espionage, three years for spreading rumors, a fine of 250,000 leva.

THE REV. ZAHARI RAICHEV, 50, Baptist, ten years for spying, a fine of 150,000 leva.

THE REV. LADIN POPOV, 36, Pentecostal, the only defendant who refused to confess to spying, was acquitted on that charge, but got five years in prison and a 4,000,000-leva fine ($14,280) for black marketing.

THE REV. MITKO DIMITROV, 39, Church of Christ, six years eight months, for spying, one year for spreading rumors, a fine of 10,000 leva ($32), loss of civil rights for eight years and loss of property.

THE REV. ANGEL DINEV, 40, Pentecostal, acquitted of spying, but sentenced to one year for spreading rumors, fined 10,000 leva and sentenced to loss of civil rights for two years and loss of property.

THE REV. ALEXANDER ZAHARIEV, 73, eldest of the defendants, Methodist, acquitted of espionage, but senteced to one year for spreading rumors, fined 5,000 leva ($16) and sentenced to loss of rights for two years.

Two Ordered Freed

The court ordered the Rev. Mr. Zahariev and the Rev. Mr. Dinev released immediately because they had already been in jail several months.

The other defendants' terms in prison probably will amount actually to about two thirds of the sentence, with time allowed for good behavior and satisfactory work in prison.

The presiding judge addressed the defendants severely, telling them they had committed the most serious crime under the laws of Bulgaria or any other country—espionage. However, three were acquitted of the spy charge.

Church Council Target

Some of the defendants had been in jail at least since January 6. It was not until February 10 that their arrest was announced with release of the indictments which named twelve Britons and Americans, some of them prominent Protestant churchmen, as "spy contacts" of the defendants.

Much of the testimony in the seven-day trial was directed against the World Council of Churches, which Bulgarian Communists called "the Protestant Vatican."

The Communist press of Bulgaria vigorously denied charges abroad that the trial was religious persecution aimed at breaking up foreign contacts of Bulgarian Protestants.

4 Sofia Pastors Given Life Sentences

MAR 8 1949

Sofia, Bulgaria, March 8 (AP)—Communist Bulgaria meted out prison terms today to fifteen Protestant churchmen accused of spying and black-marketing. Four were sentenced to life imprisonment; the others received sentences of one to eighteen years.

The ministers, called "squealing little rats" by a Government paper, stood without emotion while the three judges announced the sentences. Then all announced they were satisfied with the findings and would not appeal.

Ziapkov In Tears

Vassil Ziapkov, 48, the leading defendant, broke into tears again at the conclusion of the judges' reading. Weeping, he declared:

"I am satisfied. I promise to work with all my strength to build the new man in myself and to help in the construction of our Socialist republic."

Ziapkov, a Congregationalist minister who is religious representative of the Protestant denominations, was sentenced to life, and in addition got terms of five years for spreading false rumors and fifteen years for allegedly trying to incite against the Government.

Other Sentences

Also sentenced to life were Yanko Ivanov, Methodist; Nikola Naumov, Baptist, and Georgi Chernev, Pentecostal. The property of all four was confiscated and their civil rights were taken away.

Four defendants were sentenced to eighteen years, three to ten years, one to seven years and eight months, one to five years and two to a single year. Angel Diven and Alexander Zahariev, who got the lightest terms, were ordered released, since they had been in prison several months awaiting trial.

All the ministers were accused of spying for the United States and Britain and of black-market currency dealings. Ziapkov also was accused of treason. All confessed at length, some with tears. Some begged for mercy and professed conversion to communism.

"Committed Worst Crime"

Presiding Judge Constantine Undjiev, who in 1947 sentenced the Agrarian leader, Nikola Petkov, to death, told the defendants as he passed sentences:

"You have committed the worst crime — espionage — not only against the laws of the country but against the laws of any country. Your attitude in the future will determine your progress toward the new life."

The three judges acquitted three lesser defendants of espionage charges but sentenced them on other counts.

Life-term sentences in Bulgaria generally last only about fifteen years. Time off is granted for good behavior and satisfactory work in prison.

Ziapkov, the main defendant and religious representative of the Protestant denominations, was accused of leading an organized intelligence net for the two Western powers. Added to his life sentence was a five-year term on a count of spreading rumors about the country's economic life. He got also a fifteen-year sentence for allegedly trying to incite against the Government.

Sentences Are Listed

Other sentences were:

Lambri Mishkov, 41, Congregationist, fifteen years for spying, three years for spreading false rumors and a fine of 250,000 leva (about $937.50).

Georgi Vassev, 48, Baptist, got the same sentence as Mishkov.

Haralan Popov, 41, Pentecostal fifteen years for spying, three years for spreading false rumors, 250,000 leva (about $15,000) for black-market dealings in dollars.

Ioncho Drianov, 41, Pentecostal, and Ivan Stankulov, 44, Baptist, each was sentenced to ten years for spying and 150,000 leva fines on the same charges. Additionally, they were deprived for fifteen years of political and civil rights.

Ex-Army Reservist Sentenced

Zdravko Bezlov, 28, Methodist, fifteeen years for espionage, three years for spreading false rumors and a 250,000 leva fine on the same charges. His sentence was heavier because he had been in the military reserve.

Zahari Raichev, Baptist, ten years for spying and a 150,000 leva fine.

Ladin Popov, 36, Pentecostal, was acquitted on spy charges, but was sentenced to five years in prison and a 4,000,000 leva fine for black marketing.

Loses Civil Rights

Mitko Dimitrov, 39, of the Church of Christ, got six years and eight months for spying, one year for spreading rumors and a fine of 10,000 levas. He was deprived of civil rights for eight years. His property was confiscated.

Angel Dinev, 40, also Pentecostal, was acquitted of spying but got a year for spreading false rumors. He was fined 10,000 levas, his property was confiscated and his civil rights were lifted for two years.

Alexander Zahariev, 65, Methodist minister, was acquitted of espionage but sentenced to a year in prison for spreading false rumors. He was fined 5,000 levas and deprived of civil rights for two years.

All the churchmen stood before the three judges in the Palace of Justice listening to their sentences. There was no visible emotional reaction from any of them.

BULGAR TERMS ARE DENOUNCED

MAR 8 1949

Clerics's Sentences Condemned In U.S. And Abroad

Washington, March 8 (AP)—Churchmen and laymen in the United States and abroad were quick to brand the sentencing of fifteen Bulgarian Protestant ministers as an attack on Christianity as a whole.

At Geneva, Switzerland, Bishop Paul Garber of the Methodist Church, called the sentencing an attempt to erase Christian influence in Communist countries.

"The Christian church will live on long after communism has passed into discard," he said.

Bishop Garber's jurisdiction is the Geneva area, which includes Soviet sateline states of Eastern Europe.

Have To Go Underground

In Mobile, Ala., Bishop Garber was quoted as telling a former student that Christians in Russian-dominated countries will have to go underground as Christians of the First Century did under Roman persecution.

"The Orthodox Church has gone over to the state and the Protestant churches refused to do it," Bishop Garber said in a telephone conversation with a Mobile Methodist minister, who asked that his name be withheld. This minister said he called Bishop Garber several days ago to make certain he was not a prisoner of the Bulgarian authorities.

Sentences Called Vindictive

The Catholic Archbishop of Liverpool, England, the Most Rev. Richard Downey, termed the sentences "vindictive," but said they were to be expected "as the whole purpose of these trials is to eliminate Christianity."

In this country, the head of America's largest Protestant organization saw the convictions as "a design to bring the church into complete submission to the state."

The comment came from Bishop John S. Stamm, of Harrisburg, Pa., president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The council now is meeting at Cleveland.

Increasing Concern

Bishop Stamm, of the eastern area of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, said in his statement that this development is "causing increasing concern to all Christians."

The council expects a fuller statement by its executive committee in New York next Tuesday, he added.

A Princeton University associate professor, Cyril E. Black, predicted that Catholic leaders would be the next targets of the Bulgarian Government. He was a United States political attaché in Bulgaria in 1944 and 1945.

Calls Charges Fantastic

He described as "fantastic" charges at the Bulgarian hearings that he was implicated in any alleged spy activities by the convicted ministers. Clergymen came to the American legation where he was stationed, he said, only to seek more relief from mother churches abroad.

Black prophesied that Communists controlling Bulgaria eventually would "turn on all churches."

A notable exception to the criticism of the sentences was voiced by the Rev. George Chambers, the so-called "Red Vicar" of Carbrooke in Norfolk, England.

He said in London that the trial of the Bulgarian clergymen was "perfectly fair and legal." He added that it was "regrettable" that it was being considered "an attack on the church."

In the Rev. Mr. Chambers's parish church is a 2-foot wooden crucifix showing Christ holding a hammer and sickle.

PACT PROVISIONS ARE APPROVED BY SENATE LEADERS

MAR 8 1949

Washington, March 8 (AP)—Negotiations for the North Atlantic defense alliance entered the closing stages today as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee informally approved the proposed treaty's provisions.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), committee chairman, said that "as far as we are concerned all the work has been done." He said that the participating nations will sign the agreement in about two weeks, after which it will be submitted to the Senate for ratification.

Connally said the full text of the compact will be made public "in advance of its signing so there will be ample opportunity for public discussion."

Will Answer Complaints

Once the final draft is publicized, he said "the results will answer the complaints made against the treaty here in the United States."

On this score Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) also gave reassurances that "fears which have been expressed about its prospective form will be dissipated by publication of the text."

Some fears had been expressed in the Senate that the treaty might short circuit Congress' power to declare war by committing the nation in advance to go to war against an aggressor. The prime purpose of the treaty is to bulwark the West against Communist expansion.

Connally and Vandenberg spoke out after the committee had devoted almost three hours to a detailed discussion of the pact's phraseology with Dean Acheson, Secretary of State.

Give No Details

No committee member, however, would go into any details on the scope of the proposed pact which would align this country's security system with those of Canada, Great Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Norway.

Connally did say, however, that he thinks the treaty will be "satisfactory" to the other nations which have expressed some uneasiness over United States intentions in the military security clause of the pact.

But he added dryly: "I don't think it will satisfy Mr. Stalin."

Questions Automatic Action

Before the committee session Senator Watkins (R., Utah) had raised the question as to whether the pact involves an "automatic commitment" for this country to go to war if an alliance member is attacked.

Watkins told the senate he wants to uphold the president in the "cold war against Russia" but that he could not go along with a violation of the constitution and allow the United States to be involved in a war without consent of Congress.

But Senator George (D., Ga.), a member of the foreign relations committee, said later that no such commitment is involved. He said in an interview that the pact "will permit each nation, including the United States, to determine at the time (of aggression) what action it will take and in what form and the extent of the contribution it will make to stop aggression against any member of the pact."

Viewed As Moral Obligation

George said, however, that so far as he is concerned the treaty "creates a moral obligation" because it is "in the direction of an actual obligation so long as the treaty is in force."

If the alliance is to have any "force and effect," George said it will have to be backed up by American military aid to the European members.

George has said previously that he understands the initial cost of such an arms program would be over $1,000,000,000. He called anew for the State Department to give the committee a detailed estimate of what military aid to Europe will cost in the next year.

The objective of the regional security agreement is to solidify the Western powers' stand against any aggression and to emphasize their aim of maintaining the peace even with force, if need be, as set forth in the United Nations Charter.

20-Year Pact Reported

Diplomatic officials connected with the alliance negotiations, which began last summer, said the present draft provides for a 20-year agreement which can be reviewed after ten years.

Before the final negotiations are concluded, several nations are expected to be invited to join the regional pact. Committee members said this matter was not discussed at today's session, but it has been indicated previously that Italy, Denmark, Portugal and Iceland probably will be invited to sign the final agreement.

Representatives of the eight nations now engaged in the talks are expected to meet again Friday to go over any last-minute suggestions or objections their home governments have to the treaty as it now stands.

Atlantic Treaty Writing Is Finished

MAR 8 1949

Washington, March 8 (AP)—A draft of the proposed North Atlantic defense treaty has been sent to the eight sponsoring governments for final review and approval.

This means that the negotiators here have, for all practical purposes, completed their work—unless one of the home governments should suggest some major change.

Secretary of State Acheson, it was learned, has arranged to seek unqualified approval of the pact, as now drawn up, from key congressional leaders.

Will Meet Senators

Acheson scheduled a conference today with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to go over the main points before making a summary public.

Acheson was reported ready to tell the senators that the diplomatic envoys negotiating the treaty now feel Italy can and should be brought into the alliance quickly, along with Denmark, Portugal and Iceland.

The nations now negotiating it are the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Norway.

Final Session Due

The home governments are expected to look over the complete text and to forward any final suggestions for changes and amendments in time for the next meeting of the negotiators on Friday. If the sponsoring governments are satisfied with the draft as it now stands, the Friday session may be the last on a working level.

At yesterday's meeting, the eight negotiators "polished" the key article to the agreement—the one which commits participating governments to help any member attacked.

The treaty is reported to make plain that the signatory powers are trying to strengthen the United Nations in its task of keeping peace. Article 51 of the United Nations Charter provides for regional arrangements to help maintain peace. That article is described as the basis of the alliance.

To Last 20 Years

Diplomatic officials connected with the discussions said the present draft provides for an alliance lasting twenty years, with the provision that the arrangement can be reviewed after ten years.

The pact generally follows the form of the treaty the United States has negotiated with the other American republics. Consultations are provided for among member governments whenever a situation arises which may threaten the peace.

It is also reported to provide for mutual aid in the preparation of defense.

Italian Cabinet Favors Atlantic Pact

Rome, March 8 (AP)—Italy's Cabinet today unanimously approved Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza's pro-American policies and backed the nation's proposed entry into the North Atlantic Alliance.

The action reaffirmed Premier Alcide de Gasperi's pledge that Italy would co-operate fully with anti-Communist nations in the defense of western Europe.

The Communists and their Left-Wing Socialist allies have said civil strife might follow Italy's entry into any military pact. The Government contends, however, that the Atlantic pact is purely defensive.

Soviet Shifts High Official

MAR 9 1949

London, Wednesday, March 9 (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today another change aecting high ranking members of the Government.

The Moscow Radio said Alexander I. Yefremov has been appointed a deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers—the cabinet of the Soviet Union.

Yefremov has been Minister of the Machine Tool Building Industry, a post he has occupied since June, 1941. Succeeding him in that post is A. I. Kostousov.

The announcement said the appointment freed Yefremov "from his responsibilities as Minister of the Machine Tool Building Industry."

It was issued by the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet (parliament).

To Strengthen Leadership

Western diplomats have interpreted the changes in Soviet officialdom as designed to strengthen Russian leadership.

The first change came with the relieving of Vyacheslav M. Molotov from his duties as Foreign Minister, Molotov is also a deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers. At least nine other high ranking Soviet officials also hold that post.

President of the Council of Ministers is Prime Minister Stalin.

The short announcement did not specify whether Yefremov replaced another deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers.

Considered Promotion

It said:

"The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. has appointed Alexander Ilaronovich Yefremov as deputy chairman of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R., freeing him from his responsibilities of Minister of the Machine Tool Building Industry."

The Soviet monitor in London, who recorded the broadcast, expressed the opinion a new deputy chairmanship was created for Yefremov and could be regarded as a promotion.

Royal Navy Plans Atomic Ray Test

London, March 8 (AP)—The Admiralty disclosed today plans to bombard a royal navy cruiser with atomic rays to test the British Navy's atom bomb defenses.

The tests are planned this summer in the English Channel.

Navy scientists on pontoon rafts will shoot gamma rays at the cruiser Arethusa to see what is needed to defend a warship in an atomic bomb attack. Commercial shipping will be barred from the area.

John Dugdale, Financial Secretary of the Admiralty, referred to the atom tests in Parliament, where he asked approval of the Navy's 1949-50 budget estimate of $757,000,000.

At the same time he said Britain is carrying on "highly secret" work in development of better submarines. The results, he added, "are quite spectacular and most satisfactory."

Moscow Radio Charges Koreans Jail 30,000

London, Wednesday, March 9 (AP). A Moscow radio commentator charged today that "30,000 patriots are in prison in southern Korea." He said the figure was 10,000 more than were held under Japanese rule.

The commentator made the statement in speaking favorably of the current Moscow visit of a delegation from the Soviet-sponsored government of northern Korea.

Southern Korea is occupied by the United States Army. Its government was chosen in an election sponsored by the United Nations. Russia has pulled her troops out of northern Korea.

France Is Called Cool In Cripps's Austerity Plea

MAR 8 1949

Paris, March 8 (AP)—People on the Continent apparently aren't going to tighten their belts as the British do.

Reliable sources said today that the executive commission of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation has decided to maintain present living standards and not follow suggestions of Sir Stafford Cripps.

Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer was reported to have suggested that the nineteen areas in the Marshall plan cut their dollar purchases ten per cent this year.

Opposes Austerity

That would have required some of the austerity Cripps has been supervising in Britain.

Britain, France, Belgium, Sweden, Turkey, Italy, Switzerland and the Netherlands are represented on the Executive Council, meeting here.

France is said to have taken the lead against the plan for balancing European trade by slashing dollar purchases. Cripps was said to have made important concessions.

Co-Operation Set

Cripps's proposal for a cut in the dollar purchases, it was said, was changed to a plan for reduced buying from the dollar area as new sources of supply are found outside it. The aim is for Europe to be independent of extraordinary aid from the United States in 1952, when the Marshall plan is due to end.

It was reported that the Benelux countries—Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—which have been buying heavily in the United States, agreed to cut down.

One of the most important points said to have been agreed on is increased co-operation among the nineteen Marshall plan areas to avoid overlapping in production.

France, Bao Dai Agree To Terms

Paris, March 8 (AP)—France today made a deal with Bao Dai, ex-Emperor of Annam, that she hopes will end the Indo-China war.

The former Emperor will go back to the Far Eastern colony April 25, bearing promises of increased independence for the Indo-Chinese people.

Under the tentative accord, the three states of Annam, Tonkin and Cochin-China can merge, either into a Viet-Nam monarchy or a republic. Viet-Nam is the Indo-China name for the three states.

France promised today that such a state could send its own diplomats to certain countries, such as China, Siam and the Vatican, and could also accredit foreign diplomats.

The Viet-Nam state would have its own army, with Indo-China officers and French instructors. However, a French Army also could be maintained. In time of war a Frenchman would command the two armies.

MAR 8 1949

Indo-French Pact May End Civil War

Paris, March 8 (AP)—President Vincent Auriol of France and former Emperor Bao Dai of Annam signed articles today which the French hoped would end the civil war in Indo-China.

Bao Dai announced later that he would return to Indo-China April 25. Annam is a native kingdom making up a large part of the French protectorate of Indo-China.

The articles, which have yet to be debated in the National Assembly, would return Bao Dai to the throne of an enlarged Annam.

A "Subterfuge"

The underground Viet-Nam radio, somewhere in Indo-China, broadcast a statement that Bao Dai, who the French hope can make peace with the rebels, would be named a war criminal if he made the deal with Auriol.

Viet-Namese leaders, headed by Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh, broadcast that "the agreement at Elysee Palace is nothing but a subterfuge, a quasi-independence."

Pope's Intervention Saves 2 Spaniards

Paris, March 8 (AP)—Intervention of the Pope has saved two Spanish labor leaders from death sentences, the newspaper L'Aube said today.

Death sentences against Marcos Nadal and Jose Santue were commuted to 30 years in prison by Generalissimo Francisco Franco, head of the Spanish Government, said the organ of the Popular Republican Movement party.

L'Aube said that the Pope's request for clemency was transmitted to Franco by the Papal Nuncio in Madrid.

Nadal, 34, was secretary general of the Spanish National Labor Confederation, illegal under the Franco regime, but recently reorganized secretly.

Santue was secretary of the Federation of Radio Operators, affiliated with the national confederation.

They were accused of sabotage and conspiracy.

Spy Trial Hears 'Courier' Tell Of Contacts

MAR 8 1949

Munich, March 8 (AP)—A German who posed as a spy courier was a star prosecution witness today in the espionage trial of eight Europeans.

Shortly after Wilhelm Moekel took the stand to tell of his activities with the three women defendants, one of them broke down, weeping loudly.

Brig. Gen. John McKee, chairman of the commission, ordered a recess so Gertie Doerre, 26, could compose herself. But as the commission left the room she leaped to her feet and pointed at the witness.

Continues To Sob

"He could say I even killed somebody and they would believe him."

She shouted in Czech. Maria Hablick, another woman defendant, put her arms around the Doerre woman, who continued to sob violently.

The third woman defendant, Edith Dittrich, 25, grinned as she watched Fraulein Doerre break down.

The eight defendants are charged with having obtained United States military information for a foreign power. Thus far a former Czecholovak intelligence captain has linked three of the defendants directly with his own operations. He led his country last November, bringing secret files to the United States zone of Germany.

Employed By CIC

Moekel testified he was employed by the American Counter Intelligence Corps. He said he had made frequent trips into Czechoslovakia as a workman and had met the three women there, along with two members of the Czechoslovak intelligence service.

He later accompanied them on repeated trips across the border. He testified they all transmitted United States zone information to Czechoslovakia.

2 BERLIN REDS FLEE

BERLIN, March 8.—(AP) Desertion of two more ranking communists in Germany from the Red ranks was reported today by the British-licensed newspaper, Telegraf. The paper said Joachim Schwellin, former chief editor in Berlin of the Soviet-licensed news agency, ADN, had resigned from his job and from the communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party. The paper also reported Willi Ochel, chief of the Russian zone's big United Wagon and Engine Works, had fled with his family to Western Germany.

Judge Roy S. Wood, of the Berlin Military Government Court, said Reiss pleaded guilty.

The United States Military Government forbids transfer of more than 300 marks from Berlin to the western zones.

Reds Vow To Aid Russ Army In Switzerland

MAR 8 1949

Geneva, Switzerland, March 8 (AP) The Central Committee of the Swiss Workers party (Communist) announced today its support of the announced French Communist intention to aid the Russians if the Soviet Army "pursued an aggressor" on French soil.

The midget Swiss Communist organization thus joined its bigger brothers in France, Britain, Italy, Austria, Germany and the United States in lining up with Moscow.

Hit U.S. Imperialism

"The central committee of the Swiss Workers party is convinced that the position taken by the Communist party of France, which tends to eliminate the possibility of France becoming the base for a warlike adventure conducted by the American imperialists, is a valuable and essential contribution to the maintenance of peace, and is also in the interests of the Swiss people," the Communist newspaper Boix Ouvrier said.

The Swiss [illegible]munists hold 7 of the 194 seats [illegible]e National Council.

Dutch Reds Pledge Red Army Loyalty

Amsterdam, March 8 (AP)—The Dutch Communist party yesterday in a statement by its secretary, Paul de Groot, declared itself "in complete solidarity" with the statements of French and Italian Communists on their attitude in the event of an East-West clash.

Referring to the predicted support by the masses "when the Soviet armies would pursue the imperialistic foes over the borders" of France and Italy, de Groot said that, "if such happens in Rome and Paris, Amsterdam will not lag behind."

Dutch Cabinet Meets On Indonesia Situation

The Hague, March 8 (AP)—The Dutch Cabinet met in special session today to discuss the Indonesian situation. Government circles admit it will not be possible to hold round-table talks with Indonesian leaders Saturday as planned.

Ana 'Declares War On Those Who Want It'

Bucharest, Romania, March 8 (AP)—Ana Pauker, Romania's Communist Foreign Minister, issued today what she termed a "declaration of war against those who want to wage war."

She echoed the statements of Communists in western Europe that Russian armies would be liberating armies and then declared that for expressing this the Communists in capitalist nations are being subjected to persecution and terror.

Mrs. Pauker called upon this nation's women to rally in "the wrestling match for peace" and against "British-American imperialists."

ISRAEL TO SEEK ARAB ALLIANCE

MAR 9 1949

Ben-Gurion Declares Aim For Nonmilitary Ties

E GOTTSCHALK

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 8 (AP)—David Ben-Gurion, Prime Minister, opened the first working session of Israel's Parliament in Tel Aviv today by declaring he would seek a nonmilitary alliance with the Arabs.

The policy of his new twelve-member Cabinet will be the achievement of an "Arab-Jewish alliance based on economic, social, cultural and political co-operation," he said. "This alliance must be within the framework of the United Nations and cannot be directed against any of its members."

Asked To Ratify U.S. Loan

The 120-member Parliament also received from Treasurer Eliezer Kaplan a request for ratification of the $100,000,000 loan offered by the American Import-Export Bank for Israel's development.

Kaplan said the loan was evidence of American confidence in the prospects for Israeli economy.

Ben-Gurion's statement, which was translated into Arabic for the three Arab members, said the Government would guarantee by law "complete equality of rights and obligations for all citizens, regardless of creed, race or nationality."

He emphasized the "right of all Jews who wish to resettle in their historic homeland to leave the countries of their present abode."

To Abolish Military Rule

Meanwhile, the Israeli Defense Ministry was disclosed to be preparing for the complete abolition of military governorship in all Israeli-occupied territory in Palestine. Civil administration will take over, as it already has in Jerusalem.

[In Rhodes, the United Nations acting mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, said he would meet Israel and Trans-Jordan armistice negotiators together tomorrow for discussion of an armistice line.

[Dispatches from Amman, Trans-Jordan's capital, said reports had been received there that the Israelis were reinforcing their lines along the Iraqi front in central Palestine. Some observers interpreted the troop movements as pressure upon Iraq to join the armistice negotiations.]

PARLIAMENT OPENS SESSION IN ISRAEL

MAR 8 1949

Tel Aviv, March 8 (A. P.).—Israel's new Parliament went to work today.. Addressing the 120-man body, Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion presented his program for the new Cabinet, which replaces the provisional group he headed since last May, offered friendship to the Arab states, and pledged adherence to United Nations ideals.

Ben-Gurion declared Israel "shall guarantee by law complete equality of rights and obligations for all citizens, regardless of creed, race, or nationality," and he stressed the "right of all Jews who wish to resettle in their historic homeland to leave the countries of their present abode."

His statement promised to try to achieve an Arab-Israeli alliance "based on economic, social, cultural and political cooperation."

Later, Elieser Kaplan, Irsaeli Finance Minister, asked Parliament to ratify a $100,000,000 loan offered by the American Import-Export Bank for developing Israel.

The Foreign Office declined to comment beyond that it had discussed with the emissary a proposed basis for entering armistice talks.

NEHRU SAYS INDIA CAN AID PEACE BY AVOIDING 'PACTS'

R. SARAKOLAN

NEW DELHI, India, March 8—(AP) Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said today India can help prevent another world war by avoiding a lineup with any world power or power bloc.

"The only possible (Indian) foreign policy x x x in the interests of world peace," Nehru told the legislative assembly, "is not to get entangled, militarily or otherwise, with any power or groups of powers."

Referring to the dominion's future relations with the British Commonwealth, the prime minister said:

To Be Sovereign Republic

"India naturally and inevitably will become, in the next few months an independent, sovereign republic. She never accepts the slightest degree of dependency on any foreign authority."

(More than a year before India obtained dominion status Aug. 15, 1947, British Prime Minister Attlee told the House of Commons that, "in our view, she has the right" to choose full independence. He said "the British Commonwealth and empire is not bound together by the chains of external compulsion.")

Nehru, whose government has deployed troops to combat a communist-inspired railway, mail and telegraph strike scheduled to start tomorrow, told the assembly "the various isms that threaten conflict are legacies of Europe's power politics."

"There is no reason why India should borrow any ideology in toto or join any power or group," he said.

"The major question today is the readjustment of relations between Asia and Europe. India has become a kind of meeting ground for various trends and forces of the east and west.

"The domination of Europe is largely gone, but her legacy of conflict and power politics still remains. Asia has no such legacy, making it easy for Asia—especially India—to prevent another world catastrophe.

"India Becoming Giant Again"

"India is becoming a giant again. She is the largest single political unit in terms of population and, in the course of time, other potentials. Geographically, India is centrally located and nothing can happen in this part of the world without India in it."

(The dominion's population is about 320,000,000. China's population is larger, 462,798,093 by the 1943 census, but is split by the Chinese cival war.")

The national government has announced it will use troops to replace strikers if any large number of railway, mail and telegraph service workers walk out tomorrow. Among other things, the workers ask more pay.

In Bombay province, police and military guards were ordered to shoot anyone caught attempting to tamper with railroad or other essential public service properties.

A provincial government spokesman said precautions were being taken in the Calcutta, Assam and Madras areas, as well as Bombay. He said those areas were main centers of communist strength. About 1,000 railway men, mostly communists, have been arrested in recent weeks.

India To Shun World Power Politics: Nehru

MAR 8 1949

New Delhi, India, March 8 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru re-emphasized today India's intention to stay out of world power politics.

"There is no reason why India should borrow any ideology in toto or join any power or group," Nehru told the Legislative Assembly.

Nehru continued:

"The major question today is the readjustment of relations between Asia and Europe. India has become a kind of meeting ground for various trends and forces of the East and West.

"Easy For Asia"

"The domination of Europe is largely gone, but her legacy of conflict and power politics still remains. Asia has no such legacy, making it easy for Asia—especially India—to prevent another world catastrophe.

"India is becoming a giant again," the Prime Minister declared. "She is the largest single political unit in terms of population and, in the course of time, other potentials. Geographically, India is centrally located and nothing can happen in this part of the world without India in it.

Foreign Policy

"The only possible foreign policy in the present and future in the interests of world peace is not to get entangled, militarily or otherwise, with any power or groups of powers," Nehru said.

Referring to India's relations with the Commonwealth, the Prime Minister said, "India naturally and inevitably will become in the next few months, an independent sovereign republic. She will never accept in the slightest degree dependency on any foreign authority. Subject to this, she proposes to establish close friendly relations with other nations."

India Deploys Troops To Oppose Red Strike

MAR 8 1949

New Delhi, India, March 8 (AP)—The Government of India deployed troops today to combat a Communist-fomented nation-wide railway, mail and telegraph strike, scheduled tomorrow.

The Bombay Provincial Government ordered police and military guards to shoot anyone caught tampering with rail... or other public service ...

Will Employ Army

The National Government announced it will use troops to replace strikers, if they walk from their jobs in large numbers. An official spokesman said precautions were being taken in the Calcutta, Assam and Madras areas as well as Bombay. He described those areas as centers of Communist strength.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru contends the strike was called by Communists to embarrass his Congress party Government and cause chaos in the country.

Rebellion Nipped

He told Parliament the Government had nipped Communist plans to foment rebellion, and that the strike was attributable to the same rebellious elements. The Congress party's roots are planted in socialism.

The Communist-dominated railway and posts and telegraphs unions gave go-aheads today for start of the strike. Wage increases are among the issues.

In Bombay the Provincial Trades Union Congress, which also leans toward communism, appealed to all workers in the province to quit work Wednesday in a one-day general strike to support the railway and posts and telegraphs strikes.

NANKING HAILS RESIGNATIONS

S. TOPPING

Considers Cabinet Action As Big Step Toward Peace

Nanking, China, March 8 (AP)—The resignation of Premier Sun Fo and his Cabinet was hailed in Nanking today as a big step toward peace.

It also was a victory for Acting President Li Tsung-jen in his struggle with Chinese Government elements loyal to retired President Chiang Kai-shek. These elements oppose Li's peace maneuverings.

Strong public pressure for a peaceful settlement with the Communists was considered a major factor in Sun's resignation. He had taken a stiffer attitude than Li toward concessions to the Communists.

The Acting President sent an urgent message to Gen. Ho Ying-chin, former Defense Minister now in Shanghai. It was presumed Ho was offered the premiership.

On 'War Criminals' List

Ho's selection would be a compromise. He is believed closer to Li than to Chiang Kai-shek; but like Sun he is on the Communist list of "war criminals."

Two other peace advocates, who would be more acceptable to the Communists, still were being mentioned in speculation for the premiership.

They are General Chih-chung, Government commander in Northwest China, and Shao Li-tze, who was on the unofficial delegation which talked with Communist leaders in North China recently. Neither has been placed on the Communist "war-criminals" list.

The national legislature, the Legislative Yuan, had prepared to make a blistering attack on Sun just before he stepped down.

Critical Of Canton Move

Legislators were critical of him for moving the Cabinet to Canton, and for the sale of his house in Shanghai for what they considered an excessive price.

Both lawmakers and citizens interviewed in the streets agreed that Sun's withdrawal made the chances of peace for China much better.

Diplomatic circles generally welcomed the change as a "healthy development." They were waiting to see what the new cabinet looks like, however, before determining the real results of the reshuffle.

It is felt that the appointment of a new premier will show to what extent Li's Government can shake off the influence of the Generalissimo and Kuomintang (Government party) diehards.

It was thought possible that the Government offices at Canton now would be moved back to Nanking, as Acting President Li has been demanding.

Burma Rebels Form Human Roadblocks

MAR 8 1949

Rangoon, Burma, March 8 (AP)—Anti-Government demonstrators threw themselves into the streets to make human roadblocks today in an attempt to stop trucks carrying Government supplies.

They also tried to enter the Civil Supplies Department but were headed off by club-swinging police.

Government workers have been on strike for several weeks in protest against Government proposals to cut personnel and pay.

In the Government's continuing campaign against the Karens, a native tribe fighting to set up an independent state, action was reported near Mandalay.

An official report said army planes bombed Karen positions at Myitnge, a rail junction south of Mandalay. It also claimed the Karens had launched a counter-offensive against Government troops seeking to oust them from the North Burma army post of Maymyo, which the rebels captured some weeks ago.

Americans To Quit Scene Of Burma Fight

Rangoon, March 8 (AP)—American Baptist Mission headquarters here announced today that five Americans are being evacuated from the North Burma town of Maymyo. Heavy fighting is reported there between Government troops and Karen rebels.

To be flown to Rangoon are Mrs. Eva Kaiser and her 13-year-old son, from Pennsylvania; Miss Ecco Hunt, of Iowa; Miss Julia Craft, of New Jersey, and Miss Julia Parrott, of Los Angeles, Cal.

The British Embassy said 120 civilians and 40 members of a British Service Mission make up the party leaving Maymyo.

"Rebel forces in upper Burma were cut off from the main base of Toungoo, while rebel groups at Meiktila, Myitnbe and Maymyo were isolated from each other," the communiqué said.

Officials said, however, that Communist-led forces had attacked Pyuntaza, 90 miles north of Rangoon, and destroyed the police station and railway station.

Burmese planes bombed Karen positions on the Myitnge front south of Mandalay last night. Fighting continued near that city.

Within Rangoon, anti-Government demonstrators lay in the streets to block trucks carrying Government supplies. Demonstrations were staged in front of the law court and the city jail.

160 Being Removed

Demonstrators tried to enter the civil supplies department, but were driven off by police. Many Government workers have been striking for several weeks in protest against proposlas to cut personnel and cost of living bonuses.

A British Embassy spokesman said withdrawal of 160 foreigners living at Maymyo, 40 miles north of Mandalay, has begun. They are being moved by road to an airport to be flown to Rangoon.

The American Baptist Mission headquarters here said five of the evacuées are Americans. They were identified as Mrs. Eva Kaiser and her 13-year-old son Jan. from Pennsylvania; Miss Ecco Hunt, from Idaho; Miss Julia Craft, from New Jersey, and Miss Julia Parrott, of Los Angeles.

Burma Names 7 To Arrange For July Parliament Election

Rangoon, Burma, March 8 (AP)—The Burmese Government, target of both Karen and Communist rebels, announced today a seven-man commission has been named to arrange for Burma's first free parliamentary election by July.

The election originally was scheduled for March 30. The revolt of the Karens and the Burmese Communists, natural enemies who have become allies in a fight to unseat Premier Thakin Nu's Government, was among the factors which caused a postponement.

The Burmese Communists have been noted for intrigue and propaganda, but militarily their best efforts have been limited to guerrilla thrusts. The Karen tribesmen are a physically virile people, amenable to discipline, with a superlative military record.

Karens Want Separate State

The Karens want a separte state. The Communists say they want another type of government. Observers regarded the teaming of the two forces as a greater threat to the Government than the three-way revolt of 1948, which involved Communists, mutinous troops and a private army called the People's Volunteer Organization.

The Government today reported Army gains in the civil warfare along the railway which cuts north through Burma from Rangoon.

A communiqué sad Burmese troops have complete control of the central Burma towns of Pyinmana, Yamethin and Pyawbwe and have recaptured the rail junction of Thazi.

Argentina Expects ECA Buying

AXIS SALLY TRIAL VERDICT DUE TODAY

Final Arguments End in Treason Case; Conviction Urged

WASHINGTON, March 8 — (AP) The defense today pictured Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars as a "poor defenseless woman" who had to broadcast propaganda for Nazi Germany or risk being shot.

But Chief Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., told the jury in the closing hours of Miss Gillars' treason trial that the defendant had "seized upon this story of threats" to escape punishment.

"There is no evidence that this woman was threatened with death or that she was threatened with a concentration camp," Kelley said.

The prosecutor said Miss Gillars refused to come home in 1940, when the United States was urging its citizens to come home.

"She never remained one minute in Germany under duress," he said.

"She stayed with the people she wanted to stay with."

Then, turning to the jury, Kelley said:

"I ask you to find this woman guilty."

Federal Judge Edward M. Curran announced he will begin his instructions to the jury at 10 a. m. (EST) tomorrow, lasting about two hours.

Then the jury of seven men and five women will begin deliberating the fate of the Maine-born defendant whose career traced from a stage-struck girlhood, through failure to achieve success as a dramatic actress, to a top-paid performer on the German wartime radio.

If convicted, the maximum penalty would be death in the electric chair.

Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin, concluding a dramatic five-hour plea for acquittal, drove hard on the contention that Miss Gillars made her "Axis Sally" broadcasts "under coercion and enemy pressure."

60 TALESMEN IN COMMUNIST TRIAL EXCUSED

New Jury Panel Brought In As Majority Plead Extreme Hardship

New York, March 8 (AP)—Sixty of the 80 members of the first jury panel called in the trial of eleven United States Communist leaders had been excused as court adjourned today.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina brought in a second group of 90 persons as it became obvious the first panel might not supply the needed jurors.

All of those excused pleaded that service in a lengthy trial would cause extreme hardship in their business or personal life.

One talesman, Joseph Young, an insurance man, gave the "time element" as his first reason, but added:

"My second reason is my absolute contempt of the individuals here charged."

Reprimanded By Judge

He was waved from the jury box and reprimanded by the judge who told the other panel members:

"It is not proper for jurors to make such statements, which I consider outbursts. It is not fair to the defendants and it is not fair to the Government."

No jurors had been chosen yet as the session ended—the second devoted to jury selection. Medina asked those who sought not to serve to come forward for questioning first. Those who were willing to sit on the jury had not yet been examined.

Earlier, saying he is "grievously fatigued," Judge Medina temporarily cut an hour of the daily time the court sits in the trial.

The judge observed that he expected selection of the jury to take at least a week. During this time, he said, court will start at 11 A.M. and quit at 4 P.M. since "I have become grievously fatigued during the long hours I spent from morning until evening examining exhibits."

490 Exhibits Introduced

The defense introduced 490 exhibits in its seven-week attack on the Federal jury system which ended last Friday with Medina's rejection of it. During this period, court generally met at 10.30 A.M. and adjourned at 4.30 P.M.

Attorneys for Communist officials maintained that the jury-picking system discriminated against the poor and various minority groups. But Medina held that this charge was not proved.

The eleven Communists are charged with conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the Government by force.

The judge has estimated the trial will take at least two months and told the prospective jurors that there was "almost of necessity some hardship" connected with all jury service.

Judge Shortens Session Hours At Red Trial

New York, March 8 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today temporarily shortened hours at the conspiracy trial of eleven high United States Communists. He said he expected selection of a jury would take a week, and added:

"I have become grievously fatigued during the long hours I spent from morning until evening examining exhibits and for the period that we are examining talesmen . . . we will start at 11 and adjourn at 4."

Won't Excuse Councilman

Previously, court has been in session from 10.30 A.M. to 4.30 P.M.

Defense attorneys introduced almost 500 exhibits in their futile seven-week challenge to the jury system. Medina frequently accused them of stalling.

The judge also denied an application to excuse one of the defendants, City Councilman Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., to attend a council meeting.

He asserted "there will be no moment of this trial when the proceedings are under way without the presence of all the defendants."

HISS-CASE FIGURE GETS SIX MONTHS

Refuses To Tell Grand Jury How He Got Auto

New York, March 8 (AP)—A refusal to answer Federal grand jury questions in the Alger Hiss case today brought a six-month prison term to a 65-year-old Californian.

Judge Simon K. Rifkind imposed the contempt-of-court sentence on William Rosen, of Santa Monica.

Rosen declined to tell the jury anything about a 1929 Ford roadster which he allegedly bought in 1936 from a Washington automobile firm on the same day Hiss turned it in to the company.

Hiss, former State Department official indicted on charges of perpury, told the House Un-American Activities Committee last summer that he gave the car to Whittaker Chambers in 1934 or 1935 and had no recollection of getting it back although he might have done so.

Sentence To Be Appealed

Chambers, onetime Communist courier, has named Hiss as the source of Government documents which he said he took to Soviet agents.

Rosen's attorney said the prison sentence would be appealed to the United States Supreme Court.

The Californian appeared before the jury three days. Last week Rifkind told him he must answer the questions.

Rosen's attorney maintained his client feared he might incriminate himself.

RUSSIANS TALK WITH OFFICIAL HELD BY U.S.

Two Americans Attend Conference With Man Accused Of Spying

New York, March 8 (AP)—Soviet officials held a closely supervised conference today with a Russian engineer accused of a spy plot with an American Government girl.

Valentin A. Gubitchev, 32, now-suspended member of the United Nations secretariat staff, talked for about two hours with Lev S. Tolokonnikov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy, and Leonid Morozov, first secretary of the Russian United Nations delegation.

Their conversation was a closely guarded secret to all except two American officials and an interpreter who sat in on the interview.

Arrested Friday

The officials were Thomas J. Donegan, special assistant to the United States Attorney General, and Thomas Powers, under-secretary of the American United Nations delegation.

Gubitchev was arrested in New York city last Friday night with Judith Coplon, 27, a Brooklyn-born brunette who worked for the security division of the Department of Justice.

A Federal grand jury looking into FBI charges of a spy plot heard one witness Monday but was in recess today. The Government hopes to obtain indictments by Friday.

The FBI charged that Miss Coplon was carrying extracts from Government documents in her handbag when agents closed in on her and Gubitchev after shadowing them for many blocks.

Nature Not Disclosed

Authorities charged she intended to pass the documents on to Gubitchev. Their exact nature has not been disclosed.

The young woman has made no public statement herself but her brother, Bertram G. Coplon, said "The more I see and talk to her more I am convinced" of her innocence.

Coplon, a New York toy manufacturer, brought his sister a change of clothing, the first she has had since her arrest.

He said he hoped to have her freed on $20,000 bail by Wednesday. Gubitchev is under $100,000 bond.

The two are held on suspicion of espionage.

Drive Is Speeded to Purge Federal Agencies of Reds

MAR 8 1949

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee soon will begin hearings on legislative proposals to prevent "communist cells" from operating in the federal government, Chairman Wood (D-Ga) announced today.

In a statement, Wood said that more than two years ago—on September 3, 1946—the committee was informed of the employment of Judith Coplon in the foreign agents registration section of the Justice Department. Miss Coplon and a Russian employe of the United Nations were arrested last week by FBI agents on espionage charges.

Requests Ignored, He Says

He did not say specifically what the committee had done about Miss Coplon two years ago. He did say that committee files indicated that committee requests for information about activities in the registration section had gone unheeded by the Justice Department.

Even before Wood's announcement, Republican lawmakers renewed their drive to provide new legal weapons for use against communists in this country.

They introduced two separate bills which have the same objective—to prevent subversive activities and to force Communist Party members out onto the open by making them register with the government. Neither proposal, however, would outlaw the Communist Party as such.

Wood said that the information regarding Miss Coplon's employment came from "a professor employed by a mid-western university" who claimed that investigations referred to the foreign agents registration section "were in fact being submarined and knowledge of them was being prevented from reaching higher officials of the Justice Department."

"The professor," Wood added, "stated that the employes of the registration section of the department of justice were adopting a policy that everything pro-Soviet was considered legitimate activity, and that everything anti-Soviet was condemned by the employes of the registration section."

He said the names of four persons employed in the section were given by the committee's unidentified informant, one of the names being that of Judith Coplon.

Wood said the committee also received information regarding certain individuals and organizations subject to registration under the foreign agents registration act which the informant "felt should have been required to register as foreign agents but were never requested to do so as a result of manipulation by certain individuals connected with the foreign agents registration section x x x."

Anti-Red Bills Presented

One of the bills introduced today was presented to both houses. The co-authors were Senator Mundt (R-SD), a former house member, and Rep. Nixon (R-Calif). They teamed up last year on a similar measure which was approved by the house but which never came to a vote in the senate.

The other anti-communist bill was offered by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) who as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee in the 80th Congress conducted hearings on the old Mundt-Nixon bill.

Both proposals provide fines of $2,000 to $5,000 and imprisonment of two to five years for violations. The Mundt-Nixon bill, however would double the penalties for violation of its ban on peacetime espionage.

The Ferguson and Mundt-Nixon bills also would set up a three-member board, to be named by the president, to supervise the anti-communist law and to work with other government agencies in its enforcement.

Mundt said the Mundt-Nixon bill also would outlaw peacetime espionage and require the communist party "to sever its umbilical cord with Russia or refrain from acts designed to establish totalitarianism in this country."

Like the Ferguson bill, it would also deny government employment and passports to members of organizations listed as subversive by the three-member board.

Mundt said that the proposed bill also would provide specific safeguards to prevent innocent people from being listed falsely with subversive groups.

Everything Is Cozy in Russia, Red Information Bulletin Says

MAR 9 1949

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Well, sir, things really are cozy in Russia.

I know they are cozy because the Russians say they are.

I have been leafing through the "U.S.S.R. Information Bulletin," published by the Soviet Embassy here in Washington.

Naturally you wouldn't expect the Soviets to blacken the Soviets' eye. And they certainly don't.

Let's take a quick rundown of some of the titles, with sample quotes:

"Soviet army guards peace, liberates oppressed," says the article calmly; "That is why the peoples freed by the Soviet army entertain such deep and sincere feelings of gratitude toward it."

"Equal rights for army men assured in Soviet Union." Sure enough, at least ten generals and marshals have been elected to the supreme Soviet.

And although the article says those elected come from all ranks, suspicious ex-GI's will note that no privates are listed by name—and only one sergeant: "Loginov, the famed scout."

"Soviet industry's growth in 1948 set all-time high." Maybe you never thought much about the profit system in Russia, but the article declares: "In 1948, upwards of 6,000,000,000 rubles of profits were obtained over and above planned targets, while the national payroll rose by 10 percent."

"Pre-school education in USSR leads entire world." Before the revolution, say the Russians, only 275 kindergartens existed in Russia. Now there are 27,000.

"In the number of children who received public pre-school education," says the item, "the USSR stands first in the world."

And so on and on.

"Food output of Soviet Union exceeded plan in 1948". . ."Democratic Soviet trade unions are open to everybody". . ."Catholics in Soviet Lithuania freely practice faith."

All good, nothing bad.

In all of Russia, if anyone ever said the wrong thong, or married the wrong person, or staggered into the wrong rest room, the "U.S.S.R. Information Bulletin" never heard of it.

Even the sports picture is rosy. The girls' basketball team polished off Prague and Budapest. And the Finns' boxing team came over for three matches.

Moscow licked the Finns twice by 8 to 0 and 8 to 0. In Leningrad the Fins lost all right, but by a score of 6 to 2.

That's why I eagerly await the next issue of the "Bulletin." By that time, comrades, I trust you'll have that Leningrad situation tidied up.

RUSSIANS GIVE CRUISER BACK

U.S. Lend-Lease Ship, Showing Signs Of Wear, Returned

Lewes, Del., March 8 (AP)—Flying the Soviet naval flag, the cruiser Milwaukee, first lend-lease ship to be returned to the United States by Russia, rode at anchor in Delaware Bay tonight.

With rust on her hull and showing many signs of wear and tear, the 28-year-old warship is to be returned formally to this country Friday. Eventually the Milwaukee, renamed the Murmansk by the Russians, will be scrapped at the Philadelphia naval base.

About 800 Russian sailors, wearing winter uniforms and fur caps known as shapkas, will remain aboard until the exchange ceremonies.

To Go Back On Transport

Meantime, they are awaiting the arrival of the Soviet transport Molotov which will take them back to Russia.

Late today Capt. Joseph U. Lademan, Jr., a native of Milwaukee, went aboard to make arrangements for the transfer. He will command a skeleton crew that will take over for the last leg of the journey to the naval base.

Earlier, Rear Admiral E. G. Glinkov and Capt. K. P. Ryzhkov, naval attachés at the Soviet Embassy in Washington, went aboard for an official visit.

Escaped Hungarian Admits Fight Against Communism

MAR 8 1949

Huntington, W.Va., March 8 (AP)—Stephen Thuransky, to be tried in absentia in Budapest on charges including that he "abused democracy," said here today:

"If it's a crime to fight against communism, then I'm guilty."

Now an American citizen, the 56-year-old Thuransky escaped with his wife to this country two years ago, after having been arrested in Hungary.

He had been here during the war and worked in a Columbus (Ohio) aircraft plant. He was taken into custody when he returned to his native land after V-E day.

'Trying To Blacken My Name'

The newspaper Magyar Nap said Thuransky was also accused of "inciting racial hatred, and attempting to shoot a bailiff who came to see him about some debts."

"They are trying to blacken my name in the eyes of the people with whom I fought in the days of Bela Kun," said the 56-year-old Thuransky.

"It's a old Communist trick," he added, "to brand you as being against a segment of the people. In this case they mean that I am anti-Semitic." He continued:

"Is it being anti-Semetic if I fight a Jew because he is a Communist? Or am I anti-Catholic if I fight a Catholic because he is a Communist?"

Admits Shooting At Official

Thuransky is a Protestant and his wife is a Catholic.

He admitted shooting at a Hungarian official, who, he said, had "smeared me." Thuransky added, "But he was too far out of range for my Luger."

Mrs. Thuransky, whose husband obtained citizenship before he returned to Hungary after the war, told this story of his escape:

"Harrison Lewis, commercial attaché at the United States Legation, was inside the jail building trying to get a permit to see Stephen. I was waiting outside in Mr. Lewis's car.

"Suddenly, through a back gate I saw Stephen, handcuffed, being escorted by three guards.

Stunned One Of Guards

"I ran to him and threw my arms around him.

"'My God, Stephen,' I said, 'they are trying to take you away.'"

"Suddenly, although he was a badly beaten man, he hit one of the guards with his handcuffs, stunning him, and then kicked another to the ground. The third had a gun but just stood watching, and I pulled Stephen to the car, screaming for Mr. Lewis. We drove fast, to the American Legation, and escaped from there."

The incident resulted in a protest by the Hungarian Government to American officials in Budapest in August, 1947. He had been arrested for outspoken opposition to what he called the "Communist-dominated Government."

Friend Of Cardinal

Thuransky would not comment on his treatment in custody, but his wife said:

"They dropped a sandbag on the back of his neck and broke it. Then they dropped another on his chest, breaking his ribs. . . . He still has blinding headaches from what they did to him.

"Stephen was a friend of Cardinal Mindzsenty, but what Cardinal Mindzsenty went through must have been 90 times worse."

His uncle was a former Hungarian Secretary of Agriculture, Thuransky said, and he himself was employed in the Department of Agriculture.

After his arrest, he said, extensive family holdings were confiscated, and all efforts to obtain redress have failed. Due to his health, he is now unemployed.

His wife and daughter, Margaret, work in a Huntington hospital.

President Pins Peace Hope On 'Intelligence'

Winter Park, Fla., March 8 (AP)—President Truman declared here today that the intelligence of struggling peoples in front of the "iron curtain" offers the world's "best hope" for peace.

"We may not know what is behind the iron curtain," Mr. Truman said in a new attack on communism, "but we do know that the intelligence of the people in the embattled democracies of Europe, who live in front of the iron curtain, is the world's best hope today."

Urges Aid To Education

Speaking off the cuff, the President urged Congress to speed action on aid to education.

He spoke at a ceremony at which Rollins College awarded him another in a long series of degrees.

"If our country is to retain its freedom in a world of conflicting political philosophies," he said, "we must take steps to assure that every American youth shall receive the highest level of training by which he can profit."

Presented Degree

The cap-and-gowned Chief Executive was presented with the degree of doctor of humanities by President Hamilton Holt of 64-year-old Rollins College.

Mr. Truman interrupted his vacation at Key West to fly here for the ceremony. His plane landed at the air force base at Orlando.

En route here, he toured through cheering thousands.

Presented By Governor

Gov. Fuller Warren, who presented Mr. Truman for his degree, told the crowded chapel that the President "is a liberal."

He told of Mr. Truman's role of "a leader" in the race, economic and peace issues, all of which he said were "fundamentally issues of justice."

En route from Orlando the President dedicated the Mills street causeway in honor of the late Senator Charles O. Andrews (D., Fla.), who died on September 18, 1946.

Kin At Ceremony

Mrs. Andrews, widow of the Senator, stood beside Mr. Truman during the dedication, surrounded by members of the Andrews family and about 25 leading civic and political figures of Orange county.

Text of Truman's Talk at Rollins

WINTER PARK, Fla., March 8 (AP)—Following is the text of President Truman's remarks on receiving a degree at Rollins College today:

Governor Warren, President Holt, distinguished educators and all friends of Rollins College:

This is for me a very happy day. And a very solemn occasion. The Governor's address was a masterpiece. It covers the situation with which we are faced.

Rollins College has served the State of Florida and the nation faithfully and well through more than three-score years. I shall always treasure the memory of this day a... the parchment which admits me into the noble society of Rollins alumni. The men and women which this institution has given the world now for sixty-odd years have upheld the ideals of democracy wherever they have found their life work.

It gives me special pleasure by my presence here today to bear witness to the debt which we owe to the man who has guided the destinies of Rollins College for almost a quarter of a century.

Since he assumed the presidency of this institution he has made it a focal point in our efforts to educate American youth in the principles of freedom under true democracy.

You know, there isn't a word in the English language that has been so severely abused during the last ten years as that word democracy. Some people make a travesty of that word. That is one of the greatest words in the history of the English language, and it should stand for just exactly what we mean when we say democracy, and not for a counterfeit.

Dr. Holt as brought to his work distinguished leadership with a background of accomplishment in many fields. Although he will soon retire from active academic work, he will continue his labors for peace and international good will.

Never before has this country needed as it does today the leadership of thoroughly trained men and women. We must have leaders inspired from their earliest years with the ideals of democracy.

Education is our first line of defense. In the conflict of principle and policy which divides the world today, America's hope, our hope, the hope of the world, is in education. Through education alone can we combat the tenets of communism. The unfettered soul of free men offers a spiritual defense, unconquered and unconquerable.

We may not know what is behind the iron curtain, but we do know that the intelligence of the people in the embattled democracies of Europe, who live in front of the iron curtain, is the world's best hope for peace today.

Education is the most important task before us. The Congress should enact legislation authorizing Federal grants to the states to assist in meeting the operating expenses of elementary and secondary schools. There is general agreement that such aid can be given without interference with state responsibility for the scope and content of the teaching.

If our country is to retain its freedom in a world of conflicting political philosophies, we must take steps to assure that every American youth shall receive the highest level of training by which he can profit.

A soundly conceived Federal scholarship program in our colleges and universities is a necessary step in attaining this goal.

Education has been defined as a bulwark against the acids of fascism and communism. Neither of these totalitarian forms of government can survive examition by educated men and women —men and women free to search for truth and imbued with the principles of liberty set forth in the preamble to the Constitution of the United States—the greatest document of government, in my opinion, that has ever been written by the hand of man.

That Constitution gives us the ability to live together in peace. It gives us the ability to see that justice comes to every man, be he big or be he small, be he rich or be he poor.

If this great institution will continue to turn out leaders, I am not at all afraid of what the next generation in the world will bring forth.

We are working for peace. We want peace. We pray for peace all the time in the world. And to attain that peace, we must all learn how to live together peaceably, and do to neighbors as we would have our neighbors do to us. Then we will have a happy world, and that's what we want.

SERVICE RAISES ASKED BY TRUMAN

Less Tax Exemptions, New Retirement Setup Also Urged

Washington, March 8 (AP)—Congress learned today that while President Truman favors a raise for members of the armed services, he believes their pay should be subject to income tax. He also believes they should contribute to their own retirement.

A letter expressing his views was read to the House Armed Services Committee, which is considering a bill to raise military pay and revise the retirement system.

Mr. Truman's letter, dated March 5 and addressed to James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, said the bill would cost too much.

He set up $400,000,000 for military pay raises in his budget for the next fiscal year which begins July 1. He said "preliminary studies" indicate the bill before the committee would cost $590,000,000 a year.

Sees Need For Cut

[A civilian commission which recommended the raises figured the added cost at $440,000,000.]

"Some way must be found to bring this cost down to meet budget requirements," Mr. Truman wrote.

Accordingly, he suggested taxing the gross pay of military personnel, bringing allowances such as those for food and clothing under the income tax.

Until this year, officers got an extra $1,500 income tax exemption, and all the pay of enlisted personnel was exempt. Congress had not extended these exemptions.

The President said he thinks the additional revenue that would result from taxing pay on a gross basis would reduce the cost of the bill.

Further, he recommended that the retirement system be put on a six per cent contributory basis, such as that which covers civil service personnel of the Federal Government. Service men do not now pay into any retirement fund.

Mr. Truman said the bill ought to contain a provision that no member of the armed services would suffer an actual pay cut.

The bill proposes an average raise of fourteen per cent, ranging from about three per cent for the sixth enlisted grade to almost 50 per cent for generals and admirals. The seventh (bottom) enlisted grade would get no raise.

GI PENSIONS UNJUSTIFIED, HOUSE TOLD

Budget Director Says

Rankin Bill Would Cost 125 Billions

Washington, March 8 (AP)—The Administration frowned again today on a multibillion-dollar veterans-pension bill.

Frank Pace, Jr., budget director, told Congress "it is not possible to justify" the measure sponsored by Representative Rankin (D., Miss.). Rankin's bill proposes to pay veterans of the last two world wars $90-a-month pensions at age 65, regardless of need.

Instead, Pace called for approval of President Truman's expanded social-security program "to meet the same needs on a broader basis."

Would Cost 125 Billions

Pace estimated cost of the pension legislation at more than $125,000,000,000 during the next 50 years.

His views were contained in a report read to the House Rules Committee by Representative Carroll (D., Col.). Pace did not present it directly as an Administration view, but the Budget Director normally speaks with approval of the President on financial matters.

Goal Is To Aid Disabled

Pace, in declaring the Rankin measure was not "in accord with the President's program," made these points:

1. Veterans of World War I and II are receiving better treatment than did veterans of preceding wars.

2. In veterans' programs already provided, primary obligation is to service-disabled veterans and dependents of veterans deceased from service causes.

3. For veterans without service-connected disabilities, existing law already provides benefits under which most veterans in need at age 65 can draw $72 a month.

4. The Rankin bill "would be exceedingly costly and its costs will be superimposed on those (costs) for our present aid for veterans and our general social-insurance program."

Murphy To Form New German Affairs Office

Washington, March 8 (AP)—Ambassador Robert D. Murphy arrived from Berlin by plane today to organize a new office of German affairs in the State Department.

Murphy has been diplomatic adviser to the American military commander in Germany since the occupation began. His task here will be to concentrate all German economic, cultural and political policies into a single office—a move designed to produce greater civilian control over American occupation policy in Germany.

Officials said Murphy's assignment was temporary; that he would be on this job for two or three months, after which a new assignment may be given him.

LONDON, MARCH 8-(AP)-THE BRITISH PRESS ASSOCIATION SAID TODAY THE CABINET HAS DECIDED TO END ALL CLOTHING RATIONING.

FREE SALES OF ALL CLOTHES WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE "IN A WEEK OR TWO," THE AGENCY SAID. THAT DATE WOULD FALL JUST BEFORE SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS PRESENTS HIS NEXT ANNUAL BUDGET TO PARLIAMENT EARLY IN APRIL.

THE BOARD OF TRADE, WHICH ADMINISTERS CLOTHES RATIONS, DECLINED IMMEDIATELY TO CONFIRM OR DENY THE STATEMENT.

ALL COTTON GOODS--INCLUDING SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, BED LINEN AND OTHER SCARCE ITEMS-- REMAINED RATIONED AT THAT TIME.

CLOTHING TRADES REPRESENTATIVES CONTENDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE RELAXATION OF WOOLEN RATIONING ALLOWED BUYERS TO CONCENTRATE THEIR COUPONS ON COTTONS. THE EFFECT, THEY SAID, WAS A RUSH ON COTTON ALMOST AS IF RATIONING WERE ENDED.

RATIONS HAVE BEEN EASED OVER THE LAST SEVERAL WEEKS.

SHORTLY AFTER WILSON FREED WOOLENS FROM RESTRICTIONS THE MINISTRY OF FOOD ANNOUNCED THAT CANDY WILL BE SOLD RATION FREE BEGINNING NEXT MONTH.

PARIS, MARCH 8-(AP)-A WESTERN EUROPEAN ECONOMIC GROUP PROPOSED TODAY THAT MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS CUT DOWN THEIR 1949-50 IMPORTS FROM AMERICA AS OTHER SOURCES OF SUPPLY ARE FOUND. THE GROUP SAID "THE PERCENTAGE REDUCTION MADE BY EACH COUNTRY NEED NOT BE THE SAME."

THE PROPOSAL WAS PUBLISHED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC).

THE AIM WOULD BE TO CUT THE DOLLAR DEBTS OF 19 NATIONS OR AREAS IN THE MARSHALL PLAN EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM (ERP) AND BALANCE THEIR ECONOMIES. THIS WOULD MEAN USING MORE OF OTHER KINDS OF MONEY AND BARTER SYSTEMS.

THE COMMITTEE IS MADE UP OF OFFICIALS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, SWEDEN, TURKEY, ITALY, SWITZERLAND AND THE NETHERLANDS.

IT DECIDED AGAINST AN AUSTERITY PROGRAM SPONSORED BY SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS, BRITAIN'S CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER. HE WAS REPORTED TO HAVE ASKED AN OVERALL CUT OF 10 PER CENT IN IMPORTS FROM AMERICA BY ALL THE 19 PARTICIPATING AREAS.

USUALLY RELIABLE SOURCES SAID W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR TO THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES, JOINED CRITICS OF THE CRIPPS PLAN.

THE INFORMANTS SAID THE THEME OF THE CRITICS WAS THAT A MAJOR AIM OF THE MARSHALL PLAN WAS TO UNIFY EUROPE'S ECONOMIES AND THAT CRIPPS' PLAN WOULD NOT PROVIDE FOR TRUE COOPERATION, BUT FOR BALANCING EUROPEAN TRADE WITH THE UNITED STATES IN 19 SEPARATE INSTANCES.

THE GROUP'S PROPOSALS MUST NOW BE PASSED ON BY THE COUNCIL.

SOME OF THE CHIEF PROPOSALS:

EACH OF THE MARSHALL PLAN AREAS SHOULD REPORT ON ITS FINANCIAL POSITION, WITH FURTHER ACTION BY THE OEEC IN PROSPECT IF ANY NATION IS NOT TAKING STEPS TOWRD STABILIZING ITS MONEY AND FINANCES.

EACH SHOULD REPORT ON ITS SPECIAL EXPORT EFFORTS, AND SUBIT THE RESULT TO CRITICISM BY THE OEEC.

DOLLAR IMPORTS SHOULD BE REDUCED, "BUT EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO SECURE AN ACCEPTABLE STANDARD OF LIVING AND A HIGH LEVEL OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITY."

"THE PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES SHOULD NOT PLAN ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT THEY CAN CONTINUE TO EARN GOLD OR DOLLARS FROM EACH OTHER."

Paris, March 8--(AP)--Victor A. Kravchenko today asked a French court for 10,000,000 francs ($33,000) damages from the pro-Communist weekly newspaper Les Lettres Francaises.

MAR8 1949

Kravchenko, former member of a Soviet purchasing commission in Washington, is suing the paper for libel in publishing stories saying he did not write the anti-Communist book "I Chose Freedom." The paper had asserted the book was written by Americans as propaganda.

Kravchenko originally sued for 1,000,000 francs ($3,000) in the main libel action. However, his lawyer, Gilbert Heitzman, said he is demanding the additional money because of Kravchenko's heavy expenses in getting witnesses here.

The paper is charged with 26 instances of alleged defamatory statements against the plaintiff. The trial, which will continue tomorrow, has reached the summing-up stage.

Bonn, Germany, March 8--(AP)--Western German political leaders and allied experts will meet tomorrow in an effort to put the last touches on a draft constitution for the future West German state.

The Germans and governmental advisers of the U.S., Britain and France met tonight to try to iron out differences among them. After three hours of discussions they broke up, to resume their talks tomorrow.

Differences between the Germans and the allies arose last week when the three Western military governors approved all but a few of the 149 articles of a constitution drafted by the Germans. The military governors objected to some points and recommended changes that would give more rights to the 11 states of the future German federation.

MAR 8 1949

Members of the German parliamentary council, drafting the constitution here, said the suggested changes were not clear. They asked for today's meeting with the military governors' advisors to clarify the powers of the states and the central government.

However, allied observers believe the Germans had another purpose in asking for the conference. They say they believe some of the Germans were attempting to get more powers for the central government, even though the allies have made it plain they are not likely to tolerate any new changes. Among the political parties, the Social Democrats (SPD) are most in favor of a strong central government.

SPD would like the government to have strong control over taxes, finances and the electoral system. It claims that the new West German state be a hodge-podge of different laws and confusion if the power of the central government is restricted.

A Socialist stand on changes recommended by the military governors is likely to be taken at a meeting of the party's hierarchy in Cologne this week-end.

NEW YORK, MARCH 8-(AP)-MATTHEW FOX, DIRECTOR AND FORMER EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSAL-INTERNATIONAL PICTURES INC., HAS BET OVER $500,000 ON THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

IF THE REPUBLIC WINS FREEDOM FROM HOLLAND IN THE CURRENT STRUGGLE IN THE RICH NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES, FOX STANDS TO GET HIS MONEY BACK AND THEN SOME. IF NOT, WELL--

FOX, 38-YEAR-OLD FINANCIER, IS PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN INDONESIAN CORPORATION, WITH OFFICES AT 40 WALL STREET. DR. D.SOEMITRO RESIDENT TRADE COMMISSIONER OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC IN THE UNITED STATES, IS VICE PRESIDENT OF THE CORPORATION.

IN AN INTERVIEW, FOX EXPLAINED HIS CONTRACT WITH THE REPUBLICANS. THE CONTRACT PROVIDES THAT THE CORPORATION WILL ACT AS A PURCHASING AGENCY FOR THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, AFTER LIBERATION, AT A FIVE PER CENT COMMISSION.

THE CORPORATION IS ALSO TO ACT AS A SERVICE AGENCY FOR THE GOVERNMENT IN HELPING STIMULATE EXPORTS THROUGH PRIVATE ENTERPRISE CHANNELS SO THE REPUBLIC CAN BUILD UP FOREIGN CREDITS, FOX EXPLAINED.

FOX HAS ADVANCED $400,000 FOR THE CORPORATION'S EXPENSES SINCE IT WAS ESTABLISHED IN JANUARY, 1948, AND HAS ADVANCED $150,000 TO THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT FOR ITS FOREIGN DIPLOMATIC EXPENSES.

SO FAR THE REPUBLIC HAS BEEN UNABLE TO FULFILL ITS SIDE OF THE CONTRACT, FOX SAID, BECAUSE THE BLOCKADE BY THE DUTCH PREVENTS ANY EXPORTS OR IMPORTS.

"LIKE ANY OTHER BUSINESS MAN, I AM INTERESTED IN THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPAND TRADE BETWEEN MY COUNTRY AND INDONESIA, AND HOPE TO MAKE A PROFIT FROM THE INVESTMENT," FOX DECLARED.

MAR 8 1949

THE DEAL HAS BEEN CRITICIZED BY DUTCH AND OTHER SOURCES AS GIVING FOX A MONOPOLY OVER TRADE THAT COULD RUN INTO MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY. DUTCH SOURCES HAVE CONTENDED THE MONOPOLY WOULD BE WORSE THAN ANYTHHING THE DUTCH HAVE EVER BEEN CHARGED WITH.

FOX SAYS THAT ISN'T SO. HE SAYS THE REPUBLICANS,. 8! -,$ 2£3, THEY COME TO POWER, PLAN TO LEAVE THE BULK OF FOREIGN TRADE IN PRIVATE HANDS. HIS CORPORATION WOULD ACT AS PURCHASING AND SERVICE AGENCY FOR THE GOVERNMENT ONLY.

FOX SAYS THAT ISN'T SO. HE SAYS THE REPUBLICANS, IF AND WHEN THEY COME TO POWER, PLAN TO LEAVE THE BULK OF FOREIGN TRADE IN PRIVATE HANDS. HIS CORPORATION WOULD ACT AS PURCHASING AND SERVICE AGENCY FOR THE GOVERNMENT ONLY.

FOX SAID HIS CONTACTS WITH THE REPUBLICANS BEGAN WHEN THEY ASKED HIM FOR ADVICE ON HOW TO ESTABLISH THEIR FOREIGN TRADE. WITH THE EXCEPTION OF AMERICAN OR OTHER FOREIGN FIRMS OPERATING DIRECTLY IN INDONESIA, MOST OTHER TRADING WAS DONE THROUGH OFFICIAL CHANNELS OR DUTCH TRADERS.

THE INDONESIANS NOTED THAT MANY FOREIGN COUNTRIES MAINTAINED PURCHASING AGENTS IN THE UNITED STATES, AND ASKED HIM TO PERFORM A SIMILAR SERVICE FOR THEM, FOX SAID.

HE DENIED THAT THE CONTRACT PAVED THE WAY FOR EXPLOITATION OF THE INDONESIANS. "ON THE CONTRARY, IT HAS ONLY MINIMUM SAFEGUARDS FOR OUTSIDE INVESTORS INTERESTED IN LONG-TERM COOPERATION," FOX SAID.

MAR 8 1949

FOX SAYS HIS PROFITS, IF ANY, WON'T BE EXCESSIVE. WHILE THE CONTRACT CALLS FOR 5 PER CENT COMMISSION, HE SAID, HIS NET PROFITS

WOULD BE LESS THAN ONE PER CENT. THE REMAINDER WOULD GO FOR EXPENSES, STATE AND FEDERAL CORPORATION TAXES, AND THE HALF INTEREST OF THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT.

FOX SAYS HE ADMIRES THE DUTCH, BUT FEELS THEIR POLICY IN INDONESIA HAS BEEN SHORTSIGHTED. HE IS TAKING NO PART IN THE POLITICAL STRUGGLE UNDER WAY IN THE ISLANDS, BUT HE IS WATCHING CLOSELY. BOTH HIS MONEY AND HIS SYMPATHIES ARE INVOLVED.

HE IS GLAD TO BE HELPING "A PEOPLE TO GAIN THEIR POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE AND RAISE THEIR STANDARDS OF LIVING." THIS, HE CONTENDS, "IS A CONSTRUCTIVE OBJECTIVE."

FOX IS NOW CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED WORLD FILM COMPANY, AND HAS JUST RETURNED FROM A WORLD TRIP. THE FIRM HAS COMPLETED 72 REELS OF EDUCATIONAL FILMS ON GEOGRAPHY, AT A COST OF $1,000,000, TO BE SHOWN IN SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

NANKING, MARCH 8-(AP)-PREMIER SUN FO, CARRYOVER FROM THE NATIONALIST REGIME OF RETIRED GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK, QUIT TODAY. HIS RESIGNATION OPENED THE WAY FOR A PREMIER MORE ACCEPTABLE TO THE COMMUNISTS IN PEACE TALKS TO END CHINA'S CIVIL WAR.

GEN. HO YING-CHIN, FORMER MINISTER OF DEFENSE, EMERGED IMMEDIATELY AS THE MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED ROTUND DR. SUN. THE GENERAL, LIKE SUN, IS ON THE COMMUNISTS' "WAR CRIMINALS" LIST BUT IS REGARDED AS FAR MORE ACCEPTABLE TO THE REDS.

OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT CIRCLES GAVE HO THE NOD AS ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN'S PROBABLE CHOICE. HE WOULD BE A COMPROMISE AMONG VARIOUS NATIONALIST POLITICAL FACTIONS AND WOULD BE ABLE TO INFLUENCE THE POWERFUL WHAMPOA MILITARY CLIQUE. (WHAMPOA IS THE OLD CHINESE MILITARY ACADEMY.)

SELECTION OF HO, IT WAS POINTED OUT, WOULD WEAKEN THE CONTROL OVER THE CABINET BY CHIANG AND OTHER ULTRA-CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY). CHIANG'S WEIGHT HAS BEEN FELT IN THE GOVERNMENT DESPITE HIS RETIREMENT SINCE JANUARY 21 AT HIS ANCESTRAL HOME IN FENGHWA.

MAR 8 1949

HO IS SAID TO BE CLOSER TO ACTING PRESIDENT LI THAN TO CHIANG. HE AND THE GENERALISSIMO HAVE HAD AN UNEASY TRUCE IN RECENT YEARS.

SUN'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE AND HIS CABINET HAD RESIGNED CAME SUDDENLY AT A MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN, WHICH HAS HAD HIS POLICIES UNDER FIRE. THE LEGISLATORS CHEERED SUN'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN HAD ACCUSED SUN OF IRREGULARITIES IN SELLING HIS NANKING HOME TO THE CENTRAL BANK. LEGISLATORS REPORTEDLY WERE PREPARED TO LEVEL CHARGES OF CORRUPTION AT SUN IF HE HAD NOT STEPPED DOWN.

SUN -- WHOSE FATHER WAS DR. SUN YAT-SEN, "FATHER OF THE CHINESE REPUBLIC" -- STEPPED INTO THE PREMIERSHIP AS CHIANG'S CHOICE LAST NOVEMBER 26. THAT WAS DURING THE BATTLE OF SUCHOW. CHIANG'S REGIME WAS FALLING APART UNDER THE CUMULATIVE WEIGHT OF COMMUNIST VICTORIES THAT GAVE THEM ALL CHINA NORTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.

MAR 8 1949

SUN AND ACTING PRESIDENT LI HAD NOT SEEN EYE TO EYE. LI HAS BEEN SEEKING TO END CHINA'S THREE-YEAR CIVIL WAR AT ALMOST ANY PRICE. SUN HAD BALKED AT STIFF COMMUNIST DEMANDS.

SUN MOVED THE CABINET TO CANTON AFTER CHIANG LEFT IN JANUARY, LEAVING LI IN NANKING. LAST MONTH, LI FLEW TO CANTON TO PERSUADE SUN TO RETURN TO NANKING.

AT THE TIME, LI'S CLOSE ASSOCIATES SAID IT WAS THE ACTING PRESIDENT'S "FINAL EFFORT." THEY SAID IF SUN DID NOT RETURN, LI WOULD FORCE SUN FROM THE PREMIERSHIP.

DESPITE THEIR ATTITUDE TOWARD PEACE WITH THE REDS, SUN AND HIS CABINET HAD BEEN DOING SOME SPADEWORK FOR FORTHCOMING NEGOTIATIONS. SUN HIMSELF HAD BEEN SLATED TO HEAD THE GOVERNMENT'S 10-MAN DELEGATION THE PEACE TALKS.

(THE COMMUNIST RADIO, HOWEVER, HAS BEEN SHARPLY CRITICAL OF SUN'S ACTIVITIES. ONLY LAST SATURDAY IT CHARGED SUN, CHIANG AND OTHER NATIONALIST LEADERS WITH PREPARING TO RECRUIT 2,500,000 MORE SOLDIERS "BEHIND THE FACADE OF PEACE.")

BESIDES GENERAL HO, FOUR OTHERS WERE MENTIONED TODAY AS POSSIBLE SUCCESSORS TO SUN.

TWO OF THEM ARE CONSIDERED ACCEPTABLE TO THE COMMUNISTS. THEY ARE SHAO LI-TZE, ELDER STATESMAN AND A FOREMOST EXPONENT OF PEACE, AND CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, POLITICAL ADMINISTRATOR FOR NORTHWEST CHINA.

THE OTHER TWO ARE ON THE COMMUNIST LIST OF "WAR CRIMINALS." THEY ARE WU TE-CHEN, SUN'S VICE-PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER, AND CHANG CHUN, A FORMER PREMIER.

MOLOTOV

MAR 8 1949

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MARCH 8-(AP)-V.M.MOLOTOV, CLOSEST ASSOCIATE OF SOVIET PRIME MINISTER STALIN, WILL BE 59 YEARS OLD TOMORROW.

THE AUTHORITY OF THE SOVIET STATESMAN WHO WAS SUCCEEDED AS FOREIGN MINISTER BY ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY LAST SATURDAY HAS NOT LESSENED. HE REMAINS VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS (DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER) AND A HIGH-RANKING MEMBER OF THE POLICY-MAKING POLITBURO OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

MOLOTOV, WHO HAS BEEN A CLOSE FRIEND OF STALIN SINCE THE DAYS OF THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION, HAS REMAINED ONE OF THE SOVIET LEADER'S INTIMATES.

WHEN HE WAS ELECTED TO HONORARY MEMBERSHIP IN THE SOVIET ACADEMY OF SCIENCE IN 1946, THE MOSCOW RADIO AND PRESS REFERRED TO HIM AS FOLLOWS:

"THE CLOSEST ASSISTANT" OF THE GENERALISSIMO IN WORKING OUT AND ACCOMPLISHING THE FIVE YEAR PLANS AND "THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTOR OF STALIN'S INTERNATIONAL POLICIES."

THERE IS NO REASON TO CHANGE THIS OPINION OF HIS LOFTY POSITION CLOSE TO STALIN.

THERE HAS BEEN NO HINT FROM THE SOVIET PRESS AS TO THE POSSIBLE INNER MEANING OF THE SHIFTS IN THE FOREIGN MINISTRY WHICH SAW VISHINSKY TAKE OVER MOLOTOV'S DUTIES. VISHINSKY IN TURN WAS REPLACED AS FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER BY ANDREI A. GROMYKO.

MOLOTOV, ALWAYS KNOWN AS A "STALIN MAN," WAS PRIME MINISTER FROM 1930 TO 1941, WHEN STALIN TOOK OVER THE POST HIMSELF IN THE WAR EMERGENCY.

-- DASH --

IN LONDON IT WAS REPORTED YESTERDAY THAT SENIOR BRITISH DIPLOMATS BELIEVE MOLOTOV IS BEING GROOMED TO TAKE STALIN'S PLACE AS PRIME MINISTER.

INFORMANTS SAID THE OPINION APPARENTLY WAS BASED ON REPORTS SENT TO THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE BY AMBASSADOR SIR MAURICE PETERSON IN MOSCOW. THE INFORMANTS SAID PETERSON ALSO WARNED AGAINST EXPECTING ANY BASIC CHANGE IN SOVIET FOREIGN POLICY.

SIMILAR VIEWS WERE EXPRESSED PRIVATELY IN LONDON BY A HIGH-RANKING DIPLOMAT OF AN EASTERN EUROPEAN COMMUNIST COUNTRY.

ALL THE INFORMANTS EXPRESSED THE OPINION STALIN WOULD REMAIN THE TOP MAN IN RUSSIA EVEN IF HE SHOULD QUIT THE PRIME MINISTER'S POST.

STALIN IS 69 AND HIS HEALTH HAS BEEN REPORTED TO BE BAD. HE MAY WISH TO FREE HIMSELF OF SOME OF HIS ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES.

HIS POSITION AS SUPREME AUTHORITY IN THE SOVIET WOULD BE SAFEGUARDED BY HIS PERSONAL PRESTIGE, AND -- AS DURING MOLOTOV'S PREWAR TERM AS PRIME MINISTER -- BY HIS POST AS SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE INFORMANTS STRESSED THAT PETERSON DID NOT MAKE AN OUTRIGHT PREDICTION THAT STALIN CONTEMPLATES RETIRING FROM THE POST OF PRIME MINISTER. BRITISH DIPLOMATS HAVE NOT RULED OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT PERSONAL OR POLITICAL DIFFERENCES MIGHT HAVE PLAYED A PART IN THE SHIFT.

EASTERN EUROPEAN DIPLOMATS, HOWEVER, SAID IT WAS OBVIOUS THE SHIFT IN TOP RUSSIAN PERSONNEL HAD BEEN LONG PLANNED.

THEY POINTED OUT THAT FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS MOLOTOV, NOT STALIN, HAS DELIVERED THE GRAND REVIEW OF DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS WHICH HIGHLIGHTS THE ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION.

THEY SAID ALSO THAT THE MOVE AWAY FROM THE FOREIGN MINISTRY WILL GIVE MOLOTOV MORE TIME TO PREPARE MAJOR POLICY REVIEWS FOR THE APPROACHING RUSSIAN COMMUNIST PARTY CONGRESS. THE LAST CONGRESS WAS HELD IN 1939.

LEV S.TOLOKONNIKOV, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE SOVIET EMBASSY, AND LEONID MOROZOV, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE RUSSIAN U.N. DELEGATION, TALKED WITH VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV, 32, A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIAT STAFF.

THOMAS J.DONEGAN, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND THOMAS POWERS, UNDERSECRETARY TO THE AMERICAN U.N. DELEGATION, AND AN INTERPRETER WERE PRESENT DURING THE INTERVIEW.

GUBITCHEV WAS ARRESTED FRIDAY NIGHT WITH BROOKLYN-BORN JUDITH COPLON, 27, AN EMPLOYE IN THE SECURITY DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

MEANWHILE, THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY PROBING THE NEW MYSTERY WAS IN RECESS TO PERMIT THE GOVERNMENT TO ORGANIZE ITS CASE. THE GOVERNMENT HOPES TO OBTAIN INDICTMENTS BY FRIDAY.

THE TWO ACCUSED PRINCIPALS REMAINED IN THEIR CELLS YESTERDAY AS THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION BEGAN TELLING ITS STORY OF THE ALLEGED INTRIGUE.

ONLY ONE WITNESS WAS HEARD, AN UNIDENTIFIED FBI AGENT WHO SPENT LESS THAN HALF AN HOUR IN THE GRAND JURY ROOM. HE WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE DONE LITTLE MORE THAN EXPLAIN HE WAS ONE OF THE AGENTS WHO ARRESTED THE PAIR FRIDAY NIGHT ON THIRD AVENUE. THE SAME AGENT IS EXPECTED TO RESUME HIS TESTIMONY WHEN THE GRAND JURY CONVENES AGAIN TOMORROW.

TYPED EXTRACTS FROM DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE RECORDS WERE ALLEGEDLY FOUND IN MISS COPLON'S HANDBAG WHEN THE ARRESTS WERE MADE. AN EXAMINATION WAS BEING MADE OF THEM IN THE FBI LABORATORY IN WASHINGTON.

BOTH PRISONERS HAVE BEEN GIVEN SUBPOENAS TO APPEAR BEFORE THE GRAND JURY. HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER THEY WOULD BE CALLED TO TESTIFY.

BROOKLYN-BORN MISS COPLON WAS DESCRIBED AS CHEERFUL AND SMILING AT THE WOMEN'S HOUSE OF DETENTION. HER ATTORNEY SAID THAT SHE WAS DISTURBED CHIEFLY BY THE FACT THAT MOST OF HER WARDROBE IS IN WASHINGTON.

"SHE MADE ONE REQUEST," THE LAWYER SAID. "SHE WANTS SOME CLOTHES. SHE ASKED ME TO ARRANGE TO GET SOME CLOTHING SENT TO HER FROM HER DORMITORY IN WASHINGTON. ALL SHE HAS HERE ARE THE CLOTHES SHE IS WEARING."

WORCESTER,MASS.,MARCH 8-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION HAS BLOCKED THE REV. G.ANTONIO LABERGE, A CATHOLIC PRIEST, FROM RE-ENTERING RUSSIA.

FR.LABERGE, A MEMBER OF THE ORDER OF THE AUGUSTINIANS OF THE ASSUMPTION, CAME HERE RECENTLY FROM RUSSIA ON A 60-DAY VACATION. HE WAS THE ONLY AMERICAN ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIEST STATIONED IN MOSCOW.

THE VERY REV.WILFRID J.DUFAULT, AMERICAN SUPERIOR OF THE ORDER, SAID LAST NIGHT HIS RE-ENTRY VISA HAS BEEN ANNULLED.

THE ANNULMENT ORDER WAS GIVEN ORALLY TO FR.LABERGE FEB.26 BY THE SOVIET EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON, FR.DUFAULT SAID IN A STATEMENT. THE ORIGINAL RETURN VISA WAS DESIGNED NOT TO EXPIRE UNTIL MARCH 20.

"IN LATE DECEMBER," FR.DUFAULT SAID, "THE REV.ARTHUR BRASSARD, A.A., HAD BEEN APPOINTED TO REPLACE FR.LABERGE. "FR.BRASSARD APPLIED FOR A SOVIET VISA FEB.5 AND IS WAITING AN ANSWER."

ANNULMENT OF FR.LABERGE'S VISA EFFECTIVELY BARS HIM FROM RETURNING TO RUSSIA.

FR.DUFAULT GAVE THIS EXPLANATION OF WHY FR.LABERGE WAS DUE TO RETURN TO MOSCOW EVEN THOUGH A REPLACEMENT HAD BEEN NAMED:

"SINCE THERE SHOULD BE NO VACANCY OF THE AMERICAN CHAPLAINCY IN MOSCOW," FR.DUFAULT SAID, "IT WAS EXPECTED THAT THE ANNULMENT OF FR. LABERGE'S RE-ENTRY VISA WOULD NOT TAKE PLACE BEFORE FR.BRASSARD WAS GRANTED AN ENTRY VISA."

FR.LABERGE'S RETURN TO THIS COUNTRY, HIS SUPERIOR EXPLAINED, WAS MADE "OF HIS OWN ACCORD WITH NO PRESSURE FROM SOVIET AUTHORITIES AND WITHOUT OBJECTION FROM HIS RELIGIOUS SUPERIORS."

FR.DUFAULT ADDED: "HAD IT BEEN KNOWN THAT HIS RE-ENTRY VISA WOULD HAVE BEEN CANCELED, FR.LABERGE WOULD HAVE BEEN ORDERED TO REMAIN AT HIS POST."

IN WASHINGTON, DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID THEY UNDERSTOOD FR.LA BERGE DID NOT DESIRE TO RETURN TO MOSCOW PROVIDED THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT WOULD ACCEPT A SUCCESSOR.

OFFICIALS SAID MOSCOW'S DELAY IN ACTING ON THE APPLICATION OF FR. ARTHUR BRASSARD IS "NORMAL."

FR.LA BERGE AND A FRENCH PRIEST, FR.THOMAS, SERVED THE CATHOLIC CHURCH OF ST.LOUIS OF THE FRENCH. THIS CHURCH IS MAINTAINED IN MOSCOW TO SERVE THE FOREIGN EMBASSIES UNDER TERMS OF THE 1933 ROOSEVELT-LITVINOV AGREEMENT BY WHICH THE UNITED STATES GRANTED DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION TO RUSSIA.

BY CHARLES MERCER

CLEVELAND, MARCH 8-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES, U.S.DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, SAID TODAY THAT "SO FAR AS IT IS HUMANLY POSSIBLE TO JUDGE" RUSSIA DOES NOT AT PRESENT PLAN TO GO TO WAR.

HE TOLD REPRESENTATIVES OF MORE THAN 35,000,000 (M) AMERICAN PROTESTANTS THAT HE KNOWS NO RESPONSIBLE HIGH OFFICIAL OF ANY GOVERNMENT WHO BELIEVES RUSSIA "NOW PLANS CONQUEST BY OPEN MILITARY AGGRESSION."

DULLES, LONG A POWERFUL REPUBLICAN VOICE IN THE MAKING OF AMERICA'S BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY, SAID THE MILITARY HAS BECOME FAR TOO STRONG IN CARRYING IT OUT.

IN THE VITAL AREAS OF GERMANY AND JAPAN, HE SAID, MILITARY JUDGMENT UNDER THE WAR DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN "PRACTICALLY DECISIVE." HE CONTINUED:

"IF THE WORLD PASSES INTO THE BLACKNESS OF ANOTHER WAR, OUR LEADERSHIP CANNOT ESCAPE A LARGE MEASURE OF RESPONSIBILITY."

THE CONFERENCE OF 400 DELEGATES FROM 57 DENOMINATIONS AND ALLIED RELIGIOUS BODIES OPENED HERE TODAY TO EXAMINE MAJOR ISSUES THREATENING WORLD PEACE. IT IS SPONSORED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE AND GOODWILL OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.

ANOTHER SPEAKER, METHODIST BISHOP G.BROMLEY OXNAM OF NEW YORK, ASKED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO SEND A FACT-FINDING COMMISSION TO RUSSIA COMPOSED OF "TEN REPRESENTATIVES FROM EACH OF THE MAJOR FIELDS OF OUR NATIONAL LIFE." HE SAID SIMILAR DELEGATIONS OF RUSSIANS SHOULD BE INVITED TO THIS COUNTRY.

IF STALIN ACCEPTED THE SUGGESTION, OXNAM SAID, IT WOULD CONSTITUTE "THE FIRST BREACH IN THE IRON CURTAIN." SUCH A DELEGATION, HE SAID, WOULD "BECOME ACQUAINTED" WITH THE FACTS OF RUSSIAN LIFE BUT WOULD NOT NEGOTIATE AGREEMENTS OR ENGAGE IN POLITICAL DISCUSSIONS.

HE SAID THE MAJOR FIELDS SHOULD INCLUDE RELIGION, EDUCATION, BUSINESS, LABOR AND SCIENCE.

IN OFFICIALLY OPENING THE CONFERENCE, DULLES CALLED UPON THE UNITED STATES TO PROVIDE LEADERSHIP "OF PEACE, BY PEACE AND FOR PEACE."

BUT HE ADDED THAT HIS DISCUSSION WAS "NOT A DEMAND FOR PEACE AT ANY PRICE. THERE ARE SOME THINGS THAT, TO MANY, ARE MORE PRECIOUS THAN PEACE."

"CALM ANALYSIS," DULLES SAID, "JUSTIFIES THE CONCLUSION THAT, UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES, WAR IS NEITHER USEFUL NOR INEVITABLE, AND WHETHER IT COMES DEPENDS MOST OF ALL ON THE QUALITY OF UNITED STATES LEADERSHIP. WITH ALL OF THE ASSETS, MORAL AND MATERIAL, OF WHICH IT NOW DISPOSES, OUR LEADERSHIP OUGHT TO BE ABLE TO ASSURE PEACE."

FRANCIS B.SAYER, U.S.REPRESENTATIVE TO THE U.N., TOLD THE CONFERENCE THAT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF WORLD GOVERNMENT WAS "IMPRACTICAL." ONLY THE DEVELOPMENT OF COMMON MORAL AND LEGAL STANDARDS CAN INSURE WORLD PEACE, HE SAID.

MRS.LESLIE E.SWAIN OF CRAIGVILLE, MASS., ONLY WOMAN MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, SAID THAT UNLESS THE WEST CHANGED ITS ATTITUDE TOWARD ASIA A FAR EAST BLOC MIGHT BE FORMED.

"UNLESS WE MOVE QUICKLY," SHE SAID, "WE SHALL FIND THE EAST DOING EXACTLY WHAT WE HAVE DONE--FACING THEIR PROBLEMS WITHOUT CONSULTATION WITH THE WEST."

WASHINGTON,MARCH 8-(AP)-A BILL PROMISING THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE $5,580,000,000 IN SECOND-YEAR MARSHALL PLAN AID HAS SUCCESSFULLY PASSED ITS FIRST MAJOR HURDLE IN CONGRESS.

THE MEASURE, AUTHORIZING THE FULL SUM ASKED BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, WAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED LATE YESTERDAY BY THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) SAW IN THAT A SIGN THAT THE BILL WILL BE PASSED BY THE SENATE. THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP, HE SAID, "IS A GOOD INDEX, SINCE IT REPRESENTS A CROSS SECTION."

BUT CONNALLY ADDED THAT SEVERAL OF THE 13 MEMBERS WHO VOTED FOR THE MEASURE RESERVED THE RIGHT TO TAKE A SECOND LOOK AT THE TOTAL WHEN A BILL TO PROVIDE FUNDS IS CONSIDERED BY THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE.

SENATOR VANDENBERG (MICH), THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE'S TOP-RANKING REPUBLICAN, SAID MEMBERS HAD DECIDED AGAINST ANY CUT NOW BECAUSE OF UNSTEADY COMMODITIES PRICES.

THE COMMITTEE ADDED TO THE MEASURE TWO AMENDMENTS BROADENING ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G.HOFFMAN'S AUTHORITY, AND ONE MAKING AMERICAN SHIPS AVAILABLE FOR ITALIANS WHO WANT TO EMIGRATE TO SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA.

BUT IT ALSO TOSSED IN A COUPLE OF CHANGES HOFFMAN DIDN'T WANT.

IT VOTED TO KEEP THE PRESENT RESTRICTION WHICH PROVIDES THAT 50 PER CENT OF ALL AMERICAN TONNAGE SHIPPED OVERSEAS UNDER THE PROGRAM MUST BE CARRIED IN U.S. SHIPS "SO FAR AS PRACTICABLE." HOFFMAN HAD SAID THAT PROVISION SOMETIMES BOOSTS ECA'S SHIPPING COSTS.

AND IT INCLUDED IN THE MEASURE A SECTION REQUIRING HOFFMAN TO "GIVE SYMPATHETIC CONSIDERATION" TO THIS COUNTRY'S ECONOMY IN MAKING PURCHASES FOR THE RECOVERY PLAN. WHEN "ALL THINGS ARE EQUAL," THE COMMITTEE SAID, ECA MUST CONSIDER BUYING SURPLUS AMERICAN COMMODITIES.

THE ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY FOR HOFFMAN PERMITS HIM TO:

1. MAKE 20-YEAR CONTRACTS WITH FOREIGN NATIONS FOR THE PURCHASE OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS. HE WOULD ACT AS AN AGENT FOR THE BUREAU OF FEDERAL SUPPLY, WITH THE CONTRACTS FIRST CHECKED BY ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES INVOLVED.

2. FIX UNIFORM SHIPPING RATES FOR PACKAGES SENT TO EUROPE BY CARE (CAPS) AND OTHER RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS. ECA WOULD PAY THE OCEAN FREIGHT ON SUCH SHIPMENTS.

THE AMENDMENT DEALING WITH ITALIAN EMIGRANTS WOULD PROVIDE THEM WITH 10 AMERICAN TRANSPORTS WHOSE OPERATING COSTS WOULD BE PAID BY THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT.

MAR 8 1949

THE SENATE GROUP ALSO APPROVED A RESOLUTION OFFERED BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) WHICH WOULD PUT THE SENATE ON RECORD AS ENCOURAGING "UNIFICATION OF EUROPE." SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) WANTED TO MAKE IT "POLITICAL UNIFICATION," BUT THE COMMITTEE TURNED HIM DOWN.

"IF THEY WANT TO UNITE," CONNALLY SAID LATER, "LET THEM UNITE." BUT, HE SAID, SLIPPING IN THE WORD "POLITICAL)" WOULD JUST GIVE RUSSIA "ANOTHER HOLLERING POINT THAT WE ARE TRYING TO DICTATE TO EUROPE WHAT THEY SHOULD DO."

CONNALLY SAID HE WILL PRESS FOR A SENATE VOTE ON THE BILL AS SOON AS THE PRESENT FILIBUSTER "LOG JAM" HAS ENDED.

THE MEASURE MUST STILL BE APPROVED BY THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AND PASSED BY THE HOUSE. ONCE BOTH HOUSES HAVE APPROVED IT AND IT HAS BEEN SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT, ANOTHER MEASURE WILL BE NEEDED TO PROVIDE MONEY FOR THE PROGRAM.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 8-(AP)-A FARM EDUCATOR URGED TODAY A FOOD STOCK-PILING PROGRAM BIG ENOUGH TO FEED THE UNITED STATES AND HER ALLIES THROUGH TWO YEARS OF WAR.
DR.JOHN D.BLACK, PROFESSOR OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY, SAID THIS COUNTRY HAS NOT BEEN CARRYING LARGE ENOUGH RESERVES.
"EVEN ASSUMING THAT WE SHALL HAVE PEACE IN THE WORLD OVER THE NEXT FIVE OR TEN YEARS, WE NEED LARGER STOCKPILES THAN BEFORE," HE SAID.
DR.BLACK'S VIEWS WERE GIVEN IN A REPORT ENTITLED "SHALL WE HAVE FOOD SURPLUSES?" IT WAS ISSUED BY THE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION, AN INDEPENDENT, NONPOLITICAL, NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION INTERESTED IN NATIONAL PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE.
A MAJORITY OF THE 24 MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE CONCLUDED THAT AMERICAN FARMERS FACE ANOTHER SERIOUS DEPRESSION UNLESS WAYS CAN BE FOUND TO MARKET THEIR CROPS AT FAVORABLE PRICES.
MOST OF THE MEMBERS AGREED THAT WAYS SHOULD BE FOUND TO LET AMERICAN CONSUMERS EAT UP THE SURPLUS. THEY PREFERRED THIS TO GOVERNMENT CROP CONTROLS TO HOLD DOWN OUTPUT OR TO DUMPING OF SURPLUSES ABROAD.
THEY SAID EXPANDED CONSUMPTION PROGRAMS DOUBTLESS WOULD REQUIRE GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES COSTING AS MUCH AS $2,500,000,000 IN YEARS OF LOW EMPLOYMENT.
A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, DR.BLACK STRESSED THE POINT THAT SUPPLIES SHOULD BE MUCH LARGER THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN BEFORE THEY SHOULD BE CLASSED AS "SURPLUS."
"NOT UNTIL THERE IS ASSURANCE OF FOOD ENOUGH TO CARRY THE WESTERN NATIONS THROUGH AT LEAST ONE FULL YEAR--IN SPITE OF CROPS IN THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER EXPORTING NATIONS COMBINED AS POOR AS THOSE IN TWO YEARS IN THE 1930'S--CAN WE SAY THAT RESERVES ARE ADEQUATE.
DR.BLACK SAID THE WAY IN WHICH TO ESTIMATE NEEDED RESERVES IS TO FIGURE WHAT WILL BE NEEDED ASSUMING POOR CROPS AT LEAST ONE YEAR AHEAD.
"WITH DANGER OF WAR AHEAD, WE SHOULD ADD TO THE FOREGOING ENOUGH TO CARRY THE UNITED STATES AND HER ALLIES THROUGH AT LEAST TWO YEARS OF WAR. WE WERE FORTUNATE LAST TIME IN HAVING SUCH RESERVES PLUS GOOD CROPS," HE SAID.

Senate Approval Seen For North Atlantic Pact

MAR 9 1949

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Senate approval appeared assured today for the projected North Atlantic security treaty.

Finally completed after eight months of negotiations, the unprecedented twenty-year alliance won an informal okay from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday. No strongly organized opposition was in sight.

The fact would have the effect of binding the United States to the defense of western Europe, although it would still be up to Congress to determine, in event of an attack, whether the United States should declare war against the aggressor.

Text Out In About Week

The alliance is intended to make such a demonstration of unity on the part of the Western powers that Russia, if it was ever so tempted, would not dare to attack any one of them.

The text of the proposed treaty is expected to be made public in about a week, before it is signed. Officials now believe it will be signed by the end of the month—possibly at a meeting of foreign ministers of the Atlantic powers in Washington.

After the signing, in which eight or more countries are due to participate, the treaty will be formally presented to the Senate for ratification.

Approved By Committee

Secretary of State Acheson and two aides spent almost three hours yesterday in what Chairman Connally (D., Texas) called an "informal talk" with the Foreign Relations Committee.

"In general," Connally said afterward, "I may say as far as we are concerned, all the work has been done."

He made clear that he meant the treaty had the informal approval of committee members, and that the rest of the work is up to Secretary Acheson.

Text "To Dissipate Fears"

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), former chairman of the committee, forecast that "fears which have been expressed about its prospective form will be dissipated by publication of the text." (Some fears had been expressed the treaty might bypass Congress' power to declare war.)

Senator George (D., Ga.), another committeeman, said: "I think it will be acceptable to the countries involved."

George added that in his opinion the treaty would create a moral obligation for the United States, but that it leaves this country free to determine its actions in event of aggression.

Military Aid Studied

One of the aides who appeared with Acheson before the committee was Assistant Secretary of State Ernest A. Gross, an expert on the military-aid program which the Administration will propose to reinforce the treaty.

The arms project is expected to go to Congress immediately after the treaty is submitted. Prospects on it will require an initial appropriation of at least $1,000,000,000.

Danish Official Awaited

One of the new problems which Acheson will have to face this week is posed by Denmark. Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen is due here Thursday to seek what he called the best possible basis for Denmark's entry into the security system.

Other countries which are expected to sign the pact, in addition to the United States, are Canada, Britain, France, Norway, Belgium, the Netherllands and Luxembourg.

Four Main Points Listed

While the treaty text is still secret, the essential points are known. These include:

1. The obligation that each member will consider an armed attack on any one of them as an attack against all of them.

2. In such an emergency, each country will be committed to resist the aggression both on its own and collectively with the other nations.

3. A pledge to join in a mutual aid program, to strengthen the total military power of the alliance and reduce the danger of an attack.

Secretary Held Implying That Nations Will Have Assurance of U. S. Military Aid.

Washington, March 9 (A. P.).—Secretary Acheson said today that the Atlantic treaty, as now drafted, makes clear that the nations signing it will defend themselves against aggression from any quarter.

Summarizing at a news conference the negotiations on the treaty text, Acheson pictured the pact as the end result of Western policy developments brought on by Russia's blocking of peace.

Only yesterday the Secretary of State discussed the proposed treaty with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The members informally approved a final draft of the treaty.

Four Achievements Cited.

Acheson did not disclose the treaty text in his news conference discussion. But he said that in his opinion the United States, Canada and the countries of Western Europe have, through the text as it now stands, accomplished four major achievements:

1. They have recognized the facts of life in preparing to establish a formal relationship between the United States and the Western European countries. Acheson said this relationship is not artificial, but has existed 300 years or more and has its roots in the common ideas and common institutions of freedom.

2. The treaty, in every word and every thought, fits within the United Nations charter and makes clear the determination of the United States and associated nations to exercise their inherent right of self-defense (as recognized in the United Nations charter) against aggression from any quarter.

To Eliminate Insecurity.

3. Further, the treaty as now drawn provides means for eliminating a sense of insecurity and thereby aiding recovery among the signatory nations. Presumably Acheson meant, though he did not specifically say it, that the Marshall plan countries of Europe, having extraordinary assurance of United States military support, will feel less fear of war and generate greater confidence in the future—a confidence necessary to economic progress.

4. The treaty will set up what Acheson called the institutional aids and machinery which will make the regional security principles effective. The machinery will include a consultative body of the member nations and a sort of North Atlantic regional high command.

Text to Be Issued Soon.

Beyond these general points, Acheson declined to go into discussion of the treaty's provisions. He said the text would be made public in the very near future.

As to procedure from here on, he said that it now looks as if the signing will take place in the first week in April; that the publication of the text will be sufficiently in advance of that to allow public discussion, and that the United States would be happy to have the signing ceremony in Washington.

Acheson said that both Washington and Bermuda had been suggested as sites for the signing conference. The place is a secondary matter, he added.

ATLANTIC PACT STUDY ASKED

MAR 9 1949

Protestant Church Conference Divided Over Indorsement

Cleveland, March 9 (AP)—Delegates at a sectional meeting of a conference representing 35,000,000 American Protestants broke sharply today over the question of indorsing the Atlantic pact.

After hearing a discussion of the pact by Charles E. Bohlen, counselor of the State Department, the group referred to a special committee for rephrasing a statement embodying these ideas:

1. The group is unable to approve or disapprove the pact because it has not seen its text and requires time to consider it.

2. It calls on the Senate to delay action on the pact to give the American people time to decide its implications.

3. A statement of moral principles desirable in any pact.

Statement Called Generalized

Bohlen declined to tell the intent of his statement to the closed session. However, delegates said it was generalized in nature. One said, "He didn't tell us anything that hasn't already been in the papers."

The lengthy discussion after Bohlen spoke was touched off by a motion to take no action on the pact. The motion was introduced by Dr. Ernest Tittle, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Evanston, Ill.

Dr. E. Emrydan, of Rock Island, Ill., editor of the Lutheran Companion, of the Lutheran Augustana Church, said the pact "would divide the world into two armed camps. It would sign the death warrant of the United Nations. It would commit ourselves to a program that would mean we were on record in favor of a holy war."

Asks Study Of Implications

John Foster Dulles, United States delegate to the United Nations, said he believed it would be "premature and almost irresponsible" for the delegates to indorse the objects of the pact until they had time to study its implications.

However, he added, "there are great possibilities in regional associations. I hope any action we take will not put this conference on record as opposed to a regional pact. Whether this is a regional pact or a military agreement is not readily apparent. We need ample opportunity for public discussion and debate to determine how the pact should be used."

The ideas to be embodied in the statement by a special committee were listed by Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the New York area, chairman of the study group considering the question.

Represents 57 Denominations

After the committee phrases a statement it must be approved by the full study group, then passed on to the full conference for action.

The conference can merely make recommendations to 57 denominations and allied religious bodies participating for their consideration and action.

Sponsor of the conference is the department of international justice and goodwill of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Earlier today Dulles said the United States has a "responsibility" to use its power to prevent terrorism. He told the sectional meeting:

"Force may be un-Christian, but sometimes it is better to use force than to stand aloof and keep your own self unblemished."

Dulles said a premier of France told him that half the Communists in France had joined the Communist party solely to protect their families should the Red Army enter their country.

Says U.S. Has Power

"The United States alone in the world has the power" to prevent that kind of terrorism, Dulles said, adding: "Does the United States, which alone has power to stop this terrorism, recognize that we have the responsibility to exercise that power?"

Dulles spoke in connection with the phrasing of a statement on the role of the United States in relation to extension of Russian power. Action on the statement was deferred.

Earlier, the group which Dulles addressed denounced "hysteria" over communism in America as dangerous to American institutions and an obstacle to United States foreign policy.

Stand Will Be Reworded

This group's stand will be reworded by a drafting committee, returned for group approval and referred to the full conference of 400 delegates from 57 denominations and allied religious bodies.

The Rev. Paul Carnes, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, of Youngstown, Ohio, said: "We must condemn the general tendency of newspaper and radio editors and commentators to add to the general hysteria regarding communism and other social issues."

The Rev. James E. Wagner, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa., replied it was unfair to condemn the press because Protestants have not made themselves clear on where they stand regarding the issues.

Decries Rise In Hysteria

Referring specifically to the "vast amount of space" in newspapers given to the Cardinal Mindszenty case, Rev. Wagner said: "I believe this did as much as anything to stir up hysteria. If any Protestant opposed that amount of space he exposed himself as being not sympathetic toward the Cardinal and sympathetic to communism."

This group meeting, on the subject of American policy in western Europe, approved in general a statement declaring: "The great increase of hysteria in regard to communism in America" is dangerous and that "the churches should do all that is possible to counteract this hysteria."

Early Approval For Pact Seen In London

MAR 9 1949

London, March 9 (AP)—The British Cabinet is expected to give its formal approval to a final draft of the Atlantic pact tomorrow.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and his topmost advisers were giving the draft a last once-over today, Government informants said.

Britain will send back word of the Cabinet's expected approval and comments—if any—in time for the Washington negotiators' last scheduled discussion of the text Friday, the officials said.

Early Signing Seen

The British Foreign Office expects the treaty to be signed either in the last week of March or the first week in April.

The place of signature—it will be either Washington or Bermuda, with the odds on Washington—probably will be settled Friday, too.

Greenland Role Studied

The part which strategically-important Greenland will play in the pact-partners' plans is expected to come up for close study in Washington in the next few days. Greenland is a Danish possession.

Denmark's Foreign Minister, Gustav Rasmussen, is due in the American capital tomorrow to talk with Secretary of State Acheson. The United States still has operational control of two airfields in Greenland.

Atlantic Pact Text Given French Cabinet

Paris, March 9 (AP)—The French Cabinet received copies of the Atlantic Pact today.

A spokesman said that ministers will not discuss the agreement until after they have jointly studied the text "article by article."

The copies were handed them by Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

5,892,000 Cigars Go To Berlin in Air Lift

LONDON, March 9 (AP).—The air lift is carrying millions of cigars to help quiet the nerves of besieged Berlin smokers.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the House of Commons today that 5,892,000 cigars have been flown in by the British since Feb. 1.

"Would it not be better to confine the air lift to essentials?" asked Sir Waldron Smithers, a Conservative.

"When you are in a siege as Berlin has been all this time a smoke is a relaxation," replied Mr. Bevin.

Paris Posters Proclaim Russ Occupation—But It's A Hoax

MAR 9 1949

Paris, March 9 (AP)—Parisians got a start today when they awoke and found billboards plastered with announcements that the Soviet army had occupied Paris.

It turned out to be a hoax by Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Workers Rally, a labor organization.

The posters were an imitation of Le Matin, published throughout the Nazi occupation as a collaborationist newspaper. It was dated "Friday, June 13"—no year.

Thorez Made 'Premier'

Headlines said Maurice Thorez, French Communist secretary general, was the new Premier. Recently Thorez said the Soviet army should be welcomed in Paris if it pursued an aggressor into France.

Full of reminders of the German occupation, one proclamation said certain Frenchmen, including everyone having "one American grandmother," would have to wear "the yellow star of the enemies of the people." The Germans made Jews wear a yellow Star of David.

Curfew Warnings

Sprinkled across the "front page" were blaackout and curfew warnings, a story that "London suffers unprecedented bombardment," and another about "6,549 rape cases reported today, only one was found to involve a Tartar partisan."

The "newspaper" picked up on 1940 quotation from Marshal Henri Phillipe Petain—the Vichy chief of state who is not imprisoned—and put it in Thorez's mouth. It said "I hate the lies that have done us so much harm."

Red Rule On, Fake Posters Tell Paris

Paris, March 9 (AP)—Some Parisians going to work this morning thought they were still having a nightmare.

General de Gaulle's Workers' Rally had plastered billboards during the night with phoney announcements of a Red occupation of Paris.

Rubbing their eyes, the early-morning crowds saw imitations of the newspaper Le Matin, which had collaborated with the Germans. Now it bore headlines such as these:

"We will collaborate in honor and dignity, Premier Thorez says in radio message."

"London suffers unprecedented bombardment."

"Britain at the end of her rope."

Thorez is secretary-general of the French Communist party. He recently stated that the Red Army should be welcomed as liberators in western Europe.

Shaw, Communist, for Marshall Plan

MAR 9 1949

Says Reds Know No More of Electioneering Than Pigs Do About Holidays.

London, March 9 (A. P.).—George Bernard Shaw described himself today as a Communist, but said that the Marshall plan is "for the moment absolutely necessary."

Shaw's observation was made in a letter to John Mahon, Communist candidate for Parliament in tomorrow's by-election in the St. Pancras district of London. His advice to the candidate repudiates the top-drawer rallying cry of the Cominform—that the Marshall plan must be wrecked, because it represents American "imperialism."

Won't Campaign.

Shaw refused to campaign for Mahon, because "in my ninety-third year I am past such activities," but he had plenty of advice. "I am a Communist, and always call myself so," the playwright wrote, "and when I do, I know what I am talking about, which is more than can be said for some of our friends, but there is more to it than that. The Communist party knows no more about electioneering than a pig knows about a holiday."

FRANKFORT, Germany, March 9 (AP) — American officials announced today that Gen. Lucius D. Clay had barred all German business men with pro-Nazi records from going to the German industry show opening in New York April 9.

Some officials estimated that as many as 100 members of the German delegation will be prohibited from leaving Western Germany under the order.

American military government officials said General Clay's order barred even Nazi "followers," the lowest category of Nazi offender, from taking part in the show. Most Nazi "followers" were non-active Nazi party followers.

The 350 West German business men who have signed to take part in the show are now being screened by military government agencies.

E. C. Wolfsperger, chief of the military government's civil service branch, is in charge of the screening. He said he had received reports of the Germans from the American military government in Berlin and from other sources.

"We are processing all this information as quickly as possible," he said. "We should know in a day or two just how many of the German business men will be affected."

In Berlin, the public safety branch of the Military Government said it had forwarded a "large amount" of material on the German Wolfsperger.

The Rockefeller Center sales show was promoted and managed by West German business men. The three-power joint export-import agency (JEIA) approved and is supporting the show. JEIA officials said today that the organization would pay most of the expenses.

One American official asserted that both West German Laender (state) Governments and JEIA regional offices had approved the entire list of 350 business men before Gen. Clay's order was issued.

This official said JEIA protested that General Clay's order would "ruin the show" by barring perhaps one-third of the business men who planned to take part. JEIA officials were quoted as contending that the group of business men did not include any former active Nazis.

A high official said: "Only simon-pure German business men will go to New York. Those who had anything to do with the Nazis will not go."

The German delegation is due to leave Bremen about April 2.

Mussolini's Finance Minister Seized

Rome, March 9 (AP)—The Italian News Agency reported that Giampietro Pellegrini, Mussolini's last Finance Minister, was arrested today in Milan.

The agency said Pellegrini was charged with "having subtracted from the Italian Treasury" huge sums in Italian, British, Swiss and French money and to have handed the funds to Mussolini before the Duce's flight. Pellegrini was arrested after the war and brought to court in 1945, but later escaped.

4 Italian Laborites To Study U.S. Industry

MAR 9 1949

Rome, March 9 (AP)—Three Italian labor leaders leave by plane today for a month's study of United States labor unions and industries.

The group will be headed by Dr. Giulio Pastore, secretary general of the Free General Confederation of Labor, a Catholic-dominated anti-Communist union. It will include G. Canini, anti-Communist Socialist representative in the General Confederation of Labor, a communist-dominated union, and Dr. A. P. Rocchi, labor leader of the moderate Leftist Republican party.

Each is a member of the Labor Union Advisory Committee of the Economic Co-operation Administration mission in Italy.

4 Held In North Italy As Drug Smugglers

Milan, Italy, March 9 (AP)—A reliable source said today that four persons have been arrested in a drive by Italian police and agents from the United States zone of Germany to break up a narcotics-smuggling ring operating from Germany into Italy.

About 440 pounds of German medicines, including cocain, were reported to have been seized near Bolzano in northern Italy. The informants said the dope was run across the Brenner Pass into Italy by automobile.

Austrian Official Taken From Train, Vienna Say

Vienna, March 9 (AP)—Unofficial sources said today an Austrian Government official was taken from a train Sunday night by Soviet occupation authorites and has not been heard from since.

The sources said the official, Dr. Gustav Gruber, a secretary in the Foreign Office, was removed from a train en route from the British occupation zone to Vienna. Government officials refused comment.

Gruber is not related to Dr. Karl Gruber, the Austrian Foreign Minister.

Poles Pick Trade Chief

Warsaw, Poland, March 9 (AP)—President Boleslaw Beirut today appointed Tadeusz Gede as Minister of Foreign Trade. Gede, 38 years old, assumes one of the six new ministries created in a split-up of the former Ministry of Industry and trade. An electrical engineer, he had been head of the control department in the Industry and Trade Ministry.

U. S. Warships Visit Holland.

Rotterdam, March 9 (A. P.).—The United States destroyer Gyatt and mine sweeper Ellyson, a converted destroyer, arrived today on a five-day visit to the Netherlands.

Dutch Reported Ready To Free Indonesians

MAR 9 1949

The Hague, the Netherlands, March 9 (AP)—The Netherlands Government has decided to permit leaders of the Indonesian Republic to return to their former capital, Jogjakarta, in Central Java, a reliable source said today.

By this step the Government could remove a principal Republican objection to taking part in a round-table conference here on the projected Indonesian Federation. The United Nations had requested the Dutch to release the Indonesian leaders, held on the island of Bangka since the Dutch "police action" of last December, but the Dutch did not comply.

U.N. Support Urged

It was expected that the Dutch representative, Dr. J. H. Van Royen, would announce his Government's decision at tomorrow's meeting of the United Nations Security Council. He is expected also to urge the United Nations to give full support to the round-table proposal.

The Republican leaders who have been held include Dr. Soekarno, president of the republic, and Mohammed Hatta, the premier.

Pressure from the Dutch Foreign Minister, Dr. D. U. Stikker, as well as from the non-Republican Indonesian Federalist states, was said to have led to yesterday's Cabinet decision to comply with the demand of the Security Council and restore the Republican Government in Jogjakarta.

Postponement Foreseen

Replying to the Dutch round-table invitation, Soekarno said he could make an official decision only after he and his Caibnet were returned to Jogjakarta.

On February 28, the Dutch announced their plan to transfer sovereignty to Indonesia by midsummer. They intend to discuss this at the round-table talks.

It was apparent today the opening of the conference, now set for Saturday, would be postponed, but no official announcemnt has been made yet.

EUROPE ROAD NET AGREED ON

14 Nations Reach Accord At Secret U.N. Parley

M. GOLDSMITH

Geneva, Switzerland, March 9 (AP)—A secret United Nations conference reached final agreement ...e last week on setting up an ...European highway network linking Scotland to the Russian fron... and Norway to the southern ...of Italy, it was learned today.

...epresentatives from fourteen ...ions agreed on a network of ...ajor highways across Europe, ...hich all countries are to keep per...anently in good repair at standard specifications.

Details of the international network are to be kept secret until they have been considered by the various governments. The original plan was drawn by transport experts of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe.

Held Important Step

Officials of the commission said today final agreement on the scheme, which has been pending since early last year, was one of the most important steps forward in Europe's inland transport since the war.

On a proposal by the United ...tates delegate, Barton P. Jenks, the committee agreed that the map of the network would not be published for the time being. If some governments decided to curtail their sections of the published network for a lack of funds, Jenks said, widespread disappointment would result.

The first draft outline of the network was published last year by the State Department in Washington.

Channel Tunnel Discounted

The conference definitely discounted the channel tunnel project between France and Britain, which it considered as out of the question in the near future. But the major international trunk highways of all the European countries taking part in the conference were included in the network, with the aim of linking all large cities with good, fast roads. International traffic would pass frontier points with a minimum of delay.

The countries taking part were Austria, Belgium, Czechoslo...kia, Denmark, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Sweden, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States. Germany was represented by the three Western occupation powers.

The network includes some stretches of entirely new roads, and some important new short-cuts in existing communication. Nearly all the existing roads in the network will require widening or other improvements.

The provisions of the agreement assured that car ferries in Scandinavia and across the English Channel all would have the same agreed minimum weight and size capacity.

One major highway ran from the Franco-Spanish frontier through Berlin and Warsaw to the Polish-Russian frontier. Neither Spain nor Russia were included in the network.

Officials said the absence of Yugoslavia, Hungary and Bulgaria from the conference was generally regretted by other delegates, but it was hoped the Balkan countries would join the scheme later.

Swiss Want Interest On War Damage

Bern, Switzerland, March 9 (AP)—The Swiss Government served notice today that it expects the United States to pay interest on its $16,000,000 war-damage claims. Switzerland claims the United States Air Force caused the damage by accidental bombing during the war.

On January 4, 1944, Schaffhausen, near the German border was blasted. The United States made an immediate payment of $4,000,000 after this incident, but further payments have been held up by Congress, the Swiss Federal Council said.

The Federal Council said American legislation for a further $2,300,000 payment would cover only a part of Swiss claims, especially as "a considerable amount of interest" would have to be added to the original claim.

Czechs Curbing Frontier Exits

MAR 9 1949

A. I. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 9 (AP) — Czechoslovak automobile crossing points into Bavaria, the American zone of Germany, have been closed for nearly a week except for one outlet.

Government sources here today had no explanation for the closing. They also said they had no information about dispatches from Hof, Germany, that all crossings would be closed to foot and road traffic March 20. The Hof dispatch quoted German police, who said they had been informed by Czech border police.

An official at the American Embassy said a "semi-official" explanation was that there was a shortage of custom guards to man the border crossings and examine papers and baggage.

Another informant said there had been a reduction in the number of guards in the "trusted" category, following evidence that many Czechoslovaks were escaping on foot into the American zone.

The situation has been accompanied by a general tightening of visa regulations in this country as well as in surrounding countries of the Soviet sphere. No reason for the restrictions has been given.

Czechs Accused Of Spy-Planting Among D.P.'s

MAR 9 1949

Munich, Germany, March 9 (AP)—Czechoslovakia planted spies in refugee camps in the United States occupation zone of Germany, a former intelligence officer of the Communist-run country asserted today.

Capt. Vojtech Jarabek was testifying for the prosecution in the trial of eight Europeans charged with collecting United States military information in Germany for a foreign power.

He said trained Czech agents were placed in refugee camps by the Czechoslovakian Ministry of the Interior and the Czech intelligence service.

Data Sought

Such agents, testimony said, were thus enabled to:

1. Obtain military and economic data on the United States occupation zone.

2. Single out bona fide refugees with relatives still in Czechoslovakia. The refugees could be recruited as spies through threats against their families, it was testified.

Jarabek said the Czech intelligence service "farmed out" agents to officers who then gave them assignmen... and took reports.

Fled In November

Jarabek and another former Czech captain, Otakar Feifar, fled their country November 8, bringing with them secret intelligence files. Feifar has already testified.

Jarabek said among his "sources" were Gertie Doerre, 26, Czech expellee and former German Gestapo agent; Edith Dittrich, 25, Czech student, and Franz Baier, 35, a German.

Gertie Doerre gave him information on the American counter-intelligence office at Hof, where she was employed, and Dittrich reported on the American airbase at Nuebiberg, near where she lived, he said.

He said, under crossexamination, that all three had been paid by him.

Special protection measures were continued at the trial. Armed military police watched over the few spectators.

Czechs To Seal Up Bavarian Border Points

MAR 9 1949

Hof, Germany, March 9 (AP)—German border police said today they had been informed Czechoslovakia will close all border points to American-occupied Bavaria March 20.

The Germans said the regulation probably will affect only foot and road traffic.

They said they had been told of the measure by Czech border police, who gave no reason. American Military Government officials said they had no explanation either.

here, got eight months for "neglecting the duty to report to the police" regarding "the treason committed by Zsigmond Mihalovics," an escaped leader of Catholic Action.

Hungary Recruiting Spies, Austria Charges

Vienna, March 9 (AP)—Hungarian soldiers are asking Austrian customs and border officials to spy in the British zone of Austria, Interior Minister Oskar Helmer charged today.

Helmer said two border incidents Monday were connected with such requests.

The Hungarian sergeant who was killed recently in a scuffle over his gun had approached the Austrian border guards with the proposal that they report military information to Budapest authorities, Helmer said.

One Still Missing

One of two customs officials, kidnapped at a different border crossing, told Austrian officials after his escape that he had been asked to do similar work. His companion is still missing.

The two were seized at gun point by three Hungarian soldiers as they made their rounds of the border.

The Austrian Cabinet last night decided to formally protest to Hungary.

Hungary Jails Two Prelates

Cardinal's Archivist and Catholic Action Leader Convicted by Magyar Reds.

MAR 9 1949

Budapest, March 9 (A. P.).—Two Roman Catholic prelates were convicted and imprisoned today, one on charges linked with the case of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

Mgr. Janos Fabian, archivist of the primate's court, was sentenced to one year in prison on charges of concealing various documents concerning the Cardinal's case. The Communist-controlled Government has sentenced the Cardinal to life imprisonment on charges of treason and speculation in foreign currency.

Bulgar Press Quotes Briton On 'Fair Trial'

Sofia, March 9 (AP) — Bulgaria's controlled press today contended fifteen Protestant ministers had fair trials in a People's Court which yesterday sentenced them to prison.

Newspapers quoted an English clergyman, the Rev. George B. Chambers, as declaring that the trial was on the level. Western governments and churchmen have denounced the trial as religious persecution by Bulgaria's Communist Government.

Called "Red Vicar"

Chambers, who is known as the "Red Vicar" of Carbrooke, Nolfolk, England, attended the trial briefly as an "independent observer." He heard the testimony of one witness and the final pleas of some of the defense lawyers and prosecutors. He was not in court when the defendants testified.

[A 2-foot wooden crucifix showing Christ holding a hammer and sickle decorates his Carbrooke parish church.]

The fifteen pastors confessed in court and begged for mercy. They were convicted of spying for the United States and Britain, and of black-market dealings in currency. Four were sentenced to life imprisonment and eleven to terms of one to fifteen years.

Other Trials Due

Several other trials of Protestant clergymen, some of them secret, are scheduled. About 40 pastors are believed to be in jail. This would be more than a quarter of the 138 Protestant ministers in the country.

The newspapers quoted Chambers as declaring that, despite belief to the contrary in western countries, "there is full religious freedom and no persecution in Bulgaria."

Chambers, who arrived here March 2, was escorted by Government press-department officials until he left shortly after giving Monday's interview. He declined to disclose who paid for the trip.

Greeks Claim New Victories Over Rebels

Athens, March 9 (AP)—The Greek Army general staff claimed continuing successes today in fighting against Communist-led guerrillas.

A communiqué said more than 100 rebels have been killed in two days of fighting in the valley south of Karpenisi, a town recently recaptured from the guerrillas. It said all the bodies of slain rebels have not been counted yet.

The Peloponnesus campaign, which the communiqué claimed is virtually over, is said to have netted 42 killed, 28 prisoners and 27 surrendered during the last 24 hours. The Peloponnesus is the southern Greek peninsula.

Trans-Jordan's Legion Battles Israeli Drive

Clash Reported When Two Jewish Forces Advance In Negeb Toward Gulf Of Aqaba

Amman, Trans-Jordan, March 9 (AP)—The Defense Ministry announced tonight a clash between Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion and Israeli armed forces moving toward the Gulf of Aqaba.

[In Tel Aviv the Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs said it had no knowledge of any such clash. A spokesman declared that no Israeli units are stationed or operating outside Israeli's territory.]

"The Arab Legion stopped Israeli forces proceeding toward Aqaba at a point 50 kilometers (32 miles) from Aqaba," the ministry said. "A Jewish force has proceeded toward Aqaba since March 7.

Tells Of Two Forces

"Part of the force crossed the mountainous area parallel to the Sena Desert and was able to reach Ras el Nakab. The other main part crossed the Aqaba valley on its way to the gulf."

[The location of Ras el Nakab was not specified, but a village of a similar name—Ras el Naqb—lies at the Palestine-Egyptian frontier 7 miles from the gulf and 10 miles northwest of the port of Aqaba.]

No further details were given.

But there were reports that fighting broke out last night and continued today.

The Gulf of Aqaba is a joint Red Sea outlet of Israel and Trans-Jordan, who are now engaged in armistice talks at Rhodes.

Israeli Strip Flanks Port

Trans-Jordan's port of Aqaba, where British troops are stationed, is flanked on the west by a 10-mile coastal strip of Palestine's Negeb desert which the United Nations assigned to the Jews.

It was reported Israeli armored forces moved south in two lines, from Beersheba and from positions south of the Dead Sea, and that a clash developed last night.

There was no indication that Israeli troops crossed the border.

"Dangerous," London Comment

British officials in London said they regarded the situation as "very dangerous."

Aqaba has been an issue between Israel and Britain since British troops moved into the port last fall, by request of Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah, under the terms of a mutual defense treaty. Israel protested this and other British moves to the United Nations.

However, an Israeli military spokesman, without going into detail on the troop movements, said in Tel Aviv, "We occupy all our territory."

To Tel Aviv observers, the danger of a truce-breaking battle between Israeli and Trans-Jordan or British forces in the Aqaba zone had appeared to have blown over.

Meet No British Troops

Asked whether British military units had been encountered along the Israeli coastal strip, the spokesman replied "we have no reason to doubt Britain's assurances that none of her forces is on our soil."

However, the troop movements drew attention in London even before reports of a clash arrived.

A Foreign Office spokesman said: "We have today had a report from our minister in Amman, Alexander Kirkbride, saying he has received information from official Trans-Jordan sources that a Jewish force in the eastern Negeb is moving toward Aqaba."

The spokesman declined to say how strong the reported Israeli force was, exactly how it was observed by Trans-Jordan and whether, in Britain's opinion, such a movement would violate the United Nation's cease-fire order.

Clash Threat Over Aqaba Seen Ended

Tel Aviv March 9 (AP)—The threat of an Israeli-British clash over the Aqaba coast appeared today to have blown over.

Observers wondered earlier this week whether—if Israelis moved into the 10-mile coastal strip assigned to them by partition—they might encounter British forces spread there from the adjacent Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba.

An Israeli spokesman said today that "we occupy all our territory." Asked if British forces had been encountered along the strip, he said: "We have no reason to doubt Britain's assurances that none of her forces is on our soil."

Syria Reported Seeking Talk Delay

Damascus, Syria, March 9 (AP)—Usually reliable informants said today that Syria has refused to enter armistice talks with Israel until termination of similar discussions now under way between Israel and Lebanon.

The same sources said Syria has informed Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations mediator at Rhodes, that she will not consider any proposal to alter the present positions held by Syrian troops in northern Palestine.

U.S. Aide In Syria Routs Four Gunmen

Damascus, Syria, March 9 (AP)—Miles A. Copeland, Jr., attaché in the United States Legation, fought off four tommy-gunners who fired on him at his home here last night.

Copeland, a crack shot, fired back with a pistol, and the four muffled gunmen fled in a jeep. Legation officials said they believed the attack had no political motive, and police suggested the gunmen intended robbery.

Iran Warns Newsmen To Be Cautious

Tehran, Iran, March 9 (AP)—Deputy Premier Mohamad Tabataie told foreign newsmen today to avoid sending out "news contrary to Iran's security" and warned that offenders would be punished.

The official said that a correspondent of Pravda, the Moscow Communist party newspaper, filed a dispatch last week which he considered "tendentious."

India Rail Strike Is Termed A Failure

Bombay, India, March 9 (AP)—A Communist-instigated strike of Indian railway workers was a "total failure" today, railway officials declared.

Reports from western and central India said the workers reported for duty as usual. Trains between Bombay, Madras, Calcutta and New Delhi were on schedule this morning.

The Government continued its efforts to guard against possible sabotage. The security measures were ordered soon after the Communist-dominated unions called the strike for today.

The postal service, telegraph lines and telephones were also functioning normally, a Government spokesman said in New Delhi, despite a strike threat by some Communist-dominated labor unions.

India Reports Strikes A Flop

New Delhi, India, March 9 (AP)—Communist-called India-wide strikes of railway, post, telegraph and telephone workers flopped today, Government officials said.

The day was marked only by a few bomb throwings, about 300 arrests and police riot squads at the ready. A Government spokesman said communications and transport throughout the country functioned normally, and that attendance in workshops was above average.

The Communist stronghold of Calcutta reported three bomb incidents, which caused a temporary dislocation of traffic. The Bengal Government clamped on a dusk-to-dawn curfew in the Barrackpore area, where Communists are numerous.

The spokesman said workers walked out only in one area in central India and a substitute staff took over after about five minutes. He said most of those arrested were charged with incitement to strike.

Airfield Reported Taken By Karens

Rangoon, Burma, March 9 (AP)—Officials reported today that Karen Nationalist rebels have taken Anisakan Airfield, 7 miles south of Maymyo. A spokesman said the reverse was only temporary and not too important.

Other sources said the Anisakan airstrip had been used in an airlift to bring Britons from the Maymyo area to Rangoon. Government troops have been attempting to oust the Karens from Maymyo which had been a Government army post.

Press reports said Communists from the Irrawaddy delta area were heading toward Insein, a rail town 10 miles north of Rangoon, where Karens are battling Burma Government forces. Burma is fighting uprisings of both Karens, who seek an autonomous state, and Communists.

Ruble May Seek New Prestige

Moscow, March 9 (AP)—Russia is grooming her ruble as a possible competitor of the dollar and pound sterling in international economic affairs.

This appears to be one of the aims of Soviet monetary policy changes over the past two years.

Most recent step was proclamation of price cuts ranging from ten to 30 per cent on 45 classes of consumer goods, including foods.

The decree, signed by Prime Minister Stalin and G. M. Malenkov, secretary of the Russian Communist party's Central Committee, said the cuts would "improve the rate of the ruble in relation to other foreign currencies."

Specified In Treaties

A fact apparently little noted abroad is that since January 1 the ruble has been specified as the price medium in trade treaties contracted by Russia with Poland and Romania.

These were the first postwar treaties the U.S.S.R. signed providing that total commodity exchanges would be priced in rubles.

Previously, many of Russia's trade treaties signed since the war had provided for pricing in dollars or in the currency of the nation with which the agreement was concluded.

The Polish treaty provided that each country would exchange goods worth 715,000,000 in rubles. Announcements of the Romanian treaty said each side would barter 465,000,000 rubles in goods.

International Value

[The official international value of the ruble is 5.30 to the dollar, a rate maintained continuously for more than ten years.]

Furthermore, in January the Economic Council of Mutual Aid was formed. Member countries are Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Russia.

Since ECMA avowedly was set up to provide closer economic cooperation among members, one of the first collective steps it might take would be currency co-operation among the members.

Russian Legislature Opens Today

MAR 9 1949

F GILMORE

Moscow, March 9 (AP)—Members of the Supreme Soviet swarmed into Moscow tonight for a legislative session beginning tomorrow which may shed light on recent Government changes.

In five days, three major shifts have been announced. These involved the release of Vyacheslav M. Molotov from the post of Foreign Minister, A. I. Mikoyan from Foreign Trade Minister, and A. I. Efremov from Minister of the Machine Tool Industry.

Efremov became one of the thirteen deputy chairmen of the Council of Ministers, but no new appointments for Molotov and Mikoyan have been announced. Molotov, however, remained the first deputy chairman. No. 2 man after Prime Minister Josef Stalin, and Mikoyan also remained a deputy chairman.

Succeeded By Deputies

Molotov was succeeded by his deputy, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, at the Foreign Ministry, and Mikoyan's deputy, M. A. Menshirkov, succeeded him at the Foreign Trade Ministry. Andrei A. Gromyko, former Ambassador to Washington and delegate to the United Nations, took Vishinsky's place.

The Soviet press announced these changes inconspicuously and has offered no comment, leaving foreign diplomats and observers guessing as to their significance. Therefore they are watching the opening tomorrow of the fifth session of the second Supreme Soviet for signs of their portent.

The Council of the Union, one of the two equal houses in the Soviet Parliament, will meet first in the great hall at the Kremlin at 2 P.M.

Total Of 1,339 Members

The other house, the Council of Nationalities, will meet in the same hall two hours later. The two houses together have 1,339 members, all but a handful elected in 1946 for four-year terms.

The two bodies presumably will be asked to approve an agenda calling for consideration of the budget for 1949. The two houses then will meet in joint session later to hear a report on the proposed budget.

Foreign observers are intent upon seeing what the Soviet armed forces budget looks like. They also are awaiting signs of what effect recent economic decrees have had on the Soviet economy.

The 1948 budget approved a year ago allowed 66,000,000,000 rubles for defense out of a total expenditure 380,000,000,000, the biggest budget in Soviet history.

Defense Was Lower

This shaved about 2,500,000,000 rubles from the defense budget for 1947 and added 9,000,000,000 rubles to the total budget for 1947.

With defense expenditures rising in both the United States and Britain, the question is what will happen to Soviet military estimates this year.

[The present official exchange rate of the ruble is 5.3 to the dollar, or about 19 cents. There is no free market to determine its value in international exchange.

[President Truman has submitted a budget of $41,858,000,000, of which $14,300,000,000 is for defense. Britain's House of Commons has approved her biggest defense budget since postwar demobilization—$3,039,000,000.

Decreased Some Prices

[Russia devalued the ruble in December, 1947, decreeing an exchange of most old rubles at a rate of ten for one new ruble. The decree provided for the same wages and salaries and a cut in some consumers prices.]

In addition to the ruble revaluation, Russia ordered price cuts last April and more sweeping reductions of ten to 30 per cent in 45 classifications of goods and commodities February 28 this year.

All these measures were announced as steps to raise the standard of living and put down inflation. They appear also to be part of a Soviet plan to make the ruble a competitor of the dollar and British pound in international trade.

The ruble has been designated the price standard in trade treaties with Poland and Romania this year. Previously many of Russia's trade treaties set prices in terms of dollars or the money of the country with whom the deal was made.

Poles Reaffirm Loyalty To Soviet

Warsaw, Poland, March 9 (AP)—Marshal Michal Zymierski, Defense Minister, reaffirmed Poland's allegiance today to Russia.

"Together with other Peoples' Democracies (Communist regimes) we stand unshakeably on the side of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in her struggle for peace," he told Parliament.

"To the warmongering threats of American imperialists, our country replies with increased work on reconstruction."

He spoke for a military budget of $140,000,000, compared to $85,000000 last year. He said taxes for "the Army of Peace" amounts to $4.41 per citizen, compared to $75 in the United States.

[President Truman asked Congress for a $15,000,000,000 defense budget for this year.]

Cuba Expected To Break Russian Diplomatic Link

MAR 9 1949

Havana, March 9 (AP)—Cuba apparently has laid the groundwork for breaking diplomatic relations with Russia by sending two strong notes to the Soviet Embassy here.

Extracts of the notes were made public tonight by the Ministry of State. One document charged the Soviet Embassy with propaganda "offensive" to a democratic government.

The second note flatly rejected a Russian protest against sale here of carnival masks with faces resembling that of Prime Minister Stalin.

Full Commercial Liberty

"The effort of the Soviet Legation," this note said, "to apply the totalitarian repressive measures it suggests is unacceptable."

The notes were dispatched March 3. Diplomatic quarters said seldom has such sharp language been used by one Government toward another.

As for the sale of Stalin masks in Cuba, the second note said, "this does not constitute any violation whatever of our laws, which guarantee full liberty to legitimate commercial activities."

It added that in Cuba "legal institutions originate from a political system diametrically opposed to that of the U.S.S.R."

The first note called attention to recent statements of Communist leaders in various nations that "they would help Russia against their own countries in case of war."

International Countersign

"The Government of Cuba is deeply concerned," the document said, "by these unusual public statements, reiterated and simultaneous" which "have as their principal object the destruction of the world democratic system."

It added that "these groups disloyal to their own countries" undoubtedly are in obedience to "an international countersign."

Concerning the Soviet Legation's activities here, the note said:

"The Legation of the U.S.S.R. through bulletins, newspapers and in other ways, does not confine itself to the natural interchange of cultural ideas and commercial advertising but, under the liberties offered by our democratic regime, it advances ideas injurious to our form of government, and even issues pamphlets insulting to high officials."

Has Become Aggressive

"This situation," it added, "cannot persist, since the Government is obligated in an imperative way to avoid its continuation since it has already become . . . aggressive. Nor can it permit that groups submissive to totalitarian ideas and to foreign political countersigns receive support, directly or indirectly, from diplomatic missions which enjoy privileges and immunities so long as they do not clash with the democratic fundamentals of the nations where they are established."

The Communist party was established in Cuba in 1924, but operated as an underground organization until it was legalized in 1939. At that time, Fulgencio Batista, later President, was the strong man of the Government. Cuba established diplomatic relations with Moscow in 1943, when the Russians had joined the Allied forces.

Largest In Hemisphere

Cuba's Communist party, with 154,000 members, is regarded as the largest in the Western Hemisphere.

Its president is Dr. Juan Marinello, one of Cuba's outstanding intellectual leaders. He commented recently on statements of Communist leaders in Europe that they would fight for Russia in event of a war. But he carefully avoided saying the same thing, confining himself to a statement that Cuban Communists were opposed to war.

Cuba has no diplomatic representatives in Moscow. The U.S.S.R. has three accredited representatives in Cuba—Genardi Fomin, Boris Nikoforov, chargé d'affaires, and Vladimir Rajubchuk.

Reds' Manganese 'Club' Cited

MAR 9 1949

New York, March 9 (AP)—The Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly, said today the Russians are trying to use their manganese supply as a club to get United States machine tools and steel.

About a third of the manganese ore used by this nation's steelmakers last year came from Russia.

The Russians now think they can use this situation "to blackjack the United States into lifting its embargo on machine tools and steel shipments to the Soviet Union," the publication said.

"Threat Won't Work"

"The Red threat will not work," it added.

Pointing out that the real size of the country's strategic stockpile of manganese is confidential, the trade weekly commented:

"It is known that if all Russian ore imports were dropped the Government could make up this deficiency for as long as five years. Or to put it another way, total industry requirements from all sources could be filled by the Government stocks for two years—if such an emergency should arise."

Prepared For Cessation

Government and industry are prepared for any cessation of Russian manganese shipments, the Iron Age said. It continued:

"Aid is being given to South African manganese ore mines. Imports have been boosted from India and work is progressing on increasing imports from Brazil.

"With Economic Co-operation Administration aid the manganese ore export potential of Morocco and the Gold Coast is expanding. Supplies may be tight for a while, but steel making will not suffer one iota."

General Debates Li's Offer To Succeed Sun Fo

Nanking, China, March 9 (AP)—Gen. Ho Ying-chin, an old warrior comrade of Chiang Kai-shek, today appeared the choice as China's next premier.

Ho debated the offer in Hangchow, south of Shanghai, where he is celebrating his sixtieth birthday. All preparations for peace talks with the Communists were at a standstill while he mulled it over.

Dispatches from Hangchow quoted him as saying he wasn't interested in the job. That is an old Chinese custom. His final decision is awaited.

He said he had talked twice by telephone in 24 hours with Acting President Li Tsung-jen, who reportedly wants him to take over from Dr. Sun Fo, who quit Tuesday.

On "War Criminals" List

No one knows how the Communists will take a Ho appointment. He is a former Defense Minister, a military leader and is on the Communist "war criminals" list.

Official sentiment in Nanking, however, is that he is a good compromise choice. With his associations in the army he could speak with more authority than other candidates.

Among these are Shao Li-tze, veteran diplomat who already has talked with the Communists, and Gen. Chang Chih-chung, commander in the northwest. The ten-man committee charged with drafting peace proposals decided to await the appointment of a new premier.

Expected To Sit In Nanking

Sun, the retiring Premier, heads the group. He has given no indication of resigning from the committee.

Lawmakers said their own peace program is being written and will be presented to the National legislature Friday.

Approximately 100 legislators in Canton, who had held out for a session of the legislature there, were reported planning to come to Nanking. The props were knocked out from under them when Sun quit. It was Sun who had moved the Cabinet to Canton. The new Cabinet is expected to sit in Nanking.

Resignations Delaying Chinese Peace Talks

Nanking, March 9 (AP)—Government preparations for peace talks with the Communists were bogged down today pending formation of a new cabinet.

Premier Sun Fo and his cabinet resigned yesterday, but Sun still heads the ten-man committee named to draw up the Government's peace plans. Most of the committee is composed of cabinet members, who agreed to stay on their committee jobs until a new cabinet is formed.

Gen. Ho Ying-chin, former Defense Minister, still appears to be the choice of Acting President Li Tsung-jen for Premier. Ho is in Hangchow celebrating his sixtieth birthday. Traditional Oriental sparring before his decision is under way. Ho has been quoted as saying he does not want the post.

Amenities Come First

When these customary amenities have been dispensed with, the decision will be known.

Meanwhile, in Canton approximately 100 legislators who went there with Sun and the Cabinet found themselves out on a limb because of the Premier's and Cabinet's sudden resignation.

Most of them now plan to return here, where the Legislative Yuan is in session. Foreign diplomats who followed Sun and the Cabinet to Canton also are preparing to return.

Chinese press dispatches reported three divisions from Gen. Hut Sung-nan's Shensi province command had moved into Szechwan to ease tension between the rival governors of southwestern Sikang and Szechwan provinces.

Threat To 3 County Seats

Canton sources reported that three eastern county seats in south coastal Kwangtung province were threatened by Communists. The Reds control the countryside and have bottled up Government forces in the towns, these sources said.

The Reds, they added, have blown up all bridges on the Chiuling-Taipu-Pengyuan highway along the Fukien province border.

The Shanghai newspaper, Sin Wan Pao, quoted Chinese Navy sources as saying Nationalists had repulsed an attack by 5,000 Communists on a bridgehead 60 miles east of Nanking.

Nanking Editor Free From Jail

Nanking, March 9 (AP)—Kung Teh-po, Nanking editor who was jailed Saturday for blasting ex-President Chiang Kai-shek editorially, was released today.

His newspaper, which had been suspended, resumed.

Jail is not a new experience for Kung. Nine times he has been arrested for criticizing high officials. He never picks small fry.

Asked Chiang To Leave

Saturday he advocated that Chiang quit meddling in national affairs and get out of the country.

A few hours later he went to jail and his newspaper was suspended.

Regulations under which Kung was jailed were abolished before his arrest by Acting President Li Tsung-jen.

Enjoying his role, Kung was persuaded to leave jail only after repeated pleas by authorities.

China War Supplies To Be Taken Off Ships

Tokyo, March 9 (AP)—At the request of President Li Tsung-jen of China, American military materials consigned to the Nationalists will be removed from two ships before they reach Shanghai.

Li asked the removal of the supplies for fear they might prejudice his atempts to reach a peace agreement with the Communists.

ECA supplies aboard both ships will continue to China.

Sending China Art To U.S. Protested

New York, March 9 (AP)—The reported shipment of 8,600 art treasures from Peiping Palace Museum to the United States Library of Congress "for temporary safekeeping" was protested today by nine Chinese educational organizations in the United States.

In letters to President Truman and thirteen congressmen the organizations wrote, "the national art treasures of China have been pilfered many times. The warlords used to trade them for material support from foreign powers.

"We do not know whether the United States has sponsored the present shipment. We are loathe to think so. But in any case, it will be resented by the Chinese people just the same.

"For the sake of the traditional friendship between China and the United States we sincerely hope that you will see to it that these art treasures of China are not shipped to this country."

Japanese Party Is Split Over Leadership

Tokyo, March 9 (AP)—A sharp cleavage today threatened to reduce the second-ranking conservative Democratic party to impotency.

In a break over leadership, the party's 70 Diet seats were divided almost evenly. The result may be even greater strength for the dominant ultraconservative Democratic Liberal party, which now holds a strong majority.

The Communists immediately started a drive to try to win over some of the malcontents. This was considered part of the Communist campaign for trying to gain support from wealthy farmers and industrialists on a program of opposing foreign capital.

Quarrel Over Alliance

The split came over the question of a formal alliance with the governing Democratic Liberals. One faction under party President Ken Inukai favors a coalition. The second faction, opposed to a coalition, has demanded Inukai's removal.

The groups held separate conventions yesterday. Each claimed it spoke for the party. If the gap is not closed, the Communists, with 35 seats, technically will be tied for third position in the lower House with the quarreling Democratic factions. The Social Democrats hold 48 seats.

U.N. Finds Peace In Animal World

Lake Success, N.Y., March 9 (AP). The United Nations found a vestige of peace today—in the animal kingdom.

An excerpt from the world review of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization reported:

"In the animal kingdom, the tangled problems of national barriers do not exist.

"Fifteen baboons have been flown from Amsterdam to the Soviet Union to make their home in the Moscow zoo. The Soviet Union, as its share of the bargain, shipped Polar bears, camels, deer and porcupines to the Netherlands.

"Other recent exchanges have included the bartering of lion cubs for ostriches between British and Belgian zoos.

"This stepping-up of international trade in animals is enabling the war-battered zoos of Europe to resume their roles as wonderlands for children and adults alike."

Communist Trial Jurors Examined

New York, March 9 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today told prospective jurors in the conspiracy trial of eleven United States Communist leaders that "you will note they are not charged with being Communists or members of the Communist party."

"The case does not involve guilt by association," he added.

The judge began today examining jurors willing to serve in the trial, which is expected to last at least two months.

The name of a Negro woman, Mrs. Thelma Dial, was the first to be drawn from the jury wheel when twelve persons were placed in the jury box for questioning. This group included four women and eight men but one of the men later was replaced by a woman.

Excuses Two During Day

These twelve will not make up the trial jury. The judge can dismiss any of them for cause and in fact did excuse two during the day. The Government and the defense also have a number of challenges.

As one person is excused or challenged, another member of the panel is called into the box to take his place. Those remaining at the end of the process comprise the jury.

The defense, in the long seven-week prelude to the actual trial, contended that Negroes were among the groups largely shut out of Federal jury service in this district.

They asked that the indictment be thrown out on the ground that the juries are chosen in a discriminatory manner, but Medina rejected their contention last Friday.

Knew Two On Grand Jury

The eleven Communist leaders, all members of the American party's national committee, are charged with conspiring to advocate overthrow of the United States Government by force.

Medina, who conducted all the questioning of the veniremen himself, dismissed one man after the prospective juror said he knew two members of the grand jury which indicted the Communists and that it "might weight slightly."

Another was excused after he said he once was a member of the Holy Name Society, that he at present belongs to another Catholic organization, and that these contacts might prejudice him.

ROBESON WITNESS FOR REDS AT TRIAL

Glasgow, Scotland, March 9 A. P.).—Paul Robeson, American singer, said today he will interrupt a world concert tour at the end of May to testify for the defense in the New York trial of eleven leading United States Communists.

"Marxism is on trial," Robeson told a reporter. "It is a way of life, a philosophy.

"The trial should be very interesting. I am going to take the view that Marxism is a cultural philosophy."

Grand Jury Gets Coplon-Case Papers

New York, March 9 (AP)—A Federal grand jury today examines copies of documents allegedly removed from the Justice Department by a woman employé for transfer to a Russian engineer.

The papers are said to be key evidence in the Government's espionage case against Judith Coplon, 27, and Valentin A. Gubitchev, 32, suspended United Nations engineer.

The Government hopes to get grand-jury indictments by Friday.

Trailed Through N.Y.

Miss Coplon, Barnard College honor graduate who worked for the Justice Department's Internal Security Division, was arrested with Gubitchev here Friday night after being trailed through Manhattan streets.

FBI agents charged she had extracts from confidential Government documents which she allegedly intended to turn over to the Russian.

Two Soviet officials visited Gubitchev yesterday at the Federal House of Detention, where he is held in lieu of $100,000 bail. At the conference, attended by two American officials, Gubitchev was reported to have complained of treatment he has received.

"With Common Crinimals"

"They have me associating with common criminals," he was quoted as saying. "There are two others in my cell. I think they are income-tax evaders. The FBI put me there after kidnapping me."

Miss Coplon is held in the Women's House of Detention in lieu of $20,000 bail.

U.S. WILL NOT FREE RUSSIAN

Acheson Tells Envoy Spy Suspect Will Be Held

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Dean

Acheson, Secretary of State, turned down today a new Soviet demand for immediate release of Valentine A. Gubitchev, Russian member of the United Nations staff who is held as a spy suspect.

Acheson rejected the contention by Alexander S. Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, that Gubitchev is entitled to diplomatic immunity. The Secretary left open, however, whether the United States will choose to deport Gubitchev rather than bring him to trial along with Judith Coplon, 27, Justice Department employé.

The two have been held under heavy bail since their arrest in New York Friday by the FBI. The Government charges that Miss Coplon turned over secret information to the 32-year-old Russian.

Second Attempt To Get Release

At a conference with the Ambassador at the State Department, Acheson promised to consider the issue further and give the envoy a formal reply shortly. It was Panyushkin's second attempt to effect Gubitchev's release. He served his previous demand on Under Secretary James E. Webb and received no promises.

Before seeing Panyushkin Acheson said State Department legal advisers have decided that Gubitchev is not entitled to the traditional immunity from arrest granted to foreign diplomats. The legal finding was:

1. Under a United States agreement with the United Nations "an individual in Gubitchev's position can, after appropriate hearing and procedure, be deported for abuse of his privilege of residence in this country. If this Government sees fit, it can also bring the individual to trial for violation of our laws."

No Diplomatic Immunity

2. "Under Federal statute, a member of the United Nations secretariat does not have diplomatic immunity and enjoys immunity from legal process only in relation to acts performed by him in his official capacity and falling within his functions as an employé of the United Nations."

3. A convention on privileges and immunities of the United Nations now up for congressional approval similarly provides for immunity only in respect to official acts.

Panyushkin said, as he left the State Department, that he "insisted" on the immediate release of Gubitchev.

"By the arrest of Mr. Gubitchev a diplomat who entered the United States with a diplomatic passport visa, his immunity was violated," Panyushkin said.

4 FBI Agents Go To Grand Jury

"The Secretary of State promised to study the substance of the matter and give the answer in the near future."

In New York, the Government, pressing for indictments against Gubitchev and Miss Coplon, sent four FBI agents before a grand jury. Then the jury adjourned until Thursday.

It was expected the grand jury would get a look at the papers which the FBI claimed to have seized in Miss Coplon's handbag when she and the Russian engineer were arrested.

The documents were said by the FBI to contain extracts from Justice Department defense records.

Senate Support Picks Up On Red Bills

MAR 9 1949

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Measures to curb American Communists picked up support in the Senate today.

Members of both parties lined up behind two proposals which would require Communists to register with the Justice Department or face fines and prison terms.

The Senate last year pigeonholed a similar measure passed by the House, but Chairman McCarran (D., Nev.) of the Senate Judiciary Committee said he expects action this time.

"It's not a question of civil rights," he said. "It's a question of legal loopholes that harbor spies and representatives of our enemies."

Two Developments Cited

Other senators said two recent developments, if nothing else, may force Senate action:

1. A strong hint by Communist leaders in this country and western Europe that they would not fight for this country in event of war with Russia.

2. The arrest of Judith Coplon, a Justice Department employé, on charges of passing information to a Russian citizen.

Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee said yesterday the group received information about Miss Coplon's employment more than two years ago.

Wood said the information was included in a letter from a mid-Western professor who told the committee something funny was going on in the foreign registration section of the Justice Department, the section in which Miss Coplon worked.

Charged Manipulation

"Manipulation by certain individuals," the informant wrote, had enabled certain persons and groups to avoid registering under the Foreign Registration Act, when they should have done so.

Wood said his committee will look into the matter soon. Meanwhile, four Senators — Eastland (D., Miss.), Olin D. Johnston (D., S.C.), Ferguson (R., Mich.) and Mundt (R., S.D.)—joined McCarran in predicting that there will be action in the Senate as well.

Last year the Senate failed to act on a Communist registration bill sponsored by Mundt and Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) after it had passed the House by a 319-to-56 majority.

Revised Bill Introduced

Yesterday Mundt and Nixon introduced a revised bill which they said "sharpens the teeth and expands the bite of the legislation we introduced last year."

At the same time, Ferguson introduced a similar bill. He said it contained no provisions which could be "construed as persecution."

New Anti-Red Drive Opens In Congress

Washington, March 8 (AP)—A new anti-Communist drive opened in Congress today.

Two bills were introduced to force Communists and Communist-front organizations to register with the Government.

Neither attempts to outlaw the Communist party—but they aim at spotlighting members and activities.

Ferguson Bill

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) introduced one bill in the Senate. It would set up a three-member board, to be named by the President, to determine in open hearings when an organization must register with the Attorney General, identifying its members, and explain its propaganda activities.

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.) and Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) introduced in the Senate and House a revised version of the anti-Communist bill they sponsored last year.

This bill also would force registration of Communist organizations and their membership.

The Mundt-Dixon bill also would set up a three-member "Subversive Activities Commission." The members would be chosen by the President from the Department of State, Commerce Department and Military Establishment. They would work with the Attorney General in administering the bill.

One section outlaws "peacetime espionage," Mundt said, and "requires the Communist party to sever its umbilical cord with Russia or refrain from acts designed to establish totalitarianism in this country."

It would waive the statute of limitations on treasonable acts in time of peace.

Specific Regulations

"The new bill," Mundt said, "does not outlaw the Communist party, but it sets up specific regulations forcing its operations out into thetopen."

Like the Ferguson bill, it would deny Government employment and passports to members of organizations listed as subversive by the board.

The Ferguson bill would provide fines of $2,000 to $5,000 and imprisonment to two to five years.

'SALLY' JURY IS STILL OUT

MAR 9 1949

Locked Up Until Morning After Failing To Reach Verdict

Washington, March 9 (AP)—A Federal jury weighing the Government's treason case against Mildred E. Gillars, known as "Axis Sally," was unable to reach a verdict tonight and was locked up until morning.

The jurors started their deliberations at 12.03 P.M. More than ten hours later they were still not ready to announce a verdict in the case of the Portland (Maine) native who broadcast for the Nazi radio in wartime.

Marshals took them to a hotel, where they were to be sealed off for the night under guard.

To Return In Morning

They left the courthouse at 10.35 P.M. Charles Ward, chief United States deputy marshal, said the jurors will be brought back to the courthouse after breakfast in the morning—probably between 9.30 and 10 A.M.

The jurors spent only about six hours in actual deliberation of the fate of the 48-year-old former actress. They took an hour and 43 minutes for dinner tonight and 50 minutes for lunch.

Judge Edward M. Curran, who had admonished the jurors to "weigh the evidence dispassionately," was not in court when the jury left for the night.

Maximum Penalty Death

He had left his chambers hours earlier for dinner at home, leaving word he was to be called if the jury was ready to deliver a verdict on the charge, which carries a maximum penalty of death.

Miss Gillars waited in a cell block in the courthouse during the hours the jury deliberated. She had a sandwich for dinner. When the jury left, she was returned to the District of Columbia jail.

The American Government has never in its 150-year history executed a civilian for treason.

West Coast Case Appealed

A West Coast death sentence on treason charges is pending, but is being appealed. It involves Tomoya Kawakita, of Los Angeles, convicted in October of cruelty against captured American soldiers in Japan.

In two recent treason cases, also involving broadcasts for the Nazis, the defendants were sentenced to life imprisonment. They were Douglas Chandler and Robert Henry Best.

As the seven-week trial entered the final phase, Judge Curran instructed the jury on defense claims that "coercion, compulsion and necessity" drove Miss Gillars to make her propaganda broadcasts from German during World War II.

These factors, he said, could not be used as an excuse for treason unless the jury believed that Miss Gillars suffered a well-grounded fear of "immediate death or great bodily harm," if she had refused to obey her German masters.

"And a fear that she might be sent to a concentration camp is not sufficient," Judge Curran said.

Panel Includes Five Women

Judge Curran told the panel of seven men and five women that defense claims Miss Gillars fell under the "hypnotic influence" of the late Prof. Max Otto Koischwitz, a Nazi radio official whom she described as "my destiny," was not a sufficient reason to justify a verdict of acquittal.

In six days on the witness stand, the defendant had testified she loved Dr. Koischwitz, a one-time professor at Hunter College, New York, so much she would have died for him.

But she also blamed him for switching her from broadcasting entertainment programs to mouthing Nazi propaganda and said she would never have been brought to trial if it had not been for him.

Judge Curran told the jury that although Miss Gillars's United States passport was taken up by an American vice consul in Berlin in 1940, it was not sufficient to show that she had lost her American citizenship.

He recalled that Miss Gillars had signed a stipulation acknowledging she was an American citizen at all times, and he said:

"She did owe allegiance to the United States."

AXIS SALLY'S FATE PLACED IN HANDS OF FEDERAL JURY

MAR 9 1949

Judge Rules Broadcaster for Nazis Is Still U. S. Citizen.

Washington, March 9 (A. P.).—The Axis Sally treason case went to the jury in Federal District Court at 12:03 P. M. today. The jury of seven men and five women retired to deliberate after listening to an outline of the evidence and instructions on points of law from Judge Edward M. Curran, who advised them to "weigh the evidence dispassionately."

The trial of Mildred E. Gillars, 48, whose broadcasts for the German radio during the war became known as the Axis Sally program began January 24. She faces a posible death penalty if convicted.

Detailed Instruction Given.

Curran instructed the jurors in detail on the question of "coercion, compulsion and necessity." The defense has contended that Miss Gillars did propaganda work for the Nazis only because she was compelled to. Curran told the jurors that "coercion, compulsion and necessity" could not be used as an excuse for treasonable acts unless under a "well grounded apprehension of immediate death or great bodily harm."

He said the fact that Miss Gillars was in love with the late Prof. Max Otto Koischwitz and that he was in love with her was not a sufficient excuse in this connection.

"And a fear that she might be sent to a concentration camp is not sufficient," the judge stated.

Citizenship Upheld.

Curran ruled that Miss Gillars was an American citizen and owed allegiance to this country at the time she broadcast for the Germans. He recalled that Miss Gillars had signed a stipulation acknowledging that she was an American citizen at all times.

The judge explained that the fact that her passport was taken up by a United States vice-counsel in Berlin in 1940 was not sufficient to show she lost her American citizenship.

Labor Department social security agency, National Mediation Board and the Rail Retirement Board for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The radar protection would be linked with a similar network being built in Canada. It would be augmented by four radar picket vessels.

The radar would be supervised by the Air Force from eight scattered control centers. Interceptor squadrons would be alerted, then directed to head off flights of enemy planes, on the basis of information coming to the centers. Military men have said the system would be worth while but by no means airtight.

The Army, Air Force and Navy all asked for early congressional approval of the long-range guided-missile proving ground. They now share three test centers, but the ranges are only 150 miles.

Partly Outside U.S.

The proposed legislation would authorize a base and launching site in the United States, but the rest of the range could be located outside this country. The total cost has been estimated at $200,000,000.

Military scientists have told the House Armed Services Committee they want to dot the first 500 miles of the range with observation stations. The rest of it, they say, would have "impact areas."

500 MPH Missiles

Military witnesses have testified that robot missiles capable of traveling 500 miles will be ready for testing this year. This compares with the wartime German V-2's record of about 250 miles.

At the outset, the bills would limit expenditures to $85,500,000 for the radar warning system and $70,000,000 for the missiles range. Ultimately, the radar net is expected to cost $161,000,000 and the rocket-test range about $200,000,000.

Commenting on the radar network, Rep. Durham (D), N. C., told the house:

"The country will get more defense out of this one thing than anything that has come before the house in the last several years."

The house armed services committee recommended the radar screen as "the only reasonably effective means known today whereby the effectiveness of an enemy air attack may be reduced."

AIR FORCE JOB

The bill directly gives the air force the job of guarding the nation against air attack. The air force would also have jurisdiction over the guided missile range, but all services would use it.

The proposed radar system would be linked up with a similar network in Canada and would be augmented by four radar picket vessels operated offshore by the navy.

Eight control centers, scattered across the country, would supervise the warning system. Immediately the approach of hostile planes was detected, interceptor squadrons would be rushed into action to head off the enemy.

Military men have praised the proposed setup as worthwhile, but declared it would by no means be airtight.

Rep. Hinshaw (R.-Calif.,) told the house that without long advance warning—at least an hour or more—the best U. S. interceptor planes would be unlikely to stop a fast enemy bomber flying at 40,000 feet or higher.

REASON GIVEN

The reason, he said, is because the bombers would be traveling about seven miles a minute, and an interceptor would have to take off when the B-36 was more than 185 miles away from its target in order to climb up and meet it.

Hinshaw said there is some doubt that bombers of a type similar to the U. S. B-36 can be headed off at all by planes.

"It may have to be done by guided missiles equipped with radar," he said.

House Cool To A Tax On All Military Pay

Washington, March 9 (AP)—President Truman's suggestion that all military pay be taxed as income raised little enthusiasm in the House today.

The President offered the proposal in a letter made public yesterday at an Armed Services subcommittee hearing. The lawmakers are studying a bill to raise military pay an average of about fourteen per cent and establish a standard pension system for the armed forces.

Suggests Gross Basis

Mr. Truman's letter, addressed to Secretary of Defense Forrestal, said preliminary studies indicate the pay bill would cost $590,000,000 more a year than present schedules."

As a means of bringing the total cost of new pay rates down to the budget figure, the President suggested that military pay might be taxed on a gross basis. Base and longevity pay is taxed as income now, but allowances for housing and food are not.

Up to the first of this year the pay of all enlisted personnel was exempt from taxes, while officers got an extra $1,500 exemption.

Kilday Voices Skepticism

"I am not sure that taxing all military pay would make as much of a saving as the President wants," said Representative Kilday (D., Texas), who is in charge of hearings on the pay bill. "We are asking for details on his figures."

Other committee members said they do not expect the bill to include the President's suggestion. In present form, it would leave allowances untaxed.

His Own Good Time

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Representative Rankin (D., Miss.) claimed parliamentary right of way today for his multibillion-dollar veterans pension bill.

He said he will call it up for debate in the House in his own good time regardless of strong Administration objections.

Rankin got an assist from Republican Leader Martin, of Massachusetts, after the House leadership had decided earlier to make Rankin force the issue. The Rules Committee declined to give clearance to the measure.

Martin Cites Old Rule

Twitting Administration leaders on the floor for the parliamentary tangle in which they had ensnarled the pension bill, Martin called attention to an old House rule which makes general pensions privileged legislation.

This means that Rankin could call it up any time under procedure which would allow each of the 435 members one hour speaking time.

"It gives me the right of way," Rankin said.

"I'm going to use every means at my command to bring this bill before the House at the proper time."

Too Much Talk Would Hurt

Whether Rankin will utilize his new-found parliamentry weapon was something else. All that talk could work against him. His stated preference is for sharply limited debate. He said he is willing to leave filibusters to the Senate.

As chairman of the Veterans Committee, he also is privileged to take advantage of a new House rule allowing him to call up the controversial bill 21 days after his committee reported it out favorably.

That 21 days has expired, and Monday is the first day under the rule in which he can demand recognition if he wishes to call the bill up. Rankin refused to say what he would do next Monday, but if he doesn't act then, he'll be eligible for another chance on Monday, March 28.

Favors Two-Hour Debate

Under the floor procedure which Rankin asked but which the Rules Committee refused to grant, debate would be limited to a total of two hours. No amendments would be permitted except as offered by members of his Veterans Affairs Committee.

Rankin's bill would pay $90 a month to all veterans of both World Wars at age 65 regardless of physical condition or need.

House Votes Radar Screen And Guided Missiles Range

MAR 9 1949

Washington, March 9 (A. P.).—A bill authorizing the Air Force to encircle the United States with a radar warning system passed the House unanimously today by voice vote. It goes to the Senate for action.

The House also passed unanimously a bill to let the Air Force build a 3,000-mile testing range for guided missiles. Action on this, too, came on a voice vote.

The radar net is expected to cost $161,000,000 and the guided missiles range $200,000,000. At the start, the bills would limit expenditures to $85,500,000 for radar and $70,000,000 for the range. Money will have to be supplied later in separate appropriation bills.

The proposed location of the missiles range is a secret.

Representative Durham (D.-N. C.), in charge of the radar bill, told the House that the country would get "more defense out of this one thing than anything that has come before the House in the last several years."

The Armed Services Committee recommended the radar screen as "the only reasonably effective means known today whereby the effectiveness of an enemy air attack may be reduced."

Rocket Test Bill, Radar Net Due House Okay

MAR 9 1949

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Two bills giving the Air Force new responsibilities were scheduled for swift approval in the House late today.

One would let the Air Force guard the nation from air attack. It would authorize construction of a radar warning net over strategic approaches.

The other would approve the armed services' plans for building a 3,000-mile test range for guided missiles. Although all the services would use it, the range would be run by the Air Force.

Draw No Opposition

Neither measure has drawn any Capitol Hill opposition.

The House ticketed them for quick action after disposal of a $2,211,794,085 appropriation bill. This bill would finance the

Admiral Hill Is Navy's New Director Of Atomic Energy

MAR 9 1949

Washington, March 9 (AP)—Rear Admiral Tom B. Hill has been chosen as director of atomic energy for the Navy.

Hill, former skipper of the battleship Missouri, will be in charge of navy experiments with atomic energy to drive warships and missiles, and for weapons.

He succeeds Rear Admiral William S. Parsons, recently assigned to the top level weapons systems evaluation group of the Defense Department. Hill has been Parsons's deputy since April, 1947.

Promoted In December

Hill was selected for promotion to rear admiral last December, just before his fiftieth birthday. That puts him among the group of younger officers moving up into key spots in the Navy.

He was officially promoted to the two-star rank the first of this month.

Born in Fort Worth, Texas, Hill studied at the Colorado School of Mines before going to Annapolis. His official address now is Cripple Creek, Col.

He was graduated from Annapolis in 1922 and served aboard the battleships Idaho, Nevada and California. In the Spring of 1941 he was appointed gunnery officer of the brand-new battleship North Carolina. He holds a chemical engineering degree from the University of Michigan.

Winner Of Bronze Star

He hung up something of a record in the South Pacific and won a Bronze Star when his anti-aircraft batteries fought off 75 Japanese planes, destroying many of them.

Later he was fleet gunnery officer on the staff of Admiral Nimitz for which he was awarded the Legion of Merit.

In 1946 he became commanding officer of the Missouri, now the last active battleship in the United States Navy.

Wasyl Babij, 30, head of the little family, begins work tomorrow on a highway job as a laborer. He has been promised a two-room bungalow for his comely wife, Jelysaweta, 25, and their 9-month-old son, Bohdan.

Mr. and Mrs. Metro Harvey are their new sponsors.

Mixup Unexplained

"I feel just wonderful about it," declared 34-year-old Mrs. Harvey. "We've never had so much excitement around here. We wanted to adopt some children and contacted the Ukrainian Displaced Persons Bureau some time ago. We never heard any more about it. Now we have a whole family."

The Babijs got here in a still unexplained mixup. Mrs. John Artymovich, of Dixonville, had arranged for passage of her nephew's family from the British zone in Germany. The bewildered Babijs arrived instead.

Mrs. Artymovich was notified on March 1 that "your displaced persons have arrived in New York this date." She went to New York but was informed her relatives had not arrived. Two days later she received word the family had been sent on to Philadelphia.

No Joyful Reunion

Mrs. Artymovich journeyed to Philadelphia only to be told her relatives already were at her home in Dixonville. She hurried home—but not to the anticipated joyful family reunion.

There were the strange Babijs. They said they were Ukrainians who had been taken prisoner by the Germans and placed in slave-labor camps.

"We would rather die than return to Germany," declared Babij.

Mrs. Artymovich said she has since received a letter from her nephew saying he and his family expect to arrive in this country sometime next month.

Y.W.C.A. Nets 2 Million For War-Torn Areas

San Francisco, March 9 (AP)—A fund of $2,245,369 has been collected within the Y.W.C.A. for work in war-ravaged areas, the organization's eighteenth national convention was told today.

This was well over the $2,000,000 goal set three years ago.

Mrs. Maurice T. Moore, chairman of the foreign division of the organization's national board, reported that 34 Y.W.C.A. staff members have been sent in the past three years "as a kind of task force to Europe, Asia and the Middle East."

She said these workers "have gone in humility—always in a secondary capacity as aides to the indigenous (Y.W.C.A.) leaders. Their first word of praise is for these gallant women without whom the Y.W.C.A. and its work might well have been crushed."

NIGHT LEAD INDONESIAN
BY NELS SLIS

THE HAGUE, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT, CONCERNED ABOUT BOTH THE FINANCES AND THE FUTURE OF INDONESIA, WAS REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE DECIDED TO BOW TO A SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER FOR RETURN OF INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO JOGJAKARTA.

JOGJAKARTA, IN CENTRAL JAVA, WAS THE CAPITAL OF THE REPUBLIC WHICH DUTCH TROOPS TOOK OVER LAST DECEMBER IN THE CAMPAIGN THEY CALLED "A POLICE ACTION." A USUALLY RELIABLE SOURCE SAID THE DUTCH CABINET REACHED THE DECISION YESTERDAY.

HE SAID THE ACTION WAS INTENDED TO ANSWER A REPUBLICAN OBJECTION TO TAKING PART IN ROUNDTABLE TALKS HERE ON THE PROJECTED FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FOR THE ISLANDS, UNTIL RECENTLY CALLED THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES.

(AT LAKE SUCCESS DR. H.J.FRIEDERICY, PRESS OFFICER FOR THE UNITED NATIONS NETHERLANDS DELEGATION, SAID THE REPORTS FROM THE HAGUE WERE NOT CORRECT. HE SAID THE DELEGATION HAD BEEN IN TOUCH WITH THE HAGUE AND HAD BEEN SO INFORMED. FRIEDERICY DECLINED FURTHER COMMENT ON THE DUTCH POSITION.)

FORMALLY THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT BID AGAIN FOR RESTORATION OF ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) AID TO INDONESIA.

THE UNITED STATES HAS BLOCKED FRESH ECA FUNDS FOR THE ISLANDS SINCE DEC.22. THE 1948 ALLOTMENTS TOTALED $65,000,000.

THE NETHERLANDS' SECOND REPORT TO THE ECA TODAY SAID LONG CONTINUED SUSPENSION OF ECA AID WOULD HAVE CATASTROPHIC REPERCUSSIONS. THE GOVERNMENT PREVIOUSLY SUGGESTED A RESUMPTION TO THE UNITED STATES, OFFERING TO PROVE THAT THE AID EXTENDED HAD PROMOTED ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

(ECA FUNDS FOR THE NETHERLANDS ARE NOT AFFECTED. SHE GOT ANOTHER $49,500,000 LAST MONTH. SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) ESTIMATED FEB. 20 THE DUTCH HAD RECEIVED ABOUT $1,000,000,000 (B) FROM THE ECA, THE WORLD BANK AND EXPORT-IMPORT BANK. BREWSTER SPONSORED LEGISLATION WHICH WOULD CUT OFF ECA FUNDS TO THE DUTCH UNLESS THEY CONFORM TO THE ORDERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN INDONESIA.)

TERRITORIES WHICH WERE UNDER REPUBLICAN CONTROL BEFORE THE DUTCH OCCUPIED THEM WILL REPRESENT A SERIOUS ECONOMIC LIABILITY FOR SOME TIME TO COME, THE GOVERNMENT'S REPORT SAID.

"ONLY WHEN THE RIGHT CLIMATE HAS BEEN ENGENDERED BY AN ALREADY FIRMLY ESTABLISHED ECONOMIC RECOVERY PROGRAM WILL FOREIGN PRIVATE INVESTORS BE PREPARED TO COME IN STRONGLY," IT ADDED.

"ON THE OTHER HAND, IT MUST BE BORNE IN MIND THAT, DESPITE THE SERIOUS SETBACKS, THE INTRINSIC POTENTIAL ECONOMIC STRENGTH OF INDONESIA STILL EXISTS AND, PROVIDED THE NECESSARY FOREIGN CAPITAL ASSISTANCE IS FORTHCOMING IN SUFFICIENT VOLUME AND WITHOUT DELAY, A SPEEDY AND FULL RECOVERY IS UNDOUBTEDLY ASSURED WITHIN RELATIVELY FEW YEARS, SO THAT INDONESIA CAN PLAY ITS NATURAL AND VITTALLY IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE ERP."

(THE ECONOMY OF INDONESIA, IN NORMAL TIMES A LARGE EXPORTER OF SUCH PRODUCTS AS TIN, RUBBER, COFFEE AND QUININE, WAS DISRUPTED BY THE WAR AND POSTWAR UNREST.)

PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARRESTED IN DECEMBER STILL ARE HELD ON THE ISLAND OF BANGKA. DUTCH OFFICIALS IN BATAVIA ANNOUNCED MARCH 3 THAT THE DUTCH HAD RECOGNIZED "A TEMPORARY REPRESENTATIVE BODY" (UNIDENTIFIED BY NAME OR MANNER OF SELECTION, FOR THE 7,500,000 PERSONS LIVING IN FORMER REPUBLICAN TERRITORY.

AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID PRESSURE FROM DUTCH FOREIGN MINISTER D.U. STIKKER, AS WELL AS FROM INDONESIAN NON-REPUBLICAN FEDERALIST STATES, LED TO THE DECISION TO COMPLY WITH THE DEMAND OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT BE RESTORED IN JOGJAKARTA.

HE SAID IT WAS EXPECTED THAT DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE J.H.VAN ROYEN WILL ANNOUNCE THE DECISION TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL AT LAKE SUCCESS TOMORROW.

REPLYING TO THE DUTCH ROUNDTABLE INVITATION, PRESIDENT SOEKARNO SAID THAT HE COULD TAKE AN OFFICIAL DECISION ONLY AFTER HE AND HIS CABINET WERE BACK IN JOGJAKARTA.

THE DUTCH ANNOUNCED FEB.28 A PLAN TO TRANSFER FULL SOVEREIGNTY TO INDONESIA BY MID-SUMMER. DISCUSSION OF THE ARRANGEMENTS WAS TO OPEN HERE MARCH 12. IT IS CLEAR NOW THAT THE OPENING WILL BE POSTPONED.

JJ302PES

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY IF ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION AID TO INDONESIA IS CUT OFF MUCH LONGER THE EFFECT WILL BE DISASTROUS.

A GOVERNMENT REPORT ON THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM SAID THAT ALTHOUGH A FULL SURVEY HAS NOT YET BEEN MADE IT IS CLEAR THE TERRITORIES WHICH WERE UNDER REPUBLICAN CONTROL BEFORE THE DUTCH MILITARY ACTION NOW REPRESENTS A SERIOUS ECONOMIC LIABILITY.

THE UNITED STATES SHUT OFF E C A AID TO THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES BECAUSE OF THE DUTCH "POLICE ACTION" AGAINST THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

THE REPORT SAID IT WOULD BE MISLEADING TO FIGURE ON A FLOW OF PRIVATE INVESTMENT CAPITAL TO INDONESIA IN ADEQUATE VOLUME TO HELP FINANCE THE INITIAL RECOVERY.

"ONLY WHEN THE RIGHT CLIMATE HAS BEEN ENGENDERED BY AN ALREADY FIRMLY ESTABLISHED ECONOMIC RECOVERY WILL FOREIGN INVESTORS BE PREPARED TO COME IN STRONGLY," THE STATEMENT ADDED.

"ON THE OTHER HAND," THE REPORT CONTINUED, "IT MUST BE BORNE IN MIND THAT DESPITE SERIOUS SETBACKS THE INTRINSIC POTENTIAL ECONOMIC STRENGTH OF INDONESIA STILL EXISTS, AND, PROVIDED THE NECESSARY FOREIGN CAPITAL ASSISTANCE IS FORTHCOMING IN SUFFICIENT VOLUME AND WITHOUT DELAY, A SPEEDY AND FULL RECOVERY IS UNDOUBTEDLY STILL ASSURED WITHIN RELATIVELY FEW YEARS, SO THAT INDONESIA CAN PLAY ITS NATURAL AND VITALLY IMPORTANT ROLE TO THE ERP."

EVEN IF ECA AID IS REINSTATED IN THE NEAR FUTURE, THE REPORT ADDED, THE PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES TAKEN FOR CUTTING DOWN THE VOLUME OF IMPORTS WILL BE A NOTICEABLE DRAWBACK ON THE PROCESS OF REHABILITATION.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 9-(AP)-J.H.VAN ROYEN, DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, DENIED TONIGHT REPORTS THAT HIS GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO RESTORE THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT TO POWER IN JOGJAKARTA.

"I HAVE TELEPHONED OUR FOREIGN MINISTER (D.U.STIKKER) AT THE HAGUE, AND HE ADVISED ME THAT THE REPORT IS NOT TRUE," VAN ROYEN SAID IN AN INTERVIEW. HE ADDED THAT HE WOULD ADDRESS THE SECURITY COUNCIL TOMORROW AND EXPLAIN, AMONG OTHER THINGS, "WHY WE THINK IT WOULD BE UNWISE AND EVEN IMPOSSIBLE" TO RESTORE THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT.

HIS ADDRESS ALSO IS EXPECTED TO GIVE A DETAILED EXPLANATION OF THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT'S PLAN FOR GRANTING INDEPENDENCE TO INDONESIA.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 10-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL DUTCH SPOKESMAN DECLARED FLATLY TODAY HIS COUNTRY FINDS IT "IMPOSSIBLE" TO COMPLY WITH UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL ORDERS TO RESTORE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO POWER.

MAR 9 1949

THE SPOKESMAN, J. H. VAN ROYEN, DUTCH U.N. REPRESENTATIVE, SAID HE WOULD STATE THIS VIEW IN AN ADDRESS TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL THIS AFTERNOON (5 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME.)

"WE BELIEVE," HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW, "THAT IF THE REPUBLICANS WENT BACK, THEY WOULD IMMEDIATELY AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO START SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY AND INTENSIFY THE GUERRILLA WARFARE."

HE SAID HIS COUNTRY WANTS TO MAKE ALL INDONESIA INDEPENDENT, BUT DOES NOT WANT "INDEPENDENCE TO MEANS THE UPSET AND TROUBLE

THAT IT HAS MEANT FOR BURMA." THAT ASIAN COUNTRY HAS BEEN PLAGUED BY ALMOST CONSTANT CIVIL WAR SINCE IT QUIT THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH A YEAR AGO.

VAN ROYAN INSISTED THERE WAS NO BASIS FOR REPORTS FROM THE HAGUE THAT THE DUTCH WERE ABOUT TO PERMIT EXILED REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO RETURN TO THEIR FORMER CAPITAL IN JOGJAKARTA, CENTRAL JAVA. HE SAID HE HAD TALKED LAST NIGHT TO DUTCH FOREIGN MINISTER D. U. STIKKER BY TRANS-ATLANTIC TELEPHONE AND CONFIRMED THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S STAND IS NOT CHANGED.

THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS WERE SEIZED BY THE DUTCH IN DECEMBER AFTER DUTCH TROOPS SEIZED THE AREAS OF JAVA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA WHICH HAD BEEN PROCLAIMED A SOVEREIGN REPUBLIC, INDEPENDENT OF DUTCH CROWN RULE. THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON JAN.28 ORDERED THE NETHERLANDS TO RESTORE THE LEADERS TO POWER, AND GRANT INDEPENDENCE TO ALL OF INDONESIA--INCLUDING AREAS OUTSIDE THE REPUBLIC--BY JULY 1, 1950.

THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT HAS COUNTERED WITH A PROPOSAL TO CREATE A SOVEREIGN UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1949, WITHOUT FIRST RESTORING THE REPUBLIC. HE SAID HE WOULD TELL THE COUNCIL TODAY THAT ITS PLAN IS NOT PRACTICABLE, WHILE THE NETHERLANDS'

MAR 9 1949

METHOD WOULD WORK.

"IT IS OUR VIEW," HE SAID, "THAT THE COUNCIL AND THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT HAVE EXACTLY THE SAME AIM--LIBERTY, ENTIRE FREEDOM AND SELF-GOVERNMENT FOR INDONESIA. WE DIFFER ONLY ON THE MEANS BY WHICH TO ARRIVE AT THIS OBJECTIVE."

"THE INTERESTS OF THE 75,000,000 (M) INHABITANTS OF THE ISLANDS, NOT THE PRESTIGE OF A SMALL MINORITY GROUP, MUST HAVE PRIORITY," HE CONTINUED. HE SAID RESTORATION OF REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND HIS CABINET WOULD GIVE THEM PRESTIGE IN THE EYES OF OTHER INDONESIANS WHICH THE DUTCH CONSIDER WOULD NOT BE DESIRABLE.

MEANWHILE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE REPUBLIC HERE SCOFFED AT A DUTCH ANNOUNCEMENT THAT SOEKARNO AND OTHER LEADERS HAVE BEEN RELEASED FROM INTERNMENT AND ARE FREE TO MOVE ABOUT IN INDONESIA. THEY RENEWED A REQUEST THAT THE DUTCH PERMIT REPUBLICAN EMISSARIES TO VISIT THE LEADERS ON THE ISLAND OF BANGKA IN JAVA, WHERE THEY WERE INTERNED.

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC'S DELEGATION HAS ASKED THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO OBTAIN SAFE CONDUCT FROM THE DUTCH FOR A REPUBLIC ENVOY TO CONTACT EXILED INDONESIAN LEADERS ON BANGKA ISLAND.

DISPATCHES FROM THE HAGUE DURING THE DAY SAID THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT WAS REPORTED READY TO LET THE EXILED REPUBLICAN LEADERS RETURN FROM BANGKA ISLAND TO THEIR OLD CAPITAL AT JOGJAKARTA, JAVA.

DR. H. J. FRIEDERICY, PRESS OFFICER HERE FOR THE NETHERLANDS DELEGATION, SAID THE REPORTS FROM THE HAGUE ARE NOT TRUE. HE SAID THE DELEGATION HAS CONTACTED THE HAGUE ON HEARING THESE REPORTS AND HAD BEEN TOLD THEY WERE NOT CORRECT. HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE DUTCH POSITION.

SOEDARPO SASTROSADOMO, DELEGATION PRESS OFFICER, CONFIRMED A REPORT HERE THAT THE DELEGATION WANTS TO SEND HIM TO BANGKA TO TALK WITH THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS THERE.

HE SAID THE REQUEST WAS MADE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL MONDAY BY HIS CHIEF, DR.L.N.PALAR. THE COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO DISCUSS IT TOMORROW.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE DUTCH DELEGATE HERE, DR. J. H. VAN ROYEN, PROBABLY WOULD BE ASKED TO OBTAIN PERMISSION OF HIS GOVERNMENT FOR THE PRESS OFFICER TO MAKE THE TRIP.

INDONESIAN OFFICIALS RECEIVED WITH CONSIDERABLE SKEPTICISM REPORTS FROM THE HAGUE THAT THE DUTCH CABINET HAS AGREED TO PERMIT THE RETURN OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO JOGJAKARTA.

THESE OFFICIALS SAID IT WOULD NOT BE ENOUGH JUST TO PERMIT THEIR RETURN. THEY SAID THE GOVERNMENT MUST BE ABLE TO FUNCTION AGAIN IN JOGJAKARTA AND THAT SOVEREIGNTY MUST BE TRANSFERRED.

THE UNITED STATES WAS REPORTED STANDING FIRM ON ITS DEMAND THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION MUST BE OBSERVED BY THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIANS.

THIS RESOLUTION CALLED FOR THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO CEASE FIGHTING AND TO TAKE STEPS LOOKING TOWARD CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

THE DUTCH SO FAR HAVE NOT GIVEN THEIR DECISION ON THE RESOLUTION BUT THEY HAVE CALLED A ROUNDTABLE CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA IN THE HAGUE MARCH 12.

~~...~~ JORDAN-XXX ORDER.

A JOINT MEETING OF ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN ARMISTICE DELEGATES WAS CALLED AT RHODES BY DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR.
AN ISRAELI SOURCE SAID THE SUBJECT WAS DEMARKATION LINES FROM BEIT NABALA, JUST EAST OF LYDDA, TO JERUSALEM, INCLUDING THE ARAB LEGION'S POCKET AT LATRUN, WHICH DOMINATES THE TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM HIGHWAY.
JJ348PES

FIRST LEAD AQABA
AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID TONIGHT THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION "STOPPED ISRAELI FORCES PROCEEDING" TOWARD THE RED SEA TOWN OF AQABA ABOUT 30 MILES FROM THE PORT.
NO DETAILS WERE GIVEN ABOUT RESULTS OF THE FIGHTING.

AQABA, THE LONE TRANS-JORDAN SEAPORT, HAD BEEN GARRISONED BY BRITISH FORCES SINCE LATE LAST YEAR. IT LIES CLOSE TO THE BORDER OF THE NEGEV DESERT OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE. REPORTS EARLIER IN THE DAY SAID FIGHTING STARTED IN THE AQABA REGION LAST NIGHT BETWEEN THE LEGION AND ISRAELI ARMORED FORCES AND CONTINUED THROUGHOUT TODAY.

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY IN ITS PRESS RELEASE GAVE ONLY SCANTY DETAILS. "A JEWISH FORCE HAS PROCEEDED TOWARD AQABA SINCE MARCH 7," IT SAID, "PART OF THE FORCE CROSSED THE MOUNTAINOUS AREA PARALLEL TO THE SENA DESERT AND WAS ABLE TO RECH RAS EL NAKAB. THE OTHER MAIN PART THE AQABA VALLEY ON ITS WAY TO THE GULF." CROSSED.

REPORTS REACHING AMMAN TODAY SAID JEWISH ARMORED FORCES WERE OBSERVED MOVING TOWARD AQABA FROM THEIR POSITIONS AT THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA. THIS IS THE SECOND TRIAL THE JEWS HAVE MADE TO REACH THE RED SEA SHORE SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF BRITISH TROOPS.

(A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN HAD REPORTS THAT ISRAELI TROOPS ARE MOVING TOWARD AQABA, WHICH LIES CLOSE TO THE FRONTIER BETWEEN TRANS-JORDAN AND THE NEGEV DESERT OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE. THE SPOKESMAN ATTRIBUTED HIS INFORMATION TO OFFICIAL TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES.
(TRANS-JORDAN AND ISRAEL CURRENTLY ARE CONDUCTING ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS AT RHODES UNDER UNITED NATIONS AUSPICES. AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV SAID EARLIER TODAY THE THREAT OF AN ISRAELI-BRITISH CLASH OVER THE AQABA COAST APPEARED TO HAVE BEEN AVERTED.)
ARAB LEGION HEADQUARTERS HAVE NOT YET RECEIVED DETAILED REPORTS OF FIGHTING.

THE MAIN GOAL OF THE JEWS WAS REPORTED TO BE THE AQABA COAST, WHERE TRANS-JORDAN HAS ITS SOLE OUTLET TO THE SEA. THEY WERE REPORTED MOVING IN TWO LINES. ONE COLUMN WAS REPORTING PROCEEDING FROM BEERSHEBA IN THE NEGEV TOWARD AQABA. THE OTHER AND MAIN ARMORED FORCE WAS GOING ACROSS THE AQABA VALLEY.
THERE WAS NO REPORT OF BRITISH TROOP MOVEMENTS.
WHEN THIS DISPATCH WAS FILED AT 6:15 P.M., NO JEWS HAD YET CROSSED THE TRANS-JORDAN BORDER.
JJ108PES

WITH AMMAN (170)
LONDON, MARCH 9-(AP)-A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY BRITAIN HAS REPORTS THAT ISRAELI TROOPS ARE MOVING TOWARDS THE BRITISH-GARRISONED RED SEA PORT OF AQABA.
THE SPOKESMAN DECLINED TO ANSWER WHEN ASKED HOW CLOSE THE FORCE WAS TO THE TRANS-JORDAN FRONTIER.
HE SAID THE BRITISH RECEIVED THEIR INFORMATION FROM "OFFICIAL TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES."
THE SPOKESMAN MADE THIS STATEMENT: "WE HAVE TODAY HAD A REPORT FROM OUR MINISTER IN AMMAN, ALEXANDER KIRKBRIDE, SAYING HE HAS RECEIVED INFORMATION FROM OFFICIAL TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES THAT A JEWISH FORCE IN THE EASTERN NEGEV IS MOVING TOWARDS AQABA."
HE DECLINED TO SAY WHEN ASKED HOW STRONG THE REPORTED ISRAELI FORCE IS, EXACTLY HOW IT WAS OBSERVED BY TRANS-JORDAN, OR WHETHER IN BRITAIN'S OPINION SUCH A MOVEMENT WOULD VIOLATE THE UNITED NATIONS CEASE-FIRE ORDER.
THE EASTERN NEGEV FORMS PART OF THE TERRITORY ALLOTED TO ISRAEL UNDER THE NOVEMBER, 1947, PARTITION PLAN APPROVED BY THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. THE JEWS HAVE ALWAYS CLAIMED IT FORMS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THEIR STATE. THE JEWS HAVE ALSO CONSISTENTLY CLAIMED THE RIGHT TO MOVE THEIR OWN TROOPS FREELY IN THEIR OWN TERRITORY.

BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID THEY HAD REPORTS OF CLASHES IN THE NEGEV WHICH THEY REGARDED AS "VERY DANGEROUS." THEY SAID BRITISH TROOPS GARRISONED AT AQABA HAVE NOT BEEN INVOLVED.

BRITISH SPOKESMEN HAVE TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS MORE THAN ONCE THAT BRITAIN WOULD FEEL BOUND BY HER ALLIANCE WITH TRANS-JORDAN TO GO TO THAT ARAB COUNTRY'S AID IF ITS TERRITORY WAS ATTACKED. ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVES HAVE STATED THEIR COUNTRY HAS NOT INTENTION OF ATTACKING TRANS-JORDAN TERRITORY.

THERE ARE SEVERAL BRITISH OFFICERS AND NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS IN KING ABDULLAH'S ARAB LEGION. A BRITON, BRIGADIER JOHN GLUBB PASHA, COMMANDS THE LEGION.

AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN WOULD NOT DISCLOSE DETAILS BUT SAID HIS COUNTRY RAISED THE PROBLEM OF THE MAIN JERUSALEM-TEL AVIV HIGHWAY WHICH IS BLOCKED BY TRANS-JORDAN UNITS AT LATRUN. ISRAEL ALSO POSED THE QUESTION OF NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN LINES IN JERUSALEM.

A U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID CORDIALITY MARKED THE MEETING AND THE ISRAELI DELEGATE CONCURRED.

(IN HAIFA U.N. CHIEF OF STAFF BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM E.RILEY MET THE ISRAELI DELEGATION FOR THE ISRAEL-LEBANON ARMISTICE TALKS. THE ISRAELIS AND LEBANESE WILL MEET FOR THE FOURTH TIME THURSDAY WITH RILEY IN ATTENDANCE.)

U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE CALLED THE MEETING THE FIRST JOINT WORKING SESSION OF THE NEGOTIATIONS. FOUR MEN REPRESENTED ISRAEL; FIVE TRANS-JORDAN. THEY SHOOK HANDS HEARTILY WHEN THEY ENTERED THE MEETING ROOM. COOLNESS HAD MARKED THE FORMAL OPENING MEETING OF THE TWO DELEGATIONS LAST WEEK.

THE U.N.SPOKESMAN SAID THE DISCUSSION CENTERED AROUND 11 POINTS COVERING VARIOUS PARTS OF THE LINES, INCLUDING JERUSALEM.

ONE POINT ON THE AGENDA, SIGNING OF A FORMAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT, IS BEING HELD UP UNTIL IRAQ TELLS BUNCHE WHETHER TRANS-JORDAN IS AUTHORIZED TO SPEAK FOR IRAQ IN THE TALKS.

(IRAQI PREMIER NURI PASHA AL SAID DECLARED IN BAGHDAD MONDAY TRANS-JORDAN'S DELEGATION WAS NOT AUTHORIZED TO NEGOTIATE FOR IRAQ AT RHODES. ISRAEL HAD OBJECTED TO A PROPOSAL THAT TRANS-JORDAN REPRESENT IRAQ IN SOME PHASES OF THE TALKS, SAYING CREDENTIALS WOULD BE NECESSARY TO INSURE THAT IRAQI ARMED FORCES WOULD BE BOUND BY THE DECISIONS REACHED.)

RHODES, MARCH 9-(AP)-ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN ARMISTICE DELEGATES ARE TO MEET INFORMALLY TODAY WITH PALESTINE MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE. INFORMANTS SAID THIS WILL BE THE REAL START OF NEGOTIATIONS.

BUNCHE HAS NOT BEEN INFORMED YET BY IRAQ WHETHER TRANS-JORDAN IS AUTHORIZED TO SPEAK FOR THAT NATION. AS A RESULT POINT FOUR ON THE AGENDA--SIGNING OF A FORMAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT--WILL BE HELD OVER UNTIL THE IRAQI REPLY IS RECEIVED.

MOSCOW, MARCH 9-(AP)-TWO MORE HIGH LEVEL SOVIET LEADERS WERE PROMOTED TODAY.

THE LATEST SHIFTS IN THE CABINET OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN SAW A.I.EFREMOV (CORRECT) RELIEVED AS MINISTER OF THE MACHINE TOOL INDUSTRY AND UPPED TO VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, THE SOVIET CABINET.

A.I.KOSTOUSOV SUCCEEDED TO EFREMOV'S MINISTRY.

THE MOVES CAME ONLY A FEW DAYS AFTER V.M.MOLOTOV, STALIN'S CLOSEST ASSOCIATE, WAS RELIEVED OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY AND REPLACED BY FORMER DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY.

MOLOTOV, WHO IS 59 YEARS OLD TODAY, RETAINS THE POSTS OF FIRST VICE CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS AND MEMBER OF THE POLICY-MAKING POLITBURO OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

VISHINSKY'S SPOT AS FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER WAS TAKEN OVER BY ANDREI A.GROMYKO, FORMER CHIEF SOVIET DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

AT THE SAME TIME, MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE A.I.MIKOYAN WAS RELIEVED OF HIS DUTIES AND REPLACED BY M.A.MENSHIKOV.

THE NEWS OF EFREMOV'S PROMOTION WAS HANDLED BY THE RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS IN THE SAME WAY AS THE ANNOUNCEMENTS AFFECTING MOLOTOV AND VISHINSKY. IT APPEARED UNDER THE HEADING OF "PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS" ON THE BACK PAGES OF MORNING NEWSPAPERS.

THERE HAS BEEN NO COMMENT IN THE SOVIET PRESS ON ANY OF THE CABINET SHIFTS.

EFREMOV BECOMES THE 13TH DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

OTHER DEPUTIES, IN ADDITION TO MOLOTOV, ARE: L.P.BERIA, L.M.KAHANOVICH, MARSHAL KLEMENTI Y.VOROSHILOV, MIKOYAN, MARSHAL N.A.BULGANIN, ANDREI ANDREYEV, N.A.VOZNESENSKY, A.N.KOSYGIN, A.D.KRUTIKOV, V.A.MALISHEV, AND M.Z.SABUROV.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS HAVE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT THE SHIFTS OF SOVIET OFFICIALS, TOTALING SEVEN WITH THOSE PROMOTED TODAY, WERE DESIGNED TO STRENGTHEN RUSSIAN LEADERSHIP.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS IN MOSCOW HAVE SAID THEY VIEWED THE CHANGES AS A MOVE TO GIVE THE DEPUTY PRIME MINISTERS SOME OF THE DUTIES OF STALIN, NOW ALMOST 70 YEARS OLD, AND REPORTED IN ILL HEALTH.

SHANGHAI,THURSDAY,MARCH 10-(AP)-GUN-WIELDING CHINESE COMMUNIST AIR PIRATES TOOK OVER A CHINESE AIRLINER AND FORCED IT TO LAND IN RED TERRITORY JANUARY 30, THE AMERICAN PILOT SAID TODAY ON HIS RETURN HERE.

RED SOLDIERS KEPT HIM AND TWO CHINESE CREWMEN UNDER CLOSE GUARD FOR 33 DAYS.

PILOT DONALD K.HASSIG OF INGLEWOOD,CALIF., SAID SIX ARMED COMMUNIST AGENTS COMMANDEERED THE CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORPORATION PLANE 10 MINUTES OUT OF SHANGHAI ON A FLIGHT TO TSINGTAO. THE PLANE WAS DIVERTED TO COMMUNIST-HELD TSINAN, CAPITAL OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE.

HASSIG SAID HE AND HIS TWO CHINESE CREWMEN, CO-PILOT C.L. HSU AND RADIOMAN T.Y. WAUNG, WERE HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS IN A TSINAN HOSTEL UNTIL MARCH 4. THEN THEY WERE TAKEN TO THE OUTSKIRTS OF TSINGTAO, GIVEN BACK THEIR PERSONAL EFFECTS AND TURNED OVER TO TO NATIONALIST TROOPS. ALL THREE ARRIVED IN SHANGHAI TODAY.

(THE DISPATCH SAID NOTHING ABOUT WHAT HAPPENED TO PASSENGERS ABOARD THE PLANE. A DISPATCH REPORTING THE PLANE HAD BEEN SIGHTED JANUARY 31 AT TSINAN SAID THE PLANE CARRIED 14 CHINESE PASSENGERS AND TWO FOREIGNERS--JOSEPH KAUSHOLD AND W. HAEYLOOP WHO WERE NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED. HASSIG'S REPORT THAT SIX OF THOSE ABOARD WERE RED AGENTS LEAVES 10 REGULAR PASSENGERS.)

HASSIG SAID THE COMMUNISTS HELD UP HSU AND WAUNG AS THEY WERE DISTRIBUTING LUNCHES TO THE PASSENGERS. HE SAID THE AGENTS BOARDED THE PLANE POSING AS BUSINESSMEN AND PETTY OFFICIALS.

HOLDING THE CO-PILOT AND RADIOMAN AT GUNPOINT, THE REDS BROKE INTO THE PILOT'S COMPARTMENT, HASSIG CONTINUED.

THE AMERICAN SAID ONE OF THE COMMUNISTS FORCED HIM FROM THE CONTROLS AND TOOK OVER. THE RED PILOT CHANGED THE COURSE TO TSINAN, ABOUT 200 MILES WEST OF THE TSINGTAO DESTINATION.

WHEN THE PLANE REACHED TSINAN, HASSIG SAID, THE COMMUNIST WAS UNABLE TO MAKE THE LANDING AND ORDERED CO-PILOT HSU TO SET THE PLANE DOWN.

HASSIG SAID COMMUNIST OFFICIALS AND RED SOLDIERS TOOK THE PLANE IN CUSTODY IMMEDIATELY. THE CREW WAS PLACED UNDER HOUSE ARREST AT THE HOSTEL. HE SAID THEY WERE GUARDED CLOSELY ALL THE TIME.

SOME MONTHS AGO, HALL FORMED A BLOC WITHIN THE CONGRESS WITH THE DECLARED PURPOSE OF SWEEPING OUT COMMUNISTS. HE PUT HIS AFL-AFFILIATED RAIL BROTHERHOODS AT THE FOREFRONT OF THE MOVEMENT.

"THE COURSE OF THE CONGRESS OFFICERS SEEMS TO BE ONE OF 'RULE OR RUIN," HALL SAID. "THEY APPARENTLY INTEND TO RETAIN THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED AFFILIATES EVEN THOUGH THIS WOULD MEAN THE WITHDRAWAL OF MANY OF THE LARGE UNIONS."

HALL'S BLOC OF 32 UNIONS GREW TO 34 WHEN TWO MORE AFL AFFILIATES JOINED UP. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE INTERNATIONAL MOULDERS AND FOUNDRY WORKERS' UNION AND THE INTERNATIONAL LONGSHOREMEN'S UNION SAID THEY WERE BECOMING PART OF THE ASSOCIATION.

THE WEEKLY SAID RENEWED DEMAND ON STEEL MILLS THIS WEEK WAS ATTRIBUTED TO THESE FACTS: (1) THE GRAY MARKET IS GONE AND ITS CUSTOMERS ARE SEEKING STILL FROM REGULAR SOURCES; (2) CONVERSION DEALS ARE GOING OUT THE WIDOW, AND (3) "THE INDUSTRY HAS GIVEN SUCH GOOD SERVICE ON SHIPMENTS RECENTLY THAT USERS SMELL BLOOD AND ARE PUSHING FOR DELIVERIES." NEW YORK-IRON AGE-AFX 10TA.

AIDING THE RUSH TOWARDS AN OVERALL BALANCE IN SUPPLY AND DEMAND, SAID THE IRON AGE, IS AN ALL-TIME RECORD HIGH OUTPUT, WITH THE INDUSTRY OPERATING THIS WEEK AT 102 PER CENT OF RATED CAPACITY.

NEW DECLINES IN STEEL SCRAP PRICES THIS WEEK "ARE PROBABLY DISCOUNTING THE RETURN TO A NORMAL STEEL MARKET," THE WEEKLY SAID.

THE IRON AGE STEEL SCRAP COMPOSITE PRICE WAS PLACED AT $36.25 A GROSS TON, ITS LOWEST SINCE MARCH 4, 1947, REFLECTING A DROP OF $2 FOR NO.1 HEAVY MELTING STEEL SCRAP AT PITTSBURGH AND OF $1 FOR THE SAME GRADE AT PHILADELPHIA.

NEW YORK, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE NAME OF A NEGRO WOMAN WAS THE FIRST TO BE DRAWN FROM THE JURY WHEEL TODAY AS FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R. MEDINA BEGAN EXAMINING PERSONS TO HEAR THE CASE AGAINST 11 HIGH U.S. COMMUNISTS.

MEDINA FOR THE FIRST TIME QUESTIONED PROSPECTIVE JURORS WILLING TO SERVE IN THE CONSPIRACY TRIAL WHICH IS EXPECTED TO LAST AT LEAST TWO MONTHS. SEVENTY-EIGHT PANEL MEMBERS WERE ON HAND.

THE PROCESS OF JURY SELECTION BEGAN MONDAY. IN THE FIRST TWO DAYS, THE JUDGE EXCUSED 86 PERSONS WHO CONTENDED THAT LONG SERVICE ON THE JURY WOULD BE AN EXTREME HARDSHIP.

THERE WERE FOUR WOMEN, INCLUDING MRS.THELMA DIAL, A NEGRO, AND EIGHT MEN IN THE FIST GROUP TO ENTER THE JURY BOX AFTER THEIR NAMES WERE DRAWN FROM THE JURY WHEEL.

THESE 12 MAY NOT COMPRISE THE ACTUAL JURY. THE JUDGE CAN DISMISS ANY ONE OF THEM FOR CAUSE AND BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND DEFENSE HAVE A NUMBER OF CHALLENGES.

THE FIRST SEVEN WEEKS OF THE TRIAL WERE CONSUMED IN A DEFENSE ATTACK ON THE FAIRNESS OF THE FEDERAL JURY SYSTEM HERE WHICH WAS REJECTED LAST FRIDAY BY MEDINA. AMONG THE DEFENSE ALLEGATIONS WAS A CHARGE THAT NEGROES ARE LARGELY KEPT OFF JURIES IN THIS DISTRICT.

ONE QUESTION ASKED BY THE JUDGE WAS WHETHER ANY OF THE 12 PERONS KNEW PERSONS WHOSE NAMES WERE SUBMITTED BY THE PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE.

THE GOVERNMENT LIST INCLUDED EARL BROWDER, DEPOSED HEAD OF THE AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTY; WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, CONFESSED FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER; GERHARDT EISLER, ACCUSED BY A HOUSE COMMITTEE OF BEING "AMERICA'S NO. 1 COMMUNIST;" HOWARD FAST, NOVELIST; ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY NATIONAL COMMITTEE; SIMON W.GERSON, COMMUNIST PARTY PUBLICITY MAN; ALGER HISS, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGES; VITO MARCANTONIO, AMERICAN LABOR PARTY CONGRESSMAN; THE REV.WILLIAM HOWARD MELISH, CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL OF AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP; AND PAUL ROBESON, SINGER.

THE DEFENSE LIST INCLUDED LOUIS F.BUDENZ, FORMER COMMUNIST WHO NOW TEACHES ECONOMICS AT FORDHAM UNIVERSITY; EUGENE LYONS AND MAX EASTMAN, WRITERS; MICHAEL QUILL, HEAD OF THE CIO TRANSPORT WORKERS UNION; JOSEPH CURRAN, HEAD OF THE CIO NATIONAL MARITIME UNION; AND HARRY GIDEONSE, PRESIDENT OF BROOKLYN COLLEGE.

THEIR BODIES CAME FROM FORTY TEMPORARY BURIAL GROUNDS IN EUROPE. AN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THAT 351 BODIES WERE GI'S WHO WERE BORN IN CALIFORNIA. HE SAID THAT MOST OF THEM WERE KILLED IN NORMANDY AND BELGIUM.

NEW YORK, MARCH 9-(AP)-THE LENGTHY TASK OF PICKING A JURY FOR THE CONSPIRACY TRIAL OF ELEVEN TOP COMMUNIST LEADERS CONTINUES TODAY, WITH 86 PERSONS ALREADY EXCUSED ON GROUNDS THAT SERVING WOULD CAUSE BUSINESS OR FAMILY HARDSHIP.

WHEN COURT ADJOURNED YESTERDAY, FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R. MEDINA STILL HAD FOUR SCORE PROSPECTIVE JURORS TO BEGIN EXAMINING TODAY TO WEED OUT THOSE WHO ARE BIASED OR OTHERWISE INELIGIBLE.

NOT A JUROR HAS BEEN PICKED, ALTHOUGH THE SELECTION PROCESSS STARTED MONDAY AFTER A SEVEN-WEEK DELAY CAUSED BY AN UNSUCCESSFUL DEFENSE ATTACK ON THE JURY SYSTEM HERE.

JUDGE MEDINA HAS ESTIMATED IT MAY TAKE A WEEK OR MORE TO PICK A JURY FOR TRIAL OF THE COMMUNISTS ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO ADVOCATE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT.

HE SAID THE JURY WILL NOT BE LOCKED UP DURING THE TRIAL, WHICH MAY TAKE AS LONG AS TWO MONTHS OR MORE, UNLESS SOMETHING UNFORESEEN HAPPENS.

THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS EXAMINED YESTERDAY WERE THOSE WHO SOUGHT TO BE EXCUSED. THOSE WILLING TO SERVE WERE LEFT FOR QUESTIONING STARTING TODAY.

ONE OF THOSE QUESTIONED YESTERDAY, JOSEPH YOUNG, AN INSURANCE MAN, SAID HE WISHED TO BE EXCUSED BECAUSE OF HIS "ABSOLUTE CONTEMPT" FOR THE DEFENDANTS. HE ALSO SAID THE EXPECTED LENGTH OF THE TRIAL WOULD WORK A HARDSHIP ON HIM.

JUDGE MEDINA, WAVING YOUNG ASIDE, WARNED OTHER POTENTIAL JURORS AGAINST "SUCH STATEMENTS, WHICH I CONSIDER OUTBURSTS."

"IT IS NOT FAIR TO THE DEFENDANTS, AND IT IS NOT FAIR TO THE GOVERNMENT," THE JUDGE SAID.

"WE HAVE OUR AMERICAN TRADITIONS TO MAINTAIN HERE, AND GETTING A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL JURY IS VERY IMPORTANT TO THE PROPER ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. SO JUST PUT THAT STATEMENT FROM YOUR MIND AND FORGET IT. KEEP YOUR MIND OPEN UNTIL ALL THE EVIDENCE IS IN AND THE JUDGE HAS INSTRUCTED THE JURY."

AXIS SALLY-PREVIOUS TRIALS

BY JACK ADAMS

WASHINGTON,MARCH 9-(AP)-MILDRED ELIZABETH GILLARS WAS ONE OF 17 AMERICANS WHO HAVE FACED TREASON CHARGES AS A RESULT OF WORLD WAR II.

TWELVE PERSONS, BESIDES MISS GILLARS, WERE TRIED. FIVE OF THESE WERE CONVICTED OF TREASON; THREE MORE WERE FIRST CONVICTED, THEN FREED ON RETRIAL; FOUR OTHERS WERE FOUND GUILTY OF LESSER CRIMES.

ONE MAN FORESTALLED TRIAL BY CONFESSING, AND THREE MORE PERSONS ARE AWAITING TRIAL.

ALTHOUGH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS NEVER EXECUTED A CIVILIAN FOR TREASON, THERE IS ONE OUTSTANDING DEATH SENTENCE AT THIS TIME, WHICH IS BEING APPEALED. THIS INVOLVES TOMOYA KAWAKITA OF LOS ANGELES, CALIF., CONVICTED THERE LAST OCTOBER OF ABUSING CAPTURED AMERICAN MILITARY PERSONNEL WHILE OPERATING A WARTIME FACTORY IN JAPAN.

THE OTHER TRIALS INVOLVED:

MAX STEPHAN, CONVICTED IN MICHIGAN AUG. 6, 1942 OF AIDING LIEUT. HANS KRUG, AN ESCAPED NAZI OFFICER. SENTENCED TO DEATH, HE HAD HIS PENALTY COMMUTED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WHO EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT NO SUCCESSOR WOULD EXTEND FURTHER CLEMENCY.

HANS MAX HAUPT, EMMA HAUPT, WALTER FROEHLING, LUCILLE FROEHLING, OTTO WERGIN AND KATE WERGIN, CONVICTED AT CHICAGO NOVEMBER 24, 1942 ON CHARGES OF AIDING THE HAUPT'S SON, HERBERT HAUPT, GERMAN SABOTEUR. DEATH SENTENCES WERE IMPOSED ON THE THREE MEN; THEIR WIVES WERE SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS IMPRISONMENT AND FINED $10,000 EACH. ALL OF THESE CONVICTIONS WERE REVERSED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

HANS MAX HAUPT WAS THEN REINDICTED FOR TREASON, TRIED AND SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT AND $10,000 FINE. WALTER FROEHLING AND OTTO WERGIN PLEADED GUILTY TO A CHARGE OF MISPRISION OF TREASON--THAT IS, CONCEALMENT OF TREASON. EACH WAS SENTENCED TO A FIVE YEAR TERM. THE WIVES OF THREE MEN WENT FREE ON THE SUPREME COURT FINDINGS ON THE ORIGINAL TRIAL.

ANTHONY CRAMER, CONVICTED IN NEW YORK CITY DEC. 2, 1942, AND SENTENCED TO 45 YEARS AND $10,000 FINE FOR AIDING WERNER THIEL, GERMAN SABOTEUR. THE SUPREME COURT ALSO REVERSED THIS CONVICTION AND SENTENCE. CRAMER LATER PLEADED GUILTY TO VIOLATING THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT BY ACCEPTING MONEY FROM THE SABOTEUR AND WAS SENTENCED TO SIX YEARS.

HELMUT LEINER, TRIED AT NEW YORK LATE IN 1942 ON A CHARGE OF ASSISTING EDWARD KERLING, GERMAN SABOTEUR, AND GIVEN A DIRECTED VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL. HE WAS THEN REINDICTED, TRIED AND CONVICTED OF VIOLATING THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT, AND ON JUNE 25, 1943, SENTENCED TO 18 YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

DOUGLAS CHANDLER, CONVICTED AT BOSTON JUNE 30, 1947, FOR NAZI BROADCASTING AND SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT AND $10,000 FINE.

ROBERT HENRY BEST, CONVICTED AT BOSTON APRIL 16, 1948, FOR NAZI BROADCASTING AND SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT AND $10,000 FINE. HE IS APPEALING.

FORMER AIR FORCE LIEUT.MARTIN JAMES MONTI OF ST.LOUIS, MO., WAS CALLED TO TRIAL FOR TREASON IN NEW YORK CITY LAST JANUARY. HE WAS CHARGED WITH STEALING AN ARMY PLANE AND FLYING IT ACROSS THE BATTLE LINES TO JOIN THE NAZI SS CORPS AND BECOME A GERMAN PROPAGANDA BROADCASTER. HOWEVER, THE TRIAL WAS CANCELLED WHEN MONTI MADE A CONFESSION IN OPEN COURT. HE WAS SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS AND $10,000 FINE.

THESE TREASON CASES ARE PENDING:

EZRA POUND, THE WELL-KNOWN POET, INDICTED DURING THE WAR FOR ALLEGED BROADCASTING OVER THE ROME RADIO. HE HAS BEEN IN A MENTAL HOSPITAL HERE THE LAST TWO YEARS. A SPECIAL FEDERAL COURT JURY FOUND THAT HE WAS INCOMPETENT TO FACE TRIAL.

IVA TOGURI D'AQUINO, INDICTED AT SAN FRANCISCO LAST OCTOBER FOR ALLEGEDLY TAKING PART IN THE "TOKYO ROSE" BROADCASTS FROM THE JAPANESE CAPITAL DURING THE WAR.

ACHESON LED UP TO THE SUMMARY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS BY LISTING HALF A DOZEN DEVELOPMENTS MAKING CLEAR THAT HE CONSIDERS THE PACT IS THE LOGICAL OUTGROWTH OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY SINCE THE SPLIT WITH RUSSIA WIDENED SO GREATLY IN THE LAST TWO YEARS.

IN EARLY 1947, HE SAID, IT HAD BECOME CLEAR THAT EFFORTS TO ACHIEVE ECONOMIC STABILITY AND WORK OUT THE PROBLEMS OF PEACE WERE RUNNING INTO DIFFICULTY ON A UNIVERSAL SCALE. THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS SATELLITES, HE SAID, WERE NOT PREPARED TO ENTER INTO THIS EFFORT, AND IN FACT THEY INTENDED TO OBSTRUCT IT.

HE RECALLED THAT THE BIG FOUR COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING IN MOSCOW IN FEBRUARY-MARCH OF 1947 WAS NOT A SUCCESS. HE SAID THE LONDON SESSION AT THE END OF THAT YEAR WAS A DISTINCT FAILURE.

FACED WITH SUCH FACTS, ACHESON SAID, THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND OTHER WESTERN NATIONS BEGAN TO DO THE BEST THEY COULD WITH THE OPPORTUNITIES THEY HAD--THE IDEAL THING NO LONGER BEING POSSIBLE.

HE THEN ADDED UP SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS OF THIS NEW EFFORT OF THE WEST TO DEAL WITH THE DIFFICULTIES OF A SPLIT WORLD, BEGINNING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "TRUMAN DOCTRINE" DECLARATION IN MARCH 1947, WHICH RESULTED IN AID TO GREECE AND TURKEY.

ACHESON MENTIONED ALSO THE MARSHALL PLAN, THE INTER-AMERICAN REGIONAL DEFENSE SYSTEM, AND THE BRUSSELLS PACT, SIGNED IN THE SPRING OF 1948 ?6 ?485-8,, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLAN

REGIONAL DEFENSE SYSTEM, AND THE BRUSSELLS PACT, SIGNED IN THE SPRING OF 1948 BY BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, AND LUXEMBOURG.

ACHESON DECLINED TO NAME THE NATIONS WHICH HE EXPECTS WILL SIGN THE ATLANTIC PACT. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT DECISIONS HAVE BEEN MADE ON THE COUNTRIES TO INVITE AND THAT THE RESULTS OF INQUIRY AS TO WHETHER THESE COUNTRIES WISH TO JOIN THE PACT OR NOT SHOULD BECOME KNOWN SHORTLY.

COUNTRIES NOW INVOLVED IN THE DRAFTING OF THE TREATY ARE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, CANADA, FRANCE, NORWAY, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

THE COUNTRIES WHICH MAY BE BROUGHT IN ADDITIONALLY ARE BELIEVED TO BE DENMARK, ITALY, PORTUGAL AND ICELAND.

WASHINGTON, MARCH 9-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY THAT VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV DOES NOT HAVE IMMUNITY FROM AMERICAN PROSECUTION AS A RUSSIAN SPY SUSPECT.

THE RUSSIAN IS AN EMPLOYE OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

ACHESON STATED THE U.S. OFFICIAL POSITION AT A NEWS CONFERENCE SHORTLY BEFORE A MEETING WITH SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S. PANYUSHKIN. ACHESON SAID HE ASSUMED THE ENVOY WAS COMING IN TO DEMAND AGAIN THE RELEASE OF GUBITCHEV.

HIS ASSUMPTION PROVED CORRECT. ON EMERGING FROM A 15 MINUTE CONFERENCE WITH THE SECRETARY, PANYUSHKIN TOLD REPORTERS:

"DURING THE CONVERSATION WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE, I INSISTED ON THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF MR.GUBITCHEV. BY THE ARREST OF MR. GUBITCHEV, THE DIPLOMAT WHO ENTERED THE UNITED STATES UNDER DIPLOMATIC VISA, HAD HIS DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY VIOLATED."

HE SAID ACHESON TOLD HIM THE AMERICAN ANSWER WOULD BE GIVEN IN THE "NEAR FUTURE."

PANYUSHKIN MADE ONE SUCH DEMAND SHORTLY AFTER GUBITCHEV WAS ARRESTED FRIDAY IN NEW YORK WITH JUDITH COPLON, 27, JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE. THE FBI SAID MISS COPLON HAD SECRET INFORMATION IN HER POSSESSION AND CONTENDED THAT THE MATERIAL WAS INTENDED FOR THE RUSSIAN.

ACHESON SAID IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS HE WAS NOT PREPARED TO GIVE PANYUSHKIN ANY FINAL DECISION TODAY, BUT HOPED TO DO SO SOON.

THEN AFTER STATING HE WAS NOT FORECASTING THE ANSWER TO THE RUSSIAN DEMAND FOR RELEASE OF GUBITCHEV, THE SECRETARY SAID THESE ARE FACTS WHICH BEAR ON THE ISSUE:

1. UNDER THE EXISTING HEADQUARTERS AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE U.S. AND THE U.N., A UNITED NATIONS EMPLOYE AFTER AN APPROPRIATE HEARING MAY BE DEPORTED IF HE ABUSES THE PRIVILEGES OF HIS RESIDENCE IN THIS COUNTRY.

2. IF THIS GOVERNMENT SEES FIT IT CAN BRING A U.N. EMPLOYE TO TRIAL FOR VIOLATION OF AMERICAN LAWS.

3. A U.N. STAFF MEMBER DOES NOT HAVE GENERAL DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY, BUT IMMUNITY ONLY FOR ACTS CARRIED OUT IN HIS OFFICIAL CAPACITY.

ACHESON NOTED THAT ONLY SUCH LIMITED IMMUNITY IS PROVIDED IN A PROPOSED FORMAL AGREEMENT WITH THE U.N. WHICH IS NOW AWAITING CONSIDERATION BY CONGRESS.

ATLANTIC PACT

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 10-(AP)-DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN TRAVELED HERE TODAY FOR FIRST HAND INFORMATION ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY. THE ANSWERS HE GETS WILL HELP HIS GOVERNMENT DECIDE WHETHER TO SIGN UP.

HE IS EXPECTED TO CONFER WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND OTHER AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN THE COURSE OF A BRIEF VISIT. AFTER THIS DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES BELIEVE, DENMARK WILL FORMALLY ALIGN ITSELF WITH THE ATLANTIC PACT POWERS.

(EDITORS: RASMUSSEN'S ARRIVAL TIME IN WASHINGTON IS INDEFINITE, PROBABLY IN THE AFTERNOON.)

DANISH MEMBERSHIP IN THE ALLIANCE IS CONSIDERED HIGHLY IMPORTANT. THIS IS SO NOT ONLY BECAUSE OF DENMARK'S LOCATION IN WESTERN EUROPE, BUT ALSO BECAUSE THAT COUNTRY HOLDS THE ISLAND OF GREENLAND WITH ITS STRATEGIC BASES GUARDING NORTH ATLANTIC SEA AND AIR ROUTES.

THE STATUS OF THESE BASES UNDER THE PROJECTED ATLANTIC TREATY MAY BE ONE OF THE MATTERS WHICH BRINGS RASMUSSEN HERE.

THE UNITED STATES STILL HAS IN GREENLAND AIR STATIONS ESTABLISHED DURING THE LAST WAR. NEGOTIATIONS REGARDING THEIR FINAL DISPOSITION HAVE BEEN GOING ON WITH THE DANISH GOVERNMENT FOR ALMOST TWO YEARS.

THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN ANXIOUS TO RETAIN THE BASES WHICH MILITARY STRATEGISTS CONSIDER ESSENTIAL TO THE DEFENSE OF THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE. UNDER THE NEW STRATEGY OF JOINT NORTH AMERICAN-WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSE THE BASES GAIN ADDITIONAL IMPORTANCE BECAUSE OF THE NEED TO KEEP OPEN OCEANIC TRANSPORTATION ROUTES BETWEEN THE TWO CONTINENTS.

THIS IS TRUE OF SEVERAL OTHER ISLAND POSITIONS ALSO. THE REPUBLIC OF ICELAND AND THE AZORES, WHICH BELONG TO PORTUGAL, HAVE SIMILAR STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE.

AUTHORITIES HERE HOPE THAT ICELAND AND PORTUGAL ALSO WILL BECOME MEMBERS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY SYSTEM.

EIGHT NATIONS ARE NOW INVOLVED IN THE NEGOTIATIONS ON THE TREATY. THEY ARE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, CANADA AND NORWAY. IF DENMARK, ICELAND AND PORTUGAL AND ITALY DECIDE TO JOIN THE TOTAL NUMBER WILL BE 12.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID RASMUSSEN WILL BE GIVEN FULL INFORMATION ABOUT THE TREATY, WHICH IS NOW COMPLETELY DRAFTED, BUT THAT NO PRESSURE WILL BE PUT ON.

RASMUSSEN HAS ALREADY DECLARED HIS GOVERNMENT'S FAVORABLE ATTITUDE TOWARD THE ALLIANCE. HE SAID IN COPENHAGEN MONDAY: "THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT WE NOW MUST LOOK TOWARD COOPERATION WITH THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES AND THE ATLANTIC PACT OF PEACE AND DEFENSE."

ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT THE TREATY WILL MAKE CLEAR THE DETERMINATION OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE OTHER MEMBER NATIONS TO EXERCISE THEIR INHERENT RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE SELF DEFENSE AGAINST AGGRESSION FROM ANY QUARTER.

HE SAID THE TEXT WILL BE MADE PUBLIC IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE (OTHER INFORMANTS EXPECT IT WILL BE EARLY NEXT WEEK) AND PROBABLY WILL BE SIGNED THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL.

THE BEST GUESS AT THE MOMENT IS THAT THE SIGNING CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN WASHINGTON, PROBABLY WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF ALL THE MEMBER COUNTRIES ATTENDING.

MAR9 1949

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MARCH 9-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON PICTURED THE STILL SECRET ATLANTIC PACT TODAY AS CARRYING A STRONG WARNING TO ANY AGGRESSOR THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD STRIKE BACK IN EVENT OF AN ATTACK ON WESTERN EUROPE.

NO AGGRESSOR IS ENTITLED TO MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE THREE TIMES, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.

THAT IS A PHRASE HE BORROWED FROM CONGRESSIONAL ADVOCATES OF THE TREATY PROJECT WHO ARGUED THAT THE ERRORS OF JUDGMENT WHICH GERMANY TWICE MADE ABOUT AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD EUROPE SHOULD NEVER BE REPEATED BY IT OR ANY OTHER NATION.

THE TREATY IS NOW IN ITS FINAL STAGES AND DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS HERE SAID IT POSSIBLY WILL BE SIGNED ABOUT APRIL 4 OT 5.

THE PRINCIPALS AT THE WASHINGTON SIGNING CEREMONIES ARE EXPECTED TO INCLUDE ACHESON, BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN, FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER SCHUMAN AND THE FOREIGN POLICY CHIEFS OF ABOUT NINE OTHER COUNTRIES.

DISPATCHES FROM ABROAD SAID THAT BRITISH AND FRENCH OFFICIALS WERE CHECKING OVER THE FINAL DRAFT OF THE TREATY, WITH THE BRITISH, AT LEAST, EXPECTED TO SEND WORD OF ITS APPROVAL BY THE CABINET TOMORROW.

MEANWHILE, ACHESON SAID DEFINITELY TODAY THAT THE TEXT OF THE TREATY WILL BE MADE PUBLIC. THIS IS EXPECTED EARLY NEXT WEEK AND THE TIME BETWEEN PUBLICATION AND FORMAL SIGNING WILL PERMIT CONSIDERABLE PUBLIC DISCUSSION. SECRECY WAS ESSENTIAL DURING THE PERIOD OF NEGOTIATION, HE SAID.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDERTOOK TO SUMMARIZE THE MAJOR ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE EIGHT MONTHS OF NEGOTIATIONS. POINTING TO THE SPLIT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN WORLD, HE ARGUED THAT THE DEFENSE AGREEMENT IS A LOGICAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE SERIES OF MEASURES THE WEST HAS ADOPTED IN TRYING TO STABILIZE THE DIVIDED WORLD.

IN NEGOTIATING THE MILITARY PACT WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS, ACHESON SAID THE UNITED STATES AND THE OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NOT CREATED SOMETHING NEW BUT SIMPLY RECOGNIZED THE ASSOCIATION OF THIS COUNTRY WITH WESTERN EUROPE--A RELATIONSHIP GOING BACK FOR 300 YEARS. THIS IS ONE OF THE FACTS OF LIFE, HE SAID--AN ASSOCIATION ROOTED IN THE COMMON IDEAS, COMMON INSTITUTIONS OF FREEDOM SHARED BY THE WESTERN WORLD.

THE NEGOTIATORS SUCCEEDED, HE SAID, IN DRAFTING A TREATY WHICH IS WHOLLY WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AND ONE WHICH MAKES CLEAR THE DETERMINATION OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE POWERS ASSOCIATED WITH IT TO EXERCISE THEIR INHERENT RIGHT OF SELF DEFENSE, INDIVIDUALLY AND COLLECTIVELY, AGAINST AGGRESSION FROM ANY QUARTER.

AS A RESULT OF THESE POSITIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE TREATY, ACHESON SAID HE BELIEVES THE NEGOTIATORS ALSO HAVE SUCCEEDED IN FORMING AN INSTRUMENT WHICH WOULD ELIMINATE A SENSE OF INSECURITY AND PROMOTE THE RECOVERY OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THE BULK OF THE NEGOTIATING WORK WAS DONE FIRST BY FORMER UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT AND IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS BY ACHESON AND BY THE AMBASSADORS OF CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. TO THOSE SEVEN NATIONS WAS ADDED LAST WEEK THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRY NORWAY.

ACHESON SAID TODAY THAT THE NEGOTIATORS HAD NOW MADE UP THEIR MINDS WHAT OTHER COUNTRIES MIGHT BE ADMITTED BUT THAT HE COULD NOT DISCLOSE THESE PENDING INDICATIONS FROM THEIR GOVERNMENTS AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THEY REALLY WANTED TO BE INVITED.

HOWEVER, DENMARK'S FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN LEFT COPENHAGEN TODAY FOR THE UNITED STATES, SAYING HE WOULD SEEK "THE BEST POSSIBLE BASIS FOR DENMARK'S ENTRY" INTO THE SECURITY SYSTEM.

FROM OTHER INFORMANTS IT WAS LEARNED THAT FOUR OTHER COUNTRIES ARE CONSIDERED QUALIFIED. THEY ARE ITALY, PORTUGAL, ICELAND AND IRELAND. ITALY IS IN THE LINEUP BECAUSE ACHESON AND CONGRESSIONAL FOREIGN POLICY LEADERS APPARENTLY WORKED OUT YESTERDAY THEIR FINAL DOUBTS OVER WHETHER THE PACT SHOULD BE EXTENDED IMMEDIATELY INTO THE MEDITERRANEAN FLANK OF THE ATLANTIC POWERS IN EUROPE.

PORTUGAL AND ICELAND WILL BE WELCOMED IF THEY WANT TO COME IN. THE BEST INFORMED AUTHORITIES HERE BELIEVE THAT THEY WILL, AND THEY MAY DO SO AT ANY TIME UNTIL THE SIGNING CONFERENCE IS HELD.

IRELAND ALSO WOULD BE WELCOMED BUT THE IRISH GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN THE POSITION THAT IT WILL NOT JOIN AN ALLIANCE WITH BRITAIN SO LONG AS THE IRISH REPUBLIC AND NORTHERN IRELAND REMAIN DIVIDED.

THUS THE PROSPECT IS THAT THE HISTORIC REGIONAL DEFENSE TREATY MAY BE SIGNED BY 12 NATIONS AT THE OUTSET.

WHETHER THE OFFICIALS ACTUALLY SIGNING ARE THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THOSE COUNTRIES REMAINS TO BE DETERMINED. THE FEELING AMONG THE NEGOTIATORS HERE IS THAT GREAT PRESTIGE WOULD BE ADDED TO THE SECURITY MOVEMENT BY HAVING THE FOREIGN MINISTERS MEET FOR THE TASK.

DIPLOMATS OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS POINT OUT THAT IT WOULD GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS OTHER MATTERS. FOR EXAMPLE, THE FRENCH HAVE BEEN PARTICULARLY ANXIOUS TO TALK WITH THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS AT A HIGH GOVERNMENT LEVEL ABOUT FUTURE POLICIES IN WESTERN GERMANY.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 9-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON PLANS TO STAY ON THE JOB IN WASHINGTON WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONVENES NEXT MONTH.

OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT AMBASSADOR WARREN R.AUSTIN WILL HEAD A RESHUFFLED AND STREAMLINED AMERICAN DELEGATION TO THE "RUMP" SESSION WHICH OPENS APRIL 5 AT LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y.

GEN. GEORGE C.MARSHALL PERSONALLY HEADED THE DELEGATION WHEN HE WAS SECRETARY, AND SPENT WEEKS AT A TIME AT LAKE SUCCESS AND PARIS. WASHINGTON,MARCH 9-(AP)-REP.FISHER (D-TEX) PLANNED TODAY TO URGE THE HOUSE TO APPROVE AN AMPLE RADAR SCREEN FOR ALASKA WHICH HE CALLS "THE MOST VITAL OF ALL OUR STRAGETIC SPOTS."

HE SAID HE WOULD SPEAK ON THE BILL TO PROVIDE A RADAR SCREEN FOR THE NATION. HE MADE HIS PREPARED SPEECH PUBLIC THOUGH UNCERTAIN JUST WHEN HE WOULD TALK.

HE SAID IN IT THAT ALASKA NEEDS MORE TROOPS FOR DEFENSE AGAINST ANY OF AN ATTACK, AND NEEDS HOUSING NOT ONLY FOR THE MILITARY BUT ALSO FOR ITS CIVILIAN POPULATION.

"THERE IS NO QUESTION TODAY BUT THAT ALASKA IS WOEFULLY UNDER-DEFENDED," FISHER SAID.

"THERE IS NO SECRET ABOUT THAT FACT.

"THE ALASKAN COMMAND HAS PUBLICLY STATED THAT THE TERRITORY IS PRESENTLY VULNERABLE TO ENEMY THRUST AND THAT DEFENSES ARE PRESENTLY INADEQUATE TO REPEL A POSSIBLE ATTACK."

FISHER, WHO VISITED ALASKA LAST SUMMER AND NOW IS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, SAID THAT FROM OPERATING BASES AT FAIRBANKS AN ENEMY COULD BOMB MOST OF THE "INDUSTRIAL HEART OF AMERICA."

ALASKA, HE NOTED, IS ONLY 56 MILES ACROSS THE BERING STRAIT FROM THE SOVIET UNION.

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS "ARE THROUGHLY FAMILIAR WITH MOST ALL OF THE AIRFIELDS AND INSTALLATIONS IN THE ALASKA AREA, BECAUSE MORE THAN 7,000 LEND-LEASE PLANES WERE DELIVERED TO RUSSIAN FLIERS AT FAIRBANKS DURING THE WAR."

NO ONE IN THE UNITED STATES, HE CONTINUED, KNOWS JUST WHAT THE RUSSIANS ARE BUILDING ACROSS THE BERING STRAITS "BUT WE DO HAVE REASON TO BELIEVE THERE IS MUCH ACTIVITY IN THAT AREA."

RUSSIA'S EULEN FIELD, HE SAID, IS ONLY 200 MILES FROM NOME, AND THE SOVIET BASE OF ANADYR, ON THE SIBERIAN COAST, IS IN THE SAME VICINITY.

NO AMERICAN PLANE HAS BEEN PERMITTED TO FLY OVER THAT TERRITORY SINCE 1944, HE ADDED.

HE SAID ALASKA NEEDS A COMPREHENSIVE SYSTEM FOR WARNING AGAINST THE APPROACH OF ENEMY PLANES.

BUT, HE ADDED, IT WOULD BE A MISTAKE TO DEPEND TOO GREATLY ON RADAR ALONE, AND THAT TROOPS MUST BE THERE TO OPERATE THE SCREEN AND DEFENSES EFFECTIVELY.

"WE CAN NO LONGER THINK OF ALASKA AS A SORT OF SENTRY-BASE," FISHER SAID. "ALASKA IS LIKELY TO BE A MAJOR BASE IN ANY FUTURE WAR. THERE IS EVERY REASON TO BELIEVE THAT SUCH A WAR WOULD SEE PLANES AND MISSILES SENT BACK AND FORTH ACROSS THE NORTHPOLE.

"LET US NOT BE LULLED INTO FALSE SECURITY BY LEGISLATION SUCH AS THE RADAR BILL, NOR BY REPORTS OF TECHNICAL PROGRESS IN PLANES, GUIDED MISSILES OR OTHER WEAPONS WHICH MAY BE USED IN FUTURE BATTLES OVER THE TOP OF THE WORLD."

"THESE THINGS BY THEMSELVES DO NOT WIN WARS.

"THEY MUST BE OPERATED, AND DEFENDED, BY MEN ON THE GROUND, WHO MUST HAVE ADEQUATE QUARTERS FOR LIFE IN THE ARCTIC REGIONS."

REP.HINSHAW (R-CALIF) SAID IN A SPEECH THAT TESTS INDICATE A B-36 BOMBER FLYING AT 40,000 FEET OR HIGHER IS NOT LIKELY TO BE STOPPED BY OUR BEST INTERCEPTOR PLANES WITHOUT LONG ADVANCE WARNING--IF AT ALL.

BECAUSE THE BOMBERS GO ABOUT SEVEN MILES A MINUTE, HINSHAW SAID, AN INTERCEPTOR HAS TO TAKE OFF WHEN A B-36 IS 185 MILES AWAY FROM ITS TARGET IN ORDER TO CLIMB UP AND MEET IT.

TO KEEP THE BOMBER FROM THE TARGET, HE SAID, THE INTERCEPTOR SHOULD BE ALLOWED AN HOUR OR MORE.

HINSHAW SAID THERE IS SOME QUESTION THAT THE B-36 CAN BE HEADED OFF SUCCESSFULLY BY PLANES.

"IT MAY HAVE TO BE DONE BY GUIDED MISSILES EQUIPPED WITH RADAR," HE SAID. WASHINGTON - FIGHT-PLANES - XXX REDUCED.

JET BOMBERS, REP.SHORT (R-MO) REMARKED, MAKE 600 MILES AN HOUR.

"TRUE," HINSHAW AGREED, "BUT THAT KIND OF BOMBER IS NOT GOING TO COME OVER THE NORTH POLE AND STRIKE THE U.S.RIGHT AWAY. THEY DON'T HAVE THE RANGE."

SSEVERAL YEARS AGO, HOWEVER, HVNSHAW RECALLED, THREE RUSSIAN PLANES CROSSED THE POLE AND LANDED IN OREGON AND CALIFORNIA.

THE RADAR NET BILL DIRECTLY GIVES THE AIR FORCE THE JOB OF GUARDING THE NATION AGAINST AIR ATTACK. THE AF ALSO WOULD HAVE JURISDICTION OVER THE GUIDED MISSILE RANGE, THOUGH ALL SERVICES WOULD USE IT.

NEITHER MEASURE HAS DRAWN ANY CAPITOL HILL OPPOSITION.

THE HOUSE TICKETED THEM FOR PROMPT CONSIDERATION AFTER DISPOSAL OF A $2,211,794,085 APPROPRIATION BILL. THIS BILL WOULD FINANCE THE LABOR DEPARTMENT, SOCIAL SECURITY AGENCY, NATIONAL MEDIATION BOARD AND THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1.

THE PROPOSED RADAR PROTECTION WOULD BE LINKED WITH A SIMILAR NETWORK BEING BUILT BY THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT. IT WOULD BE AUGMENTED BY FOUR RADAR PICKET VESSELS TO BE OPERATED OFFSHORE BY THE NAVY.

THE WARNING SYSTEM WOULD BE SUPERVISED BY THE AIR FORCE FROM EIGHT CONTROL CENTERS SCATTERED ACROSS THE COUNTRY. INTERCEPTOR SQUADRONS WOULD BE ALERTED, THEN DIRECTED TO HEAD OFF FLIGHTS OF ATTACKING ENEMY PLANES, ON THE BASIS OF INFORMATION COMING TO AIR COMMANDERS AT THE CENTERS. MILITARY MEN HAVE SAID THE SYSTEM WOULD BE WORTHWHILE BUT BY NO MEANS AIRTIGHT.

THE ARMY, AIR FORCE AND NAVY ALL ASKED FOR EARLY CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL OF THE LONG-RANGE GUIDED MISSILE PROVING GROUND. THEY NOW SHARE THREE TEST CENTERS, BUT THE RANGES ARE LIMITED TO 150 MILES.

THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION WOULD AUTHORIZE BUILDING A BASE AND LAUNCHING SITE IN THE UNITED STATES, BUT THE REST OF THE RANGE COULD BE LOCATED OUTSIDE THIS COUNTRY. THE TOTAL COST HAS BEEN ESTIMATED AT $200,000,000.

MILITARY SCIENTISTS HAVE TOLD THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE THEY WANT TO DOT THE FIRST 500 MILES OF THE RANGE WITH OBSERVATION STATIONS. THE REST OF IT, THEY

THEY WANT TO DOT THE FIRST 500 MILES OF THE RANGE WITH OBSERVATION STATIONS. THE REST OF IT, THEY SAY, WOULD HAVE "IMPACT AREAS" FOR MISSILES OF GREATER THAN 500-MILE RANGE.

(350) ECA INSURANCE

WASHINGTON, MARCH 9-(AP)-ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G.HOFFMAN TODAY REJECTED A PROPOSAL THAT ECA REQUIRE PART OF THE INSURANCE ON MARSHALL PLAN CARGOS TO BE WRITTEN WITH AMERICAN COMPANIES.

SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV), CHAIRMAN OF THE CONGRESSIONAL "WATCHDOG" COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AID, HAD PROPOSED IT.

MAR 9 1949

HOFFMAN SAID IN A LETTER TO MCCARRAN THAT SUCH ACTION WOULD SINGLE OUT THE INSURANCE BUSINESS FOR PREFERRED TREATMENT OVER OTHER AMERICAN BUSINESSES FURNISHING GOODS AND SERVICES PAID FOR WITH ECA FUNDS.

ECA RULED ON FEB. 28 THAT FOREIGN IMPORTERS MIGHT USE ECA DOLLARS FOR MARINE INSURANCE. INSURANCE COMPANIES HAD COMPLAINED IN CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS THT AMERICAN FIRMS WERE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST BY THE EARLIER POLICY OF REFUSING ANY DOLLAR GRANTS FOR INSURANCE.

HOFFMAN'S LETTER SAID THAT ECA ORIGINALLY FELT THE SIZE OF ITS SHIPPING PROGRAM MADE IT FEASIBLE FOR ECA TO SET UP A SELF-INSURANCE SYSTEM BY SETTING ASIDE A RESERVE FOR LOSSES.

HOWEVER, IT WAS RECOGNIZED THAT FOREIGN IMPORTERS MIGHT WISH TO INSURE THEIR OWN INTEREST IN INDIVIDUAL CARGOS AND, SINCE THEIR OWN GOVERNMENTS WERE SHORT OF DOLLARS, THEY WOULD TURN TO FOREIGN COM-

PANIES WHICH WOULD ACCEPT FOREIGN CURRENCIES. THIS TENDED TO THROW THE BULK OF THE INSURANCE BUSINESS TO OVERSEAS CONCERNS.

HOFFMAN TOLD MCCARRAN THAT ECA STUDIED THIS PROBLEM WITH AMERICAN COMPANIES. IN VIEW OF THE RELATIVELY SMALL SUMS INVOLVED, HE SAID, ECA DECIDED AGAINST THE SELF-INSURANCE SYSTEM AND AUTHORIZED THE USE OF MARSHALL PLAN DOLLARS FOR INSURANCE IN THE SAME WAY AS FOR OTHER GOODS AND SERVICES.

"I WISH TO EMPHASIZE THAT THE EFFECT OF THIS NEW POLICY IS TO PLACE AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANIES IN PRECISELY THE SAME POSITION AS OTHER AMERICAN EXPORTERS OF GOODS AND SERVICES NOW BEING PAID FROM ECA FUNDS," HOFFMAN WROTE.

"I DO NOT THINK THAT ECA SHOULD GO FURTHER THAN THIS NOR THAT ECA SHOULD REQUIRE INSURANCE WITH AMERICAN COMPANIES ON A SPECIFIED PERCENTAGE OF CARGOS OR ANY SIMILAR FORMULA."

THE FOREIGN AID CHIEF SAID THAT OTHER INDUSTRIES TAKE THEIR CHANCES ON THE WORLD MARKET FOR MARSHALL PLAN BUSINESS, AND HE WOULD BE "MOST UNWILLING" TO PLACE AMERICAN INSURANCE FIRMS "IN A PREFERRED CLASS."

Axis Sally Guilty Of Traitor Charge; Sentence Delayed

MAR 10 1949

Federal Jury Deliberates 17 Hours Before Reaching Verdict in Treason Case; Defendant Takes Decision with Outward Calm; Counsel Plans Appeal

WASHINGTON, March 10—(AP) A federal jury today wrote "guilty" to the name of American-born Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars, branding her a traitor for broadcasting Nazi propaganda during World War II.

The jury deliberated 17 hours and 20 minutes, with time out overnight for sleep, in reaching its verdict.

The white-haired defendant took the verdict with outward calm. Her face paled and her eyes blinked to fight back the tears, but she stood rigid and made no sound.

Her Sister Weeps

Her half sister, Mrs. Edward R. Herrick, of Conneaut, Ohio, who had been at her side throughout the seven-week trial, broke down and wept, covering her face with her hands.

Later, pacing a small ante room and taking fierce puffs on a cigarette, Miss Gillars told a newsman angrily:

"I wish those who judged me would be willing to risk their lives for America as I did."

This was an apparent reference to her contention, throughout the trial, that she always loved America and that she actually helped the U. S. war effort by her radio broadcasts telling the families of captured American soldiers that they were still alive.

The prosecution contended that she got "a sadistic joy" out of the broadcasts, notably those in which she described in harrowing detail the agonies of wounded American soldiers before they died.

Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin immediately announced he will seek a new trial on the ground that Federal Judge Edward M. Curran gave "inflammatory" instructions to the jury. Laughlin asserted that Judge Curran's instructions showed that he "believed this woman to be guilty and wanted her convicted."

Failing a mistrial, Laughlin said he will continue to fight the case with an appeal to the U. S. circuit court of appeals.

Sentence Pending

Judge Curran did not indicate when he will pronounce sentence. Under normal court procedure, there is a delay of several days before sentence is passed.

The maximum penalty would be death in the electric chair, but no civilian has ever been put to death for treason in the 150-year history of the United States. The minimum punishment would be five years in prison.

The jury acquitted Miss Gillars on seven of the tight counts pressed by the government in its original 10-count indictment. But it found her guilty on count No. 10 involving a Nazi broadcast entitled "vision of invasion."

In that broadcast, beamed overseas to American homes and to U. S. troops then waiting to storm Hitler's Europe, Miss Gillars told of the purported horrors that awaited any attempt to invade the continent.

The broadcast was made in May, 1944, just a few weeks before the actual invasion of Normandy on June 6.

Miss Gillars played the role of an American mother who dreamed that her soldier-son, a member of the invasion forces, died in a burning ship in the attempt to cross the English Channel.

The government had singled out this broadcast with heavy emphasis as an attempt to destroy the morale of American troops by building up a fear psychology of the dangers that awaited them. Actually, when American and British troops stormed ashore, they found that even Hitler's vaunted "Atlantic wall," a supposedly giant system of concrete fortifications, was largely a propaganda myth.

Courtroom Silent

A dead hush prevailed in the green-walled courtroom as the jury of seven men and five women filed in to announce their verdict shortly before 5 p.m.

Asked what deiscion had been reached, foreman Henry G. Davis, Jr., a telephone company worker, replied in a low voice:

"Guilty."

The written verdict bore this notation:

"We, the jury, find the defendant Mildred E. Gillars knowingly, willingly and with intent did violate her allegiance to the United States by participating in the radio recording covered by overt act number 10."

This recording—picked up by U. S. government monitors from the live wartime broadcast—was played back several times during the trial, with judge, jury and other principals listening in by earphones.

The "vision of invasion" drama was loaded with screams, groans and outcries as a background for the support account of what would happen if the allies ever dared attack German-conquered Europe.

In her testimony, Miss Gillars had acknowledged that she swore an oath of allegiance to Germany, but said she did so under duress "in order to live" after Gestapo officials had warned her that she was living "in danger."

Defense attorney Laughlin made an unsuccessful effort to turn this into a last-minute advantage for Miss Gillars, contending that by swearing allegiance to Germany she had "expatriated" herself and thus was not legally subject to trial for treason against the United States.

If she had been at all shaken during the tense minute of hearing her fate, Miss Gillars quickly regained her composure. As she strode from the courthouse through a blaze of camera flash bulbs to a waiting patrol wagon, one of her escorting U. S. marshals remarked:

"It looks like you are going to have your picture taken again, Sally."

"I shouldn't be surprised," Miss Gillars snapped, and thrust her chin up defiantly as she made for the open doors of the wagon.

The jury of seven men and five women—six white persons and six Negroes—began to weigh Miss Gillars' fate at 12:03 p.m. Wednesday and continued to study the mass of evidence until 10:35 p.m. Then they were taken to a hotel and locked up for the night, under guard of U. S. marshals.

This morning, at 9:40 a.m., they resumed work on the case.

The white-haired defendant, who spent the night in a district jail cell and nibbled apathetically at a ham sandwich for her dinner, appeared tired but steady as she arrived at federal court house with a busload of other prisoners.

JURY CONVICTS AXIS SALLY IN TREASON CASE

MAR 10 1949

Nazi Broadcaster Shows Little Emotion but Turns Pale.

JURORS OUT OVER 28 HOURS

Announcement of Decision Is Delayed by Absence of Judge From Court.

Washington, March 10 (A. P.).—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars was convicted of treason today.

The jury in her seven weeks trial reached a verdict at 4:28 P. M.

The verdict was not announced until nearly 5 P. M. The half hour interval was needed to get Judge Edward M. Curran and other officials to the court room.

Miss Gillars, convicted for making Nazi propaganda radio broadcasts during the war, stood up to receive the announcement.

The 48-year-old silver-haired, Maine-born woman showed little emotion.

She looked pale, however, and her eyes seemed to blink slightly.

The jury had had the case more than twenty-eight hours. It received it soon after noon yesterday.

Dead Silence in Court.

There was dead silence in the court room as Curran took the bench at 4:50 P. M.

Marshals brought Miss Gillars in immediately after that.

Then the jury, looking solemn, came in. The foreman, Henry G. Davis Jr., a Telephone Company worker, replied "Yes" when asked if a verdict had been reached.

Asked what it was, he said, in a low voice: "Guilty."

James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars's attorney, asked that the jury be polled.

Each juror said "Yes" when asked if he or she had voted to convict Miss Gillars of betraying her country by broadcasting for the Nazis cause.

The maximum penalty for treason is death. The minimum is five years in prison and $10,000.

No civilian has ever been executed for treason against the Federal Government.

Under court practices in the District of Columbia, there is always a delay of one or more days between a jury's verdict and the sentencing.

Senatorial 'Price Tag' Demand On Atlantic Alliance Assailed

MAR 10 1949

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The State Department took sharp issue today with senatorial demands that it put a "price tag" on the North Atlantic security treaty to show the cost of helping arm western Europe.

Any efforts to put a money figure on the pact are "misleading," the department said in a statement. It sought to distinguish between the treaty and the program of arms aid to non-Communist allies which is now being drafted.

Michael J. McDermott, department press officer, said the treaty "stands on its own feet." Military assistance legislation will be separate but probably will go to Congress about the same time, he said.

Different Lines Of Action

While the issues are related, they will require different lines of congressional action, he explained.

Senator George (D., Ga.), who said the department "must bring the dollar cost of the security program along with the treaty," repeated today that Congress will insist on it.

"The State Department doesn't know what it's doing if it thinks the Senate will approve this pact without Congress knowing what the cost will be of the military aid that is already blueprinted," the Senator said.

The problem of the relationship between arms aid and the proposed treaty commitments in the North Atlantic pact is a delicate one for Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and other Administration leaders.

Vandenberg's Stand

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), who earlier had urged the State Department to make public the cost of the proposed arms program before the Senate votes on another measure, the European Recovery Program, said:

"In my view, the pact and any subsequent military program are two separate subjects. They do not automatically combine in requiring Senate approval. On the other hand, I continue to recognize their joint character in many minds.

"I continue to believe that the Senate is entitled to total information so far as it is available on both subjects before it acts on either."

The department said that the European arms program at present "is not firm enough to warrant a reliable estimate."

Put At One Billion

It was learned from other informants that it probably will run not less than $1,000,000,000 and not more than $1,500,000,000 the first year.

But Senator George said the latter figure was the minimum "and they know it in the State Department."

McDermott told a news conference "the mutual aid, self-help concepts in the pact (which is still secret) implied that all members will contribute something to the pact organization." But he added:

"The amount and nature of the contribution of the United States will be determined by the Congress."

British Approval Reported

Meanwhile, there were these other developments on the treaty:

1. In London the British Cabinet was reported authoritatively to have approved the final draft. It was worked out in conferences in Washington and is now being considered by all the European governments involved.

2. Gustav Rasmussen, Danish Foreign Minister, arriving in Washington for talks with officials here, said he would inquire into the amount of American arms Denmark can expect if it joins the alliance. He said in New York that most of his countrymen favor the treaty, but the Government must know the text and what it implies before making a commitment.

3. In Washington, State Department officials said that Secretary Acheson would see Rasmussen around noon tomorrow. Acheson is also due to meet again tomorrow with seven other Ambassadors whose countries are in the treaty negotiations.

4. In Rome, Carlos Sforza, Foreign Minister, said that an invitation to Italy to join in the treaty talks is imminent.

DEFENSE PACT AND ARMS PLAN HELD SEPARATE

MAR 10 1949

State Department Insists Alliance Is Independent of Military Costs.

OVER A BILLION AID SEEN

Estimated for Restoring Forces in Europe—More of Treaty Draft Is Revealed.

Washington, March 10 (A. P.).—The State Department said today it would be "misleading" to put a price tag on the projected North Atlantic defense treaty.

The department said the treaty would be independent of a proposed multi-million-dollar United States program to rearm Western Europe. This was so, the department added, even though the pact would "imply" that this country would join other Atlantic alliance members in a mutual aid program.

The department thus appeared to take issue with Senator George (D.-Ga.), who said last week that the treaty could not win congressional approval unless the cost of rearming Western Europe were made known.

Working on Program.

Officials are still working on the rearmament program, but it was stated on excellent authority today that the cost will range between $1,000,000,000 and under $1,500,000,000.

The department's press officer, Michael J. McDermott, carried the ball for the administration in today's maneuver to make a sharp distinction between the projected alliance and the proposed armament program.

To do this, McDermott had to divulge some of the contents of the still-secret treaty draft, which is expected to be made public early next week. He said: "Recent comments regarding the putting of a 'price tag' on the pact are misleading in that the North Atlantic pact is an instrument which stands on its own feet. It does not depend on military assistance legislation."

Reveals Draft Revision.

McDermott said: "While it is true that the mutual aid self-help concepts in the pact imply that all members will contribute something to the pact organization, the amount and nature of the contribution of the United States will be determined by the Congress."

This was the first official disclosure from the State Department that the pact as now drafted contains mutual aid and self-help provisions.

These developments came as Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen headed here to get first hand information on the treaty proposals. What he learns will help his Government decide whether to join the alliance.

Cost Of Arming Allies Held No Part Of Pact

These developments came as Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen headed here to get first-hand information on the treaty proposals. What he learns will help his Government decide whether to join the alliance.

On his arrival in New York today Rasmussen said Denmark had not committed itself definitely to an alliance and added that it would be necessary for the matter to be debated in Parliament.

BRITAIN GIVES PLEDGE TO AID TREATY ALLIES

MAR 10 1949

To Pare Own Reserves Of War Equipment, Commons Told

London, March 10 (AP)—Emanuel Shinwell, War Minister, promised today Britain will help equip its Brussels treaty partners for military action even if it has to "draw substantially on our own reserves."

A "vital part" of British Army planning, he said, "is in the provision of equipment and in the arrangements for concerted action in emergency."

Shinwell was submitting to the House of Commons the army's request for an appropriation of $1,218,800,000 for the fiscal year beginning April 1.

Pictures Own Role

This is $1,200,000 less than last year's request. The army will decrease to 550,000 in the next fiscal year, a reduction of about 300,000 men.

The appropriation was approved without a record vote.

Shinwell saw Britain's defense role this way:

"The most valuable contribution we can make to furthering the Western union pact is by providing the most up-to-date equipment for our own forces and by pushing on research and development."

He assured the House that Britain has a "substantial number" of reserves for use "should mobilization be necessary, now or at any time in the immediate future."

Gives Red Army Figure

R. T. Paget, Laborite, told Commons Russia had a potential army of 550 divisions and it would break the economy of western Europe to match it.

"One has to find other means of meeting that sort of threat," the 41-year-old former naval officer said.

He suggested a highly mobile force of twenty divisions with air superiority behind it might be the answer. It would fight rear-guard actions until full mobilization of the West, he said.

Paget said he understood Russia has in Germany some 30 divisions, including 8 armored.

"Can't Hope To Compete"

"Behind that they have a mobilization strength of some 300 divisions and the probability of an eventual strength of some 550 divisions," he said.

"Neither ourselves nor the Western union (Brussels alliance) can hope to compete with those figures."

Paget said a twenty-division force with air superiority could fight a delaying action "to give the French time to mobilize and to give the Belgians time."

British Okay Pact, Report By Informant

London, March 10 (AP)—The British Cabinet today formally approved the final draft of the North Atlantic pact, a source close to the Government reported.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin placed the draft before the Cabinet. The informant could not say whether the Cabinet had any comments or suggestions for Washington.

In Rome, meanwhile, Italian Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza said an invitation to Italy to join the Alliance is imminent.

CRISIS REACHED IN BIG 4 TALKS ON AUSTRIA PACT

MAR 10 1949

R. Hewett

LONDON, March 10—(AP) Western diplomats said today the big four conference on an Austrian independence treaty has reached a showdown stage over the issue of Yugoslav claims.

The United States, Britain and France have rejected Yugoslavia's demands for a slice of Austria and reparations. Russia has supported the demands.

Talks May Collapse

If Russia drops this support, the informants said, the talks can go on. Otherwise, they said, it is feared the talks will collapse as two previous sessions have done.

Austria's foreign minister, Karl Gruber, appealed to the deputy foreign ministers of the big four to agree on "peace for Austria now" so as to end the occupation of his country. He urged them to reject Yugoslavia's claims.

However, he said "certain economic concessions" would be made.

At the same session, Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler renewed his government's war damage claims. He asserted that western rejection of Yugoslav compromise proposals "places the conference in danger of breaking down once more."

Russians Back Tito

Russia has supported Yugoslavia despite the bitter Cominform quarrel with the country's leader, Premier Marshall Tito.

American negotiators said they were still hopeful that Russian Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin would get Kremlin permission to make concessions and keep the talks alive.

Bebler said today Yugoslavia has "gone to the farthest possible limits" in scaling down her demands. During the conference he has dropped specific claims to 800 square miles of southern Austria and $150,000,000 in reparation. He still insists on unspecified frontier changes and "substantial reparations," plus the establishment of an autonomous slovene province in southern Austria.

A Belgrade dispatch said these demands were backed today by an editorial in the official newspaper of the Yugoslav communist newspaper, Borba. Borba said a "correction" of the frontier was necessary for any Austrian peace settlement.

AIRLIFT MAPS REPLACEMENTS

Would Facilitate Continuing Berlin Flights For Years

T. PEFFY

Berlin, March 10 (AP)—The United States Air Force today announced plans for personnel replacements which would facilitate carrying on the airlift to Soviet-blockaded Berlin for years, if necessary.

American taxpayers are paying almost $500,000 a day to maintain the United States end of the American-British operation, which began last June 26. By February 28 the project had cost $119,702,600, Air Force headquarters in Washington estimated.

The Air Force announced in Wiesbaden today that, beginning May 1, replacements of airlift personnel from the Great Falls (Mont.) training school will be placed on regular instead of temporary duty status.

To Serve Three Years

Airmen who bring families with them overseas will serve three years on the lift. Those without families in Germany will serve two years. Under the present system the men flying in the food, fuel and essential supplies from western Germany to Berlin are rotated to their home bases in the United States every six months.

The airlift is moving about 7,000 tons of supplies to Berlin daily in good weather.

Col. R. R. Whitaker, of the United States Army engineers, disclosed today a second runway is to be constructed on the Tegel Field in the French sector. The strip will be 5,500 feet long, with an extension to protect a plane that overshoots. Work will start next Monday.

Firing Practice Renewed

Air Force men, however, said the present strips at Tegel, Gatow and Tempelhof airports are handling all the 225 planes the airlift has, and more planes would have to be added to make the extra strip any kind of an asset.

The Russians renewed their aerial firing practice in the airlift corridors today. The air-to-air and air-to-ground firing of Yaks and PO-2's drew another verbal protest from the Americans, British and French at the four-power air safety center in Berlin.

New Russian Tanks

Similar firing exercises were canceled by the Russians two days ago after a protest by the three Western powers. There was no indication, however, that the Soviet action was taken as a result of the protest.

New Russian troops and tanks moved into the Berlin area recently, but a United States Army spokesman said the units appeared to be only "normal replacements."

The British-licensed German news agency DPD said trains carrying about 4,000 Russian soldiers and 300 tanks and armored cars were unloaded in the last few days at Bernau, 5 miles north of Berlin. DPD quoted German trainmen as saying the troops came directly from Russia.

Family Of 11 Leaves U.S. Zone For America

Augsburg, Germany, March 10 (AP)—The largest family group to immigrate to the United States from the American zone of Germany left the resettlement center here this week on the first leg of their journey to Salisbury, N.C., their new home.

They were Benedict Milass, a 52-year-old Latvian displaced person, his wife Maria, 33, five sons and four daughters. The children range from 6 months to 18 years.

The family was among the 311 persons comprising the second shipment of D.P.'s from Augsburg to Bremerhaven.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference obtained a job for Milass on a farm in Salisbury, N.C.

ROME UTILITIES CAUSE HEADACHES

MAR 10 1949

ROME, March 10—(AP) If Signor Giuseppe Rossi and his lady are grumpy and short-tempered these days the state of their city's utilities may be partly to blame. There is not enough electric power to go around, and gas is low.

The result, in terms of the effects upon Mr. and Mrs. Average Roman:

Signor Rossi finds his place of work dark from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. two days each week. If he works in one of Rome's countless electric-powered shops, his machines are idle during those periods. Even on the days he has power, the current is so low and variable that much apparatus refuses to function. He dare not ride elevators: all too often, they get stuck. The electrically-propelled omnibuses and streetcars on which he rides to work are fewer these days; those left are over-crowded. His favorite cafe may have no coffee, if it has no power to heat its pots.

Signora Rossi, if she cooks with electricity, also has the two powerless days to worry about. If she cooks with gas, she finds pressure often too low to boil water. If gas heats the hot water for her bathroom, as it does in many Rome houses, she and her family must bathe in cold, most days.

Stores are required to close early to save current. Their radio is so faint, often, that it is imperceptible; their phonograph turns out noises like "braaaaaaaw." Theaters are reduced to 60 per cent of their average consumption—which means one or more shows fewer each day.

Signora Rossi is now ordered to read her own power meters, and make sure she uses less electricity than she did last fall. This means she must take her bill for September and October, add the totals, divide by nine to get the weekly average, and figure out how much current she may use to stay 15 per cent below last fall's average consumption for lights and 35 per cent below that for other purposes. She must, too, post the figures beside her meters, and submit to weekly spot checks.

If she fails to do all that, woe unto her. She may have her power cut off. Or she may be fined.

Slav Persecution Charged In Trieste

MAR 1

Rome, March 10 (AP)—The Episcopal Diocese of Trieste has denounced Yugoslav military authorities for allegedly violating religious freedoms in Yugoslav-occupied territory of Trieste, the Italian news agency Astra said today.

The diocese charged that Yugoslav authorities have launched a campaign of anti-religious persecution, Astra said. It quoted the diocese as saying that holy mass and administering of the sacraments were forbidden without authorization from "people's committees."

Four Croats To Die For Killing Pigs

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 10 (AP)—Four peasants were sentenced to death today for killing pigs.

A People's Court in Osijek, Croatia, condemned them on charges of economic sabotage by feeding poison to 680 pigs on a Government-owned model farm. Belgrade newspapers reporting the case said the four called themselves "crusaders" who hoped for Anglo-American intervention in Yugoslav affairs.

The court sentenced Mijo Pacek to be hanged as leader of the group, and ordered the other three shot. Witnesses quoted Pacek as predicting that the former King Peter II and the former peasant leader, Vlade Macek, would return from the United States and overthrow the present Communist regime.

U.S. Asks Dutch To Restore Indonesian Republic

F CARTER

Lake Success, N.Y., March 10 (AP). The United States called on the Netherlands today to put the Indonesian Republic back in power and then talk peace.

The United States voiced its new demand on the Dutch in the Security Council after hearing a Dutch representative say his Government has refused to restore the Indonesian Republic to authority because it feared violence and chaos would result.

The Council took up the Indonesian case again for the first time after setting up a plan for a settlement in a resolution approved January 28.

Seeking Way Out Of Deadlock

Delegates told the Council the situation has not improved. They are seeking some way out of the Dutch-Indonesian Republic deadlock.

Dr. J. H. van Royen, Dutch Ambassador to Canada and representative here in the Indonesian debate, told the delegates his government has given freedom to th top officials of the Indonesian Republic. They have been held on the Island of Bangka.

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines, who attacked the Dutch for not carrying out the January resolution, said in the Council the Republican leaders have about as much freedom as prisoners have at Alcatraz.

Has No Authority

Van Royen asked the Council to approve a proposed roundtable called by the Dutch Government for a conference on settling the Indonesian affair.

Indonesian Republic leaders have declined so far because, they say, their Government has no authority and cannot function now.

Van Royen said restoration of the Indonesian Republic to power would cause reprisals in Indonesia on a horrifying scale.

He said this would mean putting back in power what he called the same militarist and extremist elements which have been the main stumbling blocks in negotiations with the republic.

Communists Would Take Heart

He said Communists in Indonesia would take heart and redouble their activity. He called attention of the Council to communistic activities in all of Asia.

Van Royen said the Netherlands now wanted to put in effect an accelerated plan for giving Indonesia freedom.

Warren R. Austin, chief American delegate, said the United States is unable to understand why the Netherlands cannot restore the republic to authority.

"The extensive guerrilla warfare now being carried on in Indonesia is the direct consequence of the Netherlands' abandoning negotiations in favor of military action," Austin said.

Beginning Must Be Made

"Is it entirely consistent, moreover, to propose as the Netherlands proposes, a transfer of sovereignty three or four months hence to an Indonesian Government which will include the republic as a member state while at the same time maintaining that immediate restoration of the republic in the limited area of Jogjakarta would result in chaos? It seems to my Government that if Indonesia is to receive early independence as envisaged by the Netherlands plan, a beginning must be made now with the re-establishment of the republic."

The council adjourned until 11 A.M. tomorrow when it will discuss Indonesia again.

After the Council adjourned Van Royen said that Austin had left the door open for the parties to agree.

He said Austin and Dr. L. N. Palar, Indonesian representative, both seemed to feel that the roundtable conference proposed by Holland would be useful if conditions could be met. He said the paramount condition appeared to be restoration of the republic's Government in Jogjakarta.

Dutch To Reject U.N. Program

MAR 10 1949

Lake Success, N.Y., March 10 (AP)—An official Dutch spokesman declared flatly today his country finds it "impossible" to comply with United Nations Security Council orders to restore Indonesian Republican leaders to power.

The spokesman, J. H. van Royen, the Dutch representative, said he would state this view to the Security Council late today.

"We believe," he said, "that if the Republicans went back, they would immediately start subversive activity and intensify the guerrilla warfare."

"Wants It All Independent"

He said his country wants all Indonesia independent, but does not want "independence to mean the upset and trouble that it has meant to Burma," which has had almost constant civil war since it quit the British Commonwealth a year ago.

Van Royen denied the Dutch were about to permit exiled Republican leaders to return to their capital, Jogjakarta. He talked last night to Dutch Foreign Minister D. J. Stikker and confirmed that the government stand is not changed.

Restoration Is Ordered

Republican leaders were seized in December when Dutch troops occupied "independent" parts of Java, Sumatra and Madoera. The Security Council ordered the Netherlands to restore the leaders to power and grant independence to all of Indonesia—including areas outside the Republic—by July 1, 1950.

The Netherlands proposed creating a sovereign United States of Indonesia by July 1, 1949, without first restoring the Republic.

"It is our view," van Royen said, "that the Council and the Netherlands have exactly the same aim—liberty, entire freedom and self-government for Indonesia. We differ only on the means by which to arrive at this objective."

"Undesirable Prestige"

"The interests of the 75,000,000 inhabitants, not the prestige of a small minority, must have priority," he continued. He said restoration of Republican President Soekarno and his Cabinet would give them prestige in the eyes of other Indonesians which the Dutch consider undesirable.

Meanwhile, Republican representatives here scoffed at a Dutch announcement that Soekarno and other leaders have been released. They renewed a request that the Dutch permit Republican emissaries to visit the leaders on the Island of Bangka, where they were interned.

Aqaba Battle Reported To Official In Amman

MAR 10 1949

Amman, Trans-Jordan, March 10 (AP)—An official Trans-Jordan source said tonight that he was informed heavy fighting is taking place near the Red Sea post of Aqaba.

Aqaba, occupied by British and Trans-Jordan Arab Legion troops, lies just inside Trans-Jordan on the Palestine border.

The informant said a small mechanized Israeli column moving parallel to the Egyptian-Palestinian border reached a small village 10 miles northwest of Aqaba.

There it was met and finally repulsed by the Arab Legion, the source said.

The official commented that fighting seems to be taking place now at different places.

did not specify what form the protection should take, whether direct military aid, economic or diplomatic support

Confers With U. S.

The discussion centered upon announcements that Israeli troops have moved south in the Negev Desert of Palestine, which lies between Egypt and Trans-Jordan, toward the Red Sea gulf of Aqaba. Responsible informants said Britain is consulting the United States.

Spokesmen of Israel and Trans-Jordan agreed there was an Israeli movement toward the gulf. They disagreed on its meaning and also whether there has been a brush between Israeli units and a frontier guard of Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion.

The emphasis in Amman, Trans-Jordan's mountain capital, was that Israeli forces were "proceeding toward Aqaba," which is the name of the British-garrisoned Trans-Jordan seaport on the Gulf of Aqaba three miles east of the point where southern Palestine touches the gulf.

A Trans-Jordan official said today heavy fighting was taking place in the frontier area. An Israeli mechanized column was reported to have reached a small village 10 miles northwest of Aqaba. The informant commented that there seemed to be fighting at several places.

Israel Denies Clash

The emphasis in Tel Aviv was that Israel was occupying territory assigned her by the United Nations partition resolution of 1947. An Israeli military spokesman denied there had been any armed clashes.

"All our units are inside our territory," he told newsmen. "We have not crossed any frontier and we have no intention of crossing any. We have no designs on Aqaba port, which is in Trans-Jordan."

The Trans-Jordan defense ministry said yesterday Arab legionnaires have stopped Israeli forces 32 miles from Aqaba. A dispatch from Amman today quoted usually reliable sources as saying:

The Israeli column was a heavy tank brigade (which might mean 3,000 or 4,000 men). It was repulsed while moving south along the arid Arab valley, the natural boundary, by Arab Legion forces on the Trans-Jordan side of the valley. Part of the Israeli force infiltrated into the Wadi El Richa and moved five miles into Trans-Jordan territory before it was driven out.

Wait UN Report

British officials, who have said repeatedly Britain would have to consider sending military aid if Trans-Jordan is attacked, appeared to be awaiting a report from United Nations observers in Palestine. The British troops garrisoning Aqaba were sent there several weeks ago by request of Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah.

A foreign office spokesman declined today to say whether Trans-Jordan had asked British help. He said Britain considers a United Nation Security Council resolution of last Nov. 4 to be still in force.

The Nov. 4 resolution called on Jews and Arabs to withdraw to positions they held Oct. 14, when Israeli-Egyptian fighting flared on the Negev front. The resolution was disregarded, however, in the armistice agreement Egypt and Israel signed under UN auspices at Rhodes last month. Israel's military gains were recognized.

Israeli leaders have said they would like to see Aqaba made a free port, but have no military designs upon it.

Aqaba is a palm-dotted fishing town from which the sea leads to India and the Far East to the Suez Canal and the Mediterranean. It is the largest point on the gulf and has sweet water, something not yet found on the adjoining coastal strip of the Negev. Jewish geologists, however, say they believe a water supply may yet be developed in the strip and then a harbor may be built there.

The Israeli development plans also calls for roads to be laid to the dead sea, with its chemical riches, and to Beersheba, the highway center of the upper Negev.

BRITAIN MAY AID TRANS-JORDAN IN ROW WITH ISRAEL

MAR 10 1949

C. L. DAVIDSON

LONDON, March 10—(AP) Britain hinted officially today she would help Trans-Jordan if Israeli armed forces invaded that country.

"An ally should be protected against an aggressor," Minister of State Hector McNeil told the House of Commons in a discussion of relations between the Jewish state and the Arab Kingdom, with which Britain has a mutual aid treaty. He

Details Withheld

London, March 10 (AP)—Spokesmen for Israel and Britain today withheld news about the Red Sea port of Aqaba, on whose approaches the Arabs said yesterday they had stopped an Israel armored force.

Tel Aviv denied there had been any armed clashes along the Trans-Jordan frontier or that troops of either side had crossed the border.

The British Foreign Office refused to say whether Trans-Jordan has asked Britain, its treaty ally, to help stop a reported Israeli thrust. There were reports that Trans-Jordan had made such a plea and that Britain is consulting the United States.

"Have No Designs"

Aqaba is Trans-Jordan's only port and has been garrisoned by the British for several months at King Abdullah's request. Israelis have said they would like to make Aqaba a free port, but a spokesman in Tel Aviv said today "we have no designs on Aqaba, which is in Trans-Jordan."

The flurry came while Trans-Jordan and Israel negotiated for an armistice on Rhodes. The British Foreign Office said it is awaiting reports from United Nations observers who went to Aqaba from Amman to check the situation.

British Notified

Trans-Jordan notified the British yesterday that Israeli troops were moving toward Aqaba. Official sources said Trans-Jordan also told Britain the Arab Legion clashed with an Israeli force in the eastern Negeb, bordering Trans-Jordan.

The British Foreign Office said Britain considers a United Nations resolution of November 4 still in force. He said the resolution does not permit the movement of Jewish forces.

A Trans-Jordan communiqué said part of the Jewish force "was able to reach" Ras el Nakab.

[This might be construed to mean Ras el Naqb, 10 miles northwest of Aqaba at the Palestine-Egyptian frontier.]

Situation Outlined

Reliable Trans-Jordan sources gave this picture:

The Jewish forces consisted of a brigade with heavy tanks and 75-millimeter guns.

They said the main force of the Israelis, proceeding south along the Aqaba Valley—the boundary of Palestine and Trans-Jordan—was repulsed by Arab Legion forces encamped on the Trans-Jordan side of the valley.

Part of the Israeli forces infiltrated into Wadi Elricha and pierced five miles into Trans-Jordan before being repulsed.

Israel Supports Premier's Cabinet

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 10 (AP)—Premier David Ben-Gurion obtained parliamentary approval of his four-party Cabinet today after accusing his leftist opposition of "a cold war against the United States."

The Cabinet was approved, 73 to 45.

Ben-Gurion said he planned to maintain the strictest neutrality in the East-West conflict.

Opposed By Communists

He charged the Mapam Labor party with one-sidedness in favor of Russia. Referring to a Mapam declaration that the United States had not been helpful in the Palestine war, he commented that the Russians themselves said they had never sent any arms to Israel either. He complained about Russia's reported unwillingness to let her Jews move to Israel.

The four parties in the twelve-member coalition Cabinet are Ben-Gurion's own Social Democrats (Mapai), seven ministries; the religious bloc, three, the Progressives, one; and the Sephardic party of Oriental Jews, one.

Voting against confirmation of the Cabinet were Menahem Begin's Herut party, the General Zionists, Mapam and the Communists. Begin is a former leader of the underground group, Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Immediately after the vote, all twelve ministers took the oath of loyalty to their duty, and retired for their first meeting.

Members include Moshe Sharet (formerly Shertok), Foreign Minister; Eliezer Kaplan, treasurer; and Mrs. Golda Myerson, still Israel's envoy to the Soviet Union.

Loan To Be Discussed

A newly appointed seventeen-member parliamentary committee will convene soon, it was announced, to discuss ratification of a proposed $100,000,000 loan from America.

Before the vote of confidence, Ben-Gurion reiterated his position that "Jerusalem is and remains part of the Jewish state." He added that his Government is continuing all efforts to get international recognition of this status. The United Nations has proposed to internationalize the holy city.

Ben-Gurion denied allegations that his Government had consented to inclusion of the Arab part of Palestine in Trans-Jordan.

Israeli Cabinet Approved By Parliament

MAR 10 1949

Tel Aviv, March 10 (AP)—Israel's Parliament today approved a Cabinet headed by Premier David Ben-Gurion. The vote was 73 to 45.

Soon after the vote the Prime Minister told the Knesse (Parliament) that "Jerusalem is and remains part of the Jewish State." The United Nations has proposed internationalization of the Holy City.

Cites Sacrifices

Ben-Gurion said there were "heavy sacrifices in Jewish blood" shed in the battle for Jerusalem last spring when Israeli troops fought the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion. The Prime Minister at the same time assured Parliament that his Government has not consented to inclusion of the Arab part of Palestine in the Trans-Jordan kingdom of Abdullah.

Ben-Gurion's twelve-member Cabinet is a coalition of four parties—his own Mapai party, with seven portfolios; the religious bloc, with three; Progressives, one, and the Sephardic party of Oriental Jews, one.

Opposition Voters

Voting against the coalition Cabinet were the Communists, the left-wing Socialist Mapam party and the nationalist extremists of the Herut party, headed by Menachim Beigin, leader of the former underground group, Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Among the ministers in the Cabinet are Moshe Sharet (Shertox), Foreign Minister; Eliezer Kaplan, Treasury Minister, and Mrs. Golda Meyerson, who still is Israel's envoy to Moscow.

HO APPROVAL IS EXPECTED

Nomination Likely To Go To Legislature Today

Nanking, China, March 10 (AP)—Usually well-informed Chinese said tonight Gen. Ho Ying-chin's nomination as Premier would be sent to the Legislative Yuan tomorrow.

The legislators are expected to approve appointment of Ho by Acting President Li Tsung-jen to succeed Premier Sun Fo, who resigned Tuesday.

May Improve Stability

The 60-year-old Ho is not looked upon by many as the ideal man to head a Cabinet seeking peace with the Chinese Communists, but he represents a compromise among various nationalist factions.

Ho, a southerner from Kweichow province, is a former chief of staff and former Defense Minister. His influence on the southern military clique is expected to improve the Government's stability.

Although he is on the Communists' list of "war criminals," his ability to speak for more of Nationalistic China tha nother prospects is regarded as a compensating factor.

A presidential committee headed by Sun was reported to have completed a first draft of peace proposals which the Government hopes to submit to the Communists later in the month.

The Communists, securely holding the upper hand, are nott expected to budge much from their demands, tantamount to outright surrender of the Government.

Move Closer To Yangtze

Gen. Teng Wen-yi, Defense Ministry spokesman, said more than 250,000 Communist troops had moved close to the north bank of the Yangtze river about 40 miles east of Nanking. He said they had assembled more than 1,000 rubber boats and 500 junks for an eventual crossing of the river.

Neutral military quarters expressed doubt any large push was under way but said movement of about 50,000 Communists in the Grand Canal area had been noted in the past week. They have been sitting near the north bank for more than two months.

50 Senators Call For Action On Measure For Aid To China

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Fifty senators asked the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today for action on a bill by Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) to set up an aid plan for Nationalist China.

The 50 senators, more than a majority of the Senate, signed a letter written by McCarran and addressed to Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the committee. It called for establishment of an affirmative policy for the United States with respect to Asia through providing effective assistance to the Government of China on a realistic basis."

McCarran's bill would provide up to $1,500,000,000 economic and military aid to Nationalist China through the sale of Export-Import Bank notes. Of this total, $500,000,000 would be in credits to the Government, $300,000,000 in economic assistance and $700,000,000 for military supplies.

"Defeatism" Decried

In his letter, McCarran asserted that "a policy of defeatism or a passive attitude of false resignation, when democracy is in the balance, is not in keeping with the best American tradition."

The Nevada Senator contended that it is up to Congress to shape this country's policies. He said the matter isn't one upon which "Congress must await some request from the Executive branch of the Government before it can proceed."

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, has been quoted as telling a group of House Republicans recently that the State Department wants to wait "until the dust settles" before deciding what to do about the Communist threat to overrun the Nationalist Government.

Party Lines Disregarded

Signers of the letter included 24 Democrats and 26 Republicans. Only two of these, Senators Fulbright (D., Ark.) and Wiley (R., Wis.), are members of the Foreign Relations Committee. McCarran is not a member.

Other signers:

Senators Aiken (R., Vt.), Baldwin (R., Conn.), Brewster (R., Maine), Bricker (R., Ohio), Bridges (R., N.H.), Cain (R., Wash.), Capehart (R., Ind.), Chavez (D., N.M.), Downey (D., Cal.), Eastland (D., Miss.), Ecton (R., Mont.), Ellender (D., La.), Ferguson (R., Mich.), Frear (D., Del.), Gillette (D., Iowa), Gurney (R., S.D.), Hendrickson (R., N.J.), Hoey (D., N.C.), Holland (D., Fla.), Jenner (R., Ind.), Edwin C. Johnson (D., Col.), Olin D. Johnston (D., S.C.), Kefauver (D., Tenn.), Kerr (D., Okla.), Kilgore (D., W.Va.), Knowland (R., Cal.), Langer (R., N.D.), Martin (R., Pa.), McCarthy (R., Wis.), McClellan (D., Ark.), McFarland (D., Ariz.), McGrath (D., R.I.), McKellar (D., Tenn.), Miller (D., Idaho), Morse (R., Ore.), Mundt (R., S.D.), O'Conor (D., Md.), Reed (R., Kan.), Russell (D., Ga.), Schoeppel (R., Kan.), Mrs. Smith (R., Maine), Sparkman (D., Ala.), Elmer Thomas (D., Okla.), Thye (R., Minn.), Tobey (R., N.H.), Withers (D., Ky.) and Young (R., North Dakota).

Russians Plan to Boost Budget for Armed Forces

MAR 10 1949

Increase of 20 Per Cent Announced by Finance Minister

E. GILMORE

MOSCOW, March 10—(AP) Finance Minister A. G. Zverev told Parliament tonight the Soviet Union plans to spend almost 20 per cent more on her armed forces this year than last.

The new figure is 79,000,000,000 rubles, a total which is the equivalent of $15,000,000,000 by the Russians' official yardstick.

Speaking before Prime Minister Stalin, First Deputy Prime Minister V. M. Molotov and other top leaders in the great hall of the Kremlin, Zverev announced the largest budget in Russian history.

Plan Big Surplus

It provides for revenues of 445,208,000,000 rubles during the current calendar year and expeditures of 415,355,000,000. Thus the Russians plan to have a budgetary surplus of nearly 30,000,000,000 rubles.

The corresponding figures for 1948 were: revenues, 408,400,000,000 rubles; expeditures, 368,800,000,000; surplus, 39,600,000,000.

Zverev revealed that the government spent 66,000,000,000 rubles on Soviet armed forces in 1948.

(There is no free market to determine the value of the ruble in international exchange. An official rate imposed by the Russians gives the ruble an exchange value of about 19 cents).

Zverev told Parliament, (the Supreme Soviet) that much of the increase in expenditures for the armed forces is accounted for by higher wholesale costs, due to the abolition of state subsidies. The Soviet Union's "policy of world peace" will continue, he declared.

The finance minister then delivered a sharp attack on the United States, blaming America for the present troubled international situation. United States military expenditures in this year's budget are 15 times higher than they were in 1937, Zverev said. He also criticized Britain for increasing military expenditures.

(A budget proposing total expenditures of $41,858,000,000 including $14,300,000,000 for defense, is pending in the United States Congress. Britain's defense budget of $3,039,000,000, the largest since post-war demobilization, has been approved by the House of Commons.

Comparison Impossible

(No exact comparison of the budgets is possible on the basis of available information. It is not clear, for instance, whether certain items included in the United States military budget might be outside the military budget in Russia, or vice versa. Because of varying cost factors, such as wage and raw material rates, it is impossible to say how much of a military establishment the same amount of money would pay for in the United States and in Russia).

The budget was read at a joint session of the two Houses — the Council of Union and the Council of Nationalities. The Parliament had convened a few hours earlier for sessions which may give the world a clue to Russia's intentions.

Western observers were particularly interested in learning what Russia planned to spend for military services during the coming months. They also wondered whether the Supreme Soviet will reveal full or partial answers to these questions:

What lies behind Russia's recent cabinet shift?

How has the Soviet economy reacted to recent far-reaching governmental decrees?

Tonight's session gave no indication of the meaning of the cabinet shift. Molotov and A. I. Mikoyan accompanied Stalin upon the tribunal in the great hall once used by the Czars.

Last week Molotov relinquished his post of Foreign Minister to Andrei Y. Vishinsky and Mikoyan stepped aside as minister of foreign trade. Like Molotov, Mikoyan is deputy prime minister.

Vishinsky also was present tonight. He wore the grey uniform of the Soviet diplomatic corps and sat in a government box next to the tribunal.

More than 1,000 legislators—many of them in the colorful national costumes of the various republics of the Soivet Union—cheered as Stalin walked in and took his place on the elevated platform. Other high ranking members of the government and the Communist Party took seats to the right and left of Stalin. The prime minister appeared about as usual.

Foy Kohler, United States charge d'affaires, sat in the diplomatic gallery.

Quotes 1939 Speech

The official Communist newspaper Pravda today quoted a speech made by Prime Minister Stalin ten years ago to list the basis of present Russian foreign policy.

The speech was delivered at the last all-union congress of the Communist party. At that time, Pravda said, Stalin set the following policies:

1. Ceaselessly to carry out a policy of peace and of strengthening commercial ties with all countries.
2. To keep from being dragged into a war by provokers accustomed to letting other people drag their chestnuts out of the fire.

3. To strengthen the Soviet armed forces.

4. To strengthen ties of friendship with workers of all nations.

Emphasis On Stalin

"These wise Stalinist principles were and remain the bases of the foreign policy of the U.S.S.R.," Pravda said.

Many foreign diplomats found it interesting that such note should be taken on the tenth anniversary of the last party congress. They also pointed out that Pravda emphasized it was Stalin who laid down the foreign policy of the Soviet Union.

[The Russians have been reported preparing to hold a new all-union Communist congress. Regional intraparty elections have been going on for some months.]

'39 Policy Stands, Pravda Asserts

MAR 10 1949

Moscow, March 10 (AP)—Pravda today quoted a speech by Prime Minister Stalin ten years ago to list the basis of present Soviet foreign policy.

The official Communist newspaper said Stalin at that time set the following policies:

1. To ceaselessly carry out a policy of peace and strengthening commercial ties with all countries.

2. To keep from being dragged into a war by provokers accustomed to letting other people drag their chestnuts out of the fire.

3. To strengthen the Soviet armed forces.

4. To strengthen ties of friendship with workers of all nations.

"These wise Stalinist principles," Pravda said, "were and remain the bases of the foreign policy of the U.S.S.R."

Last Congress Decade Ago

Pravda said in a front-page editorial that the last all-union congress of the Communist party, at which Stalin's speech was made, was held ten years ago today. A four-column article on Page 2 was devoted to the congress.

[The Soviets have been reported preparing to hold a new Communist congress. Regional intra-party elections have been going on for some months.]

The editorial emphasized the importance of the Stalin speech and reviewed it thoroughly. That address and another made in 1946 before the last elections to the Supreme Soviet were termed blueprints of Communist plans.

Finn Premier Is Assailed By Soviet Papers

Moscow, March 10 (AP)—Moscow newspapers today printed articles attacking Finland's Socialist Premier, Karl A. Fagerholm.

Finnish news has been displayed prominently in the Soviet press lately, most of it unfavorable to the present Finnish Government.

Today's article quoted Finnish newspapers about "a secret meeting of Fagerholm and an American military attaché. The Helsinki dispatch quoted Finnish newspapers as saying:

"The secrecy surrounding this meeting once again proves the striving of the present Finnish Government to hide facts which contradict its public declarations."

Policy Change Urged

The Finnish newspaper Ny Tid was quoted as declaring that if Fagerholm really wants to stop his Western and Northern "intrigues" the Government policy must be changed.

The Finnish Government has been under attack by Communists in Finland and recently survived a vote of confidence in Parliament by a two-vote margin.

Cuban-Russian Break Soon Expected

MAR 10 1949

Havana, Cuba, March 10 (AP)—An early rupture in Cuban-Soviet relations was predicted today after the Cuban Government handed two blistering notes to the Soviet Embassy here.

The notes, made public last night, accused the Russians of "brazenly aggressive" propaganda and totalitarian methods. They said Communism seeks destruction of "the world democratic system" and added, "This situation cannot persist."

President Carlos Prio Socarros's Government also rejected a Soviet protest about the sale here of carnival masks of Prime Minister Stalin's face.

Cuba formally protested recent statements by Communist leaders in various countries that Communist sympathies in these nations lie primarily with Russia. These statements were made, the notes said, on orders from Moscow. They added such action by disloyal groups is inacceptable to democratic governments.

No Violation Of Law

The Cuban notes said there was no violation of law in such sales. They added that efforts of the Soviet Legation "to apply the totalitarian repressive measures it suggests is unacceptable."

This was taken to mean that the legation had asked the Cuban Government to ban sale of the masks.

Cuba formally protested recent statements by Communist leaders in various countries that Communist sympathies in these nations lie primarily with Russia.

"Orders From Moscow"

These statements were made, the notes said, "in obedience" to orders from Moscow. They added such action by "disloyal groups" is "inacceptable" to democratic governments.

There was no indication when the expected formal break in diplomatic relations might come. But a high authority said Cuba is "sick of this unnatural, unwholesome relationship."

Soviet Legation sources could not be reached immediately for comment on the notes.

Prio has clashed previously with the Communists.

Union Leaders Hit

In 1947, when he was Minister of Labor, he charged Communist union leaders with fomenting trouble and keeping Cuban industry in a state of turmoil.

He ousted Communists from leadership of the Cuban Confederation of Labor. Although the Reds kept control of some local unions, their political power was broken.

In his campaign for the presidency, Prio said he would "break any remaining influence" of the party.

PHYSICIST SAYS REDS LACK 'A' BOMB

MAR 10 1949

Berlin, March 10 (A. P.).—Nobel prize winner Otto Hahn expressed the belief today that Russia has not yet produced an atom bomb. Hahn, who received the 1944 Nobel prize in physics for discovering a method of breaking the nucleus of the atom, said "they could not make one in such a short time."

In a telephone interview, he said the Russians might have built a uranium pile, "but they could not have got enough plutonium to make a bomb."

The 70-year-old scientist who was awarded an honorary degree at the University of Goettingen yesterday, said "it took the joint efforts of American industry" to make the atom bomb.

"The technical installations required are so expensive and complicated, Russia could not possibly make an atom bomb in such a short time, just as England or Switzerland or France couldn't make it."

Danes Drop Russian Lessons.

Copenhagen March 10 (A. P.).—The Danish Broadcasting Service announced today that Russian-language lessons will be discontinued because of waning interest among listeners.

Another High Russian Minister Is 'Released'

London, March 10 (AP)—The Moscow Radio said tonight M. I. Rodionov has been "released" from his post as chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Russian Socialist Federation of Soviet Russia. He has been replaced by B. N. Chernousov.

No reason was advanced for the switch.

The R.S.F.S.R. is the largest of the sixteen constituent republics of the Soviet Union, with Moscow its capital. The council is its top ruling body.

Russia Lists Convertibles

Moscow, March 10 (AP)—The convertible top is being added to Russia's automobile selection, Pravda announced today. Buyers will have a choice between a small four-passenger model and a larger, heavier car.

Protestants Ask U.S. Power As Warning To Soviet Force

MAR 10 1949

Cleveland, March 10 (AP)—Delegates of 35,000,000 American Protestants tonight approved a statement that the United States "must maintain sufficient strength to convince Soviet Russia that attempts to impose an ideology by force cannot succeed." A minority group dissented.

The statement on the churches' attitude toward Soviet-American relations now goes to 57 denominations and allied religious bodies for consideration and action.

The conference is sponsored by the Department of International Justice and Goodwill of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Its statement embodied the following ideas:

1. Delegates were unable to act on the Atlantic treaty because they do not know its terms, but they believe "no defensive alliance should be entered into which might validly appear as aggressive to Russia, as a Russian alliance with Latin-America would undoubtedly appear to us."

Discusses Regional Pacts

2. Regional accords may work for common security and welfare if they stay within the United Nations framework, are based on "a natural community of interest" and "pursue this interest in ways that do not jeopardize world community."

3. "Regional military alliances are of course no substitute for the relief of human distress and the meeting of human needs within the area."

4. The European Recovery Program was endorsed.

5. "Hysteria" was decried and "some of the methods" of the former Un-American Activities Committees "should be condemned and discontinued."

6. "A man's opportunity to earn his living should be based on his character and capacity, not determined by his race, creed or color."

7. "The extension of Soviet communism has been accompanied by the threat and use of force" and as such must be condemned.

Action was taken on the recommendation of a study group under the chairmanship of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of the Methodist Church.

Statement Appended

The most controversial matter in the statement was:

"War with Soviet Russia is not inevitable. Contradictory ideologies can coexist without armed conflict, if propagated by the methods of tolerance. We must maintain sufficient strength to convince Soviet Russia that attempts to impose an ideology by force cannot succeed. We must demonstrate that a non-aggressive Soviet Russia has nothing to fear from a democratic America."

To meet objections of some delegates this statement was appended:

"Some members of the conference feel under obligation to record their conviction that any war or any resort to military measures would be morally evil and practically self-defeating. They hold that the attempt to maintain the huge military force adequate to balance Russian military power and to force 'moderation' on the Soviet provides only the illusion of security.

"It means the continuance of the cold war and the armament race, not the certain prevention of war."

U.S. Bars Russian Loot-Hunt Teams

MAR 10 1949

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The United States is rejecting a Soviet proposal to send Russian teams into the American occupation zone of Germany to recover Nazi-looted property.

Russia made the request this week after the United States expelled an eight-man Russian repatriation mission.

"No Occasion" For Them

The State Department, announcing the turndown, said "there is no occasion for the presence in the [occupation] zone of Soviet representatives" for the purpose of restoring Nazi loot.

It said the postwar program of restitution has been virtually completed, and added that the Russians were invited earlier to send a full-time permanent restitution mission to the American zone but failed to do so.

Meanwhile, 40 carloads of loot earmarked for restoration to Russia are held at the German port of Bremen for the arrival of a Soviet vessel to take it away.

Rejections Explained

Press Officer Michael J. McDermott read the statement to reporters. It concluded:

"While it is true that numerous Soviet requests for restitution of property have been received in the American zone which were not acted on favorably, the reason for the rejection was the failure of the Soviet Union to furnish detailed information upon which the claims could be investigated."

Today's Russian Is a New Man

MOSCOW, March 10—(AP) The traditionally sad, tea-drinking, brooding Russian—of Dostoievsky, Chekov and others—has disappeared from Soviet writing and drama.

Today the typical Russian is an entirely different fellow. He is optimistic, cheerful, hard-working and confident about his future.

He drinks his tea, but he doesn't dream over it. He's never a mystic, but a realist. And he doesn't wear a beard.

The Soviet woman of 1949 has a somewhat longer dress than she did at this time last year, but her skirts are certainly nothing like the models of Paris and Fifth Avenue. On cold, windy days many Moscow women still prefer a shawl around the head to a hat, but hats are more in evidence than ever before.

One of the greatest departures from the Russian of earlier years is the swing away from mysticism, melancholia and thinking, thinking, thinking and—talking, talking, talking.

Today's Soviet people—on the stage and off—don't spend much time with Gypsy songs and moaning about "Dark Eyes," "Two Guitars" and "Farewell Dinners." Today's youth sing about the better life, the work in the factory and in the field, their clubs, the five year plan, the industrious village, the homeland.

Male heroes in the movies and on the stage and in books are often engineers, doctors, scientists, factory workers, directors of plants, soldiers and officers and young Communists. The same thing applies to the heroines, with a sprinkling of mothers, trade unionists, office workers and up and coming girls on collective farms.

U. S. Delegate Walks Out as Red Assails American General in UN

MAR 10 1949

FR+D FRI 9

LAKE SUCCESS, March 10—(AP) U. S. Delegate Leroy Stinebower walked out of the UN Economic and Social Council today in protect against a tirade by Poland attacking Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, former military commander of southern Korea.

Polish delegate Julius Katz-Suchy called Hodge the former "gauleiter" of Korea. (Nazi Germany called commanders of German occupied areas "gauleiters"). Hodge now is commander at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Hits "Disrespect"

A few minutes beofre he left Stinebower had rebuked the Soviet delegate for "one of the greatest remarks of disrespect to the General Asmbly ever heard in any hall or chamber of the United Nations."

Katz-Suchy's attack on Hodge came as he accused the "military administration" of the republic of Korea (south Korea) of being maintained there "against the will of the people, by U. S. dollars and U. S. bayonets. The government sits at the peak of American bayonets."

Stinebower jumped up, saying "the U. S. delegate does not intend to remain here while this type of insult is being thrown about."

Council President James Thorn of New Zealand made no move to interrupt Katz-Suchy, and Stinebower and an assistant, Walter Kotschnig, left the chamber. Both returned when Katz-Suchy had finished.

Just before the clash, Stinebower tangled with Soviet Delegate A. P. Morosov who charged the United States had "made use of the mechanical majority in the General Assembly" to win recognition for what he called the "docile puppet government" of southern Korea.

Both Katz-Suchy and Morosov have repeatedly attacked the U. S. and other western powers in UN debates.

Approve Membership

The flareup came during routine consideration of whether to authorize the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East to admit the republic of Korea as an associate member. Such a membership authorizes the government to be represented in commission affairs but not to vote. After the clash, the 18-nation council voted the authorization by a vote of 15 to three. Russia, White Russia and Poland opposed.

When Katz-Suchy finished, Thorn told the delegates he hoped "this kind of dialectic tactics will not be repeated in the future." He said he would tolerate strong language but not insulting language.

Katz-Suchy replied he was "greatly surprised at the sensitivity of the U. S. delegate who uses such term as satellites."

"I believe the minority needs more protection than the majority," Katz-Suchy said.

Morosov charged early in the debate that the Korean question had not originally been on the council's calendar, and only now had been "dragged in" and "forced into the report" by the United States and China.

The last time a delegate walked out of a UN council session was March 27, 1946, when Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko left the Security Council in protest against a decision to hear the Iranian case against Russia.

MEDINA CHIDES ONE ATTORNEY

Warns Of Contempt In New Clash At Communist Trial

New York, March 10 (AP)—Renewed friction between Federal Judge Harold R. Medina and defense attorneys broke out today at a session of the conspiracy trial of eleven United States Communist leaders.

The lawyers declared Medina's questioning of prospective jurors did not bring out enough information "to get an unbiased jury."

But the judge sharply told one attorney, Louis F. McCabe, that he had just committed "a deliberate and willful contempt" and warned:

"I'm not going to start any contempt proceedings now, but what I may do hereafter I don't know."

Then the defense lawyers said they could not exercise their peremptory challenges properly because two of their number were absent.

Challenges Increased

The judge accepted this, and adjourned court. But he directed that henceforth no attorneys "under any circumstances" should miss a session without his permission.

Medina said the defense would have fifteen peremptory challenges instead of ten as he had said originally. The prosecution's quota was left at six.

Several times the judge told defense lawyers they were violating his order that they not argue in presenting an objection. Once Richard F. Gladstein said he was merely stating his point, and Medina retorted:

"Don't think you're fooling me."

Harry Sacher, another defense attorney, objected to the judge's use of the word "government," demanding that "prosecution" be used instead.

Inquiries Into Bias

In completing his examination of the twelve tentative jurors, Medina asked each individually:

"Do you have any prejudice or bias for or against any defendant, by reason of the race of any defendant, that would prevent you from keeping your mind fully open until all the evidence and the instructions of the court are completed?"

Each said "no."

Two of the defendants are Negroes.

A Negro housewife, Mrs. Thelma Dial, may be foreman of the jury. Her name was first to be drawn from the jury wheel by lot yesterday. And the No. 1 juror is the foreman. However, both the defense and prosecution have yet to exercise their challenges.

Others On List

The other eleven tentative jurors include four housewives, a retired stock broker, two engineers, one of them unemployed, an unemployed war veteran, a utility service worker, a sales manager and an accountant.

The defense had contended preceding the actual trial that juries contained a preponderance of wealthy persons.

The eleven Communists, all members of the national committee of their party, are charged with conspiring to advocate overthrow of the United States Government by violence.

GIRL, RED INDICTED ON 4 SPY COUNTS

MAR 10

NEW YORK, March 10—(AP) A young woman government worker and a Russian engineer were indicted on espionage charges today.

A special grand jury probing spy activities returned a four-count indictment against the pair, Brooklyn-born Judith Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev, Soviet engineer employed by the United Nations. The 27-year-old Miss Coplon is an analyst for the Department of Justice in Washington.

Arraignment Today

Arraignment was set for tomorrow, Thomas J. Donegan, special assistant to the attorney general, said he would press for an early trial.

FBI agents seized the two last Friday night after stalking them to a rendezvous through New York city streets. They said Miss Coplon planned to turn over to Gubitchev copies of government documents taken from the Justice Department's security section. The documents were found in her purse, the FBI said.

The indictment also referred to two previous meetings of the accused spies, one alleged to have occurred Jan. 14 and the other Feb. 18.

One count of the indictment said Miss Coplon "did attempt to communicate, deliver, and transmit" to Gubitchev documents "relating to the national defense x x x." It said the documents contained intelligence reports dealing with espionage and counter-espionage activities in this country.

Denied Immunity

Gubitchev was suspended from his UN post following his arrest. Officials of the world organization said he did not have diplomatic immunity, a claim disputed by the Soviet government which has unsuccessfully demanded his release.

Miss Coplon, an honor graduate of Barnard college, would be liable to a maximum prison sentence of 35 years and a $20,000 fine if convicted. The maximum penalty for Gubitchev would be 15 years' imprisonment and a $20,000 fine.

The other counts of the indictment charged:

That the woman government worker and the Russian conspired between themselves and with other persons unknown to defraud the United States by obstructing the functions of the Justice department and FBI by depriving the government of the "honest, conscientious and faithful services" of Miss Coplon.

That Miss Coplon unlawfully possessed documents containing intelligence reports dealing with national defense and that she attempted to turn over these documents to Gubitchev.

That Gubitchev unlawfully attempted to obtain from Miss Coplon reports relating to espionage and counter-espionage activities in this country.

And that Miss Coplon obtained government information with reason to believe that it "was to be used to the injury of the United States and to the advantage of a foreign nation."

Miss Coplon is held in $20,000 bail and Gubitchev in $100,000.

Miss Coplon Indicted With Russian On Spy Charges

MAR 10 1949

New York, March 10 (AP)—A Federal grand jury today returned a four-count espionage indictment against Judith Coplon, Department of Justice analyst, and Valentin A. Gubitchev, Russian engineer, employed by the United Nations.

One count said Miss Coplon delivered to Gubitchev "information relating to the national defense, to wit: documents, writings and notes containing intelligence reports relating to espionage and counter-espionage activities in the United States."

The two were arrested last Friday after FBI agents had trailed them through Manhattan.

No Immunity

Gubitchev was suspended from s United Nations post Saturday. Officials of the world organization said he did not have diplomatic immunity although Soviet officials have unsuccessfully sought his release.

The other counts charged that:

Miss Coplon and Gubitchev conspired between themselves and with other persons unknown to defraud the United States by obstructing the functions of the Justice Department and FBI and by depriving the Government of the "honest, conscientious and faithful services" of Miss Coplon.

Miss Coplon unlawfully possessed documents containing intelligence reports relating to national defense and that she gave such documents to the Russian.

Gubitchev unlawfully attempted to obtain from Miss Coplon reports relating to espionage and counter-espionage activities in the United States.

The conspiracy count listed three meetings—the one last Friday and previous contacts alleged to have occurred January 14 and February 18 in Manhattan.

Honor Graduate

The conspiracy count also charged that Miss Coplon obtained the Justice Department information with reason to believe that it "was to be used to the injury of the United States and to the advantage of a foreign nation."

Miss Coplon, an honor graduate of Barnard College whose family lives in Brooklyn, is held in $20,000 bail. Gubitchev is in jail under $100,000 bail.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson yesterday turned down a second demand to release Gubitchev, but agreed to consider the matter further.

Wartime Capital Offense

Thomas J. Donegan, special assistant to the Attorney General, said Gubitchev, if convicted, faced a maximum of fifteen years in prison and a $20,000 fine.

Miss Coplon would be liable to a maximum sentence of 35 years in prison and a $20,000 fine, he said.

The fourth count, on which Miss Coplon alone was indicted, carries a maximum twenty-year penalty in peacetime and up to death or thirty years in jail in time of war.

Early Trial Sought

That is the count which charges the young woman Government worker with attempting to deliver national defense papers to Gubitchev to the injury of the United States and to the benefit of a foreign power.

Donegan said the Government would ask for an early trial when the defendants are arraigned tomorrow.

Security Inquiry Leads To Firing

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The Army Department said today it has dismissed as disloyal a civilian employé who was suspended and brought home from Germany last January for investigation.

The Army identified him as Samuel L. Wahrhaftig, 33, of Brooklyn, Ill., who was an analyst in the political activities section of the Americtn Military Government in Berlin.

An Army official said the Department's action was taken on the basis of an FBI investigation.

Given List Of Charges

At the same time that Wahrhftig was given notice of his dismissal yesterday, he received a statement of charges against him, the Army representative said.

He will have 30 days in which to appeal to a security review board for a hearing.

The Army declined to detail the charges against Wahrhaftig, asserting that it was up to him to do so if he wished.

Red-Front Mail-Labeling Bill Is Considered

MAR 10 1949

Washington, March 10 (AP)—A House committee began consideration today of a bill to put a Red identification on all mail from Communist-front organizations.

Penalties of $5,000 fine and five years in jail would be meted out to "front" organizations mailing out literature under erroneous identification.

Similar provisions have been included in the more general Mundt-Nixon Communist control bill now before Congress.

The House measure, sponsored by Representative Rees (R., Kan.), would not forbid Communist groups to use the mails. Instead it would require that their literature be plainly marked as to its source, including a line saying the sender is a "Communist-Front Organization."

Committee members' comments at the start of hearings indicated sentiment for even more severe penalties and for simplication to permit authorities to act directly against individuals.

Roy C. Frank, associate solicitor of the Post Office Department, favored that idea and said the bill as written would be hard to enforce.

Under its provisions, the Postmaster General would be charged with deciding what was mislabeled Communist propaganda. He, in turn, would be required to request a full investigation by the Attorney General to determine if the organization using the mails was in fact a Communist front.

Several Bomb Units Equipped For Atom War, Air Force Says

MAR 10 1949

FRIDAY 11th

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The United States Air Force has several long-range bomber groups specially trained and equipped for dropping atom bombs, it was learned tonight.

For some time after the wartime atomic attacks on Japan there was only a single unit, the 509th Group, specializing in A-bomb technique.

However, officials said tonight, the modernization of the entire Air Force to fit new concepts of warfare naturally has included expansion of special atomic warfare skill to other units.

Came After Announcement

The disclosure of the increase in A-bomb specialist groups developed out of an announcement of routine overseas training schedules for B-29 groups. The list included the 509th Group. In answer to a question, an Air Force official said:

"The specialized quality once attributed to the 509th no longer prevails; there are now other groups."

The identity and number of the other atom bomb groups were not disclosed.

The 509th, based at Walker Field, N.M., is among three B-29 air groups scheduled to go overseas at different times during April, May and June under the routine rotation training program.

The program started in 1947. It is intended to give all B-29 units experience in various parts of the world.

Officials emphasized that there was no significance to the overseas trips by the A-bomb groups along with the others.

By the end of this year, all of the Air Force's B-29 groups will have had experience in trans-ocean and foreign operations under the program.

The three units scheduled to leave during the April-June period will replace two groups—the 92d from Spokane, Wash., and the 307th from Macdill Base, Fla.—now stationed in England. A third group returned from England several weeks ago.

Replacement Units Named

The replacement groups will be the 509th, the 28th from Rapid City, S.D., and the 98th from Spokane.

During the usual three-month tours of duty in Europe, the B-29's are based at airfields in England.

In their normal training operations, single planes or small elements fly over western Germany, southeastward to Saudi Arabia, south to Dakar and take swings out over the Atlantic.

Churchill Tells Of Fears During Third-Term Battle

MAR 10 1949

New York, March 10 (AP)—Winston Churchill writes in his war memoirs that he learned of President Roosevelt's third-term re-election with "indescribable relief."

The second volume of the memoirs is being serialized in Life magazine and the New York Times.

The former Prime Minister says he wrote this to Roosevelt November 6, 1940, the day after the election:

"I did not think it right for me as a foreigner to express any opinion upon American politics while the election was on, but I feel you will not mind my saying that I prayed for your success and that I am truly thankful for it."

Awaited With Anxiety

Churchill writes he had awaited the result with "profound anxiety" although the opponents in the election, Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie, both came out squarely for aid to Britain.

"No newcomer into power could possess or soon acquire the knowledge and experience of Franklin Roosevelt," Churchill says.

"None could equal his commanding gifts. . . .

"To close the slowly built-up comradeship, to break the continuity of all our discussions, to begin again with a new mind and personality, seemed to me a repellent prospect."

He Presents Britain's Plight

The war leader tells of a 4,000-word letter he sent to Roosevelt on December 8, 1940, a month after the election, which Churchill says played a key role in the genesis of the lend-lease program.

This letter he described as "one of the most important I ever wrote."

It reviewed the whole course of the war and then told of Britain's serious financial plight, explaining that $4,500,000,000 in cash already had been paid to the United States for arms and other supplies needed to carry on the war.

Britain had only $2,000,000,000 in dollar resources left and the greater part of this was in investments not readily marketable, the letter said.

After Victory . . . Bankruptcy

"I believe," the letter declared, "you will agree that it would be wrong in principle and mutually disadvantageous in effect if at the height of this struggle Great Britain were to be divested of all salable assets, so that after the victory was won with our blood, civilization saver, and the time gained for the United States to be fully armed against all eventualities, we should stand stripped to the bone."

The letter reached Roosevelt while he was cruising in the Caribbean on the cruiser Tuscaloosa, Churchill writes.

F.D.R. Brooded Two Days

He says Harry Hopkins, a presidential aide, told him later that Roosevelt read and reread the letter, then sat brooding about it for two days.

The idea of lendlease already had originated in the Treasury Department with the strong backing of Secretary Henry Morgenthau, the wartime Prime Minister says.

He adds it was never a question of Roosevelt "not knowing what he wanted to do" but rather a question of whether he could carry the country and Congress with him on the revolutionary proposal.

Admiral Halsey Leaves Philadelphia Hospital

Philadelphia, March 3 (AP)—Fleet Admiral William F. Halsey has been discharged from Philadelphia Naval Hospital fully recovered from a minor respiratory infection, navy officials reported today.

LONDON, MARCH 10-(AP)-AUSTRIA ASKED THE BIG FOUR TODAY TO WRITE HER INDEPENDENCE TREATY NOW, WITH OR WITHOUT YUGOSLAVIA'S AGREEMENT AND END THE FOUR-POWER MILITARY OCCUPATION AT ONCE.

AUSTRIAN FOREIGN MINISTER KARL GRUBER MADE THE APPEAL AFTER YUGOSLAVIA REFUSED AGAIN TO GIVE UP HER CLAIMS FOR TERRITORY AND WAR REPARATIONS FROM AUSTRIA.

WESTERN DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID YUGOSLAVIA'S STAND THREATENED TO BREAK DOWN THE RENEWED EFFORTS OF THE FOUR POWERS' DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS TO FIND A PEACE SETTLEMENT FOR AUSTRIA. THE DEPUTIES HAVE BEEN TRYING SINCE FEB.11 TO WRITE A TREATY ESTABLISHING AUSTRIA AS AN INDEPENDENT STATE. THIS CONFERENCE IS THE THIRD SINCE 1946 ON THE AUSTRIAN PROBLEM. THE OTHERS ALSO BROKE DOWN ON YUGOSLAV CLAIMS, SUPPORTED BY RUSSIA AND OPPOSED BY THE WEST.

GRUBER SAID HE HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED BY HIS GOVERNMENT TO REQUEST "PEACE FOR AUSTRIA NOW--A PEACE WHICH ENDS THIS LONG-LASTING OCCUPATION." HE SAID IF YUGOSLAV CLAIMS BOG DOWN THE TALKS, THERE SHOULD BE "RECOGNITION OF THE AUSTRIAN FRONTIERS WITHOUT FURTHER DELAY."

"THERE IS NO JUSTIFICATION WHATSOEVER FOR FURTHER HOLDING UP THIS CONFERENCE THROUGH YUGOSLAV OBJECTIONS," GRUBER SAID.

AN AMERICAN SOURCE SAID THE WEST FAVORS AN IMMEDIATE SHOWDOWN WITH RUSSIA ON THE YUGOSLAV CLAIMS.

"NO LONGER IS YUGOSLAVIA RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF THIS TREATY," HE SAID. "IT IS THE SOVIET UNION."

THERE WAS SOME INDICATION THAT WESTERN OFFICIALS HOPED FOR A CONCESSION FROM THE RUSSIANS TO KEEP THE TALKS GOING.

YUGOSLAVIA DEMANDS FRONTIER CHANGES, AUTONOMY FOR SLOVENE-POPULATED CARINTHIA, AND SUBSTANTIAL REPARATIONS, ALL OPPOSED BY AUSTRIA. YUGOSLAV DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ALES BEBLER SAID HIS COUNTRY HAS MADE ALL THE CONCESSIONS SHE INTENDS TO MAKE, AND IF THE CONFERENCE FAILS, THE WEST WILL BE RESPONSIBLE.

UNLESS RUSSIA WITHDRAWS HER SUPPORT OF YUGOSLAVIA, THE TALKS WILL FAIL AGAIN.

LONDON, MARCH 10-(AP)-WAR MINISTER EMANUEL SHINWELL PROMISED TODAY BRITAIN WILL HELP EQUIP ITS BRUSSELS TREATY PARTNERS FOR MILITARY ACTION EVEN IF IT HAS TO "DRAW SUBSTANTIALLY ON OUR OWN RESERVES."

A "VITAL PART" OF BRITISH ARMY PLANNING, HE SAID, "IS IN THE PROVISION OF EQUIPMENT AND IN THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONCERTED ACTION IN EMERGENCY."

SHINWELL WAS SUBMITTING TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THE ARMY'S REQUEST FOR AN APPROPRIATION OF £304,700,000 ($1,218,800,000) FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING APRIL 1.

THIS IS £300,000 ($1,200,000) LESS THAN LAST YEAR'S REQUEST. THE ARMY WILL DECREASE TO 550,000 IN THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR, A REDUCTION OF ABOUT 300,000 MEN.

SHINWELL SAW BRITAIN'S DEFENSE ROLE THIS WAY:

"THE MOST VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION WE CAN MAKE TO FURTHERING THE WESTERN UNION PACT IS BY PROVIDING THE MOST UP TO DATE EQUIPMENT FOR OUR OWN FORCES AND BY PUSHING ON RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT."

HE ASSURED THE HOUSE THAT BRITAIN HAS A "SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER" OF RESERVES FOR USE "SHOULD MOBILIZATION BE NECESSARY, NOW OR AT ANY TIME IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE."

LONDON, FRIDAY, MARCH 11-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS TODAY MADE THIS COMMENT ON THE ARREST OF SOVIET ENGINEER VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV INDICTED IN NEW YORK YESTERDAY ON SPYING CHARGES:

"GUBITCHEV'S ARREST AND ALL CIRCUMSTANCES CONNECTED WITH IT SHOW TO WHAT BAREFACED METHODS THE AMERICAN AUTHORITIES RESORT IN FABRICATING 'SHAM' CASES AGAINST SOVIET CITIZENS, IN PURSUING AIMS HOSTILE TO THE SOVIET UNION."

THE SOVIET MONITOR IN LONDON DISTRIBUTED THE TASS DISPATCH WHICH WAS UNDER A NEW YORK DATELINE AND TOLD OF THE INDICTMENT OF GUBITCHEV AND JUDITH COPLON, 27-YEAR OLD JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ANALYST. IT ALSO REFERRED TO SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN'S DIPLOMATIC PROTEST AT THE F.B.I. ARREST OF THE SOVIET ENGINEER WHO HAD BEEN EMPLOYED BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

LONDON, MARCH 10-(AP)-THE HOUSE OF LORDS WAS TOLD LAST NIGHT COMMUNIST SPIES AND TERRORISTS ARE AT WORK IN ENGLAND.

LORD ROBERT G. VANSITTART, LONG TIME CAREER DIPLOMAT URGED THE LABOR GOVERNMENT TO TAKE ACTION "THAT CANNOT BE MISUNDERSTOOD" AGAINST THE "CONSPIRATORS."

DISTINGUISHED LONDON EXILES FROM IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES, VANSITTART ASSERTED, SAY THEY ARE AFRAID TO GO OUT ALONE AFTER DARK BECAUSE OF THESE AGENTS.

LORD WILLIAM W. HENDERSON, REPLYING FOR THE GOVERNMENT, SAID IT

KNOWS WHAT IS GOING ON AND IS ON GUARD.
HENDERSON SAID THE ALLEGED COMMUNIST INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES ARE A FLOP BECAUSE "TOTALITARIAN DIPLOMATS NOW HESITATE TO REPORT ANYTHING THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY LINE."
VANSITTART SAID ONE MAN IN THE CZECHOSLOVAK EMBASSY HERE WAS INVOLVED IN SMUGGLING IN JEWELRY IN FALSE-BOTTOM DIPLOMATIC BAGS. THE MAN AND AN ACCOMPLICE BAGS. FRANKFURT, MARCH 10-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS DISCLOSED PLANS TODAY TO PERMIT FOREIGN BUSINESSMEN AND TOURISTS TO LIVE DIRECTLY ON THE GERMAN ECONOMY. THIS MEANS THEY CAN PAY IN DEUTSCHE MARKS, THE SAME AS GERMANS, INSTEAD OF IN DOLLARS.

THEY WILL BE ABLE TO OBTAIN THE DEUTSCHE MARKS IN EXCHANGE FOR ANY HARD CURRENCY, THESE OFFICIALS SAID.

MAR 10 1949

BUT THEY INDICATED THERE WILL BE SOME KIND OF CONTROL TO PREVENT THE EXCHANGES BEING MADE AT INFLATED BACK MARKET RATES.

UNDER THE PLAN, THE JOINT EXPORT-IMPORT AGENCY (JEIA) WILL RELINQUISH ALL CONTROL OVER 118 GERMAN HOTELS. THESE HAVE BEEN OPERATED BY GERMANS UNDER JEIA LICENSES ON THE DOLLAR COUPON PLAN.

THE MOVE IS EXPECTED TO PERMIT AN UPSURGE HERE IN THE NUMBER OF FOREIGN BUYERS AND TOURISTS WHO LACK DOLLARS.

OFFICIALS TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS JEIA'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS VOTED LAST WEEK TO ABANDON THE SYSTEM REQUIRING VISITORS TO PAY IN DOLLARS FOR HOTELS AND MEALS.

AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE NEW ARRANGEMENT WILL GO INTO EFFECT POSSIBLY WITHIN A MONTH, AND DEFINITELY BY THE TIME THE NEW WEST GERMAN STATE STARTS FUNCTIONING.

UNDER THE PRESENT SYSTEM, ALL VISITORS TO PAY DOLLARS FOR COUPONS WHICH ARE ACCEPTED IN PAYMENT FOR ROOMS AND MEALS.

THE DOLLARS GO TO JEIA TO HELP FINANCE IMPORTS FOR WESTERN GERMANY. JEIA IN TURN REIMBURSES THE HOTELS IN DEUTSCHE MARKS.

THE NEW PLAN PROVIDES THAT FOREIGN VISITORS WILL RECEIVE GERMAN RATION BOOKS, REQUIRED IN RESTAURANTS FOR MEATS, FATS AND CEREALS.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS FIRST PROPOSED THAT EACH VISITOR BE REQUIRED TO PURCHASE A MINIMUM OF 15 DEUTSCHE MARKS $4.50) A DAY AT GERMAN BANKS. THIS THIE WAS INTENDED TO PREVENT CONVERSION OF DOLLARS INTO DEUTSCHE MARKS ON THE BLACK MARKET. ONE AMERICAN MILITARY SCRIP DOLLAR BRINGS ABOUT SEVEN DEUTSCHE MARKS ON THE BLACK MARKET. THE OFFICIAL EXCHANGE RATE IS THREE DEUTSCHE MARKS FOR ONE DOLLAR.

OFFICIALS SAID JEIA'S DIRECTORS REJECTED THIS PLAN, AND ASKED THEIR EXPERTS TO FORMULATE ANOTHER. THE DETAILS ARE NOT KNOWN.

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, MARCH 10-(AP)-THE SITUATION AROUND AQABA, BRITISH-PROTECTED TRANS-JORDAN PORT, REMAINED OBSCURE TODAY.

THE TRANS-JORDAN DEFENSE MINISTRY ADDED NO FURTHER INFORMATION TO ITS ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY THAT THE TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION HAD "STOPPED" ISRAELI FORCES HEADED TOWARD AQABA AT A POINT 32 MILES FROM THE PORT, AN OUTLET TO THE RED SEA.

A BRIEF COMMUNIQUE SAID PART OF THE JEWISH FORCE "WAS ABLE TO REACH" RAS EL NAKAB.

(THIS MIGHT BE CONSTRUED TO MEAN RAS EL NAQB, 10 MILES NORTHWEST OF AQABA AT THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN FRONTIER.)

RELIABLE TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES GAVE THIS PICTURE:

THE JEWISH FORCES CONSISTED OF AN ENTIRE BRIGADE, EQUIPPED WITH HEAVY TANKS AND 75 MILLIMETER GUNS.

THEY SAID THE MAIN PART OF THE ISRAELI FORCE, PROCEEDING SOUTHWARD ALONG THE ARABA VALLEY -- THE BOUNDARY OF PALESTINE AND TRANS-JORDAN -- WAS REPULSED BY ARAB LEGION FORCES ENCAMPED ON THE TRANS-JORDAN SIDE OF THE VALLEY.

DURING THE FIGHT, THESE SOURCES SAID, PART OF THE ISRAELI FORCES INFILTRATED INTO WADI ELRICHA AND PIERCED FIVE MILES INTO TRANS-JORDAN BEFORE BEING TURNED BACK.

IN TEL AVIV, THE ISRAELI MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS SAID IT HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF FIGHTING BETWEEN ISRAELI AND ARAB LEGION TROOPS. IT SAID NO ISRAELI TROOPS WERE OPERATING OUTSIDE OF ISRAEL TERRITORY.

(AN ISRAELI SPOKESMAN AT LAKE SUCCESS INTERPRETED THE REPORTS OF THE CLASH TO INDICATE THAT TRANS-JORDAN TROOPS HAD MOVED ILLEGALLY ONTO ISRAELI TERRITORY.)

THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA IS ON THE GULF OF AQABA. THE GULF IS A JOINT OUTLET TO THE RED SEA FOR BOTH ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN. THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN ASSIGNED A 10-MILE COASTAL STRIP ON THE WEST, PART OF THE NEGEV DESERT AREA, TO ISRAEL.

IN SPITE OF THE DELICATE SITUATION REPORTED AROUND AQABA, DELEGATES FROM ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN HELD A JOINT SESSION AT RHODES YESTERDAY IN UNITED NATIONS-SPONSORED ARMISTICE TALKS. THESE DISCUSSIONS ARE AIMED AT SETTLING THE ARAB-JEWISH WAR THAT BROKE OUT LAST MAY.

(BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID IN LONDON THEY HAD RECEIVED REPORTS FROM TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES THAT FIGHTING HAD BROKEN OUT IN THE EASTERN NEGEV. THEY SAID THE SITUATION WAS "VERY DANGEROUS." BRITISH TROOPS MOVED INTO AQABA LATE LAST YEAR UNDER THE TERMS OF A MUTUAL DEFENSE TREATY WITH TRANS-JORDAN.)

RHODES, MARCH 10-(AP)-TRANS-JORDAN CALLED TODAY UPON THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR "TO HALT ISRAELI ATTACKS" IN THE REGION NEAR AQABA WHILE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS ARE IN PROGRESS.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED BY A U.N. SPOKESMAN WHO SAID A FORMAL COMPLAINT WAS RECEIVED FROM THE TRANS-JORDAN REPRESENTATIVE ABOUT CLASHES BETWEEN ISRAELI TROOPS AND TRANS-JORDAN FORCES.

THE COMPLAINT GAVE NO SPECIFIC DETAILS, BUT SAID ISRAELI FORCES WERE "ATTACKING ARAB LEGIONNAIRES WITH TANKS AND ARMORED CARS," THE SPOKESMAN ADDED.

THE IMMEDIATE REACTION OF DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, THE ACTING MEDIATOR, WAS TO ORDER MORE U.N. OBSERVERS INTO THE AREA BETWEEN THE SOUTH END OF THE DEAD SEA AND THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT CITY OF AQABA.

BUNCHE ASKED BRIG.GEN. WILLIAM E.RILEY, CHIEF OF STAFF FOR U.N. OBSERVER IN PALESTINE, TO ORDER AS THOROUGH INVESTIGATION AS POSSIBLE OF THE SITUATION AT THE LOWER TIP OF THE NEGEV.

EARLIER THE ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN ARMISTICE DELEGATIONS MET FOR FOUR AND A HALF HOURS DISCUSSING THE MILITARY SITUATION IN THE NEGEV AND THE CONCLUSION OF A FORMAL CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT.

A U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID DR.REUBEN SHILOAH, ISRAELI DELEGATE HERE, TOLD BUNCHE THAT ISRAELI FORCES IN THE AREA ARE "ENGAGED IN NOTHING BUT NORMAL PATROLLING, WHICH IS ESSENTIAL IN A SECTOR WHERE THERE ARE NO FIGHTING LINES."

BUNCHE RECEIVED FOUR COMPLAINTS FROM AMMAN ALLEGING TRUCE BREACHES BY ISRAEL, ALL IN THE EASTERN NEGEV BETWEEN THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA AND AQABA.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MARCH 10-(AP)-AN ISRAELI MILITARY SPOKESMAN DENIED AGAIN TODAY THERE HAD BEEN ANY ARMED CLASHES ALONG THE TRANS-JORDAN FRONTIER FROM SODOM ON THE DEAD SEA TO AQABA ON THE RED SEA.

HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON LONDON AND AMMAN REPORTS THAT AN ISRAELI MECHANIZED FORCE WAS MOVING DOWN TOWARD THE ISRAELI STRETCH OF RED SEA COAST JUST WEST OF AQABA.

"I WOULD NOT DISCUSS JEWISH MILITARY MOVEMENTS FROM TEL AVIV TO PETAH TIQUA (A SUBURB)" HE SAID, "WHY SHOULD I COMMENT ON MOVEMENTS ANYWHERE ELSE IN OUR TERRITORY?"

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT "AS FAR AS I KNOW," NO TRANS-JORDAN NOR BRITISH FORCES WERE ANYWHERE ASTRIDE THE ROAD JUST INSIDE ISRAELI SOIL FROM SODOM TO NEAR AQABA, HE SAID:

PRAVDA SAID STALIN'S SPEECH TO THE LAST CONGRESS MADE A CORRECT PREDICTION OF HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS. MOSCOW XXX MONTHS.

PRAVDA SAID THE SOVIET LEADER'S 1939 PREDICATIONS WERE MADE "IN CIRCUMSTANCES OF STRAINED INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, MILITARY AGGRESSION, THE BREAKDOWN OF THE POSTWAR SYSTEM OF PEACE TREATIES, THE WICKED POLICY OF APPEASEMENT AND SYSTEMATIC CONCESSIONS TO AGGRESSORS ON THE PART OF THE RULING CIRCLES OF ENGLAND, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES, WHICH WERE A CRITICAL THREAT TO THE PEOPLE OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

"STALIN EXPOSED THE PLANS OF THE WARMONGERS FROM MUNICH AND THEIR POLICY, WHICH WAS TO ISOLATE THE U.S.S.R. INTERNATIONALLY AND DIRECT HITLER'S AGGRESSION TO THE EAST AGAINST THE U.S.S.R."

MOSCOW, MARCH 10-(AP)-V.M.MOLOTOV, MYSTERY MAN OF THE SOVIET HIGH COMMAND, SHOWED UP TODAY AT THE RIGHT HAND OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN AT THE SUPREME SOVIET'S JOINT SESSION ON THE BUDGET.

MOLOTOV RELINQUISHED THE POST OF FOREIGN MINISTER RECENTLY, BUT RETAINED THAT OF FIRST DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, SECOND ONLY TO STALIN HIMSELF.

ALSO WITH STALIN WAS A.I.MIKOYAN, ANOTHER DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, WHO STEPPED OUT AS FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER IN THE TOP-LEVEL REALIGNMENT. THE TWO SHARED THE CHEERS WITH STALIN.

MEANWHILE, FINLAND'S SOCIALIST PREMIER, KARL A.FAGERHOLM, WAS CRITICIZED TODAY IN MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS. THE ARTICLES QUOTED A FINNISH NEWSPAPER ACCOUNT OF "A SECRET MEETING OF FAGERHOLM AND AN AMERICAN MILITARY ATTACHE." MOSCOW -XXX MONTHS.

THE FINNISH NEWSPAPER NY TID WAS QUOTED AS DECLARING THAT IF FAGERHOLM REALLY WANTS TO STOP HIS WESTERN AND NORTHERN "INTRIGUES" THE GOVERNMENT POLICY MUST BE CHANGED.

FAGERHOLM'S GOVERNMENT, UNDER ATTACK BY COMMUNISTS IN FINLAND, RECENTLY SURVIVED A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN PARLIAMENT BY A TWO-VOTE MARGIN.

THE SOVIET FINANCE MINISTER'S BITTER ATTACK TONIGHT ON THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WAS NOTED BY WESTERN OBSERVERS. ZVEREV ACCUSED THE TWO WESTERN NATIONS OF "AGGRESSIVE POLICIES" DIRECTED AT "WORLD DOMINATION."

THESE "AGGRESSIVE INTENTIONS," HE DECLARED, ARE PROVED BY THE MILITARY BUDGETS OF THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH GOVERNMENTS. HE CITED THESE FIGURES WHICH HE SAID PROVED HIS CONTENTION:

THE SOVIET UNION WILL ALLOCATE 19 PER CENT OF HER TOTAL EXPENDITURES DURING 1949 TO MAINTAIN HER ARMED FORCES. IN THE UNITED STATES BUDGET 38 PER CENT IS ALLOCATED DIRECTLY TO THE MILITARY AND THE TOTAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT ALLOCATION RUNS OVER 50 PER CENT, HE CONTENDED.

THE WESTERN OBSERVERS ALSO NOTED THAT THE NEW SOVIET BUDGET APPARENTLY CONTAINS A TEMENDOUS JUMP IN ALLOCATIONS TO CAPITAL INVESTMENTS.

MAR 10 1949

ZVEREV SAID THE BUDGET PROVIDES 79,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES FOR NEW INVESTMENTS AS COMPARED WITH 50,000,000,000 (B) LAST YEAR. HE ADDED THAT SOVIET ENTERPRISES WOULD PROVIDE, ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE, AN ADDITIONAL 25,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES IN CAPITAL INVESTMENTS OUT OF THEIR OWN FUNDS THIS YEAR, COMPARED WITH ONLY 9,000,000,000 (B) LAST YEAR.

THIS WAS INTERPRETED AS ILLUSTRATING THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S DETERMINATION TO SPEED UP ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT.

THE BUDGET CALLS ALSO FOR AN INCREASE IN GENERAL ECONOMIC SPENDING, OF WHICH CAPITAL INVESTMENT IS A PART. A 13 PER CENT RISE IS PROVIDED IN SOCIAL AND CULTURAL SPENDING, TO TOTAL 119,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES. SOCIAL AND CULTURAL EXPENDITURES INCLUDE SUCH ITEMS AS EDUCATION, SOCIAL INSURANCE, SOCIAL SECURITY, SCIENCE AND MOTHER'S AID.

ZVEREV ATTACKED THE INEFFICIENCY OF MANY SOVIET CONSTRUCTION ORGANIZATIONS. HE DEMANDED THAT THEY USE THEIR RESOURCES MTRE EFFECTIVELY ANB SPEED UP PUTTING NEW FACTORIES AND BUILDINGS INTO OPERATION.

HE ALSO CALLED FOR AN INTENSIFIED DRIVE TO REDUCE THE COST OF PRODUCING MANUFACTURED GOODS AND FOR A SPEEDUP IN THE CIRCULATION OF WORKING CAPITAL.

MANY ENTERPRISES, THE FINANCE MINISTER SAID, STILL ARE MAINTAINING GREATER INVENTORIES THAN NECESSARY.

ZVEREV APPEARED BEFORE PARLIAMENT FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE NEW DARK BROWN UNIFORM OF THE SOVIET FINANCIAL SERVICE. IN PREVIOUS YEARS HE WORE CIVILIAN CLOTHES WHEN HE MADE HIS BUDGET SPEECHES.

AN OFFICIAL OF THE AMERICAN EMBASSY SAID TODAY THE APPLICATIONS ARE BEING FORWARDED TO WASHINGTON WHERE FAST, FAVORABLE ACTION IS EXPECTED.

THE SIX WERE INVITED TO NEW YORK BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS TO ATTEND AN INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE (CAPS C S C W P) AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL MARCH 25-27.

TO REACH NEW YORK IN TIME FOR THE OPENING SESSION, THEY PROBABLY WILL FLY.

THE APPLICANTS BESIDES SHOSTAKOVICH ARE:

A.L.OPARIN, ACTING SECRETARY OF THE BIOLOGICAL SECTION OF THE SOVIET ACADEMY OF SCIENCES. HE WAS APPOINTED TO THE POST LAST AUGUST AFTER CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSION ON THE MERITS OF COMMUNIST AND BOURGEOIS BIOLOGY. HE FAVORS THE FORMER.

ALEXANDER FADAYEV, AUTHOR OF THE FILM "YOUNG GUARD," FOR WHICH SHOSTAKOVICH WROTE THE MUSIC.

SERGEI GERASIMOV, FILM PRODUCER.

PETR PAVLENKO, NOVELIST WHO WON THE STALIN PRIZE FOR HIS BOOK "HAPPINESS."

--DASH--

THE CONGRESS OF SOVIET COMPOSERS DENOUNCED SHOSTAKOVICH LAST APRIL 24 FOR WRITING "FORMALIST, DECADENT, BOURGEOIS MUSIC", AND AGAIN THE NEXT DAY FOR HIS "INDIVIDUALISTIC TRENDS". THE COMPOSER APOLOGIZED, PROMISED TO DO BETTER AND MADE HIS PEACE WITH THE RULING GROUP OF SOVIET MUSICIANS.

HE IS BEST KNOWN IN THE U.S. FOR HIS SYMPHONIES, WHICH HAVE BEEN WIDELY PLAYED AND RECORDED, AND FOR HIS TWO BALLETS "THE AGE OF GOLD" AND "THE AGE OF STEEL."

OPARIN GOT HIS JOB FOLLOWING A BIOLOGICAL CONTROVERSY WHICH HAS HAD INTERNATIONAL REPERCUSSIONS.

THE SOVIET ACADEMY FIRED TWO SCIENTISTS AND LIQUIDATED A LABORATORY WHOSE VIEWS ON HEREDITY AND ENVIRONMENT DID NOT CONFORM TO THE VIEWS HELD BY THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY THAT ENVIRONMENT IS THE PRIME FACTOR IN DETERMINING THE CHARACTERISTICS OF ALL LIVING THINGS -- PLANTS, ANIMALS AND HUMAN BEINGS.

THIS CONTRADICTS MENDEL'S LAW, WHICH WAS PREVIOUSLY THE UNIVERSAL CRITERION FOR JUDGING HEREDITY.

THE LYSENKO THEORY HAS BEEN ATTACKED BY SCIENTISTS IN WESTERN COUNTRIES AND LED TO A BREAK IN RELATIONS BETWEEN THE MOSCOW ACADEMY AND THE BRITISH ROYAL SOCIETY.

DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY, DIRECTOR OF THE HARVARD UNIVERSITY OBSERVATORY, IS CHAIRMAN OF THE NCASP. HE SAID FEB. 21 THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT AND NOT THE COUNCIL HAD CHOSEN THE MEN WHO WILL REPRESENT RUSSIA.

SHAPLEY SAID THAT PERSONS FROM 30 FOREIGN COUNTRIES HAD BEEN INVITED, AS WELL AS 400 UNITED STATES EDUCATORS, SCIENTISTS, WRITERS, ARTISTS AND OTHERS. HE SAID THE AIM OF THE CONFERENCE IS "TO WORK TOWARDS SOLUTIONS THAT WILL EMPHASIZE THE ULTIMATE FOLLY OF WAR AND THE MORAL APPEAL OF A WORLD UNITED AGAINST HUMAN POVERTY, IGNORANCE, DISEASE AND BASELESS SUSPICION."

MOSCOW, MARCH 10-(AP)-THE AMERICAN EMBASSY SAID TODAY DMITRI SHOSTAKOVICH, NOTED RUSSIAN COMPOSER, HAS APPLIED FOR A VISA TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES.

SHOSTAKOVICH, WHOSE WORKS HAVE COME UNDER OFFICIAL CRITICISM IN RECENT YEARS, WILL BE A GUEST AT THE CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE SCHEDULED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS.

FIVE OTHER SOVIET ARTISTS WILL ATTEND THE CONFERENCE, TO BE HELD AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA HOTEL IN NEW YORK ON MARCH 25, 26 AND 27. THEY ALSO MADE APPLICATION FOR VISAS TODAY.

AN EMBASSY OFFICIAL SAID THE VISA REQUESTS PROBABLY WILL BE ACTED UPON FAVORABLY IN THE NEAR FUTURE. HE SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD ASKED FOR QUICK ACTION.

THE OFFICIAL SAID THE REQUESTS WILL BE REFERRED TO WASHINGTON, ACCORDING TO CUSTOM.

MAR 10 1949

THE OTHER APPLICANTS INCLUDE ALEXANDER FADAYEV AUTHOR AND GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE UNION OF SOVIET WRITERS; SERGEI GERASIMOV, FILM PRODUCER; PETER PAVLENTO, MOVIE DIRECTOR AND NOVELIST; MIKHAIL CHIAURELI, FILM PRODUCER, AND A. L. OPARIN, ACTING SECRETARY OF THE BIOLOGICAL SECTION OF THE SOVIET ACADEMY OF SCIENCES.

--DASH--

THE GROUP IS THE FIRST IMPORTANT SOVIET CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC DELEGATION AUTHORIZED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES IN SOME TIME.

DR. HARLOW SHAPLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL, SAID WORD OF THE ACCEPTANCES CAME IN A LETTER FROM ALEXANDRE S. PANYUSHKIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES.

SHOSTAKOVICH WAS ACCUSED OF "BOURGEOIS TENDENCIES" IN HIS MUSIC BY THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN MOSCOW A YEAR AGO, AND HAS SEEN FIT TO APOLOGIZE FOR HIS "MISTAKES."

DR. SHAPLEY, DIRECTOR OF THE HARVARD OBSERVATORY, SAID THE AIM OF THE CONFERENCE WILL BE "TO WORK TOWARD SOLUTIONS THAT WILL EMPHASIZE THE ULTIMATE FOLLY OF WAR AND THE MORAL APPEAL OF A WORLD UNITED AGAINST HUMAN POVERTY, IGNORANCE, DISEASE AND BASELESS SUSPICION."

IN ADDITION TO PERSONS FROM 30 FOREIGN COUNTRIES, 400 UNITED STATES EDUCATORS, SCIENTISTS, WRITERS, ARTISTS AND OTHERS HAVE BEEN INVITED.

MOSCOW, MARCH 10-(AP)-RUSSIA'S TWO-HOUSE PARLIAMENT, CONVENED IN JOINT SESSION, WAS TOLD TODAY RUSSIA'S DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1949 WILL BE 79,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES-- ABOUT $15,000,000,000. IT IS 19 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL ESTIMATED BUDGET FOR 1949.

THE DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1948 WAS 66,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES.

PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND HIS TOP-RANKING MINISTERS HEARD THE FIGURES, READ BY THE FINANCE MINISTER AFTER THE ECHOES OF CHEERS FOR THE SOVIET LEADER FADED.

(THE UNITED STATES DEFENSE BUDGET PENDING BEFORE CONGRESS IS A PEACETIME RECORD $14,268,000,000 (B). BRITAIN'S DEFENSE BUDGET, BIGGEST SINCE POST-WAR DEMOBILIZATION, IS ABOUT $3,039,000,000.)

THE TOTAL EXPECTED EXPENDITURES FOR 1949 WILL BE 415,355,000,000 (B) RUBLES. TOTAL EXPECTED REVENUE FOR THE YEAR IS 445,208,000,000, WHICH WOULD LEAVE A SURPLUS OF MORE THAN 29,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES.

THE COUNCIL OF THE UNION AND THE COUNCIL OF NATIONALITIES, EQUAL HOUSES OF THE SUPREME SOVIET OF THE U.S.S.R., VOTED SOON AFTER CONVENING TO TAKE UP THE CONSIDERATION OF THE BUDGET. THE MEETING IS CLOSELY WATCHED BY THE WEST FOR CLUES TO RUSSIAN INTENTIONS.

FOY KOHLER, U.S.CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, WAS IN THE DIPLOMATIC GALLERY WITH NUMEROUS OTHER FOREIGN ENVOYS. BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR MAURICE PETERSON WAS NOT PRESENT, BUT THE FRENCH AND SCANDINAVIAN ENVOYS WERE THERE.

FINANCE MINISTER ARSENY G.ZVEREV SAID THE PLANNED EXPENDITURES FOR THE ARMED FORCES WOULD "SAFEGUARD THE FREEDOM AND INDEPENDENCE OF OUR COUNTRY." HE ADDED THATTHE SOVIET UNION'S POLICY OF "WORLD PEACE" WOULD CONTINUE. THEN HE ATTACKED THE UNITED STATES, BLAMING AMERICANS FOR THE PRESENT TROUBLED INTERNATIONAL SITUATION.

THE MILITARY BUDGET FIGURE FOR 1949 IS ACTUALLY 12,792,000,000 RUBLES OVER THE ACTUAL EXPENDITURES LAST YEAR OF ABOUT 66,000,000,000 RUBLES. PART OF THIS, SAID ZVEREV, COULD BE EXPLAINED BY HIGHER WHOLE-SALE COSTS BECAUSE OF THE ABOLITION OF STATE SUBSIDIES.

HOWEVER, REFERRING TO THE INCREASES IN THE MILITARY BUDGETS OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, ZVEREV SAID THEY SHOWED "AGGRESSIVE POLICIES."

THE OVERALL BUDGET, HIGHEST IN SOVIET HISTORY, IS 46,600,000,000 RUBLES MORE THAN LAST YEAR'S TOTAL.

MAR 10 1949

PRIME MINISTER STALIN WAS PRESENT WHEN THE JOINT SESSION WAS OPENED IN THE GREAT PALACE OF THE KREMLIN. BOTH HOUSES CHEERED AS HE ENTERED THE HALL, ACCOMPANIED BY V.M.MOLOTOV, HIS FIRST DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, AND A.I.MIKOYAN, ALSO A DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER.

BOTH MOLOTOV AND MIKOYAN FIGURED IN THE RECENT TOP-LEVEL CABINET SHIFTS, THE FORMER RELINQUISHING THE POST OF FOREIGN MINISTER TO A.Y.VISHINSKY, THE LATTER STEPPING OUT OF THE POST OF FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER.

VISHINSKY WAS PRESENT TOO, WEARING HIS GRAY DIPLOMATIC UNIFORM. HE SAT IN THE GOVERNMENT BOX NEXT TO THE TRIBUNAL.

STALIN LOOKED HIS USUAL SELF. HE WALKED TO THE ELEVATED TRIBUNAL AND TOOK HIS PLACE, AND THE OTHER HIGH-RANKING MEMBERS OF THE PARTY AND THE GOVERNMENT TOOK PLACES TO THE RIGHT AND LEFT OF HIM.

THE MORE THAN 1,000 DELEGATES, MANY IN THE COLORFUL NATIONAL COSTUMES OF THEIR REPUBLICS, CHEERED AGAIN AND THEN SETTLED DOWN TO THE READING OF THE 1949 BUDGET BY FINANCE MINISTER A.G.ZVEREV.

THE WORLD--AND ITS ENVOYS TO RUSSIA--HAD AN EAR COCKED FOR ANSWERS TO MANY BURNING QUESTIONS WHICH MAY BE HEARD IN THE SESSIONS OF THE SUPREME SOVIET, THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY BODY.

WHAT LIES BEHIND RUSSIA'S RECENT SHAKEUP OF GOVERNMENT LEADERS?

WHAT MILITARY EXPENDITURES DOES RUSSIA PROPOSE FOR THE COMING MONTHS?

HOW HAS RUSSIAN ECONOMY REACTED TO RECENT FAR-REACHING GOVERNMENTAL DECREES?

SOME--POSSIBLY ALL--OF THE ANSWERS ARE EXPECTED TO BE HEARD BEFORE THIS FIFTH CONVENTION OF THE SECOND SUPREME SOVIET CLOSES. WHETHER THEY WILL BE FULL OR PARTIAL ANSWERS REMAINED TO BE SEEN.

FROM THE FAR CORNERS OF RUSSIA'S BROAD REACHES THE NEARLY 2,000 LEGISLATORS CAME IN COLORFUL GROUPS, SPEAKING MANY LANGUAGES AND ATTIRED IN THE CHARACTERISTIC GARB OF THEIR REGIONS.

THEY COMPOSE TWO PARLIAMENTARY CHAMBERS HAVING EQUAL STATUS, THE COUNCIL OF THE UNION AND THE COUNCIL OF NATIONALITIES. THE CHAMBERS' SEPARATE MEETINGS THIS MORNING ARE TO BE FOLLOWED BY A JOINT SESSION AT WHICH THE PROPOSED NATIONAL BUDGET FOR 1949 WILL BE PRESENTED FOR THEIR CONSIDERATION.

LAST YEAR'S BUDGET OF 380,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES, THE BIGGEST IN SOVIET HISTORY, INCLUDED 66,000,000,000 (B) RUBLES FOR DEFENSE. THE DEFENSE ITEM WAS ABOUT 2,500,000,000 (B) LESS THAN FOR 1947 WHILE THE TOTAL BUDGET WAS UP 9,000,000,000 (B).

FOREIGN OBSERVERS, ESPECIALLY FROM THE WEST, NOTING RISING BUDGETS IN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN FOR THEIR ARMED FORCES, ARE INTENSELY CURIOUS TO KNOW WHAT RUSSIA PLANS TO SPEND FOR HER MILITARY SERVICES.

(A BUDGET PROPOSING TOTAL EXPENDITURES OF $41,858,000,000 (B) INCLUDING $14,300,000,000 FOR DEFENSE IS PENDING IN THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS. THE HOUSE OF COMMONS HAS APPROVED BRITAIN'S BIGGEST DEFENSE BUDGET SINCE POST-WAR DEMOBILIZATION, $3,039,000,000 (B).

(THERE IS NO FREE MARKET TO DETERMINE THE VALUE OF THE RUBLE IN INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE. THE RUBLE IS WORTH ABOUT 19 CENTS, HOWEVER, AT PRESENT OFFICIAL EXCHANGE RATES.

(RUSSIA DEVALUED THE RUBLE IN DECEMBER, 1947, DECREEING THE EXCHANGE OF MOST OLD RUBLES--10 FOR ONE NEW RUBLE. THE DECREE LEFT WAGE AND SALARY RATES UNCHANGED, AND CUT SOME CONSUMER PRICES.

(THE SWEEPING ORDER CAME AFTER ROBERT A.LOVETT, THEN UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, AND OTHER WASHINGTON SOURCES HAD REPORTED A "BUYING PANIC" AND RUNS ON BANKS IN THE SOVIET UNION. FURTHER CUTS IN THE PRICES OF MANY GOODS AND COMMODITIES HAVE BEEN MADE SINCE.)

THE KREMLIN'S MONETARY AND PRICE DECREES WERE ANNOUNCED AS INTENDED TO CONTROL INFLATION AND GIVE THE PEOPLE HIGHER LIVING STANDARDS. THEY SEEM DESIGNED ALSO TO PLACE THE RUBLE IN COMPETITION WITH THE DOLLAR AND THE POUND STERLING IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE. THE RUBLE HAS BEEN MADE THE PRICE STANDARD IN THIS YEAR'S TRADE TREATIES WITH POLAND AND ROMANIA. RUSSIA PREVIOUSLY HAD STATED PRICES IN FOREIGN CURRENCY IN MANY TRADE TREATIES.

WHEN, HOW AND IF THERE WOULD BE AN EXPLANATION OF RECENT CABINET SHIFTS WERE MATTERS OF SPECULATION. THE BIG MEETING, HOWEVER, WOULD PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN AUTHORITATIVE PUBLIC STATEMENT OF WHAT LIES BEHIND THE CHANGES. THEY WERE ANNOUNCED ONLY IN TERSE STATEMENTS IN THE PRESS.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY, MARCH 10-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER NECMEDDIN SADAK SAID TODAY TURKEY EVENTUALLY WANTS A MEDITERRANEAN ALLIANCE.

RETURNING FROM LONDON AND PARIS, SADAK SAID HE CONFERRED WITH GREEK FOREIGN MINISTER CONSTANTINE TSALDARIS AND THEIR VIEWS WERE IN CONFORMITY.

"IT IS TURKEY'S AIM THAT AN AGREEMENT CAPABLE OF INSURING PEACE AND SECURITY IN THIS IMPORTANT REGION OF EUROPE BE REACHED, BUT THERE IS NOTHING POSITIVE FOR THE MOMENT," SADAK SAID IN A STATEMENT. YESTERDAY IN BRUSSELS HE SAID THAT ANY TALK OF TURKEY TAKING PART IN A MEDITERRANEAN PACT EVENTUALLY TO BE JOINED TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC

ALLIANCE WAS PREMATURE.
TURKEY'S IDEA OF A MEDITERRANEAN DEFENSE AGREEMENT WOULD BRING IN GREECE, ITALY, FRANCE, BRITAIN AND POSSIBLY SPAIN. BOTH NOW RECEIVE U.S. AID UNDER THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE TO STEM THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM.

BANGKOK,SIAM,MARCH 10-(AP)-THE BANGKOK POST, PUBLISHED BY ALEXANDER MACDONALD, U.S. NEWSPAPERMAN, WAS NOTIFIED TODAY POLICE CENSORSHIP WOULD BEGIN FRIDAY.

THE NOTICE SAID CENSORSHIP WAS BEING IMPOSED UNDER EMERGENCY REGULATIONS GROWING OUT OF THE RECENT ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT BY ARMED VIOLENCE.

THE POST IN AN EDITORIAL SAID "IT MAY BE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE ACTING AS IT THOUGHT BEST FOR THE KINGDOM IN CENSORING CERTAIN NEWSPAPERS, INCLUDING THE POST."

"BUT CENSORS SHOULD REMEMBER," IT ADDED, "THAT IT IS AN ACT, NOT A NEWSPAPER COMMENT ON AN ACT, THAT IS THE ACTUAL CAUSE OF UNREST."

(ALTHOUGH THE GOVERNMENT ASSERTED THE DISORDERS LATE IN FEBRUARY WERE DUE TO A "MISUNDERSTANDING" AMONG ARMY, NAVY AND MARINE FORCES, THERE WAS EVIDENCE IT WAS AN ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE REGIME OF PREMIER PIBUL SONGGRAM.

PRESS REPORTS SAID REBELLING KAREN TRIBESMEN, FIGHTING FO THEIR OWN INDEPENDENT STATE, WERE WITHIN 20 MILES OF THE CENTRAL BURMA CITY MADE FAMOUS BY RUDYARD KIPLING.

BURMA HAS BEEN IN A STATE OF GREAT UNREST SINCE IT BECAME AN INDEPENDENT NATION LITTLE MORE THAN A YEAR AGO, AFTER A LONG PERIOD OF BRITISH RULE. THE GOVERNMENT HAS HAD TO FIGHT UPRISINGS OF KARENS AND OF COMMUNIST ELEMENTS.

WHILE GOVERNMENT TROOPS REGROUPED AT MANDALAY, ADDING EMERGENCY AIRSTRIPS AND TAKING OTHER MEASURES, ANOTHER KAREN THRUST WAS REPORTED NEAR PEGU, 50 MILES NORTH OF RANGOON, THE CAPITAL CITY.

A STAFF CORRESPONDENT OF THE INDEPENDENT ENGLISH DAILY, NATION, SAID THREE TOWNS ON THE RANGOON-MANDALAY RAILROAD IN THE PEGU AREA WERE UNDER ATTACK BY KAREN AND COMMUNIST FORCES.

HE REPORTED BITTER FIGHTING AND SAID THE GOVERNMENT WAS RUSHING IN REINFORCEMENTS.

IN THE MANDALAY AREA, THE KARENS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE PUSHED FORWARD FROM MAYMO, A FORMER GOVERNMENT ARMY POST THEY CAPTURED EARLIER.

THE KARENS, PRESS REPORTS SAID, HAVE ADVANCED ABOUT 20 MILES ALONG A WINDING ROADWAY CUT INTO A HILLSIDE. MAYMO IS 40 MILES NORTH OF MANDALAY.

NANKING, MARCH 10-(AP)-A PRESIDENTIAL COMMITTEE TODAY COMPLETED THE FIRST DRAFT OF ITS PEACE PROPOSALS TO THE COMMUNISTS.

THE PROPOSALS WILL BE SUBMITTED TO ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN. SOURCES CLOSE TO THE COMMITTEE SAID THE RECOMMENDATIONS WERE COUCHED IN GENERAL TERMS. CONSIDERABLE ROOM WAS REPOBTED LEFT FOR REORGANIZATION OF THE GOVERNMENT UPON COMMUNIST TERMS THROUGH REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

THE TOUCHY QUESTION OF WAR CRIMINALS WAS DODGED FOR LATER CONSIDERATION. THE RECOMMENDATIONS CALL FOR REORGANIZATION OF COMMUNIST AND GOVERNMENT FORCES INTO A SINGLE NATIONAL ARMY.

ONE COMMITTEEMAN DESCRIBED THE PROPOSALS AS A COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE EIGHT POINT DEMANDS OF COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG AND TERMS OUTLINED BY CHIANG KAI-SHEK ON NEW YEAR'S DAY -- BEFORE HE RETIRED AS PRESIDENT.

POLITICAL OBSERVERS ARE NOT TAKING THE FIRST DRAFT TOO SERIOUSLY. THEY THINK IT WILL BE REVISED MANY TIMES BEFORE BEING SUBMITTED TO THE COMMUNISTS.

OBSERVERS EXPECT PRESIDENT LI TO NOMINATE GEN. HO YING-CHIN AS PREMIER IN THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN TOMORROW. PREMIER SUN FO, WHO HEADS THE PRESIDENTIAL PEACE COMMITTEE, RESIGNED WITH HIS CABINET TUESDAY.

HO HAS NOT ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY THAT HE WILL ACCEPT THE POST.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN, GEN. TENG WEN-YI, DURING THE DAY DENIED THE GOVERNMENT WAS CONSIDERING ABOLITION OF CONSCRIPTION. SUN FO PREVIOUSLY HAD ANNOUNCED SUCH A PLAN WAS BEING WORKED OUT.

TENG SAID CONSCRIPTION WAS NECESSARY. HOWEVER, THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN TOMORROW WILL CONSIDER A RESOLUTION TO ABOLISH IT.

TENG CONFIRMED REPORTS THAT SHIPPING ON THE YANGTZE RIVER HAS BEEN SUSPENDED IN THE VICINITY OF CHINKIANG, ABOUT 40 MILES EAST OF NANKING. HE SAID THE ACTION WAS TAKEN BECAUSE OF INTENSIFIED COMMUNIST TROOP MOVEMENTS TOWARD THE RIVER IN THAT AREA.

TENG ASSERTED THAT MORE THAN 250,000 RED TROOPS HAD PUSHED CLOSE TO THE NORTH BANK OF THE RIVER. HE ADDED THAT REDS NORTH OF KIANGSU HAD MUSTERED 1,000 RUBBER BOATS AND 500 JUNKS FOR A CROSSING THERE.

NEUTRAL OBSERVERS SAID THE GOVERNMENT OF ABOUT 50,000 COMMUNIST TROOPS IN THE GRAND CANAL NORTH OF NANKING HAD BEEN NOTED LAST WEEK.

BUT THEY EXPRESSED DOUBT ANY LARGE SCALE COMMUNIST PUSH TOWARD THE YANGTZE HAD STARTED.

(UNDER PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT CHINA, AT WAR WITH JAPAN, WAS GIVEN MUCH WAR MATERIAL AS WELL AS OTHER SUPPLIES. THE PRESENT ECA PROGRAM CALLS FOR NO WAR MATERIAL.)

ON MONDAY THE PAPER BLAMED AMERICAN AID FOR PROLONGING THE CIVIL WAR. SHANGHAI, MARCH 10-(AP)-DONALD HASSIG, AMERICAN PILOT, THINKS PIRATES WHO SEIZED HIS PLANE IN THE AIR ON JAN. 30 DID IT JUST FOR A RIDE TO TSINAN.

HASSIG, BACK HERE AFTER BEING HELD CAPTIVE IN THE COMMUNIST CITY, REVEALED TODAY THAT ONE OF THE SIX PIRATES WAS A WOMAN WITH A SMALL BABY.

THE INGLEWOOD, CALIF., PILOT FOR CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORP., SAID THE GROUP APPARENTLY WAS UNEXPECTED IN TSINAN. EARLIER REPORTS HAD SAID THE SIX PIRATES WERE POSSIBLY COMMUNIST AGENTS. HASSIG DOUBTS IT.

THE PIRATES TOOK OVER THE PLANE AT GUNPOINT 20 MINUTES OUT OF SHANGHAI ON A FLIGHT TO TSINGTAO. HASSIG SAID ONE OF THE GUNMEN FLEW THE PLANE TO TSINAN BUT ALMOST CRACKED UP TRYING TO LAND IT. FINALLY HASSIG'S CO-PILOT, C.L.HSU, WAS CALLED FROM THE PASSENGER COMPARTMENT TO LAND THE PLANE.

"WE WERE TOLD WE WOULD BE ALLOWED TO GO TO TSINGTAO THE SAME DAY OR THE DAY AFTER," HASSIG SAID, "BUT INSTEAD WE WERE HELD IN A TSINAN HOTEL FOR 38 DAYS."

DURING THE PERIOD HASSIG, TWO CREWMEN AND EIGHT OTHER PASSENGERS WERE HELD, THE AMERICAN SAID, HE WAS QUESTIONED OFTEN BY COMMUNISTS. MOSTLY, HE SAID, THEY WANTED HIS PERSONAL HISTORY.

HE SAID THE PIRATES VISITED HIM SEVERAL TIMES AND SEEMED TO THINK THEY HAD "PULLED A FAST ONE."

HASSIG SAID AT FIRST HE WAS DENIED PERMISSION TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE AMERICAN CONSUL IN PEIPING, BUT LATER HE WAS ALLOWED TO WRITE LETTERS THERE AND TO HIS OFFICE HERE. HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER ANY OF THE LETTERS HAD BEEN DELIVERED.

LAST SATURDAY NIGHT, HASSIG SAID, THE PRISONERS WERE PUT ABOARD A PLANE. THEY FLEW ALL NIGHT. ALL OF SUNDAY THEY RODE IN A TRUCK. AFTER THAT THEY REACHED THE OUTSKIRTS OF TSINGTAO ON BICYCLES, IN CHINESE WHEELBARROWS AND BY WALKING.

THE EIGHT PASSENGERS, INCLUDING TWO GERMANS, JOSEPH KAUFHOLD AND W.HAESLOOP, REMAINED IN TSINGTAO. HASSIG AND THE TWO CNAC EMPLOYES RETURNED HERE.

CNAC OFFICIALS AGREED WITH HASSIG THAT APPARENTLY ALL THE PIRATES WANTED WAS A FLIGHT TO TSINAN. THEY SAID THERE WERE NO VALUABLES ABOARD THE PLANE.

MANILA, MARCH 10-(AP)-FIFTEEN THOUSAND PHILIPPINES VETERANS AND UNRECOGNIZED GUERRILLAS TODAY STAGED AN ORDERLY DEMONSTRATION ON THE MALACANAN PALACE GROUNDS.

THEY PRESSED THEIR REQUESTS FOR LARGER BENEFITS AND FULL BACK PAY FOR WAR SERVICE.

PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO TOLD THE PENSION HUNGRY THRONG THAT THEIR DEMANDS COULD NOT BE MET FULLY IF THE PHILIPPINES CONTINUED "IN A STATE OF COMMOTION." HE REFERRED TO A QUARREL IN THE SENATE THAT HAS PARALYZED CONGRESSIONAL ACTION FOR 18 DAYS.

WHITE HELMETED PRESIDENTIAL GUARDS FLANKED THE PALACE GROUNDS DURING THE QUIET DEMONSTRATION.

PLACARDS CARRIED BY THE VETERANS CRACKED AT BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA. ONE READ: "UNCLE SAM HAS FORSAKEN US, HE'S GOT A NEW FRIEND -- JAPAN. STALIN IS AMUSED."

ANOTHER PLACARD READ: "COMBAT COMMUNISM BY STOPPING LAND GRABBERS."

QUIRINO PROMISED ALL POSSIBLE AID TO THEM. BUT HE POINTED OUT THE GOVERNMENT LACKED MONEY AND WAS UNABLE TO INDUSTRIALIZE, REHABILITATE ITSELF OR MEET THE VETERANS NEEDS DUE TO POLITICAL "COMMOTION."

HE MADE SIX PROVISIONAL PROMISES, INCLUDING ONE TO ASK THE U.S. TO RE-EXAMINE GUERRILLA RECOGNITION. THE U.S. CLOSED ITS ROSTER OF RECOGNIZED GUERRILLAS LAST JUNE.

DEPOSED SENATE PRESIDENT JOSE AVELINO MADE A NEW EFFORT TO REGAIN HIS LOST OFFICE. HE ASKED THE SUPREME COURT TO RECONSIDER A PETITION CHARGING HE WAS OUSTED ILLEGALLY. THE COURT RULED ON MARCH 4 THAT IT HAD NO JURISDICTION TO INTERFERE IN THE CONTROVERSY THAT HAS DIVIDED THE UPPER HOUSE.

THE CIVILIAN CHIEF FIRE ADMINISTRATOR AT GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS WAS ACCUSED OF STRIKING AND USING PROVOCATIVE LANGUAGE IN ADDRESSING LT.COL. JOHN A.JIMERSON OF PERU, NEB., IN A TRAFFIC ARGUMENT ON DEC. 29.

WHEN THE APRI'S AUTOMOBILE AND JEEP ALMOST MET HEADON IN A STREET, ANGELL TESTIFIED JIMERSON YELLED: "I AM A LIEUTENANT COLONEL IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY. GET YOUR CAR OUT OF THE WAY."

JIMERSON TESTIFIED ANGELL (WHO SAYS HE WAS ON WALTER CAMP'S 1915 ALL-AMERICA TEAM, AND ONCE BROKE GEN.DWIGHT EISENHOWER'S LEG IN A TACKLE DURING A WEST POINT FOOTBALL GAME), STRUCK HIM TWICE AND SAID: "YOU MAY BE A LIEUTENANT COLONEL IN THE ARMY BUT THAT'S JUST HORSE MANURE TO ME."

HALF A DOZEN WITNESSES DIFFERED AS TO WHAT HAPPENED AFTER THAT.
ANGELL SAID HE ADDED: "EVEN IF YOU ARE A LIEUTENANT COLONEL THAT DOESN'T GIVE YOU THE RIGHT TO DRIVE ON THE WRONG SIDE OF THE ROAD." BUT HE DENIED STRIKING JIMERSON.
DEFENSE COUNSEL FRANK O'NEILL OF MILTON, MASS., ANOTHER CIVILIAN, ARGUED UNSUCCESSFULLY THAT IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN PUBLICLY CALLED A MAN AN "S.O.B." THAT WAS FREE SPEECH AND THE SAME SHOULD HOLD GOOD HERE.
PROSECUTOR FRANK J.CAMPBELL OF HOUSTON, TEX., CONTENDED THE SITUATION WAS DIFFERENT. HE SAID THE PRESIDENT'S TARGET WAS NOT UNDER THE ARTICLES OF WAR LIKE ARMY CIVILIAN EMPLOYES IN JAPAN.

Mediterranean Security And Peace Reported As Aim

A. EAVSHAN

London, March 11 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today Russia has asked the Turkish Foreign Office about Turkey's interest in a proposed Mediterranean regional defense treaty.

Turkey was reported to have told Russia the suggested alliance would be defensive in character, would aim to secure peace and security in the Mediterranean and would not be aimed against the Soviet Union.

British informants said Moscow could be expected to express strong disapproval of Turkish participation in a Mediterranean alliance, if and when such a treaty begins to take shape.

First Reports From Ankara

Turkey is urging Mediterranean powers of like mind to organize an alliance which later could be linked to the North Atlantic treaty now being negotiated in Washington. The Italian Government decided today to participate in the Atlantic accord, which would ally the United States and Canada with western European nations.

First reports in London concerning Russia's move in connection with the Mediterranean treaty came from the British Embassy in Ankara.

Subsequently a spokesman for the Turkish Embassy here said Alexander Lavrichev, Soviet Ambassador to Ankara, had raised the matter in the course of a talk at the Turkish Foreign Office. Lavrichev's inquiry was described as unofficial by the Turkish spokesman.

Talks With Bevin

Cevat Acikalin, Turkish Ambassador to London, discussed the Soviet inquiry with Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, yesterday.

Necmeddin Sadak, Turkish Foreign Minister, has had talks on the subject of a Mediterranean alliance with Bevin and Foreign Ministers Robert Schuman, of France, and Constantin Tsaldaris, of Greece, in the last few weeks.

Turkey, like Greece, now receives United States aid to help her maintain and improve the efficiency of her armed forces. Since the end of the war Russia has made overtures to Turkey for joint control of the Dardanelles, the link between the Mediterranean and Black seas, and for the possession of some Turkish territory along the Soviet border.

Russ Quiz Turks On Regional Pact

(D)

London, March 11 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said the British Embassy at Ankara informed the Foreign Office today Russia has "inquired" about Turkey's interest in a Mediterranean regional defense treaty.

Turkey is urging Mediterranean powers of like mind to organize a Mediterranean alliance which later could be linked with the projected North Atlantic treaty.

Turkish Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak has talked on the subject with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Foreign Ministers Robert Schuman of France and Constantine Tsaldaris of Greece recently.

Russ Disapproval Seen

British diplomats said Russia could be expected to disapprove Turkish entry into a Mediterranean accord if the alliance begins to take shape. Russia, since the end of the war, has asked Turkey for joint control of the Dardanelles—the entry to the Black Sea—and for possession of some Turkish territory along the Russian border.

'FAKE REVOLT' IN PRAGUE SEEN

BBC Predicts Communist Move To Wipe Out Political Foes

London, March 11 (AP)—The British radio broadcast a report tonight that Czechoslovak Communists plan a "fake revolution" as an excuse to wipe out political foes.

The Free Czech Information Service said last night a bloody purge will occur soon under the guise of suppressing an uprising and that a severe split exists among Czech Communists, who seized power thirteen months ago.

Program Beamed To Czechs

"The breach has widened beyond repair," the Information Service said, "at the same time the falling standard of living, the lack of freedom and the intolerable adjustment of public and private life to Soviet standards is causing widespread dissatisfaction which has created an atmosphere of constant tension and alarm for Communists."

The B.B.C. program was beamed to Czechoslovakia and prepared by Bruce Lockhart, former British diplomat. He said the revolt being planned is a "counter revolution to destroy the soul of the nation." He said his information came from "thoroughly reliable sources in Czechoslovakia."

Reported Planned For Spring

The Free Czechoslovakia movement here said steps are being taken to warn "democratic partisans" against traps. A spokesman said the Communists plan to make the "revolution" look like the real thing, lively enough to bring opponents into the open but of proportions easily managed by police and troops. The spectacle was reported planned for early spring, possibly when the Atlantic charter is signed.

The Free Czech spokesman said it may be a step by Russia to take absolute control of the land as an answer to the Atlantic treaty.

British Stress Help From U.S. In White Paper

MAR 11 1949

Report Lists Progress to Economic Independence With E. C. A.'s Support

LONDON, March 11 (AP).—The British government said today it feels "reasonable satisfaction" with the country's progress toward economic independence under the Marshall plan. The statement was made in a White Paper covering the last three months of 1948 and looking forward to more progress in co-operation with other countries of Western Europe.

The British government recognizes "the need for developing popular knowledge of the important part played by American aid in fortifying the recovery effort of the United Kingdom," the White Paper noted.

"It is also seeking to promote a full understanding by the British people of the need for co-operation with the other members of the organization for European Economic Co-operation (the O. E. E. C.) in the solution of the difficulties of Western Europe as a whole."

The feeling of "reasonable satisfaction" with this country's progress was said to be based on these factors:

1. "The remarkable production achievement" of Great Britain, which "would not have been possible without the very important general support to the economy given by American aid."

2. "An estimate that Britain "must have approached very close" to balance in its trading accounts with all the rest of the world, but the White Paper warned that "this improvement in the over-all position should not be allowed to obscure the still serious dollar deficit." Near-balance has been achieved by surpluses with non-dollar countries.

3. An increase in trade among European countries.

The White Paper said that in the last three months of 1948 Britain exported £114,843,000 ($459,372,000) to O. E. E. C. countries, a rise of £4,416,000 ($17,664,000) as compared with the preceding three months.

In the same period, British imports from O. E. E. C. nations rose to £111,564,000 ($446,256,000). This was an increase as compared with the preceding three months of £17,409,000 ($69,636,000).

At least part of this increase can be attributed to the influence of the agreement for intro-European payments. Under that agreement, some O. E. E. C. countries contribute their own currency to a common pool. Other O. E. E. C. countries can draw from the pool to finance imports of European products.

Rise In Dollar Reserves

British progress in this period was largely helped by expansion of exports to a level nearly 1½ times that of 1938. Imports continued to be held at about four fifths of 1938.

The Marshall-plan funds paid Britain $428,000,000 for gold and dollars which Britain spent in the last quarter of 1948 and in earlier periods.

That gave Britain a net increase of $80,000,000 in its dollar reserves during the last three months of 1948, but the reserves "were still $380,000,000 less" at the end of 1948 than they were in April, the white paper said.

BRITAIN REDUCES DEFENSE BUDGET

London, March 11 (A. P.).—The House of Commons has approved a defense budget calling for a cutdown but highly mobile army using much made-over equipment. The 304,700,000-pound ($1,218,800,000) measure was adopted yesterday without a record vote. It provides for an army of 550,000 men in the year starting April 1, a reduction of 300,000. The budget is 300,000 pounds ($1,200,000) less than for the current year.

War Minister Emanuel Shinwell told the House the budget was planned with the idea of concerted action with Britain's Brussels treaty partners if emergency arose. They are France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. G. WILLIAMS

Britain, he said, although unable to afford men and materials for a vast program of arms production, must find means to help those partners rearm even though this would require that she "draw substantially on our own reserves." Behind the army, he said, is a trained reserve of formidable proportions which never will fall below half a million men.

R. T. Paget, Laborite, who helped to pilot the bill through the House, told Commons that western Europe and Britain can rely on "the great American reserves in any war that one contemplates. America, to a large extent, fulfills what used to be a reserve problem." Russia, he declared, has a potential army strength of 550 divisions which western Europe cannot match numerically.

END RISK INSURANCE IN EVENT OF WAR

MAR 11 1949

London, March 11 (A. P.).—Lloyd's in the notice concerning notice that, effective March 28, war risk insurance on ships will end forty-eight hours after the outbreak of any war between any of the Big Four.

London and Liverpool marine insurance companies joined with Lloyds in the notice concerning ships of the United States, Great Britain, France and Russia.

The new arrangement applies both to ships in service and those under construction. In the case of ships at sea when war starts, the war risk insurance will end the midnight following their next safe mooring.

French Cabinet Wins Test

Obtains Only a 7-Vote Margin on Indo-China Question

PARIS, March 11 (AP).—Premier Henri Queuille's moderate government won a test in the National Assembly today by a majority of only seven votes.

The count was 294 to 287 in favor of taking up at once a government bill to create a legislature in Cochin-China, a part of French Indo-China. The Cabinet had not staked its life on the bill by asking for a vote of confidence, but its position would have been weakened if it had lost.

Communists and the anti-Communist followers of General Charles de Gaulle voted together against the middle-of-the-roaders.

Russ Powder-Mill Blast Is Reported Fatal To 41

Frankfurt, Germany, March 11 (AP)—The newspaper Neue Presse today reported the death of 41 German workers in an explosion of a powder factory near Bautzen, in Soviet-occupied Saxony.

The paper said the explosion occured in the Goda factory, which manufacturers powder for Soviet occupation authorities.

The French-licensed Berlin Kurier, which also published the report, said the explosion occurred in February.

Because the plant is working for the Russians, the paper said, the accident was cloaked with secrecy.

The Kurier did not identify the plant's production beyond saying that it is a gunpowder plant.

Thirteen Killed In Reich Explosion

(N)

Brunswick, Germany, March 11 (AP)—An explosion ripped through a British scrap-iron dump near Brunswick today, killing thirteen workers and injuring 68 others. The victims were Germans and displaced persons, mainly Poles.

The explostion occurred while scrap in the dump was being prepared for export. The process involved dropping a heavy metal ball on heaps of metal castings to crush them into convenient shapes for handling.

British officials theorized that an explosive charge hidden in the scrap was touched off during the crushing operation. The explosive may have been placed there during the war so that German owners could destroy the dump, or a mine or bomb may have gotten mixed in accidentally with the scrap. The blast was heard 11 miles away. An investigation was ordered.

41 Killed In Soviet Zone

Meanwhile, west German newspapers published accounts of a recent blast reported to have killed 41 Germans at a powder factory in the Soviet zone.

The Frankfurt Neue Presse said the blast shook the Goda powder factory near Bautzen, in Saxony. The French-licensed Berlin Kurier said the explosion occurred in February, but the matter was hushed up because the plant is working for the Russians.

Soviet authorities decreed the death penalty for economic sabotage in their sector of Berlin.

The order, reported today by the Soviet-licensed German news agency, ADN, said the death penalty would be pronounced in serious cases. Other offenders would be liable to imprisonment for up to fifteen years.

Freight Robbery Drive

The order described the crime as sabotage or subversive actions "aimed at paralyzing, damaging or wrecking industry, production and economic measures of German democratic self-government organs." It also was issued, ADN said, to intensify the campaign against robbery of mail and waterborne freight.

German Communist leaders have blamed what they call Western-initiated acts of sabotage for inefficiency of industry, low production and transport difficulties in the Russian-occupied portion of Germany.

Scrap Dump Explodes

Brunswick, Germany, March 11 (AP)—An explosion at a British scrap-iron dump near here killed 13 workers today and injured 36.

The casualties were Germans and displaced persons, mainly Poles, working at the dump. (D)

The scrap was being cut for export. British officials said the explosion came when a heavy metal ball dropped on heaps of heavy metal castings to crush them for convenient handling. The officials conjectured an explosive charge was hidden among the scrap. They said the explosive might have been hidden during the war so German owners could destroy the dump. The explosion was heard 11 miles.

U.S. SHIPPING TANKS TO REICH CONSTABULARY

Rearms Troops To Make Former Border Patrol A Combat Outfit

J. J. DEVLIN

Augsburg, Germany, March 11 (AP)—United States Army officials said today tanks are being shipped from the United States to Germany to rearm American troops here.

This is a reversal of the policy in the early postwar years when tanks used in battle were being sent back to the United States.

It stems from the reorganization of the United States constabulary, starting last fall, from a highway and border partol unit to a combat outfit.

MAR 11 1949

An army announcement today said the constabulary now "is a streamlined tactical organization, composed of two brigades, three armored cavalry regiments, an artillery group and supporting units."

40 Tanks To Battalion

Constabulary officers said each regiment consists of three battalions, each with 40 tanks, for an indicated total of 360, most of which were brought from the United States during the last six months.

These tanks are in addition to a smaller number in the 1st Division, the only other American ground force combat unit in Germany.

The officers said at a military review here the overall tank strength was small, however, compared with the force that could be launched against them in the event the American zone were attacked.

The constabulary staged the review to show what it had in the way of defense since its reorganization. Putting on the show was the 1st Battalion of the 2d Armored Cavalry Regiment, consisting of about 1,000 men and using 285 vehicles. Included among them were 40 tanks, seventeen medium and 23 light.

All At Full Strength

Reporters were taken on a tour of the armored outfit, which later roared in review across an airstrip adjacent to the bomb-battered and now idle former Messerschmitt fighter-plane factory.

Maj. Gen. Issac D. White, commanding general of the constabulary, took the salute.

Conducting officers were asked whether the other eight battalions were of equal strength, or whether some were "paper divisions."

They said that all were full strength and that some were "over strength."

BERLIN MARK ACTION SEEN

West Reported Ready To Drive East's Money Out Of Zone

(INS)

Berlin, March 11 (AP)—The Western Allies have agreed to drive the Soviet's east mark out of west Berlin, authoritative sources said today. This action will complete the split in the blockaded city's economy.

Allied officials hope, however, that it will:

1. Put the bankrupt city Government of the Western sectors back on its feet.

2. Restore order from the financial chaos in west Berlin, resulting from the use of two rival currencies.

3. Perhaps even pump new life into stagnating industries.

Could Refuse East Mark

The new money plan is expected to be announced within a few days. It would make the Deutschemark, sponsored by the United States, Britain and France, the only legal tender in their sectors. However, it would not "outlaw" the Soviet-sponsored east mark, which now circulates jointly.

Instead the plan would permit merchants and workers to refuse the east mark in payment. They are now compelled to accept it, cheaply regarded though it is.

The decision to take the step now may indicate hopes of a general Berlin settlement are gone. The currency question has been one of the main issues in the Soviet blockade of Berlin. Several international discussions, both inside and outside the United Nations, have failed to solve it.

Worth Four Times As Much

In every four-power talk aimed at lifting the blockade, it has been tentatively agreed to withdraw the west mark completely from Berlin — where it is surrounded by the Russian zone using only east marks. But the four powers have never been able to agree on ways of jointly controlling the east marks in Berlin.

The proposed sole use of west marks would help the city government. At present this government has to accept east marks as taxes, but must pay part of its salaries in west marks. Every west mark is worth four and one half times an east mark.

Dependence On Airlift

It is hard to predict how the change will affect the average wage earner. Now he gets about 25 per cent of his pay in west marks, the rest in east marks. He can use the east marks to buy most of his necessities.

With west Berlin's industries still dependent on the airlift for raw materials and coal, the money change could hardly bring a marked business revival.

But officials hoped the common currency would spur trade with western Germany and halt the removal of west marks from circulation by the current widespread hoarding.

Russ Set Death For Sabotage

MAR 11 1949

Berlin, March 11 (AP)—The Russians today decreed the death penalty for economic sabotage in their sector of Berlin.

The penalty was provided in an order from the Soviet authorities which said offenders were liable to imprisonment for up to fifteen years and that the death penalty would be pronounced in serious cases.

The order was reported by the Soviet-licensed German news agency, ADN, which described the crime as sabotage or subversive actions "aimed at paralyzing, damaging or wrecking industry, production and economic measures of German democratic self-government organs."

Saboteurs Blamed

German Reds have blamed what they call Western initiated acts of sabotage for the inefficiency of industry, low production and transport difficulties.

ADN said the order also was issued to intensify the campaign against the robbery of mail and water freight.

KRUPP MAKING LOCKS IN JAIL

Landsberg, Germany, March 11 (A. P.)—Alfred Krupp, once Germany's chief gunmaker, has resumed the trade of his ancestors—that of a locksmith. Serving a twelve-year term for war crimes at Landsberg, Krupp works at the anvil in the prison workshop, his defense counsel, Karl Arndt said today. He denied reports that Krupp was making toy guns in his prison cell.

Italian Government To Join Atlantic Pact

(INS)

Rome, March 11 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi announced today his Government has approved Italy's participation in the projected North Atlantic alliance.

His statement, made in the Chamber of Deputies, was followed by an attack on the proposed treaty by Communist and pro-Communist Socialist leaders. INSERT

Original European participants in the treaty talks were the five Brussels alliance powers—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Subsequently Norway joined in the negotiations and Denmark has moved toward participation. IN SERT

Comparison By Nenni

De Gasperi said the treaty includes provisions for mutual assistance, consultations if any member of the alliance is attacked, collective measures and contributions to defense. F. BUTTO

The Premier explained the collective defense measures do not automatically bind a signatory nation to wage active war.

Pietro Nenni, pro-Communist Socialist leader, said the Atlantic alliance was "not defensive, but offensive." Comparing Italy's plan to ally herself with the West to Mussolini's Axis hookup with Hitler Germany, Nenni declared:

"The decision of the Government today is as grave as the Fascist Government's decision of 1939."

Togliatti Assails Treaty

He accused de Gasperi of keeping the Atlantic treaty's clauses secret and demanded that they be revealed to Parliament. He also charged that the Cabinet had "more or less" signed the accord without prior parliamentary debate.

Palmiro Togliatti, the Moscow-trained Italian communist leader, said the Atlantic treaty "breaks the world in two." He described the Cabinet's decision as among the "gravest ever announced here—both as to foreign policy and the internal situation."

In an obvious reference to Italy's Communists and their Socialist allies, Togliatti said: "One cannot close his eyes to a part of humanity which numbers millions."

Italy Announces Intent To Sign Atlantic Pact (D)

Rome, March 11 (AP)—Italy's Government has approved participation in the Atlantic pact, Premier Alcide de Gasperi told Parliament today.

He said the Cabinet unanimously accepted an invitation to help in the final draft of an Atlantic defense system. Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza had informed the Cabinet earlier in the day of the principal conditions of the projected alliance.

Outlines Provisions

The Chamber of Deputies was crowded as De Gasperi made his announcement.

The Premier said the clauses of the new treaty are not yet public, but said they included provisions for mutual assistance, consultations if any member of the alliance is attacked, collective measures and contributions to defense.

The collective defense measures, De Gasperi added, do not automatically bind a signatory nation to wage active war.

Nenni Denounces Move

When the Premier ended his talk, Pietro Nenni, leader of the Socialist party's pro-Communist wing, launched an attack on the Government and the pact itself. He termed it "not defensive, but offensive."

"The decision of the Government today," he declared, "is as grave as the Fascist Government's decision of 1939." Thus he compared Italy's alliance with the West to Mussolini's Axis pact with Hitler Germany.

He accused De Gasperi of keeping the treaty terms secret and demanded that they be thrown open for parliamentary inspection.

Togliatti Joins Attack

Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's Communist leader, joined Nenni in the attack. The Atlantic alliance, Togliatti declared, "breaks the world in two."

MAR 11 1949

He warned that the Government's decision to ally itself with the West in the defense treaty was among the "gravest ever announced here—both as to foreign policy and internal situation."

"One cannot close his eyes to a part of humanity which numbers millions," he added in an obvious reference to Italy's Communist strength and the allied Socialists.

PLOT TO KILL GENERAL FAILS (N)

Greek Communists Held In Assassination Conspiracy

D. TRAVLOS

Athens, March 11 (AP)—A Communist plot to assassinate Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet has failed and the conspirators have been arrested, the Greek Government said today. Gen. Van Fleet is head of the American military mission to Greece.

Constantine Rentis, Minister of Public Order, said the plan to murder Van Fleet collapsed when the plotters were unable to think of a means of escape after the crime.

"God has protected us," Rentis said, and touched wood.

Security Measures Increased

"The reports that Communists were planning Van Fleet's assassination orginated from the arrest of a member of the 'Democratic Army of Athens,' which has replaced OPLA, the Communist party's execution squad," he said. "The aim of this group was to assassinate public figures in Athens and recalcitrant Communists."

Rentis said American security police were notified immediately and security measures were increased.

Communists arrested here have confessed knowledge of the plot, he added. A cache of weapons was reported seized.

Van Fleet, 57, was sent to Athens February 6, 1948, to help Greece under the American aid program.

Previous Threat Thwarted

He brought with him experience gained at such places as Remagen bridge, where Americans first crossed the Rhine in World War II, and other battles of the European campaign. Before coming to Greece he was assistant chief of staff in occupied Germany.

Van Fleet, from Coytesville, N.J., was graduated from West Point in 1915. He holds both the Distinguished Service Cross for combat service and the Distinguished Service Medal for executive planning.

Another attempt on the General's life was nipped last year when Greek troops discovered and removed dynamite from a railroad track over which his train was to pass.

Van Fleet travels frequently in many parts of Greece, sometimes guarded by only a few soldiers. In Athens he always has a bodyguard of Greek plainclothesmen.

Mr. Rentis said the Communists planned to blamed the assassination of General Van Fleet on the government, as they did in the case of George Polk, Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent slain at Salonika on May 8, 1948.

It was reported today that investigation of Mr. Polk's death has been completed and trial of the four accused Communists will begin soon. Government investigators are reported to have collected 600 pages of testimony from 160 witnesses.

Greeks Bare 'Plot To Kill' American (D)

Athens, March 11 (AP)—Minister of Public Order Constantine Rentis said today Communists had planned to assassinate Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, American commander in Greece.

Rentis said the alleged plan failed because the Communists could not arrange a means of escape. He said Communists arrested in Athens confessed knowledge of the plan. The Communists intended to blame Rightists for the assassination, Rentis declared.

13 U.S. Ships Arrive In Greece

Athens, March 11 (AP)—A squadron of thirteen ships of the United States Navy arrived in Phaleron Bay and Piraeus today.

Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, in command, visited Premier Themistokles Sophoulis and other Cabinet ministers.

The bulk of the fleet, including the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea and the cruisers Albany and Spokane, will remain until March 21. Five of the vessels will leave earlier, but eight more are due to arrive within a week.

How A Pig Can Claim Diplomatic Immunity

Bucharest, Romania, March 11 (AP)—Can a pig claim diplomatic immunity?

This problem worried members of the British legation here. Two British diplomats had bought a pig. It was fattened for them on the estate of a friend.

Last week the pig was taken by the Government, along with the rest of the estate's animals. The two diplomats claimed their pig but could not prove ownership.

Finally they got the reply to this knotty problem. Only pigs whose hindquarters are branded with a diplomat's initials could claim diplomatic immunity.

It's A Dilemma In Vienna

MAR 11 1949

Vienna, March 11 (AP)—You have to take this one slowly.

Some time ago eleven men were arrested by Austrian police for war crimes in Russia. Russia wants them. They are jailed in the American sector of Vienna. The Americans want to surrender them to the Russians.

The Russians refuse to accept the men from the Americans. They want the Americans to turn them over to the Austrians and the Austrians to turn the prisoners over to the Russians.

The United States said in the Allied Control Council today the Austrians have no say in this matter.

The whole thing was dropped after some confusing debate. The United States may try again to give the men to the Russians, but it is suspected the Russians still won't take them. It seems the Russians want to set a precedent which eventually would give them the right to demand any person jailed in any occupation zone.

POLE LOSES IMMUNITY

Wojcicki of Peasant Party, Who Tried to Flee, to Face Trial

WARSAW, March 11 (AP)—Parliament stripped Deputy Francis Wojcicki of his immunity from arrest today and ordered him handed over to a court for trial.

Mr. Wojcicki, former jurist and Polish Peasant party member who was a chief supporter of exiled peasant leader Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, was seized by security police at the frontier recently while attempting to flee Poland.

M. Wojcicki is charged with attempting illegally to cross the frontier, an offense punishable by three years' imprisonment. The Security Minister also said he sought to report abroad to "foreign intelligence centers."

POLISH PRIEST JAILED

WARSAW, March 11—(AP) A district court in Krakow today sentenced a Catholic priest—Jan Wojcik—to nine years in jail for "financial abuses" in connection with funds belonging to a peasant aid organization.

Soviet Industry Gets (N) New Production Orders

Moscow, March 11 (AP)—The Council of Ministers has decided that henceforth Soviet industry must concentrate on producing a wide assortment of goods which meet specific consumer demands. Mere quantity production alone will not suffice.

The Council's decision was announced yesterday by A. G. Zverev, Finance Minister, in his budget speech to the Supreme Soviet (Parliament). Moscow newspapers carried detailed accounts of the speech today.

Zverev said some enterprises still are guilty of the harmful practice of concentrating their efforts on the production of goods which are easy to make in order to achieve their overall production goal.

Industries which operate this way, he said, cause losses to the state. He singled out the perfume industry in particular, saying it "continues to put out production for which there is a lack of demand among the population."

Soviet Industry Warned To Meet People's Needs (D)

MAR 11 1949

Moscow, March 11 (AP) — Soviet industry was told today it must concentrate not alone on quantity production but on meeting the specific demands of the Russian public.

F. P. WHITNEY

The Moscow press carried long accounts of the presentation of the U.S.S.R. budget for 1949 to the Supreme Soviet yesterday. The total expected expenditures are 415,355,000,000 rubles, of which nineteen per cent will go to the armed forces, or about 79,000,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000,000).

Speech Carried In Full

[The United States defense budget now pending before Congress calls for expenditures of $14,268,000,000.]

Pravda and Izvestia both carried in full the speech of Finance Minister A. G. Zverev to the Supreme Soviet, whose meeting yesterday was attended by Prime Minister Stalin, Deputy Prime Minister Molotov and high-ranking Soviet officials.

Zverev blasted industries which produce goods easy to produce, rather than centering on goods actually needed by the public. One such, he said, was the perfume industry.

Goals Must Be Achieved

Industries which operate this way, he said, cause losses to the state.

From now on, Zverev said, fulfillment of the Soviet plan means goals must be achieved for all individual types of goods as well as for overall production.

He said certain ministries are still guilty of concentrating on production of items easy to make in order to assure making the overall output goal. This must be brought to an end, he added.

The address was critical of inefficiency in certain organizations. Zverev said some trade organizations do not always pay attention to public demands and do not have enough assortment of goods in demand by consumers.

CEASE FIRE PACT SIGNED BY ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN

L. I. S. CHARLES

RHODES, March 11—(AP) Shooting war or no in the southern Negev, Israel and Trans-Jordan signed a cease fire agreement today.

The agreement stipulates that, effective immediately, neither will attack the other on any part of the Palestine front, by land, sea or air.

UN Mediator Ralph J. Bunche thanked the delegations for the "spirit of cooperation and conciliation which has made possible this first step in our efforts—and mutual efforts—to bring peace to Palestine by the negotiation of an armistice agreement."

Israel Denies Clashes (N)

What bearing the agreement will have on the guarded Israeli push south through the Negev this week to the Gulf of Aquaba remained to be seen. Israeli officials again denied reports from Trans-Jordan of continuing clashes between the Israeli columns and Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion frontier guards in that region.

However, Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharet told newsmen in Tel Aviv a Trans-Jordan patrol which was in Israeli territory fired a few shots at Israeli forces Monday and then withdrew. He called this simply an incident and said "the entire Israeli Negev is in our hands."

"There were no casualties on either side," he said. "There was no Israeli initiative in this and no Israeli attempt at retaliation."

Israel claims the southern Negev, with its five-mile shoreline on the Gulf of Aqaba, under terms of the United Nations partition resolution of 1947.

Say Truce Orders Violated

Trans-Jordan has objected to the troop movements as a violation of security council truce orders and a threat to the port of Aqaba, her British-garrisoned sea outlet three miles east of the frontier. She complained to Bunche and asked him to "halt Israeli attacks."

Bunche, ordering a speedup in his field observers' investigation of the case, warned delegates of both the Jewish Republic and the Arab kingdom yesterday that he would take strong action if either side breached the security council's general cease fire order of last July 15.

Trans-Jordan, Israelis Sign Cease-Fire (D)

MAR 11 1949

Rhodes, March 11 (AP)—Israel and Trans-Jordan signed a formal cease-fire agreement today for their entire front in Palestine.

The agreement is a necessary prelude to a full armistice. It pledges Israel and her neighbors across the Jordan not to attack one another.

There was no immediate indication of the effect of this upon the Aqaba situation. United Nations observers were intensifying a check into reports from Amman, Trans-Jordan's capital, that Israeli troops were attacking between the Dead Sea and the Trans-Jordan Red Sea port of Aqaba. Israeli has denied this.

Reports from Amman quoted the Trans-Jordan Government as saying early today that fighting still was in progress in the Aqaba area.

Reply Awaited

The cease-fire agreement signed here does not include the triangle of eastern Palestine, the Nablus-Tulkarm-Jenin area, where Iraqi troops were stationed. United Nations officials here still awaited a reply from Iraq whether Trans-Jordan's delegation is to negotiate in Iraq's behalf.

The Iraqi Premier said in Baghdad Monday the Trans-Jordan delegates did not represent Iraq at the talks.

The agreement, it is understood, freezes the present lines in Palestine. The Arab Legion holds the old walled city area of Jerusalem, and the Jews the modern city. The Trans-Jordon Arab Legion controls the area east of Jerusalem and the Trans-Jordon frontier.

The cease-fire agreement, ordinarily just a formal prelude to an armistice, took on increased importance in the light of Trans-Jordan's complaints that a strong Israeli force has been on the move in the Aoaba area and had to be "stopped" by Arab Legion troops.

Col. Moshe Dayan and Reuben Shiloah signed the cease-fire for Israel, and Col. Ahmed el Jundi Israel, and Col. Mohammed Muayath signed for Trans-Jordan.

Britain Informed Of Israeli Push Against Arabs

London, March 11 (AP)—Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, told Commons today that Trans-Jordan has reported Israeli forces thrust "some miles" into Trans-Jordan territory, raided a police outpost and withdrew.

He said another report received from King Abdullah's British-favored Trans-Jordan Government told of movement of a "considerable force" of Israeli troops toward the Gulf of Aqaba. These troops are "now reported to have reached" the gulf, he said.

McNeil said no British troops have been "involved in any action" as a result of these reported Israeli moves. We added that United Nations observers are checking the Trans-Jordan reports of fighting. He said results of the United Nations investigation have not yet been made known.

Formal Complaint

Similar reports have been issued at Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital. Trans-Jordan representatives to the United Nations meetings, called at Rhodes to work out an armistice between Israel and Trans-Jordan, made formal complaint yesterday of "Israeli attacks."

Israeli spokesmen have denied Jewish troops were engaged in any such fighting. They are reported to have said any Israeli troops in the southern Palestine area were engaged only in normal patrol work.

Reports of Israel-Trans-Jordan clashes have come from Amman for the last three days. The Government there said today battles are still in progress and Arab Legion reinforcements were on the way to Aqaba.

Spot Investigation

McNeil said British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin would "prefe not to make any further statement" about the situation until United Nations reports are available.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, yesterday ordered more United Nations observers to the scene to speed up the on-the-field study.

Bevin, McNeil said, "will be glad to impress still further upon the acting mediator the necessity for speedy reports."

McNeil said "it is very difficult to relate" the armistice talks between Israel and Trans-Jordan under way at Rhodes with the Trans-Jordan reports of new clashes "if these reports made to us unfortunately are found to be true."

Troops At Aqaba

Britain has a treaty with Trans-Jordan pledging assistance if the mid-East kingdom is attacked. British troops now are stationed at Aqaba at the request of King Abdullah.

Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's only port, is less than 5 miles from the southern tip of the Negeb Desert area of southern Palestine bordering on the Gulf of Aqaba. The United Nations in 1947 awarded the Negeb to Israel.

Presumably, the movement of Israeli troops toward the Gulf of Aqaba, mentioned by McNeil, could have taken place entirely on Palestine territory.

"Have Enemy Support"

McNeil said British forces at Aqaba "have every support available to them. I should think it would not be anticipated that a call would be made upon such support except in a contingency of a direct threat to our forces, which, of course, we all hope will not occur."

He made this comment after Viscount Hinchingbrooke, a Conservative, demanded assurance" that the commander of our garrison at Aqaba has the fullest facilities to call upon air forces" in the mid-East "in the unfortunate event of a direct threat to our forces at Aqaba."

Censors Delay Bangkok Paper

BANGKOK, Siam, March 11 (AP)—On this first day of censorship, The Bangkok Post failed to appear. It is owned and edited by an American, Alexander MacDonald. Mr. MacDonald issued a notice to subscribers that the paper had been printed for delivery to censorship at 3 P. M., its normal publication time. Only then, he said, the censorship board informed him its daily meetings were being held only from 9 to 11 A. M.

JAPAN IS WILLING TO SELL SOMETHING

Tokyo, March 11 (A. P.).—The Japanese Government is so hard up that it is looking for stuff to sell. Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida ordered a survey of salable governmental property, hoping that it will put some cash in the kitty.

The Prime Minister has his eye on some transportation lines which the Government picked up during the war. Any one want to buy a bus line? Or a small railroad?

Laurel Gets Jewels Back

MANILA, March 11 (AP).—Jewelry seized by American forces from Jose P. Laurel, who was the Japanese puppet president of the Philippines, has been returned. President Elpidio Quirino handed jewels insured at $75,000 to Mrs. Laurel yesterday.

discussing Soviet methods. He accused the Russians of "duplicity and falsification of facts."

"It is difficult to deal with a nation which has no compunction against the use of threats and force and oppression to attain its desire," the secretary said in his annual report on the status of the army.

Assails Soviet Stand

In the continuing tension over Berlin "often the decisions have been close ones where an error on either side was entirely possible," Royall said.

"It has been apparent," he added, "that the Soviet authorities have had no intention either of respecting past agreements or the composing the growing differences.

"On the contrary, it has been their manifest purpose to cause all possible confusion and conflict short of war, in an effort to drive us from Berlin and diminish American influence in Europe and in the world."

Not Soldiers' Job, He Says

Royall spoke out for turning the governing job in Germany over to the State department. "This is not a job for soldiers," he said.

During the coming year, Royall said, army intelligence activities will be directed toward "providing on a world-wide basis military intelligence which will enable the army to formulate its plans."

He explained that the purpose of intelligence is to keep the armed forces and government of the United States "informed of intentions and capabilities of potentially hostile foreign countries."

During the past year the activities of the army's intelligence division has included programs "to neutralize any hostile elements intent on penetrating the army for the purpose of espionage, sabotage or subversion," Royall said.

Because there is a shortage of intelligence specialists, the military intelligence reserve is being augmented to be ready for mobilization in any emergency. Under the program, about 1,500 former enlisted men with war experience have been given junior officer commissions.

Royall also said that a new survey for a canal between the Atlantic and Pacific is under way. During the past year a study was made and findings reported to Congress on a sea level canal to serve as an alternate waterway for the Panama Canal. That waterway, with its lock system, is considered highly vulnerable to attack.

been maintained.

Purpose Is to Cause Confusion.

"It has been apparent that the Soviet authorities have had no intention either of respecting past agreements or of composing the growing differences. On the contrary, it has been their manifest purpose to cause all possible confusion and conflict short of war, in an effort to drive us from Berlin and diminish American influence in Europe and in the world.

"The future of the Berlin situation—just as the future of other situations involving the Soviet Union—is hard to prophesy. It is difficult to deal with a nation which has no compunction against the use of threats and force and oppression to attain its desire.

"We cannot and will not surrender our rights nor our principles. We will continue to do everything decently possible to avoid war."

In the section on Army operations, Royall noted that by last June the total strength of the Army had slumped to 538,000. But, the Secretary noted, the effect of the peacetime Selective Service law on voluntary recruiting had a strong effect, both in the regular Army and in National Guard and reserve recruiting.

[On February 1, this year, actual strength of the regular Army was 702,000. The Army now is dropping down toward the 677,000 level proposed by President Truman in his budget recommendations for the next fiscal year beginning July 1.]

Calls Forces Overburdened.

"The seriousness of world conditions in early 1948," Royall wrote, "indicated the need for in-

Royall Holds Russia Is Guilty of Duplicity

Calls Berlin Blockade Threat to Peace and Charges Soviet Union Does Not Intend to Respect Agreements.

Washington, March 11 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Army Royall today accused Russia of duplicity and falsification and called her blockade of Berlin a "day-to-day threat to the peace of the world."

Royall's blunt discussion of foreign affairs was contained in his annual report on the status of the Army Department. He used it as a preamble to an explanation of the Army's burdensome occupation duty.

He reviewed what he called "Soviet intransigeance," set down the record of attempts since 1945 to come to agreement with Russia, said that "from the beginning of the blockade and up to the present time the situation in Berlin has been tense," and added:

"During all this period the effort has been made to stand firmly for American rights without being truculent. Often the decisions have been close ones where an error on either side was entirely possible. Fortunately, up to this time war has been avoided and America's position has

Russia Blasted by Royall, Blockade Seen Peace Peril

WASHINGTON March 11—(AP) The touchy Berlin blockade constantly threatens world peace, Army Secretary Royall said today. He pictured the Russians as having tried to cause "all possible confusion and conflict short of war."

Royall wouldn't forecast the outcome. But he said the United States will not surrender rights or principles. It will strive on to do "everything decently possible to avoid war," he said.

Royall was blunt and severe in creasing our armed forces if this nation were to support the responsibilities and leadership to which it was irrevocably committed. Even with about half our Army committed overseas, the maintenance of order and stability in the worn-torn countries of Europe and the Far East greatly overburdened these relatively small forces assigned to occupation duties."

Royall disclosed as follows an effort to build up the Army's intelligence system:

"The purpose of these activities is to keep the armed forces and the United States informed of the intentions and capabilities of potentially hostile foreign countries. The Army also gathered information concerning activities or conditions within the United States which might threaten internal security to the extent that troops would need to be employed to protect Federal property.

"World conditions require that Army intelligence activities be intensified in the coming year. Efforts of the Army will be directed toward providing on a worldwide basis military intelligence which will enable the Army to formulate its plans for helping to carry out our national policy."

1,165,000 Maps on File.

During the last year the Army carried out an extensive program to may foreign areas, Royall said. It now has more than 1,165,000 maps in its files.

In discussing military assistance to other nations, Royall said the Army mission to help Greece is authorized at a strength of 366 men. He described its general purpose as providing the Greek general staff with "overall strategic and tactical planning of operations against the guerrillas."

"There are no United States combat troops in Greece, and United States military personnel do not participate in combat, nor do they command Greek troops," he emphasized. "However, they do accompany Greek units engaged in attacking the guerrilla concentrations in order to be able to provide intelligent and timely advice to the Greek commanders and staff officers."

In Turkey, the American Army mission consists of thirty-eight officers and fifteen enlisted men, in addition to fifty-five civilians. Equipment furnished Turkey has included tanks, artillery, ammunition, communications equipment and small arms. Royall said that "international developments and the strategic position of Turkey have required that she be prepared to resist invasion."

A similar mission to aid Iran, like Turkey, a close neighbor of Russia, consists of twenty-two officers and fourteen enlisted men.

Soviet Spy Suspect Silent; Girl Voices Innocent Plea

NEW YORK, March 11 (AP)—A Russian engineer claimed diplomatic immunity and a young woman government worker pleaded innocent today when they were arraigned in federal court on espionage charges.

The immunity claim was made by Valentine A. Gubitchev, suspended Soviet employe of the UN who was indicted yesterday with Judith Coplon, 27-year-old analyst for the U. S Justice Department

The special spy-probing grand jury that indicted them accused the pair of consiring to pass a "foreign power" United States defense and intelligence secrets

To Assign Counsel

Speaking through an interpreter the 32-year-old Russian told the court he did not want counsel and that the case against him was being prosecuted to "pursue certain aims"

But Judge Simon H. Rifkind deferred Gubitchev's pleading on the indictment until Monday and said he would assign an attorney to defend him.

"Let the defendant know, if he is under the illusion that he is going to be punished without first being convicted by due process of law, he is harboring a mistaken idea" the judge told Gubitchev.

Miss Coplon, a native of Brooklyn and honor graduate of Barnard College, pleaded innocent in a firm, clear voice to the three counts of the espionage indictment. Her trial was set for April 1 and she later was released in $20,000 bail. She went immediately to her parents' home in Brooklyn.

Gubitchev was returned to his jail cell in lieu of $100,000 bail.

The arraignment brought the two defendants together for the first time since they were seized last Friday night by FBI agents who trailed them to a Manhattan rendezvous. The agents claimed they found copies of government documents in Miss Coplon's purse and said she planned to turn them over to Gubitchev.

Miss Coplon gave no indication that she noticed Gubitchev when she boarded the van which drove them to the courthouse.

Claims Immunity

Asserting that he would refuse to answer questions put to him by the court, Gubitchev told Judge Rifkind:

"I consider myself a foreigner and a member of the diplomatic profession and I consider the accusations leveled against me as provocation to pursue certain aims."

He added then that he could not afford a lawyer and "was not going to hire one."

Judge Rifkind described the charge against Gubitchev as grave and said he could not permit him to stand trial without aid of counsel. The judge said he would confer later with two U.N. representatives who had expressed interest in assuring the Russian the services of an attorney.

"I thank your honor," Gubitchev replied when Rifkind said he was deferring the defendant's pleading until Monday.

A Russian secretary who accompanied Lev Tolokonnilev, first secretary of the Russian embassy, to the arraignment, took voluminous notes during the proceedings.

The Soviet government has demanded Gubitchev's release on the ground he is entitled to diplomatic immunity. The claim has been disputed by UN officials.

If convicted Gubitchev faces a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison and a $20,000 fine. Miss Coplon's indictment provides maximum punishment of 35 years' imprisonment and a $20,000 fine on conviction.

When Judge Rifkind retained the girl's $20,000 bail, he told her:

Promises Not to Run Away

"Miss Coplon, do you entertain any idea that this world is so big you can run away?"

"No your honor," she said.

"Don't do anything silly," admonished the judge. "Can I count on that?"

"Yes, sir," she said.

"Don't have any such ideas," continued the lecturing judge. "As far as this court is concerned you are innocent until you are found guilty. If you try to become a fugitive from justice your life will be ruined.

"Face the consequences and when they are over life will not be ruined."

Later, at the girl's Brooklyn home, her brother, Bertram, told reporters she would not be interviewed but "she's happy to be home and of course we're happy to see her here."

He said the family were confident that she will be "entirely exonerated."

Judith May Get Leniency If She Tells On Spies

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Two congressional investigators said today it might be wise to trade leniency for facts from Miss Judith Coplon, the Government girl accused of stealing defense secrets.

Representative Walter (D., Pa.) said:

"It would be an excellent idea to promise her leniency in return for information on her activities."

Would "Catch Big Fish"

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) told reporters:

"A deal might be a good idea if they can catch big enough fish."

Both are members of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Miss Coplon has been an employé of the Justice Department's alien registration section for several years. She and Valentin Gubitchev, a Russian engineer on the United Nations staff, were arrested in New York last Friday by the FBI.

A New York grand jury indicted them yesterday on charges of conspiring to defraud the United States Government. One count of the indictment said Miss Coplon delivered information relating to national defense to Gubitchev.

"Vital" To Expose Others

Walter said it is vital to learn all about Miss Coplon's activities and connections, even if she has to be promised light treatment for talking.

"The important thing," Nixon said, "is to find out who the other people are who are involved. The security of the country is at stake."

Date For 'Sally' Sentence Not Yet Fixed

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars was convicted of treason yesterday, but her punishment probably will not be known for a week or more.

A mixed jury found her guilty of broadcasting propaganda for the wartime German radio.

The maximum possible sentence is death in the electric chair; the minimum five years in prison, a $10,000 fine and loss of her American citizenship.

In advance of sentencing, Miss Gillars's attorney served notice that he is not through fighting.

Will Seek New Trial

His first step, said James J. Laughlin, will be to file a motion asking Federal Judge Edward M. Curran to set aside the verdict and order a new trial. Laughlin has five days in which to take this action. If his motion is denied, Laughlin told reporters, he will carry the case to higher courts.

Miss Gillars, 48, who testified that she always loved this country and never intended to betray it, heard the verdict without visible emotion.

Stands To Hear Verdict

Attired in the same black dress she had worn almost every day since the trial started January 24, Miss Gillars stood as the jury filed in at 4.53 P.M. yesterday.

Her expression did not seem to change when the foreman, Henry G. Davis, Jr., said that the jury had found her guilty.

Then, at Laughlin's request, each juror was asked separately how he or she voted. In turn, the seven men and five women said "guilty."

When polling of the jury had ended, a marshal pulled on Miss Gillars's chair as a signal to go. She took quick steps, once turning sideways to look at her half sister, Mrs. Edna Mae Herrick, of Conneaut, Ohio.

Sister Weeps

Tears rolled down Mrs. Herrick's cheeks and a paper cup slipped from her hand, spilling water on her tan suit.

"I don't see how they will be able to sleep," she said of the jurors. Her husband, Edward R. Herrick, led her from the courtroom.

Miss Gillars first was taken to a small lockup in the courthouse basement. She paced nervously, smoking a cigarette down to a stub. A reporter made his way through the crowd to the cell block and asked her comment on the verdict.

"I wish those who judged me would be willing to risk their lives for America as I did," she replied.

Interview Cut Short

Miss Gillars seemed willing—maybe anxious—to talk more, but a marshal ended that.

A few minutes later, surrounded by marshals, she was taken to a small black patrol wagon for the trip back to the District jail.

On commenting on the verdict, Laughlin said that Judge Curran's instructions to the jury the day before had been "inflammatory."

"They were an invitation to a conviction," he said. "They showed the judge believed this woman to be guilty and wanted her convicted."

Criticizes Ruling

Laughlin complained particularly about a ruling by the judge not to permit the defense to introduce evidence on the horrors of Nazi concentration camps. He said he regarded this as important, since the defense contended Miss Gillars faced a concentration camp or death if she refused to broadcast propaganda for the Nazis.

The jury convicted Miss Gillars of only one of the eight treasonable acts charged to her in connection with her broadcasting. This, however, did not alter the range of possible penalties.

Based On Drama

The conviction was based on a radio drama called "Vision of Invasion." In that play, Miss Gillars played the role of Evelyn, an Ohio mother who dreamed that her son was killed in the invasion. The Germans broadcast it four weeks before Allied troops landed in Normandy.

The indictment said it was broadcast to American citizens at home and abroad as an element of German propaganda and as an instrument of psychological warfare.

COMMUNISTS TRY TO DISMISS JURY

Attorney Says He's Forced To Use Challenges Blindly

New York, March 11 (AP)—The tedious process of picking a jury to try eleven United States Communist leaders was sparked today by a defense lawyer's claim that the judge was forcing him to use his challenges "blindly."

This allegation came from Richard F. Gladstein.

He moved to dismiss twelve prospective jurors remaining in the jury box after Judge Harold R. Medina had completed his two-day examination of jury-panel members willing to serve in the lengthy trial.

"State Of Mind" Question

Gladstein declared "I am obliged to exercise peremptory challenges blindly" on the grounds that Medina had not brought out sufficient information about the "state of mind" of the prospective jury members.

The judge overruled the motion.

As court adjourned later for the week end, the defense had exercised three of its fifteen peremptory challenges and the prosecution one of its six. Thus four other members of the jury panel were brought in to take the place of the four challenged on the "tentative" jury.

As each one of the remaining peremptory challenges is used next week, a new juror will be called into the box and questioned by Medina as to whether he should be excused for cause.

Subject To Dismissal

If the judge permits him to stay, he then is subject to dismissal by the defense or the Government as long as they have any challenges left.

When all their challenges are gone or waived, the twelve persons remaining in the box will comprise the jury.

The three persons challenged by the defense were a housewife, a salesman and a utility service worker. The Government also challenged a housewife.

The four persons picked by lot from the jury wheel to replace those challenged included a man who is a retired insurance company clerk, a housewife, a woman house manager and a man who was immediately excused by Medina.

Played Tennis With Davis

The judge took this action because the man said he once had played tennis with City Councilman Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., one of the defendants.

Gladstein objected to this dismissal but Medina said the defendant was "not entitled to" any special juror. The judge told the attorney "I don't intend to be catechized by you."

The man then was replaced by a woman department store employé.

There were six women and six men in the box as court adjourned. Mrs. Thelma Dial, Negro, who is the No. 1 juror at the moment, had not been challenged and will be foreman if she is permitted to remain.

The defendants are charged with conspiring to advocate the forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

Photographer Reported Held In 'Pumpkin' Case

New York, March 11 (AP)—The Daily News said the FBI has found in California a photographer connected with the Whittaker Chambers "pumpkin" microfilms and the photographer is "singing his head off."

The News said in a story from Washington the man had been sought ever since Chambers produced the microfilms, allegedly of stolen Government documents, from a hollow pumpkin on his farm at Westminster, Md.

The man's identity, the newspaper said, is being closely guarded, but he is one of two photographers who were suspected of helping Chambers make the films in a secret studio, probably in Baltimore.

The News said the photographer has given the FBI "startling new information" about Chambers's affairs.

The information, the News said, is expected to bring new action by the New York special grand jury on subversive activities.

The House Un-American Activities Committee also is "following the California development closely," the News added.

U. S. Studies Visa Requests by Soviet

Washington, March 11 (A. P.).—The State Department is studying a Soviet request for permission to send a delegation to this country for a meeting of the National Council of the Arts, Science and Professions.

Michael J. McDermott, press officer, said today that the application for entry permits would be passed on by the Department of Justice before an answer is given. The council will meet this month in New York.

Through the United States embassy in Moscow, the Soviets asked that diplomatic visas be given to six members of the seven-man group. They are Dmitri Shostakovich, the composer; two novelists, two film producers and a scientist. The seventh member is a secretary.

Chinese Manuscripts Won't Be Sent To U.S.

Washington, March 11 (AP)—China arranged to send 113 cases of priceless manuscripts to the United States for safekeeping several months ago but canceled the deal.

The State Department disclosed this today. The manuscripts were from the National Museum at Peping, which now has fallen to the Communists.

In reporting the arrangement, the State Department said some unidentified Chinese organizations have protested against reported plans to ship "several thousand" cases of art objects to the United States. No shipment has been made and none is now contemplated, the department said in a statement.

Corinth Canal Entombs Nazi Victims, Diver Says

New York, March 11 (AP)—A deep-sea diver, William Smythe, said today upon his return from Greece that he found the bones of thousands of Nazi political prisoners—Jews and Spaniards—on the floor of the Corinth Canal.

The victims were herded into boxcars, the diver said, and whole freight trains were run off bridge approaches to the canal.

Smythe, a professional diver 21 years, arrived on the American Export liner Excambion after seventeen months in Greece. He is a resident of Montauk Point, N.Y.

State Dept. Accused Of Ban on Germans

Keating Says Refusal of Visas Flouts Congress

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP).—Representative Kenneth B. Keating, Republican, of New York, said today the State Department is "thwarting the clearly expressed will of Congress" by failing to permit general German immigration to this country.

Such immigration, within quota regulations, was authorized by the last Congress, Representative Keating told the House, but "I have been advised by the State Department that not a single visa has been issued up to this time to a German national. In other words, six months have elapsed since the announcement of the reopening of German immigration without one person moving toward our shores from Germany."

Such a policy, he said, is not only "contrary" to law but "decidedly not designed to create tolerance among our own people or to further international good will." "This closing of the door by the State Department to German nationals accomplishes nothing," he said, "except to arouse bitterness and disappointment and to increase human suffering."

TRAINING BILL IS SHELVED

Vinson Says Committee Will Not Act on UMT This Session

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP)—Universal Military Training had definitely been shelved so far as this session of Congress is concerned, Representative Carl Vinson, Democrat, of Georgia, announced today. He is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, which has jurisdiction over such matters.

President Truman has repeatedly advocated the training program. He called it "the surest single measure" to discourage aggressors. But it died in the Eightieth Congress, which enacted the limited peacetime draft, and Democrats and Republicans, alike, have been reluctant to revive it in this session.

Mr. Truman let it be known in his recent State of the Union message that his views had not changed, but he did not ask outright for prompt passage this session. He simply said: "Universal Military Training is essential to the security of the United States."

Mr. Vinson, long a supporter of both UMT and the draft, told the House Rules Committee today that the UMT bill would not be considered by his committee this session. The committee, however, would investigate the now-suspended draft, beginning probably in May, he said. It wants to learn "all the facts and the cost."

Veteran of Bataan March Sends $100 Food to Japan

By The Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, March 11—A man with a forgiving heart is Solly Manasse.

Officials of the Los Angeles CARE office said Mr. Manasse walked in yesterday and put down a $100 bill. "This is for CARE packages to go to Japan," he said, "I think we need a few more gestures of international friendship to help out the peace of the world."

Mr. Manasse, a Palm Springs motel operator, said he spent forty-four months in a Japanese prison camp after surviving the Bataan death march.

U.S. Sponsors Leftist Painting Exhibits, Dondero Alleges

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Representative Dondero (R., Mich.) charged today that "Left-wing" art, of the kind that raised a storm in Congress in 1947, has again gone on the road under Government auspices.

In what he termed a "propaganda undertaking," Dondero said "radical" paintings had been exhibited in the United States Naval Hospital at St. Albans, N.Y., with similar showings in prospect at other Government hospitals.

The exhibit, Dondero continued, was accompanied by explanations from its creators as to the "meaning" of their works.

Tour Was Halted

He alleged that nine of the 28 artists represented in the exhibit were among those whose works were put on short-lived tour by the State Department in 1947 to familiarize the world with modern American art.

Secretary of State Marshall stopped that tour after congressional criticism. The exhibit showed only in Haiti and Prague.

Dondero said today, in a statement inserted in the Congressional Record, that the 79 paintings purchased by the State Department for $55,000 have been sold by the War Assets Administration for $5,544.45—"10 cents on the dollar."

Morale Building

Dondero complained that a two-week exhibition of similar paintings was held at St. Albans in January as a morale-building venture.

"I am very anxious to find out how this group of radicals were able to put across this program on the Navy Department and, as they include all Government hospitals, on the Army and possibly the Veterans Administration," he said.

Many of the seventeen artists, he went on, have affiliations with Left-wing movements, contribute to so-called Left-wing publications, or have been favorably received in Leftist circles.

Quoting from the January 15 issue of the The Art Digest, Dondero named seventeen of the artists contributing to the exhibition. They are:

Xavier Gonzalez, Yasuo Kuniyoski, Jean Liberte, Ben Shahn, Jack Levine, Eugene Berman, Abraham Rattner, Reginald Marsh, Matta Echuarren, I. Rice Pereira, Louis Bosa, George L. K. Morris, Joseph Hirsch, Max Weber, Rufine Tamayo, Alexander Brook and Arthur Osver.

U.N. Schedules World Forum On Science

Lake Success, March 11 (AP)—The United Nations announced today plans for a world conference of scientists suggested by President Truman in September, 1946, to pool ideas for conservation and economic use of resources.

Scientists and technicians from 77 nations are being invited to the three-week meetings to be held here August 17-September 6.

Fuels and energy are listed among the many subjects up for discussion, but atomic talks are excluded, since the United States withdrew a suggestion from Mr. Truman's original proposal saying:

"I believe that the peaceful uses of atomic energy within the next few decades might well be examined in this connection. . . ."

Companion To Program

After that proposal the United States decided that all international atomic talks should be concentrated in the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission.

The gathering is called the United Nations Scientific Conference on the Conservation and Utilization of Resources and is hailed as a companion effort to the "bold new program" Mr. Truman offered the United Nations in his inaugural address.

The Truman program to aid backward areas has been approved by the Economic and Social Council and is being processed through the various United Nations organs for probable presentation to the United Nations Assembly by next fall.

Nongovernment Group

The United Nations emphasized

that the scientists will exchange ideas as nongovernment people and would not adopt policies to put them into effect.

It said the range of subjects was tremendous. The conference will delve into specific problems on forest, water and land resources, wildlife, fish and marine subjects, fuels and energy (excepting atomic) and mineral resources, it said. add

THE DIPLOMATS RECALLED, HOWEVER, THAT NORWAY GAVE A SIMILAR ANSWER TO RUSSIA WHEN THE OSLO GOVERNMENT RECENTLY SPURNED MOSCOW'S OFFER OF A NON-AGGRESSION TREATY.

PRECEDE LONDON DAY (210)

ANKARA, TURKEY, MARCH 11-(AP)-RUSSIAN ANXIETY OVER A POSSIBLE MEDITERRANEAN DEFENSE PACT APPEARED TONIGHT TO HAVE BEEN REFLECTED IN REPORTS THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR HAD VISITED ENVOYS OF ALL NATIONS CONCERNED.

NO ONE WOULD SPEAK OPENLY, BUT THE GENERAL IMPRESSION WAS THAT RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER LAVRISHEV HAD BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION IN THE COURSE OF ROUTINE CONVERSATIONS DURING EACH VISIT.

(EARLIER TODAY, DIPLOMATIC SOURCES IN LONDON SID THE BRITISH EMBASSY AT ANKARA HAD INFORMED THE FOREIGN OFFICE RUSSIA HAD "INQUIRED" ABOUT TURKEY'S INTEREST IN A MEDITERRANEAN REGIONAL DEFENSE TREATY.)

FOREIGN MINISTER NECMEDDIN SADAK SAID YESTERDAY ON HIS RETURN FROM LONDON AND PARIS THAT TURKEY AIMS FOR SUCH A PACT, BUT HE PROFESSED NO KNOWLEDGE OF REPORTS LAVRISHEV HAD SPOKEN ON THE SUBJECT WITH FOREIGN OFFICE OFFICIALS.

DIPLOMATS HERE SAID LAVRISHEV HAD TALKED DURING THE LAST THREE WEEKS WITH THE AMBASSADORS OF FRANCE, ITALY, GREAT BRITAIN, GREECE AND PERHAPS THE UNITED STATES. AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC SOURCES MADE NO COMMENT TONIGHT.

ASKED IF A MEDITERRANEAN PACT WERE DISCUSSED, SEVERAL DIPLOMATS SAID IT WAS REASONABLE TO PRESUME THAT MANY MATTERS CAME UP.

THE SOURCES SAID IT WAS UNLIKELY TURKEY WOULD REACT STRONGLY TO MERE PROTESTS UNTIL RUSSIA ABANDONS HER CLAIMS ON TURKEY'S THREE EASTERN PROVINCES AND HER DEMANDS FOR JOINT DEFENSE OF THE DARDANELLES.

KX FOR FRISCO

PARIS, SATURDAY, MARCH 12-(AP)-A SUPPORTER OF GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE EARLY TODAY FILED A MOTION OF CENSURE AGAINST THE GOVERNOR OF PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE AFTER IT HAD SIDESTEPPED DEBATE ON ITS POLICY IN FRENCH INDOCHINA.

THE COMMUNISTS ALSO JUMPED IN WITH CAUSTIC CRITICISM OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT, VOTED 439 TO 25 TO DEBATE THE MOTION OF CENSURE TUESDAY.

PARLIAMENTARY OBSERVERS, PREDICTING QUEUILLE'S CABINET WOULD SURVIVE, SAID HE HAD MANEUVERED AWKWARDLY TO GET OUT OF ANY DEBATE ON THE TOUCHY INDOCHINESE PROBLEM.

QUEUILLE HAD WON A VICTORY LAST NIGHT BY GETTING THE ASSEMBLY TO PASS A LAW, 387 TO 193, PROVIDING FOR AN ELECTED ASSEMBLY IN COCHIN-CHINA, ONE OF THE FIVE STATES OF INDOCHINA AND NOW A COLONY.

THERE REMAINED ON THE AGENDA DEMANDS BY OPPOSITION PARTIES FOR A FULL-FLEDGED DEBATE ON INDOCHINA, WHERE FRENCH TROOPS HAVE BEEN FIGHTI NATIONALISTS FOR NEARLY THREE YEARS.

QUEUILLE ARRANGED FOR A DEPUTY TO PROPOSE INDEFINITE SUSPENSION OF SUCH A DEBATE. HE ROSE HIMSELF TO SAY HE WOULD INTERPRET SUCH A VOTE AS APPROVAL OF HIS INDOCHINESE POLICY. THE MOTION TO SUSPEND DEBATE WAS PASSED 332 TO 272.

QUEUILLE TOOK THIS WAY OUT BECAUSE HE KNEW THE SOCIALISTS, WHO ARE REPRESENTED IN HIS COALITION GOVERNMENT, WOULD NOT SIGN A CONFIDENCE MOTION ON HIS INDOCHINESE POLICY. DEPUTY RENE CAPITANT, A DE GAULLIST, IMMEDIATELY FILED THE MOTION OF CENSURE.

BOTH THE COMMUNISTS AND DE GAULLISTS WANT TO RETURN TO POWER. QUEUILLE'S MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD GOVERNMENT OFTEN IS HELD TOGETHER SIMPLY BY PRESSURE ON IT FROM THESE TWO PARTIES.

CAPITANT FACES THE VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE TASK OF COLLECTING 311 VOTES TO DEFEAT QUEUILLE. THE COMMUNISTS CAN SWING 182 VOTES BUT THE DE GAULLISTS ONLY ABOUT 30.

QUEUILLE'S GOVERNMENT HAS JUST PERSUADED FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI TO RETURN TO INDOCHINA TO TRY TO SET UP SOME KIND OF GOVERNMENT FOR THE PROJECTED STATE OF VIET-NAM. IT WOULD INCLUDE THE TERRITORIES OF ANNAM, TONKIN AND COCHIN-CHINA.

TONKIN AND ANNAM ARE PROTECTORATES. THE NEW ASSEMBLY OF COCHIN-CHINA IS EXPECTED TO VOTE ITSELF OUT OF COLONIAL STATUS INTO THE PROJECTED TRIPARTITE STATE WHICH FRANCE HAS PROMISED "INDEPENDENCE WITH FRANCE IN A COMMONWEALTH."

THE COMMUNISTS OPPOSE THE GOVERNMENT FOR REFUSING TO NEGOTIATE WITH MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINH, LEADER OF THE NATIONALISTS.

THE SOCIALISTS ALSO FAVOR SUCH A NEGOTIATION BUT ARE NOT PREPARED TO CAUSE THE GOVERNMENT'S DOWNFALL BY INSISTING ON IT.

(BRITISH MINISTER OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS IN LONDON THAT NO BRITISH TROOPS HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN ANY ACTION AS A RESULT OF THE ISRAELI MOVES. HE SAID THE TROOPS IN AQABA--STATIONED THERE BY REQUEST OF TRANS-JORDAN UNDER A MUTUAL AID TREATY--"HAVE EVERY SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO THEM."

(A DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN'S CAPITAL, SAID IT WAS OFFICIALL ANNOUNCED THAT "BATTLES ARE STILL TAKING PLACE" IN THE SOUTH. ARAB LEGION REFINFORCEMENTS WERE REPORTED MOVING TO AQABA. THE ARABS SAID THE ISRAELIS HAD MADE AT LEAST ONE AERIAL PATROL FLIGHT.)

BUNCHE TOLD U.S.BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM E.RILEY, CHIEF OF THE OBSERVER STAFF, THAT AERIAL ACTIVITY OR SENDING OF REINFORCEMENTS INTO THE DISPUTED AREA BY EITHER SIDE WOULD BE REGARDED AS TRUCE VIOLATIONS.

THE FORMAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT SIGNED HERE TODAY IS A NECESSARY PRELIMINARY TO A FULL ARMISTICE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN.

IT DOES NOT INCLUDE THE NABLUS-TULKARM-JENIN TRIANGLE OF NORTHERN PALESTINE, WHERE IRAQI TROOPS ARE STATIONED. TRANS-JORDAN OFFERED TO NEGOTIATE ON BEHALF OF IRAQ, AN ARAB ALLY, BUT U.N. OFFICIALS STILL LACK OFFICIAL WORD FROM IRAQ TO AUTHORIZE THIS.

TRANS-JORDAN'S LEGION HOLDS THE OLD WALLED CITY OF JERUSALEM, MUCH OF THE AREA EAST OF IT AND LATRUN, WHICH DOMINATES THE TEL AVIV-JERUSALEM HIGHWAY. ISRAELI FORCES CONTROL THE NEW CITY OF JERUSALEM AND VARIOUS SECTIONS IN BOTH NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

DR.REUBEN SHILOAH AND COL.MOSHE DAYAN SIGNED THE AGREEMENT ON BEHALF OF ISRAEL. COL. AHMAD EL JUNDI AND LT.COL.MOHAMMED MUAYATH SIGNED FOR TRANS-JORDAN.

U.N. OBSERVERS ARE TO SUPERVISE THE TRUCE.

MAR 11 1949

THE AGREEMENT PROVIDES THAT "NO ELEMENT OF THE GROUND OR AIR FORCES OF EITHER PARTY SHALL ADVANCE BEYOND OR PASS OVER THE LINES OR POSITIONS NOW HELD BY THE FOREMOST ELEMENTS OF ITS GROUND FORCES AND NO ELEMENT OF AIR OR NAVAL FORCES OF EITHER PARTY SHALL ENTER INTO OR PASS OVER WATERS ADJACENT TO THE COASTLINE NOW HELD BY THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY PURPOSES WHATSOEVER."

"MOVEMENTS OF CIVILIANS SHALL NOT OCCUR FROM ONE SIDE TO THE OTHER EXCEPT BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES," IT WAS FURTHER STIPULATED.

"THIS GENERAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT SHALL BE WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE RIGHTS, CLAIMS, INTERESTS AND POSITIONS OF EITHER PARTY SIGNATORY HERETO AS REGARDS SPECIFIC MATTERS WHICH MAY RELATE TO ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS NOW IN PROGRESS OR TO THE ULTIMATE SETTLEMENT OF ALL OUTSTANDING ISSUES BETWEEN THE PARTIES."

JJ/QQ222PES

add 6 - Rhodes - (Dan) XXX Trans-Jordan.

THESE ARE THE POINTS OF AGREEMENT:

1. A GENERAL CEASE FIRE BETWEEN THE ARMED FORCES OF TWO PARTIES SHALL BE EFFECTIVE AS OF DATE OF SIGNING OF THIS AGREEMENT.

2. THE GENERAL CEASE FIRE SHALL BE COMPLETE AND ENDURING AND SHALL APPLY TO ALL ELEMENTS OF MILITARY FORCES UNDER THE COMMAND OF THE SIGNATORY PARTIES, LAND, SEA AND AIR, WHEREVER LOCATED, AND SHALL EXTEND TO ALL SECTORS IN WHICH ARMED FORCES OF THE TWO PARTIES ARE FOUND IN PROXIMITY TO EACH OTHER.

3. NO ELEMENT OF GROUND OR AIR FORCES OF EITHER PARTY SHALL ADVANCE BEYOND OR PASS OVER LINES OR POSITIONS NOW HELD BY THE FOREMOST ELEMENTS OF ITS GROUND FORCES AND NO ELEMENT OF AIR OR NAVAL FORCES OF EITHER PARTY SHALL ENTER INTO OR PASS OVER WATERS ADJACENT TO THE COASTLINE NOW HELD BY THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY PURPOSES WHATSOEVER.

4. COMPLETE SUPERVISION OF THE TRUCE BY UNITED NATIONS OBSERVERS SHALL BE ALLOWED AND FACILITATED.

MAR 11 1949

5. MOVEMENTS OF CIVILIANS SHALL NOT OCCUR FROM ONE SIDE TO THE OTHER EXCEPT BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES.

6. THIS GENERAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT SHALL BE WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO THE RIGHTS, CLAIMS, INTERESTS AND POSITIONS OF EITHER PARTY SIGNATORY HERETO AS REGARDS SPECIFIC MATTERS WHICH MAY RELATE TO ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS NOW IN PROGRESS OR TO ULTIMATE PEACE SETTLEMENT OF ALL OUTSTANDING ISSUES BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

A SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT BY DR.RALPH BUNCHE, THE U.N. MEDIATOR, SAID THE CEASE FIRE WOULD BE DESCRIBED IN THE OFFICIAL RECORD AS EXTENDING TO AREAS WHICH MIGHT BE TAKEN OVER IN THE FUTURE BY TRANS-JORDAN TROOPS. HE REFERRED TO THE AREA NORTH OF JERUSALEM, WHERE IRAQI TROOPS ARE STATIONED UNDER TRANS-JORDANIAN COMMAND.

"I SHALL CALL UPON BOTH PARTIES IMMEDIATELY TO EXTEND THIS CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT IN ITS PRESENT FORM TO SUCH NEW SECTORS OR FRONTS AND I WILL EXPECT EACH DELEGATION IN THOSE NEGOTIATIONS TO ACT FAVORABLY ON SUCH CALL," DR.BUNCHE SAID.

DR. RALPH J.BUNCHE, ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR WHO IS RUNNING THE CURRENT ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN, ORDERED THE MORE INTENSE INVESTIGATION AFTER RECEIVING A FORMAL COMPLAINT FROM TRANS-JORDAN REPRESENTATIVES.

THE COMPLAINT CITED FOUR ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF A U.N.-ORDERED TRUCE OF LAST NOVEMBER. IT ASKED BUNCHE TO "HALT ISRAELI ATTACKS," WHILE ARMISTICE TALKS WERE IN PROGRESS, ASSERTING THEY WERE "ATTACKING ARAB LEGIONNAIRES WITH TANKS AND ARMORED CARS."

DR. REUBEN SHILOAH, ISRAELI DELEGATE TO RHODES, INFORMED BUNCHE, A U.N. SPOKESMAN SAID, THAT ISRAELI FORCES IN THE AREA ARE "ENGAGED IN NOTHING BUT NORMAL PATROLLING."

THE U.N. ALREADY HAS OBSERVERS IN THE GENERAL AREA OF THE CLASHES REPORTED BY TRANS-JORDAN. BUNCHE ORDERED MORE OBSERVERS TO THE SCENE. HE ALSO ASKED BRIG. GEN. WILLIAM E.RILEY TO CONDUCT A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION. RILEY IS CHIEF OF STAFF FOR U.N. OBSERVERS IN PALESTINE.

A LINE FROM THE SOUTH END OF THE DEAD SEA SOUTHWARD TO AQABA, A PALM-DOTTED FISHING TOWN ON THE GULF OF AQABA, ROUGHLY FORMS THE PALESTINE-TRANS-JORDAN BORDER. AQABA IS SEVERAL MILES INSIDE TRANS-JORDAN. IT IS GARRISONED BY BRITISH TROOPS, UNDER TERMS OF A MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT INVOKED RECENTLY BY KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN. ON THE PALESTINE SIDE OF THE BOUNDARY IS THE NEGEV DESERT AREA, WHICH A U.N. PARTITION PLAN AWARDED TO ISRAEL IN 1947.

MEANWHILE, U.S. AMBASSADOR LEWIS W.DOUGLAS SAW BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER ERNEST BEVIN IN LONDON YESTERDAY. THEY WERE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE DISCUSSED THE ISRAEL-TRANS-JORDAN SITUATION. EARLIER, INFORMANTS IN LONDON SAID BRITAIN IS CONSULTING THE UNITED STATES ON IT.

HINTING POSSIBLE HELP TO TRANS-JORDAN IN EVENT OF INVASION, HECTOR MCNEIL, BRITISH MINISTER OF STATE, TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY "AN ALLY SHOULD BE PROTECTED AGAINST AN AGGRESSOR."

IN SPITE OF THE CONFUSED SITUATION ALONG THEIR BORDERS, DELEGATES OF THE TWO NATIONS CONFERRED HERE FOR 4 1/2 HOURS YESTERDAY IN THE U.N.-SPONSORED ARMISTICE TALKS.

BUNCHE TOLD RILEY THE U.N. OBSERVERS SHOULD DISCOURAGE AERIAL PATROL ACTIVITIES BY EITHER ISRAEL OR TRANS-JORDAN. THE ARABS SAID THE ISRAELIS MADE AT LEAST ONE SUCH PATROL. HE ALSO SAID SENDING REINFORCEMENTS INTO THE DISPUTED AREA BY EITHER SIDE WOULD BE A TRUCE VIOLATION.

TRANS-JORDAN SOURCES IN AMMAN HAVE CHARGED THAT ISRAELI TROOPS PENETRATED FIVE MILES INTO TRANS-JORDAN TERRITORY BEFORE BEING DRIVEN OUT, AND TO WITHIN 10 MILES OF AQABA.

MAR 11 1949

BY JAMES M.LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MARCH 11-(AP)-"THE ENTIRE ISRAELI NEGEV IS IN OUR HANDS," FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARET (SHERTOK) SAID TODAY.

THIS MEANS COMPLETION OF THE OCCUPATION OF THE SOUTHERN DESERT OF PALESTINE FROM BEERSHEBA AND SODOM TO THE GULF OF AQABA.

THE FOREIGN MINISTER DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY CLASHES WITH TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION, AS ANNOUNCED OFFICIALLY IN AMMAN, BUT TOLD NEWSMEN OF A BLOODLESS FRONTIER INCIDENT FIVE DAYS AGO.

HE SAID A TRANS-JORDAN PATROL, WHICH HE DECLARED WAS IN ISRAELI TERRITORY, FIRED A FEW SHOTS AT JEWISH FORCES AND WITHDREW.

"THERE WERE NO CASUALTIES ON EITHER SIDE," HE SAID. "THERE WAS NO ISRAELI INITIATIVE IN THIS AND NO ISRAELI ATTEMPT AT RETALIATION."

THE NEGEV, WHICH ISRAEL HOPES TO CONVERT INTO AN AGRICULTURALLY PRODUCTIVE REGION THROUGH IRRIGATION, POINTS LIKE AN ARROWHEAD TO THE GULF OF AQABA AND THE RED SEA BETWEEN TWO ARAB NATIONS, TRANS-JORDAN ON THE EAST AND EGYPT ON THE WEST.

MILITARY CENSORSHIP HERE PREVENTS GIVING ANY ACTUAL DETAILS OF THE SITUATION IN THE SOUTH, JUST AS IT PREVENTS SIMILAR DETAILS ON ALL OTHER MILITARY AREAS. ISRAEL CLAIMS THE NEGEV UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION RESOLUTION OF 1947. THE ACTIVITY THERE DEVELOPED WHILE ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN DELEGATES WERE TALKING OVER AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT AT RHODES.

SHARET DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER ISRAELI MILITARY FORCES OR CIVILIANS ARE NOW ACTUALLY ON THE COAST, A BARREN FIVE-MILE STRETCH WEST OF THE TRANS-JRDAN PORT OF AQABA

OF THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA.

(AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE IN AMMAN SAID ISRAELI FORCES HAVE OCCUPIED UMM RASHRASH, A COASTAL VILLAGE ON THE NEGEV GULF SHORE ABOUT FOUR MILES FROM AQABA.)

SN1125

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MARCH 11-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARET (SHERTOK) SAID TODY ALL OF THE NEGEV DESERT CLAIMED BY ISRAEL NOW IS IN ISRAELI HANDS. THIS WOULD INCLUDE THE COASTAL AREA ON THE RED SEA DIRECTLY OPPOSITE THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA.
THE FOREIGN MINISTER REFUSED TO SAY SPECIFICALLY THAT THE FIVE-MILE STRETCH WEST OF AQABA IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF EILAT WAS OCCUPIED BY MILITARY FORCES OR CIVILIANS, BUT HE SAID EILAT IS ISRAELI TERRITORY "AND I HOPE IT IS FIRMERLY HELD BY US."
THIS COASTAL STRIP IS THE SOUTHERNMOST CORNER OF THE NEGEV ON THE RED SEA BETWEEN EGYPT AND TRANS-JORDAN.

(CORRESPONDENTS IN TEL AVIV STILL ARE UNDER MILITARY SECURITY CENSORSHIP WHICH PREVENTS THEM FROM GIVING DETAILS OF THE SITUATION IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV AS WELL AS IN OTHER MILITARY AREAS.)
SHARET WAS ASKED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ABOUT THE REPORTS FROM TRANS-JORDAN OF FIGHTING IN THE SOUTHERN NEGEV AREA NEAR AQABA BETWEEN ISRAELI FORCES AND TROOPS OF TRANS-JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION.
"I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT AQABA," SHARET SAID. "IT IS IN TRANS-JORDAN, NOT IN ISRAEL."
(THE GOVERNMENT OF TRANS-JORDAN SAID TODAY BATTLES BETWEEN THE LEGION AND ISRAELI FORCES STILL ARE IN PROGRESS IN THE REA SEA AREA. THERE HAS BEEN NO DEFINITE INDICATION YET OF THE RESULTS OF THESE REPORTED BATTLES. BRITAIN, WHICH IS ALLIED TO TRANS-JORDAN BY TREATY, HAS A GARRISON AT THE PORT OF AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN'S ONLY OUTLET TO THE SEA. ACCESS TO THE MEDITERRANEAN WOULD BE THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL.
(RHODES DISPATCHES SAID ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN SIGNED THE FORMAL CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT THERE COVERING ALL FRONTS IN PALESTINE. THIS WAS TO BE A PRELUDE TO AN ARMISTICE.)

THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID HIS GOVERNMENT RECEIVED AN INQUIRY FROM BRITAIN ON THE SITUATION IN THE AQABA NEIGHBORHOOD, BUT THERE WERE NO INQUIRIES FROM THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA EVINCED "NO ACTIVE INTEREST."
HE SAID ISRAEL'S REPLY WAS AN ASSURANCE THAT THE JEWS HAD NOT TRANSGRESSED TRANS-JORDAN'S RIGHTS, WERE NOT DOING SO AND DID NOT INTEND TO DO SO. HE DENIED AGAIN THAT THERE WAS FIGHTING IN THE AREA.
DR.WALTER EYTAN, THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE, CONFERRED TODAY WITH CHARLES KNOX, FIRST COUNSELLOR OF THE U.S. EMBASSY HERE, ON THE AQABA SITUATION, A RELIABLE SOURCE SAID. PAVEL IVANOVITCH YERSHOV, RUSSIAN MINISTER TO ISRAEL, ALSO SAW SHARET.
THE FOREIGN MINISTER PLANS TO LEAVE FOR THE UNITED STATES NEXT WEEK TO ATTEND A WASHINGTON CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED JEWISH APPEAL AND TO GO ON FROM THERE TO THE APRIL SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK.

SHARET DENIED ANY ISRAELI TROOPS HAD CROSSED THE TRANS-JORDAN FRONTIER OR EVER INTENDED TO. ALTHOUGH HE DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY CLASHES, AS REPORTED OFFICIALLY IN AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, HE SAID THERE WAS SONE "INCIDENT" FIVE DAYS AGO.

CAIRO, MARCH 11-(AP)-CAIRO SOURCES IN A POSITION TO KNOW SAID TODAY BRITISH AND ISRAELI FORCES ARE FACING EACH OTHER ABOUT A MILE AND A HALF TO TWO MILES APART ACROSS THE NEGEV-TRANS-JORDAN BORDER ON THE SHORE OF THE GULF OF AQABA.
THESE INFORMANTS SAID IT IS BELIEVED LIKELY THE ISRAELI'S WOULD NOT TRY TO MOVE ACROSS THE BORDER TOWARD AQABA, TRANS-JORDAN'S LONE SEAPORT. THEY SAID THAT IN ANY CASE, AQABA WOULD BE DENIED TO ISRAELI FORCES.
TRANS-JORDAN ARAB LEGION TROOPS HAD WITHDRAWN ACROSS THE TRANS-JORDAN BORDER, IT WAS SAID, AFTER CLASHING WITH TWO ISRAELI COLUMNS WHICH MOVED SOUTH THROUGH THE NEGEV OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE IN RECENT WEEKS. THE ISRAELI FORCE WAS ESTIMATED AT TWO BATTALIONS, TOTALLING ABOUT 1,500 MEN. IT WAS SAID TO HAVE PROBABLY SIX SMALL TANKS. THE BELIEF WAS EXPRESSED THAT THE ARAB LEGION HAS NO TROOPS LEFT IN THE NEGEV.
THE SAME SOURCES GAVE THESE DETAILS:
TWO ISRAELI COLUMNS HVE BEEN WORKING DOWN THROUGH THE NEGEV SINCE FEB.25. ONE FOLLOWED THE ROAD JUST INSIDE THE PALESTINE-TRANS-JORDAN BORDER. THE OTHER MADE A SWEEP THROUGH THE DESERT. ON MARCH 8, THE ARAB LEGION CLASHED WITH THE COLUMN ON THE BORDERSIDE ROAD AND ALSO WITH THE DESERT COLUMN AT A SMALL TOWN TEN MILES INSIDE THE PALESTINE BORDER IN THE NEGEV. THE LEGION FORCES WERE NOT STRONG AND WITHDREW. ONE GROUP JOINED THE BRITISH AND LEGION TROOPS AT AQABA. THE OTHER CROSSED INTO TRANS-JORDAN ABOUT 30 MILES TO THE NORTH.
THE ISRAELIS ARE RUMORED TO BE DIGGING IN ON THE NEGEV SIDE OF THE BORDER AT THE GULF OF AQABA. THEY ARE ACROSS A WADI (GULLY) AND ABOUT ONE AND A HALF TO TWO MILES FROM THE NEAREST BRITISH PERIMETER OUTSIDE AQABA, IT IS SAID. BRITISH TROOPS ARE AT AQABA UNDER A PROVISION OF A TREATY WITH TRANS-JORDAN.
ONE AMERICAN AND TWO FRENCH OBSERVERS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS ARE LIVING AT AQABA.

London, Saturday, March 12--(AP)--Reports were published here today that more troops have been sent to Aqaba, Trans-Jordan, where a British garrison is said to be facing Jewish troops across the Palestine-Trans-Jords frontier.

The Conservative Daily Graphic said "extremely small" reinforcements have landed at Aqaba in the last few days, "only as a precaution," adding:

"The view of London diplomatic circles is that a clash between Isrs and British troops is unlikely."

Two other papers said Britain has decided to send small reinforcement to Aqaba soon. One of these papers said an announcement of these movement is expected today.

NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-THE EIGHT-NATION TEAM DRAFTING THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT ITS HISTORIC TEXT IS COMPLETE.
THE PACT, BINDING THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND WESTERN EUROPE IN AN UNPRECEDENTED DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE, WILL BE SIGNED IN WASHINGTON THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE DRAFT OF THE TREATY HAS BEEN FINISHED WAS MADE AFTER A TWO HOUR 20 MINUTE MEETING IN SECRETARY ACHESON'S OFFICE AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT. SEVERAL MINOR CHANGES WERE MADE DURING THE SESSION.
EMERGING FROM THE CONFERENCE, BARON SILVERCRUYS, THE BELGIAN AMBASSADOR, TOLD NEWSMEN:
"IT'S ALL FINE, AGREED AND EVERYTHING."
THE STATE DEPARTMENT THEN ISSUED A MORE FORMAL STATEMENT AGREED UPON BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE EIGHT NATIONS. IT SAID:
"WE CLEARED UP SEVERAL MINOR DRAFTING POINTS. WE EXPECT THE TEXT OF THE TREATY WILL BE RELEASED FOR PUBLICATION NEXT FRIDAY AND THAT

THE TREATY WILL BE SIGNED THE FIRST WEEK IN APRIL IN WASHINGTON. THERE WILL BE ONE OR MORE MEETINGS NEXT WEEK."

SILVERCRUYS SAID THE SIGNING CONFERENCE WILL BE ATTENDED BY AS MANY OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE MEMBER NATIONS OF THE PACT AS CAN ARRANGE TO COME HERE.

THE EIGHT COUNTRIES WHICH AGREED ON THE WORDING OF THE TREATY ARE THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, NORWAY, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. SEVERAL OTHER NATIONS MAY JOIN THIS LINEUP BEFORE THE SIGNING.

ITALIAN PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI ANNOUNCED IN ROME THAT HIS GOVERNMENT HAS APPROVED ITALY'S PARTICIPATION IN THE PROJECTED ALLIANCE.

DENMARK'S FOREIGN MINISTER, GUSTAV RASMUSSEN, CONFERRED WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TODAY IN THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF TALKS WITH AMERICAN OFFICIALS CONCERNING THE POSSIBLE ALIGNMENT OF HIS COUNTRY WITH THE ATLANTIC GROUP. PORTUGAL AND ICELAND ARE CONSIDERED ELIGIBLE IF THEY WISH TO COME IN.

THE PACT WILL NOT BECOME EFFECTIVE UNTIL AFTER IT IS RATIFIED BY ALL MEMBER GOVERNMENTS FOLLOWING THE SIGNING. IN THE UNITED STATES THIS MEANS THAT IT MUST BE APPROVED BY THE SENATE.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAD PREDICTED EARLIER IN THE WEEK THAT THE TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT WOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE NEXT TUESDAY, RATHER THAN NEXT FRIDAY. THE DELAY APPEARED TO BE DUE TO THE NEED FOR FORMAL APPROVAL OF THE DRAFT BY ONE OR MORE OF THE EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS.

DENMARK'S FOREIGN MINISTER RASMUSSEN INDICATED AFTER HIS CONFERENCE WITH ACHESON TODAY THAT HE WANTS TO KNOW WHAT MILITARY HELP HIS COUNTRY COULD EXPECT IF IT JOINED THE ALLIANCE. HE TOLD REPORTERS AFTER THE 35 MINUTE CONFERENCE THAT THE CONVERSATION "TOUCHED ON" THE SUBJECT OF AMERICAN ARMS AID TO WESTERN EUROPE.

"I HOPE THAT DENMARK'S DECISION (ON LINING UP WITH THE ATLANTIC PACT POWERS) WILL BE TAKEN IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE," RASMUSSEN SAID. "IT IS MOST UNLIKELY THAT A DECISION WILL BE TAKEN WHILE I AM HERE. THE WHOLE IDEA IS FOR ME TO CONTACT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AND THEN GO HOME AND REPORT."

RASMUSSEN CAME HERE YESTERDAY. HE IS EXPECTED TO STAY HERE UNTIL THE MIDDLE OF NEXT WEEK.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-SENATOR WATKINS (R-UTAH) TODAY TOLD A GROUP OF STUDENTS THAT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT "WOULD BE JUSTIFIED ONLY IF ACTUALLY NEEDED FOR OUR OWN SECURITY."

A GROUP OF "TEEN-AGERS" FROM NEIGHBORING STATES, STUDYING THE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD AFFAIRS, CALLED ON THE SENATOR FOR HIS VIEWS ON THE PROPOSED WESTERN ALLIANCE. THE STUDY IS SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN FRIENDS (QUAKER) COMMITTEE.

WATKINS, WHO HAS CALLED FOR FULL EXAMINATION OF THE PROPOSED PACT BEFORE IT IS SIGNED AND SENT TO THE SENATE FOR FINAL APPROVAL, SAID:

"IT IS EASIER TO GET INTO ONE OF THESE ALLIANCES THAN TO GET OUT. IT IS NECESSARY THAT WE KNOW THE PRICE TAG BEFORE BUYING."

HE SAID IN HIS VIEW A MORAL COMMITMENT IS "ALMOST AS STRONG" AS A LEGAL COMMITMENT, ADDING:

"WE'VE GOT TO STAND ON HIGH PRINCIPLES IN DEALING WITH OTHER NATIONS."

HE TOLD THE GROUP THERE IS NO CERTAIN WAY TO TELL WHETHER AN AGREEMENT OF THIS KIND WILL KEEP THE UNITED STATES OUT OF TROUBLE, OR MAKE MORE TROUBLE.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 12-(AP)-A SENATE COMMITTEE TODAY ASKED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO PREVENT THE EXECUTION OF 12 GERMANS CONDEMNED TO DEATH ON CHARGES OF MACHINE-GUNNING 83 CAPTURED AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN THE "MALMEDY MASSACRE."

CHAIRMAN HOEY (D-NC) OF A SENATE INVESTIGATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE SAID IN A TELEGRAM TO MR.TRUMAN:

"IF THE EXECUTIONS ARE CARRIED OUT BEFORE A FULL AND IMPARTIAL INVESTIGATION IS MADE, IT MIGHT RESULT IN A SERIOUS BLEMISH ON THE WAR CRIMES PROGRAM OF THE UNITED STATES."

HOEY SAID "DISTURBING FACTS" ABOUT THE CONDUCT OF THE TRIALS HAD BEEN SET FORTH BY A MILITARY-CIVILIAN COMMISSION WHICH REVIEWED THE CASE.

SOME OF THE EVIDENCE BROUGHT TO LIGHT, HE SAID, SHOW THAT THE CONDUCT WAS "ABHORRENT TO OUR SYSTEM OF JUSTICE." AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE REVIEW BOARD FOUND THAT THE GERMANS WERE ALLEGEDLY PUT THROUGH "MOCK TRIALS" TO OBTAIN CONFESSIONS FROM THEM.

WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-REP.SMITH (R-WIS) SAID TODAY HE HAS INFORMATION THAT AMERICAN INVESTIGATORS FOR THE U.S.COURT IN DACHAU,GERMANY, "USED BRUTAL AND INHUMAN METHODS TO OBTAIN CONFESSIONS."

"THESE CONFESSIONS HAVE LED TO EXECUTIONS AND SEVERE PRISON SENTENCES FOR MANY GERMAN PEOPLE," SMITH SAID IN A STATEMENT IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

AT THE SAME TIME HE INTRODUCED A RESOLUTION ASKING FOR A FULL INVESTIGATION BY THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE.

"IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE," SMITH SAID, "THAT AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN THE UNIFORM OF THEIR COUNTRY WOULD STOOP TO THIRD DEGREE METHODS IN AN EFFORT TO PUNISH PEOPLE, MANY OF WHOM THEY KNEW WERE INNOCENT OF ANY CRIME, IN CONNECTION WITH THE DACHAU INCIDENT (THE NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMP AT DACHAU).

"THERE IS ABSOLUTE PROOF THAT CONFESSIONS WERE OBTAINED BY BEATINGS AND BRUTAL KICKINGS, BY KNOCKING OUT TEETH AND BREAKING JAWS, BY CONDUCTING MOCK TRIALS AND KANGAROO COURTS, BY SUBJECTING THE VICTIMS TO SOLITARY CONFINEMENT, BY POSING AS PRIESTS AND MINISTERS, BY REFUSING THEM THE RIGHT TO HAVE SPIRITUAL ADVISERS VISIT THEM, AND BY PROMISES OF ACQUITTAL IF THEY WOULD CONFESS."

SMITH SAID THOSE GUILTY OF SUCH THINGS AS THE MASSACRE OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS DURING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE SHOULD BE BROUGHT TO TRIAL "BUT UNDER THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF JURISPRUDENCE."

HE TOLD A REPORTER HE HAD INTENDED TO DISCUSS THE SUBJECT IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY BUT WAS UNABLE TO OBTAIN THE FLOOR. SO HE PUT HIS SPEECH IN THE RECORD.

(240) WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSIONER LEWIS L. STRAUSS DISCUSSED WITH SCIENTISTS TONIGHT HOW TO SCARE AMERICANS JUST ENOUGH--BUT NOT TOO MUCH--ABOUT ATOMIC ENERGY AS A WEAPON.

THERE IS ONE SCHOOL OF THOUGHT, HE SAID, WHICH HOLDS THAT THE ATOMIC BOMB IS A WEAPON FROM WHICH THERE IS NO ESCAPE, AGAINST WHICH NO DEFENSE IS LIKELY TO BE DEVISED, AND WHICH IF USED IN WARFARE WILL END IN THE EXTERMINATION OF MANKIND.

ANOTHER GROUP PREFERS TO REGARD THE ATOMIC BOMB AS "JUST ANOTHER WEAPON" TO BE TAKEN IN STRIDE BY A PEOPLE AT WAR, HE SAID.

STRAUSS SAID THAT GENERAL ACCEPTANCE OF THE FIRST THESIS CAN LEAD TO PANIC AND DEFEATISM, THE SECOND TO INDIFFERENCE AND UNPREPAREDNESS.

IT IS NECESSARY TO FIND A MEAN BETWEEN THIS ATTRIBUTION TO ATOMIC WARFARE OF HORRORS EVEN MORE TERRIBLE THAN THOSE IT QUITE CERTAINLY POSSESSES ON THE ONE HAND, AND THE VERY SOMBER FACTS ON THE OTHER,"

HE DECLARED.

STRAUSS PREPARED HIS SPEECH FOR DELIVERY TO THE EASTERN CONFERENCE OF RADIOLOGISTS, ASKING THEIR COOPERATION IN EDUCATING THE PUBLIC ON THE HAZARDS OF RADIATION IN PEACE AND WAR.

"THE PUBLIC NEEDS TO HAVE A SUBSTANTIAL PART OF ITS FEARS--THE UNREASONING PART, THAT IS TO SAY--ERASED," HE SAID.

HE POINTED OUT THAT EVERY PERSON ON EARTH IS CONTINUOUSLY BEING BOMBARDED BY IONIZING RADIATION FROM OUTER SPACE, AND THAT AT LEAST FOUR RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCES ARE NORMALLY FOUND IN HUMAN BODIES.

HE CAUTIONED, HOWEVER, THAT THERE MUST BE "PROPER RESPECT FOR THE GRAVITY OF THE SUBJECT" OF RADIATION HAZARDS.

"THE PIPELINE IS DESIGNED TO TRANSPORT CRUDE OIL," WHERRY SAID. "THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT DOES NOT USE CRUDE OIL. THIS WOULD SEEM TO REQUIRE THE CONSTRUCTION OF A REFINERY AT THE MEDITERRANEAN OUTLET ON THE STRENGTH OF THE AGREEMENT."

WHERRY NOTED THAT THE NOW-DEFUNCT SENATE SMALL BUSINESS COMMITTEE SAID IN ITS FINAL REPORT THAT "LARGE SHIPMENTS OF STEEL TO SAUDI-ARABIA AND TO OTHER MIDDLE EAST OIL DEVELOPMENTS SHOULD BE A MATTER OF FURTHER SENATORIAL INVESTIGATION."

COMMENTING THAT THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT PLANS TO LICENSE SHIPMENTS OF 25,000 TONS OF 30-INCH PIPE IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1949, WHERRY SAID:

WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-A NEW $1,500,000,000 (B) AID-FOR-CHINA PROPOSAL, SUPPORTED BY 50 SENATORS, TODAY RAN INTO THE PROSPECT OF ADMINISTRATION OPPOSITION.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S PRESENT POLICY, AS INDICATED BY SECRETARY ACHESON, IS TO LET THE DUST SETTLE FURTHER IN CHINA BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO PROVIDE THE NATIONALISTS WITH ANY MAJOR AMERICAN BACKING AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS.

THE AMOUNT PROPOSED BY SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV) YESTERDAY IS NEARLY TRIPLE WHAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS TO APPROVE 13 MONTHS AGO WHEN THE NATIONALISTS' CHANCES FOR VICTORY APPEARED PROMISING.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAY THAT NOW, WITH THE COMMUNISTS OVERUNNING ALL OF NORTH CHINA, MONTHS MAY PASS BEFORE IT IS CLEAR WHETHER A NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WILL SURVIVE TO RECEIVE AID.

IN HIS CHINA PROGRAM LAST YEAR, MR.TRUMAN ASKED $570,000,000 (M), ALL FOR ECONOMIC AID. CONGRESS TRIMMED THIS TO $275,000,000 (M) FOR ECONOMIC PURPOSES PLUS $125,000,000 FOR ARMS. VIRTUALLY ALL THAT WILL BE GONE WHEN THE CURRENT LEGISLATION EXPIRES APRIL 5.

ACHESON IS REPORTED TO HAVE STATED THE WAIT AND SEE POLICY AT A CLOSED DOOR MEETING LAST MONTH WITH HOUSE REPUBLICANS WHO FAVOR NEW ASSISTANCE.

MCCARRAN'S BILL WOULD PROVIDE UP TO $1,500,000,000 (B) IN BOTH ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID THROUGH THE SALE OF EXPORT-IMPORT BANK NOTES. OF THIS TOTAL, $500,000,000 (M) WOULD BE IN CREDITS TO THE GOVERNMENT, $300,000,000 IN ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE AND $700,000,000 FOR MILITARY SUPPLIES.

IN A LETTER HE WROTE TO CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, MCCARRAN CONTENDED THAT IT IS UP TO CONGRESS, IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS, TO SHAPE THIS COUNTRY'S POLICIES.

HE SAID THE MATTER ISN'T ONE UPON WHICH "CONGRESS MUST AWAIT SOME REQUEST FROM THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT BEFORE IT CAN PROCEED."

THE SENATORS WHO JOINED IN SIGNING THE LETTER COMPRISE A MAJORITY OF THE CHAMBER.

(260) A-BOMBERS

WASHINGTON,MARCH 11-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE HAS BEEN QUIETLY BUILDING UP ITS SPECIAL FLEET OF ATOM BOMBERS.

NO LONGER, OFFICIALS DISCLOSED, DOES THE AIR ARM HAVE ALL OF ITS ATOMIC BOMBING SKILL AND PLANES IN ONE BASKET, AS IT DID DURING THE WAR--WHEN B-29 SUPERFORTRESSES DROPPED A-BOMBS ON TWO JAPANESE CITIES--AND FOR SOME TIME AFTER.

THE ONLY UNIT FORMERLY GEARED FOR A-BOMB DROPPING WAS THE 509TH GROUP, BASED AT ROSWELL,N.M. ITS PLANES PARTICIPATED IN THE BIKINI TESTS OF 1946, IN WHICH A B-29 DROPPED AN ATOMIC BOMB ABOVE A TARGET FLEET OF NAVAL CRAFT.

IN ANSWER TO A REPORTER'S QUESTION, AN AIR FORCE OFFICIAL OFFERED THIS LACONIC REPLY: "THE SPECIALIZED QUALITY ONCE ATTRIBUTED TO THE 509TH NO LONGER PREVAILS; THERE ARE NOW OTHER GROUPS." HE DIDN'T SAY HOW MANY.

THE ONLY AIRBORNE ATOM BOMBS REPORTED SO FAR HAVE BEEN CARRIED BY THE WARTIME-BUILT SUPERFORTRESSES, WHICH STILL MAKE UP THE GREATER PART OF THE AMERICAN BOMBARDMENT FLEET.

HOWEVER, BOTH THE B-50--WHICH RECENTLY FLEW AROUND THE WORLD NON-STOP, REFUELING IN THE AIR--AND THE SIX-ENGINED, ULTRA-LONG RANGED B-36 ARE PRESUMABLY CAPABLE OF CARRYING ATOM BOMBS.

THE THREE BOMBS DROPPED SO FAR ALL HAVE BURST IN THE AIR.

BUT ATOMIC BOMBARDIERS ARE BELIEVED TO BE PRACTICING NOW AT TWO NEW METHODS: BURST ON IMPACT AT THE SURFACE OF THE EARTH OR SEA, AND SUB-SURFACE BURST.

IN THE RECENT CARIBBEAN MANEUVERS OF THE NAVY, A NAVAL BOMBER DROPPED A MOCK ATOM BOMB INTO THE WATER TO PRODUCE A SUBSURFACE EXPLOSION--CONSIDERED SUBSTANTIALLY MORE POTENT THAN AN AERIAL BURST, SINCE IN ADDITION TO THE UNDERWATER SHOCK THE BLAST PRODUCES A CLOUD OF DEADLY RADIOACTIVE SPRAY.

MAR 11 1949

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 11-(AP)-CANADA URGED TODAY THAT THE UNITED NATIONS MAKE A NEW EFFORT TO BRING THE DUTCH AND THE EXILED INDONESIAN REPUBLIC LEADERS TOGETHER FOR ROUND TABLE TALKS.

THE CANADIAN MOVE WAS MADE HERE IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL AS THE DUTCH IN HOLLAND ACKNOWLEDGED THEIR PLANS TO START INDONESIAN TALKS AT THE HAGUE TOMORROW HAD FAILED.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED UNTIL 3 P.M. (EST) MONDAY WITHOUT TAKING ANY ACTION.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS, WHO WERE BANISHED BY THE DUTCH FROM JAVA TO BANGKA ISLAND AFTER DUTCH TROOPS OVER-RAN THE REPUBLIC LAST DECEMBER, HAVE REFUSED TO GO TO THE PROPOSED HAGUE TALKS UNDER NETHERLANDS AUSPICES.

GEN.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON, CANADIAN DELEGATE ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL, MADE HIS PROPOSAL AS A SUGGESTION ONLY AND NOT AS A FORMAL RESOLUTION.

HE SUGGESTED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS' AMERICAN-AUSTRALIAN-BELGIAN COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA SHOULD TRY TO ARRANGE AN AGREEMENT IN THE EAST INDIES ON THE TIME AND CONDITIONS IN WHICH THE DEADLOCKED SIDES MIGHT BE BROUGHT TOGETHER.

IN TWO DAYS OF DELIBERATION HERE THE UNITED STATES, INDIA AND AUSTRALIA--AMONG OTHERS--URGED THE DUTCH TO COMPLY WITH THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28.

THAT MEASURE CALLED ON THE DUTCH TO FREE THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS SO THEY COULD RECLAIM THEIR CAPITAL, JOGJAKARTA, AND SET UP THEIR GOVERNMENT AGAIN.

A DUTCH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN AT THE HAGUE SAID THAT, ALTHOUGH THE ROUND TABLE DISCUSSIONS WERE OFF FOR TOMORROW, "THE DOORS TO THE CONFERENCE HALL ARE OPEN AND THE CHAIRS ARE AROUND THE TABLE."

LAKE SUCCESS,MARCH 11-(AP)-CANADA SUGGESTED TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA SHOULD TRY TO CLEAR THE WAY FOR A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA.

THE NETHERLANDS HAS INVITED THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA AND OTHER PARTIES TO A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW IN THE HAGUE. BUT THE REPUBLIC HAS REFUSED TO ATTEND BECAUSE ITS EXILED LEADERS HAVE NOT BEEN RESTORED TO POWER AS DEMANDED BY THE SECURITY COUNIL.

GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN AT THE HAGUE SAID TODAY THE PROPOSED CONFERENCE WILL NOT BE HELD TOMORROW, BUT HE ADDED: "THE DOORS TO THE CONFERENCE HALL ARE OPEN AND THE CHAIRS ARE AROUND THE TABLE. WE JUST WAIT UNTIL ALL PARTIES AGREE TO PARTICIPATE."

GEN.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON OF CANADA URGED THAT THE COUNCIL HAVE THE COMMISSION TRY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIANS ON A TIME AND CONDITIONS FOR THE PROPOSED ROUND TABLE.

THE COUNCIL WAS MEETING IN A NEW ATTEMPT TO BREAK THE DEADLOCK BETWEEN THE NETHERLANDS AND THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

INDIA AND AUSTRALIA CALLED ON THE NETHERLANDS TO COMPLY WITH A COUNCIL RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28. THIS ASKED THE DUTCH TO RESTORE THE REPUBLIC'S EXILED LEADERS TO JOGJAKARTA, THEIR CAPITAL IN JAVA, AS THE FIRST STEP TOWARD A TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY.

BELGIAN DELEGATE FERNAND VAN LANGENHOVE REMINDED THE COUNCIL THAT EFFORTS TO SOLVE THE PALESTINE CRISIS EVENTUALLY WERE SUCCESSFUL DESPITE GREAT DIFFICULTIES. HE SAID NEGOTIATIONS SHOULD GET UNDER WAY BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

THE DUTCH HAVE REFUSED TO RESTORE THE REPUBLICAN REGIME IN JOGJAKARTA WITH THE CONTENTION THAT THEY FEARED VIOLENCE AND THAT CHAOS WOULD FOLLOW SUCH ACTION. DR.J.H.VAN ROYEN, DUTCH DELEGATE, SAID THE PROBLEM MIGHT BE SOLVED IF SOMEONE COULD DEVISE A WAY OF ALLAYING THESE DUTCH FEARS.

DR.FT.F.TSIANG OF CHINA SAID HE SAW NO REASON WHY THE SECURITY COUNCIL SHOULD OBJECT TO A ROUND TALBE TALK PROVIDED THE TERMS OF THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION ARE OBSERVED.

ON THE QUESTION OF REFUSING TO RESTORE THE REPUBLIC TO POWER, TSIANG ASKED WHETHER THAT MEANT THE DUTCH MIGHT BE VISUALIZING A REMAKING OF THE REPUBLIC BEFORE IT IS RECONSTITUTED.

TSIANG AGREED WITH MCNAUGHTON'S SUGGESTION THAT THE U.N.HOLD A PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE TO SEE ABOUT CONDITIONS.

IF THE PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE IS NOT ACCEPTED BY THE PARTIES, THEN THE COUNCIL SHOULD INSTRUCT ITS COMMISSION TO TAKE NO PART IN THE ROUND TABLE TALKS, TSIANG SAID.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED AT 1:27 P.M. WITHOUT ACTING ON THE CANADIAN SUGGESTION. IT WILL CONSIDER INDONESIA AGAIN MONDAY.

VAN ROYEN TOLD THE COUNCIL YESTERDAY THAT THE NETHERLANDS HAS GIVEN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC CHIEFTAINS FREEDOM OF ACTION BUT HAS NOT RESTORED THEM TO AUTHORITY IN JOGJAKARTA, THEIR FORMER CAPITAL.

HE SAID THE DUTCH FEARED REPRISALS ON A HORRIFYING SCALE IF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WAS PUT BACK IN POWER. HE SAID IT WOULD ENCOURAGE COMMUNISTS ALSO.

WARREN R.AUSTIN, UNITED STATES DELEGATE, BACKED COMPLETELY THE SECURITY COUNCIL PLAN FOR SETTLING THE INDONESIAN CONFLICT. ONE KEY PROVISION OF THIS PLAN CALLS FOR THE DUTCH TO RETURN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC TO POWER.

AUSTIN SAID HE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHY THE DUTCH HAVE NOT COMPLIED WITH THAT PROVISION.

AUSTIN ALSO SAID THE PROPOSED ROUNDTABLE IN THE HAGUE FOR A DISCUSSION OF THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM MIGHT BE USEFUL IF THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS AGREED FIRST ON CONDITIONS FOR THE CONFERENCE. HE INDICATED THE MAIN OBSTACLE WAS THE FAILURE OF THE DUTCH TO PUT THE REPUBLIC BACK IN AUTHORITY.

British Reinforce Army At Arab Red Sea Port

MORE BRITISH SENT TO AQABA

Jewish Forces Hold Coastline Of Negeb, 5 Miles Away

London, March 12 (AP)—Britain ordered reinforcements today to Aqaba, Trans-Jordan's Red Sea port. Five miles away, across the Gulf of Aqaba, Jewish armored columns are in possession of the Negeb short Red Sea coastline.

Trans-Jordan, which signed a cease-fire pact for the whole Palestine front yesterday at Rhodes, has informed Britain officially of the Israeli advance to the Red Sea shore. Israel says the territory is hers under the United Nations partition arrangement.

Although Israel disclaimed intention of attacking or transgressing, Britain obviously is viewing the situation as dangerous. The British and their ally, Trans-Jordan, do not recognize the Israeli claim to the southern wedge of the Negeb.

British Statement Issued

Israeli armored columns had thrust through the southeast desert for a week to reach the coast at Eilat, where the Negeb forms a wedge between Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Trans-Jordan and touches the Red Sea for five miles.

Amman quarters accused Israelis of trying to grab what they want and present the United Nations with an accomplished fact, as they did with seisure of Arab Beersheba from the Egyptians last October.

In London, the British War Office issued this statement:

"The War Office anounced that the British Detachment at Aqaba is being reinforced." Britain has a treaty with Trans-Jordan which would require her to aid King Abdullah's nation if it should be attacked. About 1,000 British troops were sent to Aqaba in January at Abdullah's request.

British informants refused to tell the size of reinforcements, where they would be sent from or whether Abdullah asked for them.

A Strategic Spot

Aqaba is a strategic spot in the Middle East. It is the only access to trade routes for Abdullah's otherwise landlocked kingdom. From Aqaba, ships can sail into the Indian Ocean or up to the Suez Canal and into the Mediterranean.

Across the Gulf, troops of Israel are within rifle fire of three of her Arab neighbors, Trans-Jordan, Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

R. H. S. Crossman, a Labor member of the British Parliament who recently returned from Israel, said the new Jewish state has plans to establish its own port on the Red Sea to aid in development of the desert area. It was in this area that King Solomon once built a harbor for Hebrew ships sailing to the Orient.

Claim Based On Partition Plan

Tel Aviv imposed censorship. Through the tight veil, James M. Long, Associated Press correspondent, could send only these 29 words of a dispatch: "Blue-and-white flag of Israel flaps sodden in chill drizzle of rain over bleak Gravelly coast of Eilat across northern tip of Gulf from Trans-Jordan fishing port of Aqaba."

Moshe Sharet, Israeli Foreign Minister, said in Tel Aviv yesterday that Israel regards the Negeb coastline as Israeli territory. He said Israel had no intention of attacking Trans-Jordan and added that Aqaba is in Trans-Jordan, not in Israel.

Israel's claim is based on the November, 1947, partition plan of the United Nations assigning the Negeb desert area to the Jewish state. Britain and Trans-Jordan never recognized an Israeli claim to a Red Sea outlet. The partition resolution, although forming a basis for settlements in the Palestine war, never was enforced.

Clashes Are Reported

Official sources in Amman have reported that the Jewish column which moved to the sea had penetrated Trans-Jordan territory north of Aqaba, and that there had been clashes with Abdullah's Arab Legion.

Hector McNeill, British Minister of State, told the House of Commons yesterday Abdullah's Government had reported a clash between Trans-Jordan police and Israeli forces.

Tel Aviv denied reports of clashes.

In Beirut, Lebanon, the impression was prevalent among United Nations staff members that the reports of such engagements were exaggerated. It was pointed out that Israel hardly would want to arouse the power of Britain against her through an attack on an ally of the British.

Beirut dispatches said the belief of Brig. Gen. William Riley of the United Nations staff is that nothing more than an exchange of shots between border patrols had taken place. In this connection it was recalled that United Nations observers two weeks ago thoroughly discredited reports of an Israeli offensive in the same area.

Britain Orders More Troops To Aqaba

London, March 12 (AP)—Britain today ordered more troops to reinforce the garrison at Aqaba, tiny Red Sea port which Trans-Jordan contends is threatened by Israeli forces.

The announcement was made by the War Office after Israeli soldiers had been reported only 3 miles from Aqaba, on the Palestine side of the desert frontier.

Although Israel and Trans-Jordan signed a cease-fire agreement yesterday at Rhodes, the British troop movement underlined the serious view that London took of the Israeli move in the Negeb Desert.

Commons Given Report

Minister of State Hector McNeil told Commons yesterday that King Abdullah's Government had reported a frontier clash between Israeli forces and Trans-Jordan police in the region.

In Tel Aviv, Israeli officials denied that Jewish forces have crossed the Trans-Jordan frontier or intend any threat to British forces.

About 1,000 British troops were sent to Aqaba last January at Abdullah's request under a British-Trans-Jordan mutual defense treaty.

Israel Claims Sea Outlet

The War Office refused information on the size of the reinforcements or where they were sent from.

A Foreign Office spokesman said Israeli troops were reported on the shore of the Gulf of Aqaba, across the Palestine-Trans-Jordan Border from Aqaba. He declined to give further details.

The touchy situation at the head of the Gulf of Aqaba arises from Israeli's claim to the southern sector of the Palestine Negeb Desert which would give Israel an outlet to the Red Sea. Britain and Trans-Jordan never have recognized Israel's claim.

Awarded By U.N.

Informed observers in London believed the Israeli outpost was set up on the gulf shore before Israeli and Trans-Jordan signed the cease-fire agreement to reinforce Israel's claim to the area.

The five-mile stretch of Negeb Desert along the Gulf of Aqaba was awarded to Israel under the 1947 United Nations Assembly partition resolution. The resolution never has been enforced.

Regarded As Jewish

Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharet (he recently changed his name from Shertok) said yesterday in Tel Aviv that Israel regarded the Red Sea outlet as Jewish territory.

R. H. S. Crossman, a Labor M.P. who returned recently from a visit to Israel, has said Israel plans to establish its own port there to aid in the economic development of the desert area and the Dead Sea mineral deposits.

BRITAIN CHARGES BULGARIAN FRAUD

MAR 12 1949

Says Sofia Has No Intention Of Living Up To Peace Treaty

London, Sunday, March 13 (AP)—Britain charged today that Bulgaria has no intention of living up to her peace treaty guarantees of political and religious freedom.

The charge was made in a sharp protest note against the trial of fifteen Protestant church leaders. It declared the churchmen's confessions that they spied for Britain were "completely false," and added:

"Religious freedom in eastern Europe is under a deliberate general attack."

Four of the Protestant leaders were sentenced to life and the others to one to fifteen years last week after they pleaded guilty to espionage and other charges.

"Stronger Steps" Possible

The British note was delivered yesterday to the Bulgarian Foreign Ministry in Sofia.

An informed source close to the Foreign Office said Britain may "take stronger steps" later.

The peace treaties with Bulgaria and other former Nazi satellite states provide that disputes over violation of the pacts shall be settled by the United Nations if direct negotiations fail.

"Throughout the trial the Bulgarian Government has shown itself clearly more interested in the dissemination of propaganda than in the administration of justice," said the British note made public here by the Foreign Office. "In order to destroy the liberty of these churchmen it has sought to represent constitutional opposition to the government as criminal, the provision of information implicit in the armistice agreement as treasonable, and normal social contacts between the pastors and members of his majesty's legation as espionage.

"It has endeavored to persuade world that true religious freedom is compatible with the exercise of power by a Communist government.

"Neither his Majesty's Government nor the British people are deceived by these attempts."

The note said the trial has convinced Britain that the Bulgarian Government "has no intention of giving effect to its solemn obligations under the terms of the treaty of peace to guarantee the fundamental freedoms to its people."

Government Conclusions Drawn

The note cited the testimony of the Rev. Vassil Ziapkov, a principal defendant who was sentenced to life imprisonment, as proof that the confessions were false.

Ziapkov was quoted by the prosecution as saying that he gave esuionage material in 1944 and 1945 to Stanley Burt-Andrews, a vice consul at the British legation in Sofia.

Burt-Andrews now is serving in the British legation in Bogota, Colombia.

Ziapkov asserted at his trial that he gave the British diplomat information about machinery output and crop reports.

Foes Of Queuille Attempt To Topple His Regime

MAR 12 1949

Paris, March 12 (AP)—Political foes of Premier Henry Queuille made a new effort today to topple his Government, but observers predicted he would win.

The attack came as a de Gaullist motion to censure the Government after it had ducked a debate on its policy in French Indo-China. The General Assembly, lower house of Parliament, voted 439 to 25 today to bring the motion to debate on Tuesday.

Parliamentary circles said Queuille got into this situation because he had maneuvered awkwardly to head off a debate on the Indo-Chinese issue, one of the most controversial confronting France.

They said more adroit handling could have staved off the de Gaullist motion, which the Communists promptly supported. Both the forces of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Communists want to return to power in France.

Victory In Vote

Queuille had just won a victory by obtaining a 387-to-193 vote in the Assembly approving a bill to provide for an elected assembly in Cochin-China, one of the five Indo-Chinese states.

The Premier then had a deputy propose indefinite suspension of a proposed debate of policies in Indo-China, where French troops have been fighting Nationalists for nearly three years. Queuille feared a debate because he was far from sure of support from the Socialists, who are represented in the coalition government.

Deputy Rene Capitant, a de Gaullist, promptly countered with a motion of censure. At least 311 votes would be needed to pass a motion of censure, and observers said they believed Capitant could not collect that many. The Communists command 182 votes and the de Gaullists about 30. A vote of censure would force the Cabinet to resign.

Emperor Persuaded

The Government recently persuaded former Emperor Bao Dai to return to Indo-China and organize a government for the proposed state of Viet-Nam in an effort to restore peace. The state would embrace the protectorates of Annam and Tonkin, and the colony of Cochin-China. The latter is expected to give up its colonial status and join the Viet-Nam state to which France has pledged "independence with France in the Commonwealth."

Queuille is under Communist fire for refusing to dicker with Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh, Nationalist leader in Indo-China. The Socialists also feel he should negotiate with Ho Chi-minh, but they indicated they would not support an effort to topple the Government simply because it said "no."

CUSTOMS STRIKE TO HALT

'Hard Work' on French Piers to Resume if Rise Is Denied

PARIS, March 12 (AP)—French customs officers decided today to continue their "hard-work" strike one more day, and then postpone it.

On orders from their Communist union leaders, the customs men yesterday began an intensive search of baggage entering the country. Usually, their examinations are quick and considerate.

Officials estimated that if the workers applied every rule in the book, as they threatened to do, it might take a week to unload the Queen Mary.

The strike was called to back up demands for a 10 per cent wage increase.

Union chiefs decided to call off the strike Sunday morning—but only until next Thursday. Negotiators hope the Cabinet in that interval will approve a compromise that has been negotiated to end the strike.

Airlift Fliers Set Another Record

BERLIN, March 12 (AP).—The British-American airlift racked up another record tonight. By hauling 7043 tons of supplies into Berlin over the Soviet blockade in the last 24 hours, airlift pilots piled up a total of 45,683 tons for the week. The old weekly record of 44,612 tons was set last month.

COMMUNISTS RIOT AGAINST PACT IN ROME

Police Stop Mob Action; Chamber Of Deputies Heavily Guarded

Rome, March 12 (AP)—Communist-led crowds stormed through downtown Rome for a wild half hour tonight, shouting protests against Italy's adherence to the Atlantic alliance.

Jeep-borne riot police quickly got the situation in hand and patrolled the area for hours afterward, alert for new outbreaks. Heavy police guards were thrown around the Chamber of Deputies and Foreign Ministry buildings.

Police Wield Clubs

Shouting "peace, peace!" a crowd of 800 to 1,000 Leftist youths, many wearing flaming red neckerchiefs, tried to storm into the Palazzo Chigi, the Foreign Ministry building. Police wielded clubs freely. Traffic was hopelessly snarled as jeeps raced through the area bearing police with drawn tommyguns.

One crowd swarmed into the Piazza Colonna, center of many Communist-led demonstrations, shouting "down with Sforza." Carlo Sforza, the Foreign Minister, led the forces favoring alignment with the Atlantic nations. Italy's intention to participate in the Atlantic accord was announced to the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

The manner in which Rome police handled the demonstrations against the Atlantic alliance indicated they had strongly worded orders from the Interior Ministry.

Two Photographers Clubbed

The motorized police swept through the crowds, forcing them from the sidewalks near Government buildings. They swung rubber clubs and rifle butts freely. The strong attack of the police forces quickly dispersed the demonstrators.

Two Associated Press photographers, Walter Green and James Pringle, were clubbed by police while taking pictures of the demonstration. Pringle was held for 30 minutes and then released.

The police had been swinging clubs at any who refused to obey. When the cameramen came up the police forbade them to take pictures. Green's camera flashed at a clubbing scene. He was immediately struck by a policeman. The police then turned on Pringle and struck him on the head.

A stone's throw from the Piazza Colonna the Chamber of Deputies was in session in Montecitorio Palace. There the deputies continued the bitter debate on the alliance, with Pietro Nenni, the pro-Communist Socialist leading the attack on the Government of Christian Democrat Premier Alcide de Gasperi.

Report From Naples

The entire Communist and pro-Communist Socialist representation rose and cheered when Nenni mentioned Russia. Then the anti-Communist rose and shouted, amidst the general tumult, "Viva Italia!" (Long live Italy). It was some time before Giovanni Gronchi, Chamber President, could restore order.

Nenni, whose party has been ejected from the Socialist International for refusing to break its Communist ties, charged that the Atlantic treaty is "an effort to destroy the United Nations and the principle of collective security." He said it would lead to war. The statement was greeted with jeers and hisses.

A report from Naples said a group of Communists in that city, headed by Senator Mario Palermo, trooped into the City Hall to demand an order of the day against the Atlantic alliance. They were opposed by the mayor and a large part of the City Council, and after much arguing, they left the hall.

POPE MARKS ANNIVERSARY

MAR 12 1949

Coronation Of Pius Took Place Ten Years Ago

Vatican City, March 12 (AP)—Pope Pius XII entered the eleventh year of his reign today with renewed pledges from the faithful to strengthen his hand against world communism.

Cardinals, priests and diplomats assigned to the Holy See gathered in the great Sistine Chapel of St. Peter's for a solemn pontifical mass marking the tenth anniversary of the coronation.

Cries of "Viva il Papa!"—long live the Pope—rang through the chambers as the Pontiff was borne on his gestatorial chair, the portable throne, to the Sistine Chapel for the mass. The frail but dynamic spiritual leader of the world's hundreds of millions of Catholics lifted his hand in benediction.

Apostolic Benediction Given

The Pope was robed in white and wore the triregnum, the triple crown of the papacy. Fourteen of his cardinals, in long red ermine-fringed capes, diplomats in full regalia and heads of religious orders of priests and nuns waited for him in the chapel.

The mass was celebrated by Benedetto Cardinal Aloisi Masella, the first of the cardinals now present in Rome to have been elevated by this Pontiff to the Sacred College. At the end of the mass the Pope imparted his apostolic benediction to all present.

"Sorrowful Conditions"

The Vatican City was decorated with the white and gold papal flags. This coronation anniversary celebration was somewhat curtailed. Because of "sorrowful conditions" facing the Church in some parts of the world, the Pontiff did not wish to hold the usual receptions which have marked the occasion in the past.

The "sorrowful conditions" are typified by the imprisonment in Hungary of Josef Cardinal Midnszenty, elevated to the purple by Pius XII just three years ago.

Pledges Of Loyalty

Renewed pledges of loyalty came to the Pope from Catholics all over the world, from leaders of the Italian Government, and from Italian Catholic Action, an organization of militant Church members. Catholic Action pledged itself anew to defend the Pontiff from violent, insidious attacks" and to give him "active loyalty and solid devotion."

The Pope celebrated on March 2 the anniversary of his election to the throne of St. Peter in 1939 and also his seventy-third birthday. On April 2 he will mark his fiftieth anniversary as a priest.

The Pope will broadcast a blessing to the children of the world at 11.30 A.M., next Saturday (5.30 A.M., E.S.T.). The Italian radio will broadcast the address.

Pope Pius Celebrates Tenth Anniversary

MAR 12 1949

Vatican City, March 12 (AP)—The Vatican today celebrated the tenth anniversary of Pope Pius XII's spiritual rule of the world's Roman Catholics with a colorful, solemn mass in Rome's famous Sistine Chapel.

Cardinals, prelates, priests and members of the diplomatic corps assigned to the Holy See attended the pontifical mass marking the anniversary of the Pope's coronation.

The Pope, dressed in a white cape and wearing his triregnum—a beehive shaped crown—was carried reverently to the chapel in his sedia gestatoria, or ruler's chair.

Cheered By Crowds

Throngs of faithful along the route cheered him, shouting "Viva il Papa! Viva il Papa!"

The Pope imparted benediction to all present at the end of the mass, along with a 30-year indulgence.

Members of the diplomatic corps wore full ceremonial dress and decorations. Fourteen cardinals, dressed in long red ermine-fringed capes, were present.

Greetings came to the Pontiff on this festive day from all parts of the world.

Buildings Decorated

The buildings in Vatican City, the tiny state over which the Pope rules, were decorated with white and golden papal flags and bunting.

Benedetto Aloisi Cardinal Maselia, the first of the cardinals present to have been elevated to the Sacred College by the Pontiff, celebrated the mass.

The Pope notified his representatives abroad last week that because of "sorrowful conditions" facing the Church in some parts of the world he did not wish the usual coronation anniversary receptions this year.

For Ten Days

Today's mass continues a series of observances begun ten days ago.

Dutch Army to Expand

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, March 12 (AP).—The annual levies for the Dutch armed forces will be increased by 10,000 men, bringing the total to 50,000, it was announced today. The increase will be carried out gradually.

Benelux Economic Union

The Hague, March 12 (AP)—The premiers of Belgium, Netherlands and Luembourg announced tonight the forging of a complete Benelux economic union, effective July 1, 1950.

The agreement becomes effective in two stages, with a preunion stage to be reached this July.

The text of the document agreed upon by Premiers Paul - Henri Spaak of Belgium, Dr. Willem Drees of the Netherlands and P. Dupong of Luembourg was not disclosed.

An authoritative source said it contained a provision that Belgium and Luxembourg would provide the Netherlands with dollar support to overcome a deficit in her payments balance "as far as it lies in their powers."

The informant said it noted also that the economic union would depend on continuation of the Marshall plan. Some observers thought that clause was a Belgian hedge in case the United States suspends aid to Holland because of the Indonesian question.

A number of specified goods will be exchanged among the three countries without customs duties beginning this July.

Russ Alert To Oppose A Mediterranean Pact

Ankara, Turkey, March 12 (AP)—Russia seems to be making guarded but anxious inquiries into possible formation of a Mediterranean defense alliance which would be linked to the projected North Atlantic pact.

There were strong indications that Russian Ambassador Alexander Lavrishev has discussed the proposed Mediterranean agreement in recent conversations here with envoys of other nations.

Diplomatic sources said he talked in the last three weeks with ambassadors of France, Italy, Great Britain, Greece and, perhaps, the United States. American sources withheld comment.

London Hears Of Inquiry

Foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak of Turkey said he had no information about Lavrishev talking with Turkish Foreign Office officials about a Mediterranean regional treaty.

Diplomatic sources in London said earlier that Russia had asked the Turkish Foreign Office about Turkey's interest in such an agreement. Russia and Turkey have a common border of more than 200 miles.

Turkish officials as far back as six months ago urged formation of a regional security belt in the eastern Mediterranean. They are said to have told Russia that the project would be aimed at securing peace and not against the Soviet Union.

Strong Opposition Expected

Russia is expected to come out strongly against any Mediterranean pact—if and when it seems to be taking shape. Its members presumably would include Greece and the Arab nations, besides Turkey. Both Turkey and Greece now receive military aid from the United States.

Sadak has talked over the proposed new alliance recently with British, French and Greek officials.

Some diplomatic sources said it was unlikely Turkey would pay much attention to possible Russian protests ove rthe Mediterranean-pact idea as long as the Soviet Union presses demands for joint defense of the Dardanelles—now controlled by Turkey.

Russ Propaganda Film Gets Capacity Crowds

Moscow, March 12 (AP)—"Meeting on the Elbe," the new film showing Russia as the defender of European culture against depicted barbarians from across the Atlantic, is drawing capacity crowds in Moscow. Its music is by Dmitri Shostakovich.

The picture has such touches as these:

An American stealing German technical information from the Russian zone of Germany.

An American general importing cigarettes in half a dozen trucks for speculation.

A courageous Russian occupation official defeating nefarious American plans on all fronts.

[It was on the Elbe that American and Russian forces finally met in the last days of Germany, bisecting the enemy.]

Finnish Foreign Policy Attacked In Moscow

Moscow, March 12 (AP)—The Literary Gazette alleged today "the ruling circles" in Finland are following a foreign policy directed by the United States.

The Gazette assailed Finland's Premier, Karl A. Fagerholm. Finnish leaders have not openly proposed that their country join the North Atlantic pact, it said, but their attitude "presupposes" that they have a "disguised" foreign policy based on American directives.

The paper quoted Fagerholm of having said, "We do not have the possibility of carrying out any secret foreign policy." He spoke, the Gazette contended, "as if he regretted this situation."

CHINA PREMIER IS CONFIRMED

MAR 12 1949

Gen. Ho Flies To Nanking Today; Expected To Bolster Li

Nanking, March 12 (AP)—Gen. Ho Ying-chin got legislative approval as premier of Nationalist China today.

NIGHT

The 60-year-old friend of acting President Li Tsung-jen is expected to fly to Nanking from Hangchow tomorrow and begin formation of a cabinet.

The government's efforts to arrange peace with the Communists have been stalled by lack of a cabinet since Premier Sun Fo and his administration resigned Tuesday.

While Ho is on the Communists' list of "war criminals," he has influence with southern Nationalist military men. This is expected to strengthen acting President Li's authority to speak for that part of China still held by the government.

Still Meets Resistance

It has been inviting various local leaders to Nanking in efforts to win support, but still is meeting resistance, especially in the South.

The government machinery, which almost disintegrated after President Chiang Kai-shek "retired" last January 21, is slowly beginning to function again.

[Writing from Canton, where Sun Fo moved his cabinet and much of the government February 5, James Flood, AP correspondent, said there was little evidence that the southern conservatives were making progress in opposition to Li's peace government.]

Ho Confirmed As Premier Of China

MAR 12 1949

Nanking, March 12 (AP)—Gen. Ho Ying-chin became Premier of Nationalist China today. Peace talks with the Communists await formation of his Cabinet.

Acting President Li Tsung-Jen's choice to succeed Dr. Sun Fo was approved by the legislative Yuan at a special session. The vote was 209 to 30.

DAY

Nomination of the former Defense Minister was confirmed after a personal appeal by the acting President. Li made his request at a morning reception for the legislators. They carried it out in an afternoon session.

No Communist Reaction

There has been no Communist reaction to Ho as Premier. He had been considered the most likely man for the premiership since Sun resigned Tuesday.

A compromise choice for Premier, Ho is expected to strengthen the position of the central Government in what is left of Nationalist China. This in turn will bolster Li's hand in peace negotiations.

Li has been trying to bring back the Central Government as a strong force.

Power Disintegrated

Even under Chiang Kai-shek the Government never was able to extend actual control over all of this vast country. When he "retired" as President January 21, the central Government's power disintegrated. Most of the power passed to regional or provincial leaders.

Li has asked local leaders to conferences in an attempt to build up support of the Nanking Government. He still is meeting resistance. South China leaders have been particularly hard to get. They have not even accepted his invitations.

But Li's Government is in better shape either for making peace or carrying on the three-year civil war.

Breathing Spell

The prolonged halt of the victorious Communist armies north of the Yangtze River have given the Acting President a breathing spell.

More officials are coming back to Nanking from Canton, where Sun transplanted the Government. Both the legislative Yuan and the control Yuan are now in plenary session here. One of Ho's first administrative decisions may be whether to bring the Executive Yuan back from Canton.

Unified command of the battered Nationalist armies still is lacking. Many commanders cling to personal loyalties and still look to Chiang for orders.

Here again, Ho is expected to give Li a stronger hand. Ho is being counted upon for influence over the powerful Whampoa clique—the men from the old military academy.

Johnson Arrives In Seoul

Seoul, March 12 (AP)—Edgar Johnson, Washington director of the Economic Co-operation Administration program for Korea, arrived today. He will make a check of Korean economic aid requirements during his twelve-day stay.

BURMESE REBELS ENTER MANDALAY

Heavy Fighting Is Reported; Leftist Settlement Hinted

MAR 12 1949

Rangoon, Burma, March 12 (AP)—Karen forces have seized a part of Mandalay, former capital of Burmese kings, as a climax to their six-week active revolt.

Informed sources reported that the white-band PVO (People's Volunteer Organization) was holding an important conference in the oil town of Yenangyuang. Political informants said they believed the conference was to consider a settlement with the Government on the basis of national unity on a Leftist plane. Burma has been torn by revolts and splits since gaining independence from Britain fifteen months ago.

Aided By Communists

The Karens are seeking to set up their separate state of Karenstan and have been aided in some localities by Communists. The PVO's formerly were the private army of U Aung San, assassinated Nationalist leader who was largely instrumental in the country's winning independence.

The official announcement that the Karens had entered mandalay said heavy fighting was going on in the city.

Reach Leper Asylum

The Karens penetrated the Government defense line at Hotonbo, 13 miles from the storied Temple City, Friday night. Late in the night they penetrated to the Roman Catholic leper asylum, 2 miles from the heart of the city.

Disrupted communications prevented the news from reaching Rangoon until today, and Government reinforcements were sent at once from Kyaukse, 25 miles south of Mandalay.

Indian Police Repulse Communist Archers

Calcutta, March 12 (AP)—Communists with bows and arrows attacked seven policemen in a remote village 80 miles from here and came off second best, dispatches said today.

The police shot two dead and wounded several others. Communists packed away the wounded.

Dutch Accused Of Atrocities

DAY

Batavia, Java, March 12 (AP)—The Republican "emergency government" in North Sumatra accused the Dutch today of severe reprisal action at Jogjakarta in the last two weeks. The Dutch reported a fierce guerrilla attack on the former Indonesian capital two weeks ago.

A radio message addressed to Mohammed Rum, chairman of the Republican delegation now on Bangka Island, asked him to call the attention of the United Nations to the "atrocities" of Dutch troops at Jogjakarta, which was seized by the Dutch last December 19, at the beginning of their police action in Indonesia.

Message Text

The message said:

"Member of the parliamentary working committee, Mangoensarkoro; former mayor of Batavia, Soewirjo; mayor of Jogjakarta, Soedarisman, and former governor of the Molucca Islands, Latoeharhary, were maltreated.

"Approximately 60 students were killed by electrocution in the electric power station.

Looting Charged

"Jogjakarta has been thoroughly looted by Dutch troops."

Dutch Army headquarters emphatically denied the truth of the charges and described them as nonsense.

MacArthur Tells Japan To Improve Coal Industry

TOKYO, March 12 (AP).—General Douglas MacArthur told the Japanese government today to jack up the coal industry. The industry, a key to recovery, has been limping ever since the war.

General MacArthur, in a directive, told the government to "correct current malpractices "in the industry and take steps to improve mining operations. Furthermore, he said the improvement must be made without increasing the official price of coal and without handing out any more subsidies.

The directive was one of the toughest from occupation headquarters in some time. General MacArthur noted that operators sometimes were not paying the miners all their wages, saying they didn't have the money. "All contractual cash wage obligations for time actually worked will be paid when due an din full," the directive said.

Coal mine operators got huge government subsidies last year but still failed to fill a quota of 36,000,000 tons set by the occupation. The quota for this year is 42,000,000 tons.

GI, 2 Girls Slain In Luzon Ambush

MANILA, March 12 (AP).—A hail of bullets from ambush killed an American soldier and two Filipino girls today. Five other girls were wounded.

The assailants opened fire with rifles and tommyguns on an Army bus within 300 yards of the big U. S. Air Base at Clark Field, 60 miles north of Manila in Central Luzon.

The bus, driven by the American soldier, was taking a group back home from a dance at the base. The driver and the two girls were killed instantly. Military police took the five wounded girls to a hospital at San Fernando in Pampanga Province.

MAR 12 1949

ARMY ORDERS PROBE

Brig. Gen. J. V. Crabb, commanding the American 18th Fighter Wing, ordered an immediate investigation.

Crabb set up a rigid curfew. He ordered all American civilians and military personnel not to leave the air base after 6 P. M. until further orders. U. S. civilians living near the air base were advised to remain home after dark.

FIRST INCIDENT OF KIND

Philippine constabulary and civil authorities joined the U. S. military police in investigating the attack, the first incident of this kind near the important U. S. military reservation.

There has been fighting in the past near Clark Field. However, Army Intelligence agents have not regarded these clashes as directed at Americans. Instead they have been considered connected with the fighting between Philippine constabulary troops and armed peasant guerillas. These clashes have flared from time to time throughout Central Luzon since the war.

PACT HELP FOR U.S. ON AIRBASES SEEN

State Department Chiefs Talk With Danish Leaders

Washington, March 12 (AP)—High United States officials told Denmark's Foreign Minister today that the Atlantic treaty would provide a "framework" to solve the long-pending problem of American airbases on Greenland.

American strategists are known to believe that if American bases in Greenland, Iceland and the Azores—or use of them—can be arranged under the alliance it will permanently strengthen defenses of the entire Atlantic area.

But today's talk between State Department leaders and Gustav Rasmussen, Foreign Minister, provided the first definite information that American officials do in fact feel the treaty will greatly ease the base solution.

Danes See Bohlen

Rasmuseen, Henrik de Kauffmann, Danish Ambassador, and other Danish diplomats went to the State Department for Rasmussen's second conference on the treaty. He seeks to ascertain the benefits and obligations for Denmark in joining.

Today the Danes saw Charles E. Bohlen, State Department counselor; Ernest Gross, assistant secretary; John D. Hickerson, chief of the department's European office, and other policy-making authorities.

When Rasmussen left, he said that the group talked about prospects for American military aid to western Europe under the treaty. He said they "also discussed several aspects of the Greenland problem."

He said he did not expect any immediate solution but was concerned with looking for the facts on which the solution might some day be based.

Three Points Emphasized

Actually it was learned that the American representatives emphasized three points:

1. The proposed Atlantic treaty would provide a "framework" for dealing with the base problem in the future.

2. The treaty will be primarily useful to prevent attack. It would array beforehand powerful forces to strike back at any aggressor, so that the attack might never occur.

3. Under the treaty the member nations in North America and western Europe will be able to take all the co-operative actions necessary to strengthen the defenses of the whole area.

In connection with this latter point, informants say many lines of action are planned.

One of the most immediately important, in the opinion of the State Department, is American arms aid to Europe.

Another is development of joint defense plans for the whole area of America-Atlantic Ocean-western Europe.

Dane, U.S. Aides Discuss Issue Of Greenland

MAR 12 1949

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen said today that he had discussed "several aspects of the Greenland problem" with high State Department officials.

The United States set up air bases on the great island of Greenland, which Denmark owns, during the war.

The question of whether this country could continue to operate the bases in peacetime has been at issue for two years. Many high officials believe it will be finally solved in terms of the North Atlantic Security Treaty.

Signing Set For April

The treaty has been completed after months of negotiations and will be signed here the first week in April.

Rasmussen is here seeking information about Denmark's obligations and benefits if it joins the projected alliance, as it is expected to do. He said he may leave for home Tuesday evening after another conference with Secretary of State Acheson, probably that afternoon.

Today, Rasmussen, Danish Ambassador Henrik de Kauffman and other Danish diplomats conferred for an hour and 40 minutes with Charles E. Bohlen, State Department counsellor; Ernest Gross, Assistant Secretary; John D. Hickerson, chief of the European division; Benjamin M. Hulley, director of the Northern European section, and Theodore Achilles, the department's expert on the North Atlantic treaty.

"Satisfactory Answers"

When Rasmussen left the conference, he said he had raised "various questions" and had received "satisfactory answers" in all cases where answers could be provided immediately.

Asked to specify the questions, Rasmussen said that in addition to talking about Denmark's interest in American arms aid, first discussed yesterday with Acheson, the group also "discussed several aspects of the Greenland problem."

He does not expect any immediate or definite solution of that problem in his talks here, he said, because at the moment he is looking not for solutions but for facts.

Ten Signers Expected

He said his progress was "very satisfactory."

Denmark and Italy are expected to line up formally with the Western defense bloc before the actual signing of the treaty next month, thus increasing the number of original signers to ten. Portugal and Iceland may also come in.

Completion of the treaty draft was announced last night by the negotiating team. The eight nations represented are the United States, Canada, Britain, Norway, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

To Be Published Friday

The State Department said the text will be made public Friday, and "the treaty will be signed the first week in April in Washintgon."

Meanwhile, the European and Canadian ambassadors will meet with Acheson next week to work out details for the signing ceremoney and register the final approval of their governments for the arrangements agreed upon yesterday.

National Guard Biggest In Peacetime History

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The United States now has its largest peacetime National Guard in history.

Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, National Guard chief, announced today that the guard reached a strength of 329,614 officers and enlisted men on March 1.

This is but 11,386 short of the 341,000 goal set for June 30.

On the eve of the last war, in 1940, the guard numbered 199,491.

Backing For U.S. On Dutch Cited

MAR 12 1949

New York, March 12 (AP)—Philip C. Jessup, American Ambassador-at-large, said today the people of the United States are stanchly behind the Government in demanding Dutch compliance with United Nations' orders in the Indonesian case.

The United States has backed in the Council a resolution approved January 28 calling on the Dutch to restore leaders of the Indonesian republic to power. The Dutch have not done so. The Council will debate the case again Monday.

Jessup, United States delegate to the United Nations Assembly, spoke at the American Association for the United Nations.

Strong Support

"The strong and vocal support which organizations such as yours have been giving to the United States position in the Security Council on the Indonesian issue helped to make it unmistakably clear to the Government and the people of the Netherlands that the people of this country feel very strongly that the continued disregard of the Security Council resolution of January 28 and the acts of aggression preceding it constitute a serious threat to the stability and security of the world," Jessup said.

"In the columns of our newspapers, in the halls of Congress, through organizations such as the American Association for the United Nations, the American public has made itself plain in saying that the United States would be failing in its responsibilities to the United Nations if it ignored the failure of the Netherlands Government to fulfill the reasonable and fair measures contained in the Security Council resolution."

150 'PEACEMAKERS' TO RESIST WAR TAX

New York, March 12 (AP)—A pacifist Presbyterian minister said today 150 members of a peace-seeking group had decided they would not pay any Federal income taxes to be used for financing "war preparations.

The Rev. A. J. Muste, national secretary of the Peacemakers, said today he himself was one of "about 15" members of the organization in the New York city area who have launched the tax resistance movement.

Muste described the Peacemakers as a "nonviolent revolutionary pacifist group engaged in a campaign similar to that of the late Mahatma Gandhi in India." The organization has about 2,000 members, he said.

Muste Explains Aims

The 150 persons throughout the country who have joined in the tax resistance movement, Muste said, have either decided "to withhold all their taxes or just that part of them which proportionately would go to war preparations."

In explaining the movement, Muste said:

"The greatest possible evil today is that of atomic and bilogoical war. We must use every possible means, including that of civil disobedience, to stop the possibility of our country waging war."

Asked if he anticipated substantial growth of the movement, Muste replied:

"There would be a great many more people who would participate if their taxes were not withheld by employers under the law."

Predicts General Resistance

Muste predicted general resistance to war preparedness in the form of refusals to register for draft and the tax resistance movement would increase.

He said the Peacemakers' organization is "completely non-political, opposed to totalitarianism in any form, including communism."

Muste also is national chairman of the Fellowship of Reconciliation which he described as a religious organization numbering some 15,000 and dedicated to peace.

Comments On Taxes

In Washington, a treasury spokesman declined comment concerning the Peacemaker organization's tax resistance move.

Commenting generally, he said "the law requires the Treasury to collect taxes and we will collect them. Wherever there is nonpayment of taxes, the law provides means for forcing payment, such as attachment of salaries, seizure of property and other means. The Treasury will carry out the law concerning collections."

NEW DISTANCE RECORD SET BY SUPERBOMBER

Crippled B-36 Lands After 9,600-Mile Nonstop, Nonrefueling Flight

MAR 12 1949

Fort Worth, Texas, March 12 (AP). A crippled B-36 superbomber landed at Carswell airbase today with a new distance record for these planes.

The ship, with two of its six pusher-type engines dead, touched earth after a 9,600-mile nonstop, nonrefueling flight over the nation. For 5,000 miles the B-36 had carried 10,000 pounds of bombs.

Two propellers were motionless as the superbomber came in for a landing at 7.57 A.M. It had been airborne 43 hours and 37 minutes since roaring away from Carswell at 12.30 P.M. Thursday. It carried its big bomb load for 24 hours and 55 mnutes.

The flight topped by 687 miles the former B-36 record distance flight last December 6-7. That was a hop from Fort Worth to Honolulu and return ending on Pearl Harbor day.

Plane Ordered Down

The flight failed by 1,636 miles to equal the nonrefueling distance record of 11,236 miles. This record was made by the Truculent Turtle, a two-engine navy patrol plane which flew from Perth, Australia, to Columbus, Ohio, October 1, 1946.

Carswell base announced the plane had two hours of fuel left when it landed. Major John D. Bartlett, project officer for B-36 training for the 7th Bombardment Wing of the 8th Air Force, ordered the plane down because two engines had failed today and weather was closing in on the field.

The route of the bomber took it northward over Minneapolis; westward to Great Falls, Mont., and southeastward across the nation to Key West, Fla., where President Truman is vacationing.

Terrific Headwinds

The B-36, big as three five-room houses, dropped its tremendous load in the Gulf or Mexico at 1.15 P.M. yesterday.

Then it headed northwestward, passing over Fort Worth 2 hours and 5 minutes later.

It roared northward, past Denver, and at 10.36 P.M. last night it sighted Great Falls, Mont., for the second time. An hour and 22 minutes later it throbbed over Spokane and turned southeastward for the last lap home.

Over Wyoming the bomber bucked into terrific headwinds. Bartlett said if it had not been for these headwinds and the engine trouble, the plane could have exceeded 10,000 miles.

Both Bartlett and Lieut. William Grabowski, Bergenfield, N.J., flight engineer, who were on the flight, also made the distance trip on Pearl Harbor day.

The superbomber, with Capt. Roy R. Showalter of Mobile, Ala., as pilot and commander and Lieut. Clarence E. Horton of San Antonio, as co-pilot, carried a crew of only twelve men instead of the usual fifteen.

B-36 Flies 9,600 Miles Without Refueling

MAR 12 1949

Fort Worth, Texas, March 12 (AP)—A B-36 bomber with two of its six engines dead landed at Carswell Airbase at 7.57 A.M. (C.S.T.) today after a non-stop, non-refueling 9,600-mile flight over the United States.

It was the longest nonstop flight ever made by a B-36.

The sensational flight exceeded by 687 miles a similar simulated bomb-run flight from Fort Worth to Honolulu and return made last December 6-7, ending on Pearl Harbor Day.

Carried Bomb Load

The great silver ship climbed into the air at 12.20 P.M. (C.S.T.) Thursday and flew 43 hours and 3 minutes, carrying a 10,000-pound bomb load 5,000 miles. The bombs were jettisoned in the Gulf of Mexico at 1.15 P.M. yesterday.

Carswell Airbase said it carried fuel for two more hours of flying when it landed.

Leaving Fort Worth, the bomber flew northward over Minneapolis, then westward to circle Great Falls, Mont. Then it looped southeastward across the nation in a great diagonal course to Key West, Fla.

Passed Over Denver

After jettisoning its bombs, the bomber roared northwestward, passing over Denver at 7.12 P.M. (C.S.T.) last night.

Great Falls, Mont., was sighted for the second time at 10.36 P.M. (C.S.T.) last night and the plane made a turn at Spokane, Wash., at 11.58 P.M. (C.S.T.), heading homeward.

The bomber bucked into terrific head winds at 3.56 A.M. today over Casper, Wyo.

World Flight

On Feb. 26 Carswell Field sent a smaller B-50 bomber on a nonstop trip around the world. Refueling four times in the air, the Lucky Lady II girdled the globe in 94 hours 1 minute and flew more than 23,000 miles.

Two men who made the Pearl Harbor Day distance flight were on the record-breaking trip that ended today.

They were Major John D. Bartlett, project officer for B-36 training for the 7th Bombardment Wing of the 8th Air Force, who directed the flight, and Lieut. William Brabowski, of Bergenfield, N.J., flight engineer.

Alabama Man Pliot

The superbomber, with Capt. Roy R. Showalter, of Mobile, Ala., as pilot and plane commander, and Lieut. Clarence E. Horton, of San Antonio, as copilot, carried a crew of twelve men instead of the usual B-36 crew of fifteen.

Other crewmen were Capt. Earl N. Yaden, of London, Ky., bombardier-navigator-radar man; Major Joseph A. Brown, of Gillespie, Ill., aboard in the same capacity and responsible for dropping the bomb load; Master Sergeant John L. Corley, of Fort Worth, and Master Sergeant Carl W. Arey, of Susquehanna, Pa., flight engineers; Technical Sergeant J. P. Fleming, of Weston, Wyo., radioman, and Staff Sergeants Clarence E. Pawkett, of San Antonio; P. C. Cothran, Jr., Tampa, Fla., and Albert L. Claggett, of Fort Worth, gunners.

Tired and unshaven after the flight, the men had worked eight-hour shifts while those off duty slept in the aft compartment on stretcher-type bunks the B-36 carries.

Weather Closing In

Because of engine trouble and because weather was closing in at Fort Worth, Bartlett directed the plane to land.

The engines failed today.

Without engine trouble and the headwinds encountered Bartlett was confident the plane could have exceeded 10,000 miles.

Only squadron personnel, wives of several crewmen and a few friends were on hand to welcome the returning flyers.

OFFICER TELLS OF 'WAR' ON U.S.

General McClure Says Only One Element Is Lacking

Columbus, Ohio, March 12 (AP)—All four elements except one—direct military action—of total war are being used against the United States, the 2d Army's chief of staff said today.

Maj. Gen. Robert B. McClure, speaking before 700 delegates at an Ohio National Guard conference here, said:

"Three of the four factors in total war are being applied against the United States—economic, political and psychological pressures. The fourth is the military factor. It is a daily threat.

Outlines Program

In order to avoid a third world war, General McClure outlined a three-point program:

1. Continue to hope and work intelligently and objectively for peaceful settlement of all international problems.
2. Organize at home for adequate and immediate readiness for war.
3. Assist all other freedom-loving peoples to the limit of our capabilities, to resist aggression and maintain the dignity of mankind.

"To attain such a position of readiness," General McClure declared, "is not just the duty of a few but that of our entire population."

VA Doctors Can't Treat Nero Who Served Dog-Gone Well

MAR 12 1949

Des Moines, Iowa, March 12 (AP). A dog which was discharged from the Army after "faithful service" is not qualified to receive medical benefits from the Government, says the Veterans Administration.

The ruling was made in the case of Nero, a 70-pound German shepherd dog which served in both the German and American armies during World War II.

Runs Up $65 Doctor Bill

Nero was captured from the Germans in northern Italy during the last days of the war. Nero's owner, Joe Gold, said he has spent $65 on veterinary bills in the last couple of months. Gold is an air force captain studying aeronautical engineering at Iowa State College.

Gold noted the word "discharge from faithful service" on Nero's discharge, and asked the VA if the dog was eligible for medical benefits.

Held "Not A Person"

The assistant solicitor of the district Veterans Administration office at St. Paul, Minn., ruled the law provided only "persons" can receive medical benefits from the VA.

Nero, he said, cannot qualify as "persons."

DISMISSED PROFESSOR CLEARED OF CONTEMPT

SEATTLE, March 12 (AP)—A jury acquitted Dr. Herbert J. Phillips of contempt of the State Un-American Activities Committee yesterday. The state went ahead today, however, with plans to prosecute five other persons on the same charge.

Dr. Phillips, 57 years old, a philosophy teacher, was ousted by the University of Washington. Facing the same charge as that on which he was tried, Ralph H. Gundlach, a psychology teacher, also dismissed by the university, will go on trial Monday. Like Dr. Phillips, he is accused of refusing to answer the committee's questions: "Are you or have you ever been a member of the Communist party?"

Others charged with contempt of the committee which investigated alleged Communist infiltration into the University of Washington last spring are Mr. and Mrs. Burton James and Albert Ottenheimer of the Repertory Theatre and Rachmiel Forschmiedt.

Dr. Phillips has admitted that he was a member of the Communist party for many years.

WRITING IN THE "ATOMIC SCIENTISTS NEWS," DR.RUDOLF E. PEIERLS SAID MODERN WAR IS SO COSTLY, IN LIVES AND MATERIALS, THAT "I REGARD IT AS IMPOSSIBLE THAT ANY COUNTRY SHOULD GO TO WAR DELIBERATELY FOR THE SAKE OF ECONOMIC, TERRITORIAL OR OTHER GAIN."

MORE POSSIBLE, SAID PEIERLS, WHO IS PRESIDENT OF THE BRITISH ATOMIC SCIENTISTS ASSOCIATION, IS A "CRUSADE, RATHER THAN A CONQUEST, IN WHICH ONE NATION OR A GROUP OF NATIONS SHOULD GO TO WAR TO DESTROY SOMETHING UNDESIRABLE."

HE ADDED THAT HE THOUGHT IT UNLIKELY "THAT THE IDEOLOGY OF EITHER THE EAST OR WEST MIGHT APPEAR SO HATEFUL AND EVIL TO THE OTHER SIDE TO MAKE THEM DESIRE ITS DESTRUCTION AT ALL COSTS."

NIGHT LEAD GIRAUD

PARIS, MARCH 12-(AP)-NATIONAL HONORS WILL BE PAID TO GEN.HENRI HONORE GIRAUD, 70, WHO DIED LAST NIGHT IN DIJON.

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, LOWER HOUSE OF THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT, TONIGHT VOTED 3,500,000 FRANCS ($11,600) FOR THE EXPENSES OF A STATE FUNERAL FOR THE HERO OF TWO WORLD WARS.

GIRAUD WILL BE BURIED IN THE INVALIDES, A TOMB IN PARIS RESERVED FOR ARMY GENERALS WHO EXERCISED COMMAND IN ACTUAL COMBAT.

A RELIGIOUS CEREMONY WILL BE HELD TUESDAY AT DIJON.

GIRAUD COMMANDED FRENCH FORCES IN THE 1942-43 ALLIED INVASION AND CONQUEST OF NORTH AFRICA. HE GAVE UP THIS POST IN 1944, DUE TO DIFFERENCES WITH GEN.CHARLES DE GAULLE, COMMANDER OF THE FREE FRENCH. GIRAUD HAD BEEN RETIRED SINCE THE END OF THE WAR AND HAD BEEN LIVING WITH HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTERS IN METZ.

HE WAS STRICKEN WITH FOOD POISONING LAST WEEK AND WAS TAKEN TO A DIJON MILITARY HOSPITAL, WHERE HE DIED.

GIRAUD

PARIS, MARCH 12-(AP)-FRANCE TODAY MOURNED THE DEATH OF GEN. HENRI HONORE GIRAUD, A FIGHTING HERO OF TWO WORLD WARS WHO DIED LAST NIGHT.

GIRAUD MADE A DRAMATIC ESCAPE FROM THE NAZIS IN 1942 -- HIS SIXTH BREAK-OUT FROM GERMAN PRISONS IN TWO WARS -- TO HELP ORGANIZE FREE FRENCH RESISTANCE IN AFRICA.

THE DAY BEFORE HE DIED HE WAS AWARDED HIS NATION'S HIGHEST MILITARY DECORATION -- THE MEDAILLE MILITAIRE. THIS IS USUALLY GIVEN ONLY TO ENLISTED MEN AND IT IS UNUSUAL DISTINCTION FOR AN OFFICER TO RECEIVE IT.

THE GENERAL DIED AT A MILITARY HOSPITAL IN DIJON AFTER AN ATTACK OF FOOD POISONING. HE WAS 70 YEARS OLD.

MAR 12 1949

A DISTINGUISHED MILITARY CAREER THAT STARTED AT FRANCE'S FAMED ST.CYR MILITARY ACADEMY IN 1898 ENDED WHEN GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE FORCED GIRAUD'S RETIREMENT IN 1944. THERE WAS BITTER RIVALRY BETWEEN THE TWO THEN -EXILED LEADERS.

GIRAUD WAS TAKEN PRISONER IN THE FRONT LINES IN THE RAPID GERMAN ADVANCE IN THE 1940 BATTLE OF FRANCE.

COMMANDING THE FRENCH ARMIES IN NORTHERN FRANCE AT THE TIME, HE FOUGHT TO THE LAST IN A FRUITLESS ATTEMPT TO STEM THE GERMAN TIDE.

AT SEDAN WHEN THE FRENCH NINTH ARMY COLLAPSED, HE SENT A HISTORIC LAST MESSAGE: "HEADQUARTERS SURROUNDED BY 100 TANKS. I AM DESTROYING THEM."

HE WAS CAPTURED AND HELD IN THE GRIM FORTRESS OF KOENIGSTEIN IN SAXONY. LATER FRANCE FELL.

GENERAL DWIGHT EISENHOWER ANNOUNCED IN NOVEMBER, 1942, THAT GIRAUD HAD ESCAPED AND ARRIVED IN AFRICA TO ORGANIZE A NEW FRENCH ARMY.

THE NEWS ELECTRIFIED FRENCHMEN.

SO DID THE STORY OF HIS ESCAPE.

THE MOST GENERALLY ACCEPTED STORY IS THAT GIRAUD, OVER A PERIOD OF EIGHT MONTHS, WOVE A 65-FOOT ROPE FROM SMALL STRANDS OF THREAD SENT HIM IN LETTERS BY HIS WIFE.

USING THIS TO SLIP DOWN A WALL, HE ENCOUNTERED A SENTRY.

IN PERFECT GERMAN, GIRAUD SAID, "PRETTY COLD TONIGHT, ISN'T IT, MY BOY?" AND WALKED AWAY, WHISTLING.

THE GERMANS LATER WERE REPORTED TO HAVE OFFERED TO FREE 70,000 FRENCH WAR PRISONERS IF GIRAUD WOULD GIVE HIMSELF UP.

IN NORTH AFRICA, GIRAUD COMMANDED THE FRENCH FORCES IN THE 1942-43 ALLIED INVASION AND CAMPAIGN. HE AND DE GAULLE WERE BROUGHT TOGETHER IN A SEMBLANCE OF UNITY AT THE CASABLANCA CONFERENCE. DE GAULLE TOOK OVER THE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP OF THE LIBERATION COMMITTEE WHILE GIRAUD HEADED THE ARMY.

BUT BITTERNESS INCREASED BETWEEN THEM, AND DE GAULLE FINALLY OUSTED GIRAUD IN APRIL, 1944. AFTER HIS RETIREMENT GIRAUD LIVED QUIETLY WITH HIS WIFE AND TWO DAUGHTERS IN METZ.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS DEATH WAS MADE LAST NIGHT AT A SESSION OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

A GOVERNMENT DELEGATION HEADED BY FOREIGN MINISTER BJARNI BENEDIKTSSON ARRANGED TO LEAVE BY PLANE TONIGHT FOR NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON. CHOSEN TO ACCOMPANY HIM WERE TRADE MINISTER EMIL JONSSON AND JUSTICE MINISTER EYSTEINN JONSSON.

THIS WAS THE FIRST DISCLOSURE HERE THAT ICELAND HAD BEEN INVITED TO JOIN IN DISCUSSIONS OF FULL TERMS OF THE PACT.

(A DISPATCH FROM WASHINGTON SAID U.S. STRATEGISTS ARE KNOWN TO BELIEVE THAT ESTABLISHMENT OR USE OF AMERICAN BASES IN ICELAND, GREENLAND AND THE AZORES WOULD STRENGTHEN DEFENSES OF THE ENTIRE ATLANTIC AREA.) —DASH—

ICELAND, WHICH HAS AN ESTIMATED POPULATION OF 135,000, IS THE LARGEST OF A CHAIN OF ISLANDS WHICH STRETCH ACROSS FROM SCOTLAND TO GREENLAND. IT WAS FORMERLY UNDER THE DANISH CROWN BUT SEVERED HER TIES WITH DENMARK FOR THE TIME BEING IN APRIL, 1940, AFTER WORLD WAR II HAD STARTED. DENMARK WAS OCCUPIED BY THE GERMANS DURING THE WAR, AND THERE WAS SOME FEAR THE NAZIS WOULD SEEK BASES ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC ISLAND AS A THREAT TO THE UNITED STATES.

AT THE INVITATION OF ICELAND, BRITISH TROOPS WERE STATIONED THERE IN 1940. AMERICAN TROOPS ARRIVED JULY 7, 1941, FIVE MONTHS BEFORE PEARL HARBOR.

KEFLAVIK AIRPORT, ON THE WESTERN COAST OF THE ISLAND, WAS USED BY THE U.S. AS AN INTERMEDIATE BASE. IT WAS RETURNED TO ICELAND SEPT. 20, 1946.

AN ELECTION WAS HELD IN ICELAND IN MAY, 1944, AT WHICH THE PEOPLE VOTED TO ESTABLISH AN INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC. TIES WITH DENMARK WERE PERMANENTLY AND FORMALLY SEVERED THE FOLLOWING MONTH.

FIRST LEAD GERM WARFARE

BY ELTON C.FAY

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 12(AP)-GERM WARFARE IS PRACTICAL BUT IT SIMPLY HASN'T GOT A SUPERWEAPON THAT CAN WIPE OUT MULTITUDES OF PEOPLE, THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT SAID TONIGHT.

BIOLOGICAL WARFARE WAS CALLED A THING OF THE FUTURE. NEVERTHELESS AMERICANS WERE WARNED OF THE POSSIBILITY THAT SABOTEURS MIGHT TRY A "PEARL HARBOR" ATTACK ON FOOD SOURCES WITH DISEASE EVEN BEFORE A WAR BREAKS OUT.

THE DEPARTMENT SOUGHT TO STREAIGHT

MAR 12 1949

BREAKS OUT.

THE DEPARTMENT SOUGHT TO STREAIGHTEN OUT THE PUBLIC'S EXAGGERATED IMPRESSION" ABOUT THE POTENCY AND DEVELOPMENT OF BIOLOGICAL COMBAT.

GERM WARFARE (800)

BY ELTON C.FAY

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT SAID FLATLY TONIGHT THERE ISN'T ANY "BIOLOGICAL SUPERWEAPON" WHICH CAN KILL MULTITUDES BY GERM WARFARE.

BUT, SAID DEFENSE SECRETARY FORRESTAL IN THE FIRST OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON THE SUBJECT IN THREE YEARS, "IT WOULD BE FOLLY TO UNDERESTIMATE THE POTENTIALITIES OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE."

HE WAS BACKED UP IN THAT STATEMENT BY ONE OF THE FOREMOST AUTHORITIES ON BACTERIAL WAR, MAJ. GEN. ALDEN H.WAITT, CHIEF OF THE ARMY'S CHEMICAL CORPS.

MAR 12 1949

THE DEPARTMENT SOUGHT TO STRAIGHTEN OUT SOME "WIDESPREAD MISUNDERSTANDING" IN THE PUBLIC MIND. WAITT, IN A NEWS CONFERENCE BASED ON FORRESTAL'S FORMAL STATEMENT, SAID:

"THIS METHOD OF WARFARE HAS GREAT POTENTIALITIES -- BUT IT IS A WEAPON OF THE FUTURE. X X X I AM SATISFIED THAT THIS IS A MOST POTENTIALLY IMPORTANT WEAPON. I HAVE NO DOUBT AS TO ITS PRACTICABILITY."

FORRESTAL WARNED WE MUST GUARD AGAINST SABOTEURS STRIKING WITH DISEASE WEAPONS BEFORE A DECLARATION OF WAR. HE SAID OUR FOOD SUPPLIES WOULD BE ESPECIALLY VOLNERABLE TO SUCH A BIOLOGICAL ATTACK.

THE GOVERNMENT, AFTER AN ORIGINAL PRESS RELEASE ON BIOLOGICAL WARFARE IN 1946, HAD UP TO NOW CLAMPED THE TIGHTEST TYPE OF SECRECY ON THE WHOLE PROJECT. IT HAD REFUSED, AMONG OTHER THINGS, TO LET ANY MILITARY PERSONNEL EVEN MENTION THE NAME OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE.

IT FINALLY WAS GOADED INTO TODAY'S DISCUSSION BY WHAT FORRESTAL CALLED "EXTRAVAGANT, INACCURATE AND UNDULY SPECTACULAR" UNOFFICIAL DISCUSSIONS OF WAYS TO KILL OR SICKEN POPULATIONS OR LIVESTOCK AND DESTROY THEIR CROPS. IN MILITARY JARGON, THIS FORM OF WARFARE IS CALLED SIMPLY "BW."

THE GIST OF WHAT FORRESTAL SAID IN A 1,200 WORD STATEMENT AND WAITT IN HIS TALK WITH REPORTERS WAS THIS:

1. THE USE OF DISEASE AS A WEAPON IS PRACTICAL. INDEED, GRAVE CONCERN WAS FELT DURING WORLD WAR II THAT THE GERMANS OR JAPANESE WOULD USE IT, PERHAPS AGAINST THE ALLIES' FOOD SOURCES IF NOT AGAINST HUMANS.

2. AT PRESENT, IT IS POSSIBLE TO PRODUCE THE MOST DEADLY FORMS OF POISON, INCLUDING BOTULANUS TOXIN. IN THEORY, ONE OUNCE COULD KILL 150,000,000 PERSONS. HOWEVER, MOST OF THESE SUPER-KILLERS PRESENTLY LIVE ONLY IN LABORATORY TEST TUBES.

A1 41 WX

3. SO FAR AN ABSOLUTE MEANS OF SWIFT AND WIDE SPREADING OF THE AGENTS OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE HASN'T BEEN PERFECTED. PREVENTIVE ACTION, THE DISSIPATION AND WEAKENING OF AGENTS, AND THE NATURAL IMMUNITY OF MANKIND LIMIT THEIR QUICK SPREAD THROUGH A SUBSTANTIAL PART OF ANY POPULATION. THUS, IT NOW IS A PRACTICABLE BUT LIMITED WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION.

4. THE MILITARY IS WORKING AT ITS CAMP DETRICK, MD., LABORATORY ON THE WHOLE PROJECT OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE. ITS FIRST CONCERN IS TO DEVELOP METHODS OF DETECTING AND PREVENTING THE SPREAD OF DISEASE PLANTED BY AN ENEMY. BECAUSE THE MILITARY MUST BE CONCERNED WITH BOTH ASPECTS OF A WEAPON, THE PROJECT INVOLVES POSSIBLE OFFENSIVE METHODS TOO. IF AN ENEMY SHOULD USE BW AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, NATIONAL POLICY MIGHT DECIDE THAT RETALIATION WITH A LIKE WEAPON WAS REQUIRED.

5. GEN.WAITT THINKS THAT "WE ARE AS FAR ADVANCED AS ANY NATION OF THE WORLD" IN THE DEADLY ART OF GERM WARFARE, "YES, I THINK WE ARE AHEAD -- BUT NONE OF US REALLY KNOW."

6. HE SAID THE INVISIBLE MUNITIONS FOR BIOLOGICAL WARFARE WOULD BE LESS COSTLY THAN "THE EXPLOSIVES INDUSTRY." (DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOMIC BOMB COST ABOUT $2,000,000,000 (B); THE APPROPRIATION FOR ATOMIC WEAPONS NEXT YEAR WILL RANGE AROUND $210,000,000.) IT WOULD NOT REQUIRE A LARGE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM FOR PRODUCTION.

IN HIS STATEMENT, FORRESTAL SAID:

"UNFORTUNATELY, THE PUBLIC HAS BEEN GIVEN AN EXAGGERATED IMPRESSION AS TO THE POTENCY AND STATE OF DEVELOPMENT OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE.

"FOR EXAMPLE, IT HAS BEEN STATED THAT A SINGLE PLANE WITH A SMALL BOMB FILLED WITH A BIOLOGICAL AGENT WOULD BE CAPABLE OF WIPING OUT THE POPULATION OF AN ENTIRE CITY AT A SINGLE BLOW. SUCH A STATEMENT IS NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE FACTS AS WE KNOW THEM TODAY.

"AS A FURTHER EXAMPLE, IN A RECENT ARTICLE IT WAS STATED THAT ONE OUNCE OF A PARTICULAR POISON WOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO KILL 200,000,000 PEOPLE. THE FACTS ARE THAT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO SPREAD AN OUNCE OF ANY KIND OF MATERIAL FOR THE PURPOSES OF WARFARE IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO AFFECT EVEN A SMALL PERCENTAGE OF SUCH A TREMENDOUS NUMBER OF PERSONS. X X X

"MANY ARTICLES HAVE DESCRIBED BIOLOGICAL WARFARE AS MORE TERRIBLE THAN THE ATOMIC BOMB. THE FACT IS THAT THESE TWO WEAPONS DIFFER FROM ONE ANOTHER SO BASICALLY THAT A DIRECT COMPARISON IS MEANINGLESS. THE ATOMIC BOMB DESTROYS NOT ONLY LIFE BUT ALSO BUILDINGS AND OTHER STRUCTURES. IN ADDITION, ATOMIC RADIATION MAY PERSIST INDEFINITELY IN CONTAMINATED AREAS AND PRODUCE SERIOUS EFFECTS ON LIVING MATTER.

A142WX

MAR 12 1949

"BIOLOGICAL WARFARE AGENTS, ON THE OTHER HAND, AFFECT ONLY LIVING MATTER, DO NOT DESTROY MATERIAL STRUCTURES AND, IN MOST CASES, ARE NONPERSISTENT. DEATH, PROTRACTED SICKNESS OR ONLY TEMPORARY INCAPACITATION MIGHT BE PRODUCED IN MAN BY THE SELECTION AND DISSEMINATION OF THE PROPER BIOLOGICAL AGENT.

"IN SUCH WARFARE EITHER PEIDEMIC OR NON-EPIDEMIC DISEASES MIGHT BE USED. IN THE LANGUAGE OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE, AN EPIDEMIC DISEASE IS ONE THAT IS EASILY AND RAPIDLY SPREAD FROM PERSON TO PERSON, ANIMAL TO ANIMAL, OR PLANT TO PLANT. A NON-EPIDEMIC DISEASE SPREADS LESS EASILY AND THEREFORE WOULD BE RESTRICTED LARGELY TO PERSONS, ANIMALS OR PLANTS DIRECTLY EXPOSED TO THE GERMS AS THEY WERE DISTRIBUTED DURING AN ATTACK.

"IN THE CASE OF EPIDEMIC DISEASES OF MAN THE FACTORS GOVERNING SPREAD ARE NOT COMPLETELY UNDERSTOOD, AND IN ANY CASE NOT ALL ARE CONTROLLABLE; HENCE, IT IS NOT AT ALL CERTAIN THAT AN EPIDEMIC OF SIGNIFICANT PROPORTIONS COULD BE PRODUCED AT WILL.

"EVEN IF AN EPIDEMIC WERE STARTED, ADEQUATE PUBLIC HEALTH AND SANITATION MEASURES AND PROPER TREATMENT METHODS PROPERLY INSTITUTED WOULD TEND TO LIMIT THE SPREAD AND MINIMIZE THE EFFECTS. THE DISTRIBUTION OF NON-EPIDEMIC DISEASE-PRODUCING AGENTS AND TOXINS WOULD HAVE TO BE VERY WIDESPREAD TO HAVE A DECISIVE EFFECT. X X X

"AN IMPORTANT DEFENSE AGAINST BIOLOGICAL WARFARE LIES IN THE EARLY IDENTIFICATION OF DISEASES IMPLANTED AND PROMPT INSTITUTION OF APPROPRIATE COUNTERMEASURES. X X X BUT IT IS OBVIOUS THAT EXTENSIVE PREPARATION FOR SUCH DEFENSIVE MEASURES MUST BE MADE IN ADVANCE OF AN ATTACK.

"DURING TIMES OF PEACE VARIOUS GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES ARE CONCERNED WITH THE CONTROL OF NATURAL OUTBREAKS OF DISEASE. NOT ONLY OUR POPULATION BUT ALSO OUR CROPS AND ANIMALS MUST BE PROTECTED.

"TO THIS END THE U.S. PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE, THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OTHER FEDERAL AND MANY STATE AND MUNICIPAL AGENCIES ARE ALWAYS ON THE ALERT. THE THREAT OF BIOLOGICAL WARFARE HAS INCREASED THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES AND DIFFICULTIES. IF A BIOLOGICAL ATTACK WERE MADE, THE ABOVE AGENCIES, IN ADDITION TO THE ARMED FORCES, WOULD PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN COUNTERACTING THE IMPLANTATION AND SPREAD OF DISEASE.

"WE MUST GUARD NOT ONLY AGAINST NATURAL OUTBREAKS OF DISEASE AND BIOLOGICAL ATTACK IN TIME OF WAR, BUT ALSO AGAINST THE USE OF BIOLOGICAL SABOTAGE METHODS BEFORE A DECLARATION OF WAR HAS BEEN MADE. OUR FOOD SUPPLIES WOULD BE PARTICULARLY VULNERABLE TO ATTACK BY SABOTEURS WITH BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS. X X X"

EARLIER THIS WEEK AND OFFICIALS ARE CONFIDENT THAT THE FULL SENATE WILL FOLLOW SUIT WITHOUT MAJOR OPPOSITION.

THE TREATY WILL BIND THE UNITED STATES AND THE COUNTRIES OF WESTERN EUROPE IN A DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY. IT IS OBVIOUSLY DESIGNED AS A WARNING TO RUSSIA IN CASE THAT NATION SHOULD EVER CONSIDER ATTACKING ANY MEMBER OF THE ALLIANCE.

THE PRINCIPAL CLAUSE OF THE PACT, STILL OFFICIALLY SECRET, PROVIDES THAT AN ATTACK ON ANY ONE MEMBER SHALL BE CONSIDERED AN ATTACK ON ALL, WITH EACH NATION DECIDING FOR ITSELF, HOWEVER, WHETHER TO USE ARMED FORCE.

DENMARK'S ENTRY IS REGARDED AS A FOREGONE CONCLUSION. FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN IS CONFERRING WITH OFFICIALS HERE TO LEARN THE CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS RESULTING FROM MEMBERSHIP.

RASMUSSEN IS EXPECTED TO RETURN TO COPENHAGEN NEXT WEEK TO REPORT TO HIS GOVERNMENT.

TODAY THE DANISH MINISTER AND HIS AIDS ENGAGED IN A SERIES OF DETAILED CONFERENCES WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS. THOSE WITH WHOM RASMUSSEN TALKED INCLUDED DEPARTMENT COUNSELOR CHARLES E.BOHLEN, ASSISTANT SECRETARY ERNEST GROSS, AND JOHN D.HICKERSON, CHIEF OF THE EUROPEAN OFFICE.

GROSS IS COORDINATOR FOR THE GOVERNMENT ARMS AID PROGRAM. PRESUMABLY HE WAS CALLED IN TO GIVE RASMUSSEN WHATEVER DATE NOW IS AVAILABLE ON THE MILITARY HELP DENMARK COULD EXPECT TO RECEIVE FROM TH U.S.

THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT HAS DECLARED ITS INTENTION TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE AND FINAL ACTION TOWARD THAT END MAY BE TAKEN HERE IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS. PORTUGAL AND ICELAND HAVE NOT ANNOUNCED ANY OFFICIAL STEPS AS YET BUT OFFICIALS HERE SAY THEY ARE ELIGIBLE WHEN THEY WISH TO COME IN.

A THIRD IS ESTABLISHMENT OF DEFENSE FACILITIES--THE PROPOSED RADAR NETWORKS, FOR EXAMPLE--NECESSARY TO WARN OFF OR MEET ANY ATTACK.

IT IS IN THIS LATTER CONNECTION THAT THE QUESTION OF ATLANTIC BASES IS REGARDED AS AN A URGENT ONE FOR THE ALLIANCE ADMINISTRATIONS. IN THE MAINTENANCE OF TRANSPORTATION ROUTES BETWEEN THE TWO CONTINENTS AND THE GUARDING OF THE APPROACHES TO THE ATLANTIC AREA, GREENLAND, ICELAND AND THE AZORES ARE OF UTMOST IMPORTANCE.

DURING WORLD WAR II THE UNITED STATES TOOK DEFENSE OF GREENLAND UNDER AN AGREEMENT WHICH STILL IS IN FORCE BUT WHICH THE DANES, TWO YEARS AGO, PROPOSED TO TERMINATE.

THE DANISH GOVERNMENT WAS FORCED TO ACT MAINLY BY COMMUNIST CRITICS IN PARLIAMENT. THE NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN DRAGGING ALONG EVER SINCE WHILE BOTH SIDES HOPE THAT SOME KIND OF SUITABLE FORMULA FOR A SOLUTION--WHICH WOULD LEAVE THE U.S. IN CONTROL OF THE TWO AIR BASES--WOULD TURN UP.

THE AGREEMENT OUT OF TODAY'S SESSION SEEMED TO BE THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT WOULD DO THE TRICK. THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE OPTIMISM AMONG AMERICAN AUTHORITIES THAT IF AND WHEN ICELAND AND PORTUGAL ENTER THE ALLIANCE THEY WILL TAKE A SIMILAR ATTITUDE.

RASMUSSEN SAID THAT HE WOULD SEE SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AGAIN, PROBABLY TUESDAY, AND THAT MEANWHILE HE WOULD HAVE ADDITIONAL TALKS MONDAY WITH THE SAME OFFICIALS HE SAW TODAY. HE REPORTED THAT HE MAY BEGIN HIS RETURN TRIP TO COPENHAGEN TUESDAY EVENING.

RASMUSSEN DID NOT GO INTO DETAIL ON WHAT THE UNITED STATES HAS IN GREENLAND.

LAST NOVEMBER WHEN THE MATTER WAS RAISED IN THE PARLIAMENT AT COPENHAGEN BY COMMUNIST MEMBERS, RASMUSSEN REPORTED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD GRADUALLY EVACUATED ALL ITS WEATHER STATIONS IN GREENLAND BUT THAT TWO AMERICAN AIRPORTS, A WIRELESS DIRECTION FINDER STATION, AND A DEPOT STATION WERE STILL ON THE ISLAND.

Referring to the touchy situation which has developed along the southern end of the Palestine-Trans-Jordan border, Bunche messaged the Security Council:

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE RUSSIAN-WESTERN SPLIT IN THE UNITED NATIONS IS JUST AS GREAT TODAY AS IT WAS BEFORE THE SHIFT IN TOP COMMAND OF THE SOVIET FOREIGN OFFICE.

THE FIRST WEEK IN THE U.N. AFTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY BECAME FOREIGN MINISTER HAS PRODUCED NO SPECTACULAR FIREWORKS HERE.

NEITHER DID IT SHOW ANY SIGNS OF A LET-UP IN THE COLD WAR. THE RUSSIANS SOMETIMES TIP THEIR HAND IN UNITED NATIONS DEBATES.

THE RUSSIANS SEEM TO HAVE TOSSED THE BALL IN THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL DEBATES TO JULIUSZ KATZ-SUCHY, OF POLAND.

KATZ-SUCHY HAS ASSAILED AMERICAN POLICIES SO VIOLENTLY THAT LEROY STINEBOWER, UNITED STATES DELEGATE, WALKED OUT OF THE COUNCIL THURSDAY IN PROTEST. HE ACCUSED KATZ-SUCHY OF DIRECTING INSULTS AGAINST LT. GEN. JOHN R. HODGE, FORMER COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN ZONE IN KOREA. STINEBOWER RETURNED TO THE MEETING AFTER KATZ-SUCHY FINISHED SPEAKING.

IT WAS THE FIRST TIME AN AMERICAN DELEGATE HAD BEEN PROVOKED TO LEAVE A COUNCIL TABLE. THE AMERICAN DELEGATION RESERVED COMMENT ON THE INCIDENT.

IT WAS THE FIRST WALK-OUT HERE SINCE ANDREI A. GROMYKO, THEN SOVIET DELEGATE, STRODE FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON MARCH 27, 1946. HE STAYED AWAY 13 DAYS.

GROMYKO FIGURED IN THE SHIFTS OF SOVIET LEADERS LAST WEEK; HE ROSE TO THE POST OF FIRST DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER. THIS MAKES HIM VISHINSKY'S RIGHT HAND MAN.

MAR 12 1949

THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN WITHOUT THE SERVICES OF THEIR TOP DELEGATE HERE, DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JAKOB A. MALIK, FOR THE LAST WEEK. MALIK WAS REPORTED ILL SINCE MONDAY. SOME RUSSIANS SAID HE HAD A BAD COLD; OTHERS SAID THEY DID NOT KNOW WHAT AILED HIM.

MALIK'S ILLNESS WAS REPORTED TWO DAYS AFTER VALENTIN A. GUBITCHEV, A RUSSIAN EMPLOYE OF THE U.N., AND AN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT GIRL EMPLOYEE WERE ARRESTED ON SPY CHARGES.

THE U.N. HAS KEPT IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH THAT CASE. U.N. OFFICIALS SAID GUBITCHEV HAS NO DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY.

U.N.-HOUSING COSTS

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR OFFICE (ILO) SAID TODAY DELEGATES FROM 21 COUNTRIES WILL MEET IN ROME WEDNESDAY TO CONFER ON MEANS OF REDUCING HOUSE-BUILDING COSTS.

SUCH COSTS HAVE RISEN AS MUCH AS 106.7 PER CENT IN THE UNITED STATES AND 350 PER CENT IN HOLLAND IN EIGHT YEARS, THE ILO SAID.

PROBLEMS FACING EMPLOYER, WORKER AND GOVERNMENT DELEGATES AT THE SECOND SESSION OF ILO'S BUILDING, CIVIL ENGINEERING AND PUBLIC WORKS COMMITTEE WERE LISTED IN A STATEMENT BY DAVID A.MORSE, ILO DIRECTOR-GENERAL.

MORSE SAID THE DELEGATES WOULD CONSIDER MEASURES INTENDED TO STABILIZE THE BUILDING INDUSTRY SUCH AS:

MAR 12 1949

USE OF MASS-PRODUCED HOUSING PARTS, NEW TECHNIQUES AND MATERIALS, STANDARDIZATION AND MODULAR DESIGN, COLLECTIVE BARGAINING METHODS, ESTABLISHMENT OF GOVERNMENT PUBLIC WORKS RESERVES, LONG-RANGE PLANNING AND LABOR-MANAGEMENT COOPERATION.

ILO FIGURES SHOW THE RISE IN HOUSE-BUILDING COSTS BETWEEN 1939 AND THE END OF 1947 WERE: U.S.A. 106.7 PER CENT; AUSTRALIA 80 TO 85 PER CENT; CANADA 110 TO 125 PER CENT; BRITAIN 130 PER CENT, THE NETHERLANDS 350 PER CENT AND SWEDEN 153.2 PER CENT.

"NO OTHER INDUSTRY SOARS MORE QUICKLY TO BOOM HEIGHTS DURING GOOD TIMES OR FALLS MORE RAPIDLY TO SLUMP DEPTHS WHEN DEMAND SLACKENS," MORSE SAID. "NO OTHER INDUSTRY IS MORE IMPORTANT TO WORLD PROSPERITY AND FULL EMPLOYMENT."

GUBITCHEV AND JUDITH COPLON, 27-YEAR-OLD EMPLOYE OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WERE ARRESTED LAST WEEK BY FBI AGENTS WHO TRAILED THEM TO A MANHATTAN RENDEZVOUS. THE FBI SAID THEY FOUND COPIES OF GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS IN MISS COPLON'S PURSE AND THAT SHE HAD PLANNED TO TURN THESE OVER TO GUBITCHEV. THE LATTER HAS BEEN SUSPENDED FROM HIS POST AS SOVIET ENGINEER TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

MISS COPLON PLEADED INNOCENT TO THE THREE-COUNT INDICTMENT AND WAS RELEASED YESTERDAY IN $20,000 BAIL. GUBITCHEV'S PLEADING WAS DEFERRED UNTIL TOMORROW. HE IS HELD IN LIEU OF $100,000 BAIL.

GUBITCHEV, WHO SAID HE CONSIDERED HIMSELF A "MEMBER OF THE DIPLOMATIC PROFESSION" AND, THEREFORE ENTITLED TO IMMUNITY, REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM AT HIS ARRAIGNMENT. HE CHARACTERIZED THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM AS "PROVOCATION TO PURSUE CERTAIN AIMS."

WHEN THE RUSSIAN DECLARED HE WOULD NOT HIRE COUNSEL, JUDGE RIFKIND SAID THAT SINCE THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM WERE GRAVE HE, HIMSELF, WOULD APPOINT AN ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT THE DEFENDANT.

TOLEDO, O., MARCH 12-(AP)-CAN A QUAKER VIOLATE PROVISIONS OF THE SELECTIVE SERVICE ACT BECAUSE OF RELIGIOUS CONVICTION?
THAT'S THE QUESTION SIX MEN AND SIX WOMEN ON A FEDERAL COURT JURY WERE ASKED TO DECIDE YESTERDAY BY DEFENSE ATTORNEYS FOR LARRY GARA, YOUNG BLUFFTON , O., COLEGE HISTORY TEACHER.
THE DEFENSE SAID GARA WAS "OBEYING A HIGHER LAW" IN GIVING MORAL SUPPORT AND ADVICE TO A STUDENT WHO REFUSED TO REGISTER FOR THE DRAFT.
BUT THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR HAD ANOTHER QUESTION FOR THE JURY. IT WAS:
"CAN A MAN DISOBEY WITH IMPUNITY THE LAWS OF OUR LAND BECAUSE OF CLAIMS HIS RELIGIOUS BELIEFS DICTATE IT?"
THESE QUESTIONS WILL FACE THE JURORS MONDAY WHEN THEY START DELIBERATIONS IN THE CASE OF THE TEACHER ACCUSED OF ADVISING CHARLES RAY RICKERT NOT TO REGISTER.
GARA, 27, WHO SERVED THREE YEARS IN PRISON HIMSELF FOR REFUSING TO REGISTER IN 1940, TOOK THE STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE YESTERDAY. CROSS-EXAMINED BY ASSISTANT U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY GERALD P. OPENLANDER, THE SLIGHTLY-BUILT, RED HAIRED QUAKER YOUTH SAID:
"I WAS EAGER TO SUPPORT STUDENTS WHO WERE INWARDLY PREPARED TO TAKE A STAND AGAINST CONSCRIPTION."
INSISTING MORAL CONVICTION, EVEN TO A WILLINGNESS TO DIE, WAS THE "ACID TEST," HE ADDED: "IT IS TRAGIC IF PEOPLE DO THINGS THAT AREN'T UNDER DIVINE COMPULSION."
GARA SAID HE HAD "NUMEROUS CONVERSATIONS WITH RICKERT, AFTER THE DIVINITY STUDENT AT MENNONITE-SUPPORTED BLUFFTON COLLEGE REFUSED TO REGISTER LAST SEPT. 10.
"I TOLD HIM ABOUT CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS ELSEWHERE," HE RELATED, "AND ABOUT THE TRADITION OF IT, ABOUT PRISON AND MY EXPERIENCES; I WAS ANXIOUS THAT HE STRENGTHEN HIS PRAYER LIFE AND INWARD SELF."
GOVERNMENT EVIDENCE HAD BEEN INTRODUCED TO SHOW THE TEACHER HAD TOLD FBI AGENTS, WHEN THEY CAME TO THE COLLEGE TO ARREST HIS FORMER STUDENT:
"IF YOU TAKE RICKERT, YOU MUST TAKE MY WIFE AND ME, FOR WE ARE JUST AS GUILTY AS HE; WE TOLD HIM NOT TO REGISTER." LATER, THE GOVERNMENT CONTENDED, HE CAUTIONED RICKERT: "DON'T LET THEM COERCE YOU INTO CHANGING YOUR MIND."

(ADVANCE)..CHICAGO, MRCH 12-(AP)-SCIENCE CAME UP WITH THE ANSWER TODAY ON HOW TO FIDDLE AROUND INSIDE AN ATOMIC OVEN AND NOT GET RADIOACTIVATED.

IT'S A PAIR OF SEVEN-MOVEMENT, REMOTE-CONTROLLED MECHANICAL HANDS THAT CAN DUPLICATE NEARLY EVERY FUNCTION OF HUMAN HANDS.

THE ROBOT HANDS, CALLED THE "MASTER SLAVE MANIPULATOR" WERE DEVELOPED IN THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S ARGONNE NATIONAL LABORATORY HERE. THEY WILL BE DEMONSTRATED TO SCIENTISTS NEXT WEEK AT A MEETING OF THE CHICAGO TECHNICAL SOCIETIES COUNCIL.

THE SCIENTIST USING THE MANIPULATOR INSERTS THE MECHANICAL HANDS THROUGH A THICK SHIELD THAT PROTECTS HIM FROM THE RADIOACTIVITY INSIDE THE OVEN. HE WATCHES THE HANDS INSIDE BY MEANS OF MIRRORS.

THE MECHANICAL HANDS ARE CONTROLLED BY MASTER HANDLES THAT PROTRUDE THROUGH THE SHIELD. THESE MASTER HANDLES WHICH THE SCIENTIST GRASPS, HAVE FINGERS ATTACHED TO THEM. ANY MOVEMENT OF THE FINGERED HANDLES IS DUPLICATED BY THE MECHANICAL HANDS INSIDE.

OBJECTS INSIDE THE OVEN CAN BE GRASPED, LIFTED, TWIRLED, OR MOVED FROM PLACE TO PLACE.

SAN FRANCISCO,MARCH 12-(AP)-THE MOST PRESSING PROBLEM OF ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN IS THAT OF MEETING THE NATIONAL PAYROLLS OF HIS INFLATION-HARASSED CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

SEVERAL MILLION SOLDIERS STILL ON THE ROSTER, PLUS THOUSANDS OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES, LOOK TO LI NOT ONLY TO MAKE PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS BUT TO KEEP THEIR RICE BOWLS FILLED MEANWHILE.

YET THE NATIONAL TREASURY IS PRACTICALLY EXHAUSTED AND MANY OF ITS BEST ASSETS HAVE BEEN MOVED SOUTHWARD, OUT OF LI'S CONTROL. HE IS SPENDING MANY HOURS THESE DAYS SEEKING SOME SOLUTION.

IT APPEARS MOST UNLIKELY THE UNITED STATES CAN HELP HIM IN THIS CRISIS.

LI'S PEACE EFFORTS HAVE THE ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT OF AMBASSADOR J.LEIGHTON STUART AND OTHER AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN CHINA. THEY SHY AWAY FROM RECOMMENDING ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO ANY CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AT THIS TIME, HOWEVER, FOR FEAR OF AROUSING FRESH CRIES OF "INTERVENTION."

EMISSARIES FROM LI'S OFFICE HAVE MADE TENTATIVE, INFORMAL INQUIRIES ON THE POSSIBILTIES OF A NEW GRANT OR LOAN TO TIDE THE GOVERNMENT OVER. MUCH AS AMERICAN OFFICIALS MIGHT LIKE TO HELP, THE ANSWER PROBABLY WILL BE "NO," BECAUSE SUCH ASSISTANCE WOULD ALMOST CERTAINLY PROVIDE NEW AMMUNITION FOR THE COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA MACHINE.

PROPOSALS IN WASHINGTON FOR MORE "STOP COMMUNISM" GRANTS TO GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK OR ANY OTHER NATIONALIST LEADERS FIND NO FAVOR AMONG AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN CHINA.

FURTHER GRANTS OF ARMS OR MUNITIONS WOULD ONLY DESTROY "THE LARGE RESIDUE OF GOOD WILL WHICH AMERICA RETAINS AMONG MANY CHINESE," ONE OF THE HIGHEST AMERICAN OFFICIALS IN NANKING TOLD ME BEFORE MY DEPARTURE ONE WEEK AGO.

"OUR GREATEST FEAR," HE ADDED, "IS THAT SOCK BLOC OR GROUP IN WASHINGTON WILL SUCCESSFULLY URGE OUR GOVERNMENT TO GIVE CHINA MORE MILITARY ASSISTANCE IN THE BELIEF THAT CHIANG COULD HALT COMMUNISM SOMEWHERE SOUTH OF THE YANGTZE."

AMERICANS IN CHINA GENERALLY ARE IN AGREEMENT THE PAST TWO YEARS DEMONSTRATE CHIANG'S REGIME COULD NOT HALT THE REDS EVEN WITH SUBSTANTIAL HELP FROM AMERICA.

TODAY THERE IS NO NATIONAL FORCE CAPABLE OF BEING ORGANIZED INTO AN EFFECTIVE INSTRUMENT AGAINST COMMUNISM IN CHIAN, THESE U.S. OFFICIALS SAY.

3 MORE NATIONS NEAR PACT ACCORD

Denmark, Iceland and Italy Seen Close to Formal Lineup with West

MAR 13 1949

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP) Three more nations—Denmark, Iceland and Italy—are expected to draw closer to a formal lineup with the Atlantic treaty powers this week, but Portugal may be a question mark.

The week will be one of the most important in all the treaty negotiations. The text of the now completed document is due to be made public Friday. That may be the signal for a new outburst of Russian attacks.

New Red Attacks Seen

Diplomats here predict the Russians will leave no political trick untried to try to defeat the non-communist defense alliance by splitting off one or more countries.

Communist leaders have already thrown down the challenge of battle to Premier Alcide DeGasperi's governme[illegible] Italy. That may be the bi[illegible] ground of their power[illegible] opposition may also arise [illegible]

F[illegible]er, is already in the line[illegible] treaty powers. It par[illegible]n the start eight m[illegible]hers are Britain, N[illegible], Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and the United States.

That makes eight countries. Next in line expected to join is Denmark. An Iceland delegation arrived in the U.S. today, and the subject of Italy's membership in the alliance, having been favorably voted on by the government, is now up for debate in the parliament at Rome.

Portugal May Join

The one other country which may yet come in (Ireland has declared it will not join) is Portugal. Its position in the Atlantic is of great importance to the new defense system. There is plenty of time, diplomats noted, for the Portuguese government to act if it desires to do so.

There is no firm indication that it will not do so. But persons most familiar with the behind-the-scenes negotiations over the treaty say they are less confident of Portugal's probable course of action than they are of that of any of the other countries.

Denmark, Iceland and Portugal control strategic island air base positions in the Atlantic. State department officials told the Danes that the treaty itself offers a framework for working out agreements over bases on Atlantic islands.

Denmark controls Greeland and Portugal holds the Azores. AP

Iceland's Minister Here to Talk Pact

NEW YORK, March 13—(AP) Iceland's foreign minister said today his country had not decided whether it would join the Atlantic Pact and at the same time said Iceland would refuse to grant peace-time bases to any foreign power.

Bjarni Benediktsson made the statements on his arrival in the United States for Atlantic Pact talks in Washington.

Iceland is one of three nations expected to draw closer to a formal lineup with the Atlantic treaty powers.

The others are Denmark and Italy.

Answering newsmen's questions at La Guardia Field, Benediktsson said:

"We have not decided if we will take part in it. When we find out if there is a place for Iceland in the pact and if her special position is considered, we will report to parliament, where the decision will be made."

He said he did not expect the United States to ask for bases in his country and added:

"I think there can be no discussion of bases. The Icelandic government will not consent to any bases in peacetime."

He said his country "is a little peaceful nation with no army, and does not want foreign bases or forces there in peacetime."

The foreign minister added:

"I think we are interested in cooperating with the democratic nations, and we want to find out what place we can have. We have come here to see if we can join it."

He said there is a division of opinion among the people of Iceland over the pact but added:

"There is no dobut that the overwhelming majority of the people are for close cooperation with the democratic nations if we can find a suitable place for Iceland for such cooperation."

He said communists have 20 per cent of the vote in Iceland and are opposing the pact "in every way they can." Asked if his government had received any counter-proposals from Moscow, he replied:

"No—none whatever."

Allies Bear Defense Burden, Germans Warned By Rightist

MAR 13 1949

Duesseldorf, Germany, March 13 (AP)—Germany's protection against any aggressor rests solely with the Western Allies, Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of West Germany's Constitutional Assembly, said today.

Adenauer, head of the right-of center Christian Democratic party, told 2,000 delegates of the West German Catholic Workers' Movement "the Soviet Union is armed to her teeth."

Says Allies Have Duty

Referring to recent Communist demands in several countries to support the Soviet Union in case of war, Adenauer said:

"If we had freedom, we could build a dam. But since the Allies hold the highest executive powers in Germany they assumed the obligation to do everything in their power to protect us.

"All we can do is to make ourselves spiritually immune against Asiatic communism," he added.

Adenauer told the Catholic workers "unity of the German people will never come from the East. Recuperation is possible only from the West," he said.

Archbishop Gives Warning

Josef Cardinal Frings, Archbishop of Cologne, warned the workers to guard themselves spiritually against communism or face enslavement.

"Socialist-Marxist ideals result in the worst kind of slavery for everybody," he said.

Speaking of the "unheard of danger of modern public life," the Cardinal said anyone caught in communism's arms "will be enslaved to such an extent that he cannot move and nothing will remain of man's dignity. This we see daily if we turn our eyes eastward."

EIRE PLANS TO SLASH DEFENSE EXPENSES

DUBLIN, Eire, March 13—(AP). Eire, which has served notice she will not join the projected North Atlantic Pact, is cutting her defense expenditures to the lowest point in ten years.

The budget for the next fiscal year, made public tonight, provided £3,705,880 ($14,823,520) for defense forces. This is a cut of £826,000 ($3,304,000) from last year.

Government subsidies on basic consumer goods were trimmed drastically. Food subsidies were cut by more than half. A fuel subsidy of £1,000,000 ($4,000,000) will be discontinued.

The total budget, to go before parliament in May, will amount to £72,215,000 ($288,860,000).

Brussells Alliance Delegates Convene

CLEARANCE

LONDON, March 13—(AP)—Representatives of the Brussels Alliance countries arrived tonight to discuss drawing other nations into the growing defense system for western Europe.

It was understood that the aim of a two-day conference to start tomorrow at Lancaster House will be to bring into the defense arrangements for the Western European Union all countries on this side of the ocean which will join the proposed U. S.-backed North Atlantic Pact.

Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg signed a 50-year defense alliance in Brussels a year ago. In January of this year the group agreed to set up a Council of Europe and invite other countries to take part. The new organization consists of a ministerial council, which meets privately and is responsible to member governments, and a consultative body, which will debate in public any matters pertaining to western Europe except mutual defense. Expulsion Of Briton By Bulgaria Expected

London, March 13 (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said tonight he had seen unofficial reports that a British diplomat may be expelled from Bulgaria as an aftermath of the recent trial of Protestant clergymen.

"Events seem to be obliging us to reassert the British position," the spokesman said. He declined to confirm or deny a report by the British Press Association which said:

"The expulsion of a British diplomat might well be followed by reciprocal action against a member of the Bulgarian legation in London."

The British diplomat is Denis Greenhill, first secretary of the British Legation in Sofia. Greenhill was named by Pastor Vassil Ziapkov as the man to whom he gave information about Bulgaria's Black Sea defenses. AP

Beret Under Fire In Parliament

MAR 13 1949

London, March 13 (AP)—The beret, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery's trademark, is under fire in Parliament.

Alan Gomme-Duncan, one-time colonel in the kilt-wearing Black Watch Regiment, rose the other day to denounce the beret as "a sloppy piece of cloth."

Oh, he said, it was all right where it started, in the Royal Armored Corps, but the now visorless headpiece has "spread all over the Army" and is making the Army look sloppy. Gomme-Duncan, a Conservative member of the House of Commons, called it hideous.

He didn't mention Montgomery. "I am not going to refer to individuals," he said.

War Games in Scotland Spell Bad News for Foe

EDINBURGH, Scotland, March 13 (AP).—Scotland is prepared to give any enemy arriving by air a hot reception, referees said today after nine-day Royal Air Force maneuvers in which American B-29 bombers participated as "enemies."

Mock raiders, attacked strategic targets in central Scotland and at Edinburgh and Glasgow to see how swiftly the auxiliary defense organization could swing into action. Ground forces used observation and detection apparatus. Meteor jet planes chased invading aircraft to such altitudes that only vapor trails indicated where the dog fights were taking place.

The defending forces said they had inflicted great damage on the invaders. Air Vice-Marshal G. Harcourt - Smith, commanding a group of the Fighter Command, said the defenders stood the test well and that many lessons were learned.

Few In Europe Now Jobless Except Italians And Germans

C. HAFFNER

Paris, March 13 (AP)—Western Europe is going into its fourth postwar spring with jobs for almost everyone except Italians and Germans.

The Marshall plan areas in this part of the world worry more about labor shortages than about unemployment, an Associated Press survey showed. With food conditions the best since the war and United States aid assured, the average western European looks forward to a better life—as long as war can be avoided.

Between them, Italy and western Germany have almost 3,000,000 jobless, officials say. Manpower experts see some hope that Germany will straighten itself out. Italy can do so only if a way is found for some 260,000 working men to leave the country every year.

Only 300,000 Britons Idle

Only about 300,000 Britons are out of work—a figure that has run fairly steady for the last two years. Britain is even trying to import certain types of workers—particularly miners and textile hands.

Some 120,000 Frenchmen lack jobs, and the number is growing slightly, but it is still less than one per cent of the labor force. For the rest, there is almost unlimited food and some of the high prices are even dropping.

France, too, needs miners and farm workers and has asked the European Marshall Plan Organization to find some 300,000 of them by 1952. The unemployed include many white collar workers with no liking or training for heavy jobs.

Drought Affects Employment

The current drought in Europe has brought some partial unemployment to France. The lack of water has slowed Hydroelectric plants and enforced power cuts, especially in the textile industry. Germany and Spain also are seriously affected.

Belgium appears well on its way to solving an unemployment problem which appeared shortly after Christmas. The peak figure of 300,000 jobless—equivalent to about 6,000,000 in the United States—was down to 228,000 by the end of February and was expected to keep dropping.

Belgian exporters are lowering prices and the government is arranging to increase exchanges in Europe to make Belgian goods move faster and increase employment. Their troubles are due largely to a scarcity of money elsewhere in Europe to buy Belgian manufactures.

Total Nothing To Worry About

Austria, Denmark, Ireland, Holland and Switzerland reported fewer people in jobs at the end of 1948—but in each case the total of unemployed was considered nothing to worry about. Jobs are always relatively scarce in the winter months, when the weather halts building and there is little to do on farms.

Norway and Sweden report record highs in employment.

Experts found many causes for the 1,067,000 jobless in western Germany. There is a scarcity of the new German money, the Deutschemark, and almost none at all to invest in job-producing new industries. Thousands of refugees from behind the Iron Curtain are looking for something to do, while Allied authorities sternly keep production low in lines that might revive Germany's war power.

Nevertheless, the experts said, there is so much potential industry in Germany and so much reconstruction to do, that the job situation is expected to improve.

Italy Worse Off Than Germany

Italy has a much worse situation, and much less prospect of improvement. Experts doubt the official figure of 1,862,214 out of work on January 1. They agree, however, that the unemployed are plentiful and include a lot of Italians still drawing wages because the law forbids them to be fired.

Before Mussolini started on his war adventures, Italy's fast-increasing population was siphoned off by emigration. Hundreds of thousands went to South America. Then the Fascist regime decided that all Italians were needed at home for the army and war industry.

Since the war, these jobs have disappeared, but the surplus Italians find it harder to go to South America. Countries there want skilled farmers and workmen, not army veterans and war plant workers.

West Germans Traveling To LeipzigReportedHeld

BERLIN, March 13 (AP).—The British-licensed newspaper "Der Telegraf" said today many travelers from Western Germany and West Berlin have been arrested in the Soviet occupation zone while on the way to the annual Leipzig trade fair. Visitors to the fair had been promised unhindered passage.

So many were arrested at Halle that jail cells were crowded ten persons to a cell, the "Telegraf" said. Some were reported held three or four days on charges of entering the Soviet zone without an interzonal pass.

After being questioned during the night, the prisoners received "political enlightenment" lectures and were urged to fight for unity of all Germany, the paper added.

German Smugglers Of War Goods Sought

Berlin, March 13 (AP)—Western military authorities are working to prevent the smuggling of militarily valuable products out of western Germany into Communist-ruled countries.

The Zurich Die Tat, a Swiss newspaper, said today agents from the western German occupation zones will visit Switzerland soon to investigate channels which are said to funnel goods from Germany to Russia and other eastern European countries.

United States Army officials kept secrecy about the investigation but one well-informed official said Die Tat's story is "largely true."

Ball bearings, important in making planes and other war machines, were said to be one of the chief items on the smugglers' list.

Czech Builders Warned

Premier Predicts Wage Cut Unless They Work Harder

PRAGUE, March 13 (AP).—Premier Antonin Zapotocky threatened Czechoslovak building workers today with a wage reduction unless they work harder. He also denied, at a meeting of the nationalized construction industry, that several hundred thousand Sudeten Germans would be resettled in this country to help increase production.

The building industry fulfilled only 70 per cent of its target during the two-year plan. Not only private builders failed to produce after the February revolution last year, Premier Zapotocky said, "but every bricklayer made a racket of the trade, and that must cease to exist."

UNION INCLUDES AID FOR DUTCH

Benelux Agreement To Provide Credits, Freeing Of Trade

MAR 13 1949

The Hague, March 13 (AP)—Belgium and Luxembourg have agreed to extend credits to the Netherlands to aid in establishment of the Benelux economic union.

The agreement was contained in a protocol signed today by representatives of the three governments. The forging of the union was announced last night by the premiers of Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The union will become effective July 1, 1950. A preparatory preunion stage will be reached this July.

Freer Trade Planned

According to the protocol the preunion "will be characterized by a progressively freer movements of goods between the three countries, a systematic co-ordination of the commercial and monetary policies of the three partners with other countries and by preparing a joint contractual relationship with other countries."

The protocol stressed the necessity for continued Marshall-plan aid.

In the event of a change in the conditions of Marshall-plan aid, the three governments would have to reconsider their agreement, the protocol said. Some observers thought that clause was a Belgian hedge in case the United States suspends aid to the Netherlands because of the Indonesian question.

Taxes To Be Unified

A direct result of the Benelux conference here will be the unification of all excise taxes and a gradual leveling of prices and investment rates.

Refugee Numbers Shock Churchman

Geneva, Switzerland, March 13 (AP)—Allied peace efforts were criticized today by a Welsh church leader as shocking and frightening.

Dr. Elfan Rees, head of the refugee division of the World Council of Churches, said in a sermon that "more people have been rendered homeless by an Allied peace than by a Nazi war." He spoke in the chapel of Geneva university.

Dr. Rees has just returned from a church refugee conference at Hamburg. He said the conference gave "the first serious international attention to the incredible tragedies and dangers" of the refugee problem.

In western Europe, the church leader said, "there are more than 12,000,000 exiles who, because they were German speaking, were stripped of their possessions at the end of the war and by official allied actions driven from their homes and farms in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, the Danubian basin, East Prussia and Silesia.

Described As Shocking

"It is startling and shocking . . . to realize to the full that more people—just ordinary people—have been rendered homeless by an allied peace than by a Nazi war."

He said that "over half a million refugees" have been driven from their homes in Palestine and "are literally dying of starvation."

Dr. Rees said "one of the most frightening elements in Europe today is the existence of more than 12,000,000 exiles dominated by the desire to go home and to restore their broken lives, their stolen liberties and their submerged nationhoods. It frightens me because they see another war as their only means to that end and look hopefully for one."

GREEKS HONOR SLAIN PRIESTS

MAR 13 1949

Memorial Services Held For 250 Victims Of Guerrillas

Athens, March 13 (AP)—Prayers were recited in every Greek Orthodox church in Greece today in memory of 250 priests "butchered, hanged or crucified" by guerrillas. The Holy Synod of Greece held a memorial service in Athens Cathedral.

Archbishop Damaskinos referred in an encyclical to "Greek-speaking Slav bandits" and said:

"These monstrous butchers (the Communist guerrilas), who became allies of dark forces of Greece's enemies, who destroyed churches, who desecrated altars and icons, who turned churches into places of orgy, who hang and crucify priests —about 250 of them so far—swore to conquer by force, fire and iron our sorely tried country."

A Guerrilla Leader Captured

The archbishop stated his country's unflinching determination that "enemies of Greece and freedom will not overcome her resistance."

Meanwhile, a Government communiqué reported the capture of a guerrilla leader described as one of the Communists' most able and shrewd chieftains. The general staff communiqué said 22 guerrillas were slain and 27 captured in the last 24 hours in the current Peloponnesus campaign.

Among the prisoners was Constantin Brettacos, 32-year-old guerrilla leader, who the Government said was notorious for mass executions and ferocity.

Further losses were inflicted on a large guerrila force which was trapped on Mount Kerdyllia, northeast of Salonika, and virtually decimated, the communiqué said. Losses suffered by this force since March 2, when the army established contact with it, now are 383 dead and 341 captured or surrendered.

ISRAEL TIGHTENS NEWS CENSORSHIP

J Long

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 13—(AP) Because of censorship restrictions, dispatches coming from Israel now do not necessarily represent free reporting of known facts.

Strict military security censorship prevails. Often this edges over into the field of political security. There is little question of the right of any state in similar circumstances to impose censorship. Frequently actual military security is involved.

But the censorship can prevent a complete reporting of facts. For example, during the past week there was international alarm over Israeli and Trans-Jordan moves in and near the southern Negev and Trans-Jordan's Red Sea port of Aqaba.

Correspondents here could at any time have filed factual dispatches placing the welter of rumors in their proper prospective and going a long way toward easing the tension. This was not permitted.

The newsmen could only say what a spokesman gave out. That was a one-sided official version lacking pertinent facts. The correspondents could not visit the scene to see or report for themselves.

Newsmen in Tel Aviv have quasi-military credentials, but the same week those were issued by the Israeli foreign ministry the army received higher orders to disregard them. The blanket on reporting during the past week was so tight that the Associated Press bureau here was refused the right to reply to cabled inquires from New York and London.

The usual form is for censors to contend afterward that they never imposed such restrictions or to acknowledge that the restrictions were imposed through error—an error which has been repeated in every case of action or operations in recent months.

REBELS FIGHT IN MANDALAY

MAR 13 1949

Burmese Prepare Counter-attack Against Karens

Rangoon, Burma, March 13 (AP)—The Burma Government said today "heavy fighting" is going on in Mandalay, a part of which already is in the hands of Karen rebels.

The Karens drove into Mandalay, Burma's second largest city, Friday night after spearing through the Government defense line at Hotonbo, 15 miles away. Today's Government communiqué made no other mention of the city, other than to say there was heavy fighting there and that a counter-attack was being prepared.

Mandalay, which has a normal population of about 200,000, is about 500 miles north of Rangoon.

Seek Creation Of State

Today's military bulletin said a large scale offensive is to be launched soon against the Karen tribesmen, who are fighting for creation of their own separate state of Karenistan. They have been aided in some places by Communists.

The announcement said the offensive—along a 180-mile front—would aim at recapturing rebel-occupied positions between Toungoo and Kyaukse. The rebels also hold Toungoo itself.

Government planes raided Karen headquarters at Insein, 10 miles north of here, the communiqué said. It added that food and ammunition dumps were blown up, the water station badly damaged and eighteen Karens killed and 70 wounded in the raid.

LI OPENS DRIVE TO WIN CONTROL OF CHIANG'S ARMY

S. TOPPING 6

NANKING, March 13—(AP) Acting President Li Tsung-jen was launched on a new campaign today to win control of the Chinese nationalist army away from the "retired" President Chiang Kai-shek.

Although Chiang left Nanking Jan. 21, putting Li in charge, Chiang has remained dominant in military affairs through the many generals remaining personally loyal to him.

Power Politics Battle Rages

Appointment of Ho Ying-chin as premier Saturday marked a new bid by Li for victory in the game of power politics which has split nationalist China and stalled efforts to make peace with the communists.

Ho is probably second only to Chiang in influence over the powerful clique of southern generals from the old Whampoa Military Academy who occupy the majority of key positions in the army.

Neutral military observers believe that a unified nationalist command must be achieved quickly if the government hopes to mount real resistance to any red crossing of the Yangtze River. Every recent report indicated that the communists are pushing preparations for a river crossing after having sat almost idle for more than two months.

Li Tsung-jen wil be in a much stronger position either to talk peace or make war if his current drive to consolidate control af the national forces succeeds.

Li has solidly behind him some 150,000 troops led by his old friend Gen. Pai Chung-hsi of Hankow. Much larger regular forces, however, remain under generals closer to Chiang.

Chiang Has Grip on Navy

Chiang also has a strong hold on the air force and navy.

Control of the national government machinery, however, is a factor greatly in favor of Li. American officials have shown a marked tendency to support Li as the only hope of salvaging anything from the wreckage of nationalist China.

Well-informed diplomatic circles consider it highly unlikely that American officials in China will recommend any new program of military assistance at present. The feeling is that it would be best to wait for results from anticipated peace talks with the reds.

Chinese Cruiser Called Deserter

MAR 1 1949

Shanghai, Monday, March 14 (AP). The Chinese cruiser Chungking has gone to Russian-held Dairen, it was reported reliably today. The government's largest warship deserted almost a month ago.

The report came from someone who saw the ship at the Liaotung Peninsula port and said she appeared to be undamaged. Last week the Chungking—formerly the British cruiser Aurora—was reported sunk by Nationalist planes for ignoring orders to return to South China.

Official naval sources at Nanking admitted two weeks ago the 5,270-ton flagship, postwar gift from Britain, had left her anchorage in the Yangtze River. They said she sailed without proper orders, but denied she was going over to the Communists.

First reports were that the Chungking had gone to Chefoo, Shantung Peninsula port held by the Chinese Communists. Later a naval spokesman said the cruiser had put in at Chefoo to refuel.

Admiral Kwei Yung-chin, commander of the Chinese Navy, had repeatedly radioed orders to the ship to return.

The Air Force had threatened to bomb the Chungking if she did not return, but apparently never carried out the threats.

Steamer Refloated Near Hong Kong

Hong Kong, Monday, March 14 (AP)—The Chinese steamer Haven was refloated today after running aground southeast of Hong Kong.

Emergency repairs were made to a hole in the 3,400-ton ship, chartered to the International Refugee Organization. She was taken in tow for Hong Kong.

At Manila, a distress call for the ship early today said she had struck a rock and was sinking.

Gerard Price, regional director of the IRO, said the ship was en route back to Shanghai via Hong Kong after delivering 500 stateless refugees to the camp at Guiuan, on the Philippine Island of Samar. He said it had aboard no refugees but a crew of something less than 40, plus several Chinese quarantine service doctors.

North China Trade Sought

Hong Kong, March 13 (AP)—The steamer Grand sailed Saturday night for Tientsin with 2,000 tons of cargo to barter to the Chinese Communist. It is the first of four Hong Kong vessels undertaking to reopen trade with Communist-held North China.

Shots Hit Passengers On Hong Kong Ferry

Hong Kong, March 13 (AP)—Machine gun fire from the Chinese shore in the Mirs Bay area last night injured three passengers of the ferry Chi Keung, which plies between this British colony and the Chinese mainland.

The incident occurred as the ferry was stopped for inspection by a Chinese customs launch. Customs guards returned the fire. They expressed belief the attackers were smugglers known to hang out in that vicinity.

Japanese Cabinet Plans Probe Into Subversion

Tokyo, March 13 (AP)—The newspaper Yomiuri said today the Cabinet of Premier Shigeru Yoshida had decided to form an un-Japanese activities committee under Cabinet jurisdiction.

It would not be a Diet committee, for Communists in the Diet would be able to demand at least one place on it. Yomiuri said the Cabinet felt this would make it meaningless.

Jap Communist Leader Talks at Shinto Meeting

Tokyo, March 13 (AP)—The Japan transportation labor union hall was being dedicated with Shinto religious rites today when Kyuchi Tokuda, the avowedly atheistic secretary general of Japan's Communist party, showed up.

As the ceremony neared its end, Tokuda walked to the altar, clapped his hands and kowtowed with apparent reverence.

He then turned to the astounded audience and delivered one of his customary tirades against capitalism.

Russia Demands Role If Antarctic Is Split

LONDON, March 13 (AP).—A leading Soviet geographer said today the Soviet Union will not recognize any division of Antarctica unless she has a hand in dividing it.

Lev Berg, president of the Soviet Geographical Society, said in a talk read over the Moscow radio: "Any solution of the question of sovereignty in the Antarctic without the participation of the Soviet Union can have no legal validity, since the U. S. S. R. has every ground for not recognizing such a decision."

Out of 248 patients ill with diseases of the joints, muscles, nervous system, blood vessels and alimentary tract who took treatments at the "Lake of Life," 200 recovered completely or significantly. The others made no improvement.

The fame of the "Lake of Life" now has spread through all the Urals and has reached Moscow. The Soviet government, it was reported, has decided to build a state sanitorium there and some work already has begun.

Ponce de Leon Was Off His Course; Russia Finds 'Fountain of Youth'

MAR 1 1949

T WHITNEY

MOSCOW, March 13—(AP) Ponce de Leon looked in the wrong place. The fountain of youth is not in Florida, it's in Russia.

The Journal Ogonek reported today that a "Lake of Life" has been discovered in the Ural mountains.

It's no joke, either, says the magazine. The lake bottom is made up of a miraculous medical mud which is used to heal patients who have been bedridden for years with ailments of the joints and nerves. After only two or three series of treatments, says Ogonek, patients get up and walk out of hospitals.

The lake was identified as Moltaevsk, near the station of Samosvet on the Sverdlocks railroad. Its bottom was said to be made up of sapropelic (animal organisms) mud, permeated by decaying organic ooze deposited for centruies.

Local peasants discovered the healing qualities of the mud, Ogonek said. They used it for years on the collective farm "Seasoned Warrier" in the village of Deevo, but it only came to attention of the outside area when a collective farm order set up a small local sanitorium and used the mud on wounded war veterans of the farm.

Sverdlovsk authorities heard about it and sent medical men to investigate.

What they found, Ogonek said, was this:

Soviet Says U.S. 'Digs In' In Africa

London, March 13 (AP)—The Russian navy journal Red Fleet declared today the United States is creating strong naval positions at both ends of the Mediterranean Sea and digging in in North Africa.

These bases are meant as "a springboard for aggression against the Soviet Union," it said.

The article, distributed here by the Soviet monitor, said that according to American plans Turkey "must play the role of eastern naval bridgehead," while "Franco Spain is to play the part of a western naval fortress."

The journal added that "submari[illegible]d destroyers recei[illegible] fron[illegible] United States alre[illegible] hav[illegible]ped anchor at rec[illegible] stru[illegible]val bases in Alexandr[illegible] ta, [illegible] and Izmir (all in Turkey. . . .

"However, realization of these aggressive schemes comes up against the growing resistance of the peoples inhabiting the Mediterranean countries. They do not intend the Mediterranean to become an American lake."

EXILES SEEK FREE RUSSIA

Kerensky In Group Organized To Combat Dictatorship

MAR 13 1949

New York, March 13 (AP)—A group of 25 Russian expatriates, including Alexander F. Kerensky, organized today a committee for the announced purpose of "liberating Russia from the Communist dictatorship."

The group adopted the name, "Union for the Liberation of the Peoples of Russia," and said it seeks the establishment of "a free and genuinely democratic Russia."

Was Premier In 1917

Members of the group include:

KERENSKY, premier of the provisional government of Russia following the overthrow of the Czar in 1917.

VICTOR CHERNOV, president of the constituent assembly dissolved by Lenin in February, 1918.

RAPHAEL ABRAMOVITCH, expatriate leader of the Socialist party, now outlawed in the Soviet Union.

Kerensky, who left Russia 30 years ago after his short-lived republic was deposed, has on several occasions urged the United States to remove the threat of war with Russia by driving a propaganda wedge between the Communist government and the Russian people.

Objectives Listed

The committee said its objectives would include:

1. Abolition of the Communist party and of "all organs of dictatorship and terror."

2. Annihilation of all concentration camps and the liberation of all political prisoners.

3. Freeing "from police supervision" of all intellectual, artistic, political and religious life, including the press.

4. Establishment of tuition-free education in all schools.

5. Abolition of compulsory collective farming and the transfer of the land thus freed to peasants for use as they prefer.

6. Maintenance of governmental authority over industrial planning and foreign trade.

7. The right of the Government to own natural and mineral resources, with the provision for ample opportunity for private initiative in industry and commerce.

8. "A foreign policy based on law and justice, barring all forms of aggression and arbitrary interference in the internal affairs of other states; permanent and active participation in international organizations aiming at the prevention of war, and the establishment of the rule of law in international relations. . . ."

ECA TO REVISE AID ESTIMATES

Agreement Announced In View Of Farm Price Drop

D WIRE HEAD

Washington, March 13 (AP)—The Economic Co-operation Administration will revise in June its $4,280,000,000 European aid program for the next fiscal year ending in 1950, Senator George (D., Ga.) said today.

Paul Hoffman, ECA chief, has agreed to this review, George said, because of the fluctuating prices of farm products.

He added this understanding will be set forth in the committee's report this week on its approval of the European recovery authorization bill.

Reserve Right To Change

In the report, George said, several senators—who voted for the full $5,580,000,000 asked for the next fifteen months—reserved the right to approve a lesser amount when the bill gets to the Senate floor.

The reason for this, George added, was the possibility that food prices may be considerably lower in June than they are now.

"If they are lower," he said, "then the ECA will not require that much money. But it may be that prices will be no lower in June than they were in November when the ECA made its estimates."

Another section of the report will put the Foreign Relations Committee on record as recommending that ECA buy surplus farm products in the United States wherever possible.

Meanwhile, George said, the State Department is preparing a report which probably will indicate the Administration's future policy toward China.

The Foreign Relations Committee asked Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, to make the report, George said, in connection with a China-aid bill sponsored by 55 senators.

The bill by Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) would set up a $1,500,000,000 economic and military aid program for Nationalist China.

Deals With McCarran Bill

The report will concern itself with the State Department's views on the McCarran bill. But George said this should disclose what position this Government plans to take on the Chinese situation.

Senators who called for action on the McCarran bill said the United States should establish "an affirmative policy . . . with respect to Asia through providing effective assistance to the Government of China on a realistic basis."

Acheson has been reported to have said recently to a group of House Republicans that the State Department prefers to wait "until the dust settles" before making a decision on what to do about the Communist threat in China.

Refugee Ship's Crew Walks Off

MAR 13 1949

Boston, March 13 (AP)—Shortly after 549 displaced persons disembarked, 143 CIO crew members of the SS Marine Jumper walked off today in protest to the vessel's transfer to the United States Army Transport Service.

The demonstration delayed the sailing of the ship to New York. It arrived today from Hamburg, Germany.

The crew members, who reported back to duty after several hours' demonstration, are members of the National Union of Marine Cooks and Stewards (CIO).

C. Edward Johanson, New York union port agent, said the demonstration was in protest against the transfer of C-4 type vessels to the Army Transport Service. There are ten of this type emergency-class passenger vessels in service.

"There already is considerable unemployment in the industry," Johanson said. "Transfer of these ships would mean that crews would be slashed from the normal 260 to 153 men."

President Truman signed a directive on February 25 transferring these type vessels to the Army Transport Service.

The demonstrating seamen were joined by union crew members of the intercoastal ship Drury Victory lied up near-by.

Johanson said the demonstration would be resumed when the Marine Jumper arrived in New York.

Among the displaced persons were a 39-year-old Yugoslavian widow and her 10-year-old son, who left for Dayton, Ohio, where she will be reunited with her brother she saw last 26 years ago.

Mrs. Marija Horvat and her son, Iwan, sponsored by the American Federation of International Institutes, will be met in Dayton by Mrs. Horvat's brother, Frank Hanel.

Threat of Germ Warfare Exaggerated, Leaders Say

MAR 13 1949

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Germ warfare is practical but it simply hasn't got a superweapon that can wipe out multitudes of people, the Defense Department said tonight.

Biological warfare was called a thing of the future. Nevertheless Americans were warned of the possibility that saboteurs might try a "Pearl Harbor" attack on food sources with disease even before a war breaks out.

Has Great Potentialties

The department sought to straighten out the public's exaggerated "impression" about the potency and development of biological combat.

But, said Defense Secretary Forrestal in the first official statement on the subject in three years, "it would be folly to underestimate the potentialities of biological warfare."

He was backed up in that statement by one of the foremost authorities on bacterial war, Maj. Gen. Alden H. Waitt, chief of the army's chemical corps.

Waitt, in a news conference based on Forrestal's formal statement, said:

"This method of warefare has great potentialities—but it is a weapon of the future. x x x I am satisfied that this is a most potentially important weapon. I have no doubt as to its practicability."

Forrestal warned we must guard against saboteurs striking with disease weapons before a declaration of war. He said our food supplies would be especially vulnerable to such a biological attack.

The government, after an original press release on biological warfare in 1946, had up to now clamped the tightest type of secrecy on the whole project. It had refused, among other things, to let any military personnel even mention the name of biological warfare.

It finally was goaded into today's discussion by what Forrestal called "extravagant, inaccurate and unduly spectacular" unofficial discussions of ways to kill or sicken populations or livestock and destroy their crops. In military jargon, this form of warfare is called simply "BW."

A "Practical Weapon"

The gist of what Forrestal said in a 1,200 word statement and Waitt in his talk with reporters was this:

1. The use of disease as a weapon is practical. Indeed, grave concern was felt during World War II that the Germans or Japanese would use it, perhaps against the allies' food sources if not against humans.

2. At present, it is possible to produce the most deadly forms of poison, including botulanus toxin. In theory, one ounce could kill 150,000,000 persons. However, most of these super-killers presently live only in laboratory test tubes.

3. So far an absolute means of swift and wide spreading of the agents of biological warfare hasn't been perfected. Preventive action, the dissipation and weakening of agents, and the natural immuity of mankind limit their quick spread through a substantial part of any population. Thus, it now is a practicable but limited weapon of mass destruction.

U. S. Working on Problem

4. The military is working at its Camp Detrick, Md., laboratory on the whole project of biological warfare. Its first concern is to develop methods of detecting and preventing the spread of disease planted by an enemy. Because the military must be concerned with both aspects of a weapon, the project involves possible offensive methods too. If an enemy should use BW against the United States, national policy might decide that retaliation with a like weapon was required.

5. Gen. Waitt thinks that "we are as far advanced as any nation of the world" in the deadly art of germ warfare, "yes, I think we are ahead—but none of us really know."

6. He said the invisible munitions for biological warfare would be less costly than "the explosives industry." (Development of the atomic weapons next year will range around $21,000,000. It would not require a large industrial system for production.

London, March 13--(AP)--Winston Churchill said today the "Socialists are making us live in a fool's purgatory upon a generous grant of free-enterprise capitalist America."

The Conservative Party leader and former prime minister made the statement in an open letter to his party's candidate for Parliament in a special election Wednesday in Sowerby, Yorkshire.

Paul Bryan, a Conservative, and Douglas Houghton, a Laborite, are running for the seat Laborite John W. LONDON, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE BRITISH BOARD OF TRADE SAID TONIGHT IT HAS ACCEPTED A RUSSIAN SUGGESTION TO OPEN TALKS ON A PROPOSED NEW ONE-YEAR TRADE PACT.

HAROLD WILSON, BOARD PRESIDENT, AND A.I.MIKOYAN, FORMER SOVIET FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER, AGREED IN MOSCOW ON THE PREVIOUS ONE-YEAR PACT. LAST MAY TALKS OPENED ON A PROPOSED LONG-TERM TRADE TREATY BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES BUT BROKE DOWN.

NOW, A BOARD SPOKESMAN SAID, WILSON "HAS WRITTEN TO THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR ACCEPTING THE RUSSIAN SUGGESTION THAT AN AGREEMENT SHOULD BE NEGOTIATED ON A 12-MONTH BASIS."

MAR 13 1949

THERE WAS NO SUGGESTION THAT THIS NEW TURN IN THE TRADE TALKS WAS CONNECTED WITH THE RECENT "RELEASE" OF MIKOYAN AS FOREIGN TRADE MINISTER. HE APPARENTLY REMAINS WITHIN THE INNER CIRCLE OF THE SOVIET CABINET, BUT HIS DEPARTMENTAL DUTIES HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO M.A. MENSHIKOV, WHO WAS MIKOYAN'S DEPUTY.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT UNDER THE PREVIOUS AGREEMENT, GOODS EXCHANGED BETWEEN BRITAIN AND THE U.S.S.R. WERE VALUED AT BETWEEN £40,000,000 AND £45,000,000 ($160,000,000 TO $180,000,000) FOR EACH COUNTRY.

THE TRADE INVOLVED EXCHANGE OF RUSSIAN WHEAT, BARLEY, CORN, FISH AND TIMBER FOR BRITISH MACHINERY, STEEL AND SUCH COMMODITIES AS RUBBER COFFEE, TEA AND COCOA FROM BRITISH POSSESSIONS. A SIMILAR PATTERN IS EXPECTED TO DEVELOP FROM THE NEW TALKS IF AGREEMENT IS REACHED. MORE HARD BARGAINING CAN BE EXPECTED.

TEL AVIV, SIRAEL, MARCH 12--(DELAYED BY CENSOR)--(AP)-THE BLUE AND WHITE FLAG OF ISRAEL FLAPS SODDENLY IN A CHILL DRIZZLE OVER THE BLEAK AND GRAVELLY COAST OF EILAT, ACROSS THE NORTHERN TIP OF THE GULF FROM THE TRANS-JORDAN FISHING PORT OF AQABA.

IT IS ISRAELI TERRITORY--THE BACKDOOR TO THE EAST WHICH PARTITION GAVE TO THE JEWISH STATE.

(THIRTY-SEVEN WORDS DELETED BY CENSOR.)

THERE IS LITTLE AT THIS SOUTHERNMOST TIP OF THE NEGEV TRIANGLE WHICH IS THE NEAREST JEWISH POSITION TO MOUNT SINAI, WHERE THE LAW WAS GIVEN--ONLY A COUPLE OF BUILDINGS AND (TWO WORDS DELETED BY CENSOR) TRACK ROAD.

BUT THESE ARE (ONE WORD DELETED BY CENSOR) IN JEWISH HANDS.

THE ROAD LEADS FROM AQABA IN TRANS-JORDAN ACROSS THE 15-MILE WIDE JEWISH SOUTHERN TIP OF THE NEGEV INTO EGYPTIAN SINAI, THENCE VIA NEKHL THROUGH MITLA PASS TO SUEZ.

ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN HAVE BEEN ISSUING POLITE OFFICIAL STATEMENTS THAT SO FAR AS THEY KNEW BRITISH TROOPS FROM THE AQABA GARRISON HAD NOT TRANSGRESSED UPON THIS TERRITORY.

ACTUALLY THEY KNOW DIFFERENTLY. THE BEST INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE BRITISH FOR SOME TIME HAD USED A CUT-ACROSS ROAD LINKING THEIR AQABA POSITIONS WITH SUEZ.

BUT THEY WERE NOT THERE WHEN JEWS TOOK OVER BY MEANS WHICH CANNOT HERE BE DESCRIBED, BUT WHICH INVOLVED THE USE OF SOME OF THE MOST MODERN EQUIPMENT AND TACTICS NOT DISSIMILAR TO THOSE THE WESTERN ALLIES USED IN SOME PHASES OF THEIR MOVEMENTS IN HOLLAND.

NOT A SHOT WAS FIRED IN OCCUPYING THE DRENCHED GRAVEL COAST.

BOTH SIDES APPARENTLY HAD TAKEN CONSIDERABLE LAST-MINUTE PRECAUTIONS TO MAKE SURE ANY SUCH CLASH WOULD BE AVOIDED.

THE BRITISH WERE WITHDRAWN TIGHTLY INTO THEIR GARRISON ZONE AT AQABA IN TRANS-JORDAN TERRITORY. THIS MIGHT HAVE BEEN ACCELERATED BY FEARS STEMMING FROM AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN'S CAPITAL, AND ARAB LEGION REPORTS THAT A STRONG JEWISH TANK BRIGADE HAD MOVED DOWN WADI EL ARAB FROM SODOM AT THE SOUTHERN END OF THE DEAD SEA TO THE MOUNTAIN FRINGE JUST INLAND FROM AQABA PORT.

(TEN WORDS DELETED BY CENSOR) BUT THE ROAD, AT LEAST UNTIL IT TWISTS THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS AND DROPS INTO AQABA, IS JUST INSIDE ISRAELI TERRITORY. AND ALL OFFICIAL SPOKESMEN HERE HAVE EMPHASIZED THAT WHATEVER TROOP MOVEMENTS WERE GOING ON ANYWHERE IN ISRAEL THEY WERE IN NO WAY TRANSGRESSING ACROSS FRONTIERS.

(TWENTY WORDS DELETED BY CENSOR) WHETHER THERE WAS FIGHTING INVOLVED IN ANY OF THE MOVEMENTS CONNECTED WITH THE JEWISH OCCUPATION OF EILAT IS A MATTER OF DEFINITION.

AMMAN REPORTS SAID THERE WERE REPEATED AND CONTINUING SKIRMISHES ALONG THE WADI EL ARAB ROAD AREA AND NORTHWEST OF AQABA (WHICH WOULD BE IN ISRAELI TERRITORY).

A MILITARY SPOKESMAN HERE SAID THERE HAD BEEN NO CLASHES. FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARETT (FORMERLY SHERTOK) SAID THERE WERE NO CLASHES BUT DESCRIBED AN INCIDENT SIX DAYS AGO IN WHICH HE SAID A TRANS-JORDAN PATROL ENCOUNTERED INSIDE ISRAELI TERRITORY FIRED A FEW DESULTORY SHOTS BEFORE WITHDRAWING.

THERE MIGHT HAVE BEEN OTHER SUCH SCRAPS. IF SO, THE DETAILS ARE NOT KNOWN HERE. BUT THEY DID NOT TAKE PLACE ON THE GRAVEL COAST WHERE ISRAEL INTENDS ONE DAY TO BUILD A NEW PORT OF HER OWN.

THE SITUATION SURROUNDING EVENTS AOLQBA IN THE LAST WEEK HAS BEEN TENSE, WITH CHARGE AND DENIAL FOVLOWING EACH OTHER IN PROFUSION. YESTERDAY THE BRITISH ORDERED REINFORCEMENTS TO AQABA, THE ONLY REAL PORT ON THIS GULF, WHICH OPENS TO THE RED SEA, AND TRANS-JORDAN'S ONLY WATER OUTLET.

LONDON DISPATCHES PICTURED BRITISH OFFICIALDOM AS VIEWING THE SITUATION WITH GRAVE CONCERN, ALTHOUGH ISRAEL PERSISTENTLY DENIED ANY INTENTION OF ATTACKING OR TRANSGRESSING. NEITHER BRITAIN NOR TRANS-JORDAN, HER ALLY, RECOGNIZE ISRAEL'S CLAIM TO THE SOUTHERN WEDGE OF THE NEGEV. BRITISH TROOPS ARE AT AQABA AT TRANS-JORDAN'S REQUEST.

R.H.CROSSMAN, A LABOR MEMBER OF THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT, SAID AFTER A RECENT VISIT TO ISRAEL THAT THE NEW JEWISH STATE INTENDS TO ESTABLISH ITS OWN PORT ON THE RED SEA TO AID IN PLANNED ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE DESERT REGION.

DR. RALPH J.BUNCHE, THE ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE ADVISED THE SECURITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY THAT HIS OBSERVERS HAD GIVEN HIM NO VERIFICATION THAT ANY FIGHTING HAD TAKEN PLACE AROUND AQABA, AS REPORTED FROM AMMAN.

HE SAID HE HAD SENT NOTES TO BOTH ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN CALLING ON THEM "TO PERMIT NO SITUATION TO DEVELOP WHICH WOULD IN ANY WAY JOEPARDIZE THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS NOW IN PROGRESS BETWEEN THEM." ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN DELEGATIONS, NOW NEGOTIATING AN ARMISTICE AT RHODES UNDER BUNCHE'S EYE, SIGNED A CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT FOR ALL OF PALESTINE FRIDAY, PLEDGING THEMSELVES TO DO NO SHOOTING.

MANDALAY A CITY OF NEARLY 200,000 ABOUT 500 MILES NORTH OF RANGOON, WAS THE CAPITAL OF BURMESE KINGS FROM 1857 TO 1885 WHEN KING THIBAW SURRENDERED TO BRITAIN.
CONCERNING THE YENANGYUANG CONFERENCE, INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE PVO LEADER, BO PO KUN, WAS FLYING TO THE OIL TOWN 300 MILES NORTH-WEST OF RANGOON TO LEAD THE DISCUSSIONS. PVO BANDS OCCUPIED THE TOWN LAST WEEK.

MAR 13 1949

IF, HOWEVER, THE COMMUNISTS STICK TO THEIR PRESENT TERMS AMOUNTING TO FULL UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF THE GOVERNMENT, THE AMERICAN ATTITUDE COULD CHANGE. NANKING-XXX REDS

THE NATIONALIST MILITARY PERFORMANCE IN THE PAST LEAVES OPEN TO QUESTION WHETHER AID--EVEN IF GIVEN AND EVEN IF IT COULD ARRIVE IN TIME--WOULD MAKE ANY IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.

IN ANY CASE, THE YANGTZE VALLEY WITH ITS GREAT CITIES IS THE ONLY AREA REMAINING IN GOVERNMENT HANDS THAT WOULD BE CAPABLE OF SUPPORTING A LARGE-SCALE MILITARY EFFORT. THUS THE URGENCY OF LI'S EFFORT TO CONTROL THE ARMY.

NIGHT LEAD CHINESE (260)

BY SEYMOUR TOPPING

NANKING, MARCH 12-(AP)-GEN. HO YING-CHIN GOT LEGISLATIVE APPROVAL AS PREMIER OF NATIONALIST CHINA TODAY.

THE 60-YEAR-OLD FRIEND OF ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN IS EXPECTED TO FLY TO NANKING FROM HANGCHOW SUNDAY AND BEGIN FORMATION OF A CABINET

THE GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS TO ARRANGE PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN STALLED BY LACK OF A CABINET SINCE PREMIER SUN FO AND HIS ADMINISTRATION RESIGNED TUESDAY.

WHILE HO IS ON THE COMMUNISTS' LIST OF "WAR CRIMINALS," AS ARE MOST OTHER GOVERNMENT LEADERS, HE HAS INFLUENCE WITH SOUTHERN NATIONALIST MILITARY MEN. THIS IS EXPECTED TO STRENGTHEN ACTING PRESIDENT LI'S AUTHORITY TO SPEAK FOR THAT PART OF CHINA STILL HELD BY THE GOVERNMENT.

LI HAS BEEN INVITING VARIOUS LOCAL LEADERS TO NANKING IN EFFORTS TO WIN SUPPORT, BUT IS STILL MEETING RESISTANCE, ESPECIALLY IN THE SOUTH.

THE GOVERNMENT MACHINERY, WHICH ALMOST DISINTEGRATED AFTER PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK "RETIRED" LAST JAN. 21, IS SLOWLY BEGINNING TO FUNCTION AGAIN.

(WRITING FROM CANTON, WHERE SUN FO MOVED HIS CABINET AND MUCH OF THE GOVERNMENT FEB. 5, AP CORRESPONDENT JAMES FLOOD SAID THERE WAS LITTLE EVIDENCE THAT THE SOUTHERN CONSERVATIVES WERE MAKING PROGRESS IN OPPOSITION TO LI'S PEACE GOVERNMENT.

(FLOOD NOTED THAT SUN, BY RETURNING TO NANKING AND RESIGNING, ALREADY HAD LOST ONE POLITICAL BATTLE AND WAS NOW ATTEMPTING TO RETAIN CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT'S PEACE COMMITTEE, WHICH HE STILL HEADS.

(FRIENDS PREDICTED SUN WOULD RETURN TO CANTON IF HE FAILED TO BLOCK THE GOVERNMENT'S ATTEMPTS AT "HONORABLE SURRENDER" TO THE REDS. CANTON QUARTERS CONSIDERED IT DOUBTFUL, HOWEVER, THAT SUN WOULD ATTEMPT OR BE ABLE TO FORM A SEPARATIST GOVERNMENT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 13-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT A "PROVISIONAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT" HAD BEEN ORGANIZED IN THE AREA DIRECTLY NORTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER--THE LAST REGION CAPTURED FROM THE NATIONALISTS.

MAR 13 1949

THE BROADCAST, HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, SAID THE GOVERNMENT, CONTROLLING 50,000,000 PERSONS NORTH OF THE YANGTZE AND SOUTH OF THE LUNGHAI RAILWAY, WAS CREATED MARCH 7.

THE ONE-EYED COMMUNIST GEN. LIU PO-CHENG, WHO HAD A LARGE PART IN CONQUERING THE REGION, WAS LISTED AS ONE OF 21 GOVERNMENT COUNCILMEN.

BY HAROLD K. MILKS (430)

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDING IN NANKING, NOW ON HOME LEAVE)

SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 13-(AP)-FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS IN CHINA EXPECT A FUTURE OF STRINGENT CENSORSHIP--OR WORSE.

WORKING REPORTERS IN THAT WAR-TORN NATION FOUND IT HARD GOING DURING THE YEARS IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE JAPANESE WAR, DESPITE A NATIONALIST POLICY WHICH STOPPED FAR SHORT OF ACTUAL CENSORSHIP BUT REARED ITS BARRIERS AT THE SOURCES OF INFORMATION.

MAR 13 1949

NOW THE COMMUNIST PROGRAM OF CONTROL AND SUPPRESSION ALREADY HAS ELIMINATED INDEPENDENT COVERAGE FROM ALL AREAS IN RED HANDS.

WITH THE EFFORTS TOWARDS A NEGOTIATED PEACE, THIS TREND IS RAPIDLY INFILTRATING ACROSS THE YANGTZE INTO NATIONALIST CHINA. GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES HAVE STARTED TIGHTENING CONTROLS ON BOTH DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN NEWSMEN.

IF PEIPING IS AN EXAMPLE, FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS WILL BE ABLE TO FUNCTION IN COMMUNIST CHINA ONLY WITH THE GREATEST DIFFICULTY, IF AT ALL. IT IS GENERALLY BELIEVED AMONG INFORMED OBSERVERS IN CHINA, HOWEVER, THAT THE COMMUNIST ACTION IN COMPLETELY SILENCING ALL THE 17 FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS IN PEIPING SINCE FEB. 27 WAS DUE TO SOME LOCAL EMERGENCY.

SOME OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT THE BAN RESULTED FROM COMMUNIST FEAR OF CRITICISM WHILE THE REDS WERE ORGANIZING THEIR NEW GOVERNMENT OF NORTH CHINA. OTHERS BELIEVE THE DRASTIC ACTION MAY HAVE BEEN TO PREVENT LEAKAGE OF ANYTHING CONCERNING AN INTERNAL SQUABBLE WITHIN THE COMMUNIST HIGH COMMAND.

IT IS KNOWN THAT THERE HAVE BEEN SOME "GROWING PAINS" IN THE COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION SINCE IT STARTED OUT TO DIGEST ITS LARGE TERRITORIAL CONQUESTS.

MAR 13 1949

THE COMMUNIST LEADERSHIP MAY HAVE DECIDED TO SILENCE THE CORRESPONDENTS SO THE WORLD AND THE PEOPLE AT HOME ALIKE WOULD KNOW NOTHING ABOUT SUCH DIFFICULTIES UNTIL THEY WERE SETTLED.

WHATEVER THE REASONS, INDEPENDENT NEWS REPORTING FROM COMMUNIST CHINA CEASED FEB. 27. IT HAS NOT BEEN RESUMED.

THERE ARE MANY INDICATIONS THAT SIMILAR RESTRICTIONS MAY BE APPLIED THROUGHOUT THE NATION IF A NEGOTIATED PEACE IS ACHIEVED.

NATIONALIST LEADERS HAVE PROFESSED TO SUPPORT FREEDOM OF THE PRESS. SOME OF THEM ACTUALLY HAVE PRACTICED IT, BUT NOW DEMANDS FOR MUZZLING THE PRESS HAVE BECOME GENERAL.

IN SHANGHAI, HIGH MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS HAVE DEMANDED CURBS ON WHAT THEY CALL "FALSE REPORTING" BY FOREIGNERS. THEY REFERRED PARTICUARLY TO STORIES ON GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CONTINUED MEDDLING IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS SINCE HIS "RETIREMENT." YET THIS ACTIVITY OF CHIANG HAS DRAWN ATTENTION NOT ONLY OF FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS, BUT OF ACTING PRESIDENT LI-TSUNG-JEN HIMSELF.

FOREIGN NEWSMEN IN CHINA GENERALLY HAVE ADOPTED A "WAIT AND SEE" POLICY. MOST OF THEM TAKE THE VIEW THAT THEY WILL REMAIN AND WORK IF PERMITTED TO DO SO.

MAR 13 1949

IN ANY EVENT, EVEN IN CASE OF A COMPLETE COMMUNIST VICTORY, NO WHOLESALE WITHDRAWL OF CORRESPONDENTS FROM CHINA IS EXPECTED UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THERE IS A DEFINITI ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE IRON CURTAIN IS BEING RUNG DOWN.

SEOUL,KOREA,MARCH 12-(AP)-FEARFUL OF COMMUNIST NORTH KOREA, PRESIDENT OSYNGMAN RHEE IS SENDING A PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE TO WASHINGTON TO SEEK HELP IN DOUBLING THE PRESENT 50,000-MAN SOUTH KOREAN ARMY.

CHOUGH PYUNG OK, FORMER NATIONAL POLICE DIRECTOR, IS SCHEDULED TO TAKE OFF FOR WASHINGTON MONDAY IN QUEST OF ARMS AND OTHER EQUIPMENT.

CLOSE ASSOCIATES OF THE SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT SAID CHOUGH WOULD PRESENT THE BELIEF THAT THE PRESENT VAST DISCREPANCY BETWEEN THE NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN FORCES INVITED INVASION OF THE SOUTH BY THE SOVIET-SPONSORED NORTHERN REGIME.

PRESIDENT RHEE HIMSELF HAS SAID PREVIOUSLY THAT ONLY THE PRESENCE OF A TOKEN AMERICAN FORCE IN THE SOUTH AND THE CURRENT VISIT OF THE UNITED NATIONS KOREAN COMMISSION HAS DETERRED THE NORTH FROM ATTACK.

NORTH KOREAN ARMED STRENGTH HAS BEEN ESTIMATED AT 200,000 TO 300,000. THE SOUTH HAS 50,000 MEN ARMED PARTLY WITH AMERICAN AND PARTLY WITH OLD JAPANESE WEAPONS.

CHOUGH IS TO SEEK ARMS FOR 50,000 MORE, PLUS EQUIPMENT FOR A RESERVE OF ANOTHER 50,000. IN ADDITION, SOUTH KOREA HAS A POLICE FORCE ALMOST AS LARGE AS THE ARMY.

PERSONS IN PRESIDENT RHEE'S CONFIDENCE SAID CHOUGH WAS EXPECTED TO ARGUE FOR EQUIPMENT ON THESE POINTS:

1. REHABILITATION OF THE AMERICAN-SPONSORED REPUBLIC'S ECONOMY WITH ECA HELP CAN SUCCEED ONLY IF THE PEOPLE FEEL SECURE AGAINST INVASION;

2. AMERICAN TROOPS--NOW REDUCED TO A REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM--WOULD NOT BE NEEDED IN KOREA IF THE REPUBLIC'S OWN ARMY WERE STRONG ENOUGH TO GUARANTEE SECURITY; AND

3. DEVELOPMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF--WHICH WAS CREATED LAST AUGUST--IS BEING THWARTED BY COMMUNIST PRESSURES BOTH FROM THE NORTH AND IN THE SOUTH.

RESULTS OF THESE PRESSURES ARE EVIDENT. POLICE BOXES IN SEOUL AND ELSEWHERE THROUGH THE SOUTH ARE HEAVILY SANDBAGGED. HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS TRAVEL WITH AS MANY AS FOUR ACCOMPANYING VEHICLES FULL OF ARMED GUARDS.

SEOUL STUDENTS ARE ORGANIZED IN A HOME DEFENSE CORPS TO COMBAT RED INFILTRATION IN THE SCHOOLS.

KILLING AND RIOTING BY COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS ARE REPORTED FROM REMOTE AREAS OF THE SOUTH ALMOST EVERY DAY.

GUAM, MARCH 12-(AP)-THE UPPER HOUSE OF GUAM'S CONGRESS JOINED THE LOWER HOUSE TODAY IN A "STRIKE" STEMMING FROM A ROW WITH THE NAVAL GOVERNOR OVER THE CONGRESS' AUTHORITY.

THE LOWER HOUSE--THE ASSEMBLY--ADJOURNED MARCH 5 BECAUSE IT WAS NOT PERMITTED TO ARREST A RECALCITRANT WITNESS IN AN ECONOMIC INQUIRY.

THE GOVERNOR, REAR ADM. CHARLES A. POWNALL, CALLED A JOINT SESSION TODAY TO EXPLAIN HIS ATTITUDE AND TO URGE RESUMPTION OF WORK.

ONLY THE 15-MEMBER UPPER HOUSE ANSWERED THE CALL, AND AFTER HEARING POWNALL IT TOO VOTED TO ADJOURN.

POWNALL SAID HE HAD VETOED A BILL RELATING TO SUBPOENA OF WITNESSES BECAUSE IT WAS INEFFECTIVE. HE SAID A NEW BILL SINCE HAD BEEN DRAWN BY THE ISLAND'S ATTORNEY GENERAL AND WAS READY FOR CONSIDERATION WHEN THE LOWER HOUSE ADJOURNED.

AN ASSEMBLY SPOKESMAN SAID THE WHOLE ISSUE WAS THE CONGRESS' DEMAND FOR CLARIFICATION OF GUAM'S STATUS BY THE U.S. CONGRESS. AN UPPER HOUSE SPOKESMAN, VAINLY OPPOSING ADJOURNMENT, SAID IT WOULD "HURT THE PEOPLE" AND THE GUAMANIAN CONGRESS WOULD "LOSE EVERYTHING."

THE GOVERNOR DECLINED COMMENT ON POSSIBLE FUTURE ACTION.

(ADVANCE)...QUEBEC, MARCH 13--(AP)-LARGE STEEL INTERESTS IN THE U.S. ARE SHOWING NEW INTEREST IN THE BLEAK, RUGGED DEPTHS OF ORE-WEALTHY UNGAVA.

MAR 13 1949

GEOLOGISTS SAY THIS NORTHEASTERN QUEBEC AREA, NEAR THE LABRADOR BORDER, IS THE LEAST KNOWN IN NORTH AMERICA, APART FROM ARCTIC ISLANDS.

DISCOVERY OF AN IMMENSE BED OF HIGH-GRADE IRON ORE, "THE LABRADOR TROUGH," SENT FIVE MINING COMPANIES INTO THE SUB-ARCTIC BARRENLAND DURING THE LAST SEVEN YEARS. NOW U.S.STEEL INTERESTS HOPE UNGAVA

30.24- 1703

MAY BE THE ANSWER TO A THORNY PROBLEM:

WHERE WILL AMERICA GET IRON ORE WHEN MINNESOTA'S ONCE-GREAT MESABI RANGE PETERS OUT?

MAR 13 1949

U.S.STEEL INTERESTS STRUCK OUT TO FIND THE ANSWER AFTER UNEARTHING REPORTS BY GEOLOGISTS ROBERT BELL AND A.P. LOW, WHO BEFORE 1900 SURVEYED PARTS OF NORTHEASTERN QUEBEC FOR THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

APPARENTLY THE FIRST GEOLOGIST TO REACH UNGAVA, LOW COULD SCARCELY HELP FINDING ORE. ITS PREVENT 300,000,000 TONS ARE MOSTLY RICH, SURFACE ORE THAT CAN BE SCOOPED UP WITH A MECHANICAL SHOVEL. HOW MUCH MORE THERE IS, NO ONE KNOWS.

EARLIEST MENTION OF MINERAL DEPOSITS IN LABRADOR CAME FROM THE INDIANS. THE FRENCH APPARENTLY BELIEVED THE INDIAN CLAIMS BECAUSE MINERAL RIGHTS WERE RESERVED FOR THE KING OF FRANCE IN ALL LAND CONCESSIONS GRANTED LATER BY THE FRENCH GOVERNORS.

SPANISH, DUTCH, ENGLISH AND FRENCH IN TURN OPENED SETTLEMENTS ON THE JAGGED, ROCKY OUTER RIM OF UNGAVA--BUT NONE APPEAR TO HAVE PENETRATED ITS FORBIDDING INTERIOR.

THE IDEA OF TAKING ADVANTAGE OF NATURAL RIVER ROUTES TO THE INTERIOR FINALLY STRUCK H.Y.HIND, A PROFESSOR, AND IN 1862 HE MADE A VOYAGE BY CANOE.

HIND'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE AREA IS REFLECTED IN THE FACT THAT A PROJECTED 360-MILE RAILWAY BY THE QUEBEC NORTH SHORE AND LABRADOR RAILWAY AT A COST OF $100,000,000 WILL FOLLOW APPROXIMATELY THE ROUTE HE MAPPED OUT.

Lake Success, March 10 -(ap)- Polish delegate Juliusz Katz-Suchy today charged the united states was attempting to reduce trade between east and western europe. He urged the U.N. economic and social council to study "restrictive measures" to east-west trade which he claimed were brought about by the marshall plan.

The polish delegate contended the united states had applied "discrimatory measures in trade and credits against the U.S.S.R. and the countries of the people's democracies aimed at influencing the internal policy and foreign policy of these states as well as to increase the dependence of the marshall plan countries on the united states."

Katz-Suchy asked the council's economic commission for europe to study the alleged restrictions. No immediate action was taken. A similar resolution was defeated in the general assembly at paris.

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 10-(AP)-J.H.VAN ROYEN TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY THE DUTCH STILL WANT TO HOLD ROUND TABLE TALKS MARCH 12 ON INDONESIA.

THE DUTCH U.N. DELEGATE PREDICTED THAT WITHIN 12 WEEKS AFTER THE HAGUE PARLEYS OPEN HOLLAND COULD SURRENDER SOVEREIGNTY OVER INDONESIA.

"FROM THAT MOMENT ONWARD," HE SAID, "RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE AFFAIRS OF INDONESIA WOULD REST WITH THE INDONESIANS. THEY WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ELECTIONS, THE MAINTENANCE OF LAW AND ORDER, ETC. WE WOULD BE PREPARED TO CONTINUE TO RENDER THEM ASSISTANCE FOR A SHORT WHILE BUT ONLY IF EXPRESSLY REQUESTED TO DO SO."

VAY ROYEN SAID THE NETHERLANDS AGREED WITH THE OBJECTIVES OF THE COUNCIL'S JAN. 28 RESOLUTION, BUT FELT THE DUTCH PLAN WOULD ACHIEVE THE SAME END SOONER.

MAR 13 1949

THE DELEGATE TOLD THE COUNCIL THAT THE DUTCH, AS REQUESTED, HAD ORDERED THE UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS HELD ON BANGKA ISLAND.

"THEY ARE, THEREFORE, FREE TO LEAVE THEIR PRESENT RESIDENCE AND RETURN TO JAVA, SUMATRA, OR GO ABROAD IF THEY WISH," HE SAID.

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THEY WOULD BE SUBJECT TO "CERTAIN LIMITATIONS OF TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE WHICH STILL APPLY TO EVERYONE IN INDONESIA IN REGARD TO THE PARTICULAR AREAS UNDER MILITARY CONTROL."

VAN ROYEN SAID THE DUTCH HAD NOT COMPLIED WITH THE COUNCIL'S REQUEST THAT THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT BE RESTORED AT THE FORMER CAPITAL--JOGJAKARTA. HE INDICATED THAT THIS WOULD NOT BE DONE.

THE DELEGATE SAID THE NETHERLANDS HAD "SERIOUS OBJECTIONS" TO THIS POINT, MAINLY BECAUSE RESTORATION "WOULD INEVITABLY BE CONSIDERED THROUGHOUT INDONESIA AS A VISIBLE SYMBOL OF A VERY GREAT SUCCESS OF THE REPUBLIC."

VAN ROYEN SAID SUCH A MOVE MIGHT HAVE GRAVE REPERCUSSIONS AND CAUSE INDONESIAN FEDERALISTS WHO HAVE BEEN COOPERATING WITH THE DUTCH TO FEEL THEY HAD BEEN BETRAYED.

EARLIER, VAN ROYEN SAID HIS COUNTRY FINDS IT "IMPOSSIBLE" TO COMPLY WITH COUNCIL ORDERS TO RESTORE THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO POWER. HE ADDED THAT IF THE LEADERS WENT BACK, THEY WOULD IMMEDIATELY AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO START SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY AND INTENSIFY THE GUERRILLA WARFARE."

BRIG. GEN. CARLOS P.ROMULO OF THE PHILIPPINES TOLD THE COUNCIL ITS DECISIONS IN THE INDONESIAN CASE ARE BEING "CIRCUMVENTED, IGNORED OR VIOLATED BY SMOOTH DOUBLE-TALK, OUTRIGHT DEFIANCE OR THE ALL-TOO-FAMILIAR TACTIC OF THE FAIT ACCOMPLI."

HE SAID THE RECORD SHOWS THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA HAS SCRUPULOUSLY CARRIED OUT THE COUNCIL'S DECISIONS.

ROMULO ATTENDED THE RECENT MEETING IN NEW DELHI OF 19 ASIAN COUNTRIES INTERESTED IN THE INDONESIAN CONFLICT. HE TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL THE 19 COUNTRIES WERE GRAVELY CONCERNED OVER THE SITUATION.

THE PHILIPPINE DELEGATE SAID THE COUNCIL ORDER FOR RELEASE OF THE EXILED REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAS BEEN IGNORED BY DEVIOUS METHODS.

HE SAID THE DUTCH ALSO HAVE REFUSED TO RELINQUISH THE JOGJAKARTA AREA TO THE REPUBLIC BECAUSE THE DUTCH ARE ORGANIZING IT INTO ANOTHER SEPARATE PUPPET STATE IN CENTRAL JAVA.

"THE COUNCIL'S PROPOSALS FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FEDERAL, INDEPENDENT, AND SOVEREIGN UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA HAVE BEEN COMPLETELY IGNORED," ROMULO SAID. "INSTEAD, THE DUTCH AUTHORITIES HAVE TRIED TO PROCEED UNILATERALLY TO SUBSTITUTE FOR THOSE PROPOSALS THEIR OWN PLAN OF HOLDING A ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE AT THE HAGUE ATTENDED BY PARTIES INVITED BY THE DUTCH FOR THE PURPOSE, OSTENSIBLY, OF 'EXPEDITING' THE FORMATION OF THE U.S.I. (UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.)"

ROMULO CHARGED, HOWEVER, THAT THE ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE CALLED BY THE DUTCH WOULD SERVE MERELY AS A RUBBER STAMP TO GIVE AN ASPECT OF LEGALITY TO A FINISHED SCHEME OF THE NETHERLANDS.

HE SAID THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT WAS TRYING TO TAKE THE QUESTION OUT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S HANDS AND LEAVE IT IN THE HANDS OF THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT TO SETTLE ACCORDING TO PRECONCEIVED SCHEMES AND PURPOSES."

MAR 13 1949

NEW YORK, MARCH 10-(AP)-AN INDONESIAN REPUBLIC SPOKESMAN DENIED TODAY A DUTCH ASSERTION THAT INDONESIAN ECONOMY HAD COLLAPSED BECAUSE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM AID HAD BEEN WITHHELD.

"FOR THE COLLAPSE OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMY, ONLY THE DUTCH CAN BE BLAMED, ESPECIALLY WITH THEIR LATEST MILITARY ACTION AGAINST THE REPUBLIC," DR. D. SOEMITRO SAID. HE IS FINANCIAL AND TRADE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE REPUBLIC.

HE SAID THE DUTCH HAD USED ERP AID TO INDONESIA "AS A POLITICAL WEAPON TO REESTABLISH THEIR COLONIAL EMPIRE."

"THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA HAS BEEN DEPRIVED COMPLETELY OF FUNDS WHICH WERE ALLOCATED TO THE DUTCH FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECONSTRUCTION IN INDONESIA," HE SAID. "AT THE SAME TIME THE DUTCH WERE RECEIVING THIS AID THEY IMPOSED ON THE REPUBLIC A TOTAL BLOCKADE. THE POPULATION OF THE REPUBLIC HAS BEEN SUFFERING FOR YEARS FROM SHORTAGES OF BASIC NECESSITIES."

LAKE SUCCESS, MARCH 13-(AP)-SUPPORT FOR A NEW CANADIAN PLAN TO END THE POLITICAL DEADLOCK IN THE INDONESIAN CASE WAS REPORTED DEVELOPING TODAY AMONG U.N.SECURITY COUNCIL DELEGATIONS.

VARIOUS DELEGATIONS ARE SAID TO BE READY TO BACK CANADA'S SUGGESTION THAT THE U.N.COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA SHOULD TRY TO CLEAR THE WAY FOR A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE TO SETTLE THE QUESTION. THE 11-NATION COUNCIL RESUMES DEBATE ON THE NETHERLANDS-INDONESIAN DISPUTE TOMORROW.

THE NETHERLANDS STARTED THE IDEA OF A ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE BUT THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC REFUSED TO ATTEND BECAUSE ITS EXILED LEADERS HAVE NOT BEEN RESTORED TO THEIR CAPITAL AS DEMANDED IN A SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION OF JAN. 28.
